4 Homes

A home is a building (affixed to land) that:

- (a) may lawfully be used as a place of residence, and
- (b) is, in the Chief Commissioner's opinion, a suitable building for use as a place of residence.

5 Ownership of land and homes

- (1) A person is an owner of a home or a home owner if the person has a relevant interest in land on which a home is built.
- (2) Each of the following is, subject to subsection (3), a relevant interest in land:
 - (a) an estate in fee simple in the land,
 - (b) a life estate in the land approved by the Chief Commissioner,

- (c) a perpetual lease of the land granted by the Commonwealth or the State,
 - (d) a leasehold interest in the land granted by the Commonwealth or the State that may be converted under the terms of the lease or by statute into an estate in fee simple,
 - (e) an interest as purchaser under a contract for the purchase from the Commonwealth or the State of an estate in fee simple in the land by instalments,
 - (e1) an interest as purchaser of an estate in fee simple under a terms contract,
 - (f) a licence or right of occupancy granted by the Commonwealth or the State in relation to the land that gives, in the Chief Commissioner's opinion, the licensee or the holder of the right reasonable security of tenure,
 - (g) an interest in a company's shares or in units in a unit trust scheme, if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (i) the interest entitles the holder of the interest to exclusive occupation of a specified home situated on the land and owned by the company or trustees, and
 - (ii) the value of the shares is not less than the value of the company's or trustees' interest in the home.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4):
- (a) an interest is not a relevant interest at a particular time unless the holder of the interest has, or will have within 12 months after that time (or a longer time allowed by the Chief Commissioner), a right to immediate occupation of the land, and
 - (b) an interest is not a relevant interest in the hands of a person who holds it subject to a trust.
- (4) The Chief Commissioner may recognise an interest (a non-conforming interest) as a relevant interest in land even though the interest may not conform with the above provisions (and even though the interest may not be recognised at law or in equity as an interest in land) if there is, in the Chief Commissioner's opinion, good reason to do so.
- (5) If the Chief Commissioner recognises a non-conforming interest as a relevant interest in land and, in consequence, a first home owner grant is to be paid, the Chief Commissioner may impose appropriate conditions on the payment of the grant to ensure its recovery if suppositions about future conduct or events made by the Chief Commissioner in recognising the interest later prove to be incorrect.
- (6) If a person holds an interest in land on trust as guardian for a person under a legal disability and that interest would be a relevant interest but for subsection (3) (b), then for the purposes of this Act:

- (a) the person under the legal disability is taken to be the person who holds a relevant interest in the land, and
- (b) the guardian is taken not to hold that interest.

(7) In this section:

unit in a unit trust scheme means:

- (a) they are legally married, or
- (b) they are living together as a couple in a de facto relationship within the meaning of the Property (Relationships) Act 1984.

(2) If the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that, at the time of deciding an application for a first home owner grant, an applicant:

- (a) is legally married but not cohabiting with the person to whom the applicant is legally married, and
- (b) has no intention of resuming cohabitation, the person to whom the applicant is legally married is not to be regarded as the applicant's spouse.

6A Multiple occupancy contract

(1) For the purposes of this Act:

- (a) a contract made on or after 1 July 2002 for the purchase of a home is a multiple occupancy contract if 2 or more homes are purchased under the contract and the homes are on the same parcel of land, and
- (b) a comprehensive home building contract made on or after 1 July 2002 is a multiple occupancy contract if 2 or more homes are to be built under the contract and the homes are on the same parcel of land.

- (2) The provisions of this Act apply in respect of a multiple occupancy contract as if a separate contract had been made in respect of each home purchased or built under the contract that is an exclusive occupancy.
- (3) Accordingly, each of those contracts may, subject to the requirements of section 13, be treated as a separate eligible transaction under this Act and section 7 (4) does not prevent the payment of a grant in respect of each such eligible transaction.
- (4) A home is an exclusive occupancy only if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the purchaser of the home or the party to the contract for whom the home is built is, on the completion of the contract, entitled to occupy that home as a place of residence to the exclusion of the persons who purchase the other homes, or for whom the other homes are built, under the contract.

6B Multiple occupancy land

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a parcel of land is multiple occupancy land if there are 2 or more homes, built or being built, on the parcel.
- (2) The provisions of this Act apply in respect of the purchase or building of a home on multiple occupancy land as if the home purchased or built is an exclusive occupancy.
- (3) A home is an exclusive occupancy only if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the persons who occupy the home as a place of residence are entitled to do so to the exclusion of the persons who occupy the other home or homes on the parcel of land.

Part 2 First home owner grant

Division 1 Entitlement to grant

7 Entitlement to grant

- (1) A first home owner grant is payable on an application under this Act if:
 - (a) the applicant or, if there are 2 or more of them, each of the applicants complies with the eligibility criteria, and
 - (b) the transaction for which the grant is sought:
 - (i) is an eligible transaction, and
 - (ii) has been completed.
- (2) Despite subsection (1) (a), an applicant need not comply with the eligibility criteria to the extent the applicant is exempted from compliance by section 8A (2), 9 (2) or 12 (2).

- (3) Despite subsection (1) (b), a first home owner grant is payable before completion of the relevant eligible transaction, as authorised by section 20.
- (4) Only one first home owner grant is payable for the same eligible transaction.

Division 2 Eligibility criteria (applicants)

8 Criterion 1—Applicant to be a natural person

An applicant for a first home owner grant must be a natural person.

