- (3) All proceedings before a Fair Rents Board in this State under the Commonwealth Regulations which are pending or purport to be pending immediately before the commencement of this Act, may be continued before and determined by a Fair Rents

Board under this Act, and the provisions of this Act shall apply to those proceedings as if they were proceedings before a Fair Rents Board under this Act.

- (4) All proceedings under Part 3 of the Commonwealth Regulations which are pending or purport to be pending immediately before the commencement of this Act may be continued and determined under Part 3 of this Act as if they had been commenced thereunder.
- (5) The generality of this section shall not be affected by any saving in any other section of this Act nor shall this section limit any saving in the Interpretation Act of 1897, as amended by subsequent Acts.

5 Crown not bound

This Act shall not bind:

- (a) the Crown in right of the Commonwealth or of the State, or
- (b) the New South Wales Land and Housing Corporation.

5AA No new protected tenancies to be created from 1 January 1986

On and from 1 January 1986, the provisions of Parts 2, 3, 4 and 5:

- (a) do not apply in respect of prescribed premises unless the premises were the subject of a lease immediately before 1 January 1986, and
- (b) cease to apply, and shall not thereafter apply, to any such premises upon vacant possession of the premises being obtained or upon those provisions ceasing to apply to the premises by reason of the operation of section 5A or any other provision of this Act.

5AB Evidence of vacant possession

- (1) A statement, in or to the effect of the prescribed form, signed by the lessee of premises and stating that the lessee did not enter into possession of the premises until on or after 1 January 1986 is admissible in any proceedings arising out of or taken under this Act and, unless evidence is given to the contrary, shall be presumed to be correct.
- (2) A statement under this section is not admissible in proceedings unless the lessor of the premises became the lessor after the statement was signed by the lessee.

5A Parts 2, 3, 4 and 5 not to apply to certain premises

- (1) The provisions of Parts 2, 3, 4 and 5 do not apply in respect of the following prescribed premises, that is to say:
 - (a) a dwelling-house that was in the course of erection at, or the erection of which commenced after, the sixteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four,

- (b) a residential unit that came into existence on or after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine,
- (c) a dwelling-house or a residential unit that was, at the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, the subject of a lease that is registered under the section that this section replaces as in force at the time when the registration was effected,
- (d) a dwelling-house or a residential unit:
 - (i) of which:
 - (a) vacant possession was obtained on or after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, or that was occupied personally by the lessor or his or her predecessor in title on or after that day, or
 - (b) vacant possession was obtained before that day and that has remained vacant from the time when vacant possession was obtained until that day,
 - (ii) that is the subject of a lease, being a lease, except where the lessee is a company or other body corporate:
 - (a) the execution of which by the lessee was witnessed by a solicitor instructed and employed independently of the lessor or by a registrar of the Local Court, and
 - (b) that bears a certificate by that solicitor or registrar of the Local Court that he or she explained the lease to the lessee before it was executed by him or her, and
 - (c) (Repealed)
 - (iii) the lease of which is after that day registered in the Department,
- (e) a dwelling-house or a residential unit:
 - (i) of which vacant possession was obtained before the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine,
 - (ii) that is the subject of a lease:
 - (a) that was executed by the lessee before that day,
 - (b) being a lease, except where the lessee is a company or other body corporate and the lease was executed by the company or other body corporate on or after the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight:

- (i) the execution of which by the lessee was witnessed by a solicitor instructed and employed independently of the lessor or by a registrar of the Local Court, and
 - (ii) that bears a certificate by that solicitor or registrar of the Local Court that he or she explained the lease to the lessee before it was executed by him or her, and
- (c) that after that first day of January is registered in the Department, and
- (iii) that, had this section not been substituted by the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1968 would, upon registration of that lease in the Department immediately after its execution by the lessee, have been exempt from the provisions of Parts 2, 3, 4 and 5 under the section that this section replaces as in force at the time when the lease was executed by the lessee,
- (f) a dwelling-house or a residential unit to which the provisions of Parts 2, 3, 4 and 5 have at any time ceased to apply by reason of paragraph (c), (d) or (e).

