Duties Act 1997 No 123

New South Wales

An Act to create and charge a number of duties.

Chapter 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Duties Act 1997.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 July 1998.

3 What does this Act do?

This Act creates and charges a number of duties.

Note—

Each duty is dealt with in a separate Chapter of this Act. The Contents pages list the Chapters and their subject-matter.

4 What is a duty?

A duty charged by this Act is, when a liability to pay the duty is created, a debt due to the State of New South Wales.

5 Arrangements for payment of duties

This Act does not contain all the provisions concerning duties. This Act is to be read together with the Taxation Administration Act 1996. The Taxation Administration Act 1996 contains provisions that deal with, for example:

- how assessments of duty are made
- how assessments can be challenged
- what happens if duty is not paid on time
- how unpaid duty may be recovered
- what records must be kept by taxpayers

- how decisions made under this Act can be challenged
- the investigative powers of tax administrators.

6 Meaning of words and expressions used in this Act

Words and expressions used in this Act (or in any particular provision of this Act) that are defined in the Dictionary at the end of this Act have the meanings set out in the Dictionary.

7 Notes in the text

Notes included in this Act are explanatory notes and do not form part of this Act.

Chapter 2 Transactions concerning dutiable property

Part 1 Introduction and overview

8 Imposition of duty on certain transactions concerning dutiable property

(1) This Chapter charges duty on:

- (a) a transfer of dutiable property, and
- (b) the following transactions:
 - (i) an agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property,
 - (ii) a declaration of trust over dutiable property,
 - (iii) a surrender of an interest in land in New South Wales,
 - (iv) a foreclosure of a mortgage over dutiable property,
 - (v) a vesting of dutiable property by or as a consequence of an order of a court of this or another jurisdiction, whether inside or outside Australia,
 - (vi) the enlargement of a term in land into a fee simple under section 134 of the Conveyancing Act 1919,
 - (vii) a vesting of land in New South Wales by, or expressly authorised by, statute law of this or another jurisdiction, whether inside or outside Australia,
 - (viii) a lease in respect of which a premium is paid or agreed to be paid.

Note—

See also Part 2 of Chapter 3, which treats a transfer or assignment of an option to purchase dutiable property as a transfer of the dutiable property in certain circumstances.

(2) Such a transfer or transaction is a dutiable transaction for the purposes of this Act.

(3) In this Chapter:

declaration of trust means any declaration (other than by a will or testamentary instrument) that any identified property vested or to be vested in the person making the declaration is or is to be held in trust for the person or persons, or the purpose or purposes, mentioned in the declaration although the beneficial owner of the property, or the person entitled to appoint the property, may not have joined in or assented to the declaration.

lease means a lease of land in New South Wales or an agreement for a lease of land in New South Wales.

premium, in respect of a lease entered into pursuant to an option, includes an amount paid or payable for the grant of the option.

transfer includes an assignment, an exchange and a buy-back of shares in accordance with Division 2 of Part 2J.1 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

8A Vesting of land in New South Wales by statute law

- (1) Without limiting section 8 (1) (b) (vii), land in New South Wales is vested under statute law if the law vests the land in an entity that the law states is the successor in law of, continuation of or same entity as, the entity in which the land was previously vested.
- (2) However, land in New South Wales is not vested under statute law on the registration of a company under Part 5B.1 of Chapter 5B of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.
- (3) The merger of a corporation (company A) with and into another corporation (company B) in circumstances where neither subsection (4) nor subsection (5) applies is taken to be a vesting of the land in New South Wales of company A in company B by statute law.
- (4) A merger of corporations (the merging corporations) in circumstances where another corporation (company C) results as a consequence of the merger is taken to be a vesting of the land in New South Wales of the merging corporations in company C by statute law.
- (5) A merger of corporations (the merging corporations) with and into each other in circumstances where each of the merging corporations continues in existence is taken to be a vesting in the merging corporations, jointly, of 50% (in value) of the land in New South Wales of the merging corporations by statute law.

9 Imposition of duty on dutiable transactions that are not transfers

- (1) The duty charged by this Chapter on a dutiable transaction referred to in section 8 (1) (b) is to be charged as if each such dutiable transaction were a transfer of dutiable property.

- (2) Accordingly, for the purpose of charging duty under this Chapter, in relation to a dutiable transaction specified in Column 1 of the following Table:
- (a) the property specified opposite the dutiable transaction in Column 2 is taken to be the property transferred (and a reference in this Act to property transferred includes a reference to such property), and
 - (b) the person specified opposite the dutiable transaction in Column 3 is taken to be the transferee of the dutiable property (and a reference in this Act to a transferee includes a reference to such a person), and
 - (c) the transfer of the dutiable property is taken to have occurred at the time specified opposite the dutiable transaction in Column 4 (and a reference in this Act to the time at which a transfer occurs includes a reference to such a time).

Note—

Part 4 of this Chapter provides for the abolition, in stages, of duty on some of the types of dutiable property listed above.

The duty imposed on dutiable transactions involving shares and units referred to in section 11 (1) (d) and (e) is abolished on 1 January 2009. Marketable securities cease to be dutiable property on that date.

The duty imposed on dutiable transactions involving business assets referred to in section 11 (1) (g), statutory licences or permissions referred to in section 11 (1) (h) and poker machine entitlements referred to in section 11 (1) (h1) is abolished on 1 January 2011. Those things cease to be dutiable property on that date.

12 When does a liability for duty arise?

- (1) A liability for duty charged by this Chapter arises when a transfer of dutiable property occurs.
- (2) However, if a transfer of dutiable property is effected by a written instrument, liability for duty charged by this Chapter arises when the instrument is first executed.

13 Who is liable to pay the duty?

Duty charged by this Chapter is payable by the transferee, unless this Chapter requires another person to pay the duty.

14 The liability of joint tenants

For the purpose of assessing duty charged by this Chapter, joint tenants of dutiable property are taken to hold the dutiable property as tenants in common in equal shares.

15 Necessity for written instrument or written statement

- (1) If a dutiable transaction that is liable to ad valorem duty under this Chapter is not effected by a written instrument, the transferee must make a written statement in an approved form.
- (2) The written statement must be made within 3 months after the liability arises.
- (3) (Repealed)
- (4) If a dutiable transaction is completed or evidenced by a written instrument within 3 months after the date on which the dutiable transaction occurs, the requirement to lodge a statement and pay duty in respect of the statement may be satisfied by the lodgment of and payment of duty on the written instrument within 3 months after the date on which the dutiable transaction occurs.

16 Lodging written instrument or written statement with Chief Commissioner

- (1) A transferee who is liable to pay duty in respect of a dutiable transaction must, within 3 months after the liability arises, lodge with the Chief Commissioner:
 - (a) the written instrument that effects the dutiable transaction or, if there is more than one such written instrument, each one of them as provided by section 18 (1), or
 - (b) the written statement made in compliance with section 15.
- (2) (Repealed)

17 When must duty be paid?

- (1) A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.
- (2) (Repealed)

18 No double duty

- (1) If a dutiable transaction is effected by more than one instrument, one instrument is to be stamped with the duty payable on the dutiable transaction and each other instrument is chargeable with duty of $10.

Note—

Instrument includes a written statement.

- (2) The duty chargeable in respect of a transfer of dutiable property made in conformity with an agreement for the sale or transfer of the dutiable property is $2 if the duty chargeable in respect of the agreement has been paid.
- (3) The duty chargeable in respect of a transfer of dutiable property that is not made in conformity with an agreement for the sale or transfer of the dutiable property is $2 if:
 - (a) the duty chargeable in respect of the agreement has been paid, and
 - (b) the transfer would be in conformity with the agreement if the transferee was the purchaser under the agreement, and
 - (c) the transfer occurs at the same time as, or proximately with, the completion or settlement of the agreement, and
 - (d) at the time the agreement was entered into, and at the completion or settlement of the agreement:
 - (i) the purchaser under the agreement and the transferee under the transfer are related persons, except as provided by subparagraph (ii), or
 - (ii) if the purchaser purchased as a trustee, the transferee and the beneficiary are related persons.
- (4) The duty chargeable on a transfer to a trustee of dutiable property subject to a declaration of trust is $2 if ad valorem duty has been paid on the declaration of trust in respect of the same dutiable property.
- (5) The duty chargeable on a transfer of dutiable property as a consequence of a foreclosure order is $2 if ad valorem duty has been paid on the foreclosure.
- (6) The duty chargeable on a declaration of trust that declares the same trusts as those upon and subject to which the same dutiable property was transferred to the person declaring the trust is $2 if ad valorem duty has been paid on the transfer.
- (6A) The duty chargeable on a declaration of trust is $10 if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (a) the declaration of trust supersedes another declaration of trust in respect of which duty has been paid and declares the same trusts as were declared under the superseded declaration of trust, and
 - (b) the beneficiary under the declaration of trust is the same as under the superseded declaration of trust, and
 - (c) the dutiable property subject to the declaration of trust:
 - (i) is wholly or substantially the same as the property that was the subject of the superseded declaration of trust at the time of the declaration of the superseded declaration of trust, or

(ii) represents the proceeds of re-investment of property that was the subject of the superseded declaration of trust at the time of the declaration of the superseded declaration of trust, or

(iii) is property to which both subparagraphs (i) and (ii) apply.

(7) A dutiable transaction in respect of marketable securities that confer a land use entitlement is taken to be a dutiable transaction in respect of the land use entitlement only. If duty has been paid on the dutiable transaction in accordance with a law of another Australian jurisdiction, the duty charged by this Chapter on the dutiable transaction is to be reduced by the amount of the duty so paid.

19 What is the rate of duty?

Duty is charged on the dutiable value of the dutiable property subject to the dutiable transaction at the relevant rate set out in Part 3.

20 Concessions and exemptions from duty

Concessions and exemptions from duty charged by this Chapter are dealt with in Parts 6, 7 and 8.

Part 2 Dutiable value

21 What is the “dutiable value” of dutiable property?

- (1) The dutiable value of dutiable property that is subject to a dutiable transaction is the greater of:
 - (a) the consideration (if any) for the dutiable transaction (being the amount of a monetary consideration or the value of a non-monetary consideration), and
 - (b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property.
- (2) The dutiable value of dutiable property transferred by way of foreclosure is the unencumbered value of the dutiable property and not the value of the debt secured by the mortgaged property.
- (3) The dutiable value of a business asset to which section 28 applies is to be determined in accordance with that section.
- (4) The dutiable value of a partnership interest referred to in section 29 is to be determined in accordance with that section.
- (5) The dutiable value of leased property transferred by way of a lease is taken to be the amount of the premium paid or payable in respect of the lease.

22 What is the consideration for the transfer of dutiable property?

- (1) The consideration for the transfer of dutiable property is taken to include the amount or value of all encumbrances, whether certain or contingent, subject to which the dutiable property is transferred.
- (2) The consideration for the transfer of the interest of a transferee under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property is taken to include the balance of the amount or value of the consideration that would be required from the transferee under the agreement in order to complete it in accordance with its terms.
- (3) The consideration for the transfer of the goodwill of a business is taken to include the amount or value of the consideration for any restraint of trade arrangement entered into in connection with the transfer of the goodwill.

23 What is the “unencumbered value” of dutiable property?

- (1) The unencumbered value of dutiable property is the value of the property determined without regard to any encumbrance to which the property is subject.
- (2) The unencumbered value of the goodwill of a business is taken to include the value of any restraint of trade arrangement entered into by the vendor in order to protect the value of the goodwill.
- (3) If, before land is transferred to a transferee, the transferee has made improvements to the land, the unencumbered value of the land is to be determined as if those improvements had not been made.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to improvements made to the land for or on behalf of the transferee by the transferor.

24 Interests, agreements and arrangements that reduce the dutiable value

- (1) In determining the dutiable value of dutiable property under this Part, any interest, agreement or arrangement (other than an encumbrance) granted or made in respect of the dutiable property that has the effect of reducing the dutiable value is to be disregarded, subject to subsection (2).
- (2) An interest, agreement or arrangement is not to be disregarded if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that it was not granted or made as a part of an arrangement or scheme with a collateral purpose of reducing the duty otherwise payable on the dutiable transaction.
- (3) In considering whether or not he or she is satisfied for the purposes of subsection (2), the Chief Commissioner may have regard to:
 - (a) the duration of the interest, agreement or arrangement before the dutiable transaction, and

- (b) whether the interest, agreement or arrangement has been granted to or made with an associated person, and
- (c) whether there is any commercial efficacy to the granting of the interest or the making of the agreement or arrangement other than to reduce duty, and
- (d) any other matters the Chief Commissioner considers relevant.

25 Aggregation of dutiable transactions

- (1) Dutiable transactions relating to separate items of dutiable property, or separate parts of, or interests in, dutiable property are to be aggregated and treated as a single dutiable transaction if:
 - (a) they occur within 12 months, and
 - (ab) the transferor is the same or the transferors are associated persons, and
 - (b) the transferee is the same or the transferees are associated persons, and
 - (c) the dutiable transactions together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially, one arrangement relating to all of the items or parts of, or interests in, the dutiable property.

Note—

Associated person is defined in the Dictionary.

- (2) Dutiable transactions are not to be aggregated under this section if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (a) the dutiable property to which the transactions relate are comprised of separate allotments of vacant land, and
 - (b) the transferee is a person authorised to contract to do residential building work under the Home Building Act 1989, and
 - (c) the transferee intends to construct residential premises on the allotments for the purposes of sale to the public.
- (3) The dutiable value of aggregated dutiable property is the sum of the dutiable values of the items or parts of, or the interests in, the dutiable property as at the time at which each dutiable transaction occurs.
- (4) The amount of duty payable in accordance with this section is to be reduced by the amount of any ad valorem duty paid on a prior dutiable transaction that is, or prior dutiable transactions that are, aggregated in accordance with this section.

- (5) Duty may be apportioned to the instruments effecting or evidencing the dutiable transactions, or may be charged in accordance with section 18 (1), as determined by the Chief Commissioner.
- (6) A transferee to whom this section applies must disclose to the Chief Commissioner, in writing, at or before the time at which an instrument or statement relating to the dutiable transactions is lodged for stamping, details known to the transferee of:
 - (a) all of the items or parts of, or interests in, the dutiable property included or to be included in the arrangement referred to in subsection (1), and
 - (b) the consideration for each item or part of, or interest in, that dutiable property.

Maximum penalty (subsection (6)): 100 penalty units.

