- (2) The power conferred on a returning officer by this clause may be exercised more than once in respect of a poll.

Division 3 Preparation of final list

9 Exhibition of preliminary list

The returning officer must cause copies of the preliminary list to be exhibited for public inspection:

- (a) at the places where applications for enrolment and objections against enrolment may be lodged, and
- (b) for a period of not less than 14 days ending at the close of the exhibition of the list.

10 Applications for enrolment by persons not already enrolled

- (b) a particular voting entitlement for any person in the final list for the poll.

11 Objections to enrolment

- (1) Before the close of enrolments, the returning officer or any person who is entitled to vote in a poll may object to the inclusion in the final list of:
 - (a) the name of any person, or
 - (b) the particular voting entitlement for any person.
- (2) An objection:
 - (a) must be in an approved form if the objection relates to the inclusion of:

- (10) The returning officer may require a person who lodges an objection, or who replies to an objection, to verify the objection or reply by statutory declaration.

12 Postponement of poll not to affect final list

The validity of the final list for a poll is not affected by the postponement of the close of the poll by a notice published after the close of the exhibition of the list, and the list remains the final list for the poll.

Division 4 The ballot

13 Printing of ballot-papers

- (1) As soon as practicable after the close of enrolments in a poll, the returning officer must cause sufficient ballot-papers to be printed to enable ballot-papers to be sent to each person whose name is included in the final list for the poll.
- (2) A ballot-paper for a poll must contain:
- (a) the question to be voted on in the poll with the words "YES" and "NO", together with appropriate spaces for the voter to indicate the voter's intention with respect to the question, and
 - (b) such directions as to the manner in which a vote is to be recorded and returned to the returning officer as the returning officer considers appropriate.

14 Distribution of ballot-papers

As soon as practicable after the printing of the ballot-papers for a poll, the returning officer must send to each person included in the final list for the poll:

- (a) for each vote to which the person is entitled, a ballot-paper that is initialled by the returning officer (or by a person authorised by the returning officer) or that bears a mark prescribed for the purposes of section 122A (3) of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 together with a blank unsealed envelope (the inner envelope), and
- (b) a large unsealed envelope addressed to the returning officer and bearing on the back the words "FULL NAME AND ADDRESS OF VOTER" and "SIGNATURE OF VOTER", together with appropriate spaces for the insertion of a name, address and signature (the outer envelope).

15 Duplicate ballot-papers

- (1) At any time before the close of the poll, the returning officer may issue to a voter duplicate ballot-papers and duplicate envelopes if the voter satisfies the returning officer by statutory declaration:
 - (a) that the original ballot-paper or ballot-papers has or have been spoilt, lost or destroyed, and
 - (b) that the voter has not already voted in the poll concerned.
- (2) The returning officer is to maintain a record of all duplicate ballot-papers issued under this clause.

16 Recording of votes

- (1) In order to vote in a poll, a person:
 - (a) for each vote to which the person is entitled:
 - (i) must record a vote on a ballot-paper in accordance with the directions shown on it, and
 - (ii) must place the completed ballot-paper in an inner envelope, and
 - (iii) must seal the inner envelope, and
 - (b) must place each inner envelope in the outer envelope, and
 - (c) must seal the outer envelope, and
 - (d) must complete the person's full name and address on, and must sign, the back of the outer envelope, and
 - (e) must return the outer envelope to the returning officer so as to be received before the close of the poll.
- (2) An inner envelope must not contain more than one ballot-paper.

Division 5 The scrutiny

17 Ascertaining result of poll

The result of a poll is to be ascertained by the returning officer as soon as practicable after the close of the poll.