(2) For the purposes of:

- (a) paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) of subsection (1), “lease” does not include a concurrent lease, and
 - (b) paragraph (c) of subsection (1) “lease” does not include a lease that was or is registered in the Department on or after the twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight, and that was executed by the lessee before the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, unless the premises the subject of the lease are premises that, had this section not been substituted by the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1968, would upon registration of the lease in the Department have been exempt from the provisions of Parts 2, 3, 4 and 5 under the section that this section replaces as in force at the time when the lease was executed by the lessee.
- (3) A reference in paragraphs (c) and (e) of subsection (1), and in paragraph (b) of subsection (2), to the section that this section replaces as in force at a particular time shall be construed as a reference to section 5A, as inserted by the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1954, and includes a reference to that section as amended up to that time.
- (4) An application for the registration under this section of a lease shall be made to, and in the form of a statutory declaration containing particulars required by, the Director-General and shall be accompanied by:
- (a) the original lease and a copy thereof, which copy:

- (i) shall be certified to be a true copy by the lessor, the lessor's solicitor or an agent of the lessor, and
 - (ii) shall be so certified in a manner approved by the Director-General, and
- (b) a fee of two dollars or, where another fee has been prescribed in lieu thereof, by that other fee.
- (5) The registration after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, under this section of a lease shall be deemed to be effected upon the making of an entry in relation to the lease, in the manner approved by the Director-General, in a register to be kept by the Director-General for the purposes of this section and the endorsement on the original lease and certified copy thereof of a memorial of the entry.
- (6) After registration under this section of a lease the original lease shall be returned to the person by whom the application for registration was made.
- (7) The provisions of subsection (1) and section 5AA have effect subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of section 6, section 6A and section 81A.
- (8) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) and section 5AA, the provisions of sections 36 (except paragraph (a), subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) and paragraph (c) of subsection (1)), 36A, 55, 77, 93, 95 and 98 apply in respect of premises exempted from the operation of provisions of the Act by subsection (1) or section 5AA.
- (9) The Director-General shall not register a lease under paragraph (d) or (e) of subsection (1) if he or she is satisfied:
 - (a) where the lease is of a dwelling-house, that the dwelling-house is a dwelling-house referred to in paragraph (a) of that subsection,
 - (b) where the lease is of a residential unit, that the residential unit is a residential unit referred to in paragraph (b) of that subsection, or
 - (c) that the lease is in contravention of any of the provisions of section 77.
- (9A) On and after 1 January 1986, the Director-General shall not register a lease under this section unless:
 - (a) the lease was executed by the lessee before 1 January 1986, and
 - (b) the application for registration was made on or before 30 June 1986, or a Fair Rents Board has recommended under subsection (9C) that the application be dealt with.
- (9B) Where an application for the registration of a lease under this section is made to the Director-General after 30 June 1986, but before 1 January 1989, the Director-General may refer the application to a Fair Rents Board if of the opinion that the Board could make a recommendation under subsection (9C) that the application be dealt with.

(9C) A Fair Rents Board may, if satisfied that in the particular circumstances of an application for registration referred to it under subsection (9B) there is a reasonable excuse for the delay in the making of the application, recommend to the Director-General that the application be dealt with.

(10) A certificate:

- (a) purporting to be signed by a solicitor or a registrar of the Local Court, being a certificate referred to in paragraph (b) of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d), or subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (e), of subsection (1), shall be admissible in any proceedings and shall, in all courts and upon all occasions whatsoever, be prima facie evidence of the particulars certified in and by the certificate, or
- (b) purporting to be signed by the Director-General or his or her delegate and certifying:
 - (i) that a lease specified or referred to in the certificate was registered in the Department on a day specified in the certificate, or
 - (ii) the particulars referred to in subparagraph (i), that the lease bears a certificate referred to in paragraph (b) of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d), or subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (e), of subsection (1) purporting to be signed by a solicitor or a registrar of the Local Court, and the particulars certified in and by the certificate that the lease bears, shall be admissible in any proceedings and shall, in all courts and upon all occasions whatsoever, be prima facie evidence of the particulars referred to in subparagraph (i) and, where the certificate certifies that the lease bears a certificate as referred to in subparagraph (ii), of the particulars certified in and by the certificate that the lease bears, as certified in and by the certificate under this paragraph.