- (7) The reference in this section to dutiable property does not include a reference to marketable securities.
- (8) In this section:

vacant land includes land that the Chief Commissioner considers is substantially vacant apart from there being on that land the remnant of any building, or any other object or structure, that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied has been preserved because of its heritage significance.

26 Certain transactions concerning goods and other property

- (1) The Chief Commissioner, if satisfied that it would not be just and reasonable in the circumstances to charge duty on the dutiable value of all the dutiable property in a dutiable transaction involving goods and other property, may disregard the value of the goods, or any of them, in determining the dutiable value of the property involved.
- (2) This section does not enable the Chief Commissioner to disregard the value of goods used in connection with a business in respect of which the goodwill of the business is, or is part of, the dutiable property.
- (3) This section applies only to dutiable transactions that occur before 1 January 2011.

Note—

On 1 January 2011, duty on the transfer of business assets is abolished (see Part 4 of this Chapter). Section 26A applies in respect of transfers occurring after that date that remain dutiable transactions.

26A Transactions involving goods and other property that occur on or after 1 January 2011

- (1) If a dutiable transaction involves goods and other dutiable property, the Chief Commissioner may disregard the value of the goods in the transaction if satisfied that the dutiable value of the other property does not exceed 10% of the dutiable value of all the dutiable property in the transaction.

- (2) This section applies only to dutiable transactions that occur on or after 1 January 2011.

27 Apportionment—dutiable property and other property

- (1) If a dutiable transaction relates to dutiable property and property that is not dutiable property, it is chargeable with duty under this Chapter only to the extent that it relates to dutiable property.
- (2) If a dutiable transaction relates to different types of dutiable property for which different rates of duty are chargeable under this Chapter, the dutiable transaction is chargeable with duty under this Chapter as if a separate dutiable transaction had occurred in relation to each such type of dutiable property.

28 Apportionment—business assets in this and other jurisdictions

- (1) Business assets to which this section applies This section applies to a business asset referred to in section 11 (g), being:
- (a) the goodwill of a business if sales of goods or services, or goods and services, have also been made to a non-New South Wales customer of the business during the previous 12 months, or
 - (b) intellectual property that has also been used or exploited in one or more other Australian jurisdictions during the previous 12 months, or
 - (c) a statutory licence or permission under a Commonwealth law if the rights under the licence or permission have been exercised during the previous 12 months in respect of one or more other Australian jurisdictions.
- (2) How is the dutiable value of a business asset determined? The dutiable value (DV) of a business asset to which this section applies is to be determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$DV = A \times \frac{X}{Y}$$

where:

A is the unencumbered value of the business asset, or so much of the consideration for the dutiable transaction as relates to the business asset, whichever is the greater, and

X is the gross amount of the sales of goods and services (expressed in Australian dollars) made to New South Wales customers of the business during the last 3 completed financial years preceding the dutiable transaction, and

Y is the gross amount of the sales of goods and services (expressed in Australian dollars) made to both New South Wales customers and non-New South Wales customers of the business during the last 3 completed financial years preceding the dutiable transaction.

- (3) Subsection (2) applies to intellectual property together with goodwill as if the intellectual property and goodwill comprise a single business asset.
- (4) If an apportionment cannot be made under subsection (2), the Chief Commissioner may make an apportionment on such basis as the Chief Commissioner considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (5) When is a sale made to NSW customers and non-NSW customers of a business? For the purposes of this Chapter, a sale of goods or services is taken to be made to:
 - (a) a New South Wales customer of a business if the goods are delivered, or the services are provided, in New South Wales to the customer, and
 - (b) a non-New South Wales customer of a business if the goods are delivered, or the services are provided, outside New South Wales to the customer.
- (6) This section applies only to dutiable transactions that occur before 1 January 2011.

Note—

On 1 January 2011, duty on the transfer of business assets is abolished (see Part 4 of this Chapter).

29 Partnership interests

- (1) The dutiable value of a partnership interest (DV) is to be determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$DV = A \times \frac{X}{Y}$$

where:

A is the value of the partnership interest, or so much of the consideration for the dutiable transaction as relates to the partnership interest, whichever is the greater, and

X is the unencumbered value of all dutiable property of the partnership, and

Y is the unencumbered value of all assets of the partnership.

- (2) For the purposes of this section and despite subsection (1), the unencumbered value of dutiable property that is a business asset to which section 28 applies is the dutiable value of the business asset determined in accordance with section 28.
- (3) If the property of a partnership includes a land-related asset and an interest in the land-related asset is transferred as a result of the transfer of a partnership interest, the unencumbered value of all dutiable property of the partnership (“X” in subsection

(1) is to be reduced by the unencumbered value of the interest in the land-related asset that is transferred, but only if ad valorem duty has been paid or is payable on the transfer of the interest in the land-related asset.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), each of the following items of dutiable property is a land-related asset:
- (a) land in New South Wales,
 - (b) transferable floor space,
 - (c) a land use entitlement,
 - (d) an interest in an item of dutiable property referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

30 Partitions

- (1) What is a partition? For the purposes of this section, a partition occurs when dutiable property comprised of land in New South Wales that is held by persons jointly (as joint tenants or tenants in common) is transferred or agreed to be transferred to one or more of those persons.
- (2) Single dutiable transaction For the purposes of this section and sections 16 and 18, a partition is taken to be a single dutiable transaction.
- (3) Dutiable value The dutiable value of a partition is the greater of:
- (a) the sum of the amounts by which the unencumbered value of the dutiable property transferred, or agreed to be transferred, to a person by the partition exceeds the unencumbered value of the interest held by the person in the dutiable property transferred, or agreed to be transferred, to each person by the partition immediately before the partition, and
 - (b) the sum of any consideration for the partition paid by any of the parties.
- (3A) (Repealed)
- (4) Minimum duty The minimum duty chargeable on a transaction that effects a partition is $10.
- (5) Who is liable to pay the duty? Duty charged by this section is payable by the persons making the partition or any one or more of them.
- (6) Anti-avoidance criteria This section does not apply in respect of a partition if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the partition is part of a scheme to avoid duty on an exchange of land that was not jointly held by the parties before the scheme was entered into.

31 Effect of alteration in purchase price

(1) If after an agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property is entered into and before the property is transferred:

- (a) the consideration under the agreement is reduced and the reduced consideration is not less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property when the consideration was reduced, or
- (b) the consideration under the agreement is reduced because the parties have agreed not to transfer some of the dutiable property previously agreed to be transferred and the reduced consideration is not less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property that remained to be transferred when the consideration was reduced, or
- (c) the consideration under the agreement is increased and the dutiable value when the consideration was increased is greater than the dutiable value when the agreement was entered into, the Chief Commissioner must assess or reassess the liability to duty of the agreement in accordance with the change in the consideration.

(2) The liability to pay additional duty arising from an increase in the consideration occurs on the date the consideration is agreed to be increased.

Part 3 Rates of duty

32 General rate

(1) The rate of duty chargeable on a dutiable transaction is as follows:

Dutiable value of the dutiable property subject to the dutiable transaction	Rate of duty

(2) This rate applies unless other provision is made by this Chapter.

Note—

The rates of duty chargeable on dutiable transactions in respect of marketable securities are dealt with in section 33 and section 150. Concessional rates of duty chargeable on certain dutiable transactions are dealt with in Part 6 of this Chapter.

32A Premium rate for residential land with dutiable value exceeding $3,000,000

- (1) The rate of duty chargeable on a dutiable transaction in respect of residential land that has a dutiable value exceeding $3,000,000 is $150,490 plus $7 for every $100, or part, by which the dutiable value of the residential land exceeds $3,000,000.
- (2) The rate of duty chargeable on a dutiable transaction in respect of residential land that has a dutiable value not exceeding $3,000,000 is as provided for by section 32.
- (2A) If the dutiable property subject to a dutiable transaction comprises 2 or more individual items of residential land and 1 or more of those items has a dutiable value exceeding $3,000,000, the rate of duty chargeable on the dutiable transaction is as follows:
 - (a) for each item of residential land that has a dutiable value exceeding $3,000,000—$150,490 plus $7 for every $100, or part, by which the dutiable value of the item exceeds $3,000,000,

- (3) For the purposes of this section, residential land means:

 - (d) a parcel of vacant land that is zoned or otherwise designated for use under an environmental planning instrument (within the meaning of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979) for residential or principally for residential purposes.
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (3) (a), land does not cease to be regarded as land on which there is one single dwelling, or one flat, merely because the land is also used or is capable of being used for the purpose of one other residential occupancy, if that residential occupancy is an excluded residential occupancy.

(5) This section does not apply to a case in which section 32B or 32C applies.

(6) In this section:

excluded residential occupancy means:

- (a) one room, or
- (b) one suite of rooms (not being a flat) each room of which all occupants of the suite are entitled to occupy, or
- (c) one flat, or
- (d) one suite of rooms (not being a flat) each room of which all occupants of the suite are entitled to occupy, and one room, or

- (a) occupied or used as a separate dwelling, or
- (b) so constructed, designed or adapted as to be capable of being occupied or used as a separate dwelling, but does not include a single dwelling, a strata lot or a dwelling, or portion of a building, that is occupied under a land use entitlement.

single dwelling means a house:

- (a) occupied or used as a separate dwelling, or
- (b) so constructed, designed or adapted as to be capable of being occupied or used as a separate dwelling, but does not include a strata lot or a property commonly known as a shop and dwelling.

32B Rate for residential land used for other purposes

- (1) If a dutiable transaction in respect of residential land has a dutiable value exceeding $3,000,000, and the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the residential land is used for purposes other than residential purposes, duty is to be charged at the rate of $7 for every $100, or part, of the premium value of the residential land.

- (2) The premium value of the residential land is the amount (if any) by which the dutiable value of the residential land, when reduced by the apportionment factor, exceeds $3,000,000.
- (3) The apportionment factor is:

 - (b) the application does not form part of a scheme to circumvent limitations on, or requirements affecting, eligibility under the scheme.
- (5) A purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer is not eligible unless the person is an Australian citizen or a permanent resident, subject to subsection (6).
- (6) If there is more than one purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer and at least one of them is a first home owner who is an Australian citizen or permanent resident, the other purchasers or transferees are exempt from compliance with subsection (5).
- (7) In this section:

Australian citizen means an Australian citizen as defined in the Australian

Citizenship Act 1948 of the Commonwealth.

permanent resident means:

- (a) the holder of a permanent visa within the meaning of section 30 of the Migration Act 1958 of the Commonwealth, or
- (b) a New Zealand citizen who holds a special category visa within the meaning of section 32 of the Migration Act 1958 of the Commonwealth.

73A Application of eligibility criteria to joint purchasers and transferees

- (1) If there is more than one purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer, they may apply under the scheme, but the agreement or transfer will be eligible under the scheme only if all of the purchasers or transferees are eligible under the scheme.
- (2) This section is subject to section 80AA.

Note—

Section 80AA allows a limited duty concession under the scheme to be claimed in respect of residential property that is purchased subject to a shared equity arrangement between a first home owner and a person who is not a first home owner.

74 Eligible agreements or transfers

- (1) The agreement or transfer must be for the acquisition of a first home or for the acquisition of a vacant block of residential land intended to be used as the site of a first home.
- (2) The agreement or transfer must be for the whole of the property or, if the property is a parcel of land on which 2 or more homes are built, or are being built, for that part of the land that is an exclusive occupancy.
- (3) The dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the agreement or transfer must be less than:
 - (a) $600,000 if the property has a private dwelling built on it, or
 - (b) $450,000 if the property comprises a vacant block of residential land.

Note—

The dutiable value of dutiable property is the greater of:

- (a) the consideration (if any) for the dutiable transaction (being the amount of a monetary consideration or the value of a non-monetary consideration), and
 - (b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, land is an exclusive occupancy only if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the person acquiring the land will be entitled to occupy a home that is built, or being built, on the land as a place of residence to the exclusion of other persons who occupy or are to occupy the other home or homes built or being built on the parcel of land.

75 Ineligible agreements and transfers

- (1) An agreement or transfer is not eligible if it involves the acquisition of a business or business premises. However, an agreement for the purchase, or a transfer, of a farming property on which there is a private dwelling is not excluded.
- (2) An agreement for the purchase, or a transfer, of a holiday home is not eligible.
- (3) (Repealed)

76 Residence requirement

- (1) The home must be occupied by the first home owner or one of the first home owners who is acquiring it as a principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months, with that occupation starting within 12 months (or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may approve) after completion of the agreement or transfer. This requirement is referred to as the residence requirement.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner may, if satisfied there are good reasons to do so in a particular case:
 - (a) modify the residence requirement by approving a shorter period of occupation by a first home owner, or
 - (b) exempt a first home owner from the requirement to comply with the residence requirement.
- (3) In the case of an agreement or transfer for the acquisition of a vacant block of residential land, it is sufficient that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the vacant block is intended to be used as the site of a home to be occupied by the first home owner or one of the first home owners who is acquiring it as a principal place of residence.
- (4) (Repealed)
- (5) For the purpose of this section, an agreement or transfer is completed when a purchaser or transferee becomes entitled to possession of the home and, if the interest in the land acquired by the purchaser or transferee is registrable under a law of the State, the interest is so registered.
- (6) (Repealed)

76A Approval of application in advance of satisfaction of residence requirement

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may approve an application in anticipation of compliance with the residence requirement under section 76 if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that each applicant required to comply with the residence requirement intends to occupy the home as his or her principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months, with that occupation starting within 12 months after completion of the agreement or transfer or within a longer period approved by the Chief Commissioner.

- (2) If an application is approved in anticipation of compliance with the residence requirement, the approval is given on condition that, if the residence requirement is not complied with, the applicant must within 14 days after the end of the period allowed for compliance:
 - (a) give written notice of that fact to the Chief Commissioner, and
 - (b) pay the relevant duty to the Chief Commissioner.
- (3) The relevant duty is the difference between the total amount of duty that would have been payable on the transactions and instruments the subject of the application, if they had not been eligible under the scheme, and the total amount of duty (if any) paid in respect of those transactions and instruments.
- (4) A person who fails to comply with the condition prescribed by this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

77 Eligible mortgages

- (1) A mortgage is eligible if:
 - (a) it is given to assist the financing of a purchase under an agreement or transfer that is eligible under the scheme, and
 - (b) the purchaser or purchasers under the agreement or transfer are eligible under the scheme (including if the agreement or transfer is eligible under the scheme for a shared equity concession).
- (2) The mortgage must be over the property purchased.
- (3) In the case of a property that has a private dwelling built on it, the amount of advances secured must not be more than the amount of the dutiable value permitted under section 74 (3) (a).
- (4) In the case of a property that comprises a vacant block of residential land, the amount of advances secured must not be more than the amount of the dutiable value permitted under section 74 (3) (b), unless the amount of advances secured under the mortgage includes provision for the building of a private dwelling on the property. In such a case, the amount of advances secured must not be more than the amount of the dutiable value permitted under section 74 (3) (a).

