Local Courts (Civil Claims) Regulation 2000

New South Wales

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Local Courts (Civil Claims) Regulation 2000.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 1 September 2000.

3 Notes

The explanatory note and table of contents do not form part of this Regulation.

4 Fees

- (1) The fees to be taken in respect of the business of a court are the fees set out in Schedule 1.
- (2) A fee charged under this Regulation for any document or service is payable to the registrar of the court:
 - (a) by the person at whose request the document is filed or the service is rendered, and
 - (b) when the document is filed or the service is rendered.
- (3) However, a registrar who is requested to file a document or render a service:
 - (a) may require any fee for the document or service to be paid before the document is filed or the service is rendered, or
 - (b) may, by order in writing, direct that the whole or any part of such fee be postponed, waived or remitted subject to such conditions (if any) as the registrar thinks fit to impose.

5 Postponement or waiver of fees in certain cases

- (1) The taking of any fee in respect of the business of a court in relation to proceedings involving a pro bono party or legally assisted party is, if the fee is payable by the pro bono party or legally assisted party, to be postponed until judgment is given in the proceedings.

- (2) The fee is not to be taken at all, or if taken must be remitted, if:
- (a) judgment in the proceedings is against the pro bono party or legally assisted party concerned, or
 - (b) judgment is in favour of the pro bono party or legally assisted party, but damages are not awarded (or only nominal damages are awarded) in that party's favour and costs are not awarded in that party's favour.
- (3) A registrar must not refuse to file or issue any document, or render a service, relevant to proceedings merely because, in accordance with this clause, a fee in respect of any business of a court has not been taken on behalf of a pro bono party or legally assisted party to those proceedings.
- (4) For the purposes of this clause:
- (a) a party to proceedings is a pro bono party if he or she is being represented under the pro bono scheme of the Law Society of New South Wales or the pro bono scheme of the New South Wales Bar Association and a legal practitioner acting for the party:
 - (i) certifies in writing to the registrar or Clerk of the Local Court with whom the initiating process is lodged on behalf of the party that the party is being so represented, and
 - (ii) undertakes in writing to the registrar or Clerk to pay the filing fee for that document if, at the conclusion of the proceedings, subclause (2) does not apply, and
 - (b) a party to proceedings is a legally assisted party if he or she is receiving legal assistance through a community legal centre within the meaning of section 48H of the Legal Profession Act 1987.

6 Amendment of Local Courts (Civil Claims) Rules 1988

The Local Courts (Civil Claims) Rules 1988 are amended by omitting Rule 2 of Part 2.
