- (2) The warrant shall authorise the apprehension of the witness and his or her being brought before the Special Commission and his or her detention in custody for that purpose until he or she is released by order of the Commissioner.
- (3) The apprehension of any witness under this section does not relieve the witness from any liability incurred by the witness by reason of non-compliance with the summons.

23 Answers and documents

- (1) A witness summoned to attend or appearing before a Special Commission shall not be excused from answering any question or producing any book, document or writing on the ground that the answer or production may criminate or tend to criminate the witness, or on the ground of privilege or on any other ground.
- (2) An answer made, or book, document or writing produced, by a witness to or before a Special Commission shall not, except as otherwise provided in this section, be admissible in evidence against that person in any civil or criminal proceedings.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to render inadmissible:

- (a) any answer, book, document or writing in proceedings for an offence against this Act,
- (b) any answer, book, document or writing in any civil or criminal proceedings if the witness was willing to give the answer or produce the book, document or writing irrespective of the provisions of subsection (1), or
- (c) any book, document or writing in civil proceedings for or in respect of any right or liability conferred or imposed by the book, document or writing.

24 Particular powers of Commissioner

For the purposes of a Special Commission, the Commissioner shall have all such powers, rights and privileges as are vested in the Supreme Court or in any Judge thereof in or in relation to any proceedings, in respect of the following matters:

- (2) It shall be a defence to a prosecution under this section for failing without reasonable excuse to produce any books, documents or writings if the defendant proves that the books, documents or writings were not relevant to the Special Commission.

26 Refusal to be sworn or to give evidence

29 Destroying books or documents

Any person who, knowing that any book, document or writing is or may be required in evidence before a Special Commission, wilfully destroys it or renders it illegible or undecipherable or incapable of identification, with intent thereby to prevent it from being used in evidence, is guilty of an indictable offence and is liable to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding 2 years.

30 Delaying and obstructing Special Commission

- (1) Any person who, with intent to delay or obstruct the carrying out by a Special Commission of any inquiry, destroys or alters any book, document or record relating to the subject-matter of the inquiry, or sends or attempts to send, or conspires with any other person to send out of New South Wales any such book, document or record, or any property of any description belonging to or in the disposition of or under the control of any person or company whose affairs are the subject-matter of the inquiry, is guilty of an indictable offence and is liable to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding 5 years.

- (2) A reference in this Part to any act, matter or thing as specified in a resolution includes a reference to any act, matter or thing that is of a class or description as specified in the resolution.

33B Parliamentary resolution for issue of commission

- (1) A House of Parliament may, by resolution, authorise the Governor to issue a commission under section 4 authorising or requiring a person to inquire into and report to the Governor and the House on such matter relating to parliamentary proceedings within or before the House or one of its committees as is specified in the resolution.

- (2) Without affecting the operation of any other provision of this Part, a declaration by a House of Parliament under this section is effective to waive parliamentary privilege to the extent specified in the resolution concerned, and neither the Commissioner nor any other person is in contempt of Parliament in doing anything when relying on that waiver for the purposes of or in connection with the Special Commission.

- (3) However, a declaration by a House of Parliament under this section waiving parliamentary privilege:
  - (a) does not operate to waive parliamentary privilege to the extent that it can be asserted by a member of either House of Parliament in relation to anything said or done by the member in parliamentary proceedings within or before a House of Parliament or a parliamentary committee, but
  - (b) operates to authorise the member to give evidence before the Special Commission if the member chooses to do so, unless the declaration provides otherwise.
- (4) Section 23 (1) cannot apply to a member in relation to parliamentary privilege, but the provisions of section 23 (2) and (3) apply to any evidence given by the member pursuant to subsection (3) (b) whether or not section 23 applies in relation to the Special Commission.
- (5) A reference in this section to the giving of evidence includes a reference to the giving of an answer to a question and the production of a book, document or writing.

33F Provisions relating to resolutions

- (1) A resolution of a House of Parliament does not have effect for the purposes of this Part unless it has been passed by at least two-thirds of the members of the House present and voting.
- (2) A resolution under this Part is not affected by the prorogation, dissolution or expiry of either or both of the Houses of Parliament.

- (3) A resolution may be amended or revoked by a subsequent resolution, but without affecting the validity of anything already done.

33G Operation of Part

- (1) This Part has effect despite any other Act, any Imperial Act or any other law.
- (2) This Part does not limit any power that the Governor might have to issue a commission under section 4 apart from this Part.
- (3) This Part does not limit any power that a Special Commission might have apart from this Part.