Note—

See also section 221B, which extends a general mortgage duty exemption to all mortgages associated with owner occupied housing, and takes effect on and from 1 September 2007.

78 Making of applications

- (1) An application is made to the Chief Commissioner by completing a statutory declaration in an approved form.
- (2) (Repealed)
- (3) The Chief Commissioner may at any time (whether before or after the approval of an application) require the applicant or applicants to provide such further information as the Chief Commissioner may consider necessary for the proper administration of the scheme.

79 (Repealed)

80 Duty payable if application approved

- (1) If an application concerning an eligible agreement or transfer is approved and the dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the agreement or transfer is not more than the following amounts, no duty is chargeable on the agreement or transfer:
 - (a) $500,000 if the property has a private dwelling built on it, or
 - (b) $300,000 if the property comprises a vacant block of residential land.
- (2) If an application concerning an eligible agreement or transfer is approved and subsection (1) does not apply to the agreement or transfer, duty is chargeable on the agreement or transfer as follows:
 - (a) if the property has a private dwelling built on it—at the rate of 22.49% of the dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the agreement or transfer, less $112,450, or
 - (b) if the property comprises a vacant block of residential land—at the rate of 10.49% of the dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the agreement or transfer, less $31,470.
- (3) This section does not apply in respect of an agreement or transfer that is eligible under the scheme only for a shared equity concession.

80AA Special concession for shared equity arrangements

- (1) If there is more than one purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer, and one or more of them is a first home owner, but the agreement or transfer is not eligible under the scheme because one or more of the other purchasers or transferees is not eligible under the scheme, the agreement or transfer may still be eligible for a duty concession under the scheme (a shared equity concession).

- (2) In order to be eligible for a shared equity concession:
- (a) the purchasers or transferees who are first home owners must acquire not less than a 50% share in the ownership of the property, and
 - (b) the agreement or transfer must be an agreement or transfer that would be eligible under the scheme if the first home owners were the sole purchasers or transferees under the agreement or transfer.

- (3) If an application concerning an agreement or transfer that is eligible under the scheme for a shared equity concession is approved, duty is chargeable as follows:

$$D = R \times (100\% - E) + E \times C$$

where:

D is the duty chargeable.

R is the duty that would be chargeable on the dutiable value of the property if this Subdivision did not apply in respect of the agreement or transfer.

E is the ownership share in the property of the first home owner or owners, expressed as a percentage.

C is the duty (if any) that would be chargeable under section 80 on the agreement or transfer if that section applied in respect of the agreement or transfer.

- (4) Despite anything to the contrary in this section, an agreement or transfer under which one or more of the purchasers or transferees is a company is not eligible under the scheme for a shared equity concession if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the application relating to that agreement or transfer should not be approved for any good reason.
- (5) To avoid doubt, a reference in this Subdivision (except section 80) to an application that has been approved under the scheme includes an application that has been approved under the scheme because of eligibility for a shared equity concession.

80A Definitions

In this Subdivision:

first home owner has the meaning given by section 71.

guardian of a person under a legal disability includes a trustee who holds property on trust for the person under an instrument of trust or by order or direction of a court or tribunal.

Subdivision 1A Payment of instalments under First Home Purchase Scheme prior to 1 August 1998

81 Payment of instalments

- (1) Where instalments of duty are to be paid in accordance with an undertaking given under section 78 (2) as in force before 1 August 1998, the first instalment is to be paid by a date which is 1 year after the date of exchange of the agreement.
- (2) Although instalments are payable annually, payments may be made at more frequent intervals.

82 Payment of interest

- (1) No interest is payable unless an instalment is overdue. An instalment is overdue if it is not paid within 21 days after the date fixed for its payment in the undertaking.
- (2) Interest on an instalment that is overdue is payable as on a tax default by a taxpayer under the Taxation Administration Act 1996.
- (3) A person having the benefit of the scheme is not liable, in that capacity, for any penalty under this Act or any interest other than as provided by this section.

83 Overdue instalments

As well as attracting interest, if an instalment is overdue for more than 3 months, the Chief Commissioner (or the Chief Commissioner's agent) may sue the defaulter to recover, as a debt, the whole of the outstanding balance of the duty and any accrued interest and may, in addition, lodge and maintain a caveat over the subject property until all duty has been paid.

84 Sale or leasing of home or land before all instalments are paid

- (1) If the home or land is sold, leased (wholly or in part) or otherwise disposed of, or if for some other reason the home ceases to be the principal place of residence of the person or both of the persons having the benefit of the scheme:

(a) any entitlement to a discount under section 87 ceases immediately the home or land is sold, leased or otherwise disposed of or the home so ceases to be the principal place of residence, and

(b) the whole of the outstanding balance of the duty and any accrued interest becomes immediately payable.

(2) The Chief Commissioner (or the Chief Commissioner's agent) may sue the person or persons owing the duty and any interest to recover, as a debt, the amount involved.

85 (Repealed)

Subdivision 2 Discount for full payment of remaining duty

87 Discount for full payment of remaining duty

(1) A person or persons to whom this Subdivision applies may choose at any time to pay out, at a discount of 50%, the total of all instalments of duty remaining at that time.

(2) There is no entitlement to a discount under this section at any time when an instalment is overdue or any interest payable on an overdue instalment remains unpaid.

Division 2 Flood-prone housing scheme

88 The nature of the scheme

This scheme is intended to assist a person who, as an owner of a home on flood-prone land, has entered into an agreement for the sale of the land to the council of the local government area in which the land is situated and then purchases another home. The scheme enables such a person to choose to pay duty on the agreement for the purchase of the new home by instalments over a period of 5 years (instead of at the time of purchase).

89 Commencement

Agreements for sale or transfer entered into on or after the commencement of this Division are eligible for consideration under the scheme.

90 Eligible persons

A person may apply under the scheme if:

- (a) the person was the owner of at least 50% of the beneficial interest in the land sold or being sold to the council, and
- (b) the person has entered into an agreement for the purchase of a home intended to be occupied as the person's principal place of residence.

91 Eligible agreements

The agreement for the purchase of the new home is eligible for consideration under the scheme if the amount paid for the home is the full market value. Wholly or partially gifted property is not eligible.

92 Other provisions

- (1) Section 76 applies to this scheme in the same way as it applies to First Home Plus.
- (2) Sections 78 and 81–84 apply to this scheme in the same way as they applied to the First Home Purchase Scheme before 1 August 1998.

Division 3 Exemption from or reduction in duty for certain transfers

93 The nature of the scheme

The scheme is intended to provide an exemption from or reduction in duty in respect of:

- (a) the transfer of a principal place of residence from a corporation or special trust to certain persons, or
- (b) the transfer of any land owned as at 31 December 1986 by a special trust from the trust to certain persons.

94 Definitions

In this Division:

corporation has the same meaning as in the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

land includes any estate or interest in land.

land tax has the same meaning as in the Land Tax Management Act 1956.

principal shareholder in a corporation means:

- (a) any person (other than a corporation) whose voting entitlement (whether or not through the holding of shares) in the corporation is 50% or more, or
- (b) any person (other than a corporation) who has a voting entitlement (whether or not through the holding of shares) in the corporation where all the persons who have a voting entitlement in the corporation have an equal voting entitlement.

shareholder includes member.

special trust has the same meaning as in the Land Tax Management Act 1956.

voting entitlement has the meaning given by section 95.

95 Meaning of “voting entitlement”

- (1) A person’s voting entitlement in a corporation is that proportion of the total voting rights of all shareholders entitled to vote at general meetings of the corporation which the person is entitled to exercise, as a shareholder, at general meetings of the corporation.
- (2) A person is to be considered to have a voting entitlement in a corporation (corporation A) if the person has a voting entitlement in another corporation (corporation B) which itself has a voting entitlement in corporation A.
- (3) In a case to which subsection (2) applies, the person’s voting entitlement in corporation A is the proportion which results from multiplying the person’s voting entitlement in corporation B by corporation B’s voting entitlement in corporation A.
- (4) If a person has a voting entitlement in the same corporation under different provisions of this section, or under different applications of the same provision of this section, the person’s voting entitlement in the corporation is the aggregate of those entitlements.
- (5) In determining a person’s voting entitlement for the purposes of this section, proxies and other authorities to vote held by a shareholder are to be disregarded.

96 Transfer by corporation of principal place of residence to principal shareholder or spouse

- (1) A transfer of land by a corporation is eligible for exemption under this Division if:
 - (a) the corporation owned the land on 11 September 1990, and
 - (b) the transferee or each of the transferees is a principal shareholder in the corporation or the spouse of such a principal shareholder (whether or not the principal shareholder is one of the transferees), and
 - (c) had the transferee or each of the transferees been an owner of the land within the meaning of the Land Tax Management Act 1956 on 31 December that last preceded the date of the transfer, the land would, by the operation of section 10 (1) (r) of the Land Tax Management Act 1956, be exempt from land tax in respect of the year in which the transfer took effect.
- (2) If land is transferred by a corporation to two or more persons jointly, each of those persons is, for the purposes of this section (but without affecting any entitlement to be considered to be a principal shareholder apart from this subsection), to be considered to be a principal shareholder in the corporation if:

- (a) each of the persons has a voting entitlement in the corporation, and
- (b) the aggregate of the voting entitlements in the corporation of each of those persons would be sufficient to qualify any one person as a principal shareholder in the corporation.

97 Transfer of principal place of residence by special trust to beneficiary etc

A transfer of land subject to a special trust is eligible for exemption under this Division if:

- (a) the land was subject to the special trust on 11 September 1990, and
- (b) the transferee or each of the transferees was:
 - (i) the settler of the land or the person who actually paid the purchase money for the land when the land was acquired by the trustee under the trust, or
 - (ii) a beneficiary of the special trust immediately before the transfer took effect and a beneficiary of the trust when the land was acquired by the trustee under the trust, or
 - (iii) the spouse of a person referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii), and
- (c) the transferee or each of the transferees will hold the land beneficially, and
- (d) had the transferee or each of the transferees been an owner of the land within the meaning of the Land Tax Management Act 1956 on 31 December that last preceded the date of the transfer, the land transferred would, by the operation of section 10 (1) (r) of the Land Tax Management Act 1956, be exempt from land tax in respect of the year in which the transfer took effect.

98 Transfer of principal place of residence by corporation to beneficiary of special trust

A transfer of land by a corporation (not acting in the capacity of a trustee) is eligible for exemption under this Division if:

- (a) the corporation owned the land on 11 September 1990, and
- (b) the transferee or each of the transferees is a person, or the spouse of a person, who is a beneficiary under a special trust and was a beneficiary under the trust when the land was acquired by the corporation, and
- (c) the trustee under the special trust is a principal shareholder in the corporation (or would, if the trustee were not a corporation, be a principal shareholder in the corporation) at the time of the transfer, and
- (d) had the transferee or each of the transferees been the owner within the meaning of the Land Tax Management Act 1956 on 31 December that last preceded the date of the transfer, the land transferred would, by the operation of section 10 (1) (r) of the Land Tax Management Act 1956, be exempt from land tax in respect of the year in which the transfer took effect.

99 Transfer by special trust to corporation

- (1) A transfer of land to a corporation by a person in the person's capacity as trustee of a special trust is eligible for exemption under this Division if:
 - (a) the land was subject to the special trust on, and at all times between, 31 December 1986 and 11 September 1990, and
 - (b) Division 122 of Part 3-3 of the Commonwealth Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 applies to the disposal of land effected by the transfer, and
 - (c) pursuant to that section, Part IIIA (Capital Gains and Capital Losses) of that Act (except that section) does not apply to that disposal.
- (2) Chapter 3 (Certain transactions treated as transfers) and Chapter 4A (Acquisition of interests in land rich landholders) do not apply to the issue or allotment of shares in a corporation pursuant to a transfer for which an exemption from the payment of duty is granted under this Division.

100 Transfer of land not used and occupied solely as a principal place of residence

If:

- (a) a transfer of land would be eligible for exemption under section 96, 97 or 98 but for the fact that the land is not land to which section 96 (1) (c), 97 (d) or 98 (d) applies because it was not used and occupied solely as a principal place of residence at the relevant time, and
- (b) the land value of the land was entitled to be reduced under section 9C or 9D of the Land Tax Management Act 1956 at the relevant time, the amount on which the transfer is to be charged with ad valorem duty is to be reduced in the same proportion as the land value was entitled to be reduced under section 9C or 9D of the Land Tax Management Act 1956.

101 Making of applications

- (1) An application under this Division is to be made to the Chief Commissioner in an approved form.
- (2) If the land to which the transfer relates is or includes land under the Real Property Act 1900, the application must be accompanied by an undertaking from the transferee in an approved form that:
 - (a) the duty that would be payable on the transfer but for the granting of an exemption under this Division will be paid if the transferee does not become the registered proprietor of the land within 3 months (or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may at any time determine and notify in writing to the transferee) after the transfer is stamped as exempt from the payment of duty, and

- (b) the transferee will, within 1 month after becoming the registered proprietor of the land (or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may at any time determine and notify in writing to the transferee), provide evidence of that fact to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner.

102 Determination of applications

- (1) (Repealed)
- (2) An application is not to be granted unless the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that all land tax payable in respect of the land (including any additional land tax payable by way of penalty or otherwise) has been paid.
- (3) If the application is granted, the Chief Commissioner is to stamp the transfer as exempt from the payment of duty.

103 Reassessment of duty if undertaking not met

If a requirement of an undertaking from a transferee is not met, the Chief Commissioner may reassess the duty payable on the transfer as if this Division does not apply.

104 Application of scheme to company titles

This Division applies to the transfer of shares in a private company or units in a private unit trust scheme, the ownership of which entitles the owner to the exclusive possession, or substantially exclusive possession, of a dwelling in a building containing more than one separate dwelling, in the same way as it applies to a transfer of land, with such modifications as may be necessary.

Chapter 3 Certain transactions treated as transfers

Part 1 Preliminary

105 Introduction and overview

This Chapter charges duty at the same rate as for a transfer of dutiable property under Chapter 2 on certain transactions which are not “dutiable transactions” under Chapter 2.

