33 Term of office of members

The members of RIPAC each hold office for a period of 2 years.

34 Membership is honorary

The members of RIPAC are honorary members and no remuneration is payable to them in respect of the duties they perform as members.  - (d) is absent from 2 consecutive meetings of RIPAC of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or in the ordinary course of post, except on leave granted by RIPAC or unless, before the expiration of 4 weeks after the last of those meetings, the member is excused by RIPAC for having been absent from those meetings, or
 - (e) becomes a person who is not eligible to be a member, or
 - (f) is removed from office under subsection (2).
- (2) The Governor may, on the recommendation of RIPAC, remove a member of RIPAC from office for incapacity, incompetence or misbehaviour.
- (3) A member of RIPAC does not vacate office merely because of the withdrawal of his or her nomination by the body that nominated the member.

38 Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of RIPAC

- (1) RIPAC is to elect a Chairperson from among its members. RIPAC may also elect a Deputy Chairperson from among its members. RIPAC may remove a person from office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of RIPAC at any time.
- (2) A member elected as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson holds office as such for 1 year unless the member ceases to hold that office sooner. A member is eligible to be re-elected as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson but is not eligible to serve more than

- (4) To be elected or removed from office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson requires a simple majority of the members present and voting at a meeting of RIPAC at which a quorum is present.
- (5) The Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson does not cease to be a member of RIPAC merely because he or she ceases to be Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson.

39 Member vacancies to be filled

40 Procedure

- (1) RIPAC may regulate its proceedings as it considers appropriate, subject to this section.
- (2) The quorum for a meeting of RIPAC is a majority in number of the members for the time being.
- (3) RIPAC is to meet not less than 4 times a year and of those meetings at least 2 are to be joint meetings with meetings of the Board (with the appropriate quorum of both the Board and RIPAC present). Either RIPAC or the Board can request the other to hold further joint meetings and such a request must be complied with, up to a further 2 joint meetings in a year (without precluding the holding of further joint meetings by agreement).
- (4) Meetings of RIPAC are to be held at the premises of the Board unless the Board approves of a meeting being held elsewhere.
- (5) The Chairperson or, in the absence of the Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson is to preside at a meeting of RIPAC. If neither the Chairperson nor Deputy Chairperson is present at a meeting, the members present may elect one of their number to preside at the meeting. The person presiding at a meeting has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, has a second or casting vote.

(6) A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of RIPAC at which a quorum is present is the decision of RIPAC.

(7) The Board is to provide the administrative support needed for the meetings of RIPAC.

41 Personal liability

A matter or thing done or omitted to be done by RIPAC or a member of RIPAC or any person acting under the direction of RIPAC does not, if the matter or thing was done or omitted to be done in good faith for the purpose of executing this Act, subject the member or a person so acting personally to any action, liability, claim or demand.

Part 4 Appeal Panel

42 Right of appeal

(1) A person aggrieved by any of the following decisions of a racing authority has a right of appeal against the decision to the Appeal Panel:

(a) a decision to disqualify or warn off any person,

(b) a decision to disqualify any horse,

(c) a decision to revoke the licence or registration of any person or suspend (for any period) any such licence or registration,

(d) a decision to fine any person a sum of $10 or more,

(e) a decision that the Board determines, by order published in the racing calendar published by the Board, to be a decision that may be appealed against to the Appeal Panel.

(2) A racing authority means:

(a) the stewards of the Board,

(b) (Repealed)

(c) the committee or stewards of any race club or race meeting registered by the Board under the Rules of Racing,

(d) a racing association.

(3) The Board may delegate to a racing association the function of hearing and determining appeals against decisions of the committee or stewards of any club over which the association has jurisdiction. Any such delegation may be general or limited to a particular class or classes of appeals.

(4) If an appeal against a decision can be heard by a racing association by virtue of such a delegation, an appellant against the decision has the choice of appealing to the Appeal Panel or to the racing association (but cannot appeal to both).

