Insert “or freezing notice” after “restraining order” in section 27 (3) (b).

[26] Sections 29 and 30

Omit the sections. Insert instead:

29 Drug proceeds orders

(1) If an application is made for a drug proceeds order against a person (in this Division called the defendant) convicted of a drug trafficking offence, the court must:

(a) determine whether the defendant has derived any benefit in connection with drug trafficking at any time, and

(b) if the court believes the defendant has so benefited, assess the value of any such benefit, and

(c) order the defendant to pay to the State a pecuniary penalty equal to the amount so assessed.

(2) If:

(a) property that is the proceeds of drug trafficking has been forfeited under this Act or a law of the Commonwealth, a Territory or another State, or

(b) a forfeiture order is proposed to be made against property that is proceeds of drug trafficking, the pecuniary penalty to be made is taken to be reduced by an amount equal to the value of the property as at the time of the making of the forfeiture order.

(3) If:

(a) a court makes an order under this section in relation to an offence, and

(b) in calculating the penalty amount, the court took into account a proposed forfeiture order in respect of property, and

(c) an appeal against the forfeiture order is allowed or the proceedings for the proposed forfeiture order terminate without the proposed forfeiture order being made, an appropriate officer may apply to the court for a variation of the order to increase the penalty amount by the value of the property and the court may, if it considers it appropriate to do so, vary the order accordingly.

(4) An amount payable by a defendant to the State in accordance with an order made under this section is, for all purposes, taken to be a civil debt due by the defendant to the State.

(5) An order made by a court under this section may be enforced as if it were an order made by the court in civil proceedings instituted by the State against the defendant to recover a debt due by the person to the State.

30 Assessment of proceeds of drug trafficking

(1) A court is to assess the benefits (if any) derived in connection with drug trafficking by having regard to information before the court concerning all or any of the following matters:

(a) the money, or the value of property other than money, that came into the possession or control of the defendant, or another person at the request or by the direction of the defendant, at any time in connection with drug

- trafficking by the defendant,
- (b) the value of any benefit that was provided for the defendant, or for another person at the request or direction of the defendant, in respect of the defendant's involvement or participation in a public promotion relating to drug trafficking (or such part of the value of the benefit as is commensurate with the proportion of the defendant's involvement or participation that is concerned with drug trafficking),
 - (c) the value of any benefit, other than a benefit of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), that was provided for the defendant, or another person at the request or by the direction of the defendant, because of drug trafficking by the defendant,
 - (d) the market value, at the time of the drug trafficking, of substances similar or substantially similar to the prohibited drug or prohibited plant involved in the drug trafficking offence or offences,
 - (e) the amount that was, or the range of amounts that were, ordinarily paid for the doing of an act or thing similar or substantially similar to the doing of the act or thing constituting the drug trafficking,
 - (f) the value of the defendant's property appearing to the court:
 - (i) to have been held by the defendant at any time since his or her conviction, or
 - (ii) to have been transferred to the defendant at any time since the beginning of the period of 6 years that ended when the proceedings were instituted against the defendant,
 - (g) the value of the defendant's income and expenditure:
 - (i) at any time since his or her conviction, or
 - (ii) at any time since the beginning of the period of 6 years that ended when the proceedings were instituted against the defendant.
- (2) In considering whether to treat a benefit of the kind referred to in subsection (1) (b) as a benefit derived in connection with drug trafficking, a court may have regard to any matter that it thinks fit, including the public interest and any research, educational or rehabilitative purpose of the public promotion concerned.
- (3) If evidence is given that the value of the defendant's property or the defendant's income or expenditure:
- (a) after the defendant committed drug trafficking offences, or