18 Scrutiny of outer envelopes

- (1) The returning officer must reject (without opening it) any outer envelope purporting to contain a ballot-paper if the outer envelope is not received before the close of the poll or is received unsealed.
- (2) The returning officer must examine the name on the back of each remaining outer envelope and, without opening the outer envelope:
 - (a) must provisionally accept any ballot-paper in the outer envelope and draw a line through the name on the final list for the poll that corresponds to the name on the back of the outer envelope, if satisfied that a person of that name is included in the list, or
 - (b) must reject any ballot-paper in the outer envelope, if not so satisfied or if a name, address or signature does not appear on the back of the outer envelope.
- (3) The returning officer may reject a ballot-paper without opening the outer envelope if, after making such inquiries as the returning officer thinks fit:
 - (a) the returning officer is unable to identify the signature on the back of the outer envelope, or
 - (b) it appears to the returning officer that the signature on the back of the outer envelope is not the signature of the person whose name and address appear on the back of the outer envelope.

19 Scrutiny of inner envelopes

- (1) The scrutiny of inner envelopes in a poll is to be conducted as follows:
 - (a) the returning officer is to open the outer envelopes containing the ballot-papers that have not been rejected,
 - (b) the returning officer is then to extract any inner envelope contained in any such outer envelope,
 - (c) the returning officer is then to note on the final list for the poll, against the name of the person appearing on the back of the outer envelope, the number of inner envelopes contained in the outer envelope,
 - (d) the returning officer is then to place each such inner envelope in a locked ballot-box.
- (2) However, if there are more inner envelopes in the outer envelope than the number of votes to which the person is entitled, the returning officer must reject all of the inner envelopes contained in the outer envelope.

20 Scrutiny of votes

- (1) The scrutiny of votes in a poll is to be conducted as follows:
 - (a) the returning officer is to unlock the ballot-box, remove the inner envelopes and then remove the ballot-papers from the inner envelopes,
 - (b) the returning officer is then to reject all ballot-papers in an inner envelope if the inner envelope contains more than one ballot-paper,
 - (c) the returning officer is then to examine each remaining ballot-paper and reject those that are informal,
 - (d) the returning officer is then to proceed to count the votes and ascertain the result of the poll.
- (2) At the scrutiny of votes in a poll, a ballot-paper must be rejected as informal:
 - (a) if it is neither initialled by the returning officer (or by a person authorised by the returning officer to do so) nor bears a mark prescribed as an official mark for the purposes of section 122A (3) of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912, or
 - (b) if it has on it any mark or writing which the returning officer considers could enable any person to identify the voter who completed it, or
 - (c) if it has not been completed in accordance with the directions on it.
- (3) However, a ballot-paper is not to be rejected as informal merely because of any mark or writing on it which is not authorised or required by this Regulation (unless it is a mark or writing referred to in subclause (2) (b)) if the returning officer considers that the voter's intention is clearly indicated on the ballot-paper.
- (4) The result of the poll is to be ascertained by determining the following:
 - (a) the number of votes accepted in the poll,
 - (b) the number of votes in favour of the question on which the poll is being taken,
 - (c) the number of votes against that question,
 - (d) the number of votes rejected as informal.

21 Notification of result of poll

As soon as practicable after the result of a poll has been ascertained, the returning officer is to notify the Minister and the Executive Officer in writing of the result of the poll.

- (7) If the returning officer accepts an objection relating to the inclusion of a person's name in the final list for the election, the returning officer:
 - (a) must exclude the person's name from the final list, and
 - (b) must inform the person and the objector, in writing, that the person's name is so excluded.
- (8) If the returning officer accepts an objection relating to the inclusion of a particular voting entitlement for a person in the final list for the election, the returning officer:
 - (a) must amend the final list so as to ensure that it reflects the person's true voting entitlement, and
 - (b) must inform the person and the objector, in writing, that the person's voting entitlement is so amended.
- (9) If the returning officer rejects an objection, the returning officer must notify the person to whom the objection relates and the objector, in writing, that the returning officer has rejected the objection.
- (10) The returning officer may require a person who lodges an objection, or who replies to an objection, to verify the objection or reply by statutory declaration.

37 Postponement of ballot not to affect final list

The validity of the final list for an election is not affected by the postponement of the close of the ballot by a notice published after the close of the exhibition of the list, and the list remains the final list for the election.

