Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 No 152

New South Wales

An Act to make provision with respect to the administration and audit of public finances and for other purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983.

2 Commencement

- (1) Part 1, Divisions 1 and 4 of Part 2, section 34 and Division 5 of Part 3 shall be deemed to have commenced on 1 July 1983.
- (2) Except as provided by subsection (1), this Act shall commence on such day as may be appointed by the Governor in respect thereof and as may be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

3 (Repealed)

4 Definitions

- (1) In this Act, except in so far as the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires:

accounting manual, in relation to an authority, means the accounting manual of the authority referred to in section 11 (3).

accounting officer means:

- (a) a person who by any law, regulation or appointment is charged with the duty of collecting or receiving, or who actually collects or receives, or who is charged with the duty of disbursing, or who actually disburses, any public money,
- (b) a person who by any law, regulation or appointment is authorised to commit or incur the expenditure of public money,
- (c) a person who by any law, regulation or appointment is charged with a duty relating to the keeping of accounts with respect to public money, or

- (d) a person who by any law, regulation or appointment is charged with a duty relating to the purchase, receipt, issue, sale, custody, control, management or disposal of, or the accounting for, public property or who actually purchases, receives, issues, sells, keeps in custody, controls, manages, disposes of, or accounts for, public property.

auditor means a person appointed to be an auditor pursuant to section 35.

authority means:

- (a) a Department within the meaning of section 4 (1) of the Public Service Act 1979,
- (b) the School Education Teaching Service,
- (c) a statutory authority, or
- (d) a person, group of persons or body prescribed for the purposes of this definition.

Budget Papers means the Budget Papers of the Government tabled in Parliament in connection with annual Appropriation Bills.

Consolidated Fund means the fund formed as referred to in section 39 of the Constitution Act 1902.

Financial Agreement means the Financial Agreement set forth in the Schedule to the Financial Agreement Act 1994 as amended by any subsequent agreement approved by Parliament.

financial year, in relation to:

- (a) the Total State Sector Accounts, means the period from 1 July to the next following 30 June,
- (b) a statutory authority, means:
 - (i) except as provided by subparagraph (iii), the period specified as the financial year of the statutory authority in or pursuant to the Act by or under which the statutory authority is appointed, constituted or regulated,
 - (ii) except as provided by subparagraph (iii), where no period is specified as referred to in subparagraph (i), the period from 1 April to the next following 31 March, or
 - (iii) where the Treasurer, pursuant to subsection (1A), determines the financial year of the statutory authority, the financial year so determined, or
- (c) a Department referred to in Division 4A of Part 3, means:

- (i) except as provided by subparagraph (ii), the period from 1 July to the next following 30 June, or
- (ii) where the Treasurer, pursuant to subsection (1A), determines the financial year of the Department, the financial year so determined.

general government sector has the same meaning as in the General Government Debt Elimination Act 1995.

GFS means Government Finance Statistics as reported by the Australian Bureau of Statistics.

Head of an authority means:

- (a) in relation to a Department within the meaning of section 4 (1) of the Public Service Act 1979—the appropriate Department Head within the meaning of that subsection,
- (b) in relation to the School Education Teaching Service—the Director-General of School Education,
- (c) in relation to a statutory authority:
 - (i) where the statutory authority is an individual or a corporation sole—the individual or corporation sole, or
 - (ii) in any other case—the chief executive officer of the statutory authority or the person who exercises the functions of a chief executive officer in relation to the statutory authority, or loan Act includes the Financial Agreement, but does not include a prescribed enactment.

money includes any instrument ordering or authorising the payment of money, being an instrument of a kind which may be lodged with a bank, building society or credit union for the purpose of enabling the bank, building society or credit union to collect money so payable and credit that money to an account with that bank, building society or credit union, and any bill of exchange, postal order, money order and promissory note.

officer of an authority means:

- (a) in relation to a Department within the meaning of section 4 (1) of the Public Service Act 1979—an officer within the meaning of that subsection or a temporary employee within the meaning of that subsection,

- (b) in relation to the School Education Teaching Service—an officer or temporary employee of that Service,
- (c) in relation to a statutory authority—a member of the statutory authority or a person appointed to or by or employed within the statutory authority, or
- (d) in relation to a person, group of persons or body prescribed for the purposes of the definition of authority in this section—such person as is prescribed for the purposes of this definition in relation to the persons, group of persons or body, and includes, in relation to an authority referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), such other persons as may be prescribed for the purposes of this definition in relation to the authority.

other money means money or securities of any kind for the payment of money, collected, received or held by the Treasurer or an officer of an authority in the course of the official duties of the Treasurer or officer, not being public money.

other property means property, other than money, held by the Treasurer or an officer of an authority in the course of the official duties of the Treasurer or officer, not being public property.

prescribed requirements, in relation to an authority, means requirements prescribed by or under this Act or any other law applying to the authority, Treasurer's directions applying to the authority or the accounting manual of the authority.

public money includes:

- (a) securities and all revenue, loans and other money whatever, collected, received or held by, for, or on account of the State, and
- (b) without limiting the generality of paragraph (a):
 - (i) money which, pursuant to any Act, is directed to be paid to or expressed to form part of the Consolidated Fund or the Special Deposits Account, and
 - (ii) such money, or money of such class or description of money, as is prescribed for the purposes of this definition.

public property means all property, other than public money, held by any person for or on behalf of the State.

regulation means a regulation made under this Act.

Special Deposits Account means:

- (a) an account of funds which the Treasurer is, by statutory or other authority, required to hold otherwise than for or on account of the Consolidated Fund,

- (b) an account of money directed to be paid to the Special Deposits Account by or under this or any other Act, or
- (c) an account of such other money, not directed by or under this or any other Act to be placed to the credit of another account, which the Treasurer directs to be carried to the Special Deposits Account.

statutory authority means:

- (a) a statutory body representing the Crown, or
- (b) a person, group of persons or body (whether or not being a statutory body representing the Crown) to which Division 3 of Part 3 applies.

the Total State Sector Accounts means the statements prepared by the Treasurer under section 6 (1).

Treasurer's direction means a direction issued under section 9.

Treasurer's expenditure control authority means a Treasurer's expenditure control authority issued under section 10.

- (1A) The Treasurer may, by notice in writing to a statutory authority or a Department Head, determine the financial year of the statutory authority or the Department, as the case may be.
- (2) In this Act, a reference to the Crown is a reference to the Crown in right of the State.
- (3) In this Act, a reference to:
 - (a) a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty, and
 - (b) the exercise of a function includes, where the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty.
- (4) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.

4A Relationship with Corporations legislation

- (1) The regulations may declare a matter that is dealt with by this Act or the regulations to be an excluded matter for the purposes of section 5F of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth in relation to:
 - (a) the whole of the Corporations legislation to which Part 1.1A of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth applies, or
 - (b) a specified provision of that legislation, or

- (c) that legislation other than a specified provision, or
- (d) that legislation otherwise than to a specified extent.

Note—

Section 5F of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth provides that if a State law declares a matter to be an excluded matter for the purposes of that section in relation to all or part of the Corporations legislation of the Commonwealth, then the provisions that are the subject of the declaration will not apply in relation to that matter in the State concerned.

- (2) The regulations may declare a relevant provision of this Act to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth (either generally or specifically in relation to a provision of the Corporations legislation to which Part 1.1A of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth applies).

Note—

Section 5G of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth provides that if a State law declares a provision of a State law to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision, then any provision of the Corporations legislation with which the State provision would otherwise be inconsistent does not apply in the State concerned to the extent necessary to avoid the inconsistency.

- (3) In this section:

matter includes act, omission, body, person or thing.

relevant provision of this Act means a provision that is:

- (a) a post-commencement provision within the meaning of section 5G of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, or
- (b) materially amended within the meaning of that section on or after the commencement of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth if the amendment is enacted on or after that commencement.

Part 2 Public finance administration

Division 1 Public accounts

5 Treasurer's accounts

- (1) The Treasurer shall cause to be kept accounts relating to the Consolidated Fund, the Special Deposits Account and such other money as the Treasurer may determine under such separate heads as the Treasurer may direct.
- (2) In spite of any other Act or law, the Treasurer is not required to cause any account in, or relating to, the Consolidated Fund or the Special Deposits Account to be kept in the Treasury.

- (3) An account referred to in any Act or law relating to the Consolidated Fund or the Special Deposits Account, and in or at the Treasury immediately before the date of the commencement of this subsection, is from that date to be caused to be kept by the Treasurer in accordance with subsection (1), either in the Treasury or outside the Treasury.

6 Preparation of the Total State Sector Accounts

- (1) As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, the Treasurer is to prepare consolidated financial statements for the Total State Sector as at 30 June in that year.
- (2) The statements referred to in subsection (1) are to be prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards.
- (3) The Treasurer may combine, include or amalgamate with, or present together with, in such form or manner as the Treasurer may determine, or attach to, the Total State Sector Accounts such other statements as the Treasurer may determine. These statements may include accounts prepared on a GFS basis and a report on the budget result for the financial year.
- (4) On or before 15 September, the Treasurer is to transmit the Total State Sector Accounts prepared in relation to the preceding financial year to the Auditor-General.

7, 7A (Repealed)

8 Monthly statements and half-yearly reviews

- (1) The Treasurer is to publicly release a statement for each month (a monthly statement), by the end of the following month, setting out the budget time projections and year-to-date balances for the major GFS aggregates disclosed in the Budget.
- (2) The Treasurer may delay the release of a monthly statement if, at or near the time at which the statement would otherwise be released, other key reporting documents are (or are to be) released, such as the Budget, the half-yearly review (referred to in subsection (3)) and the Total State Sector Accounts.
- (3) The Treasurer is to publicly release a statement (the half-yearly review) by 31 December in each year containing:
 - (a) revised GFS projections for the current financial year and an explanation of any significant variation in those revised GFS projections from the original budget time projections, and
 - (b) revised forward estimates, for major GFS aggregates, over 3 years, and
 - (c) the latest economic projections for the current financial year and an explanation of any significant variation from the budget time projections contained in the Budget

Papers.

