(1) A natural person is eligible to hold a licence only if the Director-General is satisfied that the person:

(b) is a fit and proper person to hold a licence and each person with whom the person is in partnership in connection with the business concerned is a fit and proper person to hold a licence, and

(c) has the qualifications required for the issue of the licence, and

(d) is not a disqualified person, and

(e) has paid such part of any contribution or levy payable under Part 10 (Compensation Fund) as is due and payable on the granting of the licence.

(d) is not a disqualified person.

Note—

(4) The requirement that at least one of the directors of a corporation holds a licence that a natural person is required to hold to carry on the business that the corporation carries on or proposes to carry on does not require a director to be accredited as an auctioneer under section 21 merely because the corporation carries on or proposes to carry on the business of an auctioneer.

15 Qualifications for licence or certificate of registration

(1) The qualifications required for the issue of a licence or certificate of registration are such qualifications as the Minister may approve from time to time by order published in the Gazette.

- (4) A person does not have the qualifications required for the reissue or restoration of a licence or certificate of registration (as provided by section 26) if the person failed to comply with any condition of the licence or certificate of registration that required the holder to undertake professional development, continuing education or a course of study, unless the Director-General otherwise determines in a particular case.

16 Disqualified persons

- (1) A person is a disqualified person for the purposes of this Act if the person:

(p) is in breach of any provision of this Act or the regulations that is prescribed by the regulations as a disqualifying breach.

(1A) A person is also a disqualified person for the purposes of this Act (except for the purposes of eligibility to hold a certificate of registration) if the person:

(a) is an undischarged bankrupt, or

(b) at any time in the last 3 years was an undischarged bankrupt, applied to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounded with his or her creditors or made an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or

(ii) who failed (while concerned in the management of, or a director of, that body corporate) to take all reasonable steps to avoid the body corporate becoming an externally-administered body corporate.

(2) The Director-General may determine that an offence committed by a person should be ignored for the purposes of this section because of the time that has passed since the offence was committed or because of the triviality of the acts or omissions giving rise to the offence.

(2A) The Director-General may, in any case that the Director-General thinks it appropriate to do so, determine that a suspension or disqualification from holding a licence, permit or other authority under legislation administered by the Minister (as referred to in subsection (1) (h)) is to be ignored for the purposes of this section.

(2B) The Director-General may exempt a person from the operation of subsection (1A) (a), (b) or (c) by:

- (a) certifying, in the case of exemption from subsection (1A) (a), that the Director-General is satisfied that the person took all reasonable steps to avoid the bankruptcy concerned, or
- (b) certifying, in the case of exemption from subsection (1A) (b), that the Director-General is satisfied that the person took all reasonable steps to avoid the bankruptcy or other financial difficulties concerned, or
- (c) certifying, in the case of exemption from subsection (1A) (c), that the Director-General is satisfied that the person took all reasonable steps (while concerned in the management of, or a director of, the body corporate) to avoid the body corporate becoming an externally-administered body corporate.

(2C) Subsection (1A) (d) does not operate to make a person a disqualified person unless the Director-General has served a notice on the person giving the person the opportunity to make oral or written submissions to the Director-General within a period (not being less than 14 days) specified in the notice with respect to the grounds on which the person believes he or she took all reasonable steps to avoid the body corporate becoming an externally-administered body corporate and the Director-General is satisfied that the person failed to take all such steps.

(2D) In determining for the purposes of subsection (2B) or (2C) what reasonable steps could have been taken by a person to avoid a particular outcome, the Director-General is to have regard to the steps that could have been taken by the person from the time that the financial difficulties that gave rise to the outcome first arose.

An example of a condition under paragraph (d) is a condition that the holder of a real estate agent's licence act only as a buyer's agent.

21 Special condition requiring auctioneers to be accredited

The powers of an authorised officer under this Act may be exercised at the interstate office.

66 Prevention of dummy bidding

(1) At a sale by auction of residential property or rural land:

- (a) the seller must not make a bid, and
- (b) a person must not make a bid on behalf of the seller unless the person is the auctioneer and makes only one bid on behalf of the seller, and
- (c) a person must not procure another person to make a bid on behalf of the seller in contravention of this section.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) 500 penalty units in the case of a corporation, or
- (b) 250 penalty units in any other case.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a bid can be found to have been made on behalf of a seller even though it is not made at the request of, or with the knowledge of, the seller.

(3) Without limiting what constitutes the making of a bid on behalf of the seller, a bid made with the dominant purpose of benefiting the seller in making the bid constitutes the making of a bid on behalf of the seller.

(4) An auctioneer must not sell by auction any residential property or rural land unless notice is given prior to the auction, in such manner and in such terms as may be prescribed by the regulations, of the material parts of this section.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

(5) This section does not apply to the making of a bid by or on behalf of a seller in either of the following cases so long as the requirements of subsection (6) for bids by or on behalf of a seller as co-owner or as executor or administrator are complied with:

- (a) the seller is a co-owner of the land (whether as a joint tenant or tenant in common) and the bid was made to enable the seller to purchase the interest of another co-owner in the land,
- (b) the seller is the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased owner of the land.

- (6) The requirements for bids by or on behalf of a seller as co-owner or as executor or administrator are as follows:
  - (a) the conditions under which the auction is conducted must permit the making of bids by or on behalf of a seller to purchase the interest of another co-owner in the land or to purchase as executor or administrator,
  - (b) the auctioneer must have announced at the auction, before the start of bidding, that bids to purchase the interest of a co-owner in the land or to purchase as executor or administrator may be made by or on behalf of the seller.

  - (b) the auctioneer announced at the auction, before the start of bidding, that the auctioneer is permitted to make one bid on behalf of the seller, and
  - (c) immediately before, or in the process of, making the bid, the auctioneer announces that the bid is made on behalf of the seller or announces "vendor bid".

Maximum penalty: 250 penalty units.

- (3) Merely announcing the name of the person on whose behalf a bid is made (without stating that the person is the seller) is not sufficient to constitute announcing that the bid is made on behalf of the seller.

67 Bids may only be taken from registered bidders

- (1) The auctioneer at a sale by auction of residential property or rural land must not take a bid from a person unless:
  - (a) the relevant details of the person have been entered before the bid is taken in a

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

- (2) An auctioneer who refuses to take a bid from a person because of this section does not incur a liability to any person as a result of that refusal.
- (3) The taking of a bid in contravention of this section does not affect the validity of the bid (or its taking or acceptance) and the bid (and its taking or acceptance) are as valid for all purposes as if this section had not been enacted.

68 Bidders Record

- (1) Before residential property or rural land is offered for sale by auction, a record (the Bidders Record) must be made of the persons who will be entitled to bid at the auction and there must be entered in the Bidders Record in respect of each of those persons:

- (3) A real estate agent or stock and station agent engaged to act in respect of the sale of residential property or rural land by auction must make the Bidders Record required by this section for the auction unless some other agent engaged to act in respect of the sale or acting for or on behalf of the auctioneer has made the Bidders Record for the auction.
- (4) An agent is to keep a Bidders Record made by the agent for at least 3 years and is to keep all the Bidders Records made by the agent together, in the form of a Register of Bidders Records.

(5) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to:

- (a) conferring an entitlement on a seller of residential property to inspect the Bidders Record for the sale of the property, and

  - (b) in the case of the details of a person on whose behalf another person is to bid, a letter of authority to bid on the person's behalf specifying the person's name and address and the number or other identifier of one or more proofs of identity for that person.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

Note—

Both name and address must be established by proof of identity but need not be established by the same proof of identity. For example, an Australian passport could be used to establish a person's name and another proof of identity allowed by subsection (2) used to establish the person's address.

- (2) The only proof of identity that may be used for a person for the purposes of an entry in a Bidders Record is:
  - (a) a motor vehicle driver's licence issued in Australia that displays a photograph of the person, or
  - (b) an Australian passport, or
  - (c) such other proof of identity as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

75 Division extends to estimates of price range

This Division extends to estimated price range in the same way as it applies to estimated price and for that purpose a reference in this Division to price is taken to include a reference to price range.

76 Extended meaning of “estimate”

In this Division, estimate includes opinion and belief.

76A Marketing statements about vendor bids when property passed in

171 Meaning of "failure to account"

- (1) In this Division, a reference to a failure to account is a reference to a failure by a licensee to account for money or other valuable property entrusted to the licensee or an associate of the licensee in the course of the carrying on of the licensee's business as a licensee.

  - (b) all questions of costs are in the discretion of the court or, where the proceedings are tried with a jury, the judge presiding at the trial.
