Part 5 External review

Division 1 Review by the Ombudsman

52 Review by the Ombudsman

(1) The conduct of any person or body in relation to a determination made by an agency under this Act may be the subject of a complaint, and may (subject to this section) be investigated by the Ombudsman, under the Ombudsman Act 1974.

(2) The Ombudsman shall not investigate the conduct of any person or body in relation to a determination made by an agency under this Act:

(a) while the determination is subject to a right of review under section 34 or 47, or

(b) if the determination has been subject to a right of review under section 34 or 47 but no application for review of the determination was made while it was subject to that right, or

(c) while any relevant proceedings are before the Tribunal under Division 2.

(3) The Ombudsman shall not exercise his or her powers under section 18, 19 or 20 of the Ombudsman Act 1974 in respect of a document the subject of a Ministerial certificate.

- (4) The Ombudsman shall not disclose any exempt matter in the exercise of his or her functions under the Ombudsman Act 1974 in relation to any investigation of a determination made by an agency under this Act.
- (5) The powers of the Ombudsman under the Ombudsman Act 1974 do not extend to investigating the conduct of any person or body:
 - (a) in relation to the issue of a Ministerial certificate, or
 - (b) in relation to a determination of an application for access to a Minister's document or for the amendment of a Minister's records, or
 - (c) in relation to a determination of an application for access to an agency's document:
 - (i) if the complainant in respect of the determination has previously been a complainant under the Ombudsman Act 1974 in relation to that agency, and

- (6) In a report under section 26 of the Ombudsman Act 1974 of an investigation of a determination made by an agency under this Act, the Ombudsman may recommend:

 - (b) that any general procedure of the agency in relation to dealing with applications made under this Act be changed to conform more closely to the objects and requirements of this Act.
- (7) Any part of a report under section 26 of the Ombudsman Act 1974 of an investigation of a determination made by an agency under this Act (except any part of such a report on a question of law or containing a recommendation referred to in subsection (6)) is admissible in evidence in any proceedings before the Tribunal under this Act if that part of the report is relevant to the proceedings.

52A Redetermination of applications following action by Ombudsman

- (1) An agency may, under this section, review a determination:
 - (a) in accordance with a written suggestion made by the Ombudsman in the course of a formal investigation made under section 13 of the Ombudsman Act 1974, or in

(b) as a result of a written undertaking given in a conciliation under section 13A of that Act, or

(c) in accordance with a recommendation given by the Ombudsman in accordance with that Act.

(2) The review is to be conducted under section 34 or 47, as the case requires, as if the suggestion, undertaking or recommendation were an application referred to in that section. However, section 34 (3) and (5) and section 47 (3) and (5) do not apply to the review.

(3) Despite any other provision of this Act, there is no right to complain to the Ombudsman in respect of any determination arising out of a review under this section.

 - (v) a charge for dealing with the access application is payable by the person being a charge that the person considers to have been unreasonably incurred, or
 - (b) in the case of a determination that relates to an application made by some other person under section 17, 34 or 36, in respect of a document to which one or more of the provisions of Division 2 of Part 3 applies—if:
 - (i) an agency or Minister should have, but has not, taken such steps as are reasonably practicable to obtain the views of the person as to whether or not the document is an exempt document by virtue of any one or more of the provisions of Part 2 of Schedule 1, or
 - (ii) an agency or Minister should have, and has, taken such steps but the determination is not in accordance with the views of the person, or

- and the determination has been made as a consequence of a review under section 34 or 47 or has not been subject to a right of review under either of those sections.
- (4) In relation to decisions under this Act that are reviewable decisions under the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997:
- (a) the procedures for internal reviews provided by this Act apply to the exclusion of section 53 (Internal reviews) of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997, and review of a reviewable decision under that Act is taken, in its application to a decision made under this Act, to be a reference to an internal review under this Act.

A review application is to be made:

- (a) except as provided by paragraph (b)—within 60 days after notice of the determination to which it relates is given to the access applicant, or
- (b) if a complaint is made to the Ombudsman in relation to the determination—within that period of 60 days and:
 - (i) the Ombudsman refuses to investigate the conduct complained of or discontinues an investigation of that conduct within 60 days after the complainant is informed of that fact, or
 - (ii) the Ombudsman completes an investigation of the conduct complained of within 60 days after the results of the investigation are reported to the complainant.

55 Procedure for dealing with exempt matter

In determining a review application, the Tribunal:

- (a) is to ensure that it does not, in the reasons for its decision or otherwise, disclose any exempt matter, and
- (b) is to, where in the opinion of the Tribunal it is necessary to do so in order to prevent the disclosure of any exempt matter, receive evidence and hear argument in the absence of the public, the review applicant and the applicant's representative.