- (4) The half-yearly review is to be based on actual results as at the end of the previous October.
- (5) The Treasurer may determine to change the presentation in a monthly statement or the half-yearly review from that adopted in the preceding Budget.
- (6) The Treasurer is to present a copy of a determination made under subsection (5) to the Legislative Assembly on a day within 14 days after making the determination, if the Legislative Assembly is sitting on that day.
- (7) If at the time when the Treasurer seeks to present a copy of a determination to the Legislative Assembly the Legislative Assembly is not sitting, the Treasurer is to present a copy of the determination to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly to be dealt with in accordance with section 63C.
- (8) The Treasurer may include such other matters in a monthly statement or the half-yearly review as the Treasurer determines.

Division 2 Accounting arrangements

9 Treasurer's directions

- (1) The Treasurer may, from time to time, issue directions to accounting officers and officers of an authority with respect to the principles, practices and procedures to be observed in the administration of the financial affairs of the State and may, at any time, amend, vary or cancel a direction so issued.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Treasurer may issue directions relating to:
 - (a) the accounting for receipts and payments of money,
 - (b) money recoverable by the State,
 - (c) the recording, issue and control of public property and other property,
 - (d) the sale and disposition of public property and other property,
 - (e) banking arrangements,
 - (f) the writing off of debts,
 - (g) the preparation of the Total State Sector Accounts and other accounts,
 - (h) the preparation of estimates,
 - (i) the commitment of expenditure,

- (j) the control and management of budget allocations,
 - (k) program budgeting and accounting,
 - (k1) the establishment and operation of working accounts within the Special Deposits Account,
 - (l) the insurance and protection of public property and other property,
 - (m) controls for computer-based accounting systems,
 - (n) the form and content of financial statements and the accounting policies to be observed in preparing those statements,
 - (o) the payment, into an account in the Special Deposits Account for an authority, of a percentage (not being less than 50 per cent) of the proceeds of a sale or lease of a surplus asset vested in, used by or under the control of the authority,
 - (p) the purposes for which an authority may expend proceeds referred to in paragraph (o), being purposes in connection with the acquisition or maintenance of capital assets, and
 - (q) the transfer of funds, for the settlement of a claim by one authority against another authority, between accounts maintained by the Treasury for the purposes of those authorities, notwithstanding any Act relating to the appropriation of those funds.
- (3) A provision of a direction issued under this section may:
- (a) apply generally or be limited in its application by reference to specified exceptions or factors,
 - (b) apply differently according to different factors of a specified kind, or
 - (c) authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by any specified person, group of persons or body,
- or may do any combination of those things.
- (4) A direction issued under this section shall not apply to or in respect of:
- (a) (Repealed)
 - (b) a university, or
 - (c) a person, group of persons or body prescribed for the purposes of this section.

10 Treasurer's expenditure control authority

- (1) The Treasurer may, from time to time, issue a Treasurer's expenditure control authority regulating the expenditure of money from the Consolidated Fund.

- (2) A Treasurer's expenditure control authority may:
- (a) be a standing authority regulating the expenditure of money in general terms,
 - (b) be limited as to the period during which it may operate to regulate the expenditure of money,
 - (c) be limited as to the nature of the transactions in respect of which money may be expended,
 - (d) be limited to a particular transaction or series of transactions, or
 - (e) be contained in the Treasurer's directions or in a separate instrument.
- (3) A reference in this section to the regulation of the expenditure of money includes a reference to the commitment of money for expenditure.

11 Internal control and audit

- (1) The Head of an authority shall ensure that there is an effective system of internal control over the financial and related operations of the authority, including:
- (a) management policies and requirements made by the provisions of this Act and the prescribed requirements,
 - (b) sound practices for the efficient, effective and economical management of functions by each organisational branch or section within the authority,
 - (c) a system of authorisation and recording and procedures adequate to provide accounting control in relation to assets, liabilities, receipts and expenses,
 - (d) proper segregation of functional responsibilities, and
 - (e) procedures to review the adequacies of and compliance with the system of internal control.
- (2) Wherever practicable, the Head of an authority shall establish and maintain an effective internal audit organisation which shall be responsible to the Head of an authority for:
- (a) the regular appraisal of the adequacy of and compliance with the system of internal control,
 - (b) the review of operations or programs to ascertain whether results are consistent with established objectives and goals and whether the operations or programs are being carried out as planned, and
 - (c) the reporting directly at regular intervals to the Head of the authority as to the result of any appraisal, inspection, investigation, examination or review made by the internal audit organisation.

- (3) The Head of an authority shall supervise the preparation and maintenance of an accounting manual for use within the authority.
- (4) To the extent of any inconsistency between the provisions of the regulations or the Treasurer's directions and the provisions of an accounting manual, the provisions of the regulations or the Treasurer's directions, as the case may require, shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, prevail.

12 Commitment etc of expenditure

- (1) Expenditure shall be committed or incurred by an officer of an authority only within the limits of a delegation in writing conferred on the officer by a person entitled to make the delegation.
- (2) An officer of an authority who commits or incurs expenditure shall be responsible for the exercise of due economy.
- (3) An officer of an authority must not, without the authorisation of the Treasurer, incur any liability that would result in a payment out of the Consolidated Fund in excess of the amount to be provided out of the Consolidated Fund in accordance with an Appropriation Act or this Act.

13 Payment of accounts

An officer of an authority shall not authorise the payment of an account:

- (a) unless the account has been approved for payment by a person to whom the power to authorise the payment has been delegated under section 12 (1), or
- (b) otherwise than in accordance with the Treasurer's directions.

13A Working accounts

- (1) The Treasurer may establish a working account for an authority within the Special Deposits Account.
- (2) Despite the provisions of any other Act, the Treasurer may authorise an authority to retain in a working account money received by it from the following:
 - (a) the provision of goods or services (or both),
 - (b) donations and contributions,
 - (c) any other sources authorised by the Treasurer,instead of paying it into the Consolidated Fund.

14 Unclaimed money

- (1) This section does not apply to or in respect of an authority:
 - (a) to which the Unclaimed Money Act 1995 applies, or
 - (b) in respect of which, by or under any Act by which the authority is appointed, constituted or regulated, provision is made for the regulation, payment or appropriation of unclaimed money.
- (2) Except in so far as the regulations may otherwise provide, money which, by virtue of the office or employment of an officer of an authority, has come into the possession or under the control of the officer for or on account of or for the use or benefit of a person other than the authority and:
 - (a) which has been unclaimed for a period of 3 months, or
 - (b) in respect of which a claim has been made but is not, on the expiration of a period of 2 years after the money came into the possession of or under the control of the officer being proceeded with,shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.
- (3) (Repealed)
- (4) Where the Treasurer is satisfied that a person is entitled to money which has been paid into the Consolidated Fund pursuant to subsection (2), the money is, by virtue of this subsection, appropriated from the Consolidated Fund for the purpose of enabling its payment to the person and the Treasurer may withdraw the money from the Consolidated Fund and pay the money to the person accordingly.

Division 3 Public banking and investment arrangements

15 Agreement with bank, building society or credit union

- (1) The Treasurer may agree with any bank, building society or credit union upon such terms and conditions as the Treasurer may think fit for:
 - (a) the receipt, custody, payment and transmission of public money,
 - (b) the inscription, management and payment of interest on the public debt within or without New South Wales,
 - (c) the making of advances, the charges relating to advances and the interest payable by or to the bank, building society or credit union upon balances or advances, and
 - (d) the conduct of the banking business of the State generally.

- (2) An agreement referred to in subsection (1) shall not be made to have effect within New South Wales for more than 1 year unless it contains a provision that it may be terminated at any time on the giving of 6 months' notice.

16 Accounts to be kept in banks, building societies or credit unions

- (1) Authorities may open such accounts in such banks, building societies and credit unions and on such terms as the Treasurer determines for the banking of public money.
- (2) Money of authorities that is in such accounts with a bank, building society or credit union is, if the accounts are accounts of the kind referred to in section 5 (1), subject to any arrangement between the bank, building society or credit union and the Treasurer under which the bank, building society or credit union is authorised to set off, in accordance with the agreement, the credit and debit balances in the accounts. This subsection applies despite any Act or law.

17 Official account not to be opened without authority

- (1) An accounting officer shall not, without the authorisation in writing of the Treasurer, open an account with a bank, building society or credit union for the payment or receipt of public money.
- (2) A bank, building society or credit union shall not, without the authorisation in writing of the Treasurer, permit an accounting officer to open an account referred to in subsection (1), or to have an overdraft on such an account.
- (3) The Treasurer may permit a statutory body (being a person, group of persons or body specified in Schedule 2) to operate and keep funds in an account referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) If permission is given under subsection (3), the Treasurer may:
 - (a) close any account within the Special Deposits Account established in relation to the statutory body, and
 - (b) transfer any balance in that account to the account referred to in subsection (3).
- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) have effect notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act.

18 Banking of public money

An accounting officer collecting or receiving public money is to bank the money collected or received in accordance with this Act, the regulations and any directions of the Treasurer.

19 Interest on accounts

The several accounts of the Treasurer in any one bank, building society or credit union shall, for interest purposes, be considered as one account.

20 Investment of funds

Without limiting any authority granted by or under any other Act to invest public money, any such money may be invested:

- (a) on deposit with a bank and on deposit with, or by way of withdrawable shares in, a building society or credit union,
- (b) in the purchase of a bill of exchange that is drawn, accepted or endorsed by a bank, building society or credit union,
- (c) in a loan to a person who is a dealer in the short term money market and in relation to whom, at the time the loan is made, the Reserve Bank of Australia stands as lender of last resort,
- (d) in the purchase of securities, the repayment of which is guaranteed by the Government of New South Wales or of the Commonwealth, or
- (e) in any prescribed investment.

Division 4 Appropriation provisions

21 Money not to be paid out unless authorised

Money shall not be drawn from:

- (a) the Consolidated Fund, except under the authority of an Act of Parliament, or
- (b) an account within the Special Deposits Account, except for the purposes of the account and under such authority as may be applicable to the constitution of the account.

21A Special appropriations

- (1) A provision of any Act which appropriates money from the Consolidated Fund for a specified purpose operates only to the extent necessary to meet any shortfall in the cost of meeting that purpose after the application of money for that purpose from a working account established under section 13A.
- (2) A provision of any Act (other than an Appropriation Act) which appropriates money from the Consolidated Fund for a specified purpose shown in the Estimates of the Consolidated Fund operates only to the extent necessary to meet any shortfall in the cost of meeting that purpose after the appropriation of money for that purpose under an Appropriation Act.
- (3) In this section:

Appropriation Act means an Act with the object of appropriating sums of money for the ordinary annual services of the Government or capital works and services of the Government, or both.

