- (b) any further Royal Commission by which a commissioner is appointed as sole commissioner to exercise functions at the request of, or otherwise to assist, the Royal Commissioner under the Royal Commission referred to in paragraph (a), but only if the terms of that further Royal Commission provide that this Act is to apply to the Commission.

(2) If a Royal Commission to which this Act applies is altered, extended or continued by another Royal Commission, or is replaced by another Royal Commission on the same or similar terms as that Royal Commission, this Act extends to apply to the Royal Commission as so altered, extended, continued or replaced.

A reference in any other Act to the 1923 Act does not include a reference to this Act, except as expressly provided by this Act.
- (2) The provisions of this Act are in addition to and not in derogation of any provisions of the 1923 Act, except as specifically provided by this Act. In particular, Part 2 of this Act does not limit or otherwise affect the provisions of the 1923 Act with respect to a person summoned to attend or appearing as a witness before the Commission.
- (3) Nothing in the 1923 Act operates to constrain or restrict the exercise of a function conferred or imposed by or under this Act.

Part 2 Obtaining information, documents and other things

- (4) A person must not:
 - (a) without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a notice served on the person under this section, or

- (3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a notice served on the person under this section.

- (1) This section applies where, under section 6 or 7, the Commissioner requires any person:
 - (a) to produce any statement of information, or
 - (b) to produce any document or other thing.
- (2) The Commissioner must set aside the requirement if it appears to the Commissioner that any person has a ground of privilege whereby, in proceedings in a court of law, the person might resist a like requirement and it does not appear to the Commissioner that the person consents to compliance with the requirement.

- (3) The person must however comply with the requirement despite:
- (a) any rule which in proceedings in a court of law might justify an objection to compliance with a like requirement on grounds of public interest, or
 - (b) any privilege of a public authority or public official in that capacity which the authority or official could have claimed in a court of law, or
 - (c) any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure applying to a public authority or public official.

9 Self-incrimination (s 26 ICAC Act)

- (1) This section applies where, under section 6 or 7, the Commissioner requires any person:
- (a) to produce any statement of information, or
 - (b) to produce any document or other thing.
- (2) If the statement, document or other thing tends to incriminate the person and the person objects to production at the time, neither the fact of the requirement nor the statement, document or thing itself (if produced) may be used in any proceedings against the person (except proceedings for an offence against this Act or the 1923 Act).
- (3) They may however be used for the purposes of the Commission's inquiry, despite any such objection.

- (4) The powers conferred by this section must not be exercised if it appears to the Commissioner or authorised officer that any person has a ground of privilege whereby, in proceedings in a court of law, the person might resist inspection of the premises or production of the document or other thing and it does not appear to the Commissioner or authorised officer that the person consents to the inspection or production.
- (5) The powers may however be exercised despite:
 - (a) any rule of law which, in proceedings in a court of law, might justify an objection to an inspection of the premises or to production of the document or other thing on grounds of public interest, or
 - (b) any privilege of a public authority or public official in that capacity which the authority or official could have claimed in a court of law, or
 - (c) any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure applying to a public authority or public official.

Part 3 Attendance before the Commission

11 Arrest of witness (s 36 ICAC Act)

- (1) If a person served with a summons to attend the Commission as a witness fails to attend in answer to the summons, the Commissioner may, on proof by statutory declaration of the service of the summons, issue a warrant for the arrest of the witness.
- (2) The Commissioner may issue a warrant for the arrest of a person whose evidence is desired and is necessary and relevant to the Commission's inquiry if the Commissioner is satisfied by evidence on oath or affirmation that it is probable that the person:
 - (a) will not attend before the Commission to give evidence without being compelled to do so, or
 - (b) is about to or is making preparations to leave the State and the person's evidence will not be obtained by the Commission if the person departs.
- (3) The powers conferred by subsection (2) must not be exercised unless the Commissioner is satisfied that the evidence of the person concerned is required for the purpose of investigating any conduct of a person that constitutes or involves or may constitute or involve a criminal offence.
- (4) The Commissioner is authorised to administer an oath or affirmation for the purposes of subsection (2).