(b) during and after the end of the period of 6 years that ended when proceedings for the drug trafficking offences were last instituted against the defendant, exceeded the value of the defendant's property or income or expenditure before the defendant committed the drug trafficking offences or before the commencement of that period then the court must treat the value of the benefits derived by the defendant because of drug trafficking by the defendant as being not less than the amount of the excess.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to the whole or a part of the excess referred to in that subsection if the defendant satisfies the court that it was due to causes unrelated to drug trafficking or the commission of other serious offences.
- (5) For the purposes of assessing the value of the proceeds of drug trafficking in a case where a drug proceeds order has previously been made against the defendant, the court must leave out of account any of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking that are shown to the court:
- (a) to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered in respect of drug trafficking under a previous drug proceeds order or pecuniary penalty order, or
 - (b) to have been recovered under an order made under the Criminal Assets Recovery Act 1990.
- (6) In assessing the value of the proceeds of drug trafficking of a defendant convicted of a drug trafficking offence or offences, any expenses or outgoings of the defendant in connection with the commission of the offence or offences must not be deducted.
- (7) This section applies to and in relation to property that comes into the possession or under the control of a person either within or outside New South Wales, and to benefits that are provided for a person either within or outside New South Wales.

[27] Section 31 Statements relating to drug trafficking

Omit "payment or other reward was received" from section 31 (3) (b) and (6) wherever occurring.

Insert instead "benefit was derived".

[28] Section 31 (4) and (7)-(9)

Omit the subsections.

[29] Section 31A

Insert after section 31:

31A Evidence as to value of drugs and other matters

- (1) In proceedings for an application for a drug proceeds order, a member of NSW Police, a member of the Australian Federal Police or a Customs officer may give evidence (whether in person or in a statement tendered to the court by the prosecution under this Division):
 - (a) as to the market value, at the time of a drug trafficking offence in relation to a substance, or substantially similar substances, and
 - (b) as to the amount, or the range of amounts, ordinarily paid for the doing of a similar or substantially similar act or thing to the offence.
- (2) The evidence may be given by a person who is experienced in the investigation of indictable offences under (or similar to offences under) the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985.
- (3) Any such person may give evidence, to the best of his or her information, knowledge and belief:
 - (a) as to the amount that was the market value of a prohibited drug or prohibited plant within the meaning of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985 at a particular time or during a particular period, or
 - (b) as to the amount, or the range of amounts, ordinarily paid at a particular time, or during a particular period, for the doing of an act or thing in relation to any such prohibited drug or prohibited plant,despite any rule of law or practice relating to hearsay evidence and the testimony is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, evidence of the matter testified to.

[30] Section 32

Omit sections 32–34. Insert instead:

32 Court may look at property subject to effective control of defendant

- (1) In assessing the value of benefits derived by a person because of drug trafficking, a court may treat as property of the defendant any property that, in the opinion of the court, is subject to the effective control of the defendant.
- (2) On application by an appropriate officer, a court may make an order declaring that specified property is available to satisfy a drug proceeds order, if it is of the opinion that the property is subject to the effective control of a defendant against whom the court has made a drug proceeds order.

- (3) If a court declares that property is available to satisfy a drug proceeds order:
 - (a) the order may be enforced against the property as if the property were property of the person against whom the order is made, and
 - (b) a freezing notice or restraining order may be made in respect of the property as if the property were property of the person against whom the order is made.
- (4) An appropriate officer must give written notice of an application under this section to the defendant and to any other person the appropriate officer has reason to believe may have an interest in the property.
- (5) The defendant and any other person who claims an interest in the property may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

[31] Section 35 Definitions

Insert “substantially” before “derived” wherever occurring in the definition of tainted property in section 35 (1).

[32] Section 35 (1), definition of “tainted property”

Insert after paragraph (c) of the definition of tainted property:

, or

- (d) was substantially derived or realised, directly or indirectly, by any person for the depiction of a serious offence, or the expression of the offender’s thoughts, opinions or emotions regarding the offence, in any public promotion.

[33] Section 41 Return of seized property

Omit “an information has been laid in respect of the relevant serious offence (or criminal proceedings have otherwise been commenced in respect of the relevant serious offence)” from section 41 (2) (b).

Insert instead “criminal proceedings have been commenced in respect of the relevant serious offence”.

[34] Part 3, Division 1A

Insert after Division 1:

Division 1A Freezing notices

42A Definitions

In this Division:

authorised justice means an authorised officer within the meaning of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986.

defendant has the same meaning as in section 42B.