22 Expenditure for certain services or works

- (1) Notwithstanding section 21, where, after an Act is passed in respect of a financial year appropriating money out of the Consolidated Fund to meet the requirements of that financial year, the exigencies of Government so require, the Treasurer may, with the approval of the Governor, determine that there shall be paid from the Consolidated Fund, in anticipation of appropriation by Parliament, such additional sums as may be necessary in the public interest to provide for expenditure of a recurrent nature or for capital works and services.
- (2) Details of the sums paid from the Consolidated Fund pursuant to a determination under subsection (1) shall be included in any Bill introduced with the object of appropriating sums of money for the ordinary annual services of the Government or capital works and services of the Government during the financial year next succeeding the financial year in respect of which the sums were paid from the Consolidated Fund pursuant to the determination.

22A The Revenue Equalisation Account

- (1) The Treasurer may establish a Revenue Equalisation Account within the Special Deposits Account.
- (2) The Treasurer may, with the approval of the Governor, transfer from the Consolidated Fund to the Revenue Equalisation Account such sums as the Treasurer may determine.
- (3) The sums that may be transferred from the Consolidated Fund to the Revenue Equalisation Account pursuant to this section are in addition to any sums that may be so transferred pursuant to any Act appropriating money from the Consolidated Fund.
- (4) Details of the sums transferred from the Consolidated Fund to the Revenue Equalisation Account pursuant to this section shall be included in any Bill introduced with the object of appropriating sums of money for the ordinary annual services of the Government or capital works and services of the Government during the financial year next succeeding that in which the transfer occurs.
- (5) Money shall not be drawn from the Revenue Equalisation Account otherwise than by way of transfer from that Account to the Consolidated Fund.

23 Lapsing of appropriation of revenue

- (1) Except as provided by subsection (2), every appropriation out of the Consolidated Fund for any financial year shall lapse and cease to have any effect for any purpose at the close of that year.

- (2) Where, in relation to any appropriation for salaries or wages or payments in the nature of salaries or wages, an amount, not exceeding:
- (a) the total of the sums required to meet so much of those salaries, wages or payments as is chargeable in respect of that part of the pay period current at 30 June in any year which terminates on that day, and
 - (b) the total of the sums required to meet so much of those salaries, wages or payments as is, pursuant to a lawful determination made on or before 30 June in any such year, required to meet salaries, wages or payments for that pay period or any pay period occurring before that pay period, or both,

is transferred to the credit of a suspense account within the Special Deposits Account, and the amount so transferred is thereafter applied in or towards meeting those salaries, wages or payments for that pay period or those pay periods, as the case may require, the amount so transferred shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have been applied during the financial year in relation to which the appropriation was made.

23A Transfers in relation to commitments

- (1) If:
- (a) goods or services chargeable to an appropriation out of the Consolidated Fund for any financial year have not been paid by 30 June in that year, and
 - (b) the Treasurer or a person specified for the time being in a Treasurer's direction is of the opinion that the goods or services might reasonably have been expected to be paid for by that date, the Treasurer or person may approve the transfer of the amount involved to the credit of a suspense account within the Special Deposits Account, and the amount so transferred shall thereafter, except as provided by subsection (3), be applied in or towards meeting the cost of the goods or services.

- (2) Any amount transferred under subsection (1) shall, notwithstanding section 23 (1), be deemed to have been applied during the preceding financial year.
- (3) Any amounts or portions of amounts transferred under subsection (1) which have not been applied for the purpose required by 30 September first occurring after that financial year shall be repaid to the Consolidated Fund.
- (4) The Treasurer shall, as soon as practicable, after 30 June in each year, prepare, for inclusion in the Total State Sector Accounts, a statement accounting for transfers made under subsection (1) during the preceding financial year.

24 Transfer of functions between Departments etc

- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any Appropriation Act, where, after the passing of an Appropriation Act for any financial year the responsibility for a service or function for which an appropriation is made in the Appropriation Act for that year is transferred, the appropriation shall not lapse and may be issued and applied, in accordance with such determination as may be made by the Treasurer, for or towards the service or function the responsibility for which is transferred.
- (2) The Treasurer shall lay or cause to be laid before the Legislative Assembly, within 6 sitting days after the determination is made under subsection (1), details of the appropriation the subject of the determination.
- (3) If the Legislative Assembly passes a resolution, of which notice has been given within 6 sitting days of the Legislative Assembly after the details of an appropriation the subject of a determination under subsection (1) have been laid before it, disallowing the appropriation or any part thereof, the appropriation or part thereof ceases to have effect.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, sitting days shall be counted whether or not they occur in the same session.
- (5) Where the Treasurer has made a determination under subsection (1) in relation to an appropriation, the Treasurer shall prepare the Total State Sector Accounts for the financial year in relation to which the determination is made as if the whole of the appropriation in respect of which the determination is made had been applied in accordance with the determination as from the beginning of that financial year.

25 Payments authorised on lapse of appropriation

If, before the close of any financial year, no Act is passed appropriating money out of the Consolidated Fund to meet the requirements of the next succeeding financial year, the Treasurer may pay such sums as may be necessary to meet those requirements, subject to the following provisions:

- (a) the authority of the Treasurer under this section shall cease upon the passing of the Appropriation Act for the next succeeding financial year, and shall not extend beyond the period of the first 3 months of that succeeding financial year,
- (b) upon the passing of the Appropriation Act, all payments made under the authority of this section shall be regarded and treated for all purposes as payments made out of the money appropriated by that Act,
- (c) the payments made under the authority of this section shall not exceed, in total, such amount as would be equivalent to one quarter of the amount appropriated under the Appropriation Act for the immediately preceding financial year, adjusted by two-thirds of the percentage change in:

- (i) except as provided by subparagraph (ii)—the Consumer Price Index (All Groups Index) for Sydney issued by the Australian Statistician, or
- (ii) where some other group of numbers or of amounts relating to the price of goods and services, which is issued by the Australian Statistician, is prescribed for the purposes of this subparagraph—the group of numbers or of amounts so prescribed, for the quarter of that year commencing on and including 1 January and ending on and including the next succeeding 31 March from the corresponding quarter of the previous year,

- (d) when the estimates of expenditure for that succeeding financial year have been presented to Parliament, and the rate of expenditure in those estimates is, in any case, lower than the rate of expenditure authorised in the Appropriation Act for the last preceding financial year, the payments made under the authority of this section shall not exceed those lower rates.

26 Power to vary the annual appropriation

- (1) If the Commonwealth, in any financial year:

- (a) provides for the making of a specific purpose payment not included in the receipts and payments estimates of the State for the financial year,
- (b) provides for an increase in the amount of a specific purpose payment in excess of the amount shown in the receipts and payments estimates of the State for the financial year, or
- (c) does not provide the whole of the amount of a specific purpose payment as shown in the receipts and payments estimates of the State for the financial year, the Treasurer may amend the appropriate receipts and payments estimates of the State for that year as if the Treasurer had received advice from the Commonwealth, at the time those estimates were presented to Parliament, that:

- (d) the specific purpose payment or the increase in the amount of the specific purpose payment would have been provided to the State by the Commonwealth in that year, or
- (e) the whole of the amount of the specific purpose payment would not have been provided to the State by the Commonwealth in that year, as the case requires.

- (2) Where, under subsection (1), the Treasurer amends the appropriate receipts and payments estimates of the State for a financial year to provide for the making of a specific purpose payment or an increase or decrease in the amount of a specific purpose payment, appropriations for that year for the purpose of the specific purpose payment may, as the case may require, be made, increased or decreased accordingly.

- (3) The Treasurer shall lay or cause to be laid before the Legislative Assembly, within 6 sitting days of the day on which the estimates are amended under subsection (1), a copy of the estimates as so amended.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, sitting days shall be counted, whether or not they occur in the same session.

27 Loan money to be carried to Consolidated Fund

- (1) All money borrowed under the authority of any loan Act, except money borrowed by way of overdraft under the authority of clause 5 of Part I of the Financial Agreement solely for temporary purposes, shall be carried to the Consolidated Fund.
- (2) Money borrowed by way of overdraft under the authority of clause 5 of Part I of the Financial Agreement solely for temporary purposes shall not be expended except in accordance with the provisions of this or any other Act.
- (3) In this section, Financial Agreement means the Financial Agreement set forth in the Schedule to the Financial Agreement Ratification Act 1928 as varied from time to time.

27A Budget presentation

- (1) The Budget is to be presented on a basis that covers the general government sector.
- (2) The Budget is to be presented in a format that accords with GFS principles of the Australian Bureau of Statistics and Australian Accounting Standards.
- (3) The Treasurer may determine that the principles or standards referred to in subsection (2) should be departed from if the Treasurer is of the opinion that the departure is necessary in a particular case to present an accurate view of the financial position of the Budget.
- (4) The Treasurer is to prepare a report on any such departure containing details of, and reasons for, the departure and the report is to be tabled in each House of Parliament with the Budget Papers.
- (5) Before preparing a report required under subsection (4) on any such departure, the Treasurer may consult with the Treasurer's Accounting Advisory Panel, consisting of senior members of the accounting profession and the Auditor-General, concerning the departure.

27AA Budget content

- (1) The budget GFS aggregates relating to the general government sector are to be for a 6-year period comprising the Budget year, the 2 prior years and the 3 forward years.

(2) The Budget Papers are to include the following:

(a) a Budget policy statement that includes information on the following matters:

- (i) an assessment of progress achieved against the fiscal targets and fiscal principles of the General Government Debt Elimination Act 1995,
- (ii) a projection of the ability to achieve those fiscal targets in the future and to progress the achievement of those fiscal principles,
- (iii) 4-year projections (being for the Budget year and 3 forward years) of all major economic and financial variables,

(b) revised estimates for the year prior to the budget year, and an explanation of any significant variations in major GFS aggregates from the Budget estimates for that year, for the general government sector,

(c) outcomes, outputs and total expenses for each program for the Budget year and the prior year,

(d) financial statements prepared in accordance with the Uniform Presentation Framework,

(e) primary financial statements in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards,

(f) primary financial statements in accordance with GFS principles.

