First State Superannuation Act 1992 No 100

New South Wales

An Act to establish a superannuation scheme for certain employees in the public sector; and for other purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the First State Superannuation Act 1992.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Note—

This Act affects employees and employers in respect of periods before the Act commenced, as set out in Schedule 3 (Savings, transitional and other provisions).

3 Definitions

The Dictionary at the end of this Act contains definitions of words and expressions used in this Act.

3A Meaning of “salary or wages”

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the salary or wages of a member is:
 - (a) in the case of a member who is not an executive officer, the total of:
 - (i) earnings in respect of ordinary hours of work, and
 - (ii) earnings consisting of over-award payments, shift-loading or commission, or
 - (b) in the case of a member who is an executive officer, the salary or wages as last nominated or changed in accordance with this section.
- (2) An amount of salary or wages for the purposes of this Act must be nominated to the employer of a member who is an executive officer by the member on, or as soon as practicable after, becoming a member or being appointed as an executive officer (whichever occurs first). An amount may also be nominated to the employer by the member on, or as soon as practicable after, being reappointed, or appointed to another position, as an employee.

- (3) The amount nominated is to be not less than:
- (a) the monetary remuneration payable to the member at the date of nomination, or
 - (b) the maximum contribution base, within the meaning of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 of the Commonwealth, applicable at that time,
- whichever is the lower.
- (4) The amount nominated is to be not more than the total value of the remuneration package paid to the member (less the cost of providing employer's contributions to superannuation and any performance-related incentive payment), expressed as an annual rate.
- (5) If the member fails to nominate an amount of salary or wages within 28 days after first becoming a member or being appointed as an executive officer (whichever occurs first) or within such further period as FTC may allow, the member is taken to have nominated an amount of salary or wages that is equal to the monetary remuneration payable to the member at the end of the applicable period.
- (6) A member who is an executive officer may, from time to time, by notice to the member's employer elect to reduce the amount of salary or wages nominated under this section, but not so that the amount is less than the monetary remuneration payable to the member at the date of the election.
- (7) A member who is an executive officer may, from time to time, by notice to the member's employer elect to increase the amount of salary or wages nominated under this section, but not so as to increase the amount nominated by a percentage of that amount that is more than the percentage by which the remuneration package of the member has increased since the amount of the salary or wages was last nominated or changed.
- (8) An employer must notify FTC of a nomination or election under this section. Any such nomination or election takes effect on the date of notification to FTC or on such other date as FTC may determine with the consent of the member concerned.
- (9) Nothing in this section requires the nominated amount of salary or wages to be increased if, because of a variation in the remuneration package of a member or in the proportions of the remuneration package comprising monetary remuneration and employment benefits of the member, the amount of salary or wages as last nominated or changed for the purposes of this section is less than the monetary remuneration of the member.

4 Notes

Matter appearing under the heading “Note” does not form part of this Act.

Part 2 Members of the Scheme

Note—

This Part sets out the persons who are to be members of the Scheme. Persons who are made members of the Scheme by this Act are generally employees in the New South Wales public sector but categories of employees who are members may be changed by order of the Governor. The Scheme also allows other public sector employees covered by other pre-existing public sector superannuation schemes to make voluntary employee contributions to the Scheme and to become members, despite being members of other schemes.

5 Members of the Fund

- (1) An employee of an employer is a full member of the Fund, unless the employee is excluded from full membership under section 8 or elects to make other arrangements under section 10.
- (2) An employee of an employer who is not a full member may become an optional member of the Fund by making an election under the trust deed and, on making such an election, continues to be such a member while the election is in force.
- (2A) The spouse of an employee or a person who is a member of the Parliamentary superannuation scheme may become an optional member of the Fund if the employee or person makes an election under the trust deed to contribute to the Fund on behalf of his or her spouse and his or her spouse continues to be such a member while the election is in force.
- (3) (Repealed)

5A Employees eligible to contribute to trust deed superannuation schemes

- (1) Despite section 5 (1), an employee who is eligible to contribute to a superannuation scheme established under section 127 of the Superannuation Administration Act 1996 is not a full member of the Fund unless the person notifies his or her employer that the person elects to be a full member.
- (2) Any such employee who so notifies his or her employer is a full member of the Fund.