(11) An application for a certificate under paragraph (b) of subsection (10):

- (a) may be made by any person,
- (b) shall be made in writing to the Director-General, and
- (c) shall be accompanied by a fee of five dollars or, where another fee has been prescribed in lieu thereof, by that other fee.

(12) In this section:

dwelling-house includes:

- (a) the premises of any lodging-house or boarding-house, and
- (b) any part of premises that is used or has been designed for use for the purposes of residence independently of any other part of the premises, but does not include a residential unit or premises licensed for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors.

residential unit means a part of a dwelling-house that is used or has been designed for use for the purposes of residence independently of any other part of the dwelling-house and that came into existence by reason of the conversion of the dwelling-house into those parts.

6 Declarations as to application of Act

- (1) The Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, declare that the application of this Act shall extend to premises, or the premises included in any class of premises, specified in the order, and thereupon the application of this Act shall, notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 12 or section 78, extend to those premises (including goods leased with those premises) or to the premises included in that class of premises (including goods leased with those premises).
- (2) The Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, declare that any premises, or the premises included in any class of premises, shall be excluded from the operation of this Act or of such of the provisions of this Act as are specified in the order, and thereupon those premises, or premises of that class, shall be excluded accordingly.
- (3) Any declaration made or purporting to have been made before the commencement of this Act under sub-regulation four or sub-regulation five of Regulation seven of the Commonwealth Regulations and having force or effect or purporting to have force or effect in this State immediately before such commencement shall continue to have force and effect in all respects as if this section had been in force at the time when such declaration was made or purported to have been made, and the declaration had been made thereunder by the Governor.

6A Special premises

- (1) The Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, declare that any premises shall be “special premises” for the purposes of this Act and may also by that order declare that each and every part of those premises which is at any time while the order has force or effect the subject of a separate agreement or arrangement whether oral or in writing of leave and licence for the use of that part shall be “special premises” for the purposes of this Act.

(1A)

- (a) Any order made under subsection (1) before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1954 and having force or effect immediately before such commencement declaring that any premises shall be “special premises” for the purposes of this Act shall have effect and shall be deemed always to have had effect as though that order had also declared that each and every part of those premises which is at any time while the order has force or effect the subject of a separate agreement or arrangement whether oral or in writing of leave and licence for the use of that part shall be “special premises” for the purposes of this Act.
- (b) A person shall not, by reason of the enactment of paragraph (a), be guilty of an offence against this Act in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him or her before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1954, if he or she would not have been so guilty had that paragraph not been enacted.

(2) In the application of this Act to or in respect of “special premises”:

- (a) “lease” includes any leave and licence for the use of the “special premises” whether such leave and licence is granted orally or in writing; and “lessor”, “lessee”, “to lease”, and “to let”, and expressions derived therefrom shall have a corresponding meaning,
- (b) “rent” includes any payment or consideration in respect of any leave and licence for the use of the “special premises” and for any services provided for or supplied to any person using the “special premises” under leave and licence,
- (c)
 - (i) subsection (3) of section 62 shall be read and construed as if the words “for a period determined in accordance with section 63” were omitted therefrom and the words “for a period of at least seven days or, where a period shorter than seven days is reasonable in the circumstances, for that shorter period” were inserted in lieu thereof,
 - (ii) subsection (5) of section 62 shall be read and construed as if paragraph (d) thereof were omitted and the following paragraph inserted in lieu thereof:
 - (d)
 - (i) that the conduct of the lessee is obnoxious to any other occupant or occupants of the premises or of the building in which the premises are situated, or tends to bring the premises or building as aforesaid into disrepute, or
- (d) where recovery of possession of the special premises is sought on the ground referred to in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (d) of subsection (5) of section 62, as substituted by subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (c), sections 63 and 72 shall be deemed to be omitted therefrom.