(3) The Budget Papers may include any other matters.

(4) In this section, Uniform Presentation Framework means the framework for financial reporting:

(a) that is based on reporting conventions for the time being of the Australian Bureau of Statistics for its GFS reporting, and

(b) that is agreed by the Australian Loan Council from time to time.

27AB Time at which Budget is to be presented to Parliament

(1) The Budget Papers for a budget year are to be tabled in the Legislative Assembly before the end of the prior financial year, except as provided by this section.

(2) If:

(a) the Legislative Assembly is not sitting in the last 2 months of the financial year prior to the budget year, or

(b) there is a State election in the financial year prior to the budget year, the Budget Papers may be tabled in the Legislative Assembly as soon as possible within the budget year.

Part 3 Audit

Division 1 The Auditor-General

27B The Auditor-General

- (1) There is to be an Auditor-General for the State.
- (2) The Auditor-General has the functions conferred or imposed on the Auditor-General by law.
- (3) The Auditor-General's functions include the following:
 - (a) to audit the Total State Sector Accounts and any other accounts that the Auditor-General is required or authorised to audit by law,
 - (b) to provide any particular audit or audit-related service to Parliament at the joint request of both Houses of Parliament,
 - (c) to provide any particular audit or audit-related service to the Treasurer at the request of the Treasurer or to any other Minister at the request of that other Minister,
 - (d) to report to Parliament as required or authorised by law,
 - (e) to do anything that is incidental to the exercise of the Auditor-General's functions.
- (4) The Auditor-General may exercise his or her functions in such manner as the Auditor-General thinks fit. However, the Auditor-General is required:
 - (a) to have regard to recognised professional standards and practices, and
 - (b) to comply with any relevant requirements imposed by law.
- (5) The Auditor-General may, in the exercise of his or her functions, have regard to whether there has been:
 - (a) any wastage of public resources, or
 - (b) any lack of probity or financial prudence in the management or application of public resources.
- (6) Nothing in this Act entitles the Auditor-General to question the merits of policy objectives of the Government, including:
 - (a) any policy objective of the Government contained in a record of a policy decision of Cabinet, and

(b) a policy direction of a Minister, and

(c) a policy statement in any Budget Paper or other document evidencing a policy direction of the Cabinet or a Minister.

(7) In this section, by law means by or under this or any other Act or law.

28 Appointment etc

(1) The Auditor-General is to be appointed by the Governor for a term of 7 years and is not eligible for re-appointment, including re-appointment after the end of that term.

(2) Part 1 of Schedule 1 has effect.

28A Veto of proposed appointment of Auditor-General

(1) A person is not to be appointed as Auditor-General until:

(a) a proposal that the person be appointed has been referred to the Public Accounts Committee under section 57A, and

(b) either the period that the Committee has under that section to veto the proposed appointment has ended without the Committee having vetoed the proposed appointment or the Committee notifies the Treasurer that it has decided not to veto the proposed appointment.

(2) A person may be proposed for appointment on more than one occasion.

29 Declaration of office

(1) The Auditor-General, on being appointed under this Act, shall, before exercising the powers or performing the duties conferred or imposed on the Auditor-General by this Act, make and subscribe, before one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, a declaration in the form of Part 2 of Schedule 1.

(2) The declaration made and subscribed pursuant to subsection (1) shall be kept among the records of the Supreme Court.

30 Deputy Auditor-General

(1) A Deputy Auditor-General may be appointed by the Governor to act in the office of the Auditor-General at any time while the Auditor-General is absent from office through illness or any other cause or while there is a vacancy in the office of the Auditor-General.

(2) An appointment under subsection (1) may be made whether or not, at the time at which the appointment is made, the Auditor-General is absent from office as referred to in that subsection or there is a vacancy in the office of Auditor-General as so referred to.

- (3) Section 29 applies to and in respect of the Deputy Auditor-General in the same way as it applies to and in respect of the Auditor-General.
- (4) The Deputy Auditor-General, while acting as referred to in subsection (1), shall be deemed to be the Auditor-General and shall have and may exercise the functions of the Auditor-General.
- (5) No person shall be concerned to inquire whether or not any occasion has arisen requiring or authorising a person to act in the office of the Auditor-General, and all things done or omitted to be done by that person while so acting shall be as valid and effectual and shall have the same consequences as if they had been done or omitted to be done by the Auditor-General.

31 Auditor-General shall communicate with Treasurer

- (1) The Auditor-General shall communicate with the Treasurer upon all matters arising under this Act or the prescribed requirements and which, in the opinion of the Auditor-General, are sufficiently significant to be brought to the Treasurer's attention.
- (2) The Auditor-General shall transmit to the Treasurer the name of any person failing to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or the prescribed requirements.
- (3) Upon the name of a person being transmitted to the Treasurer under subsection (2) and until the failure of that person is made good to the satisfaction of the Auditor-General, the payment of any salary or money due or to become due to that person may, subject to and in accordance with the regulations, be withheld.

32 Search in public books

The Auditor-General may cause a search to be made in and any extracts to be taken from any book, document or record, in any public office, without paying any fee therefor.

33 Auditor-General may obtain opinion of law officer

The Auditor-General shall be entitled to lay before the Attorney General or Crown Solicitor a case in writing as to any question regarding the interpretation of this Act, the Constitution Act 1902, or any other Act, or the prescribed requirements concerning the functions of the Auditor-General and the Attorney General or Crown Solicitor, as the case may be, shall give a written opinion on the case.

Division 2 Audit—generally

34 (Repealed)

35 Inspection and audit of accounts of accounting officers

- (1) The Auditor-General may appoint, in writing, a person (whether or not that person is an officer of an authority) or a firm to be an auditor for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Auditor-General:

(a) may, whenever the Auditor-General thinks fit, and

(b) shall, whenever required by the Treasurer so to do, inspect, examine and audit, or cause an auditor to inspect, examine and audit, the books and accounts of any accounting officer and of any other person who is subject to the provisions of this Act or the prescribed requirements of whose accounts the Auditor-General is authorised or required to audit and into whose possession or under whose control any public money, other money, public property or other property has come.

(3) An auditor who has made an inspection, examination and audit under subsection (2) shall, as soon as practicable after the inspection, examination and audit, make and sign a report and forward it to the Auditor-General.

(4) The Auditor-General or a person (being the Deputy Auditor-General or an auditor) authorised by the Auditor-General shall, as soon as practicable after any inspection, examination and audit under this section, forward a report of the results of the inspection, examination and audit to the Treasurer.

(5) Towards defraying the costs and expenses of any inspection, examination or audit and report under this section, the employer of the accounting officer or other person concerned is to pay the Auditor-General (from any funds under the control or administration of the employer) such amounts, at such times, as the Treasurer decides.

36 Access to records, information etc

(1) The Auditor-General, an auditor or a person authorised by the Auditor-General:

(a) for the purposes of any inspection or audit authorised or required to be carried out by the Auditor-General pursuant to this Act or any other law in relation to any person, group of persons, body, fund or account, or

(b) for the purpose of exercising any other function conferred or imposed on the Auditor-General pursuant to this Act or any other law, is entitled at all reasonable times to full and free access to the accounts, records, documents and papers of or relating to the person, group of persons, body, fund or account or relating to public money, other money, public property or other property and may make copies thereof or take extracts therefrom.

(2) The Auditor-General, an auditor or a person authorised by the Auditor-General may require an officer of an authority to furnish to the Auditor-General, auditor or authorised person within 14 days after the date on which the requirement is made such information in the possession of the officer or to which the officer has access as the Auditor-General, auditor or authorised person considers necessary for any of the purposes referred to in subsection (1) (a) or (b).

- (3) The Auditor-General may, by notice in writing signed by the Auditor-General, require a person named in the notice to appear personally before the Auditor-General at a time and place specified in the notice and to produce to the Auditor-General such books, accounts, records or documents in the possession or under the control of that person as appear to the Auditor-General to be necessary for the purposes of an audit authorised or required to be made by the Auditor-General by or under this Act or any other Act or law.
- (4) A person of whom a requirement under subsection (2) or (3) is made shall not fail to comply with the requirement.
- (5) The Auditor-General, an auditor or a person authorised by the Auditor-General is entitled to exercise functions under this section despite:
 - (a) any rule of law which, in proceedings in a court of law, might justify an objection to access to accounts, records, documents or papers or information on grounds of public interest, or
 - (b) any privilege of an authority which the authority might claim in a court of law, other than a claim based on legal professional privilege, or
 - (c) any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure applying to an authority or to an officer of an authority.
- (6) Nothing in this section entitles the Auditor-General, an auditor or a person authorised by the Auditor-General to have access to a cabinet document that is an exempt document under the Freedom of Information Act 1989.
- (7) In subsection (5), authority means an authority, or other body, whose accounts are subject to audit by the Auditor-General under this Act or any other Act.

37 Access to records of bank, building society or credit union

Where an account for the banking of money (whether public money or other money) of an authority is kept with a bank, building society or credit union, the bank, building society or credit union concerned or a person in charge of the account shall, whenever requested to do so by the Auditor-General, an auditor or a person authorised by the Auditor-General:

- (a) furnish to the Auditor-General, auditor or authorised person, in accordance with the request, a statement of the account or a certificate as to the balance of the account, and
- (b) produce to the Auditor-General, auditor or authorised person any book, account, record or document relating to the authority and under the custody or control of the bank, building society or credit union or person in charge.

38 Secrecy

- (1) The Auditor-General, an auditor and an authorised person shall preserve and aid in preserving secrecy with respect to all matters and things that come to the knowledge of the Auditor-General, auditor or authorised person in the exercise of the functions of the Auditor-General, auditor or authorised person under this Act and the prescribed requirements and shall not communicate to any person any such matter or thing.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) applies to or in respect of:
 - (a) the conduct of any matter necessary for the proper administration of this Act or the prescribed requirements, or
 - (b) proceedings for an offence relating to public money, other money, public property or other property or for the recovery of public money, other money, public property or other property, or
 - (c) disciplinary proceedings brought against an officer of an authority, or
 - (d) a report or communication authorised or required to be made by or under this Act or the prescribed requirements, or
 - (e) a report or communication that the Treasurer authorises the Auditor-General to make to a person for the purposes of a due diligence or similar process relating to the sale of any government undertaking.