- (5) A warrant may be issued under subsection (2) without or before the issue of a summons to the person whose evidence is desired.
- (6) A warrant may be issued under subsection (2) after the issue of a summons to the person whose evidence is desired, even though the time named in the summons for the person to attend has not yet passed.
- (7) A warrant under this section authorises the arrest of the witness and his or her being promptly brought before the Commission and detained in a prison or elsewhere for that purpose until released by order of the Commissioner.
- (8) A warrant issued under this section may be executed by any police officer, or by any person to whom it is addressed, and the person executing it may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of entering any premises for the purpose of executing it.
- (9) The issue of a warrant or the arrest of a witness does not relieve the witness from any liability incurred by the witness for non-compliance with a summons.
- (10) This section operates in place of section 16 (Warrant) of the 1923 Act.

11A Conditional release of witness

- (1) The release of a witness by order of the Commissioner under section 11 (7) may (but need not) be made subject to one or more of the following conditions (or to any other conditions):
 - (a) that the witness appear and report himself or herself before the Commission in accordance with the terms of the order unless excused from attendance or until released from further attendance by the Commissioner or other officer of the Commission, and
 - (b) conditions for the purpose of ensuring the further attendance of the witness before the Commission (for example the provision of sureties by the witness, the surrender of any passport held by the witness, a requirement as to where the witness is to live and regular reporting by the witness to the Commission).
- (2) From time to time, the Commissioner may by order amend, revoke or add to those conditions.
- (3) A witness who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with a condition to which the release of the witness under section 11 (7) is subject, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

11B Review by Supreme Court

- (1) A witness who has not been released by the Commissioner under section 11 (7) or whose release under that subsection is subject to one or more conditions may apply to the Supreme Court for a review of the decision not to release or failure to release the witness or of the terms of one or more of those conditions.
- (2) The Supreme Court may affirm or set aside a decision by the Commissioner not to release the witness or any condition imposed by the Commissioner on the release of the witness. The Supreme Court may also or instead make any order that the Commissioner may make in relation to the detention or release of the witness. The Court may do so also where the Commissioner has not made any decision within a reasonable time on the release of the witness.
- (3) Such an order is taken to be an order of the Commissioner.

12 Declaration as to objection by witness (s 38 ICAC Act)

The Commissioner may declare that all or any classes of answers given by a witness or that all or any classes of documents or other things produced by a witness will be regarded as having been given or produced on objection by the witness, and there is accordingly no need for the witness to make an objection in respect of each such answer, document or other thing.

13 Reimbursement of expenses of witnesses (s 51 ICAC Act)

- (1) A witness attending or appearing before the Commission is to be paid, out of money provided by Parliament, in respect of the expenses of the witness's attendance an amount ascertained in accordance with the scale prescribed for the purposes of section 51 of the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988 or, if there is no such prescribed scale, such amount as the Royal Commissioner determines.
- (2) Section 13 of the 1923 Act (Allowance to witnesses) does not apply in respect of witnesses attending or appearing before a Royal Commission to which this Act applies.

14 Attendance of prisoner before Commission (s 39 ICAC Act)

- (1) If the Commissioner requires the attendance before the Commission of a prisoner, the Commissioner may, by order in writing served on the governor of the prison in whose custody the prisoner is, direct the governor to produce the prisoner, or have the prisoner produced, at the time and place stated in the order.
- (2) Such an order is sufficient authority to the governor of the prison for producing the prisoner or having the prisoner produced, and the prisoner must be produced accordingly.
- (3) A prisoner is, when produced under this section in the actual custody of the governor of the prison, a prison officer or a police officer, taken to be in lawful custody.

- (4) The governor, prison officer or police officer must in due course return the prisoner to the prison.
- (5) In this section, governor of a prison, prison and prisoner have the same meanings as governor, correctional centre and inmate have in the Crimes \(Administration of Sentences\) Act 1999.

Part 4 Search and listening device warrants

15 Issue of search warrant (s 40 ICAC Act)

- (1) An authorised officer to whom an application is made under subsection (4) may issue a search warrant if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so.
- (2) The Commissioner, on application made to the Commissioner under subsection (4), may issue a search warrant if the Commissioner thinks fit in the circumstances and if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so.
- (3) Search warrants should, as far as practicable, be issued by authorised officers, but nothing in this subsection affects the discretion of the Commissioner to issue them.
- (4) An authorised person may apply to an authorised officer or the Commissioner for a search warrant if the person has reasonable grounds for believing that:
 - (a) there is in or on any premises a document or other thing connected with any matter that is the subject of the Commission's inquiry or that such a document or other thing may, within the next following 72 hours, be brought into or onto the premises, and
 - (b) the matter involves any conduct of a person that constitutes or involves or may constitute or involve a criminal offence.
- (5) In this section:

authorised officer has the same meaning as it has in the Law Enforcement \(Powers and Responsibilities\) Act 2002.

authorised person means an officer of the Commission and, in relation to an application to an authorised officer for a search warrant, includes the Commissioner.

16 Authority conferred by warrant (s 41 ICAC Act)

- (1) A search warrant authorises any police officer, or any other person, named in the warrant:
 - (a) to enter the premises, and
 - (b) to search the premises for documents or other things connected with any matter that is the subject of the Commission's inquiry, and

(c) to seize any such documents or other things found in or on the premises and deliver them to the Commission.

- (2) A police officer executing a search warrant may search a person found in or on the premises whom the police officer reasonably suspects of having a document or other thing mentioned in the warrant.
- (3) If the person executing a search warrant is a police officer under the law of another State or of a Territory or the Commonwealth, he or she may exercise the functions of a police officer under subsection (2).

A person may execute a search warrant with the aid of such assistants as the person considers necessary.

20 Execution of warrant by day or night (s 45 ICAC Act)

- (1) A search warrant may be executed by day, but must not be executed by night unless the person issuing the warrant, by the warrant, authorises its execution by night.
- (2) The person issuing a search warrant is not to authorise the execution of the warrant by night unless satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so. Those grounds include (but are not limited to) the following:
 - (a) the execution of the warrant by day is unlikely to be successful because, for example, it is issued to search for a thing which is likely to be on the premises only at night or other relevant circumstances will only exist at night,
 - (b) there is likely to be less risk to the safety of any person if it is executed at night,
 - (c) an occupier is likely to be on the premises only at night to allow entry without the use of force.

(3) In this section:

by day means during the period between 6 am and 9 pm on any day.

- (b) if it is withdrawn by the person who issued the warrant, or
- (c) when it is executed,

whichever first occurs.

22 Seizure of other documents and things (s 47 (1) ICAC Act)

If, in the course of searching, in accordance with the terms of a search warrant, for documents or other things:

- (a) the person executing the warrant finds a document or other thing that the person believes on reasonable grounds to be evidence that would be admissible in the prosecution of a person for an indictable offence against the law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, and
- (b) the first-mentioned person believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to seize the document or other thing in order to prevent its concealment, loss, mutilation or destruction, or its use in committing such an offence, that person may seize the document or other thing and, if it is so seized, it is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have been seized pursuant to the warrant.

23 Application of provisions of the Law Enforcement \(Powers and Responsibilities\) Act 2002 (s 48 ICAC Act)

- (1) Division 4 of Part 5 of the Law Enforcement \(Powers and Responsibilities\) Act 2002 (other than sections 69–73) applies to a search warrant issued under this Act.
- (2) Division 4 of Part 5 of the Law Enforcement \(Powers and Responsibilities\) Act 2002 so applies as if references in that Division to an authorised officer to whom an application for a search warrant is made or by whom a search warrant is issued included (where relevant) references to the Commissioner, where such an application is made to the Commissioner or a search warrant is issued by the Commissioner.

24 Obstruction of person executing search warrant (s 84 ICAC Act)

A person must not, without reasonable excuse, obstruct or hinder a person executing a search warrant.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

- (d) the fact that any person has given or may be about to give evidence before the Commission, must not be published or must not be published except in such manner, and to such persons, as the Commissioner specifies.

- (2) The Commissioner is not to give a direction under this section unless satisfied that the direction is necessary or desirable in the public interest.
- (3) A person must not make a publication in contravention of a direction given under this section.