Division 6 The ballot

38 Voting compulsory

It is compulsory for every banana grower who is enrolled in the final list for an election to vote in the election.

Maximum penalty: 0.1 penalty units.

39 Printing of ballot-papers

- (1) As soon as practicable after the close of enrolments in an election, the returning officer:
 - (a) must determine the order in which the candidates' names are to be listed on the ballot-paper by means of a ballot held in accordance with the procedure prescribed for the purposes of section 82A of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912, and
 - (b) must cause sufficient ballot-papers to be printed to enable ballot-papers to be sent to each person whose name is included in the final list for the election.
- (2) A ballot-paper for an election must contain:
 - (a) the names of the candidates, arranged in the order determined in accordance with subclause (1) (a), with a small square set opposite each name, and
 - (b) if the returning officer considers that the names of 2 or more candidates are so similar as to cause confusion, such other matter as the returning officer considers will distinguish between the candidates, and
 - (c) such directions as to the manner in which a vote is to be recorded and returned to the returning officer as are required by subclause (3), and
 - (d) such further directions as to the manner in which a vote is to be recorded and returned to the returning officer as the returning officer considers appropriate.
- (3) The directions to voters must include a direction that:
 - (a) the voter must record a vote for at least one candidate by placing the number "1" in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the voter desires to give his or her first preference vote, and
 - (b) the voter may, but is not required to, vote for additional candidates by placing consecutive numbers (beginning with the number "2") in the squares opposite the names of those additional candidates in the order of the voter's preferences for them.

40 Distribution of ballot-papers

As soon as practicable after the printing of the ballot-papers for an election, the returning officer must send to each person included in the final list for the election:

- (a) for each vote to which the person is entitled, a ballot-paper that is initialled by the returning officer (or by a person authorised by the returning officer) or that bears a mark prescribed for the purposes of section 122A (3) of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 together with a blank unsealed envelope (the inner envelope), and

- (b) a large unsealed envelope addressed to the returning officer and bearing on the back the words "FULL NAME AND ADDRESS OF VOTER" and "SIGNATURE OF VOTER", together with appropriate spaces for the insertion of a name, address and signature (the outer envelope).

41 Duplicate ballot-papers

- (1) At any time before the close of the ballot, the returning officer may issue to a voter duplicate ballot-papers and duplicate envelopes if the voter satisfies the returning officer by statutory declaration:
 - (a) that the original ballot-paper or ballot-papers has or have been spoilt, lost or destroyed, and
 - (b) that the voter has not already voted in the election concerned.
- (2) The returning officer is to maintain a record of all duplicate ballot-papers issued under this clause.

42 Recording of votes

- (1) In order to vote in an election, a person:
 - (a) for each vote to which the person is entitled:
 - (i) must record a vote on a ballot-paper in accordance with the directions shown on it, and
 - (ii) must place the completed ballot-paper in an inner envelope, and
 - (iii) must seal the inner envelope, and
 - (b) must place each inner envelope in the outer envelope, and
 - (c) must seal the outer envelope, and
 - (d) must complete the person's full name and address on, and must sign, the back of the outer envelope, and
 - (e) must return the outer envelope to the returning officer so as to be received before the close of the ballot.
- (2) An inner envelope must not contain more than one ballot-paper.

Division 7 The scrutiny

43 Ascertaining result of ballot

The result of a ballot is to be ascertained by the returning officer as soon as practicable after the close of the ballot.

44 Scrutineers

- (1) Each candidate is entitled to appoint, by notice in writing, a scrutineer to represent the candidate at all stages of the scrutiny.
- (2) A candidate who appoints a scrutineer must cause written notice of the appointment to be given to the returning officer.