56 Delayed determinations

- (1) This section applies to a determination that, by virtue of section 24 (2), 34 (6), 43 (2) or 47 (6), is to be taken to have been made by an agency or Minister.
- (2) If a review application is made in relation to a determination to which this section applies, the Tribunal may, on the application of the agency or Minister concerned, make an order allowing further time to the agency or Minister to deal with the access application to which the determination relates.
- (3) Such an order may be made subject to such conditions as the Tribunal thinks fit, including a condition that:

- (a) if a determination to give access to the document concerned is made during the further time allowed by the order:
 - (i) any charge that would otherwise be payable in relation to the giving of access to the document is to be reduced or waived, and
 - (ii) the review applicant may apply to the Tribunal for an order that the applicant's costs in the proceedings for review are to be paid by the agency or Minister concerned, or
- (b) if a determination to amend the records concerned is made during the further time allowed by the order the review applicant may apply to the Tribunal for an order that the applicant's costs in the proceedings for review are to be paid by the agency or Minister concerned.

(4) If:

- (a) a review application is made to the Tribunal in relation to a determination to which this section applies (being a determination referred to in section 24 (2) or 34 (6)), and
- (b) the agency or Minister makes a decision, before the Tribunal has disposed of the review application, that:
 - (i) access to the document concerned is to be given to the review applicant, but subject to deferral, or
 - (ii) the document concerned is an exempt document and access to a copy of the document from which exempt matter has been deleted is to be given to the review applicant, or
 - (iii) access to the document concerned is to be given, but subject to a charge for dealing with the application, or for giving access to the document, that the review applicant considers to be unreasonable, or
 - (iv) a charge for dealing with the application is payable by the review applicant, being a charge that the applicant considers to have been unreasonably incurred, the Tribunal may, on the application of the review applicant, deal with the review application as if the decision were a determination under section 24 (1) and as if the review application were a review application against such a determination.

57 Consideration of restricted documents

- (1) The Tribunal may, on the application of the review applicant, consider the grounds on which it is claimed that a document is a restricted document, but only if the document is not subject to a Ministerial certificate.

- (2) In any proceedings under this section, the Tribunal is, on the application of the Minister administering this Act, or the agency or Minister concerned, to receive evidence and hear argument in the absence of:
 - (a) the public, and
 - (b) the review applicant, and
 - (c) if in the opinion of the Tribunal it is necessary to do so to prevent the disclosure of any exempt matter the review applicant's representative.
- (3) If the Tribunal is not satisfied, by evidence on affidavit or otherwise, that there are reasonable grounds for the claim, it may require the document to be produced in evidence before it.
- (4) If, after considering any document produced before it, the Tribunal is still not satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the claim, the Tribunal is to reject the claim when determining the review application.
- (5) The Tribunal is not to reject the claim unless it has given the Minister administering this Act a reasonable opportunity to appear and be heard in relation to the matter.
- (6) For the purposes of any proceedings under this section, the Minister administering this Act is a party to the proceedings.

58 Tribunal may report improper conduct

If, as a result of a review application, the Tribunal is of the opinion that an officer of an agency has failed to exercise in good faith a function conferred or imposed on the officer by or under this Act, the Tribunal may take such measures as it considers appropriate to bring the matter to the attention of the responsible Minister for the agency.

Division 3 Review by the Supreme Court

58A Review by the Supreme Court

- (1) The Supreme Court may, on the application of the review applicant in proceedings before the Tribunal under Division 2, consider the grounds on which it is claimed that a document that is the subject of a Ministerial certificate is a restricted document.
- (2) In any proceedings under this section, the Supreme Court is, on the application of the Minister administering this Act, or the agency or Minister concerned, to receive evidence and hear argument in the absence of:
 - (a) the public,
 - (b) the review applicant, and
 - (c) if in the opinion of the Supreme Court it is necessary to do so to prevent the disclosure of any exempt matter—the review applicant’s representative.

- (3) For the purposes of any proceedings under this section, the Minister administering this Act is a party to the proceedings.

58B Consideration of documents the subject of a Ministerial certificate

- (1) If, in proceedings under section 58A, the Supreme Court is not satisfied, by evidence on affidavit or otherwise, that there are reasonable grounds for the claim that the document is a restricted document, it may require the document to be produced in evidence before it.
- (2) If, after considering any document produced before it, the Supreme Court is still not satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the claim, the Supreme Court is to make an order to that effect and remit the matter to the Tribunal.
- (3) The Supreme Court is not to make such an order unless it has given the Minister administering this Act a reasonable opportunity to appear and be heard in relation to the matter.
- (4) A Ministerial certificate which is the subject of an order under this section:
 - (a) subject to paragraph (b)—ceases to have effect when the order takes effect, or
 - (b) in the case of a certificate that states that the document is a restricted document by virtue of clause 1 (Cabinet documents) or clause 2 (Executive Council documents) of Part 1 of Schedule 1—ceases to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days after the order is made, unless the certificate is confirmed in accordance with section 58C.
- (5) If the Minister administering this Act withdraws the Ministerial certificate before the end of the period of 28 days after the order is made, the Minister must, as soon as practicable, cause notice to be served on the review applicant, and on the agency or Minister concerned, that the certificate is no longer in force.