Part 2 Transactions involving put and call options

106 Definitions

In this Part:

assign or assignment includes transfer, and a reference to the assignment of a right under a call option includes a reference to a transfer of the call option.

call option means a right to require a person to sell dutiable property that is conferred by an agreement or arrangement (being an agreement or arrangement that is not a dutiable transaction).

put option means a right to require a person to purchase dutiable property that is conferred by an agreement or arrangement (being an agreement or arrangement that is not a dutiable transaction).

107 Assignment of rights under call option dutiable as transfer

- (1) If a person (A) assigns his or her right under a call option to require another person (B) to sell dutiable property, so that the option is exercisable by a third person (C), duty under Chapter 2 is chargeable on that assignment as if the assignment were a transfer of the dutiable property concerned.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, if A enters into an agreement or arrangement under which A, for valuable consideration, relinquishes his or her right under a call option to require B to sell dutiable property and a call option to require B to sell the dutiable property is granted to C, A is to be treated as having assigned his or her right under the call option to C.
- (3) An assignment is chargeable with duty as a consequence of this Part only if the person who may be required under the call option to sell the dutiable property (that is, B) has a right under a put option to require A, an associated person of A or, following the assignment of a right under the call option, C to purchase the dutiable property.
- (4) If the assignment is chargeable with duty, Chapter 2 applies in respect of the assignment in the same way as it applies to other transfers of dutiable property, and a reference in this Act to a dutiable transaction includes such an assignment, subject to this Part.
- (5) For the purpose of Chapter 2, the transfer of dutiable property is taken to occur when the assignment is made.
- (6) This section applies regardless of when the call option or put option is exercisable.
- (7) An assignment of a right under a call option to purchase dutiable property, as referred to in subsection (1) or (2), is referred to in this Part as a call option assignment.

108 Person liable to pay duty

- (1) The duty chargeable on a call option assignment is payable by the person who assigns his or her right under the call option to require another person to sell dutiable property (the option holder).

- (2) Accordingly, the option holder is taken, for the purpose of charging duty under Chapter 2, to be the transferee of the dutiable property.
- (3) The duty payable by the option holder is additional to the duty (if any) payable under Chapter 2 by a transferee on the transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales.
- (4) However, the duty payable by the option holder as a consequence of this Part is to be reduced by the amount of duty (if any) paid by the option holder under Chapter 2 on the transfer of the call option to the option holder.
- (5) The duty payable by the option holder on a call option assignment as a consequence of this Part is referred to as call option assignment duty.

Note—

The following is an example of how this Part operates:

B grants A a call option that confers a right on A (or any assignee of A) to require B to sell land. A also grants B a put option that confers on B a right to require A (or any assignee of A) to purchase the land from B. No duty is payable at this point.

A then transfers the call option to C. Duty is payable as follows:

- (a) A (as the option holder) must pay call option assignment duty, as a consequence of this Part, as if the transfer of the option were a transfer of the land. Duty is payable on the dutiable value of the land (determined as provided for by this Part),
- (b) C (as the transferee of the option) must pay duty under Chapter 2 on the transfer of the option. Duty is payable on the dutiable value of the option (determined as provided for by Chapter 2).

C then transfers the option to D. C (as the option holder) is required to pay call option assignment duty as if the option were a transfer of the land. However, in this case C will receive a credit for the duty paid by C on the transfer of the option to C. D (as the transferee of the option) is required to pay duty under Chapter 2 on the transfer.

109 Determination of dutiable value of transfer

For the purposes of Chapter 2, the dutiable value of dutiable property that is subject to a call option assignment is taken to be the greater of:

- (a) the sum of the consideration for the assignment of the right under the call option and the consideration payable in the event that the call option is exercised (being in either case the amount of monetary consideration or the value of non-monetary consideration), and
- (b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property.

110 Stamping or endorsement of transactions

- (1) If an instrument that effects or evidences a transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales also effects or evidences a call option assignment, and it is stamped under this Act to indicate payment of duty, it must be stamped in a manner approved by the Chief Commissioner to indicate the type of duty (that is, purchaser duty or call option assignment duty) that has been paid.

- (2) If an instrument that effects or evidences a transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales also effects or evidences a call option assignment, and it is endorsed under this Act to indicate payment of duty, it must be endorsed in a manner approved by the Chief Commissioner to indicate the type of duty (that is, purchaser duty or call option assignment duty) that has been paid.
- (3) An instrument that effects or evidences a transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales and a call option assignment is not duly stamped unless it is stamped or endorsed in accordance with this section.
- (4) In this section:

purchaser duty means the duty (if any) payable under Chapter 2 by a transferee on the transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales.

111 Exemptions

- (1) No duty is chargeable as a consequence of this Part on a call option assignment if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (a) the call option and put option were granted by the parties concerned for the sole purpose of obtaining finance, or
 - (aa) the call option is assigned to a body established solely for the purpose of raising funds in relation to an investment scheme promoted by the person who assigns the call option, or
 - (b) the call option and the put option form part of a scheme of call options and put options granted by proprietors of a business that:
 - (i) were granted for the sole purpose of facilitating the continuation of the business by one or more of the proprietors (the continuing proprietors), and
 - (ii) are not exercisable except on the occurrence of a specified event that would cause the continuing proprietors to seek to acquire the interest of one or more of the other proprietors of the business, or
 - (c) the dutiable property the subject of the call option is land and the call option is assigned by a person authorised to contract to do residential building work under the Home Building Act 1989 who:
 - (i) has built or is building residential premises on the land for the purposes of sale, or

- (ii) has an agreement with the person to whom the call option is assigned to build residential premises on the land, or
 - (d) the call option is assigned by a corporation that is a member of a group of corporations to another corporation that is a member of the same group.
- (2) This section does not affect the duty payable under Chapter 2 (if any) by the transferee on a transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales.
- (2A) For the purposes of this section, corporations are members of the same group of corporations if:

Note—

The effect of subsection (2B) is that the third corporation will be considered to be a wholly owned subsidiary of the parent corporation if the shareholdings of the parent corporation in the third corporation (if any) together with the shareholdings of any wholly owned subsidiary in the third corporation are sufficient to satisfy subsection (2A) (a).

Chapter 4

145-162ZE (Repealed)

Chapter 4A Acquisition of interests in land rich landholders

Part 1 Preliminary

163 Overview

This Chapter charges duty on certain transactions that are not “dutiable transactions” under Chapter 2.

Note—

Duty is chargeable under Part 2 on the acquisition by a person of an interest in a land rich landholder at the same rate as the transfer duty chargeable under Chapter 2.

163A Meaning of “landholder” and related expressions

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a landholder is any of the following:
- (a) a private unit trust scheme,
 - (b) a wholesale unit trust scheme,
 - (c) a private company.

Note—

Private unit trust scheme, wholesale unit trust scheme and private company are defined in the Dictionary.

- (2), (3) (Repealed)

163B Meaning of “land rich”

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a landholder is land rich if:
- (a) it has land holdings in New South Wales with an unencumbered value of $2,000,000 or more, and
 - (b) its land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, comprise 60% or more of the unencumbered value of all its property.
- (2) In calculating the unencumbered value of the property of a landholder for the purposes of subsection (1), property of any of the following kinds is not counted:
- (a) cash, whether in Australian or other currency,
 - (b) money on deposit with any person, negotiable instruments or debt securities,
 - (c) loans that, according to their terms, are to be repaid on demand by the lender or within 12 months after the date of the loan,
 - (d) if the landholder is a private unit trust scheme or a wholesale unit trust scheme, loans to persons who, in relation to a trustee or beneficiary of the scheme, are associated persons,
 - (e) if the landholder is a private company, loans to persons who, in relation to the company or to a majority shareholder or director of the company, are associated persons,
 - (f) land use entitlements,
 - (g) units or shares in a linked entity of the landholder,

- (h) property consisting of an interest as a beneficiary in a discretionary trust (within the meaning of section 163U).

Note—

Associated person, land use entitlement and majority shareholder are defined in the Dictionary.

- (3) In addition to subsection (2), property is not to be counted in calculating the unencumbered value of the property of a landholder for the purposes of subsection (1) if the landholder is unable to satisfy the Chief Commissioner that the property was obtained otherwise than to reduce, for the purposes of this Chapter, the ratio of its land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, to the unencumbered value of all its property.

163C What are the “land holdings” of a landholder?

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a land holding is an interest in land other than the estate or interest of a mortgagee, chargee or other secured creditor or a profit à prendre. An interest in land, however:
 - (a) is not a land holding of a unit trust scheme unless the interest is held by the trustees in their capacity as trustees of the scheme, and
 - (b) is not a land holding of a private company unless the interest of the private company in the land is a beneficial interest.
- (2) This section is in aid of, but does not limit, the operation of any provision of this Chapter providing for constructive ownership of interests.

163D What are “interests” and “significant interests” in landholders?

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a person has an interest in a landholder if the person has an entitlement (otherwise than as a creditor or other person to whom the landholder is liable) to a distribution of property from the landholder on a winding up of the landholder or otherwise.
- (2) A person who, by virtue of subsection (1), has an interest in a landholder has a significant interest in the landholder if the person, in the event of a distribution of all the property of the landholder immediately after the interest was acquired, would be entitled to:
 - (a) in the case of a private unit trust scheme—20% or more of the property distributed, or
 - (b) in the case of a landholder other than a private unit trust scheme—50% or more of the property distributed.
- (3) An interest in a landholder is not counted if the interest concerned:

- (a) is an interest in a unit trust scheme acquired before 10 June 1987, or
- (b) is an interest in a private company acquired before 21 November 1986, or
- (c) was acquired at a time when the landholder did not hold land in New South Wales.

(4) In this section, person includes a landholder.

163DA Meaning of “associated person”

- (1) Without limiting the meaning of associated person in the Dictionary, a public company and a subsidiary (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth) of a public company are taken to be associated persons for the purposes of this Chapter.
- (2) However, the responsible entity for a managed investment scheme and the responsible entity for another managed investment scheme are considered to be associated persons for the purposes of this Chapter only if a person who is a member of one scheme and is beneficially entitled to more than 20% of the property to which the scheme relates is also a member of the other scheme and is beneficially entitled to more than 20% of the property to which that other scheme relates.

Part 2 Charging of duty on acquisitions of interests in land rich landholders 163E When does a liability for duty arise?

A liability for duty charged by this Part arises when a relevant acquisition is made.

163F What is a “relevant acquisition”?

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a person who:
 - (a) acquires an interest in a land rich landholder:
 - (i) that is of itself a significant interest in the landholder, or
 - (ii) that, when aggregated with other interests in the landholder held by the person or an associated person, results in an aggregation that amounts to a significant interest in the landholder, or
 - (iii) that, when aggregated with other interests in the landholder acquired by the person or other persons under transactions that form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is substantially one arrangement between the acquirers, results in an aggregation that amounts to a significant interest in the landholder, or
 - (b) having a significant interest, or an interest described in paragraph (a) (ii), in a land rich landholder, acquires a further interest in the landholder, has made a relevant acquisition.

- (2) However, an acquisition of an interest in a land rich landholder under an arrangement that results in the land rich landholder ceasing to be a landholder is not a relevant acquisition because of subsection (1) (a) (iii).
- (3) For the purposes of this Part, persons in their capacity as qualifying investors of a wholesale unit trust scheme are taken not to be associated persons of other qualifying investors in relation to the scheme.

163G How may an interest be “acquired”?

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a person acquires an interest in a land rich landholder if the person obtains an interest, or the person’s interest increases, in the landholder regardless of how it is obtained or increased.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a person may acquire an interest in a land rich landholder in the following ways:
 - (a) the purchase, gift, allotment or issue of a unit or share,
 - (b) the cancellation, redemption or surrender of a unit or share,
 - (c) the abrogation or alteration of a right for a unit or share,
 - (d) the payment of an amount owing for a unit or share,
 - (e) if the person holds an interest in the land rich landholder (whether or not as trustee for another person) and the capacity in which the person holds the interest changes (including if there is a change in the beneficial ownership of an interest held by a person as trustee).

Note—

For example, the capacity in which a person holds a unit or share in a land rich landholder changes if the person declares a trust in respect of the unit or share.

- (2A) If the acquisition arises from an agreement to purchase, allot or issue a unit or share, the acquisition is made, for the purposes of this Part, when the agreement is completed. It does not matter whether or not the acquisition or interest acquired is registered.
- (2B) For the purposes of subsection (2A), an agreement is taken to be completed when the necessary transfer or title documents are delivered to the person acquiring the interest and the purchase price is paid in full.
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a person may acquire an interest in a land rich landholder without acquiring units or shares in the land rich landholder.

163H Acquisition statements

- (1) A person who has made a relevant acquisition must prepare a statement (an acquisition statement) and lodge it with the Chief Commissioner.
- (2) The acquisition statement is to be prepared in an approved form and must contain the following information:
 - (a) the name and address of the person who has acquired the interest,
 - (b) in relation to each interest acquired, the date on which it was acquired,
 - (c) if the relevant acquisition results from the aggregation of the interests of associated persons, particulars of the interests acquired by the person and any associated persons on the date of the relevant acquisition,
 - (d) particulars of the total interest of the person and any associated person in the landholder at that date.
 - (e)–(h) (Repealed)
- (3) If the acquisition is not an exempt transaction under Part 5, the acquisition statement must also contain the following information:
 - (a) the unencumbered value of all land holdings in New South Wales of the landholder as at the date of the relevant acquisition and as at the date of acquisition of each interest acquired in the landholder during the 3 years prior to the date of the relevant acquisition,
 - (b) the unencumbered value of the property of the landholder at the date of the relevant acquisition,
 - (c) the amount of duty paid under this Act or under a law of another Australian jurisdiction in respect of each earlier acquisition of an interest referred to in paragraph (a),
 - (d) such other information as the Chief Commissioner may require.

Note—

In ascertaining whether or not a liability to lodge a statement under this section exists, it is necessary to have regard to provisions of Part 4 that deal with how a person may be taken to have acquired an interest in a land rich landholder because of the interests in a linked entity.

163I When must duty be paid?

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

163J Who is liable to pay the duty?

- (1) Duty chargeable under this Part is payable by the person who makes the relevant acquisition, except as provided by subsection (2).
- (2) If a relevant acquisition results from an aggregation of the interests of associated persons, the person who made the relevant acquisition and the associated person or persons are jointly and severally liable for payment of the duty.