6 Who is an employer?

- (1) The employers to which this Act applies are:
 - (a) the Crown, the Government or a Minister of the Crown, and
 - (b) the authorities specified in Schedule 1.
- (2) Members of the Police Service are, for the purposes of this Act, taken to be employed in the Police Service by the Crown.

- (3) A person appointed by the Coal Industry Tribunal to be a Local Coal Authority in the State is, for the purposes of this Act, taken to be, while holding office as such an Authority, a person employed by the Joint Coal Board.
- (4) An employee who is employed by the Crown, the Government or a Minister of the Crown is, for the purposes of this Act, taken to be employed by the person or organisation prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

7 Employers may be changed

- (1) Governor may amend Schedule of employers The Governor may by order published in the Gazette amend Schedule 1.
- (2) Provisions relating to orders An order under this section, and any order revoking or varying such an order, may be made:
 - (a) to take effect on and from a day specified in the order, whether or not the day is earlier than the day of publication of the order, and
 - (b) to effect the amendment to which it relates with such limitations as are specified in the amendment, being limitations that do not operate to the prejudice of an existing member.

8 Employees who are excluded from being full members of Fund

- (1) Employees who are not full members The employees set out in Schedule 2 are not eligible to be full members of the Fund.
- (2) Governor may amend Schedule 2 The Governor may by order published in the Gazette amend Schedule 2.
- (3) Provisions relating to orders An order under this section, and any order revoking or varying such an order, may be made:
 - (a) to take effect on and from a day specified in the order, whether or not the day is earlier than the day of publication of the order, and
 - (b) to effect the amendment to which it relates with such limitations as are specified in the amendment, being limitations that do not operate to the prejudice of an existing member.

Note—

The employees set out in Schedule 2 include employees who are members of other State Government superannuation schemes in respect of the same contract of employment and Judges, masters of the Supreme Court, the Solicitor General and the Director of Public Prosecutions.

9 Membership on making conversion election

- (1) An employee who makes a conversion election under Part 3B of the Police Regulation

(Superannuation Act 1906, section 3 (14) of the Police Association Employees (Superannuation) Act 1969 or Part 3B of the Superannuation Act 1916 is, on the election taking effect, a full member of the Fund.

Note—

Under section 5J of the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906 and section 20M of the Superannuation Act 1916, the SAS Trustee Corporation must pay the conversion benefit to FTC as soon as practicable after the conversion election takes effect.

- (2) The salary or wages of an employee who is an executive officer and who becomes a member under this section is, despite any other provision of this Act, taken to be the salary nominated by the employee in the conversion election until another nomination is made under this Act.

10 Members may make other arrangements

- (1) A full member may notify the member's employer that the employer is to meet the employer's obligations in respect of the member under the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 of the Commonwealth by contributing to another complying superannuation fund. The member ceases to be a full member of the Fund on the date written notice is given to FTC by the employer of the contributions to that other fund, or on the date of commencement of those contributions, whichever is the later.
- (2) However, the member may elect to make contributions under the trust deed and is an optional member of the fund on any such election taking effect and while the election is in force.
- (3) An employer must give written notice to FTC if the employer ceases to meet the employer's obligations in respect of an employee under the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 in the manner referred to in subsection (1) and, on such notice being given, the employee is a full member of the Fund.

10A, 11 (Repealed)

12B Contributions for employees who fund their own superannuation

- (1) This section applies to an employee, other than an executive officer, who is employed under a contract under which contributions made by the employer to the employee's superannuation form part of the total remuneration package of the employee and are deducted from the monetary remuneration otherwise payable to the employee.

- (2) An employee to whom this section applies may give his or her employer a written notice requiring the employer to cease to make contributions payable to FTC under section 12 in respect of an amount of salary or wages of the employee that exceeds the maximum contribution base.

account or reserve in the Fund.

25 Transferred members' accounts

- (1) FTC must, on the transfer day, establish in the Fund in accordance with the trust deed an account in respect of each person made a member by this Part.
- (2) The trust deed must provide for each account to have a balance at credit equal to the balance at credit immediately before the transfer day in the account established in the PSES Fund in respect of the person.

- (2) Any such contract or arrangement may be varied or terminated or renewed in the manner provided for by the contract or arrangement or in any other manner permitted by law.
- (3) However, the contract or arrangement may not be terminated solely because of the closure of the former Scheme and the transfer of members to the Fund.