(3)

- (a) Where any premises (not being premises that are declared to be “special premises” under subsection (1) or subsection (1A)) are after the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1958 occupied by any person for the purposes of residence under an agreement or arrangement whether oral or in writing of leave and licence for the use thereof (whether that agreement or arrangement was entered into before or after that commencement, whether or not that agreement or arrangement was entered into in substitution for a lease of such premises or of any part of such premises or of the premises of which such premises form a part, and whether the occupancy by that person for the purposes of residence under that agreement or arrangement commenced before or after that commencement), and such premises or any part of such premises or the premises of which such premises form a part have, after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine, and before that agreement or arrangement was entered into, been the subject of a lease (whether the lease was entered into before or after that date and whether or not the lease is still subsisting), the premises shall, subject to paragraphs (b), (c) and (d), be deemed to be “special premises” for the purposes of this Act.
- (b) The Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, exempt any class of premises specified in the order from the operation of paragraph (a) and thereupon that paragraph shall not apply to the class of premises so specified.
- (c) The Director-General, in his or her discretion, may, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as he or she thinks fit, issue a certificate excluding any premises from the operation of paragraph (a), for such period as is specified in the certificate and the premises shall, so long as the certificate remains in force, be excluded accordingly.

The Director-General may at any time revoke or vary any certificate issued under this paragraph.

- (d) In this subsection the expression “agreement or arrangement whether oral or in writing of leave and licence for the use thereof” in relation to premises does not include such an agreement or arrangement under which the licensee of the prescribed premises is a bona-fide boarder.

In this paragraph bona-fide boarder means a licensee who is supplied by the licensor with:

- (i) one meal before midday consisting of at least two courses, one of which comprises cereal or porridge and the other of which comprises cooked meat, eggs or a like dish, together with bread (or toast), butter, jam and tea or coffee, and

- (ii) one meal after midday consisting of at least two courses, one of which comprises fish or meat (other than in sandwich form) and cooked vegetables, if the value of the meals so supplied forms a substantial portion of the whole charge paid by the licensee under the agreement or arrangement.

(e) Nothing in this subsection affects the operation of subsection (1).

7 Holiday premises

 - (j) the amount, if any, that the Fair Rents Board is satisfied was necessarily expended by the lessor since the prescribed date referred to in subsection (4) of section 20 upon the improvement or structural alteration of the premises (but not including decoration, repairs or maintenance).

In determining the fair rent of any premises the Fair Rents Board shall not make any allowance by reason of any loss which might be imposed upon the lessor by an order fixing the rent of the premises at an amount less than the lessor's liability under a mortgage of, or contract of sale in respect of, the premises, or under a hire purchase agreement or contract of sale in respect of any goods leased with the premises.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a Fair Rents Board shall not, in making a determination, or a variation of a determination, of the fair rent of any prescribed premises have regard to any capital value of those premises other than the appropriate capital value of those premises referred to in paragraph (a).

(1A) A Fair Rents Board in determining the fair rent of prescribed premises not being a dwelling-house shall in addition to the matters specified in subsection (1) have regard to land tax payable in respect of the premises by the lessor under the Land Tax Management Act 1956 and the Land Tax Act 1956, or any Act amending or replacing any such Act, or where such land tax is payable by the lessor in respect of the premises together with other lands, to the extent to which such land tax would be payable were the premises the only land in respect of which the lessor was liable for any such land tax.

(1AB) In determining the fair rent of any prescribed premises a Fair Rents Board may include in the fair rent an allowance in respect of agent's collecting commission or, where an agent does not collect the rent of the prescribed premises, such amount in respect of the collection of the rent as the Board deems proper.

(1B) (Repealed)

(1C) Where a Fair Rents Board would, but for this subsection, increase the fair rent of any prescribed premises and the Board is of opinion that the lessee would not reasonably be able to pay the fair rent as so increased, the Board shall, in determining the amount of the increase, if any, have regard to the financial circumstances of the lessor and the lessee.

