Part 3 Auctions

14 Definition of "property"

In this Part, property means residential property or rural land.

Note—

The terms residential property and rural land are defined in section 3 of the Act.

15 Making the Bidders Record

- (1) The Bidders Record for an auction of property that is made and kept for the purposes of section 68 of the Act must:
- (a) be in the English language, and
 - (b) record the date and place of the auction, and
 - (c) record the address of the property, and
 - (d) record the name and licence number of the auctioneer conducting the auction, and
 - (e) record the name of the owner of the property at the time of the auction, and
 - (f) record the name and licence number of the selling agent for the auction, and
 - (g) if the property is sold at the auction, indicate which of the persons named in the Bidders Record is the successful bidder and the sale price, and
 - (h) if the property is not sold at the auction, record the highest bid accepted at the auction.

Note—

A Bidders Record made by a licensee is one of the licensee's records for the purposes of Part 8 (Records) of the Act and is to be kept by the licensee. There are no restrictions on the technology that can be used to make and keep a Bidders Record. A Bidders Record can be made and kept on paper or by electronic means.

- (2) If a person who is registering to bid on behalf of another person will be bidding for the other person as a buyer's agent:
 - (a) the Bidders Record must also record the agent's licence number, and
 - (b) the Bidders Record may record the address of the agent's registered office as the agent's address.
- (3) If a person is registering to bid on behalf of a body corporate:
 - (a) there is an exemption from the requirement under section 68 (2) of the Act that the relevant details of the person bidding include the number or other identifier of proof of identity of the body corporate as referred to in section 68 (2) (b) of the Act, and
 - (b) there is an exemption from the requirement under section 69 (1) (b) of the Act that the letter of authority to bid on behalf of a body corporate specify the number or other identifier of proof of identity for the body corporate if the letter of authority specifies the Australian Business Number of the body corporate.
- (4) If a person who is registering to bid on behalf of another person will be bidding for the other person under a power of attorney, there is an exemption from the requirement under section 68 (2) of the Act that the relevant details of the person bidding include details of the other person as specified in section 68 (2) (b) of the Act.
- (5) If a person who is registering to bid on behalf of another person will be bidding in the capacity of a buyer's agent, there is an exemption from section 69 (1) (b) of the Act if details of the person on whose behalf the agent is to bid are established by the production of a copy of the agency agreement pursuant to which the agent will be bidding.
- (6) An entry in a Bidders Record may only be made by the agent who makes the Bidders Record or by an employee of that agent acting on behalf of the agent. An agent who makes a Bidders Record must not permit a person to make an entry in the Bidders Record unless the person is authorised by this subclause to make the entry.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units in the case of a corporation or 20 penalty units in any other case.

auction of any of the properties concerned need only be entered in the Bidders Record once, but without otherwise affecting the requirement for the separate recording in respect of each of those properties of the details required by subclauses (1) and (2).

Note—

When an auction involves a number of properties and a number of different licensees, subclause (7) gives the licensees concerned the option of each making their own Bidders Record for the properties they are auctioning or relying on a single Bidders Record made by or on behalf of the auctioneer for all of the properties to be auctioned.

16 Keeping the Bidders Record

- (1) A licensee who acts on the sale of property that is offered for sale by auction must make and keep as part of the records that the licensee is required to make by section 104 of the Act in respect of the sale a record of the name, business address and licence number of the licensee who made the Bidders Record for the auction.

Note—

The licensee who makes a Bidders Record is responsible for keeping it.

- (2) A licensee who keeps a Bidders Record in electronic form must also keep, as part of the licensee's records with respect to auction sales to which the Bidders Record relates, a record of such details as will enable the Bidders Record to be located and accessed in the electronic records of the licensee.

17 Proof of identity for Bidders Record

- (1) Any of the following forms of proof of identity may be used for a person for the purposes of an entry in a Bidders Record:
 - (a) a card or document that is issued by the government or a statutory authority of New South Wales, the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory, or by an authorised deposit-taking institution, and shows the name and address of the person,

- (i) a card or document that is issued by an organisation or person other than the person concerned and that shows the person's address, or