42B Applications for freezing notices

- (1) An authorised officer may apply to an authorised justice for a freezing notice in respect of specified property of a person if the person (the defendant) has been, or is about to be, charged with, or has been convicted of, a serious offence and the authorised officer has reasonable grounds for believing that:
 - (a) if the defendant has not been convicted of the offence, the defendant committed the offence, and
 - (b) the property is tainted property in relation to that offence or the defendant derived benefits because of having committed the offence or, if the offence is a drug trafficking offence, the property is the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking.
- (2) An authorised officer may apply to an authorised justice for a freezing notice in respect of the property of a person if another person (the defendant) has been, or is about to be, charged with, or has been convicted of, a serious offence and the authorised officer has reasonable grounds for believing that:
 - (a) the property is tainted property in relation to the offence with which the defendant has been or is about to be charged, or of which the defendant has been convicted, or is the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking, or
 - (b) the property is subject to the effective control of the defendant and the defendant has derived a benefit, directly or indirectly, from the commission of the serious offence.
- (3) An application for a freezing notice (other than a telephone freezing notice) must be in writing in the form prescribed by the regulations and must be made by the applicant in person.
- (4) The applicant must provide (either orally or in writing) any further information that the authorised justice requires concerning the grounds on which the freezing notice is sought.

42C Issue of freezing notices

- (1) An authorised justice may issue a freezing notice if satisfied that:
 - (a) the defendant is likely to be charged with the offence or a related offence within 48 hours or has been charged with or convicted of a serious offence, and
 - (b) there are reasonable grounds for the belief of the officer as to the matters set out in subsection (2) (c) and (d) (i) or (e) (i) or (ii) (if applicable).
- (2) An authorised justice must not issue a freezing notice unless:
 - (a) the application includes details of the authority of the applicant to make the application, and
 - (b) the application includes the grounds on which the notice is being sought, and
 - (c) the application is supported by a statement by the applicant that the applicant believes that the defendant has committed a serious offence, if the defendant has not been convicted of the offence, and
 - (d) in the case of property of the defendant, the application is supported by a statement by the applicant:
 - (i) that the applicant believes that the property to which the application relates is tainted property in relation to that offence or the defendant derived benefits because of having committed the offence or, if the offence is a drug trafficking offence, the property is the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking, and
 - (ii) setting out the grounds on which the applicant holds those beliefs, and
 - (e) in the case of property of a person other than the defendant, the application is supported by a statement by the applicant that the applicant believes that:
 - (i) the property is tainted property in relation to the offence with which the defendant has been charged or convicted or is the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking, or
 - (ii) the property is subject to the effective control of the defendant and the defendant has derived a benefit, directly or indirectly, from the commission of the offence,and setting out the grounds on which the applicant holds those beliefs, and
 - (f) the statements and any other information given by the applicant in or in connection with the application are verified before the authorised justice on oath or affirmation or by affidavit.

- (3) In determining whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that property is in the effective control of the defendant, the authorised justice may have regard to the matters referred to in section 10.
- (4) A freezing notice may not be issued in respect of property affected by a restraining order or forfeiture order or the subject of an application for a restraining order or forfeiture order under this Act.
- (5) A freezing notice under this Act and a restraining order under the Criminal Assets Recovery Act 1990 may not be made so as to be in force in respect of the same interest in property at the same time.
- (6) The issue of a freezing notice is a ministerial function and is not a judicial function.

42D Form of freezing notice

- (1) A freezing notice must direct that:
 - (a) specified property not be disposed of, or otherwise dealt with by the defendant or by any other person, except in the manner and circumstances (if any) specified in the notice, and
 - (b) the property be held in the custody of the Commissioner of Police or the defendant or another person, pending the determination of an application for confirmation of the freezing notice.
- (2) A freezing notice is to be in the form prescribed by the regulations.

42E Telephone freezing notices

- (1) An authorised officer may make an application by telephone for a freezing notice.
- (2) An authorised justice must not issue a freezing notice on an application made by telephone unless the authorised justice is satisfied that the notice is required urgently and that it is not practicable for the application to be made in person.
- (3) An application under this section must be made by facsimile if the facilities to do so are readily available for that purpose.
- (4) If it is not practicable for an application for a freezing notice to be made by telephone directly to an authorised justice, the application may be transmitted to the authorised justice by another person on behalf of the applicant.