Division 2A Performance audits of activities

38A Definitions

In this Division:

audit includes examination and inspection.

authority means an authority, or other body, whose accounts are subject to audit by the Auditor-General under this Act or any other Act.

responsible Minister means:

- (a) in the case of a Department—the Minister responsible for the Department, or
- (b) in any other case—the Minister having the administration of the Act by or under which the authority concerned is appointed, constituted or regulated.

performance audit means an audit under this Division.

38B Performance audit by Auditor-General

- (1) The Auditor-General may, when the Auditor-General considers it appropriate to do so, conduct an audit of all or any particular activities of an authority to determine whether the authority is carrying out those activities effectively and doing so economically and efficiently and in compliance with all relevant laws.

(1A) (Repealed)

(2) A performance audit is separate from, and does not affect, any other audit required or authorised by or under this Act or any other Act.

(3) A single performance audit may relate to the activities of more than one authority.

38C Report of performance audit

(1) The Auditor-General is to report to the Head of the authority, the responsible Minister and the Treasurer as to the result of any performance audit and as to such other matters as in the judgment of the Auditor-General call for special notice.

(2) The Auditor-General must not make a report of a performance audit under this section unless, at least 28 days before making the report, the Auditor-General has given the Head of the authority, the responsible Minister and the Treasurer a summary of findings and proposed recommendations in relation to the audit.

(2A) The Auditor-General may make a report of a performance audit under this section before the expiration of that 28-day period if the Head of the authority has provided to the Auditor-General any submissions or comments he or she wishes to make.

(3) The Auditor-General is to include in the report of a performance audit under this section any submissions or comments made by the Head of the authority or a summary, in an agreed form, of any such submissions or comments.

(4) The Auditor-General, in a report of a performance audit under this section:

(a) may include such information as he or she thinks desirable in relation to the activities that are the subject of the audit, and

(b) is to set out the reasons for opinions expressed in the report, and

(c) may include such recommendations arising out of the audit as the Auditor-General thinks fit to make.

(5) The Auditor-General may include the report in any other report of the Auditor-General.

(6) If a single performance audit relates to the activities of more than one authority, the Treasurer may, at the request of the Auditor-General, determine the Head of an appropriate authority and responsible Minister to whom the Auditor-General is to report under this section. In that case, a reference in this section to the Head of the authority or the responsible Minister is to be construed accordingly.

38D (Repealed)

38E Tabling etc of reports under sec 38C

- (1) The Auditor-General is, as soon as practicable after making a report under section 38C, to present the report to each House of Parliament, if that House is then sitting.
- (2) If a House of Parliament is not sitting when the Auditor-General seeks to present a report to it under this section, the Auditor-General is to present the report to the Clerk of the House concerned to be dealt with in accordance with section 63C.
- (3) The Auditor-General may include the report in any other report of the Auditor-General to the House of Parliament concerned.

Division 3 General audit of statutory bodies

39 Application and interpretation

- (1) A reference in this Division to a statutory body is a reference to:
 - (a) a person, group of persons or body specified in Schedule 2, and
 - (b) a person, group of persons or body (not being a person, group of persons or body specified in Schedule 3) whose funds are held in an account within the Special Deposits Account.
- (1A) A reference in this Division to a statutory body also includes a reference to an entity of which the statutory body has control within the meaning of Australian Accounting Standard AAS 24: Consolidated Financial Reports and Accounting Standard AASB 1024: Consolidated Accounts.
- (1B) A reference in this Division to a statutory body does not include a reference to a person, group of persons, body or entity who or which is, by a regulation made for the purposes of this subsection, declared not to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Division.
- (2) A reference in this Division to a Minister, in relation to a statutory body, is a reference to the Minister having the administration of the Act by or under which the statutory body is appointed, constituted or regulated.
- (2A) A reference in this Division to the Auditor-General shall, where, in relation to a statutory body, not being the Auditor-General's Office or an entity referred to in subsection (1A), an Act authorises or enables the appointment by the statutory body of an auditor other than the Auditor-General to be the sole auditor in respect of the statutory body, be read and construed as a reference to that auditor.
- (3) The provisions of this Division are in addition to any other statutory provisions relating to the accounts or audit of a statutory body but, in the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Division and any other such statutory provisions, the provisions of this Division shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, prevail.

(4) Nothing in this Division limits or derogates from the provisions of Division 2.

40 Amendment of Schedule 2

- (1) The Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, amend Schedule 2:
 - (a) by inserting therein the name of a person, group of persons or body appointed, constituted or regulated by or under an Act,
 - (b) where, pursuant to an Act, the name of any such person, group of persons or body is altered or other matter relating to any such person, group of persons or body is altered, by altering that name or that other matter, or
 - (c) where, pursuant to an Act, any such person, group of persons or body ceases to be constituted or regulated by or under an Act or, in the case of a body, is abolished or dissolved, by omitting therefrom the name of the person, group of persons or body.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Governor may, by regulation, amend Schedule 2 by omitting therefrom the name of a person, group of persons or body.

41 Keeping of accounts

- (1) A statutory body shall cause to be kept proper accounts and records in relation to all of its operations.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), a statutory body, being the Senate or Council of a university, shall cause to be kept proper books of account in relation to the funds of the university.
- (3)-(8) (Repealed)

41A Preparation of financial statements

- (1) A statutory body (other than the Auditor-General's Office) shall, within the period of 6 weeks after the end of each financial year of the statutory body, prepare and submit:
 - (a) to the Minister, and
 - (b) to the Auditor-General,financial statements for the financial year then ended.
- (2) The Auditor-General is, within the period of 6 weeks after the end of each financial year of the Auditor-General's Office, to prepare and submit to the auditor appointed under section 47 financial statements for the financial year then ended.

41B Nature of financial statements

- (1) The financial statements referred to in section 41A of a statutory body:

- (a) shall be prepared having regard to current accounting standards and industry practices relating to the statutory body,
- (b) shall, except as provided by subsection (2), be prepared on an accrual accounting basis,
- (c) shall consist of:
 - (i) in the case of a statutory body which is not engaged in manufacturing or trading activities, an income and expenditure statement or a statement of receipts and payments,
 - (ia) except as provided by subsection (3), in the case of a statutory body which is engaged in manufacturing and trading activities, manufacturing, trading and profit and loss statements,
 - (ib) except as provided by subsection (3), in the case of a statutory body which is engaged in trading activities only, trading and profit and loss statements,
 - (ii) except as provided by subsection (3), a balance sheet or a statement of balances,
 - (iii) except as provided by subsection (3), consolidated accounts,
 - (iv) a statement of cash flows,
 - (v) proper and adequate notes to the statements referred to in subparagraphs (i)-(iv),
 - (va) a statement of all exemptions, omissions, modifications and variations made by the Treasurer under section 41BA which apply to the statutory body, and a summary of the reasons for them, and
 - (vi) such other information, if any, or particulars, if any, as may be prescribed,
- (d) shall be accompanied by:
 - (i) a summary of the land owned or occupied by the statutory body classified according to the actual use of the land, and
 - (ii) where it is appropriate to value the land and the value can readily be established, a statement of the value of the land within each classification, or otherwise, a statement giving the reasons why it is inappropriate to value the land or why the value cannot readily be established,
- (e) shall exhibit a true and fair view of the financial position and transactions of the statutory body and, in the case of a statutory body being the Senate or Council of a university, of the financial position and transactions of the university, and

(f) (Repealed)

(g) shall be prepared in such manner, if any, and such form, if any, as may be prescribed.

(2) A statutory body may prepare the financial statements referred to in section 41A on a basis other than an accrual accounting basis where that other basis has been approved by the Treasurer.

(3) A statutory body may, with the approval of the Treasurer, dispense with any one or more of the various matters specified in the following paragraphs:

(a) the preparation of manufacturing, trading and profit and loss statements and the inclusion of those statements in the financial accounts of the statutory body,

(b) the preparation of a balance sheet or statement of balances and the inclusion of a balance sheet or statement of balances in the financial statements of the statutory body,

(c) the preparation of consolidated accounts and the inclusion of consolidated accounts in the financial statements of the statutory body.

(3A) If the Treasurer approves of a statutory body dispensing with the statements referred to in subsection (3) (a), the financial statements referred to in section 41A of the statutory body shall consist of:

(a) an income and expenditure statement,

(b) a statement of receipts and payments, or

(c) a prescribed statement prepared in such manner (if any) and such form (if any) as may be prescribed, as the Treasurer may direct.

(4) The Treasurer shall, before giving an approval referred to in subsection (3), consult with the Auditor-General.

(5) (Repealed)

41BA Variation of requirements

(1) If, after consulting the Auditor-General, the Treasurer is satisfied that compliance with a provision of this Act or the regulations which relates to the form or content of financial statements:

(a) would render the financial statements of a statutory body misleading, or

(b) would be inappropriate to the circumstances of a statutory body, or

(c) would impose unreasonable burdens on a statutory body, the Treasurer may, by notice in writing, exempt the statutory body from compliance with the provision or declare that the provision applies to it as if omitted, or modified or varied in a specified manner.

(2) An exemption, omission, modification or variation under this section:

(a) may be specific or general, and

(b) may be made in respect of a single statutory body or a class of them, and

(c) may be made on such terms and conditions as the Treasurer thinks fit, and

(d) may be revoked or varied by the Treasurer in relation to a statutory body by notice in writing.

41C Auditing etc of financial statements

(1) The Auditor-General is, within the period of 10 weeks after the receipt by the Auditor-General of the financial statements referred to in section 41A of a statutory body, to audit the accounts of the statutory body for the financial year to which the financial statements relate.

(1A) The Auditor-General or a person (being the Deputy Auditor-General or an auditor) authorised by the Auditor-General is, within that 10-week period to furnish an opinion:

(a) stating that the Auditor-General has audited the accounts caused to be kept by the statutory body for that financial year, and

(b) indicating whether the financial statements comply with section 41B, and

(c) setting forth any qualifications subject to which the opinion is given.