163K How duty is charged on relevant acquisitions

- (1) If an acquisition statement does not disclose any acquisitions during the 3 years preceding the relevant acquisition, duty is chargeable, at the rate specified under section 32 of this Act for a transfer of dutiable property, on the amount calculated by multiplying the unencumbered value of all land holdings of the landholder in New South Wales (calculated at the date of acquisition of the interest acquired) by the proportion of that value represented by the interest acquired in the relevant acquisition.
- (2) If a relevant acquisition results from the aggregation of the interests of associated persons, the reference in subsection (1) to the interest acquired includes a reference to any interests acquired by associated persons on the same date.
- (3) If an acquisition statement discloses one or more acquisitions during the 3 years preceding the relevant acquisition, duty is chargeable, at the rate specified under section 32 of this Act for a transfer of dutiable property, on the aggregate of amounts severally calculated, in the manner provided by subsection (1), in respect of each interest required to be disclosed in the statement.
- (4) Duty payable under this section is to be reduced by the sum of the duty paid or payable under this Act in respect of the acquisition, during the 3 years preceding the relevant acquisition, by the person or any associated person of an interest in the same landholder, but only in proportion to the extent to which the duty paid or payable is attributable to the amount of the duty payable under this section.
- (5) Duty payable under this section is to be reduced by an amount (if any) calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{A}{B} \times C$$

where:

A is the unencumbered value of the land holdings in New South Wales of the landholder at the time the dutiable acquisition was made, and

B is the unencumbered value of all property of the landholder at that time, and

C is the sum of:

(a) the duty under this Act paid or payable in respect of:

- (i) a dutiable transaction in relation to the units or shares, or
- (ii) a capital reduction or a rights alteration under Part 3 of Chapter 3 by which an interest in the landholder was acquired, or
- (iii) an allotment of shares under Part 5 of Chapter 3 by which an interest in the landholder was acquired, and

(b) any duty of a like nature so paid or payable under a law of another Australian jurisdiction.

(6) If a relevant acquisition is made owing to the aggregation of the interests of associated persons, but the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the associated persons acquired their respective interests independently, the Chief Commissioner may assess and charge duty on each separate acquisition without aggregating the interests of the person who made it with the interests of associated persons.

(7) Duty is not chargeable under this section on the acquisition of an interest in a landholder that is required to be disclosed in an acquisition statement if the acquisition is an exempt transaction.

(8) This section is subject to Part 4.

(9) In this section:

exempt transaction means an acquisition that is an exempt transaction under Part 5.

163L Primary producers—special provisions

(1) No duty is chargeable under this Part in respect of a relevant acquisition if:

- (a) the relevant acquisition is made in a landholder that is a primary producer, and
- (b) when the acquisition is made, the landholder's land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, comprise less than 80% of the unencumbered value of all its property.

(2) However, if at any time within the period of 5 years after a relevant acquisition to which subsection (1) applies is made, the landholder in whom the acquisition is made ceases for any length of time to be a primary producer:

- (a) the person who made the acquisition must immediately notify the Chief Commissioner:
 - (i) that the landholder has ceased to be a primary producer, and

- (ii) of the date on which the landholder ceased to be a primary producer, and
 - (b) duty is chargeable under this Part in respect of the acquisition on the date on which the landholder ceased to be a primary producer, and
 - (c) the Chief Commissioner must make an assessment of the duty so chargeable.
- (3) The provisions of section 163B (2) and (3) apply to the calculation of the unencumbered value of the land holdings of the primary producer under this section.
- (4) In this section, primary producer means a landholder whose land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, wholly or predominantly comprise land used for primary production or land that would be considered to be land used for primary production if it were land in New South Wales.

Part 3

Part 4 General principles to be applied under this Chapter

163T Constructive ownership of land holdings and other property: linked entities

- (1) In addition to any interest in land or other property that it may hold in its own right, a unit trust scheme or a private company is taken, for the purposes of this Chapter, to hold an interest in land or other property held by a linked entity of the unit trust scheme or private company.
- (2) In this section, a linked entity of a unit trust scheme or a private company (the principal entity) means a person:

 - (b) who is not a public unit trust scheme, a wholesale unit trust scheme or a company whose shares are quoted on the Australian Stock Exchange or an exchange of the World Federation of Exchanges.

- (3) The value, for duty purposes, of the interest in land or other property that a unit trust scheme or a private company (being a principal entity) is taken, by subsection (1), to hold because of a holding by a linked entity is that portion of the interest's unencumbered value to which the unit trust scheme or private company would be entitled (without regard to any liabilities of the linked entity or any other person in the ownership chain) if each entity in the chain of entities were to be wound up.

163U Constructive ownership of land holdings and other property: discretionary trusts

- (1) A person or a member of a class of persons in whose favour, by the terms of a discretionary trust, capital the subject of the trust may be applied:

- (5) In this section, person includes a landholder.

Note—

Discretionary trust is defined in the Dictionary.

163V Effect of uncompleted agreements

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, the transferor and the transferee under an uncompleted agreement for the transfer of land are taken to be separately entitled to the whole of the land.

Note—

If duty is charged on an acquisition that relates to a land holding to which subsection (1) applies, the Chief Commissioner may defer payment of duty under section 47 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

- (2) For the purposes of this Chapter:

- (a) if a landholder has agreed to dispose of property other than land, the agreement is taken to have been completed even if it is not completed, and
- (b) if a landholder has agreed to acquire property other than land and has not completed the agreement, the agreement is to be disregarded.

163W Agreements for sale or conveyance of land the Chief Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement as though the land the subject of the agreement was not, at the time of the acquisition concerned, a land holding of the landholder.

(2) If:

- (a) at the time of acquisition of an interest by any person in a land rich landholder that necessitates the lodgment of an acquisition statement under this Chapter, the landholder was the purchaser under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or conveyance of land, and the Chief Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement as though the land the subject of the agreement was not, at the time of the acquisition concerned, a land holding of the landholder.

(3) In this section, a reference to a landholder includes a reference to a linked entity of the landholder.

163X Agreements for acquisition of property other than land

- (1) If, at the time of an acquisition of an interest by a person in a land rich landholder that necessitates the lodgment of an acquisition statement under this Chapter, the landholder had agreed to dispose of property other than land, and the agreement has subsequently been rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated without completion, the Chief Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement as though the property the subject of the agreement was, at the time of the acquisition concerned, property of the landholder.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply unless the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the rescission, annulment or other termination of the agreement is not part of a scheme or arrangement under which the object of the agreement has been or is intended to be achieved in another way.
- (3) If, at the time of an acquisition of an interest by a person in a land rich landholder that necessitates the lodgment of an acquisition statement under this Chapter, the landholder had agreed to acquire property other than land, and the agreement is subsequently completed, the Chief Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement as though the property the subject of the agreement was, at the time of the acquisition concerned, property of the landholder.
- (4) In this section, a reference to a landholder includes a reference to a linked entity of the landholder.

163Y Valuation of property

- (2) In determining the unencumbered value of land holdings under this Chapter, any arrangement made in respect of the land holdings that has the effect of reducing the unencumbered value is to be disregarded, subject to subsection (3).
- (3) An arrangement is not to be disregarded if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the arrangement was not made as part of an arrangement or scheme with a collateral purpose of reducing the duty otherwise payable in relation to the relevant acquisition.
- (4) In considering whether or not he or she is satisfied for the purposes of subsection (3), the Chief Commissioner may have regard to:
 - (a) the duration of the arrangement before the relevant acquisition, and
 - (b) whether the arrangement has been made with an associated person, and
 - (c) whether there is any commercial efficacy to the making of the arrangement other than to reduce duty, and

163Z (Repealed)

163ZA Maximisation of entitlements on distribution of property

- (1) This section applies to any calculation, for the purposes of this Chapter, of the entitlement of a person (the interested person) to participate in a distribution of the property of a landholder, whether on a winding up of the landholder or otherwise.

- (2) A calculation is to be made based, firstly, on a distribution carried out in accordance with the constitution of the landholder, and with any law relevant to the distribution, as in force at the time of distribution, and the entitlement of the interested person is to be evaluated accordingly.
- (3) Next, a calculation is to be made based on a distribution carried out after the interested person, and any other person whom the interested person has power to direct with respect to such a distribution or who is, in relation to the interested person, an associated person, had exercised all powers and discretions exercisable by them by reason of having acquired an interest in the landholder concerned:
 - (a) to effect or compel an alteration to the constitution of the landholder, and
 - (b) to vary the rights conferred by units or shares in the landholder, and
 - (c) to effect or compel the substitution or replacement of units or shares in the landholder with other units or shares in it,in such a manner as would maximise the value of the entitlement, and the entitlement of the interested person is to be evaluated accordingly.
- (4) The results obtained by an evaluation of the interested person's entitlement in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) are then to be compared, and whichever evaluation results in a greater entitlement is the correct evaluation, for the purposes of this Chapter, of the entitlement, unless the Chief Commissioner, being satisfied that the application of this subsection in the particular case would be inequitable, determines otherwise.

Part 5 Exemptions and concessions

163ZB Exempt transactions

- (1) An acquisition by a person of an interest in a landholder is an exempt transaction:
 - (a) if the interest was acquired in the person's capacity as:
 - (i) a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, or
 - (ii) a liquidator, or
 - (iii) an executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person, or
 - (b) if the interest was acquired solely as the result of the making of a compromise or arrangement under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth that has been approved by the court, not being a compromise or arrangement that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied was made with the intention of defeating the operation of this Chapter, or
 - (c) if the interest concerned is acquired solely from a pro rata increase or decrease in the interests of all unit holders or shareholders, or

- (d) if the interest was acquired solely as the result of the distribution of the estate of a deceased person, whether effected in the ordinary course of execution of a will or codicil or administration of an intestate estate or as the result of the order of a court, made under the Family Provision Act 1982 or otherwise, varying the application of the provisions of a will or codicil or varying the application of the rules governing the distribution of the property of an intestate estate, or
- (e) if the interest was acquired by the parties to a marriage that is dissolved or annulled, or in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner has broken down irretrievably, or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, as a result of a transfer made in accordance with:
 - (i) a financial agreement made under section 90B, 90C or 90D of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth that, under that Act, is binding on the parties to the agreement, or
 - (ii) an order of a court made under that Act, or
 - (iii) an agreement that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied has been made for the purpose of dividing matrimonial property as a consequence of the dissolution, annulment or breakdown of the marriage, or
- (f) if the interest was acquired by the parties to a domestic relationship that has, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, been terminated, or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, as a result of a transfer made in accordance with:
 - (i) an order of a court made under the Property (Relationships) Act 1984, or
 - (ii) a termination agreement within the meaning of section 44 of the Property (Relationships) Act 1984 that has been certified in accordance with section 47 of that Act, or

Note—

Domestic relationship (defined in the Dictionary) has the same meaning as in the Property (Relationships) Act 1984.

- (g) to the extent that:
 - (i) for purposes of or ancillary to the acquisition of an interest referred to in paragraph (e) or (f), the acquisition consists of the transfer of a share that is matrimonial property or relationship property to a person not a party to the relevant marriage or domestic relationship, in order to comply with a requirement of or prescribed under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, or

- (ii) the acquisition consists of a declaration of trust, by the transferee of a share transferred as referred to in subparagraph (i), for the benefit of a party to the marriage or relationship, or
 - (h) if the land holding of the landholder comprises land used for primary production and the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that, had the landholder transferred the land to the person acquiring an interest as a result of the acquisition immediately before that acquisition, the transfer of the land would not be chargeable with duty under this Act because of the application of section 274, or
 - (i) if the acquisition of an interest in a landholder would be chargeable with duty of $10 under section 54 if the property being acquired were land in New South Wales and the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the acquisition is not part of a scheme to avoid duty under this Chapter.
- (2) An acquisition by a person of an interest in a landholder is an exempt transaction if the Chief Commissioner, being satisfied that the application of this Chapter to the acquisition in the particular case would not be just and reasonable, so determines.
- (3) If:
- (a) duty was paid on the acquisition of matrimonial property by the parties to a marriage or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, and
 - (b) the interest acquired was acquired as a result of a transfer made in accordance with an agreement or order referred to in subsection (1) (e) (i), (ii) or (iii), and

- the person who paid the duty is entitled to a refund of it.
- (4) If:
- (a) duty was paid on the acquisition of relationship property by the parties to a domestic relationship or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, and
 - (b) the interest acquired was acquired as a result of a transfer made in accordance with an order or agreement referred to in subsection (1) (f) (i) or (ii), and
 - (c) the domestic relationship has been terminated,
- the person who paid the duty is entitled to a refund of it.
- (5) A party to a marriage or domestic relationship may provide a statement to the Chief

Commissioner, in the form of a statutory declaration, to the effect that:

(a) in the case of a marriage:

- (i) the party intends to apply for a dissolution or an annulment of the marriage, or
- (ii) the parties to the marriage have separated, and there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed, or

(b) in the case of a domestic relationship, the domestic relationship has been terminated.

The Chief Commissioner is required to have regard to any such statement in exercising his or her functions under subsection (1) (e) or (f).

(6) Subsection (5) does not limit the functions of the Chief Commissioner under section 72 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(7) In this section:

163ZC Duty concession: acquisitions securing financial accommodation

(1) If the person lodging an acquisition statement under this Chapter in relation to the acquisition of an interest in a land rich landholder:

- (a) informs the Chief Commissioner at the time the statement is lodged that the acquisition is effected for the purpose of securing financial accommodation, and
- (b) the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the acquisition is effected for that purpose, the statement, in so far as it relates to that acquisition, is not chargeable with duty, except as provided by subsection (2).

(2) The statement is chargeable with duty at the expiration of the period of 5 years after the date of the acquisition (or such longer period as may be determined by the Chief Commissioner in the particular case) if the interest concerned is not:

- (a) re-acquired by the person from whom it was acquired, or

(b) in the case of an acquisition by way of mortgage, conveyed by the mortgagee to a third person in exercise of the mortgagee's power of sale, within that period (or that longer period).

(3) Section 163H does not apply to the re-acquisition by a person of the interest concerned.

163ZD (Repealed)

163ZE Concession for buy-back arrangements

(1) This section applies if:

(a) the trustee of a unit trust scheme that is a widely held trust redeems any units in the trust, and

(b) the redemption is done for the purpose of re-issuing or re-offering the units for sale, and

(c) as a result of the redemption, the scheme would, but for this section, cease to be a widely held trust because a unit holder, individually or together with any associated person, is beneficially entitled to more than 20% of the units in the trust.

