Section 87 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 enables the Commissioner of Police to transfer an executive officer to another position or other employment in NSW Police or to the service of another public sector agency with the approval of the head of the other agency and of the Public Employment Office and following consultation with the officer. A transfer is to be made at the executive officer's existing level of remuneration unless the executive officer consents to the transfer at a lower level of remuneration. Section 89 of that Act defines existing level of remuneration and what is meant by transfer to a level of remuneration that is lower than an officer's existing level of remuneration.

 - (d) if the officer has relocated his or her principal place of residence because of the temporary appointment and has entered into an agreement, in writing, with the Commissioner to stay within the command to which the officer has been transferred if the officer is not permanently appointed to the position, the officer cannot be involuntarily transferred under section 67 (except in accordance with action taken under section 173 (2) (d)) within a period of 3 years after the relocation.
- (1AA) The Commissioner must, before appointing an officer temporarily to a police officer position under subsection (1A), require the officer to provide a statutory declaration, in

- (1A) Despite subsection (1), the Commissioner may transfer a police officer from a non-executive position of the rank of superintendent to which the officer is permanently appointed to another non-executive position within that rank regardless of whether the position to which the officer is transferred entitles its holder to a remuneration that is the same as or different from the officer's former remuneration.
- (1B) A police officer who, pursuant to subsection (1A), is transferred to a position that would ordinarily entitle its holder to a level of remuneration that is lower than the officer's former remuneration, is entitled to the same level of remuneration in respect of that position as the officer's former remuneration.

- (3) An eligibility list for a position is a list of eligible applicants (namely the persons who duly applied for appointment to the position and, subject to sections 71 (2A) and (2B) and 77 (2A) and (2B), are eligible for appointment) arranged in order of merit as determined by the Commissioner.

- (4) An eligibility list for a position remains current:
- (a) in the case of a list prepared for a non-executive police officer position or a base grade or entry level position of a non-executive administrative officer—for 12 months after the list was created, or
 - (b) in the case of a list prepared in relation to any other position—for 6 months after the list was created.

- (2) An application under this section does not operate to stay the operation of the order in respect of which it is made.
- (3) Except to the extent to which the regulations otherwise provide, it is the duty of the Commissioner to make available to the applicant all of the documents and other material on which the Commissioner has relied in deciding that the Commissioner does not have confidence in the applicant's suitability to continue as a police officer, as referred to in section 181D (1).

181F Proceedings on a review

- (1) In conducting a review under this Division, the Commission must proceed as follows:
 - (a) firstly, it must consider the Commissioner's reasons for the decision to remove the applicant from NSW Police,
 - (b) secondly, it must consider the case presented by the applicant as to why the removal is harsh, unreasonable or unjust,
 - (c) thirdly, it must consider the case presented by the Commissioner in answer to the applicant's case.
- (2) The applicant has at all times the burden of establishing that the removal of the applicant from NSW Police is harsh, unreasonable or unjust. This subsection has effect despite any law or practice to the contrary.
- (3) Without limiting the matters to which the Commission is otherwise required or permitted to have regard in making its decision, the Commission must have regard to:
 - (a) the interests of the applicant, and
 - (b) the public interest (which is taken to include the interest of maintaining the integrity of NSW Police, and the fact that the Commissioner made the order pursuant to section 181D (1)).

181G Application of Industrial Relations Act 1996 to reviews

 - (ii) as if subsection (3) were omitted,
 - (c) section 86 (Conciliation of applications) is to be read as if it provided that a judicial member of the Commission who is involved in any endeavour to settle the applicant's claim by conciliation must not subsequently be involved in the conduct of proceedings on the review,
 - (d) section 89 is to be read as if subsection (7) (Threat of dismissal) were omitted,
 - (e) section 162 (Procedure generally) is to be read as if the requirement of subsection (2) (a) of that section that the Commission is to act as quickly as is practicable were instead a requirement for the Commission to commence hearing the application within 4 weeks after the application is made,
 - (f) section 163 (Rules of evidence and legal formality) is to be read as if it provided that new evidence may not be adduced before the Commission unless:

- (2) Subject to subsection (1) of section 163 (Rules of evidence and legal formality) of the Industrial Relations Act 1996, nothing in this Division limits or otherwise affects the admissibility in evidence in proceedings before the Commission under this Division of any transcript of the proceedings of any other court or tribunal.