- (5) A decision of a racing association on an appeal heard by the racing association by virtue of a delegation under this section, or on an appeal under the Rules of Racing, cannot be appealed against to the Appeal Panel.
- (6) If the Rules of Racing confer on a person a right of appeal against a decision to the principal club for New South Wales, or the committee of the principal club, and the person has a right of appeal against the decision under this section, the person does not have a right of appeal to the Board (despite the provisions of the Rules of Racing). The function of hearing and determining appeals against decisions that may be appealed against under this section is to be exercised by the Appeal Panel or by a racing association to which that function is delegated under this section, and not by the Board.
- (7) An appeal is to be made in accordance with the local rules of racing of the Board.

43 Procedure on an appeal

- (1) An appeal to the Appeal Panel is to be in the nature of a rehearing.
- (2) The Appeal Panel may subject to this Act and the local rules of racing of the Board determine its own procedure.
- (3) On an appeal the Appeal Panel:
 - (a) is not bound to act in a formal manner, and
 - (b) is not bound by the rules of evidence and may inform itself on any matter in any way that it considers to be just, and
 - (c) is to make its decision on the real merits and justice of the case and is not bound to follow strict legal precedent.
- (4) The Appeal Panel is to sit as in open court when hearing the appeal but may sit in private if the Appeal Panel considers it necessary to do so in the public interest or to protect the safety of any person.
- (5) For the purpose of the exercise of the Appeal Panel's functions on an appeal, the person presiding at the hearing of the appeal has the powers, authorities, protections and immunities conferred by the Royal Commissions Act 1923 on a Commissioner appointed under Division 1 of Part 2 of that Act. That Act (except section 13 and Division 2 of Part 2) applies, with any necessary modifications, to a witness summoned by, or appearing before, the Appeal Panel.
- (6) When an appeal is to a racing association pursuant to a delegation to the association by the Board under this Part, the following provisions have effect:

- (a) the committee of the association has the function of hearing and determining the appeal, and
- (b) the members of the committee of the association and the person presiding at the hearing of the appeal have the same powers, authorities, protections and immunities as the members of the Appeal Panel and the person presiding at the hearing of an appeal by the Appeal Panel, and
- (c) references in this section to the Appeal Panel and to the person presiding at the hearing of an appeal include a reference to the committee and to the person presiding at the hearing of the appeal by the committee, and
- (d) the same right of appeal as exists under the Racing Appeals Tribunal Act 1983 in respect of a decision of the Appeal Panel also exists in respect of a decision of the committee of the association (and for that purpose references in that Act to a decision of the Appeal Panel are to be read as including a reference to a decision of the committee of a racing association).

44 Decision on appeal to be given effect to

The decision of the Appeal Panel on an appeal is to be given effect to.

45 Membership of Appeal Panel

- (1) The Board is to appoint suitably qualified persons to be members of the Appeal Panel. A member of the Board cannot be a member of the Appeal Panel.
- (2) The Board is (subject to this section) to determine the qualifications and disqualifications for membership of the Appeal Panel and for that purpose is to have particular regard to the need to minimise conflicts of interest, such as might arise from a person's:
 - (a) ownership of horses currently in work, or
 - (b) professional involvement in race preparation, or
 - (c) professional or commercial dealings with any person who holds a licence issued by the Board or by a racing association.
- (3) At least one member of the Appeal Panel is to be a legal practitioner of at least 7 years standing.
- (4) A person is not eligible to be appointed as a member of the Appeal Panel if the person:
 - (a) holds a licence issued by the Board or by a racing association, or
 - (b) is currently warned off or disqualified, or is a person whose name is currently on the Forfeits List, under the Australian Rules of Racing, or

- (c) during the previous 10 years has been convicted in New South Wales of an offence which is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more, or convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence which, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable, or
 - (d) is an undischarged bankrupt or is taking advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy, or
 - (e) is a mentally incapacitated person.
- (5) A member of the Appeal Panel holds office for 4 years from appointment and is eligible (if otherwise qualified) to be reappointed.
- (6) The office of a member of the Appeal Panel becomes vacant if the member:
- (a) dies, or
 - (b) completes a term of office and is not reappointed, or
 - (c) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Board, or
 - (d) is removed from office under subsection (7), or
 - (e) becomes a person who is not eligible to be a member of the Appeal Panel.
- (7) The Governor may, on the recommendation of the Board, remove a member of the Appeal Panel from office for incapacity, incompetence or misbehaviour.

