Part 3 Special provisions

10 Subdivision of land generally

A person shall not subdivide land to which this plan applies except with the consent of the Council.

11 General considerations for development in rural areas

- (1) Before determining a development application relating to land within Zone No 1 (a) or 1 (c), the Council must take into consideration the effect that the proposed development would have on:
 - (a) the present use of the land, and the potential for sustained agricultural production of so much (if any) of the land as is prime crop and pasture land,
 - (b) vegetation, timber production, land capability and water resources (including the quality of the water, stability of water courses, ground water storage and riparian rights),
 - (c) the future recovery from known or prospective areas of valuable deposits of minerals, coal, petroleum, sand, gravel or other extractive materials,
 - (d) the protection of areas of nature conservation significance or of high scenic or recreational value, and of items of heritage significance,
 - (e) the cost of providing, extending and maintaining public amenities and services,
 - (f) development on adjoining land and on other land in the locality, including any cumulative impact, and
 - (g) the future expansion of settlements in the locality.
- (2) These considerations do not apply to proposed development which is:
 - (a) an addition to a building or work,
 - (b) ancillary to a purpose for which development may be carried out with the permission of the Council under this Plan, or
 - (c) the erection of a dwelling-house on an allotment of land that the Council is satisfied was created in accordance with this Plan for a dwelling.

12 Subdivision in Zone No 1 (a)

- (1) General restriction The Council may consent to a subdivision of land within Zone No 1 (a) in accordance with either subclause (2), (3) or (4) and not otherwise. Each of those subclauses provides a separate and mutually exclusive set of requirements. Such a consent can be granted only if the land to be subdivided does not comprise the whole or any part of an allotment or portion of land previously subdivided in accordance with a consent granted after the commencement of this plan. However, a further subdivision under subclause (2) may be permitted to a parcel of land notwithstanding that a previous subdivision has been approved under that subclause.

- (2) Creation of “40 hectare allotments” The Council may consent to a subdivision of land within Zone No 1 (a) if each allotment to be created by the subdivision will have an area of not less than 40 hectares.
- (3) Excision of dwelling allotment from smaller holdings The Council may consent to the excision of one (but not more than one) allotment from an existing holding within Zone No 1 (a), being an existing holding that has a total area of not less than 50 and not more than 80 hectares, if:
- (a) the Council is satisfied that the allotment will be used for the purpose of a dwelling house, and
 - (b) the allotment does not comprise prime crop and pasture land, and
 - (c) the allotment will have an area of not less than 2 and not more than 10 hectares, and
 - (d) the residue of the existing holding is consolidated into one allotment, and
 - (e) the Council is satisfied that effective disposal of domestic waste water within the boundaries of the allotment is achievable, and
 - (f) the excision of the allotment is, in the opinion of Council, unlikely to have a significant adverse effect on the existing and potential capability and use, for agricultural purposes, of the residue land and adjacent land.
- (4) Excision of allotments from larger holdings The Council may consent to the excision of one allotment from an existing holding within Zone No 1 (a) for every 80 hectares of that existing holding if:
- (a) the Council is satisfied that each allotment will be used for the purpose of a dwelling-house, and
 - (b) each allotment excised by the subdivision will have an area of not less than 2 and not more than 10 hectares, and
 - (c) the residue of the existing holding is consolidated into one allotment, and
 - (d) the Council is satisfied that effective disposal of domestic waste water within the boundaries of each allotment is achievable, and
 - (e) the excision of each allotment is, in the opinion of the Council, unlikely to have a significant adverse effect on the existing and potential capability and use, for agricultural purposes, of the residue land and adjacent land.

- (5) Exception for family dwelling allotments Despite subclause (1), the Council may consent to the excision of an allotment from land within Zone No 1 (a) if the Council is satisfied that the allotment will be used for the purpose of a dwelling-house, but only if:
- (a) the allotment is required for the erection or use of a dwelling-house the Council is satisfied will be occupied by the person who owned that land on 24 April 1969 (being when Interim Development Order No 1—Shire of Blaxland, which permitted a similar subdivision, commenced) or by a brother, sister, son, daughter, grandson or granddaughter of that owner, and
 - (b) only one such allotment is excised for each 10 hectares of a parcel of contiguous land, with a maximum of three (3) allotments permitted including all allotments created for relatives under Interim Development Order No 1—Shire of Blaxland and any consented to in accordance with subclause (3), and
 - (c) the Council is satisfied that effective disposal of domestic waste water within the boundaries of each allotment is achievable, and
 - (d) the allotment does not comprise prime crop and pasture land.
- (6) Exception for subdivisions to allow agriculture Nothing in this clause prevents the Council from granting consent to the creation of an allotment of vacant land of any area if the Council is satisfied that the allotment will be used for the purpose of agriculture. The Council may decline to grant consent pursuant to this subclause if it has not been satisfied that agricultural production will be viable on any proposed allotment that will have an area of less than 40 hectares.

13 Subdivision for other purposes in Zone No 1 (a)

- (1) The Council may consent to the subdivision of land within Zone No 1 (a) that the Council is satisfied will be used primarily for purposes other than agriculture or a dwelling-house only if the Council is satisfied that:
- (a) the land is not prime crop and pasture land, and
 - (b) the area of each allotment to be created by the subdivision is appropriate having regard to the purpose for which the Council considers it is being created.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), the Council may consent to the subdivision of such land to create an allotment if it is satisfied that:
- (a) the proposed allotment will be used for the purpose of supplying goods or services for which there is a demand,
 - (b) no other land in the locality could reasonably be used for that purpose, and

- (c) the level of demand for the goods or services and the extent of the use justifies the creation of the allotment regardless of its agricultural value.

14 Subdivision for residential purposes in Zone No 1 (c)

- (1) The Council may consent to the subdivision of land within Zone No 1 (c) for the purpose of a dwelling if it is satisfied that:
 - (a) each allotment to be created will have an area of not less than 1 hectare,