8A Criterion 1A—Applicant to be at least 16 years of age

- (1) An applicant for a first home owner grant must be at least 16 years of age.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner may exempt an applicant from the requirement to be at least 16 years of age if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (a) the home to which the application relates will be occupied by the applicant as his or her principal place of residence within 12 months after completion of the eligible transaction or a longer period approved by the Chief Commissioner, and
 - (b) the application does not form part of a scheme to circumvent limitations on, or requirements affecting, eligibility for or entitlement to a first home owner grant.

9 Criterion 2—Applicant to be Australian citizen or permanent resident

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an applicant for a first home owner grant must be an Australian citizen or a permanent resident.
- (2) If an application is made by joint applicants and at least one (but not all) of the applicants complies with the requirement to be an Australian citizen or a permanent resident, the non-complying applicant or applicants are exempted from compliance with the requirement.

10 Criterion 3—Applicant (or applicant's spouse) must not have received an earlier grant

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an applicant for a first home owner grant is ineligible for the grant if:
 - (a) the applicant or the applicant's spouse has been a party to an earlier application under this Act or a corresponding law, and
 - (b) a grant was paid on the application.
- (2) An applicant is not ineligible if the grant was paid but later paid back under the conditions on which the grant was made.

11 Criterion 4—Applicant (or applicant's spouse) must not have had relevant interest in residential property

- (1) An applicant for a first home owner grant is ineligible for the grant if the applicant or the applicant's spouse has, before 1 July 2000, held:
 - (a) a relevant interest in residential property in New South Wales, or
 - (b) an interest in residential property in another State or a Territory that is a relevant interest under the corresponding law of that State or Territory.
- (2) In working out for the purposes of subsection (1) whether an applicant held a relevant interest (within the meaning of this Act or a corresponding law) in residential property at a particular time, any deferment of the applicant's right of occupation (because the property was subject to a lease) is to be disregarded.
- (3) An applicant is ineligible if the applicant or the applicant's spouse has, on or after 1 July 2000 and before the commencement date of the eligible transaction to which the application relates, held an interest in property used at any time on or after 1 July 2000 as the residence of the applicant or the applicant's spouse, being:
 - (a) a relevant interest in residential property in New South Wales, or
 - (b) an interest in residential property in another State or a Territory that is a relevant interest under the corresponding law of that State or Territory.

12 Criterion 5—Residence requirement

- (1) An applicant for a first home owner grant must occupy the home to which the application relates as the applicant's principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months.
 - (1A) However, if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied there are good reasons to do so, the Chief Commissioner may:
 - (a) approve a shorter period, or
 - (b) exempt the applicant from the requirement to comply with subsection (1).
 - (1B) The period of occupation required under subsection (1), or the shorter period approved under subsection (1A) (a), must start within 12 months after completion of the eligible transaction or a longer period approved by the Chief Commissioner.
- (2) If an application is made by joint applicants and at least one (but not all) of the applicants complies with the residence requirement, the non-complying applicant or applicants are exempted from compliance with the residence requirement.

Division 3 Eligible transactions

13 Eligible transactions

- (1) An eligible transaction is:
 - (a) a contract made on or after 1 July 2000 for the purchase of a home in New South Wales, or
 - (b) a comprehensive home building contract made on or after 1 July 2000 by the owner of land in New South Wales, or by a person who will on completion of the contract be the owner of land in New South Wales, to have a home built on the land, or
 - (c) the building of a home in New South Wales by an owner builder if the building work commences on or after 1 July 2000.
- (2) A contract is a contract for the purchase of a home if the contract is a contract for the acquisition of a relevant interest in land on which a home is or is to be built under the contract by or on behalf of the vendor.
- (3) However, a contract made on or after 1 July 2000 is not an eligible transaction if:
 - (a) in the case of a contract to purchase a home—the purchaser had an option to purchase the home granted before that date or the vendor had an option to require the purchaser to purchase the home granted before that date, or

- (4) The commencement date of an eligible transaction is:

 - (i) the date when laying the foundations for the home commences, or
 - (ii) another date the Chief Commissioner considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

 - (a) in the case of a contract for the purchase of a home:
 - (i) the purchaser becomes entitled to possession of the home under the contract, and
 - (ii) except in the case of a terms contract, if the purchaser acquires an interest in land under the contract that is registrable under a law of the State—the purchaser’s interest is registered under that law, or

- (b) in the case of a contract to have a home built—the building is ready for occupation as a place of residence, or
 - (c) in the case of the building of a home by an owner builder—the building is ready for occupation as a place of residence.
- (6) If a person purchases a moveable building and intends to use it as a place of residence on land in which the person has a relevant interest but on which it is not situated at the time of purchase:
- (a) this Act applies as if the person were an owner builder building a home on the land, and
 - (b) the commencement date of the transaction is taken to be the date of the contract to purchase the moveable building, and
 - (c) the transaction is taken to be completed when the moveable building is ready for occupation as a place of residence on land in which the purchaser has a relevant interest.
- (7) The consideration for an eligible transaction is:
- (a) in the case of a contract for the purchase of a home—the consideration for the purchase, or
 - (b) in the case of a comprehensive home building contract—the total consideration payable for the building work, or
 - (c) in the case of the building of a home by an owner builder—the actual costs to the owner of carrying out the work (excluding any allowance for the owner builder’s own labour).

- (3) Subject to subsection (6), an eligible transaction that is a comprehensive home building contract for a new home is also a special eligible transaction if:
- (a) the contract is made after 8 October 2001 and before 1 July 2002, and
 - (b) the building work starts within 26 weeks after the contract is made, or any longer period the Chief Commissioner may allow for delay caused by circumstances beyond the control of the parties, and