- (5) An authorised justice who issues a freezing notice on an application made by telephone must:
 - (a) complete and sign the notice, and
 - (b) furnish the notice to the person who made the application or inform that person of the terms of the notice and of the date and time when it was signed.
- (6) If a freezing notice is issued on an application made by telephone, the applicant is to complete a form of freezing notice in the terms indicated by the authorised justice under subsection (5) (b) and write on it the name of that authorised justice and the date and time when the notice was signed.
- (7) A form of freezing notice so completed is taken to be a freezing notice issued in accordance with this Act.
- (8) A freezing notice is to be furnished by an authorised justice by transmitting it by facsimile, if the facilities to do so are readily available, and the copy produced by that transmission is taken to be the original document.

42F Notice of issue of freezing notice

- (1) An applicant for a freezing notice must give notice of the issuing of the notice to the defendant, any owner of property affected by the notice and any other person subject to the notice.
- (2) Notice must be given in accordance with the regulations.

42G False or misleading information in applications

- (1) A person must not, in or in connection with an application for a freezing notice, give information to an authorised justice that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.
- (2) This section applies to an application by telephone as well as in person.
- (3) This section applies whether or not the information given is also verified on oath or affirmation or by affidavit.

42H Record of proceedings before authorised justice

- (1) An authorised justice who issues a freezing notice must cause a record to be made of all relevant particulars of the grounds the authorised justice has relied on to justify the issue of the notice.
- (2) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to:

- (a) the keeping of records in connection with the issue and execution of freezing notices, and
 - (b) the inspection of any such records, and
 - (c) any other matter in connection with any such records.
- (3) Any matter that might disclose the identity of a person must not be recorded pursuant to this section if the authorised justice is satisfied that the safety of any person might be jeopardised by doing so.

42I Application to confirm freezing notice

- (1) An application for confirmation of the notice is to be made to the appropriate court by an authorised officer, not later than 14 days after a freezing notice is issued.
- (2) The application is to be set down for hearing on the first date for committal or trial proceedings for the serious offence on which the freezing notice was based that occurs after the application is made, or as soon as practicable after the application is made.
- (3) An applicant for confirmation of a freezing notice must give notice of the application to the defendant, any owner of property affected by the notice and any other person subject to the notice.
- (4) A person given notice under this section is entitled to appear and to adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.
- (5) Notice must be given in accordance with rules of court.

42J Notice to third parties

If an application has been made to an appropriate court to confirm a freezing notice in respect of property:

- (a) the court may, if it thinks fit, require the officer making the application to give notice of the application to a person who the court has reason to believe has an interest in the property or part of the property, and
- (b) a person to whom the court requires notice to be given under this section is entitled to appear and to adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

42K Appeals against freezing notices issued by authorised justices

- (1) A defendant, an authorised officer or another person claiming an interest in property affected by a freezing notice may, at any time before the notice is confirmed, apply to the appropriate court to have the freezing notice set aside or varied.

- (2) An application may be heard before the day set down for hearing the application to confirm the notice.
- (3) On an application, the appropriate court must proceed to deal with the matter under section 42L, whether or not an application has been made under section 42I.

42L Confirmation of freezing notices

- (1) An appropriate court may, on an application under section 42I or 42K:
 - (a) confirm the freezing notice (with or without variation), or
 - (b) set aside the freezing notice.
- (2) An appropriate court may confirm a freezing notice if it is satisfied that:
 - (a) the application is supported by an affidavit by an authorised officer that complies with this section, and
 - (b) having regard to the matters contained in the affidavit or other evidence given in the proceedings, there are reasonable grounds to believe the matters set out in the affidavit, and
 - (c) proceedings have been commenced against the defendant for a serious offence or the defendant has been convicted of a serious offence, and
 - (d) the property concerned is not affected by a restraining order, or an application for a restraining order under this Act or the Criminal Assets Recovery Act 1990, and
 - (e) it is appropriate in the circumstances to confirm the notice.
- (3) The affidavit of the authorised officer supporting the application must set out the officer's belief, and the grounds for the belief, that the defendant committed the serious offence concerned (including details of any conviction) and as to one or more of the following in relation to property the subject of the freezing notice:
 - (a) in the case of property of the defendant, that the property is tainted property in relation to the offence or the defendant derived benefits because of having committed the offence or the property is the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking,
 - (b) in the case of property of a person other than the defendant, that:
 - (i) the property is tainted property in relation to the offence or is the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking, or