58C Confirmation of a Ministerial certificate for Cabinet and Executive Council documents

- (1) A Ministerial certificate that is the subject of an order under section 58B may be confirmed by the Minister administering this Act, but only if it is a certificate to which this section applies.
- (2) This section applies to a Ministerial certificate that states that the specified document is a restricted document by virtue of clause 1 (Cabinet documents) or clause 2 (Executive Council documents) of Part 1 of Schedule 1.
- (3) The Minister administering this Act must cause notice of the confirmation to be given to the agency or Minister concerned.

- (4) The notice must be given before the end of 28 days after an order is made by the Supreme Court in relation to the Ministerial certificate.
- (5) The notice must specify:
 - (a) the reasons for the Minister's decision to confirm the certificate, and
 - (b) the findings on any material questions of fact underlying those reasons, together with a reference to the sources of information on which those findings are based.
- (6) The Minister must cause a copy of the notice to be given to the review applicant and a further copy to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 5 sitting days after the giving of the notice.
- (7) Nothing in this section requires any matter to be included in a notice if it is of such a nature that its inclusion in the notice would cause the notice to be an exempt document.

Part 6 Miscellaneous

59 Ministerial certificates

- (1) A certificate that is signed by the Minister and that states that a specified document is a restricted document by virtue of a specified provision of Part 1 of Schedule 1 shall, except for the purposes of Division 3 of Part 5, be taken to be conclusive evidence that the document is a restricted document by virtue of that provision.
 - (1A) A certificate under this section must specify:
 - (a) the reasons for the Minister's decision that the document is a restricted document, and
 - (b) the findings on any material questions of fact underlying those reasons, together with a reference to the sources of information on which those findings are based.
 - (1B) A copy of a certificate under this section is to be given to an applicant seeking access to the document concerned. - (2) A certificate under this section ceases to have effect at the end of 2 years after it is signed by the Minister unless it is sooner withdrawn by the Minister.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents the Minister from issuing a further certificate in respect of the same document.
- (4) Nothing in this section requires any matter to be included in a certificate if it is of such a nature that its inclusion in the certificate would cause the certificate to be an exempt document.

59A Public interest

For the purpose of determining under this Act whether the disclosure of a document would be contrary to the public interest it is irrelevant that the disclosure may:

- (a) cause embarrassment to the Government or a loss of confidence in the Government, or
- (b) cause the applicant to misinterpret or misunderstand the information contained in the document because of an omission from the document or for any other reason.

59B Extension of 21 day period for dealing with applications

- (1) This section applies to a period of 21 days referred to in section 18 (3), 21 (6), 24 (2), 37 (2), 41 (3), 43 (2) or 50 (2).
- (2) If the person dealing with an application under this Act determines in writing that the special circumstances of the case make it necessary to extend any such period of 21 days:
 - (a) the period is taken to be extended by a further period of 14 days, and
 - (b) the person must, as soon as practicable, inform the applicant that the period has been so extended.
- (3) The only special circumstances that may be relied on to extend any such period of 21 days are as follows:

 - (b) the necessity to locate and retrieve the relevant document from archived documents,
 - (c) any other special circumstances prescribed by the regulations.

61 Burden of proof

In any proceedings concerning a determination made under this Act by an agency or Minister, the burden of establishing that the determination is justified lies on the agency or Minister.

62 Agency taken to have made determinations

For the purposes of any proceedings, a determination under this Act that has been made by an officer of an agency or a member of a Minister's staff shall be taken to have been made by the agency or Minister concerned.

63 Proceedings may be taken etc in the name of the principal officer of an agency

- (1) All proceedings by or on behalf of an agency (being proceedings arising under this Act) may be commenced and maintained in the name of the principal officer of the agency, as nominal plaintiff for the agency, and may be continued until their final determination regardless of any change in the office of the principal officer during the course of the proceedings.
- (2) All proceedings against an agency (being proceedings arising under this Act) may be commenced and maintained against the principal officer of the agency, as nominal defendant for the agency, and may be continued until their final determination regardless of any change in the office of the principal officer during the course of the proceedings.

64 Protection in respect of actions for defamation or breach of confidence

- (1) If access to a document is given pursuant to a determination under this Act, and if the person by whom the determination is made believes in good faith, when making the determination, that this Act permits or requires the determination to be made:
 - (a) no action for defamation or breach of confidence lies against the Crown, an agency, an officer of an agency, a Minister or a member of a Minister's staff by reason of the making of the determination or the giving of access, and
 - (b) no action for defamation or breach of confidence in respect of any publication involved in, or resulting from, the giving of access lies against the author of the document or any other person by reason of the author or other person having supplied the document to an agency or Minister.
