- (3) The health assessment is to be in the form considered necessary by the appropriate Department Head.
- (4) That form may include (but is not limited to) any one or more of the following:

- (b) the person's services are to be used for the purposes of a specified project for a continuous period not exceeding 3 years or for 2 or more periods not exceeding 3 years.

9 Selection procedures for officers

- (4) A selection committee may use a range of processes as the basis of determining the merit of the applicants, including interviews and objective work-related tests. The committee is not obliged to use any particular process.
- (5) Nothing in this clause requires a Department Head to adopt any recommendation made by a selection committee in relation to the filling of a vacancy.

- (1) For the purposes of this clause, a member of staff is not fit for work if the health of the member of staff:
 - (a) may render the member of staff a danger to other members of staff or to the public, or
 - (b) is likely to be seriously affected by the staff member's remaining on duty or, if the member of staff is absent from duty, by the staff member's resuming duty.
- (2) The appropriate Department Head may direct a member of staff to submit to such medical examination or other health assessment as the Department Head may, on the advice of HealthQuest, consider necessary, if the Department Head has reason to believe that the member of staff is not fit for work.
- (3) If the appropriate Department Head has issued any such direction to a member of staff, the member of staff:
 - (a) must, if on duty, cease duty immediately, and
 - (b) must not resume duty until the completion of the medical examination or other health assessment concerned unless the concurrence of HealthQuest is first obtained or a certificate is furnished by a medical practitioner that the member of staff is fit for work.
- (4) If the appropriate Department Head receives a health assessment from HealthQuest that a member of staff:
 - (a) is fit for work, the Department Head is to direct in writing that the member of staff, if absent from duty, must resume duty, or
 - (b) is not fit for work, the Department Head is to direct in writing that the member of staff must cease duty immediately or, if absent from duty, must not resume duty.
- (5) If a direction has been given to a member of staff under subclause (4), the nature of the leave, if any, to be granted to the member of staff during the absence from duty is to be determined by the appropriate Department Head after consideration of any relevant advice of HealthQuest.

18 (Repealed)

Part 4

19-30 (Repealed)

Part 5 Allowances

Division 1 Preliminary

31 Application of Part

- (1) The provisions of this Part are subject to any State industrial instrument.
- (2) Divisions 3-6 do not apply to chief executive officers or senior executive officers.

32 Determination of rates and conditions of payment of allowances

- (1) The rates and conditions of payment of allowances under this Part are, subject to this Part, to be as determined by the Public Employment Office from time to time.
- (2) The payment of an allowance under this Part to a member of staff is to be refused, or the amount of the allowance is to be reduced, if:
 - (a) any expenses of the member of staff for which the allowance is payable were not properly and reasonably incurred by the member of staff in the performance of official duties, or
 - (b) any purported expenses of the member of staff for which the allowance is payable were not in fact incurred by the member of staff.
- (3) If an allowance under this Part is payable at a daily rate, the amount to be paid for a portion of a day is to be the appropriate proportion of the daily rate and, for the purpose of calculating that amount, any fraction of an hour is to be corrected to the nearest half-hour.

33 Payment where allowance not adequate or available

- (1) If the appropriate Department Head is satisfied that, but for this clause, the actual expenses properly and reasonably incurred by a member of staff in the performance of official duties:
 - (a) are not adequately covered by an allowance to which the member of staff is entitled under this Part, or
 - (b) are not covered by any allowance payable under this Part or under any State industrial instrument,the member of staff is to be paid an allowance equivalent to the amount of those additional expenses or the amount of those expenses, as the case may be.
- (2) An allowance is not payable under this clause unless the member of staff produces official receipts for the expenses incurred by the member of staff.
- (3) An allowance under this clause may be reduced if it exceeds without good cause any limit approved in advance by the appropriate Department Head for the expenses concerned.

