Annual Reports (Departments) Regulation 2005

New South Wales

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Annual Reports (Departments) Regulation 2005.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 1 September 2005.

Note—

This Regulation replaces the Annual Reports (Departments) Regulation 2000 which is repealed on 1 September 2005 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Regulation:

executive officer means a person who holds an executive position, and includes a person acting in such a position for 6 months or more.

executive position means:

- (a) a position in the Chief Executive Service under Chapter 3 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002, or
- (b) a position in the Senior Executive Service under Chapter 3 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 or in the NSW Police Force Senior Executive Service.

level means the level by which the remuneration of an executive officer is determined, being level 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 or 8.

remuneration package of an executive officer, in relation to a reporting year, means the total amount of the monetary remuneration for the executive officer, and the cost of employment benefits (within the meaning of section 73 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002) provided for the executive officer, under the officer's contract of employment for that year, but does not include any performance-related incentive payments.

reporting year means:

- (a) in relation to a Department, other than the Department of Education and Training—the financial year of the Department determined in accordance with section 4 of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983, or
- (b) in relation to the Department of Education and Training—the period from 1 January to the next following 31 December.

the Act means the Annual Reports (Departments) Act 1985.

- (2) Notes included in the text of this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

Part 2 Annual reports generally

4 Identification of audited financial reports

The start and finish of the audited financial report of a Department required under section 9 (1) (a) of the Act is to be clearly indicated in the annual report of the Department.

5 Additional matters for inclusion in annual reports

For the purposes of section 9 (1) (d) of the Act, there must be shown in the annual report of a Department:

- (a) a list of major assets, other than land holdings, appropriately classified and highlighting major acquisitions made in the reporting year, and
- (b) for the first reporting year, a copy of the code of conduct prepared by the Department for observance by its officers and employees, and
- (c) for the second and subsequent reporting years, a copy of any amendments made to the code referred to in paragraph (b), or of any new code that has replaced that code, during the reporting year, and
- (d) particulars of any matter (arising after the end of the reporting year and before the report is submitted to the appropriate Minister under section 12 (1) of the Act) which could have a significant effect in the succeeding reporting year on:
 - (i) the financial operations of the Department, or
 - (ii) the other operations of the Department, or
 - (iii) the clientele or section of the community served by the Department, and
- (e) the total external costs (such as fees for consultants and printing costs) incurred in the production of the report, and
- (f) whether the report is available in non-printed formats (such as on the Internet or on CD-ROM), and

- (g) if the report is available on the Internet, the Internet address at which the report may be accessed (disclosure of the Department's homepage address is sufficient compliance with this paragraph).

6 Inclusion of unaudited financial reports and information

If an unaudited financial report or unaudited financial information is included in the annual report of a Department, the fact that the financial report or financial information has not been audited is to be clearly indicated by note or otherwise.

7 Performance of executive officers

- (1) The matters comprised in an annual report of a Department under section 9 of the Act are to include a statement on the performance of each executive officer of the Department of or above level 5 holding office at the end of the reporting year.
- (2) The statement:
 - (a) is to be made by the person responsible by law for reviewing the officer's performance, and
 - (b) is to indicate the officer's performance having regard to the officer's agreed performance criteria and, if any performance-related incentive payments were paid or payable in respect of the officer, is to include the details set out in subclause (3), and
 - (c) is to be prepared in accordance with guidelines issued to Departments by the Treasurer from time to time.
- (3) The details of the performance-related incentive payments paid or payable to the officer to be included are as follows:
 - (a) if the performance-related incentive payments are accounted for on an accrual basis, the total amount of such payments for the reporting year that were paid or due and payable to the officer,
 - (b) if performance-related incentive payments are accounted for on a cash basis, the total amount of such payments that were paid during the reporting year to the officer, and the periods to which the payments relate,
 - (c) a summary of the criteria for determining the total performance-related incentive payments to the officer as referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).
- (4) This clause also applies to any statutory officer who is the chief executive officer of a Department but does not hold an executive position and, in any such case, applies as provided in guidelines issued to Departments by the Treasurer from time to time.

Part 3 Report of operations

8 Numbers of executive officers

- (1) The report under section 10 of the Act of the operations of a Department is to include the following particulars about the staff of the Department:
 - (a) the number of executive positions at each level at the end of the reporting year, compared with the number at the end of the previous reporting year,
 - (b) the number of female executive officers at the end of the reporting year, compared with the number at the end of the previous reporting year,
 - (c) the name of, position held by and level and remuneration package of each executive officer of or above level 5 holding office at the end of the reporting year.
- (2) This clause also applies to any statutory officer who is the chief executive officer of a Department but does not hold an executive position and, in any such case, applies as provided in guidelines issued to Departments by the Treasurer from time to time.

9 Information and particulars in report of operations

For the purposes of section 11 (1) and (2) of the Act, the particulars set out in Column 2 of Schedule 1 are prescribed in relation to the matters described in Column 1 of that Schedule.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

10 Form of annual reports—generally

- (1) The annual report of a Department must be effectively presented and arranged with attention given to the following:
 - (a) material information reported,
 - (b) logical sequence of information,
 - (c) appropriate layout of information,
 - (d) clear readable text,
 - (e) appropriately captioned charts, diagrams or photographs.
- (2) The annual report of a Department is to contain an index and a table of contents, arranged so as to assist in identifying the reporting requirements of the Act complied with in the report.

11 Form of annual reports—presentation to Parliament

- (1) The copies of an annual report of a Department that are laid before Parliament or distributed to members of Parliament are to be of the size ISO A4.

- (2) The appropriate Minister, in transmitting copies of an annual report to the Clerk of the Parliaments and the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly pursuant to section 13 (2) of the Act, must transmit a sufficient number of copies for distribution to the members of Parliament.

12 Public availability of annual reports

- (1) A Department Head must keep, at the office of the Department, sufficient copies of its annual report in order to meet normal public demand.
- (2) A Department Head must, if required by the Treasurer to do so, furnish copies of its annual report to the New South Wales Government Information Service, and to such other persons or organisations as may be specified by the Treasurer, for purchase by the public at a price per copy not greater than the direct cost of production per copy.

13 Exemptions

- (1) The Treasurer may, on application by a Department Head made at any time, grant an exemption from any or all of the provisions of this Regulation (this clause excepted), in relation to the annual report of the Department for a particular reporting year.
- (2) An exemption may be granted subject to such conditions as the Treasurer may determine.
- (3) An exemption ceases to apply if the Treasurer, by notice in writing, so informs the Department Head to whom the exemption was granted.
- (4) Details of an exemption, and the reasons for the exemption, must be included under a separate heading entitled "Exemptions from the Reporting Provisions" in the annual report for the reporting year in which the exemption applies.

14 Savings provision

Any act, matter or thing that, immediately before the repeal of the Annual Reports \(Departments\) Regulation 2000, had effect under that Regulation is taken to have effect under this Regulation.