- (ii) the property is subject to the effective control of the defendant and the defendant has derived a benefit, directly or indirectly, from the commission of the serious offence.
- (4) In determining whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that property is in the effective control of the defendant, the appropriate court must have regard to the matters referred to in section 10.
- (5) The appropriate court must make orders of a kind referred to in section 42M in relation to property to which a freezing notice applies if it confirms the freezing notice. Any such order is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be included in the terms of the freezing notice.
- (6) If evidence is given at the hearing that property to which the application relates was in the possession of the defendant at or immediately after the commission of the offence:
 - (a) if there is no evidence given tending to show that the property was not used in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence—the court must presume that the property was used in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence, or
 - (b) in any other case—the court must not confirm a freezing notice in relation to the property unless it is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the property was used in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence.

42M Orders for the management of property

- (1) An appropriate court that confirms a freezing notice is to make an order directing the Commissioner of Police:
 - (a) to take control of the property (if it is not under the control of the Commissioner) and, in any case, dispose of the property or the part of the property specified in the order, in the manner specified in the order, and
 - (b) to retain any proceeds until they are payable under this Act to another person or the State.
- (2) An appropriate court may, if it thinks it appropriate to do so in the circumstances of the case, make one or more of the following orders instead of the order referred to in subsection (1):
 - (a) an order directing that the property, or the part of the property specified in the order, is not to be disposed of, or otherwise dealt with, by the defendant or any other person, except in the manner and circumstances (if any) specified in the order,
 - (b) an order directing the Public Trustee or the Commissioner of Police to retain

- control or to take control of the property or the part of the property specified in the order,
- (c) an order directing that the property or the part of the property specified in the order be returned to or retained by the defendant or another person,
 - (d) an order that the defendant or another person be allowed access to the property or the part of the property specified in the order.
- (3) In determining whether it is appropriate in the circumstances to make an order of a kind referred to in subsection (1) or (2), the appropriate court is to have regard to the following matters:
- (a) whether a defendant who is in custody is likely to be granted bail,
 - (b) any hardship that is reasonably likely to be caused to the defendant or a third party,
 - (c) if the defendant is an Aboriginal person or a Torres Strait Islander, when considering any hardship that is reasonably likely to be caused to the defendant or a third party, the responsibilities arising from the defendant's ties to extended family and kinship,
 - (d) the nature of the property and whether it is unique in nature,
 - (e) the case against the defendant,
 - (f) the expenses relating to storage and maintenance of the property,
 - (g) the use that is ordinarily or had been intended to be made of the property.
- (4) In addition to any other order under this section, the appropriate court may make one or more of the following orders:
- (a) an order providing for the provision, out of the property, of the defendant's reasonable living expenses, business expenses or reasonable expenses in defending a criminal charge,
 - (b) if the freezing notice directs the Public Trustee or the Commissioner of Police to take control (but not to dispose) of the property:
 - (i) an order regulating the manner in which the Public Trustee or Commissioner is to exercise his or her functions under the notice or order, or
 - (ii) an order determining any question relating to the property to which the notice relates, including any question relating to the liabilities of the owner or the exercise of the functions of the Public Trustee or Commissioner, or

- (iii) an order directing the owner or a director of a body corporate that is the owner to give to the Public Trustee or Commissioner, within a period specified in the order, a statement, verified by the oath or affirmation of the person making the statement, setting out the particulars of the property, or dealings with the property, that the court thinks proper,
 - (c) such other ancillary or consequential orders as the court thinks appropriate in the circumstances.
- (5) An order under this section directing the sale of property must require it to be sold for not less than its value at the time of the sale.

42N Undertakings as to payment of damages or costs

- (1) An appropriate court may refuse to confirm a freezing notice if the State refuses or fails to give the court such undertakings as the court considers appropriate with respect to the payment of damages or costs, or both, in relation to the making and operation of the notice.
- (2) For the purposes of an application to confirm a freezing notice, an appropriate officer may, on behalf of the State, give to the appropriate court such undertakings with respect to the payment of damages or costs, or both, as are required by the court.