(1B) An opinion in relation to the financial statements of a statutory body is not to be furnished under subsection (1A) unless the Auditor-General has received a statement made in accordance with a resolution of the statutory body stating whether, in the opinion of the person or persons who are to sign the statement in accordance with subsection (1C):

(a) the financial statements exhibit a true and fair view of the financial position and transactions of the statutory body, or

(b) in the case of a statutory body being the Senate, Council or Board of Governors of a university, the financial statements exhibit a true and fair view of the financial position and transactions of the university.

(1C) The statement is to be signed by:

- (a) 2 members of the statutory body, or
 - (b) in the case of a statutory body which is a corporation sole, by the person who constitutes the corporation sole, or
 - (c) in the case of a statutory body without members, by the chief executive officer of the body.
- (2) Nothing in this section prevents the alteration of the financial statements, with the approval of the Auditor-General, after their receipt by the Auditor-General and before their submission to the Minister.
- (3) (Repealed)

41D Return of audited financial statements etc to statutory body

The Auditor-General or a person authorised by the Auditor-General shall, after all the functions conferred by section 41C in relation to the financial statements of a statutory body have been performed, submit the financial statements and the opinion under that section to the statutory body for submission to the Minister.

42 Application for extension

- (1) A statutory body may, at any time within the period of 6 weeks after the end of the financial year of the body, apply to the Treasurer for an extension of the period within which it is required to comply with section 41A.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall include detailed reasons and other relevant information in support of the application.
- (3) The Treasurer may, after consultation with the appropriate Minister and the Auditor-General, extend a period within which a statutory body is required to comply with section 41A or any requirement of that section.
- (4) Where, in relation to a statutory body, the Treasurer extends a period within which a statutory body is required to comply with section 41A or any requirement of that section, the body shall comply with section 41A or the requirement, as the case may require, within the extended period.

43 Inspection and audit of accounts of statutory bodies

- (1) The accounts and records of financial transactions of or relating to a statutory body (other than the Auditor-General's Office), and the records of or relating to assets of or in the custody of the body or the liabilities of the body, shall be inspected and audited by the Auditor-General.
- (2) The Auditor-General or a person (being the Deputy Auditor-General or an auditor) authorised by the Auditor-General shall report to the statutory body, the Minister and the Treasurer as to the result of any such inspection and audit and as to such irregularities or other matters as in the judgment of the Auditor-General or authorised person call for special notice.

- (3) Towards defraying the costs and expenses of any such inspection and audit, the statutory body shall pay to the Auditor-General such amounts, at such times, as the Treasurer decides.

43A General audit of former statutory bodies

- (1) This section applies where a statutory body ceases to be a statutory body because it is abolished or dissolved or its name is removed from Schedule 2. The statutory body is referred to in this section as the body.
- (2) Unless other provision is made by or under any Act:
 - (a) financial statements for the portion of the financial year ending when the body ceased to be such a statutory body (and for any previous financial year) are to be prepared and submitted, and
 - (b) the accounts of the body are to be audited,in the same way that they would have been required to be prepared, submitted and audited if the financial year had ended on that day and the body had not ceased to be such a statutory body.
- (3) The financial statements may be prepared and submitted by the persons who were responsible for the affairs of the body or by any successor to or continuation of the body.
- (4) The Auditor-General may make such arrangements, and enter such agreements, as may be appropriate or necessary for the purposes of this section. An arrangement or agreement may provide for the affairs of the body and of any successor to be treated in a composite way.
- (5) The Treasurer may direct that this section is not to apply to the body if, in the opinion of the Treasurer, it is unnecessary or inappropriate for it to apply.

Division 4 Particular audit of statutory bodies, funds and accounts

44 Application and interpretation

- (1) A reference in this Division to a statutory body is a reference to:
 - (a) a person, group of persons or body prescribed for the purposes of this Division, or of the Legislative Assembly, or

(e) if the member is discharged from office by the Legislative Assembly.

(6) The Legislative Assembly may appoint one of its members (not being a Minister of the Crown or a Parliamentary Secretary) to fill a vacancy in the office of a member of the Committee.

(7) Any act or proceeding of the Committee is, notwithstanding that at the time when the act or proceeding was done, taken or commenced there was:

(a) a vacancy in the office of a member of the Committee, or

(b) any defect in the appointment, or any disqualification, of a member of the Committee, as valid as if the vacancy, defect or disqualification did not exist and the Committee were fully and properly constituted.

55 Chairman and Vice-Chairman of Committee

(1) There shall be a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman of the Committee who shall be elected by and from the members of the Committee.

(2) A member of the Committee ceases to hold office as Chairman or Vice-Chairman if:

(a) the member ceases to be a member of the Committee,

(b) the member resigns the office by instrument in writing presented to a meeting of the Committee, or

(c) the member is discharged from the office by the Committee.

(3) At any time when the Chairman is absent from New South Wales or is, for any reason, unable to perform the duties of the office of Chairman or there is a vacancy in that office, the Vice-Chairman may exercise the functions of the Chairman under this Act or under the Parliamentary Evidence Act 1901.

56 Procedure of Committee

(1) The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Committee and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall, subject to this Part, be as determined by the Committee.

(2) The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly shall call the first meeting of the Committee in each Parliament in such manner as the Clerk thinks fit.

(3) At a meeting of the Committee, 4 members constitute a quorum.

(4) The Chairman or, in the absence of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman or, in the absence of both the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, a member of the Committee elected as chairman for the meeting by the members present shall preside at a meeting of the Committee.

- (5) The Vice-Chairman or other member presiding at a meeting of the Committee shall, in relation to the meeting, have all the functions and powers of the Chairman.
- (6) The Chairman, Vice-Chairman or other member presiding at a meeting of the Committee shall have a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, shall also have a casting vote.
- (7) A question arising at a meeting of the Committee shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.
- (8) The Committee may sit and transact business notwithstanding any prorogation or adjournment of the Legislative Assembly.
- (9) The Committee may sit and transact business on a sitting day of the Legislative Assembly during the time of the sitting.

57 Functions of Committee

- (1) The functions of the Committee are:
 - (a) to examine the Total State Sector Accounts transmitted to the Legislative Assembly by the Treasurer,
 - (b) to examine the accounts of authorities of the State, being accounts that have been:
 - (i) audited by the Auditor-General or an auditor appointed under section 47 (1), or
 - (ii) laid before the Legislative Assembly by a Minister of the Crown,
 - (c) to examine the opinion or any report of the Auditor-General transmitted with the Total State Sector Accounts or laid before the Legislative Assembly with the accounts of an authority of the State (including any documents annexed or appended to any such opinion or report),
 - (c1) to examine any report of the Auditor-General laid before the Legislative Assembly,
 - (d) to report to the Legislative Assembly from time to time upon any item in, or any circumstances connected with, those accounts, reports or documents which the Committee considers ought to be brought to the notice of the Legislative Assembly,
 - (e) to report to the Legislative Assembly from time to time any alteration which the Committee thinks desirable in the form of those accounts or in the method of keeping them or in the method of receipt, expenditure or control of money relating to those accounts,

(f) to inquire into, and report to the Legislative Assembly upon, any question in connection with those accounts which is referred to it by the Legislative Assembly, a Minister of the Crown or the Auditor-General, and

(g) to inquire into expenditure by a Minister of the Crown made without Parliamentary sanction or appropriation or otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act or any other Act and report to the Legislative Assembly from time to time upon any matter connected with that expenditure which the Committee considers ought to be brought to the notice of the Legislative Assembly.

(2) The functions of the Committee extend to an examination of, inquiry into or report upon a matter of Government policy if and only if the matter has been specifically referred to the Committee under subsection (1) (f) by the Legislative Assembly or a Minister of the Crown.

(3) The functions of the Committee do not extend to an examination of, inquiry into or report upon the estimates of any proposed expenditure by the State or by an authority of the State.

(4) If, at the time at which the Committee seeks to report to the Legislative Assembly in accordance with subsection (1), the Legislative Assembly is not sitting, the Committee shall present its report to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly to be dealt with in accordance with section 63C.

(5) (Repealed)

57A Power to veto proposed appointment of Auditor-General

(1) The Treasurer is to refer a proposal to appoint a person as Auditor-General to the Committee and the Committee is empowered to veto the proposed appointment as provided by this section. The Treasurer may withdraw a referral at any time.

(2) The Committee has 14 days after the proposed appointment is referred to it to veto the proposal and has a further 30 days (after the initial 14 days) to veto the proposal if it notifies the Treasurer within that 14 days that it requires more time to consider the matter.

(3) The Committee is to notify the Treasurer, within the time that it has to veto a proposed appointment, whether or not it vetoes it.

(4) A referral or notification under this section is to be in writing.

58 Evidence

(1) Subject to this section, the Committee shall take all evidence in public.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Committee, any evidence proposed to be given before, or the whole or a part of a document produced or proposed to be produced in evidence to, the Committee relates to a secret or confidential matter, the Committee may, and at the request of the witness giving the evidence or producing the document shall:

(a) take the evidence in private, or

(b) direct that the document, or the part of the document, be treated as confidential.

(2A) If any evidence proposed to be given before, or the whole or a part of a document produced or proposed to be produced in evidence to, the Committee relates to the proposed appointment of a person as Auditor-General, the Committee must (despite any other provision of this section):

(a) take the evidence in private, or

(b) direct that the document, or the part of the document, be treated as confidential.

(2B) Despite any other provision of this section except subsection (7), the Committee must not, and a person (including a member of the Committee) must not, disclose any evidence or the contents of a document or that part of a document to which subsection (2A) applies.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months, or both.

(2C) Despite any other provision of this section except subsection (7), the Committee (including a member of the Committee) must not, and any person assisting the Committee or present during the deliberations of the Committee must not, except in accordance with section 57A (3), disclose whether or not the Committee or any member of the Committee has vetoed, or proposes to veto, the proposed appointment of a person as Auditor-General.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months, or both.

(3) Where a direction under subsection (2) is applicable in respect of a document, or a part of a document, produced in evidence to the Committee, the contents of the document or part shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be evidence given by the person producing the document and taken by the Committee in private.

(4) Where, at the request of a witness, evidence is taken by the Committee in private:

(a) the Committee shall not, without the consent in writing of the witness, and

(b) a person (including a member of the Committee) shall not, without the consent in writing of the witness and the authority of the Committee under subsection (6), disclose or publish the whole or a part of that evidence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

- (5) Where evidence is taken by the Committee in private otherwise than at the request of a witness, a person (including a member of the Committee) shall not, without the authority of the Committee under subsection (6), disclose or publish the whole or a part of that evidence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

- (6) The Committee may, in its discretion, disclose or publish or, by writing under the hand of the Chairman, authorise the disclosure or publication of evidence taken in private by the Committee, but this subsection does not operate so as to affect the necessity for the consent of a witness under subsection (4).

- (7) Nothing in this section prohibits:

- (a) the disclosure or publication of evidence that has already been lawfully published, or
(b) the disclosure or publication by a person of a matter of which the person has become aware otherwise than by reason, directly or indirectly, of the giving of evidence before the Committee.

- (8) This section has effect notwithstanding section 4 of the Parliamentary Papers (Supplementary Provisions) Act 1975.

- (9) Where evidence taken by the Committee in private is disclosed or published in accordance with this section:

- (a) sections 6 and 7 of the Parliamentary Papers (Supplementary Provisions) Act 1975 apply to and in relation to the disclosure or publication as if it were a publication of that evidence under the authority of section 4 of that Act, and
(b) Division 5 of Part 3 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Defamation Act 1974 apply to and in relation to that evidence as if it were taken by the Committee in public.

- (10) Where the Committee as constituted at any time has taken evidence in relation to a matter but the Committee as so constituted has ceased to exist before reporting on the matter, the Committee as constituted at any subsequent time, whether during the same or another Parliament, may consider that evidence as if it had taken that evidence.

- (11) The production of documents to the Committee shall be in accordance with the practice of the Legislative Assembly with respect to the production of documents to select committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

59 Form of accounts etc

- (1) A book, account or record that is required by this Act or the prescribed requirements to be kept or prepared may be kept or prepared:
 - (a) by making entries in a bound or looseleaf book,
 - (b) by recording or storing the matters concerned by means of a mechanical, electronic or other device, or
 - (c) in any other manner approved by the Treasurer.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not authorise a book, account or record to be kept or prepared by a mechanical, electronic or other device unless:
 - (a) the matters recorded or stored will be capable, at any time, of being reproduced in a written form or another form approved by the Treasurer, or
 - (b) a reproduction of those matters is kept in a written form approved by the Treasurer.
- (3) An authority shall take all reasonable precautions, including such precautions (if any) as are specified in the prescribed requirements, for guarding against damage to, destruction of or falsification of or in, and for discovery of falsification of or in, any book, account or record or part of a book, account or record required by this Act or the prescribed requirements to be kept or prepared by the authority.
- (4) Where an authority records or stores any matters by means of a mechanical, electronic or other device, any duty imposed by this Act or the prescribed requirements to make a book, account or record containing those matters available for inspection or to provide copies of the whole or part of a book, account or record containing those matters shall be construed as a duty to make the matters available for inspection in written form or to provide a document containing a clear reproduction in writing of the whole or part of them, as the case may be.
- (5) A writing that purports to reproduce matters recorded or stored by means of a mechanical, electronic or other device shall, unless the contrary is established, be deemed to be a reproduction of those matters.

59A Treasury Fire Risks Account

- (1) Funds in credit in the Treasury Fire Risks Account in the Special Deposits Account may be utilised from time to time by the Treasurer, at the discretion of the Treasurer, for the purpose of:
 - (a) whole or partial payment for, replacement of, or repair to, Government property lost or damaged by fire or lightning, or by both,

- (b) defraying the expenses incidental to the assessment of loss or damage referred to in paragraph (a), or
- (c) providing security devices for the prevention or detection of fires in any building or part of a building owned or leased by the Crown.

- (2) Interest at a rate to be determined from time to time by the Treasurer shall be allowed on funds in credit in the Treasury Fire Risks Account.
- (3) Any portion of funds in credit in the Treasury Fire Risks Account may be invested in accordance with section 20.
- (4) Interest allowed on funds in credit in the Treasury Fire Risks Account, together with interest earned on any investments therefrom, shall from time to time be paid to the credit of that Account and to the credit of the Consolidated Fund in such proportions as the Treasurer may determine.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to constitute insurance within the meaning of any clause, condition or stipulation of any policy of insurance.
- (6) All or any funds in credit in the Treasury Fire Risks Account (including investments) may be transferred by the Treasurer, at the discretion of the Treasurer, to the Managed Fund for Public Sector Insurances to add to that Fund's solvency reserve.

59B Payment of certain amounts by statutory authority to Consolidated Fund

- (1) In this section, dividend, in relation to a statutory authority, means an amount calculated by applying a rate, determined by the Treasurer, to the assets, or some portion of the assets, of the statutory authority.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other Act, the Treasurer may at any time require a prescribed statutory authority to pay to the credit of the Consolidated Fund, at such times and in such manner as the Treasurer directs, such amount by way of dividend as the Treasurer may determine and notify to the statutory authority.
- (3) The Treasurer may require a statutory authority to prepare and submit to the Treasurer such accounting statements (if any), required for the determination of dividends payable by the statutory authority, in such manner (if any) and such form (if any) as the Treasurer determines.
- (4) A statutory authority shall comply with a requirement made in respect of it by the Treasurer under this section.
- (5) Notwithstanding any other Act, the Treasurer may, in relation to a payment by a statutory authority under this section, make any one or more of the following determinations:

- (a) that the payment shall be deemed to be payment or part payment of another amount, specified by the Treasurer, which the statutory authority is required to pay to the Treasurer,
- (b) that the payment shall be paid in addition to any other amount which the statutory authority is required to pay to the Treasurer,
- (c) that the payment shall be deemed to be an obligation of the statutory authority under the Act by which the statutory authority is constituted.

60 Recovery of money and value of property

(1) Where there occurs a loss of or deficiency in:

- (a) public money or other money that has been advanced to an officer of an authority, or
- (b) public money or other money while that money is under the control of an officer of an authority, that loss or deficiency shall be a debt due to the Crown or the authority, as the case may require, and may be recovered from the officer in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Where an officer of an authority defends an action brought under subsection (1), the plaintiff is entitled to judgment if, in the absence of proof to the contrary, the plaintiff proves:

- (a) that the defendant was an officer of the authority,
- (b) that the money the subject of the action was under the control of the defendant, and
- (c) that the defendant converted the money to the defendant's own use or was guilty, by act or omission, of culpable negligence or misconduct in relation to the control the defendant exercised over the money.

(3) Where loss or destruction of or damage to public property or other property occurs while the property is in the care of an authority, the value of the property lost or destroyed or, as the case may be, the cost of replacing or repairing the damage to that property shall be a debt due to the Crown or the authority, as the case may require, and may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction by action brought against:

- (a) the officer of the authority in whose care the property was at the material time, or
- (b) another officer of the authority who by culpable negligence or misconduct caused or contributed to the loss or destruction of or damage to the property.

- (4) Where an officer of an authority defends an action brought under subsection (3), the plaintiff is entitled to judgment if, in the absence of proof to the contrary, the plaintiff proves:
 - (a) that the defendant was an officer of the authority, and
 - (b) that the defendant converted the property the subject of the action to the defendant's own use or by culpable negligence or misconduct caused or contributed to the loss or destruction of or damage to the property.
- (5) Where the negligence or misconduct of an officer of an authority was not the sole cause of the loss or destruction of or damage to the property the subject of an action under subsection (3), the Crown or the authority, as the case may require, may recover from the officer so much only of the cost of, or the cost of replacing or repairing, the loss, destruction or damage as is just and equitable having regard to the contribution made by the officer to that loss, destruction or damage as determined by the court.
- (6) In this section a reference to an officer of an authority includes a reference to a person who has been such an officer.
- (7) For the purposes of this section:
 - (a) public money or other money shall be taken to be under the control of an officer of an authority if the money has been collected or received by or has come into the custody of the officer but has not been paid to another person or to the credit of an account with a bank, building society or credit union as required by the provisions of this Act or the prescribed requirements, and
 - (b) public property or other property shall be taken to be in the care of an officer of an authority if the property:
 - (i) has been delivered to the officer, and
 - (ii) has not been returned to a person or delivered to another person entitled to receive it on behalf of the Crown or the authority, as the case may require.
- (8) The provisions of this section do not affect a right of the Crown or an authority to recover an amount from an officer of an authority otherwise than under this section but the Crown or the authority, as the case may require, shall not recover amounts from the one officer both under this section and otherwise than under this section, in respect of the same loss, deficiency, destruction or damage.

61 Misappropriation of money or property

- (1) An officer of an authority shall not:
 - (a) misapply, improperly dispose of or improperly use, any public money, other

money, public property or other property, or

(b) pay any public money or other money into an account other than the account into which the money is required to be paid.

(2) An officer of an authority shall not wilfully and unlawfully damage or destroy any public property or other property.

(3) In a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) (a), it is not necessary to prove the misapplication, improper disposal or improper use of any specific sum of money or property if there is proof of a general deficiency on the examination of the books of account or entries kept or made by the defendant or otherwise and the court or jury is satisfied that the defendant misapplied, improperly disposed of or improperly used all or any of the deficient money or all or any of the deficient property.

61A Disclosure of information or documents relating to Treasury costing of election promises

(1) This section applies to any of the following information and documents:

(a) information or documents provided to the Secretary of the Treasury by a person on behalf of the Government or the Opposition for the purposes of the Treasury costing any election commitments or proposals,

(b) information or documents prepared by the Treasury for the purposes of that costing.

(2) The Secretary of the Treasury or other member of staff of the Treasury must not disclose any such information or document except to:

(a) the representative of the Government or the Opposition who requested the costing (or to any person authorised by that representative), or

(b) a member of staff of the Treasury.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

(3) This section does not apply to any information or document:

(a) if the information or document has already been lawfully published, or

(b) if the person disclosing the information or document became aware of the information or obtained the document otherwise than in the course of Treasury costing any election commitments or proposals.

(4) This section applies to a disclosure made after the commencement of this section even though the request for the Treasury costing was made before that commencement.

- (5) In this section, Treasury costing of an election commitment or proposal means a costing for the purposes of a general election of the Legislative Assembly that is undertaken by the Treasury in accordance with arrangements made by the Secretary of the Treasury.

62 Offences—generally

A person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act or the prescribed requirements is guilty of an offence and liable, where a penalty is not otherwise expressly provided, to a penalty not exceeding 20 penalty units.

63 Proceedings for offences

- (1) Proceedings for an offence against a provision of this Act or the prescribed requirements shall be disposed of in a Local Court constituted by a Magistrate sitting alone.
- (2) A penalty incurred under this Act or the prescribed requirements, when paid or recovered, shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

63A Reference of matters to Public Accounts Committee

- (1) In this section:

Public Accounts Committee means the Public Accounts Committee for the time being constituted under Part 4.

statutory body means a statutory body to which Division 3 of Part 3 applies.

- (2) The Treasurer may refer any matter relating to the financial statements of a statutory body to the Public Accounts Committee for examination and report to the Treasurer.
- (3) The Treasurer shall refer to the Public Accounts Committee for examination and report to the Treasurer any proposal to amend Division 3 of Part 3 or make a regulation relating to the financial statements of a statutory body, other than a proposal made by the Public Accounts Committee.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (3) requires the Treasurer to refer a proposal to the Public Accounts Committee if, at the time the Treasurer formulates or receives the proposal:
- (a) no members have been appointed to the Committee, or
 - (b) the members of the Committee have ceased to hold office.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (2) or (3) prevents the Public Accounts Committee, after the Committee has reported to the Treasurer, from reporting to the Legislative Assembly on any matter referred to it by the Treasurer under subsection (2) or (3).
- (6) The provisions of section 57 (4) apply to and in respect of a report under subsection

(5) in the same way as those provisions apply to and in respect of a report in accordance with section 57 (1).

63B Notification of controlled entities

- (1) Within 1 month after an entity becomes an entity referred to in section 45A (1A), the appropriate Department Head must notify the Auditor-General and the Treasurer in writing of that fact.
- (2) Within 1 month after an entity becomes an entity referred to in section 39 (1A), the appropriate statutory body must notify the Auditor-General and the Treasurer in writing of that fact.
- (3) A Department or statutory body must take such steps as are appropriate to ensure that an entity referred to in section 45A (1A) or 39 (1A) which is controlled by the Department or statutory body is audited by the Auditor-General.

63C Documents presented to Clerk of House of Parliament

A document which is presented to the Clerk of a House of Parliament in accordance with a provision of this Act:

- (a) is, on presentation and for all purposes, taken to have been laid before the House, and
- (b) is to be printed by authority of the Clerk of the House, and
- (c) is, for all purposes, taken to be a document published by order or under the authority of the House, and
- (d) is to be recorded:
 - (i) in the case of the Legislative Council, in the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Legislative Council, and
 - (ii) in the case of the Legislative Assembly, in the Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly, on the first sitting day of the House after receipt of the report by the Clerk.

63D Liability of Auditor-General etc

- (1) A matter or thing done or omitted to be done by the Auditor-General or a member of the Auditor-General's Office does not, if the matter or thing was done or omitted to be done in good faith for the purpose of executing this or any other Act, subject the Auditor-General or member personally to any action, liability, claim or demand.
- (2) For the purpose of determining whether the Crown is vicariously liable for any matter or thing done or omitted to be done by the Auditor-General or a member of the Auditor-General's Office, it is declared for the avoidance of doubt that the Auditor-

General and any such member is in the service of the Crown.

63E Delegation of Treasurer's functions

- (1) The Treasurer may delegate to an authorised person any of the functions of the Treasurer under this Act, other than this power of delegation.
- (2) A delegate may sub-delegate to an authorised person any function delegated by the Treasurer under this section if the delegate is authorised in writing to do so by the Treasurer.
- (3) In this section, authorised person means a member of the staff of the Treasury or a person of a class prescribed by the regulations or approved by the Treasurer.

64 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
 - (1A) Without limiting subsection (1), a regulation may shorten the time for compliance with a provision of section 6 (4), 41A (1) or (2), 41C (1) or (1A), 45D (1), 45F (1), 49 (2), 51 (1) or 52A (1), despite the provision.
- (2) A provision of a regulation may:
 - (a) apply generally or be limited in its application by reference to specified exceptions or factors,
 - (b) apply differently according to different factors of a specified kind, or
 - (c) authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by any specified person, group of persons or body,or may do any combination of those things.

65 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Schedule 4 has effect.

Schedule 1 The Auditor-General

(Section 28 (2))

Part 1 Appointment and terms of office

1 (Repealed)

1A Auditor-General to continue in office

The person holding office as Auditor-General immediately before the commencement of Schedule 2 (1) to the Public Finance and Audit (Auditor-General) Amendment Act 1991:

- (a) is, on that commencement, taken to be appointed to that office, in accordance with section 28 (1), for a term expiring 7 years from that commencement or when the person attains the age of 65 years, whichever occurs first, and
- (b) is not eligible for re-appointment, including re-appointment after the end of that term.

2 Disabilities

- (1) The Auditor-General shall not, during continuance in office as Auditor-General, be capable of being a member of the Executive Council or of the Parliament of the Commonwealth or of a State of the Commonwealth.
- (2) The Auditor-General is not to hold any other position in the public sector during his or her term of office as Auditor-General or after the expiration of that term, except with the consent of the Governor.

3 (Repealed)

4 Public Service Act 1979 not to apply

The provisions of the Public Service Act 1979 do not apply to or in respect of the appointment of the Auditor-General and the Auditor-General is not, as the Auditor-General, subject to the provisions of that Act.

4A Resignation of Auditor-General

The office of Auditor-General becomes vacant if the Auditor-General resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Governor.

5 Removal from office

The Governor may remove the Auditor-General from office upon the address of both Houses of the Legislature.

6 Suspension from office

- (1) The Governor may suspend the Auditor-General from office:

- (a) for misbehaviour,
 - (b) for incapacity,
 - (c) if the Auditor-General directly or indirectly engages in any paid employment outside the duties of the office of Auditor-General, or in any trade or business,
 - (d) if the Auditor-General becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or
 - (e) if the Auditor-General is absent from duty for a period in excess of his or her leave entitlement as approved by the Governor unless the absence is caused by illness or other unavoidable cause.
- (2) The Minister shall lay or cause to be laid before each House of Parliament, within 7 sitting days of that House after the Auditor-General has been suspended from office, a full statement of the grounds for the suspension.
- (3) The suspension shall be lifted unless each House of Parliament, within 21 sitting days from the time when the statement was laid before it, declares by resolution that the Auditor-General ought to be removed from office.
- (4) If each House does so declare within that period, the Auditor-General shall be removed from office by the Governor.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, sitting days shall be counted whether or not they occur in the same session.

7 Preservation of rights of Auditor-General previously public servant etc

- (1) In this clause:

statutory body means any body declared under subclause (6) to be a statutory body for the purposes of this clause.

superannuation scheme means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under any Act.

- (2) Subject to subclause (3) and to the terms of appointment, where the Auditor-General was, immediately before being appointed as Auditor-General:
- (a) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service,
 - (b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme,
 - (c) an officer employed by a statutory body, or

(d) a person in respect of whom provision was made by any Act for the retention of any rights accrued or accruing to the person as an officer or employee,

he or she:

(e) shall retain any rights accrued or accruing to him or her as such an officer, contributor or person,

(f) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which he or she was a contributor immediately before being appointed as Auditor-General, and

(g) shall be entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity, as if he or she had continued to be such an officer, contributor or person during his or her service as Auditor-General, and:

(h) his or her service as Auditor-General shall be deemed to be service as an officer or employee for the purpose of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which he or she continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred, and

(i) he or she shall be deemed to be an officer or employee, and the Government of New South Wales shall be deemed to be the employer, for the purpose of the superannuation scheme to which he or she is entitled to contribute under this section.

(3) If the Auditor-General would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under that scheme, he or she shall not be so entitled upon becoming (whether upon appointment as Auditor-General or at any later time while holding office as Auditor-General) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme, and the provisions of subclause (2) (i) cease to apply to or in respect of him or her and the Government of New South Wales in any case where he or she becomes a contributor to such another superannuation scheme.

(4) Subclause (3) does not prevent the payment to the Auditor-General upon his or her ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme of such amount as would have been payable to him or her if he or she had ceased, by reason of resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of that scheme.

(5) The Auditor-General shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and another Act.

(6) The Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, declare any body constituted by or under any Act to be a statutory body for the purposes of this clause.

Part 2 Auditor-General's declaration

(Section 29 (1))

I, _____, do solemnly and sincerely promise and declare that, according to the best of my skill and ability, I will faithfully, impartially and truly execute the office and perform the duties of Auditor-General according to law.

Schedule 4 Savings, transitional and other provisions

(Section 65)

Part 1 Savings or transitional regulations

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:

Public Finance and Audit Amendment (Auditor-General) Act 2001

Public Finance and Audit Amendment (Budgeting and Financial Reporting) Act 2002

- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on enactment of Public Finance and Audit Amendment (Auditor-General) Act 2001

2 Definition of Amending Act

In this Schedule:

Amending Act means the Public Finance and Audit Amendment (Auditor-General) Act 2001.

3 Validation with respect to exercise of functions of Auditor-General

- (1) Anything done by or on behalf of the Auditor-General before the commencement of any amendment made by the Amending Act that would have been validly done if the Amending Act had been in force when it was done is, to the extent of any invalidity, validated.
- (2) In this clause, a reference to anything done includes a reference to anything omitted to be done.

4 Protection from liability of Auditor-General—application of amendment to section 63D to previous omissions

The amendment made to section 63D by the Amending Act extends to anything omitted to be done before the commencement of that amendment.

5 Existing protected disclosures

A complaint made under section 38B (1A) before the repeal of that provision by the Amending Act that has not been finally dealt with on that repeal is taken to be a complaint under Division 7 of Part 3, as inserted by the Amending Act, and may be dealt with accordingly.

Part 3 Provisions consequent on enactment of Public Finance and Audit Amendment \(Budgeting and Financial Reporting\) Act 2002

6 Budget presentation for 2002-03

Sections 27A and 27AA, as inserted by the Public Finance and Audit Amendment \(Budgeting and Financial Reporting\) Act 2002, do not apply to the budget for the financial year commencing on 1 July 2002.
