District Court Regulation 2000

New South Wales

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the District Court Regulation 2000.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 1 September 2000.

Note—

This Regulation replaces the District Court (Fees) Regulation 1993 which is repealed on 1 September 2000 under section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

3 Interpretation

(1) In this Regulation:

corporation has the same meaning as in section 57A of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

criminal proceedings means proceedings in the Court's criminal jurisdiction within the meaning of section 9 (2) of the Act.

hearing allocation fee means a fee referred to in item 17 of Schedule 1.

the Act means the District Court Act 1973.

(2) Notes in the text of this Regulation (other than those in Schedule 1) do not form part of this Regulation.

4 Fees chargeable

(1) The fees to be taken in respect of the business of the Court are the fees set out in Schedule 1.

(2) However, a reference in that Schedule to a corporation does not include a reference to a corporation that produces evidence, satisfactory to a registrar:

(a) that its turnover, in the financial year of the corporation immediately preceding the financial year in which the fees are to be taken, was less than $200,000, or

- (b) if the corporation has not been in existence for a full financial year—that its turnover in its first financial year is likely to be less than $200,000.

5 Fees not chargeable to the Crown

- (1) No fee is chargeable to the Crown or any other person with respect to any document or service filed or provided:
 - (a) for the Government of New South Wales, or
 - (b) for any New South Wales Government Department, or
 - (c) for any statutory body whose expenditure is paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
- (2) No hearing allocation fee is chargeable to any of the following parties to proceedings or to agents acting on their behalf in those proceedings:
 - (a) the Government of New South Wales,
 - (b) any New South Wales Government Department,
 - (c) any statutory body whose expenditure is paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
- (3) A registrar may require evidence to be furnished for the purpose of deciding whether a statutory body's expenditure is paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
- (4) This clause does not prevent the recovery from any person by the Crown or by any such statutory body of any such fee that, had it been paid, would have been recoverable from that person.

5A Fee not chargeable for transcript—appeal to Court of Criminal Appeal

No fee is chargeable to a person convicted of an offence in proceedings before the Court for a transcript of the proceedings if:

- (a) the person has filed a notice of appeal, notice of intention to appeal, notice of application for leave to appeal or notice of intention to apply for leave to appeal with the Court of Criminal Appeal against the conviction or a sentence imposed by the Court in respect of the conviction, or
- (b) the person is a respondent to an appeal against such a sentence.

5B Certain fees not chargeable in relation to residual jurisdiction

- (1) No fee other than the fees set out in items 5, 6 and 8–12 of Schedule 1 is chargeable to any person in respect of proceedings under the residual jurisdiction of the Court.
- (2) In this clause, residual jurisdiction of the Court means:
 - (a) the Court's jurisdiction to hear and determine the proceedings transferred to the Court by section 7 of the Compensation Court Repeal Act 2002, and

(b) the other jurisdiction conferred on the Court by operation of that Act.

6 Pro bono cases

- (1) The taking of the fee for the filing of any statement of claim or other originating process (or a notice of cross-claim) on behalf of a pro bono party to proceedings, or a hearing allocation fee in any such proceedings, is to be postponed until judgment has been given in the proceedings.
- (2) The fee is not to be taken at all, or if taken must be remitted, if in relation to the claim (or cross-claim):
 - (a) judgment is against that party, or
 - (b) judgment is in favour of that party, but damages are not awarded (or only nominal damages are awarded) in his or her favour and costs are not awarded in his or her favour.
- (3) A registrar must not refuse to file or issue any document relevant to proceedings merely because, in accordance with this clause, a fee has not been taken for the filing of any originating process (or notice of cross-claim) on behalf of a pro bono party to those proceedings.
- (3A) Despite clause 9A, the Court must not refuse to allocate a date for hearing proceedings or refuse to hear those proceedings merely because, in accordance with this clause, a hearing allocation fee has not been taken on behalf of a pro bono party to those proceedings.
- (4) For the purposes of this clause, a party to proceedings is a pro bono party if he or she is being represented under the pro bono scheme of the Law Society of New South Wales or the pro bono scheme of the New South Wales Bar Association and a solicitor (in the case of the Law Society's scheme), or a barrister (in the case of the Bar Association's scheme), acting for the party:
 - (a) certifies in writing to the registrar with whom the originating process (or notice of cross-claim) is lodged on behalf of the party that the party is being so represented, and
 - (b) undertakes in writing to the registrar to pay the filing fee for that document, or the hearing allocation fee, if, at the conclusion of the proceedings, subclause (2) does not apply.

7 Postponement of fees in certain other cases

- (1) The taking of any fee in respect of the business of the Court in relation to proceedings involving a legally assisted party is, if the fee is payable by the legally assisted party, to be postponed until judgment has been given in the proceedings.

- (2) The fee is not to be taken at all, or if taken must be remitted, if:
 - (a) judgment in the proceedings is against the legally assisted party, or
 - (b) judgment is in favour of the legally assisted party, but damages are not awarded (or only nominal damages are awarded) in his or her favour and costs are not awarded in his or her favour.
- (3) A registrar must not refuse to file or issue any document relevant to proceedings merely because, in accordance with this clause, a fee in respect of any business of the Court has not been taken on behalf of a legally assisted party to those proceedings.
- (3A) Despite clause 9A, the Court must not refuse to allocate a date for hearing proceedings or refuse to hear those proceedings merely because, in accordance with this clause, a hearing allocation fee has not been taken on behalf of a legally assisted party to those proceedings.
- (4) For the purpose of this clause, a party to proceedings is a legally assisted party if he or she is receiving legal assistance through a community legal centre within the meaning of section 48H of the Legal Profession Act 1987.

8 Persons by and to whom fees payable (other than hearing allocation fees)

- (1) Any fee charged under this Regulation for any document or service is payable by the person at whose request the document is filed or the service rendered:
 - (a) in the case of a document that is filed in any proceedings—to the registrar for the proper place in relation to the proceedings, or
 - (b) in the case of any service rendered by a bailiff—to the registrar who required the bailiff to render the service.
- (2) If a document is filed or a service rendered at the request of a person acting as an agent for another person, each of those persons is jointly and severally liable for payment of any such fee.
- (3) A reference in Schedule 1 to a fee payable in the case of a corporation is a reference to a corporation on whose behalf a request is made to file a document or render a service.

9 Time for payment of fees

- (1) A fee charged under this Regulation (other than a hearing allocation fee) becomes payable when the document concerned is filed or the service concerned is rendered.
- (1A) A hearing allocation fee charged under this Regulation becomes payable:
 - (a) immediately after a date is allocated for hearing the proceedings, or
 - (b) when the Court or a registrar notifies the parties in writing of the Court's intention to allocate a date for hearing the proceedings,whichever first occurs.