42O Contravention of freezing notices

- (1) A person who knowingly contravenes a freezing notice is guilty of an offence and punishable, on conviction, by a fine equivalent to the value of the property subject to the notice (as determined by the appropriate court) or by imprisonment for a period not exceeding 2 years, or both.
- (2) If:
 - (a) a freezing notice is made against property, and
 - (b) the property is disposed of, or otherwise dealt with, in contravention of the notice, and
 - (c) the disposition or dealing was either not for sufficient consideration or not in favour of a person who acted in good faith,an appropriate officer may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that the disposition or dealing be set aside.
- (3) The Supreme Court may, on an application under subsection (2), make an order:
 - (a) setting aside the disposition or dealing as from the day on which the disposition or dealing took place, or

- (b) setting aside the disposition or dealing as from the day of the order and declaring the respective rights of any persons who acquired interests in the property on or after the day on which the disposition or dealing took place and before the day of the order.

42P Duration of freezing notices

A freezing notice ceases to be in force if any of the following occurs:

- (a) if the defendant has not been charged with a serious offence at the end of the period of 48 hours after the issuing of the notice,
- (b) on an appropriate court refusing to confirm the freezing notice or if an application for confirmation of the notice has not been made within 14 days after it is issued,
- (c) if the charge is withdrawn and the defendant is not charged with a related offence by the time of the withdrawal,
- (d) if the defendant is acquitted of the charge or the charge is dismissed and the defendant is not charged with a related offence by the time of the acquittal or dismissal,
- (e) if the appropriate court refuses to make a forfeiture order in relation to the property to which it relates and:
 - (i) an appeal against the refusal is finally determined, or
 - (ii) the time for making an appeal against the refusal expires and an appeal is not made before the time expires,
- (f) if a court makes an order setting aside the freezing notice in respect of the whole of the property to which it relates.

42Q Effect of other orders on freezing notices

- (1) If, while a freezing notice in respect of property is in force, a court makes a forfeiture order in respect of the property or makes a pecuniary penalty order or a drug proceeds order against the defendant subject to the notice, the court or an appropriate court may:
 - (a) if it considers it appropriate, make an order setting aside the freezing notice in respect of the whole or a specified part of the property, and
 - (b) make any other order or orders it considers appropriate in relation to the operation of the freezing notice.
- (2) If, while a freezing notice in respect of property is in force, a court refuses to make a forfeiture order in respect of the property or refuses to make a pecuniary penalty order or drug proceeds order against the defendant, the court or an appropriate court may:

- (a) if it considers it appropriate, make an order in relation to the period for which the freezing notice is to remain in force, and
- (b) make any other order or orders it considers appropriate in relation to the operation of the freezing notice.

(3) An order under this section may:

- (a) set aside the freezing notice wholly or in part, or
- (b) take effect:
 - (i) on the making of the forfeiture order, pecuniary penalty order or drug proceeds order, or
 - (ii) at a specified time, or
 - (iii) if relevant, on the payment of a penalty amount to the State, or
 - (iv) on the happening of some other specified event.

42R Purchase of property

- (1) The payment to the State of an amount equal to the value of property subject to a freezing notice operates to discharge the freezing notice (except in so far as the court otherwise directs).
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the value of property is the value agreed between the Attorney General and the person seeking to discharge the freezing notice.
- (3) A payment may not be made under this section before a freezing notice is confirmed by a court.

42S Return of property

- (1) If a freezing notice ceases to be in force and the property concerned is not subject to any other order under this Act, the person who is lawfully entitled to it may apply to the Attorney General for the return of the property or for payment of an amount equal to the value of the property together with interest calculated from the date, and at the rate, prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The Attorney General must, if satisfied that the person is lawfully entitled to the property, return the property or pay the amount, as the case requires, not later than 6 months after receipt of the application.

- (3) If the person who is lawfully entitled to property or to be paid an amount under this section cannot be ascertained or an application is not made within 6 months of the freezing notice ceasing to be in force, the property is to be dealt with as if it had been forfeited under this Act.

42T Arrangements for management of property

The Commissioner of Police may enter into arrangements with the Public Trustee or any other person with respect to the management of property that is under the control of the Commissioner under a freezing notice.

42U Appeals against refusal to confirm freezing notice

- (1) The Attorney General, the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Commissioner of Police may appeal to the appeal court against a refusal by an appropriate court to confirm a freezing notice.
- (2) On an appeal, the appeal court may make any order that an appropriate court may make on an application for confirmation of a freezing notice.
- (3) An order made by the appeal court under this section is taken to have been made by the appropriate court, but is not on that account subject to further appeal.
- (4) In this section, the appeal court is:
 - (a) in relation to a Magistrate, Local Court, the Children's Court or District Court—the Supreme Court, and
 - (b) in relation to the Supreme Court—the Court of Criminal Appeal.

42V Court may make further orders relating to freezing notices

- (1) An appropriate court that confirms a freezing notice or a court that is dealing with proceedings for a serious offence in relation to which a freezing notice has been issued may, at any time, make any orders ancillary to the freezing notice that the court considers appropriate.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the court may make any one or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order varying the terms of the freezing notice, including the property to which it relates and any conditions of the notice,
 - (b) an order with respect to the carrying out of any undertaking with respect to the payment of costs or damages given by the State in connection with the confirmation of the freezing notice,

(c) an order setting aside the freezing notice in respect of the whole or part of the property.

(3) An order under this section may be made on the application of any of the following persons:

(a) an appropriate officer,

(b) the owner,

(c) a person directed by the freezing notice to take control of property subject to the notice,

(d) any other person with the leave of the court.

(4) A person who makes an application under this section must give notice of the application, as prescribed by the regulations or rules of court, to each other person who is entitled, by virtue of subsection (3) (a)–(c), to make an application under this section.

Division 2 Supervision of damages arising out of criminal conduct by persons suffering from mental illness

54B Definitions

In this Division:

award of damages means an award of damages by a court (including such an award pursuant to judgment entered in accordance with an agreement between the parties to a claim for damages).

damages supervision order means an order granted under section 54D.

serious offence means an offence punishable by imprisonment for 6 months or more.

54C Application of Division

(1) This Division applies to an award of damages to which this Part applies if:

- (a) the award is made in respect of a civil liability that arises out of injury or damage to the person, and
- (b) the injury or damage occurred at the time of, or following, conduct of the person that, on the balance of probabilities, would have constituted a serious offence if the person had not been suffering from a mental illness at the time of the conduct, and
- (c) the conduct contributed materially to the injury or damage or to the risk of injury or damage.

(2) This Division does not apply to offender damages within the meaning of Division 6 of Part 2A.

(3) This Division does not apply to an award of damages against a defendant if the conduct of the defendant that caused the death, injury or damage concerned:

- (a) constitutes an offence (whether or not a serious offence), or
- (b) would have constituted an offence (whether or not a serious offence) if the defendant had not been suffering from a mental illness at the time of the conduct.

- (4) This Division does not apply to an award of damages made before the commencement of this Division.

54D Damages supervision orders

- (1) A court that makes an award of damages must make an order directing the Public Trustee to take control of the amount of damages if it is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the amount of damages is an amount to which this Division applies and that it is in the best interests of the person to whom the damages were awarded to make the order.
- (2) The Public Trustee must ensure that an amount of damages subject to a damages supervision order is used to cover the costs of past, present and future medical or other therapeutic treatment, rehabilitation costs and care costs of the person awarded the damages, subject to the terms of the order.
- (3) A damages supervision order may not take effect before the later of the final determination of any appeal relating to the award of damages or the end of the period during which any such appeal may be made.
- (4) A damages supervision order may be made whether or not the person awarded the damages is a mentally ill person (within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1990) or a mentally incapacitated person when the order is made.
- (5) Any part of an award payable or paid for properly payable legal expenses incurred in connection with proceedings for damages may not be made subject to a damages supervision order.
- (6) The Public Trustee holds the amount of damages in trust for the person awarded the damages.