46 Appointment of Principal Member

- (1) The Board is to appoint one of the members of the Appeal Panel as Principal Member. The person appointed must be a legal practitioner of at least 7 years standing.
- (2) The person appointed holds office as Principal Member for a period of 2 years and is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for reappointment.
- (3) A person ceases to hold office as Principal Member if the person ceases to hold office as a member of the Appeal Panel.

47 How Appeal Panel is constituted for particular appeal

- (1) When the Appeal Panel is required to hear an appeal, the Principal Member is to establish the Appeal Panel in accordance with this section. More than one Appeal Panel may be established to exercise the functions of the Appeal Panel at any one time.
- (2) The Appeal Panel is to be constituted for the purposes of an appeal by not less than 3 members, one of whom must be the Principal Member (who is to be Convenor of the Appeal Panel for the purposes of the appeal).

- (3) If the Principal Member is unavailable to act (including as a result of being a member of the Appeal Panel for another appeal), one of the members is to be appointed Convenor by the Principal Member when the Appeal Panel is established. The member appointed Convenor must be a legal practitioner of at least 7 years standing.
- (4) The Convenor is to preside at the hearing of an appeal.
- (5) The Principal Member must, if practicable, consult with the Chief Executive before establishing an Appeal Panel under this section, or appointing a Convenor when the Principal Member is unavailable to act.
- (6) The Chief Executive may exercise the functions of the Principal Member under this section of establishing an Appeal Panel and appointing a Convenor during any period in which the Principal Member is unavailable to exercise those functions (for example, because of absence or incapacity).

48 Remuneration of members

The members of the Appeal Panel are entitled to be paid such fees and expenses in connection with the hearing and determination of an appeal as the Board determines from time to time.

49 How Appeal Panel makes decisions

A decision supported by a majority of the members of the Appeal Panel hearing an appeal is the decision of the Panel. If the members of the Appeal Panel are evenly split on a question, the decision of the Convenor of the Panel is the decision of the Panel.

49A Local rules of racing may provide for appeals

The local rules of racing of the Board may make provision for or with respect to appeals under this Part, including the manner of making an appeal and the procedure for hearing and determining an appeal.

- (6) The Minister may by notice published in the Gazette appoint a day as the day on which the AJCPC is fully operational for the purposes of this Act (even if the AJCPC has not assumed all of its functions by that date).

5 Shortened term of office for half of first members of Board

The term of office of the first members of the Board who, under this clause as in force before its repeal by the Thoroughbred Racing Board Amendment Act 1999, were nominated to hold office for 2 years is extended so as to expire instead at midnight on a date to be determined by order of the Minister, being no later than 30 June 2001, and notified in the Gazette.

- (4) The AJC must not transfer or otherwise deal with any asset that is concerned with the exercise of principal club functions, except with the consent of the AJCPC. Consent may be given under this subclause on a case by case basis or for a class of cases, as the AJCPC thinks fit.

 - (e) a reference in any Act, in any instrument made under any Act or in any document of any kind to the AJC is (to the extent that it relates to the asset, right or liability but subject to any regulations under this Schedule) to be read as, or as including, a reference to the AJCPC.
- (2) The operation of this Part is not to be regarded:
 - (a) as a breach of contract or confidence or otherwise as a civil wrong, or
 - (b) as a breach of any contractual provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the assignment or transfer of assets, rights or liabilities, or
 - (c) as giving rise to any remedy by a party to a contract or instrument, or as causing or permitting the termination of any contract or instrument, because of a change in the beneficial or legal ownership of any asset, right or liability, or