(1D) In determining or varying the fair rent of any prescribed premises, a Fair Rents Board shall not make any allowance:

- (a) based on paragraph (f) of subsection (1) in excess of such percentage of the capital value of the prescribed premises at the prescribed date referred to in subsection (4) of section 20 as is equal to the difference between the rate per centum of interest charged upon overdrafts by the Commonwealth Bank of Australia, or the Commonwealth Trading Bank of Australia, as the case may be, at that prescribed date and the rate per centum of interest charged upon overdrafts by the Commonwealth Trading Bank of Australia at the date of the determination or variation, or
- (b) based on paragraph (j) of subsection (1) in excess of eight per centum of the amount referred to in that paragraph.

(1E) In determining or varying the fair rent of any prescribed premises, a Fair Rents Board shall not make any allowance by reason of any change, since the prescribed date referred to in subsection (4) of section 20 or since any previous determination or variation or since any earlier date whatsoever, in any economic conditions affecting the community generally or a substantial part of the community.

(2) In considering the matters referred to in subsection (1):

- (a) any bonus, premium or sum of money (other than rent) or other consideration given or promised or agreed to be given by the lessor, or
- (b) the purchase or exchange by the lessor of any goods or goodwill, which would have been in contravention of subsection (1) of section 36 had the prescribed premises concerned not been excluded from the operation of that section or had the consent of the Director-General or a Board, as the case may be, not been obtained, shall be disregarded.

22 Date of operation of determination

(1) Every determination of the fair rent of prescribed premises other than shared accommodation made by a Fair Rents Board shall come into force on a date fixed by the Board, but the date so fixed shall not be earlier than the date of the receipt of the application in the office of the clerk of the Board.

- (2) After the making of any such determination, other than a determination made under section 23A, the clerk of the Board shall give notice in writing thereof, and of the date fixed as the date on which the determination shall come into force, to the applicant and to any other person to whom it has been established in the proceedings that notice has been given under section 19 or section 24.
- (3) After the making of any determination of the fair rent of any prescribed premises under section 23A, the clerk of the Board shall give notice in writing thereof, and of the date fixed as the date on which the determination shall come into force, to the persons to whom notice of the time, date and place fixed for that determination was given under subsection (2) of that section.

23 Effect of determination

Where any fair rent has been determined by a Fair Rents Board it shall, as from the date fixed under section 22:

- (a) where that rent is so determined in respect of prescribed premises without goods:
 - (i) be the fair rent and the rent of the prescribed premises without goods until it is varied in pursuance of this Part, and
 - (ii) unless a fair rent is also fixed or determined by or under this Part in respect of the premises together with goods, be the fair rent and the rent of the prescribed premises together with goods until a determination has been made in respect of those premises together with goods,
- (b) where that rent is so determined in respect of prescribed premises together with goods:
 - (i) be the fair rent and the rent of the prescribed premises together with goods until it is varied in pursuance of this Part, and
 - (ii) unless a fair rent is also fixed or determined by or under this Part in respect of the premises without goods, be the fair rent and the rent of the prescribed premises without goods until a determination has been made in respect of those premises without goods.

23A Premises not leased

- (1) A Fair Rents Board may, of its own motion, after inquiry determine the fair rent of any prescribed premises other than shared accommodation which are not leased.
- (2) The Fair Rents Board shall cause to be given to such persons as it considers proper notice of the time, date and place fixed for the determination of the fair rent of the premises and the notice or notices so given shall, for the purpose of this Division, be deemed to be an application.

- (3) In determining the fair rent of prescribed premises under this section, the Fair Rents Board shall have the same powers as it has in connection with an application, and any determination made by the Fair Rents Board shall have the same effect for all purposes as a determination made upon an application.

