(b) the exceptions in subsection (1) (a)–(c) are not applicable, the Board may notify the complainant that the Board proposes to divulge the information to a specified person, or in its report, after a specified period.

(3) After the specified period, and despite subsection (1), the Board may divulge the information to the specified person or in its report, unless the complainant withdraws the complaint.

(4) If the Board is satisfied that it is desirable to do so because of the confidential nature of any information provided to the Board for the purposes of an investigation, it may give directions prohibiting or restricting the divulging of the information.

(5) A person must not contravene a direction given under subsection (4).

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (3) A person must not:
 - (a) give to the Board, whether orally or in writing, information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular (unless the person informs the Board of that fact), or

- (6) Subsection (1) does not apply to a complainant in relation to a notice served on the complainant under section 116.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

119 Proceedings for offences

Schedule 4 (Repealed)

Schedule 5 Extended leave for officers etc of Public Service

(Section 100)

1 Officer to be entitled to extended leave after a certain period of service (1979 Act, s 120)

- (1) Subject to this Schedule, an officer is entitled:
 - (a) after service for 10 years, to leave for 2 months on full pay or 4 months on half pay, and
 - (b) after service in excess of 10 years, to:
 - (i) leave as provided by paragraph (a), and
 - (ii) in addition, an amount of leave proportionate to the officer's length of service after 10 years, calculated on the basis of 5 months on full pay, or 10 months on half pay, for 10 years served after service for 10 years.
- (2) For the purpose of calculating the entitlement of a person to extended leave under this clause at any time:
 - (a) service referred to in this clause includes service before the commencement of this Schedule, and
 - (b) there must be deducted from the amount of extended leave to which, but for this paragraph, that person would be entitled:
 - (i) any extended leave, or leave in the nature of extended leave, and
 - (ii) the equivalent, in extended leave, of any benefit instead of extended leave or leave in the nature of extended leave, taken or received by that person before that time, including any such leave taken, or benefit received, by that person in accordance with the Public Service (Amendment) Act 1919 as in force at any time, and
 - (c) the provisions of the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961 have effect.
- (3) Nothing in subclause (2) shall be regarded as authorising, in respect of the same period of leave taken or the same benefit received, a deduction under both subclause (2) (b) and section 3 (7) of the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961.
- (4) If the services of an officer with at least 5 years' service and less than 10 years' service are terminated:
 - (a) by the Crown, the Governor or the appropriate Department Head for any reason other than the officer's serious and intentional misconduct, or
 - (b) by the officer on account of illness, incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity,

the officer is entitled:

(c) for 5 years' service, to 1 month's leave on full pay, and

(d) for service after 5 years, to a proportionate amount of leave on full pay calculated on the basis of 3 months' leave for 15 years' service.

(5) (Repealed)

(6) For the purposes of subclause (1), service includes:

(a) service under the Teaching Services Act 1980, and

(a1) service as an administrative officer under the Police Service Act 1990, and

(b) any period of leave without pay taken before the commencement of the Public Service and Other Statutory Bodies (Extended Leave) Amendment Act 1963, and

(c) in the case of an officer who has completed at least 10 years' service—any period of leave without pay, not exceeding 6 months, taken after that commencement.

(7) In subclause (6) (c), for the purpose of determining whether or not an officer has completed at least 10 years' service, the officer's period of service shall be taken:

(a) to include any period of leave without pay taken before the commencement of the Public Service and Other Statutory Bodies (Extended Leave) Amendment Act 1963, and

(b) to exclude any period of leave without pay taken after that commencement.

(8) For the purposes of subclause (4), service does not include any period of leave without pay whether taken before or after the commencement of the Public Service and Other Statutory Bodies (Extended Leave) Amendment Act 1963.

2 Certain officers to be entitled to be paid a gratuity instead of extended leave (1979 Act, s 121)

(1) An officer who has acquired a right to extended leave with pay under clause 1 is entitled, immediately on the termination of the officer's services, to be paid instead of that leave the money value of the extended leave as a gratuity in addition to any gratuity to which the officer may be otherwise entitled.

(2) Any pension to which any such officer is entitled under the Superannuation Act 1916 commences from and including the date on which the officer's extended leave, if taken, would have commenced.

(3) Any officer may elect, on termination of the officer's services, to be paid the money value of extended leave under subclause (1) or may elect to have the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961 apply to the periods of service for which the leave has accrued.

3 Payment to be made where an officer entitled to extended leave has died (1979 Act, s 122)

(1) If an officer has acquired a right under clause 1 to extended leave with pay and dies before starting it, or after starting it dies before completing it:

- (a) the widow or widower of the officer, or
- (b) if there is no such widow or widower, the children of the officer, or
- (c) if there is no such widow, widower or children, the person who, in the opinion of the appropriate Department Head, was, at the time of the officer's death, a dependent relative of the officer, is entitled to receive the money value of the leave not taken, or not completed, computed at the rate of salary that the officer received at the time of his or her death, less any amount paid to the officer in respect of the leave not taken, or not completed.

(2) If an officer with at least 5 years' service and less than 10 years' service as referred to in clause 1 (4) dies:

- (a) the widow or widower of the officer, or
- (b) if there is no such widow or widower, the children of the officer, or
- (c) if there is no such widow, widower or children, the person who, in the opinion of the appropriate Department Head, was, at the time of the death of the officer, a dependent relative of the officer, is entitled to receive the money value of the leave which would have accrued to the officer had his or her services terminated as referred to in clause 1 (4), computed at the rate of salary that the officer was receiving at the time of his or her death.

(3) If there is a guardian of any children entitled under subclause (1) or (2), the payment to which those children are entitled may be made to that guardian for their maintenance, education and advancement.

(4) If there is no person entitled under subclause (1) or (2) to receive the money value of any leave not taken or not completed by an officer or which would have accrued to an officer, payment in respect of that leave must be made to the officer's personal representatives.

(5) Any payment under this clause is in addition to any payment due under any Act under which superannuation benefits are paid.

- (6) If payment of the money value of leave has been made under this Act, the Crown ceases to be liable for payment of any amount in respect of that leave.

4 Extended leave for temporary employees

- (1) In this Schedule, a reference to an officer includes a reference to a temporary employee.
- (2) If the period of leave to which a temporary employee is entitled under this Schedule exceeds the period for which the temporary employee is employed under this Act, the balance of that period of leave may be granted during subsequent periods of employment in the Public Service if each subsequent period of employment commences on the termination of a previous period of employment in the Public Service.

5 Calculation of money value of extended leave

For the purpose of calculating the amount of an entitlement under clause 2 or 3, the money value of extended leave accrued or payable to a chief executive officer or senior executive officer is to be determined on the basis of the officer's notional salary.

Schedule 5A Provisions relating to mobility of public sector employees

(Section 100B)

1 Definitions

- (1) In this Schedule:

employee means a person who is:

- (a) a member of the Public Service, or
- (b) a member of the Education Teaching Service, or
- (c) a member of the Police Service, or
- (d) employed in the service of a declared authority or other statutory body representing the Crown, or
- (e) employed in a position referred to in section 4 (1) (c), or
- (f) employed in any other public sector service.

public sector service means:

- (a) the Public Service, or
- (b) the Education Teaching Service, or
- (c) the Police Service, or

- (d) the service of a declared authority or of a statutory body representing the Crown, or
- (e) the service of either House of Parliament, or the President or Speaker, or the President and the Speaker jointly, or
- (f) any other service of the Crown, or
- (g) the service of a public health organisation within the meaning of the Health Services Act 1997, or
- (h) (Repealed)
- (i) the service of any other person or body constituted by or under an Act or exercising public functions (such as a State owned corporation), being a person or body that is prescribed, or that is of a class prescribed, for the purposes of this paragraph.

(2) A reference in this Schedule to cessation of employment is a reference to the cessation of employment by resignation, retirement or otherwise.

2 Schedule applies despite awards and agreements

This Schedule has effect despite any provision of any award or agreement.

3 Extended (long service) leave

- (1) Each public sector service that is not covered by the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961 is declared to be a State authority for the purposes of that Act.
- (2) A public sector service is regarded as “not covered” by the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961 if service in or with that public sector service would not (in the absence of this clause) be Governmental service under that Act.

4 Annual leave

- (1) This clause is taken to have commenced on 3 May 1993.
- (2) An employee who ceases to be employed in a public sector service and immediately commences employment in another public sector service may elect to be paid the money value of the employee’s accrued annual leave or to retain the entitlement to that accrued annual leave.
- (3) An employee who elects to retain the entitlement to accrued annual leave is taken to have, on commencing employment in the other public sector service, the amount of accrued annual leave to which the employee was entitled immediately before the end of his or her previous employment. This leave is in addition to any annual leave which accrues after that commencement.

(3A) For the purpose of calculating an entitlement under this clause, the money value of accrued annual leave owing to a chief executive officer or senior executive officer is to be determined on the basis of the officer's notional salary.

(4) In this clause:

accrued annual leave means annual leave owing to an employee (but not taken), and includes any such leave accrued because of the operation of this clause.

5 Sick leave

(1) This clause is taken to have commenced on 3 May 1993.

(2) An employee who ceases to be employed in a public sector service and immediately commences employment in another public sector service is taken to have, on commencing that employment, the amount of accrued sick leave to which the employee was entitled before that commencement. This leave is in addition to any sick leave which accrues after that commencement.