Division 2 Higher duties and acting allowances

34 Entitlement to higher duties allowance when relieving in other positions

- (1) This clause applies when the appropriate Department Head directs that the duties of a position which is vacant, or the holder of which is suspended, sick or absent, are to be performed by one or more other members of staff.
- (2) A member of staff who, during a period of relief in another position, satisfactorily performs, in the opinion of the appropriate Department Head, the whole of the duties and assumes the whole of the responsibilities of that position is to be paid by allowance any difference between the staff member's present salary or wage and the salary or wage to which the member of staff would have been entitled if appointed to that position.
- (3) A member of staff who, during a period of relief in another position, does not perform the whole of the duties or assume the whole of the responsibilities of that position is to be paid that proportion of the allowance referred to in subclause (1) that the duties satisfactorily performed and responsibilities assumed bear to the whole of the duties and responsibilities of that position. The amount of the allowance so paid is to be as determined by the appropriate Department Head.
- (4) In this clause, a reference to the duties and responsibilities of a position is a reference to those duties and responsibilities that, during the period of relief, the member of staff appointed to the position would ordinarily have performed or assumed.

35 Payment of allowance when relieving in other positions

- (1) Except where the Public Employment Office otherwise determines, an allowance is not to be paid under clause 34 in respect of a single period of relief in another position of less than 5 ordinary working days.
- (2) An allowance is not to be paid under clause 34 in respect of any unbroken period of leave, exceeding 5 ordinary working days, taken by the member of staff during any period of relief in another position.
- (3) Despite subclause (2), if a member of staff affords part-time relief in a position on a continuing basis, an allowance is to be paid under clause 34 calculated as though the member of staff were relieving on a full-time basis but the amount of the allowance is to be calculated in the same proportion as the ordinary weekly hours actually worked bear to the weekly hours required to be worked by a full-time member of staff appointed to the position.
- (4) A member of staff appointed to a position the principal purpose of which is to provide relief in certain other positions is not, unless otherwise determined by the appropriate Department Head, to be paid an allowance under clause 34 except in respect of so much of a single period of relief in the same position as exceeds 13 weeks.

36 Allowance for acting or temporary appointments

- (1) This clause applies when an officer is appointed to act in another position, or is temporarily appointed to another position, which is vacant or the holder of which is suspended, sick or absent.
- (2) Any such officer is to be paid by allowance any difference between the officer's present salary or wage and the salary or wage to which the officer would have been entitled if appointed to that position (other than on an acting or temporary basis).

37 Member of staff not to suffer reduction in remuneration

A member of staff relieving or acting in, or temporarily appointed to, another position is not, as a result, to suffer any reduction in salary or wage.

38 Provisions relating to executive positions

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, the salary or wage of an executive officer is, subject to this clause, the amount of the remuneration package for the executive position concerned.
- (2) If the remuneration package for an executive position consists of a range of amounts, the salary or wage is the amount within that range to which the officer is entitled (in the case of the officer's present salary or wage) or the amount within that range determined by the officer's employer (in the case of the salary or wage to which the officer would have been entitled if appointed to the executive position concerned).

- (3) If an officer who is not an executive officer relieves or acts in an executive position, the salary or wage to which the officer would have been entitled if appointed to the executive position is to be reduced by the superannuation guarantee amount payable in respect of the officer.
- (4) In this clause, executive officer, executive position, employer and remuneration package have the same meanings they have in Part 3.1 of the Act.

- (2) All recreation leave accruing in excess of 40 working days is forfeited, unless the appropriate Department Head is satisfied that the member of staff is prevented from taking recreation leave sufficient to reduce the accrued leave below 40 working days and directs that the leave not be forfeited.
- (3) A direction by the appropriate Department Head that leave not be forfeited is subject to any direction by the Department Head for the member of staff to take, at such time as is convenient to the working of the Department, the excess recreation leave accrued. As far as practicable, the wishes of the member of staff concerned are to be taken into consideration in directing the time for the taking of that excess leave.

82 Calculation of recreation leave

- (1) Recreation leave is not to be granted for a period less than a quarter-day or in other than multiples of a quarter-day.