(2) For a period of 30 days beginning on and including the day on which the redemption occurs, the trust is taken to continue to be a widely held trust, but only if the trust continues to have not less than 300 unit holders none of whom, individually or together with any associated person, is beneficially entitled to more than 25% of the units of the trust.

(3) If, at the end of that 30-day period, a unit holder, individually or together with any associated person, is beneficially entitled to more than 20% of the units in the unit trust scheme:

(a) the trust is taken to have ceased to be a widely held trust from the beginning of that 30-day period (as if subsection (2) had never applied), and

(b) the Chief Commissioner must make an assessment of the duty chargeable under this Act as if the unit trust scheme had ceased to be a widely held trust scheme at the beginning on that 30-day period, and

(c) a tax default occurs for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if the whole of any duty assessed under paragraph (b) is not paid to the Chief Commissioner within 3 months after the assessment.

163ZEA Exemption for "top hat" arrangements

(1) An acquisition by a person of an interest in a landholder is an exempt transaction if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:

- (a) the acquisition is made for the purpose of giving effect to a scheme that would qualify as a roll-over under Subdivision 124-Q of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 of the Commonwealth, and
- (b) when the scheme is completed, the interposed trust will be a listed trust, widely held trust or a land rich landholder, and
- (c) the acquisition is not part of a scheme a purpose of which is to minimise duty otherwise payable under this Act.

Note—

A roll-over involves a scheme for interposing a unit trust scheme (whether a new or existing unit trust scheme) between persons who have an ownership interest in 2 or more unit trust schemes, or in one or more companies and one or more unit trust schemes, and the unit trust schemes or companies in which they have an ownership interest. The interests of the unit holders or shareholders are stapled together to form stapled securities and the interposed unit trust becomes the owner of all the stapled interests.

- (2) An acquisition by a person for the purposes of a scheme referred to in Subdivision 124-Q of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 of the Commonwealth ceases to be an exempt transaction if:
 - (a) the interposed trust is not a listed trust, widely held trust or land rich landholder when the scheme is completed, or
 - (b) the interposed trust ceases to be a listed trust, widely held trust or a land rich landholder at any time within 12 months after the scheme is completed.
- (3) If an acquisition ceases to be an exempt transaction:
 - (a) duty is chargeable under this Chapter in respect of the acquisition as if the acquisition had never been an exempt acquisition, and
 - (b) the person who made the acquisition must lodge an acquisition statement (within the meaning of section 163H) or a revised acquisition statement with the Chief Commissioner to reflect the fact that the acquisition has ceased to be an exempt transaction, and
 - (c) a tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if the duty (if any) chargeable under this Chapter as a result of the acquisition ceasing to be an exempt transaction is paid within 3 months after the acquisition ceases to be an exempt transaction.
- (4) In this section:

interposed trust, in relation to a scheme, has the same meaning as it has in section 124-1045 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 of the Commonwealth.

163ZW Duration of registration

- (1) Registration of a unit trust scheme under this Part takes effect on the day specified by the Chief Commissioner in respect of the scheme, which may be a day occurring before the day on which registration is granted.
- (2) Registration of a wholesale unit trust scheme remains in force until it is cancelled by the Chief Commissioner.
- (3) Unless cancelled earlier, registration of an imminent public unit trust scheme or an imminent wholesale unit trust scheme remains in force for 12 months from the date on which registration takes effect or for such further period as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, specify in respect of the unit trust scheme.

that, when aggregated with other interests the person has in the unit trust scheme, would entitle the person, in the event of an immediate distribution of all the property of the unit trust scheme, to no less than 20% of the property distributed.

- (2) The Chief Commissioner may, as a condition of registration, impose other reporting requirements on the responsible entity of a registered unit trust scheme (whether or not a wholesale unit trust scheme).

- (2) If a disqualifying circumstance occurs in respect of a unit trust scheme:
 - (a) the responsible entity of the unit trust scheme must give the Chief Commissioner notice of the disqualifying circumstance within 28 days after it occurs, and
 - (b) the unit trust scheme is taken to have not been a public unit trust scheme or a wholesale unit trust scheme on and from the disqualification date, and
 - (c) the Chief Commissioner must make an assessment of duty chargeable under this Act in respect of any acquisition of an interest in the unit trust scheme as if the unit trust scheme had not been a wholesale unit trust scheme or a public unit trust scheme, as the case requires, on and from the disqualification date, and

Chapter 5 Lease instruments

Part 1 Introduction and overview

164 Imposition of duty

(1) This Chapter charges duty on a lease instrument, being an instrument that evidences or effects a lease (as defined in section 164A).

(2) The duty charged by this Chapter is abolished on and from 1 January 2008. This Chapter does not apply in respect of a lease first executed on or after 1 January 2008.

Notes—

Lease is defined in section 164A to include agreements for lease and agreements for rights to use land.

Duty is generally charged on the cost of the lease. Cost is defined in section 166.

The rates of duty are dealt with in Part 2.

Duty is also chargeable on certain variations of leases—see section 169.

Leases that are exempt from duty are dealt with in section 179.

164A What is a “lease”?

For the purposes of this Chapter, lease means:

(a) a lease of land in New South Wales or an agreement for a lease of land in New South

Wales, or

- (b) an agreement (such as a licence) by which a right to use land in New South Wales at any time and for any purpose is conferred on or acquired by a person (who is taken, for the purposes of this Chapter, to be a lessee of the land), or
- (c) a franchise arrangement that is held in respect of a place or area located in New South Wales and that is first executed before 1 July 2001.

Notes—

Franchise arrangement is defined in the Dictionary.

Certain exemptions are available, in particular, if the cost of the lease is less than the amount specified in section 179 (1).

165 How duty is charged on a lease instrument

Duty is chargeable on a lease instrument:

- (a) at the rate prescribed under this Chapter, on the cost of the lease, as determined in accordance with this Chapter, except as provided by paragraph (b), or
- (b) in the case of a lease for which there is no consideration in money or money's worth, at the rate prescribed under this Chapter on the unencumbered value of the lease.

Note—

Part 3 prescribes means of levying duty on indeterminate rents and other indeterminate lease costs.

166 What is the “cost” of a lease?

- (1) The cost of a lease (other than a franchise arrangement) is the aggregate of the following:
 - (a) the rent payable during the term of the lease or in advance of the lease and any amount paid or payable for the right to use land under the lease,
 - (b) any premium payable for a lease of premises in a retirement village within the meaning of section 5 of the Retirement Villages Act 1999,
 - (c) any rates and taxes paid or payable on behalf of the lessor in connection with the lease,
 - (d) the value of improvements and additions to the leased premises made or undertaken to be made by or on behalf of, or at the expense of, the lessee under an agreement or covenant by the lessee (other than fit-out costs), to the extent provided by section 175,
 - (e) any royalties payable under the lease, including royalties for the right to enter onto and remove something from the land.

- (2) Rent includes any payment under the lease expressed to be rent but does not include any premium paid or payable expressed to be rent.
- (3) The cost of a franchise arrangement is the aggregate of all amounts payable for the grant of the franchise (including any renewal fees where the franchise arrangement is entered into by way of renewal of a previous franchise arrangement) and the exercise of the franchisee's rights during the term of the arrangement, to the extent that any of those amounts are referable to New South Wales. It includes any amounts so payable under the arrangement for any of the following:
 - (a) the right to use the goodwill of the business (including payments by way of royalty or as a percentage of turnover),
 - (b) the right to use systems and processes, instruction manuals and operation manuals, business names, logos, trademarks, patents and copyright material in connection with the business,
 - (c) the use of goods,but not including any amounts payable under the arrangement for goods that are stock-in-trade or materials provided for use in manufacture.
- (4) If a franchise arrangement applies to an area that comprises the whole or part of New South Wales and a place outside New South Wales, duty is not payable on that proportion of the cost of the franchise arrangement that represents the extent to which the franchise has been granted in respect of the place that is outside New South Wales.

167 Splitting or redirection of cost of franchise arrangement (anti-avoidance provision)

The Chief Commissioner may include, as part of the amount payable as the cost of a franchise arrangement, any of the following:

- (a) any payments under the arrangement that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied have been increased for the purpose of minimising duty under this Chapter,
- (b) any payments that would be included in the cost of a franchise arrangement except for the fact that they are paid to a person other than the person who grants the franchise arrangement.

168 Who is liable to pay the duty?

- (1) The person liable to pay the duty is the lessee.
- (2) Lessee means, in the case of a franchise arrangement, the franchisee.

Note—

Franchisee is defined in the Dictionary.

- (3) Lessee includes any assignee for the time being of the rights of the lessee under the lease and the assignee of a franchisee.

169 When must the duty be paid?

- (1) A lease instrument becomes liable to duty on the date of first execution.
- (2) A lease instrument also becomes liable to duty on the making of a variation to the lease that increases the cost of the lease. Duty is chargeable on the amount of additional cost resulting from the variation.

Note—

A refund of duty may be applied for in case of a variation that decreases the cost of a lease—see section 178.

- (3) Duty must be paid to the Chief Commissioner within 3 months after the lease instrument becomes liable to duty, except as otherwise provided by this Chapter.

Note—

Part 3 makes provision for periodic adjustments of duty in certain cases.

Part 2 Rates of duty

170 General rate

- (1) The rate of duty is 35 cents per $100 (or remaining part of $100) of the total cost of the lease, except as otherwise provided by this Chapter.
- (2) (Repealed)

171 Nominal duty

- (1) Duty of $2 is payable on a lease instrument made subsequently to and in conformity with an agreement for a lease for which ad valorem duty under this Chapter has been duly paid.
- (2) If requested by the lessee, the Chief Commissioner must regard the subsequent lease instrument as the instrument dutiable with ad valorem duty and the agreement as the nominally dutiable instrument, and assess or reassess them accordingly. The subsequent lease instrument is taken to have been first executed on the date of first execution of the agreement.
- (3) Duty of $10 is payable on an instrument that evidences a variation of a lease.

Part 3 Unascertainable lease costs

172 Operation of Part 3

- (1) The object of this Part is to enable an unascertainable component of the cost of a lease to be determined as a definite sum for duty assessment purposes.

- (2) The amount of a cost component of a lease is unascertainable if it cannot, at the time duty is liable to be paid in respect of it, be ascertained as a definite sum (so that, consequently, the total cost of the lease over its whole term cannot at that time be so ascertained).

Note—

Examples of unascertainable cost components are:

- (a) a royalty on minerals won from the leased land, expressed to be pro rata of (unspecified) tonnage of the minerals won,
 - (b) rent expressed to be pro rata of the turnover of a business conducted on the land,
 - (c) rent expressed to be “market rent”.
- (3) Cost components whose amounts are partly unascertainable are to be dealt with under section 173 or 174. Cost components whose amounts are wholly unascertainable are to be dealt with under section 176 (2).
- (4) Section 175 applies to the quantification of the value of lessees’ improvements.

173 Estimate and subsequent adjustment

- (1) This section applies in order to determine as a definite sum any unascertainable cost components of a lease, except where the Chief Commissioner and the lessee agree that section 174 should apply instead.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner is to make an initial estimate of the cost of the lease.
- (3) The initial estimate is to be the sum of:
- (a) the amount of each cost component payable in the course of the lease, so far as it is ascertainable, and
 - (b) in respect of any interval in the term of the lease in which the amount of a cost component, although unascertainable, is subject to a certain approximate rate—the amount of the cost component that would be paid if it were payable at that approximate rate, and
 - (c) in respect of any interval in the term of the lease in which the amount of a cost component, although unascertainable, is subject to a certain minimum rate and to which paragraph (b) cannot be applied—the amount of the cost component that would be paid if it were payable at that minimum rate, and
 - (d) in respect of any interval in the term of the lease in which the amount of a cost component is unascertainable and to which paragraphs (b) and (c) cannot be applied—the amount of the cost component that would be paid during the interval if it were payable at the highest certain rate prevailing immediately before the commencement of the interval.

- (4) Following the initial estimate, duty is to be paid to the Chief Commissioner on the cost of the lease determined on the basis of an estimate under this section of the relevant unascertainable cost components.
- (5) Periodic estimates are to be made, at such dates (estimate dates) as the Chief Commissioner, having regard to the provisions of the lease, determines, of the amount of any cost components dealt with under this section payable during the term of the lease, and periodic adjustments of duty are to be made accordingly. A periodic estimate and a periodic assessment of duty may be made more than 5 years after the initial estimate.
- (6) Within 1 month after each estimate date, the lessee must produce to the Chief Commissioner a duly stamped part of the lease instrument and a statutory declaration stating:
 - (a) the amount of each cost component dealt with under this section that was paid between the initial estimate date or the last previous estimate, as the case may be, and the date of the current estimate, and
 - (b) the rate at which that cost component is payable as at the date of the current estimate.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

- (7) If the amount of a cost component actually paid during a period between estimation dates is higher than the estimated amount so payable for that period, the Chief Commissioner may make a reassessment of duty in respect of the lease for that period and the balance of the term of the lease, and the lessee must, within 3 months after the date of issue of the notice of assessment, pay any additional duty assessed.
- (8) If the amount of a cost component actually paid during a period between estimation dates is lower than the estimated amount so payable for that period, the Chief Commissioner must, after the lessee has complied with subsection (6), make a refund to the lessee of duty overpaid.

174 CPI method

- (1) This section applies, if the Chief Commissioner and the lessee agree to apply it, in order to determine as a definite sum any unascertainable amounts of any particular cost component of a lease.
- (2) The amount of the relevant cost component payable during any interval of the term of the lease for which it cannot be ascertained is taken to be payable at an annual rate ascertained by compounding the rate at which it is payable during the first year of the lease by the annual percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index last issued before the commencement of the lease.

- (3) If the rate at which the cost component is payable is unascertainable for a part of the first year, the rate for that year is to be calculated in accordance with section 173 (3) (b) and (c).
- (4) The Chief Commissioner may assess and levy duty on the cost of a lease based on a determination under this section of the value of the relevant cost component.
- (5) Duty assessed in accordance with this section may not be varied merely because the actual amount of the cost component paid under the lease is different from the value of the cost component determined under this section.
- (6) In this section, Consumer Price Index means the number appearing in the Consumer Price Index (All Groups Index) for Sydney published under the Commonwealth Census and Statistics Act 1905.