(3) The eligibility of an employee for sick leave that includes any period of accrued sick leave is to be determined in accordance with the conditions relating to the granting of sick leave in the employee's current employment.

(4) In this clause:

accrued sick leave means the amount of sick leave to which the employee would have been entitled in the event of illness, and includes any such leave accrued because of the operation of this clause.

6 Maternity leave etc

(1) This clause is taken to have commenced on 3 May 1993.

(2) This clause applies for the purposes of determining whether an employee who ceases to be employed in a public sector service and immediately commences employment in another public sector service is entitled to maternity leave, paternity leave, adoption leave or any other leave (other than extended leave) for which a condition of eligibility is a minimum period of service.

(3) For the purposes of determining an employee's entitlement to leave referred to in this clause:

(a) service with the employee's previous employer is taken to be service with the employee's current employer, if the previous employment was in another public sector service and if that period of service was continuous with the employee's current employment, and

(b) service with any other former employers is taken to be service with the person's current employer, if the service was in other public sector services and the periods of service with those bodies were continuous with each other and the employee's previous employment in a public sector service.

- (4) Except as provided by this clause, the eligibility of an employee for leave referred to in this clause is to be determined in accordance with the conditions applying to that leave in the employee's current employment.
- (5) A reference in this clause to service with a previous or former employer extends to include a reference to any such service before the commencement of this clause.

7 Access to forfeited sick leave—transitional arrangements

- (1) If an employee is eligible for sick leave for any absence from duty but has exhausted his or her sick leave entitlement, the employee's employer may grant to the employee any of the employee's forfeited sick leave as sick leave for the absence.
- (2) An employee's "forfeited sick leave" is the total amount of sick leave that the employee ceased to be entitled to up to the commencement of this clause, being sick leave that he or she would presently be entitled to had clause 5 been in force from when the employee was first employed in a public sector service.
- (3) Once any period of an employee's forfeited sick leave has been granted as sick leave under this clause, it is no longer regarded as forfeited sick leave for the purposes of any further grant of sick leave to the employee under this clause (whether by the same or a different employer).
- (4) For the purposes of this clause, the employer of an employee is the person who exercises the functions of chief executive officer in relation to the public sector service in which the employee is employed (being the appropriate Department Head in the case of a member of the Public Service for example).
- (5) In determining whether or not an employee is entitled to sick leave, all the employee's entitlements to sick leave are to be taken into account, including special sick leave and sick leave to which the employee is entitled by operation of clause 5.
- (6) The Public Employment Office may issue guidelines to employers of employees as to the circumstances in which, and the matters to be taken into account in determining whether, forfeited sick leave should or should not be granted as sick leave under this clause.

8 Funding of leave entitlements

The Treasurer may give directions and issue guidelines requiring the transfer of funds between public sector employers for the purpose of making due allowance and appropriate adjustments for liabilities incurred by reason of the operation of this Schedule and Schedule 5, or liabilities with respect to extended or long service leave.

Schedule 6 Attachment of wages or salary of officers etc of Public Service

(Section 101)

1 Definition etc (1979 Act, s 131 (9), (13))

(1) In this Schedule:

judgment includes a judgment against joint defendants.

(2) This Schedule does not apply in relation to an officer or temporary employee who is an undischarged bankrupt.

2 Salary or wages of officers and temporary employees may be attached (1979 Act, s 131 (1)–(6))

(1) If judgment has been entered in a court against an officer or temporary employee for the payment of a sum of money, the person in whose favour the judgment is entered may serve on the Head of the Department to which the officer or temporary employee belongs:

- (a) a copy of the judgment certified under the hand of the registrar or other proper officer of the court in which the judgment is entered, and
- (b) a statutory declaration stating that the judgment has not been satisfied by the judgment debtor, and setting out the amount due by the judgment debtor under the judgment.

(2) As soon as practicable after the service on a Department Head of a copy of a judgment and a statutory declaration in accordance with this clause, the Department Head must:

- (a) notify the judgment debtor in writing of the service of the copy of the judgment and statutory declaration, and
- (b) require the judgment debtor:
 - (i) to state in writing within a time to be specified by the Department Head whether the judgment has been satisfied, and
 - (ii) if so, to provide evidence that the judgment has been satisfied, and
 - (iii) if the judgment has not been satisfied, to state the amount then due under the judgment.

(3) If the officer or temporary employee fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Department Head that the judgment has been satisfied, the Department Head may:

- (a) from time to time cause to be deducted from any money due to the officer or temporary employee such sums as are, in the Department Head's opinion, necessary to enable the judgment to be satisfied, and

(b) apply those sums in the manner provided by clause 4.

- (4) A deduction must not be made under this clause if it would reduce the amount to be received by the officer or temporary employee to less than a sum per week equivalent to the amount ascertained in accordance with subclause (5).
