8 Warning where prosecution evidence sufficient to satisfy jury

For the purposes of section 63 (1) of the Act, the warning given by a Magistrate is to be in the following form:

Before you say anything in answer to the charge, you should know that you do not have to say anything unless you want to. However, if you do say something, it may be recorded and used against you at your trial.

You should understand that, if a promise of favourable treatment has been made to you if you make admissions as to your guilt, that promise cannot be relied on. Similarly, you have nothing to fear from any threat that may have been made to you to persuade you to make any admission as to your guilt. However, even if you have received any such threat or promise, anything you say now may still be used against you at your trial.

Do you want to say anything in answer to the charge? Do you want to give any evidence in relation to the charge? Do you want to call any witnesses on your behalf?

9 Application to waive committal hearing

- (1) For the purposes of section 68 of the Act, an application by the accused person to be committed for trial is to be in the approved form.
- (2) The application must be signed by the prosecutor as evidence of consent to the application.

10 Notice of rights relating to use of written statements as prosecution evidence

- (1) For the purposes of section 75 (4) of the Act, the notice explaining the effect of Division 3 of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Act is to be in the following form:

This form has been given to you because you are facing criminal charges at a committal hearing. The purpose of the committal hearing is to allow a Magistrate to decide whether or not you should be committed for trial or sentence in a higher court or whether you should be discharged. The Magistrate will make that decision after considering all the evidence at the committal hearing.

The written statements and other documents attached to this form contain material that the prosecution will try to put in evidence against you at the committal hearing.

You may apply to the Magistrate for a direction that one or more of the witnesses who have made written statements should attend court to give oral evidence at the hearing.

- (a) If you do not apply for such a direction regarding a particular witness, that witness's evidence will be given at the hearing by the tendering of the written statement of that witness which is attached to this form. The witness will not be present.
- (b) If you do apply to the Magistrate for such a direction, the Magistrate must consider your application. If the Magistrate directs a witness to attend to give oral evidence, you will be able to question that witness about what he or she says.

If the witness is the alleged victim of an offence involving violence, the Magistrate may give the direction only if he or she believes that there are special reasons why, in the interests of justice, the witness should attend. The term offences involving violence is defined in section 94 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986.

In the case of any other witness, the Magistrate may give the direction only if he or she believes that there are substantial reasons why, in the interests of justice, the witness should attend.

If the Magistrate refuses to give the direction, the Magistrate must give reasons for the refusal.

If you do decide to apply for a direction for a witness or witnesses to attend, you must first deliver a notice to that effect to the prosecution. You may deliver the notice either in person or by post. The Magistrate will tell you the date by which the notice must be delivered. After the notice has been delivered, the Magistrate will decide whether your application should be granted.

- (2) The form of words set out in subclause (1) may be included in an approved form relating to written statements.

11 Endorsement of written statements

For the purposes of section 79 (3) of the Act, an endorsement is to be in the following form:

This statement made by me accurately sets out the evidence that I would be prepared, if necessary, to give in court as a witness. The statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief and I make it knowing that, if it is tendered in evidence, I will be liable to prosecution if I have wilfully stated in it anything that I know to be false or do not believe to be true.

12 Addresses and phone numbers not to be disclosed on written statements

- (1) A copy of a written statement served on an accused person in committal proceedings must not disclose the address or telephone number of the person who made the statement or of any other living person, unless:
 - (a) the address or telephone number is a materially relevant part of the evidence, or

- (b) a Magistrate makes an order permitting the disclosure in the statement.
- (2) An application for such an order may be made by the accused person or the prosecutor.
- (3) The Magistrate must not make any such order unless satisfied that the disclosure is not likely to present a reasonably ascertainable risk to the welfare or protection of any person or that the interests of justice (including the accused person's right to prepare properly for the hearing of the evidence for the prosecution) outweigh any such risk.
- (4) This clause does not prevent the disclosure of an address in a written statement if the statement does not identify it as a particular person's address, or it could not reasonably be inferred from the statement that it is a particular person's address.
- (5) An address or telephone number that must not be disclosed may, without reference to the person who made the written statement, be deleted from the statement, or rendered illegible, before the statement is served on the accused person.

 - (e) with the consent of the relevant legal practitioner, by leaving it at the relevant legal practitioner's address for service or by sending it to that address by post or facsimile or by sending it to the legal practitioner's email address for service by electronic communication.
- (3) Service of a written statement or a copy of a proposed exhibit on a corporation may be effected by serving it in accordance with subclause (2) on a principal officer of the corporation or, if provision is made by or under any other Act for service of a document on the corporation, by serving the document in accordance with that provision.

- (4) If, on tender of a written statement to a person, the person refuses to accept it, it may be served by putting it down in the person's presence after the person has been told of the nature of the document.

14 Manner of identifying inadmissible statements

- (1) In identifying or indicating any part of a written statement that has been rejected pursuant to section 87 of the Act, the Magistrate must not mark the original statement, but must indicate on a copy the particular part of the statement that has been rejected.
- (2) The copy of the statement containing the rejected material is to be annexed to the transcript of evidence.

15 Notice of rights to unrepresented persons

- (1) For the purposes of section 89 (2) of the Act, the prescribed form of words is as follows (omitting the words marked * that do not apply):

The informant has served you with copies of one or more written statements of witnesses. You have also been given a notice outlining your rights regarding those statements.

You *have/*have not applied to me for a direction requiring *one/*some/*all/*any of the persons who made statements to appear in person to give evidence.

I have to decide whether to commit you for trial or sentence in a higher court or to discharge you. I will make that decision on the basis of all the evidence, whether contained in written statements or given from the witness box in person.

I will now consider any application you may wish to make for an adjournment to obtain legal advice. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment?

- (2) If the proceedings are to continue, the prescribed form of words is to include also the following words:

Do you consent to the written statements of witnesses being tendered as evidence or do you wish to apply for a direction requiring one or more witnesses to be called to give evidence in person?

- (3) After the accused person has been given an opportunity to respond to the words in subclause (2), the prescribed form of words is to include the following words:

Do you wish to ask me any questions about this procedure?

16 Papers to be sent to officer of higher court

For the purposes of section 111 (1) of the Act, the following documents are required to be given to the appropriate officer of the court to which an accused person is committed for trial or sentence:

- (a) the court attendance notice,
- (b) the certificate referred to in section 166 of the Act,
- (c) any written statements tendered in evidence by the prosecution,
- (d) a transcript of any oral evidence of witnesses and the accused person taken at the committal hearing,