45 Scrutiny of outer envelopes

- (1) The returning officer must reject (without opening it) any outer envelope purporting to contain a ballot-paper if the outer envelope is not received before the close of the ballot or is received unsealed.
- (2) The returning officer must examine the name on the back of each remaining outer envelope and, without opening the outer envelope:
 - (a) must provisionally accept any ballot-paper in the outer envelope and draw a line through the name on the final list for the election that corresponds to the name on the back of the outer envelope, if satisfied that a person of that name is included in that final list, or
 - (b) must reject any ballot-paper in the outer envelope, if not so satisfied or if a name, address or signature does not appear on the back of the outer envelope.
- (3) The returning officer may reject a ballot-paper without opening the outer envelope if, after making such inquiries as the returning officer thinks fit:
 - (a) the returning officer is unable to identify the signature on the back of the outer envelope, or
 - (b) it appears to the returning officer that the signature on the back of the outer envelope is not the signature of the person whose name and address appear on the back of the outer envelope.

46 Scrutiny of inner envelopes

- (1) The scrutiny of inner envelopes in a ballot is to be conducted as follows:
 - (a) the returning officer is to open the outer envelopes containing the ballot-papers that have not been rejected,

- (b) the returning officer is then to extract any inner envelope contained in any such outer envelope,
 - (c) the returning officer is then to note on the final list for the election, against the name of the person appearing on the back of the outer envelope, the number of inner envelopes contained in the outer envelope,
 - (d) the returning officer is then to place each such inner envelope in a locked ballot-box.
- (2) However, if there are more inner envelopes in the outer envelope than the number of votes to which the person is entitled, the returning officer must reject all of the inner envelopes contained in the outer envelope.

47 Scrutiny of votes

- (1) The scrutiny of votes in a ballot is to be conducted as follows:
- (a) the returning officer is to unlock the ballot-box, remove the inner envelopes and then remove the ballot-papers from the inner envelopes,
 - (b) the returning officer is then to reject all ballot-papers in an inner envelope if the inner envelope contains more than one ballot-paper,
 - (c) the returning officer is then to examine each remaining ballot-paper and reject those that are informal,
 - (d) the returning officer is then to proceed to count the votes and ascertain the result of the election.
- (2) At the scrutiny of votes in a ballot, a ballot-paper must be rejected as informal:
- (a) if it is neither initialled by the returning officer (or by a person authorised by the returning officer to do so) nor bears a mark prescribed as an official mark for the purposes of section 122A (3) of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912, or
 - (b) if it has on it any mark or writing that the returning officer considers could enable any person to identify the voter who completed it, or
 - (c) if it has not been completed in accordance with the directions on it.
- (3) However, a ballot-paper is not to be rejected as informal:
- (a) merely because of any mark or writing on it that is not authorised or required by this Regulation (unless it is a mark or writing referred to in subclause (2) (b)) if the returning officer considers that the voter's intention is clearly indicated on the ballot-paper, or

- (b) if the voter has recorded a vote by placing in a square the number “1”:
 - (i) merely because the same preference (other than a first preference) has been recorded on the ballot-paper for more than one candidate, or
 - (ii) merely because there is a break in the order of preferences recorded on the ballot-paper.

48 Counting of votes

- (1) The method of counting the votes to ascertain the result of an election is as provided in Part 2 of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution Act 1902.
- (2) For the purpose of applying the provisions of that Part to an election, a reference in those provisions to the returning officer is to be read as a reference to the returning officer under this Regulation.

49 Notification of result of election

As soon as practicable after a candidate in an election has been elected, the returning officer is to notify the Minister and the Executive Officer in writing of the name of the candidate elected.

50 Election proceedings have no effect in certain circumstances

- (1) If, after the close of nominations and before the close of the ballot, a candidate becomes disqualified:
 - (a) the returning officer is to cause notice of the disqualification to be published in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the region concerned or in an official publication of the Committee, and
 - (b) all proceedings taken after the Minister notified the returning officer that the election was required to be held are of no effect and those proceedings must be taken again.
- (2) For the purposes of this clause, a candidate becomes disqualified if the candidate:
 - (a) dies, or
 - (b) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or
 - (c) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
 - (d) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable.

For the purposes of section 6 (d) of the Act, the written evidence as to the authority of an employee or agent of the Committee is to be in the form of a certificate:
