the Act means the Crimes (Forensic Procedures) Act 2000.

4 Notes

The explanatory note, table of contents and notes in the text of this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

5 Aboriginal legal aid organisations

For the purposes of the definition of Aboriginal legal aid organisation in section 3 (1) of the Act, the following are prescribed organisations:

Kamilaroi Aboriginal Legal Service

Many Rivers Aboriginal Legal Service

South Eastern Aboriginal Legal Service

Sydney Regional Aboriginal Corporation Legal Service

Western Aboriginal Legal Service

Central Southern Aboriginal Corporation for Management and Accounting Services (sometimes referred to as the Wiradjuri Aboriginal Legal Service)

6 Appropriately qualified persons

For the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of appropriately qualified in section 3 (1) of the Act, a person is qualified to carry out a forensic procedure if the procedure is one the Commissioner of Police has authorised the person in writing (either generally or in a particular case) to carry out.

7 Form of consent—serious indictable offender

For the purposes of section 72 (a) of the Act, the following are the prescribed particulars:

- (a) the name of the serious indictable offender giving consent to the carrying out of the forensic procedure,
- (b) a description of the forensic procedure,
- (c) the name of the police officer who has requested consent to the carrying out of the procedure,
- (d) a statement as to whether or not the police officer has informed the offender (personally or in writing) of the matters set out in section 69 of the Act,
- (e) a statement as to whether or not the offender has been given the opportunity to communicate, or attempt to communicate, with a legal practitioner of the offender's choice.

8 Form of consent—volunteer or volunteer's parent or guardian

For the purposes of section 78 (a) of the Act, the following are the prescribed particulars:

- (a) the name of the person giving consent to the carrying out of the forensic procedure,
- (b) a description of the forensic procedure,
- (c) the name of the police officer who has requested consent to the carrying out of the procedure,
- (d) a statement as to whether or not the police officer has informed the person (personally or in writing) of the matters set out in section 77 of the Act,
- (e) the name of the independent person in whose presence the consent is given.

9 Access to, and disclosure of, information on DNA database system

- (1) For the purposes of section 92 (2) (b) of the Act, a person may access information stored on the DNA database system for the purpose of making it available to the person to whom it relates if:
 - (a) an application in writing to make the information available to the person is made to the responsible person for the DNA database system by or on behalf of the person, and

- (b) before the information is made available, the applicant provides such reasonable proof of identity (if any) as may be required by the responsible person.
- (2) For the purposes of section 109 (2) (b) of the Act, a person may disclose information stored on the DNA database system for the purpose of making it available to the person to whom it relates if:
 - (a) an application in writing to make the information available to the person is made to the responsible person for the DNA database system by or on behalf of the person, and
 - (b) before the information is made available, the applicant provides such reasonable proof of identity (if any) as may be required by the responsible person.

10 Use of information on DNA database system

- (1) For the purposes of section 92 (2) (j) of the Act, the purpose of facilitating the assessment of the validity of a claim of apparent or possible wrongful conviction for a serious indictable offence made by or in relation to a serious indictable offender is a prescribed purpose for which a person authorised by the responsible person for the DNA database system may access information stored on the DNA database system, whether that information relates to the offender or any other person.
- (2) This clause applies whether a person was convicted before or after the commencement of this clause.

11 Disclosure of information

- (1) For the purposes of section 109 (2) (g) of the Act, the purpose of facilitating the assessment by persons or classes of persons authorised by the Minister for Police of the validity of a claim of apparent or possible wrongful conviction for a serious indictable offence made by or in relation to a serious indictable offender is a prescribed purpose for which a person may disclose information stored on the DNA database system, whether that information relates to the offender or any other person.
- (2) This clause applies whether a person was convicted before or after the commencement of this clause.