83 Payment for untaken leave where member of staff ceases to be employed or dies

- (1) A member of staff is, on cessation of employment (except by death), entitled to be paid immediately, instead of recreation leave accrued and remaining untaken or unforfeited, the money value of that leave.
- (2) A member of staff to whom subclause (1) applies may elect to take either the whole or part of the recreation leave accrued and remaining untaken or unforfeited at cessation of active duty as recreation leave on full pay instead of taking the money value of that leave.
- (3) If a member of staff dies, the money value of any recreation leave accrued and remaining untaken or unforfeited is to be paid to the same persons as the money value of accrued extended leave is to be paid in the same circumstances under Schedule 3 to the Act.

- (4) For the purpose of calculating an entitlement under this clause, the money value of recreation leave accrued to a chief executive officer or senior executive officer is to be determined on the basis of the officer's notional salary.

Division 9 Sick leave

84 Granting of sick leave

- (1) If the appropriate Department Head is satisfied that a member of staff is unable to perform duty because of illness, the Department Head:
 - (a) must, subject to this Part, grant to the member of staff sick leave on full pay, and
 - (b) may, subject to this Part, grant to the member of staff sick leave without pay, if the absence of the member of staff exceeds the entitlement of the member of staff under this Part to sick leave on full pay.
- (2) A member of staff may elect to take available recreation or extended leave instead of sick leave without pay.

85 Requirements for medical certificate

- (1) A member of staff absent from duty for more than 3 consecutive working days because of illness must furnish a medical certificate in respect of the absence to the appropriate Department Head.

86 Action to be taken where medical certificate considered inadequate

- (1) If a member of staff applying for sick leave furnishes a medical certificate which appears to the appropriate Department Head to indicate that the condition of the member of staff does not warrant the grant of sick leave, the application together with the medical certificate is to be referred immediately by the Department Head to HealthQuest for consideration.
- (2) The nature of the leave to be granted to the member of staff is to be determined by the appropriate Department Head on the advice of HealthQuest.

- (3) If sick leave is not granted, the appropriate Department Head must, as far as practicable, take into account the wishes of the member of staff concerned when determining the nature of the leave to be granted.

87 Confidentiality

A member of staff may elect to have an application for sick leave dealt with confidentially by HealthQuest in accordance with such procedures as may be determined from time to time by the Public Employment Office.

88 Sick leave may be granted for periods of recreation or extended leave

- (1) If a member of staff who is on recreation leave or extended leave furnishes to the appropriate Department Head a satisfactory medical certificate in respect of illness occurring during that leave, the Department Head may, subject to the provisions of this Division, grant sick leave to the member of staff for the following period:
 - (a) in the case of a member of staff on recreation leave—the period set out in the medical certificate,
 - (b) in the case of a member of staff on extended leave—the period set out in the medical certificate, except if that period is less than 5 ordinary working days.
- (2) This clause applies to all members of staff other than those on leave before resignation or termination of services, unless the resignation or termination of services amounts to a retirement.

89 Calculation of sick leave

- (1) Sick leave on full pay accrues to a member of staff at the rate of 15 days each calendar year, and any such accrued leave which is not taken is cumulative.
- (2) Sick leave on full pay accrues at the beginning of the calendar year, but if a member of staff is appointed during a calendar year, sick leave on full pay accrues on the date the member of staff commences duty at the rate of 1¼ days for each complete month before the next 1 January.
- (3) In the case of a member of staff employed at 1 May 1988:
 - (a) sick leave on full pay for the calendar year commencing 1 January 1988 accrues at the rate of 10 days, and
 - (b) in addition to that 10 days, the member of staff is to be credited with sick leave on full pay in relation to service before 1 May 1988 for the following number of days less the number of days of sick leave on full pay previously granted to the member of staff:
 - (i) after completion of the first year of service and before completion of the second year of service—20 working days,

- (ii) after completion of the second year of service and before completion of the fifth year of service—40 working days,
 - (iii) after completion of the fifth year of service—60 working days plus an additional 10 working days for each completed year of service after that.
- (4) Except as otherwise provided by this Division or otherwise determined by the Public Employment Office, only service as a member of staff is to be taken into account for the purpose of calculating sick leave due.
 - (5) Sick leave without pay is not to be counted as service for the accrual of sick leave.
 - (6) For the purposes of determining the amount of sick leave accrued if sick leave is granted on less than full pay, the amount of sick leave granted is to be converted to its full pay equivalent.