54E Additional matters relating to damages supervision orders

- (1) A damages supervision order may:
 - (a) require an amount of damages to be paid to the Public Trustee instead of, or by or on behalf of, the person awarded the damages, and
 - (b) regulate the manner in which the Public Trustee may exercise his or her functions under the order, and

- (c) determine any matter relating to the payment of amounts of the damages, including:
 - (i) the purposes for which amounts may be disbursed, and
 - (ii) the obligations of the Public Trustee and the person awarded the damages, and
 - (d) make such other provision as the court thinks fit in the circumstances of the case.
- (2) A damages supervision order ceases to have effect:
- (a) if it is revoked by a court, or
 - (b) on the death of the person awarded the damages.
- (3) If a damages supervision order ceases to have effect, any remaining amount of damages, or the proceeds of an amount of damages, is (subject to any order of a court and to payment of any fees or other expenses of the Public Trustee) to be paid to the person awarded the damages or the legal personal representative of the person.

54F Estates under supervision of Protective Commissioner

- (1) A damages supervision order may be made in relation to a person even though the estate of the person is subject to management under the Protected Estates Act 1983.
- (2) The Protected Estates Act 1983 does not apply to or in respect of property of a person whose estate is subject to management under that Act to the extent that the property is the subject of a damages supervision order.

54G Hindering or obstructing Public Trustee

- (1) A person must not hinder or obstruct the Public Trustee in the performance of the Public Trustee's obligations under a damages supervision order.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (2) In this section:

Public Trustee includes members of staff within the meaning of the Public Trustee Act 1913 and agents of the Public Trustee.

54H Evidence of Public Trustee's right to act

If a damages supervision order is made directing the Public Trustee to take control of property, a certificate under the hand of the Public Trustee or an officer referred to in section 50 of the Public Trustee Act 1913 and sealed with the Public Trustee's seal:

(a) certifying that the damages supervision order has been made and is in force, and

(b) stating the terms of the order, is to be accepted by all courts, officers and other persons, whether acting under any Act or not, as evidence of the matters so certified and stated and of the Public Trustee's right to act under the damages supervision order, without production of any other proof.

10 Definitions

In this Part:

interested person does not include an offender or a person claiming through an offender.

offender means a person who has killed another person and been found not guilty of murder by reason of mental illness.

11 Power of Supreme Court to apply forfeiture rule

- (1) If a person who has killed another person is not subject to the forfeiture rule because the person has been found not guilty of murder by reason of mental illness, any interested person may make an application to the Supreme Court for an order that the rule apply as if the offender had been found guilty of murder.
- (2) On any such application, the Court may make an order applying the forfeiture rule to the offender if it is satisfied that justice requires the rule to be applied as if the offender had been found guilty of murder.
- (3) In determining whether justice requires the rule to be applied, the Court is to have regard to the following matters:
 - (a) the conduct of the offender,
 - (b) the conduct of the deceased person,
 - (c) the effect of the application of the rule on the offender or any other person,
 - (d) such other matters as to the Court appear material.
- (4) If a forfeiture application order is made, the forfeiture rule is to apply in respect of the offender for all purposes (including purposes relating to anything done before the order was made) as if the offender had been found guilty of murder.

12 Time for applications for forfeiture application orders

- (1) Unless the Supreme Court gives leave for a late application to be made, an application for a forfeiture application order must be made within 6 months after the day on which it is determined that the offender was not guilty of murder.
- (2) The Court may give leave for a late application if the Court considers it just in all the circumstances to give leave.

13 Revocation of forfeiture application orders

- (1) If the Supreme Court has made a forfeiture application order, an interested person may make an application to the Court for the revocation of the order if the Court considers it just in all the circumstances to give leave for such an application to be made.
- (2) On any such application, the Court may revoke the forfeiture application order concerned.
- (3) Section 11 (2) and (3) apply to the determination of any such application in the same way as they apply to the making of a forfeiture application order. In determining whether to revoke the forfeiture application order, the Court is also to have regard to the effect on the offender and other persons of any such revocation.
- (4) If a forfeiture application order is revoked, the forfeiture rule has, and is taken to have had, no effect in relation to the offender for all purposes (including purposes relating to anything done before the order was revoked), subject to the terms on which the Court revokes the order.

14 Transitional provision

- (1) A forfeiture application order may be made in respect of any of the following:
 - (a) a killing occurring before or after the commencement of this Part,
 - (b) the application of the forfeiture rule in probate or administration proceedings commenced before or after the commencement of this Part, but not probate or administration proceedings determined before the commencement of this Part.
- (2) Nothing in this Part affects any determination of a court concerning the application of the forfeiture rule in any proceedings that was made before the commencement of this Part.
