Form 6 Child-related conduct declaration

(Clause 13)

(Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 (Section 81L))

Notice to candidates

As part of the nomination process, all candidates for the Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Council are required by the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 to make a child-related conduct declaration.

You are required to:

- read the Notice to candidates and the Attachment,
- sign the Notice to candidates acknowledging that you have read the Notice and the Attachment,
- complete and sign Part A,
- if required to because of an answer given in Part A—complete and sign Part B,
- return the declaration to the New South Wales Electoral Commission with your nomination form and deposit.

If you do not complete, sign and return these forms, your nomination will not be valid.

Not legal advice

The Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 specifies what must be declared in this declaration. The information contained in this form about what must be declared is intended as general guidance for candidates only. You should seek independent legal advice if you have any specific legal queries about whether any conviction, proceeding or order must be declared in your declaration.

Guidance on which offences must be included in declaration

Your declaration must set out and describe any of the following convictions, proceedings or court orders:

- any conviction against you for a child sexual offence, which includes (but is not limited to) offences against children involving sexual activity or acts of indecency punishable by 12 months or more imprisonment, child pornography offences if punishable by 12 months or more imprisonment and similar offences committed outside New South Wales (see the definition set out in the Attachment),
- any conviction against you for child murder,
- any criminal proceedings ever commenced against you for child murder or child sexual offences. This includes criminal charges laid against you that were subsequently withdrawn for any reason or which did not lead to a conviction. This also includes proceedings where you were found not guilty or where your conviction was subsequently quashed on appeal,
- any relevant apprehended violence order which has ever been made by a court against you, being an order made on the application of a police officer or other public official, for the protection of a child from sexual activity or acts of indecency.

A child is a person under 18 years of age.

You must include any convictions, proceedings or court orders against you in your current name or any former name.

Offence for false statement and disqualification

It is a serious offence for you to make a false statement on this form, punishable by up to five (5) years imprisonment. If you are elected as a member of either House of Parliament, and are convicted of such an offence, your seat will become vacant because of that conviction.

Declaration will be public

Your declaration will be made public by the New South Wales Electoral Commissioner, and if you are elected, it will be audited by the Commission for Children and Young People and a report will be prepared on the results of that audit and provided to the Presiding Officer of the House of Parliament to which you have been elected. That report will then be made public.

Criminal records check

A criminal records check will be carried out on the National CrimTrac Database for all candidates who are successful at the election. This check will identify offences or proceedings required to be disclosed as part of this form. This criminal records check is carried out at the request of the Commission for Children and Young People in

(g) an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence referred to in the preceding paragraphs.

An offence that was a child sexual offence at the time of its commission is not a child sexual offence for the purposes of that Division if the conduct constituting the offence has ceased to be an offence in New South Wales.

An offence involving sexual activity or an act of indecency is not a child sexual offence for the purposes of that Division if the conduct constituting the offence:

(a) occurred in a public place, and

(b) would not have constituted an offence in New South Wales if the place were not a public place.

For the purposes of that Division, section 579 of the Crimes Act 1900 (which relates to older convictions dealt with by way of recognizance) does not apply to or in respect of a child sexual offence.
