This Act is to be read together with the Taxation Administration Act 1996, which makes provision for the administration and enforcement of this Act and other taxation laws.

5A Abolition of betting tax on bookmakers

(1) Despite section 6, betting tax is not payable on bets made by backers with any bookmaker on any event or contingency relating to a horse race, harness race or greyhound race, being a race held at any time after 30 March 2002.

- (2) Despite section 7, betting tax is not payable on bets made by backers with any bookmaker on the outcome of any event or contingency relating to a sports betting event held at any time after 30 March 2002.
- (3) Despite section 13, 15 or 16, a return is not required to be prepared or lodged under any of those sections in respect of a week beginning after 30 March 2002.
- (4) Despite section 14, a return is not required to be prepared or lodged under that section in relation to a race meeting conducted at any time after 30 March 2002.
- (5) Despite section 17, a written record is not required to be kept under that section of a bet made in relation to a horse race, harness race or greyhound race, or a sports betting event, held at any time after 30 March 2002.

Part 2 Imposition of betting tax

6 Race betting tax on bookmakers

- (1) Betting tax is payable on bets made by backers with any bookmaker, on any event or contingency relating to a horse race, harness race or greyhound race.
- (2) The tax payable is one per cent of the total amount of bets made by backers with any bookmaker.
- (3) The tax is payable by the bookmaker with whom the relevant bet is made.
- (4) The tax is payable by the second Thursday after the week (beginning at midnight on Saturday and ending at midnight on the next Saturday) in which the horse race, harness race or greyhound race is held.

7 Sports betting tax on bookmakers

- (1) Betting tax is payable on bets made by backers with any bookmaker on the outcome of any event or contingency relating to a sports betting event.
- (2) The tax payable is:
 - (a) in the case of a sports betting event where the form of the bet involves 4 or less outcomes—0.5 per cent of the total amount of bets made by backers with any bookmaker, or
 - (b) in any other case—one per cent of the total amount of bets made by backers with any bookmaker.
- (3) The tax is payable by the bookmaker with whom the relevant bet is made.

- (4) The tax is payable by the second Thursday after the week (beginning at midnight on Saturday and ending at midnight on the next Saturday) in which the sports betting event is held.

8 Betting tax on commission on totalizator betting

- (1) Betting tax is payable by a totalizator licensee on the commission deducted (under section 69 of the Totalizator Act 1997) from the total amount invested in each totalizator conducted by the licensee.
- (2) The tax payable is:
 - (a) 19.11 per cent of the total amount so deducted each day on which the totalizator licensee conducts a totalizator on one or more events or contingencies, or
 - (b) any lower percentage of that amount that the Governor may declare, on the recommendation of the Minister, by order published in the Gazette.
- (3) The tax is payable by the totalizator licensee conducting the relevant totalizator.
- (4) The tax is payable within 7 days after the day in respect of which the tax is payable.
- (5) A tax is not payable under this section on any amount that is applied by the totalizator licensee in rounding up an amount calculated as dividend.

9 Betting tax on totalizator roundings

- (1) Betting tax is payable on totalizator roundings.
- (2) The tax payable is 19.11 per cent of the total amount of roundings arising in respect of each day on which a totalizator is conducted by a totalizator licensee on one or more events or contingencies.
- (3) The tax is payable by the licensee.
- (4) The tax is payable within 7 days after the day in respect of which the roundings arose.
- (5) In this section:

rounding means an amount that would ordinarily form part of a dividend but that is retained by a licensee as a result of the rounding down of an amount calculated as dividend.

10 Betting tax on approved betting activities

- (1) Betting tax is payable on net earnings in connection with the total amount of bets placed with a totalizator licensee in respect of an approved betting activity conducted by the licensee on each day on which such an activity is conducted.
- (2) The tax payable is:

- (a) 19.11 per cent of the amount obtained by subtracting from the total amount of bets placed with the totalizator licensee in respect of an approved betting activity conducted by the licensee on a day the total amount payable as dividends or other returns to investors in respect of those bets, or
 - (b) any lower percentage of that amount that the Governor may declare, on the recommendation of the Minister, by order published in the Gazette.
- (3) The tax is payable by the totalizator licensee.
- (4) The tax is payable within 7 days after the day in respect of which the tax is payable.
- (5) In this section:

approved betting activity means a betting activity approved under section 13 of the Totalizator Act 1997 to be conducted by a totalizator licensee under that Act.

Part 3 Rebates of betting tax

11 Rebate of tax for bet back

- (1) A bookmaker may claim a rebate of so much of the betting tax imposed by section 6 or 7 on the total amount of bets made with the bookmaker as relates to the total amount of bets back made by the bookmaker.
- (2) A claim under this section is to be granted if, and only if, each of the following conditions is met:
 - (a) the total amount of bets back to which the claim relates does not exceed the total amount of related bets made with the bookmaker,
 - (b) the claim is made in the form approved by the Chief Commissioner,
 - (c) the original sheet of the written record required by section 17 is lodged with the claim,
 - (d) any additional information or record that the Chief Commissioner may require is lodged in connection with the claim,
 - (e) each investment on the totalizator by way of a bet back to which the claim relates was made by way of an account established in connection with the totalizator in the name of the bookmaker who made the bet back,
 - (f) each bet back to which the claim relates that was made with another bookmaker is recorded in the written record (required by section 17) of the bookmaker with whom it was made,
 - (g) each bet back to which the claim relates is recorded in the written record (required by section 17) of the bookmaker who made it.

- (3) The Chief Commissioner must grant or refuse a claim for a rebate under this section (or must grant part of the claim and refuse part of the claim).
- (4) Part 5 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 does not apply to so much of the tax as is claimed by way of a rebate under this section. However, if any part of the claim is refused, that Part applies to so much of the tax as relates to the part of the claim that was refused, and it applies as if the day for payment of the tax were 7 days after the claimant is notified of the refusal.

12 Rebate of tax to racing clubs

- (1) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, give directions for the allowance of a rebate of the betting tax payable under Part 2 in relation to a race meeting by a licensee that is a racing club when the race meeting turnover in relation to a race meeting is less than:
 - (a) an amount specified in the direction, or
 - (b) an amount calculated in accordance with the provisions of the direction.
- (2) The total amount of betting tax required to be paid by a racing club in relation to a race meeting is reduced by the amount of any rebate to which the club is entitled under a direction under this section.
- (3) A direction under this section cannot make provision for the allowance of a rebate in respect of any betting tax payable on bets made with the racing club that section 17 of the Totalizator Act 1997 (Requirements for conduct of on-course totalizators by racing clubs) provides are to be received by the racing club as an agent for the TAB.
- (4) In this section:

race meeting means a race meeting held by one racing club on one racecourse.

race meeting turnover, in relation to a race meeting, means the amount calculated in accordance with the relevant direction of the Minister as race meeting turnover.

Part 4 Returns

Note—

Section 57 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 imposes penalties with respect to the failure to lodge returns.

13 Returns by bookmakers

- (2) The return must specify the name and address of each person who took bets as a bookmaker at that racecourse on any sports betting event during that week.
- (3) The return must be lodged with the Chief Commissioner on or before the first Friday following the end of the week to which it relates.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

17 Bookmakers to keep records

- (1) A bookmaker must keep a written record, setting out the true and accurate particulars of:
 - (a) every bet made with the bookmaker, and
 - (b) every bet back made by the bookmaker.
- (2) The record:

- (a) must indicate the horse races, harness races, greyhound races or sports betting events in connection with which the bets or bets back were made with or by the bookmaker, and
 - (b) must include any other particular required by the Chief Commissioner.
- (3) The record must be kept in a form approved by the Chief Commissioner.
 - (4) The record must be kept for at least 5 years after the bet or bet back to which it relates is made.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

18 Proportion of tax paid in respect of totalizator on non-racing events to be paid into Sport and Recreation Fund

- (1) This section applies to betting by means of a totalizator on any sporting event.
- (2) An amount equivalent to a proportion of the betting tax paid under this Act in respect of betting to which this section applies is to be paid into the Sport and Recreation Fund established under the Public Lotteries Act 1996.
- (3) The proportion to be deducted is the proportion fixed by the Treasurer by order made after consultation with the Minister administering the provision of the Public Lotteries Act 1996 under which the Sport and Recreation Fund is established.
- (4) Amounts required to be paid into the Sport and Recreation Fund under this section are to be paid from the Consolidated Fund, which is appropriated accordingly.

19 Proceedings for offences

Proceedings for an offence under this Act or the regulations are to be dealt with summarily by a Local Court.

20 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) The regulations may create offences with a maximum penalty not exceeding 50 penalty units.

21 Review of Act

- (1) The Minister is to review this Act to determine whether the policy objectives of the Act remain valid and whether the terms of the Act remain appropriate for securing those objectives.

- (2) The review is to be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 5 years from the date of assent to this Act.
- (3) A report on the outcome of the review is to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 12 months after the end of the period of 5 years.

22 (Repealed)

23 Repeals

The following laws are repealed:

- (a) the Bookmakers (Taxation) Act 1917,
- (b) the Bookmakers (Taxation) Amendment Act 1991,
- (c) the Bookmakers (Taxation) Regulation 1996,
- (d) the Racing Taxation (Betting Tax) Act 1952,
- (e) the Racing Taxation (Betting Tax) Amendment Act 2000.

24 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 4 has effect.

Schedules 1-3 (Repealed)

Schedule 4 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 24)

Division 1 Regulations

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:
this Act
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or

- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Division 2 Provisions consequent on enactment of this Act

2 Existing bets

Tax is payable under this Act on a bet in relation to a horse race, harness race, greyhound race or sports betting event held or conducted after the commencement of this Act whether or not the bet was placed before the commencement of this Act.

3 Existing liability to pay tax unaffected

The repeal of an Act or provision of an Act by this Act does not affect any liability to pay tax under that Act or provision in relation to a horse race, harness race, greyhound race or sports betting event held or conducted before the repeal or in relation to a day occurring before that repeal. The repealed Act, or the repealed provision, continues to apply to the payment and collection of that tax as if the Act or provision had not been repealed.

4 Existing entitlement to a rebate unaffected

The repeal of section 12A of the Bookmakers (Taxation) Act 1917 and section 77 of the Totalizator Act 1997 does not affect a person's entitlement to a rebate in relation to a tax liability that occurred before the repeal of those sections. A person can claim and be granted a rebate under those sections as if those sections had not been repealed.

5 Obligation to prepare returns

The repeal of sections 15A and 30 of the Bookmakers (Taxation) Act 1917 does not affect a person's liability to prepare and lodge a return in relation to any period occurring, or any race meeting or sports betting event conducted or held, before the repeal of those sections.

6 Approved forms

Until forms are approved under section 11, the forms prescribed by Part 2 of the Bookmakers (Taxation) Regulation 1996, as in force immediately before its repeal, are taken to be forms under section 11.