24 Fair Rents Board may determine fair rent of its own motion

- (1) A Fair Rents Board may, of its own motion but subject to section 17A, after inquiry, determine the fair rent of any prescribed premises other than shared accommodation.
- (2) The Fair Rents Board shall cause to be given to the lessor and lessee of the prescribed premises and to the other persons referred to in section 19, notice of the time, date and place fixed for the determination of the fair rent of the premises, and the notice so given to the lessor shall, for the purpose of this Division, be deemed to be an application.
- (3) In determining the fair rent of prescribed premises under this section, the Fair Rents Board shall have the same powers as it has in connection with an application, and any determination made by the Fair Rents Board shall have the same effect for all purposes as a determination made upon an application.

- (1) This section applies to any prescribed premises, other than shared accommodation, the fair rents of which are fixed by a determination.
- (2) The lessor of any prescribed premises to which this section applies may make application in writing:
 - (a) where the premises are situated within, or partly within and partly outside, the Metropolitan Area—to the Director-General, or
 - (b) where the premises are situated wholly outside the Metropolitan Area—to the clerk of the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises, for an increase in the fair rent of the premises pursuant to the provisions of this section.

- (3) The Director-General or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall thereupon make an assessment of the fair rent of the premises by adding to the existing fair rent thereof, calculated on an annual basis, a reasonable allowance for any increase in the rate of interest charged upon overdrafts by the Commonwealth Trading Bank of Australia and the amount by which he or she is satisfied that the lessor's liability in respect of such premises and fixtures thereon for annual rates and insurance premiums and agent's collecting commission and for the annual costs of repairs, maintenance and renewals has increased since:

- (a) the date of the last determination of the fair rent of the premises, or
- (b) (Repealed)

In the application of the foregoing provisions of this subsection to and in respect of premises to which this section applies "rates" includes land tax payable in respect of the premises by the lessor under the Land Tax Management Act 1956 and the Land Tax Act 1956, or any Act amending or replacing any such Act, or where such land tax is payable by the lessor in respect of the premises together with other lands the land tax which would be payable were the premises the only land in respect of which the lessor was liable for any such land tax.

In making an assessment of the fair rent of any prescribed premises under this section, the Director-General shall not make any allowance for any increase in the rate of interest charged upon overdrafts by the Commonwealth Trading Bank of Australia in excess of such percentage of the capital value of the prescribed premises at the prescribed date referred to in subsection (4) of section 20 as is equal to the difference between the rate per centum of interest charged upon overdrafts by the Commonwealth Bank of Australia, or the Commonwealth Trading Bank of Australia, as the case may be, at the date on which the existing fair rent was determined under this Part and the rate per centum of interest charged upon overdrafts by the Commonwealth Trading Bank of Australia at the date of the assessment.

- (a) Notice of the fair rent so assessed shall be given in writing by the Director-General or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessee of the premises.

- (b) Such notice shall specify a date not less than twenty-eight days from the date on which the notice is given before which objection to the fair rent so assessed may be lodged with the Director-General or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, by the lessee of the premises.

- (a) If no such objection is lodged with the Director-General or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified:

- (i) the rent specified in the notice of assessment shall, as from the date so specified and until varied in pursuance of this Part, be the fair rent and the rent of the premises in all respects as if the same had been determined by a Fair Rents Board in accordance with this Part,

(ii) notice that the rent specified in the notice of assessment is to be the fair rent and the rent of the premises as from the date so specified shall be given by the Director-General or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessor and lessee of the premises.

(b) If any such objection is lodged with the Director-General or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified, the Director-General or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall refer the lessor's application to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises.

(6) Any application made to the Director-General or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, pursuant to subsection (2) may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), at any time be referred by him or her of his or her own motion to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the prescribed premises.

(7) Any reference to a Fair Rents Board under paragraph (b) of subsection (5) or under subsection (6) shall be deemed to be:

(a) where the fair rent of the premises has been previously fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair Rents Board pursuant to section 32 for a variation of the last determination may be made at any time notwithstanding the provisions of that section, and shall be dealt with accordingly.

(b) (Repealed)

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (2) of section 32, application may be made at any time to vary a determination of the fair rent of any prescribed premises made by the Director-General or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board and having effect pursuant to subsection (5) as a determination made by a Fair Rents Board.