90 Payment of sick leave during initial period of service

- (1) Not more than 5 days' sick leave on full pay is to be granted to any member of staff during the first 3 months of service unless a satisfactory medical certificate in respect of each absence is furnished.
- (2) On completion of the first 12 months' service, payment may be made to a member of staff for such portion of sick leave taken without pay during the first 3 months of that service as, with the addition of all sick leave on full pay granted during that period of 12 months, does not exceed a total of 15 working days.

91 Workers' compensation

- (1) This clause applies if a member of staff is or becomes unable to attend for duty or to continue on duty in circumstances which may give the member of staff a right to claim compensation under the Workers Compensation Act 1987.
- (2) If a member of staff has made a claim, the member of staff may, pending the determination of the claim and subject to this Division, be granted by the appropriate Department Head sick leave on full pay for which the member of staff is eligible, and if that claim is accepted the equivalent period of sick leave is to be restored to the credit of the member of staff.
- (3) A member of staff who continues in receipt of compensation after the completion of the period of 26 weeks referred to in section 36 of the Workers Compensation Act 1987 may, subject to this Division, be paid an amount representing the difference between the amount of compensation payable under that Act and the ordinary rate of pay of the member of staff, but sick leave equivalent to the amount of the difference so paid is to be debited against the member of staff.
- (4) If a member of staff referred to in subclause (1) notifies the appropriate Department

Head that the member of staff does not intend to make a claim, the Department Head may direct that sick leave on full pay is not to be granted to the member of staff.

- (5) If a member of staff, who is required to submit to a medical examination under the Workers Compensation Act 1987 in relation to a claim for compensation under that Act, refuses to submit to or in any way obstructs the examination, the member of staff is not to be granted sick leave on full pay until the examination has taken place and a medical certificate has been given indicating that the member of staff is not fit to resume duty.
- (6) If as a result of the medical examination:
- (a) a certificate is given under the Workers Compensation Act 1987 setting out the condition and fitness for employment of the member of staff or the kind of employment for which the member of staff is fit, and
 - (b) the appropriate Department Head makes available to the member of staff employment falling within the terms of that certificate, and
 - (c) the member of staff refuses or fails to resume or perform the employment so provided, all payments in accordance with this clause are to cease from the date of that refusal or failure.

- (7) Despite subclauses (2) and (3), if there is a commutation of weekly payments of compensation by the payment of a lump sum in accordance with section 51 of the Workers Compensation Act 1987, no further sick leave is then to be granted on full pay.

92 Sick leave where there is a claim for damages or other compensation

- (1) This clause applies to a claim for damages or to compensation, other than compensation under the Workers Compensation Act 1987.
- (2) If the circumstances of any injury to or illness of a member of staff may give rise to a claim, sick leave on full pay may, subject to and in accordance with this Division, be granted to the member of staff on completion by the member of staff of an undertaking, in a form approved by the appropriate Department Head:
- (a) that any claim to which this clause applies if made will include a claim for the value of any period of sick leave on full pay granted, and
 - (b) that, in the event that the member of staff receives or recovers damages or compensation from that claim for loss of salary or wages during any such period of sick leave, the member of staff will repay to the Crown any money paid by the Crown in respect of any such period of sick leave.

- (3) Sick leave on full pay is not to be granted to a member of staff who refuses or fails to complete an undertaking, except with the express approval of the appropriate Department Head given on the grounds that the refusal or failure is unavoidable in the circumstances.
- (4) On repayment made to the Crown in accordance with an undertaking given by a member of staff, sick leave equivalent to that repayment, calculated at the ordinary rate of pay of the member of staff, is to be restored to the credit of the member of staff.