175 Quantification of lessee’s improvements

The value of so much of the cost of a lease as comprises:

- (a) an undertaking by the lessee to make or pay for additions or improvements to the land the subject of the lease, or
- (b) the making of or payment for such additions or improvements by the lessee,

Table

Term of lease	Percentage of value of additions or improvements
10 years or less	100
More than 10 but not more than 20 years	75
More than 20 but not more than 30 years	50
More than 30 but not more than 40 years	25
More than 40 years	Nil
Periodic lease or lease for a term that cannot be ascertained when the lease is made	100

Part 4 Miscellaneous

176 Interim stamping of lease instrument

- (1) A lease instrument on which duty is assessed under section 173 is to be marked “interim stamp only”.

- (2) A lease instrument on which no part of the duty under this Chapter is immediately ascertainable is, on payment of a duty of $10, to be stamped accordingly and marked “interim stamp only”.
- (3) (Repealed)

177 Reassessment of duty—early termination

- (1) A lessee may apply in an approved form to the Chief Commissioner for a reassessment of duty paid on a lease instrument if the lease is terminated before the end of its term. The means by which the lease was terminated is immaterial.
- (2) The application must be made within 5 years after the initial assessment or 12 months after the termination, whichever is the later, and must be supported by such documents and information as the Chief Commissioner specifies.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner:
 - (a) if satisfied that the lease has been terminated before the commencement of the term, must refund the whole of the duty paid, or
 - (b) if satisfied that the lease has been terminated early, must refund the difference between the duty actually paid and the duty that would have been payable if the lease had been granted for a term equal to the period for which the lease actually remained in force before termination.
- (4) In this section, a reference to the termination of a lease includes a reference to a lease coming to an end.
- (5) The Chief Commissioner must not refund any duty under this section unless satisfied that neither the lessee, nor an associated person in relation to the lessee, has occupied the premises the subject of the lease with the express or implied agreement of the lessor at any time after the termination of the lease and that neither the lessee, nor an associated person, proposes to so occupy those premises at any time after the termination of the lease.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply to an occupation that is consequential on the sale of the premises to the lessee or an associated person.

178 Reassessment of duty—reduction of cost

- (1) A lessee may apply in writing to the Chief Commissioner for a reassessment of duty paid on a lease instrument if the lease is subsequently varied so as to reduce the total cost of the lease.
- (2) The application must be made within 5 years after the initial assessment or 12 months after the variation, whichever is the later, and must be supported by such documents and information as the Chief Commissioner specifies.

- (3) The Chief Commissioner, if satisfied that the lease has been varied so as to reduce the total cost of the lease, must refund the difference between the duty actually paid and the duty that would have been payable if the lease had been granted on the terms as so varied.

179 Exemptions

- (1) A lease instrument for any of the following leases is not chargeable with duty under this Chapter:
- (a) subject to subsection (3), a lease for a term of less than one year whose total cost is not more than:
 - (i) $3,000—if the date of first execution of the lease is before 1 July 2001, or
 - (ii) $20,000—if the date of first execution of the lease is on or after 1 July 2001,
 - (b) subject to subsection (3), a lease for a term of one year or more whose total cost is not more than:
 - (i) $3,000 per year—if the date of first execution of the lease is before 1 July 2001, or
 - (ii) $20,000 per year—if the date of first execution of the lease is on or after 1 July 2001,
 - (c) a lease granted by or on behalf of a corporation, society or institution if:
 - (i) the purpose of the lease is to grant a retired person or a disabled person the right to occupy residential accommodation, and
 - (ii) the lease has not been granted for the purpose of profit by the lessor,
 - (d) a lease of premises to the Home Care Service of New South Wales,
 - (e) a lease executed in accordance with Part V of the Commonwealth National Health Act 1953.
- (2) Duty under this Chapter is not chargeable on a lease instrument on:
- (a) so much of the cost of a residential lease as relates to premises used, or intended to be used, exclusively as a residence, or
 - (b) so much of the cost of a lease of a moveable dwelling site used, or intended to be used, as the principal place of residence of the lessee.
 - (c) (Repealed)

- (3) Subsection (1) (a) or (b) does not apply to a lease that is one of two or more leases:
- (a) that are:
 - (i) for terms that are consecutive or not more than 3 months apart, and
 - (ii) over the same or substantially the same property, and
 - (iii) between the same lessor and lessee or associated persons of the lessee, and
 - (b) the date of first execution of each of which is within a period of 12 months, and
 - (c) that, if they were taken to be a single lease instrument for a term which is the aggregation of the terms of the leases and for a total cost which is the aggregation of the costs of the leases, would be chargeable with duty.
- (4) The lease instruments for two or more leases that satisfy the requirements of subsection (3) are, for the purposes of this Chapter, taken to be a single lease instrument for a term which is the aggregation of the terms of the leases and for a total cost which is the aggregation of the costs of the leases.
- (5) (Repealed)

Chapter 6

180-203 (Repealed)

Chapter 7 Mortgages

Part 1 Introduction and overview

203A Abolition of mortgage duty—effective 1 July 2009

- (1) Mortgage duty is abolished on and from 1 July 2009.
- (2) However, mortgage duty remains chargeable, and this Chapter continues to apply, in respect of the following:
- (a) a mortgage first executed before 1 July 2009 (including any advances or further advances made in respect of the mortgage before that date),
 - (b) an instrument of security referred to in section 208 (3) that first affects land in New South Wales before 1 July 2009,
 - (c) an instrument of security referred to in section 208 (3A) that first affects relevant property in New South Wales before 1 July 2009,
 - (d) an instrument that first becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage, as referred to in section 208 (4), before 1 July 2009.

- (3) A mortgage does not become liable to the additional duty referred to in section 208 (2) in respect of an advance or further advance that is made on or after 1 July 2009 (even if the mortgage was first executed before that date).

204 Imposition of duty

This Chapter charges duty on instruments that fall within the definition of a mortgage. Duty chargeable under this Chapter is called mortgage duty.

Notes—

- (1) Mortgage duty is calculated, in most cases, according to “the amount of advances secured by the mortgage”. Contingent liabilities may also be included. This is dealt with in Part 2.
- (2) Ad valorem duty is only chargeable on one of a package of mortgages securing the same advance. This is dealt with in section 217.
- (3) Provision is also made for the apportionment, for duty purposes, of the amount secured by any mortgage over property in different Australian jurisdictions. This is dealt with in sections 216–218C.

205 What is a mortgage?

For the purposes of this Chapter, an instrument is a mortgage if it is:

- (a) a security by way of mortgage or charge over property wholly or partly in New South Wales at the liability date, or
- (b) (Repealed)
- (c) a security by way of a transfer or conveyance of any property in New South Wales that is held in trust to be sold or otherwise converted into money, redeemable before such a sale or conversion either by express stipulation or otherwise, except where the transfer or conveyance is made for the benefit of creditors who accept the transfer or conveyance in full satisfaction of debts owed to them, or
- (d) an instrument that, on the deposit of documents of title to property in New South Wales or instruments creating a charge on property in New South Wales, becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage.

Note—

Certain instruments that would otherwise be caught by this definition are exempted under Part 4.

206 What is an advance?

In this Chapter, advance means the provision or obtaining of funds by way of financial accommodation, by means of:

- (a) a loan, being:
- (i) an advance of money, or
- (ii) the payment of money for or on account of, or on behalf of, or at the request of, any person, or

- (iii) a forbearance to require the payment of money owing on any account whatever,
or
 - (iv) any transaction (whatever its terms or form) that in substance effects a loan of money, or
 - (b) a bill facility, being one or more agreements, understandings or arrangements as a consequence of which a bill of exchange or promissory note:
 - (i) is drawn, accepted, endorsed or made, and
 - (ii) is held, negotiated or discounted to obtain funds,whether or not the funds are obtained from the person who draws, accepts, endorses or makes the bill of exchange or promissory note and whether or not the funds are obtained from a person who is a party to any such agreement,
- and includes contingent liabilities of the kind referred to in section 215.

207 Who is liable to pay the duty?

The person liable to pay mortgage duty is the mortgagor or the person bound.

208 When does a liability arise?

- (1) A mortgage becomes liable to duty on the date of its first execution.
- (2) A mortgage becomes liable to additional duty on the making of an advance or further advance by which the amount secured by the mortgage exceeds the amount secured by it at the time a liability to duty last arose in respect of it under this or a corresponding Act, unless section 219 applies.
- (3) An instrument of security that does not affect property in New South Wales at the date of first execution but that affects land in New South Wales at any time within 12 months after that date becomes liable to duty as a mortgage on the date on which it first affects the land, unless it is duly stamped under a corresponding Act or is exempt from duty.
- (3A) An instrument of security that does not affect property in New South Wales at the date of first execution but that, at any time after execution, affects relevant property in New South Wales identified in the instrument or identified under an arrangement in place when the instrument was first executed, becomes liable to duty on the date it first affects that property, unless it is duly stamped under a corresponding Act or is exempt from duty.
- (4) An instrument that, on the deposit of documents of title to property in New South Wales or instruments creating a charge on property in New South Wales, becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage becomes liable to duty as a mortgage on the deposit of the documents or instruments.

- (5) A reference in subsection (3) to land does not include a reference to an interest in land that is held by way of security.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, relevant property means any property, excluding land and the following kinds of property:
 - (a) a marketable security that is quoted on the Australian Stock Exchange,
 - (b) an interest in a marketable security referred to in paragraph (a), or an interest in a marketable security if the interest is quoted on the Australian Stock Exchange,
 - (c) an interest in a unit trust scheme, being a unit trust scheme in respect of which units in the scheme have been issued to the public and 50 or more persons are beneficially entitled to units in the scheme,
 - (d) property the Chief Commissioner is satisfied is of a similar nature to property referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

209 When must duty be paid?

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

210 How is mortgage duty charged?

- (1) The amount of duty chargeable on a mortgage is, except as provided by subsection (2), determined by the amount secured by it, as determined under Part 2. The amount of duty is:
 - (a) $5.00, if the mortgage secures no amount or if the amount secured by the mortgage is not more than $16,000, or
 - (b) if the amount secured by the mortgage is more than $16,000—$5.00, plus a further $4.00 for every $1,000, or part, by which the amount secured exceeds $16,000.
- (2) The amount of duty chargeable on a mortgage in respect of an advance or further advance is calculated on the amount secured by it as determined under Part 2. The amount of duty is $4.00 for every $1,000, or part, of the amount secured.
- (3), (4) (Repealed)

Notes—

- (1) Further provisions that determine how the amount secured by a mortgage is to be calculated are contained in Part 2.
- (2) See sections 216–218C as to the assessment of duty in cases where some of the property over which a mortgage, or a package of mortgages, is given is property outside New South Wales.

211 Consequences of non-payment of duty

- (1) A mortgage on which duty is required by this Chapter to be paid is, while any duty remains unpaid on it, enforceable only to the extent of the amount secured by the mortgage on which duty has been paid under this Act.
- (2) A mortgage mentioned in section 216, 217, 217A or 218BA on which duty is required by this Chapter to be paid is, while any duty remains unpaid on it, enforceable only to the extent of the dutiable proportion on which duty has been paid under this Act.

212 Where is property located?

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, property in the following forms is taken to be located in the place specified:
 - (a) shares in or securities of a body corporate:
 - (i) in the case of a company within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth—in the place where the company is taken to be registered for the purposes of that Act, or
 - (ii) in any other case—in the place of incorporation of the body corporate,
 - (b) units in a unit trust scheme:
 - (i) in the place where the register on which the units are registered is kept, or
 - (ii) in the place of residence of the manager of the unit trust scheme, if the register on which the units are registered is not kept in Australia,
 - (c) debt securities of a Government of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth—in the State or Territory concerned.
- (2) Subsection (1) (a) is declared to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth in relation to section 1070A (4) of that Act.

Part 2 Calculating the amount secured by a mortgage

213 Secured limited amount

- (1) If the amount of advances secured or to be secured by a mortgage is a definite and limited sum, the amount secured by the mortgage is, for the purposes of this Chapter, the definite and limited sum, until such time (if any) as a greater amount of advances is secured by the mortgage.
- (2) If any advance or further advance is made so that the amount of advances secured by the mortgage exceeds, at any time, the definite and limited sum mentioned in subsection (1), the amount on which duty is chargeable is, for the purposes of section 210 (2) or (4) (as appropriate), the amount by which the advances or further advances secured by it exceeds the amount on which duty has been paid under this section.

- (3) For the purposes of this Chapter, any increase in the definite and limited sum referred to in subsection (1) is taken to be a further advance for the amount of the increase.

214 “All moneys” mortgage

- (1) If the amount of advances secured by a mortgage is not a definite and limited sum, the amount secured by the mortgage is, for the purposes of this Chapter, the amount of advances actually secured by it.
- (2) If any advance or further advance is made so that the amount of advances for the time being secured by the mortgage subsequently exceeds the amount of the advances for which the mortgage has been duly stamped under this Act, the amount on which duty is chargeable is, for the purposes of section 210 (2) or (4) (as appropriate), the amount by which the advances or further advances secured by it exceeds the amount on which duty has been paid under this section.

215 Contingent liabilities

- (1) A mortgage that is used or is capable of being used (whether directly or through a chain of relationships) to recover the whole or any part of an amount contingently payable in connection with an advance:
- (a) by a guarantor or indemnifying party under a guarantee or indemnity, or
 - (b) by another party under another instrument of a different kind,
- is liable to duty as if the amount of the contingent liability under the guarantee, indemnity or other instrument (or, where there is more than one guarantee, indemnity or other instrument, the greatest contingent liability) were a separate advance secured by the mortgage.
- (2) In the case of a mortgage that is part of a chain of relationships referred to in subsection (1), a reference in that subsection to a contingent liability is a reference to a contingent liability limited to the amount of any advance by any party in the chain, and does not include a reference to any other kind of contingent liability.
- (3) This section does not apply if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that there is no connection between the mortgage and any advance by any party to the arrangements.
- (4) Nothing in this section requires duty to be paid more than once in respect of an advance.

216 Mortgages over property not wholly within New South Wales

(1) Mortgage duty is to be assessed for a mortgage over property that is partly within and partly outside New South Wales as if the amount secured by the mortgage were only the dutiable proportion.

(2) The dutiable proportion is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$DP = AS \times \frac{V}{T}$$

where:

DP is the dutiable proportion.

AS is the amount secured by the mortgage on which duty would, but for this section, be charged at the liability date.

V is the value of the property in New South Wales affected by the mortgage.

T is the value of all property affected by the mortgage.

(3) The dutiable proportion is to be calculated by reference to the value of the properties according to any referable point specified in subsection (4).