25A Reference of application to Director-General

Where an application has been made under this Division for the determination of the fair rent of any prescribed premises and the Fair Rents Board is of opinion that the premises are shared accommodation situated within, or partly within and partly outside, the Metropolitan Area, the Fair Rents Board may refer the application to the Director-General for determination.

Any such reference to the Director-General shall be deemed to be an application made to the Director-General under Division 4 and may be dealt with accordingly.

- (10) If in any such case the court considers the defendant has been misled by the form of the averment, it may refuse to allow the amendments, or may, as a condition of allowing the amendments, adjourn the hearing of the case for such period as it thinks fit and may make such order as to the costs of the adjournment as it thinks proper.

 - (iii) where no person referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii) was so residing or is so in possession, the father or mother of the lessee so resided and is so in possession,
 - (iv) (Repealed)

the spouse, or such child, or the father or mother, as the case may be, shall have the like right to continue in possession of the premises as the former lessee would have if he or she had not died, but proceedings may be taken against the person having the right under this subsection to continue in possession of the premises for the recovery of possession of the premises from that person in accordance with the provisions of this Act as if he or she were a lessee of the premises.

- (2) Where but for this subsection more than one person would, under subparagraph (ii) or (iii) of paragraph (c) of subsection (1), have had a right to continue in possession of any premises, the elder or eldest of the persons so entitled under such subparagraph shall have that right to the exclusion of any other of those persons.

83C Periodic leases may not be disposed of by will or pass on intestacy

Where a lessee under a periodic lease of prescribed premises dies on or after the date on which the assent of Her Majesty to the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1968 was signified, the lease shall not be capable of being disposed of by the will, or of passing on the intestacy, of the lessee, except as to the balance of the periodic term current at the date of death, but nothing in this section affects the operation of section 83A of this Act or of section 61 of the Wills, Probate and Administration Act 1898, as subsequently amended.

84 Costs to be allowed

In any proceedings in relation to which this Part applies, not being proceedings in respect of an offence arising under this Part, the court may in its discretion order payment by the lessor to the lessee of such sum as it deems proper to meet his or her reasonable costs and the provisions of subsection (3) of section 61 shall apply mutatis mutandis to and in respect of any order allowing costs under this section.

The period specified in the certificate shall not exceed seven years unless the lessor and lessee or proposed lessor and proposed lessee under the lease or proposed lease are employer and employee.

(a) The Director-General may at any time revoke or vary any certificate issued under subsection (3).

(6) Where the fair rent of any prescribed premises is fixed or determined by or under Part 2 in respect of those premises without goods and no determination has been made either before or after the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1954 in respect of those premises together with goods, the Director-General may in any certificate issued under this section excluding those premises from the operation of this Part and Part 5 specify the rent to be paid for those premises together with goods.

The rent so specified shall:

(a) be deemed to have been determined by a determination made under and in accordance with Part 2, and

(b) as on and from a date to be specified in the certificate (which date shall be not earlier than the date upon which the application for the exclusion of the premises from this Part and Part 5 was received in the office of the Director-General) and notwithstanding anything contained in Part 2, be the fair rent of those premises together with goods until it is varied under and in accordance with that Part.

Application to vary the rent so specified may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of section 32, be made at any time after the issue of the certificate:

Provided that where no determination of the fair rent of those premises is made during the currency of the certificate either increasing, decreasing or confirming the rent so specified, the fair rent of those premises shall, after the certificate ceases to have force or effect, be the same as if this subsection had not been enacted.

- (3) Where pursuant to section 101 the leave of the court which made an order for the recovery of possession of prescribed premises is sought to enforce that order, the court, notwithstanding that it may not be satisfied upon any of the matters upon which it is required to be satisfied by that section, shall not refuse to give that leave if it is satisfied that refusal to give that leave would prejudice any claim or proposed claim by the lessor for age pension under the Social Services Consolidation Act 1947 (as amended by subsequent Acts) of the Parliament of the Commonwealth.
