- (1) Application of section This section applies to and in respect of appointments under section 47 to senior positions in the Teaching Service.
- (2) Appointments to senior positions Appointments to vacant senior positions are to be made by the Director-General. It does not matter whether the person appointed to such a position is or is not already an officer.

- (3) Advertising vacancies If it is proposed to make an appointment to a vacant senior position, the Director-General must advertise the vacancy in such manner as the Director-General thinks appropriate. - (6) Selection process In deciding to appoint a person to a vacant senior position:
- (a) the Director-General may only select a person who has applied for appointment to the vacant position, and
 - (b) the Director-General must, from among the applicants eligible for appointment to the vacant position, select the applicant who has, in the opinion of the Director-General, the greatest merit.
- (7) Appointment from eligibility list Despite subsection (3), the Director-General need not advertise a vacant senior position if the Director-General proposes to make an appointment to the position from an eligibility list created by the Director-General in relation to the position (being of a list of those persons who applied for appointment to the position and who are eligible for appointment but not selected for appointment, as arranged in order of merit as determined in accordance with subsection (5)).
- (8) Any such eligibility list is applicable not only to the position in relation to which it was created but also to any other position that the Director-General determines it should be applicable to on the basis that the position is substantially the same as the position in relation to which the list was created.
- (9) Industrial relations jurisdiction excluded The appointment or failure to appoint a person to a vacant senior position, or any matter, question or dispute relating to such an appointment or failure, is not an industrial matter for the purposes of the Industrial Relations Act 1996. This subsection applies whether or not any person has been appointed to the vacant senior position.
- (10) Other legal proceedings excluded No proceedings, whether for an order in the nature of prohibition, certiorari or mandamus or for a declaration or injunction or for any other relief, lie in respect of the appointment or failure to appoint a person to a senior position, the entitlement or non-entitlement of a person to be so appointed or the validity or invalidity of any such appointment.

(11) Subsection (10) does not affect the operation of section 60.

48 Appointments on probation

- (1) Unless the Director-General, in a particular case or class of cases, otherwise determines, a person who is not an officer of the Teaching Service when the person is appointed by the Director-General to a position in that service shall be appointed on probation, which shall be for a period of 12 months or such longer period as the Director-General may in any particular case or class of cases determine.
- (2) The Director-General may:
 - (a) after the expiration of the period of probation for which a person is so appointed, confirm or annul the appointment, or
 - (b) during the period of probation for which a person is so appointed, extend the period of probation or annul the appointment.
- (3) Where the appointment of a person is so annulled, the person shall thereupon cease to be employed under this Division as an officer of the Teaching Service and shall, unless the Director-General makes a determination under subsection (4), be deemed to be a temporary employee of the Teaching Service under this Act.
- (4) Where the appointment of a person is so annulled, the Director-General may determine that the person shall cease to be employed in the Teaching Service upon a day specified in the determination and the person shall cease to be so employed on that day.
- (5) A person who, by reason of the annulment of an appointment, ceases to be a member of the Teaching Service under this section is not entitled to appeal to the Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal against the annulment or against any determination of the Director-General made under subsection (4).
- (6) Nothing in section 54 or 85 prevents the Director-General from exercising, at any time, the power to annul an appointment under subsection (2).
- (7) This section does not apply to the appointment of a senior executive officer to a position in the Teaching Service.

 - (a) shall not be employed for a period exceeding 12 months but the employment may be extended from time to time for a further period not exceeding 12 months on each occasion if the Director-General certifies that the extension is necessary in the public interest, and
 - (b) may be dismissed at any time.
- (6) Nothing in section 85 prevents the Director-General from exercising, at any time, the power to dismiss a temporary employee under subsection (5).

51 Temporary appointments of officers

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an officer of the Teaching Service may be temporarily appointed by the Director-General to a position within that service which is vacant or the holder of which is suspended, sick or absent.
- (2) An appointment under subsection (1) shall not be made except in accordance with such conditions of employment as are determined by the Director-General.

- (1) If the Director-General is of the opinion that a school principal's performance is still unsatisfactory following the completion of a performance improvement program for the principal or following the principal's failure to participate in, or to satisfactorily complete, such a program, the Director-General may:
 - (a) dismiss the school principal from the Teaching Service, or