(4) A referable point is any of the following prepared within 12 months before the liability date for the mortgage:

- (a) an independent valuation of the secured property,
- (b) a statement of the mortgagee based on information obtained by the mortgagee in deciding to make the advance to the mortgagor,
- (c) property valuations used by the mortgagor in preparing an annual return to be lodged under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth,
- (d) a financial report of the mortgagor, certified by an independent auditor as presenting a true and fair view of a corporation's financial position,
- (e) agreed property valuations that form the basis of the mortgagor's insurance policies,
- (f) another document the Chief Commissioner considers to be appropriate for calculating the dutiable proportion.

(5) However, if there is more than one referable point for a mortgage, the referable point is the later or latest of the referable points, subject to subsection (6).

(6) Also, the referable point must be the same referable point used or to be used to determine liability to duty at the liability date under a corresponding Act.

- (7) This section is subject to the provisions of section 217A in relation to the assessment of mortgage packages.

217 Advances secured by mortgage package

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, 2 or more instruments of security are a mortgage package if:
- (a) at a liability date, the instruments secure or partly secure the same money, and
 - (b) at least one of the instruments is a security affecting property wholly or partly outside New South Wales, and
 - (c) at least one of the instruments is a mortgage.
- (2) Two or more instruments of security are taken to be part of a mortgage package only if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the instruments were first executed within any period of 28 days and in such a case are taken, for the purpose of assessing duty, to be first executed on the day the last of the instruments to be executed was executed.
- (3) (Repealed)
- (4) Duty on a mortgage package is to be assessed under this Part as if the instruments comprising the mortgage package were one mortgage.
- (5) One of the mortgages in the mortgage package is to be stamped with the mortgage duty paid in New South Wales for the mortgage package and each other mortgage in the mortgage package must be stamped as a collateral mortgage.
- (6) In the case of a further advance, a mortgage package includes an instrument of security executed after the initial liability date for a mortgage package that secures or partly secures the same money as the mortgage package.

217A Assessment of mortgage packages where one or more instruments secure a limited amount

- (1) This section applies if a mortgage package assessed as one mortgage under section 217 has a NSW limit, or an Australian limit, or both.
- (2) If a mortgage package assessed as one mortgage under section 217 has a NSW limit, mortgage duty is to be assessed on the mortgage as if the amount secured by the mortgage were the NSW proportion of all advances secured by the mortgage, or the amount of the NSW limit, whichever is less.
- (3) The NSW proportion of all advances secured by the mortgage is to be calculated in the same manner as the dutiable proportion under section 216, but as if "AS" in the formula were the amount of advances secured by all instruments of security in the mortgage package at the liability date.

- (4) If a mortgage package assessed as one mortgage under section 217 has an Australian limit, mortgage duty is to be assessed on the mortgage as if the amount secured by the mortgage were the NSW proportion of the Australian limit.
- (5) The NSW proportion of the Australian limit is to be calculated in the same manner as the dutiable proportion under section 216, but as if “AS” in the formula were the amount of the Australian limit and “T” excluded the value of all property outside Australia.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, a mortgage package has a NSW limit if the instruments of security comprising the package affect property partly within and partly outside New South Wales and, disregarding section 216, the amount secured by those instruments over property wholly within New South Wales is a definite and limited sum. In such a case, the amount of the NSW limit is taken to be that definite and limited sum.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, a mortgage package has an Australian limit if the instruments of security comprising the package affect property partly within Australia and partly outside Australia, disregarding section 216, the amount secured by those instruments over property wholly within Australia is a definite and limited sum, and that amount is a single amount that applies in respect of all property within Australia that is affected by the mortgage. In such a case, the amount of the Australian limit is taken to be that definite and limited sum.

Note—

The provisions relating to mortgage packages with an Australian limit do not apply to mortgage packages that specify separate limits in relation to property in different States or Territories (eg $10 million for NSW, $10 million for Victoria).

- (8) A mortgage package that has a NSW limit and that does not affect property in Australia that is outside New South Wales, but does affect property outside Australia, is not to be treated as a mortgage package that has an Australian limit.

218 Stamping before advance

- (1) A mortgage may be stamped before an advance whether or not an earlier advance has been made.
- (2) If a mortgage referred to in section 216 or 217 is stamped before an advance has been made:
 - (a) the liability date for the mortgage is, for the purpose of determining a referable point for the mortgage, taken to be the date of stamping, and
 - (b) the mortgage may be stamped only for an amount of an advance secured by the mortgage that does not exceed the value of the property affected by the mortgage at the date of the referable point.

- (3) This section does not apply in respect of a mortgage if the amount of advances secured by the mortgage is a definite and limited sum.

218A Security

- (1) A stamped mortgage or a collateral mortgage that was, but is no longer, part of the same mortgage package and no longer secures the same money secured by that package is not security for any other advance unless duty in respect of the other advance has been paid.
- (2) The withdrawal of a mortgage from a mortgage package will not, for the purposes of this Chapter, affect the amount for which the remaining mortgage or mortgages are security.

218B Collateral mortgage

- (1) Duty is not chargeable on the date of its first execution on the amount or part of the amount secured by a collateral mortgage that is the same money as is secured by:
- (a) a mortgage or instrument of security that is duly stamped under this Act, subject to section 218BA, or stamped under a corresponding Act, or
 - (b) a mortgage package that has been duly stamped under this Act, subject to section 218BA, or stamped as a mortgage package under a corresponding Act.
- (1A) However, if at the time an advance or a further advance is made under a mortgage, instrument of security or mortgage package referred to in subsection (1) no such mortgage or mortgage package has been duly stamped under this Act (this section excepted), the collateral mortgage ceases to be a collateral mortgage for the purposes of this section and is chargeable with duty under this Act otherwise than as a collateral mortgage.
- (2) If the same money is secured, or partly secured, by 2 or more mortgages, at least one of which is a mortgage that is exempt from duty under a corresponding Act because it effects a refinancing (an exempt mortgage) and at least one of which is a collateral mortgage that is chargeable with duty under this Act:
- (a) the duty chargeable on the collateral mortgage (or, if there is more than one collateral mortgage, on one of them) is to be reduced by the amount of duty from which the exempt mortgage is exempt under the corresponding Act (subject to subsection (3)), and
 - (b) each collateral mortgage, other than the collateral mortgage referred to in paragraph (a), is chargeable with the minimum duty for collateral mortgages.

- (3) A collateral mortgage is chargeable with a minimum duty of $10.
- (4) A collateral mortgage that no longer secures an amount secured by a mortgage, instrument or mortgage package referred to in subsection (1), or by an exempt mortgage referred to in subsection (2), is not security for another advance unless mortgage duty for the amount of the other advance is paid.

218BA Collateral mortgages—anti-avoidance measure

- (1) Section 218B (1) does not apply if a collateral mortgage secures the same money as is secured by a mortgage or instrument of security, or mortgage package, stamped under a corresponding Act and the rate of mortgage duty charged under the corresponding Act in respect of the amount secured is a reduced rate.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, mortgage duty is charged at a reduced rate if the rate of mortgage duty charged in respect of the amount secured under the corresponding Act is less than the rate that would have applied under that Act if the mortgage or instrument had been charged with mortgage duty in respect of the same amount secured immediately before 1 July 2006.
- (3) If the rate of mortgage duty charged under the corresponding Act in respect of the amount secured is a reduced rate, the collateral mortgage and the stamped mortgages or instruments are to be assessed under this Part as if they comprised a mortgage package first executed on the day the collateral mortgage was first executed.
- (4) If, as a consequence of subsection (3), the total of the amount of mortgage duty charged in respect of the amount secured under this Act and the amount of mortgage duty charged in respect of the amount secured under the corresponding Act exceeds the maximum amount, the duty chargeable in respect of the collateral mortgage under this Act is to be reduced by the amount necessary to ensure that the total mortgage duty charged under this Act and the corresponding Act does not exceed the maximum amount.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, the maximum amount is the amount of mortgage duty that would be chargeable in respect of the amount secured by the collateral mortgage if the mortgage were not a collateral mortgage.
- (6) Despite section 217 (5), the collateral mortgage is to be stamped with the mortgage duty paid in New South Wales, and the instruments stamped under the corresponding Act are not required to be stamped under this Act.

Note—

In NSW, mortgage duty is to be abolished on 1 July 2009. Other States are reducing and abolishing mortgage duty on different dates. The purpose of this section is to prevent the use of a mortgage that is collateral to a mortgage that has been stamped in a jurisdiction where duty has already been reduced to avoid mortgage duty in NSW.

218C Multi-jurisdictional statement

(1) If mortgage duty is imposed on the dutiable proportion of a mortgage (whether for a mortgage over property not wholly in New South Wales, a mortgage package or on initial or subsequent advances), the mortgagor and mortgagee must, within 3 months after the liability arises:

(a) make a written statement, in an approved form, about the location and value of the secured property, and

(b) lodge the statement with the Chief Commissioner.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

(2) The making and lodging of a statement under subsection (1) by either the mortgagor or the mortgagee relieves the other person from complying with that subsection.

(3) The statement may be taken to be the mortgage, or mortgages comprising the mortgage package.

Part 3 Duty concessions

219 Additional advances of not more than $10,000 in 12 months

Duty is not chargeable on additional advances secured by or under a mortgage if the total of the additional advances so secured does not exceed $10,000 in any 12-month period, not being the period of 12 months following the making of the initial advance.

220 Refinancing of loans

(1) In this section:

land used for aquaculture means land subject to an aquaculture permit (within the meaning of the Fisheries Management Act 1994).

refinancing mortgage means a mortgage that:

(a) secures the amount of the balance outstanding under an earlier mortgage that is discharged or to be discharged as part of the arrangements for the new mortgage, and

(b) is created to secure an advance to the same borrower as under the earlier mortgage, and

(c) is over the same or substantially the same property or part of the property as the earlier mortgage.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), mortgages are created to secure an advance to the same borrower if, either directly by the mortgages themselves or indirectly through one or more collateral arrangements, the same person obtains the advances secured by them.

- (3) A refinancing mortgage is taken to have been stamped with ad valorem duty as a mortgage in respect of the duty-free refinancing amount, except as provided by subsection (5).
- (3A) For the purposes of this section, the duty-free refinancing amount is the lesser of the following amounts:
- (a) the maximum amount payable under or secured by the earlier mortgage (being an amount in relation to which mortgage duty has been paid or in relation to which an exemption from duty has been obtained),
 - (b) $1,000,000.
- (3B) However, if the refinancing mortgage is over land used for primary production or land used for aquaculture, the duty-free refinancing amount is the maximum amount payable under or secured by the earlier mortgage (being an amount in relation to which mortgage duty has been paid or in relation to which an exemption from duty has been obtained).

Note—

“Land used for primary production” is defined in the Dictionary.

- (4) If an advance is refinanced by more than one lender, so that mortgages given to the lenders together secure the balance outstanding under an earlier mortgage, the definition of refinancing mortgage in subsection (1) is to be construed as though:
- (a) the reference to a mortgage securing the outstanding balance were a reference to the aggregate of such mortgages, and
 - (b) the reference to property were a reference to the property securing the aggregate of refinancing advances made by the lenders under their combined mortgages, to the intent that, if the requirements of the definition, as so construed, are satisfied, each lender is taken, for the purposes of this section, to be the holder of a refinancing mortgage.
- (5) If, as provided by subsection (4), each of a number of lenders is the holder of a refinancing mortgage, a refinancing mortgage held by each lender is taken to have been duly stamped with ad valorem duty as a mortgage in respect of an amount equal to the same proportion of the duty-free refinancing amount as the amount secured by that mortgage bears to the total amount secured by the refinancing mortgages held by all the lenders.
- (6) If each of two or more refinancing mortgages severally secures the same advance:
- (a) the provisions of subsection (3) or (5), as the case may be, apply to such one of the mortgages as the Chief Commissioner determines, and

(b) no duty is chargeable in respect of any of the others.

(7) (Repealed)

(8) Duty at the rate of $4 per $1,000 or remaining part of $1,000 is payable on the amount by which the advance made under a refinancing mortgage (not being a mortgage on which, by virtue of subsection (6) (b), no duty is chargeable) exceeds:

(a) the duty-free refinancing amount, or

(b) the proportion of that amount referred to in subsection (5), in the case of a refinancing to which subsection (4) applies.

(8A) If a borrower is a related body corporate of a borrower under an earlier mortgage, the firstmentioned borrower is taken to be the same borrower or the same person for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2).

(9) If a borrower under an earlier mortgage dies, or is a party to a marriage that has been dissolved or annulled or, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, has broken down irretrievably or is party to a de facto relationship that, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, has been terminated, the remaining borrower is, or the remaining borrowers are, taken to be the same borrower or the same person for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2).

(10) A party to a marriage or de facto relationship may provide a statement to the Chief Commissioner, in the form of a statutory declaration, to the effect that:

(a) in the case of a marriage:

(i) the party intends to apply for a dissolution or an annulment of the marriage, or

(ii) the parties to the marriage have separated, and there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed, or

(b) in the case of a de facto relationship, the de facto relationship has been terminated.

The Chief Commissioner is required to have regard to any such statement in exercising his or her functions under subsection (9).

(11) Subsection (10) does not limit the functions of the Chief Commissioner under section 72 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

221 Eligible mortgages under First Home Plus

(1) Duty is payable in accordance with the following paragraphs on an advance secured by an eligible mortgage under Division 1 of Part 8 of Chapter 2 or a mortgage in support of such an eligible mortgage, but only to the extent that the amount of the advances qualifies under section 77 (3) or (4):

(a) if the property has a private dwelling built on it:

Dutiable value of dutiable property subject to the agreement or transfer	Discount on duty
Not more than $500,000	100%
More than $500,000 but not more than $535,000	75%
More than $535,000 but not more than $565,000	50%
More than $565,000 but less than $600,000	25%

(b) if the property comprises a vacant block of residential land:

Dutiable value of dutiable property subject to the agreement or transfer	Discount on duty
Not more than $300,000	100%
More than $300,000 but not more than $350,000	75%
More than $350,000 but not more than $400,000	50%
More than $400,000 but less than $450,000	25%

(2) For the purpose of assessing any further advances secured by such a mortgage, duty is taken to have been paid on the amount of advances to which subsection (1) applies.

(3) This section does not prevent section 221B from applying in respect of a mortgage.

Note—

Section 221B extends a general mortgage duty exemption to all mortgages associated with owner occupied housing, and takes effect on and from 1 September 2007.

- (3A) The obligation to lodge a statutory declaration in July each year ceases after July 2003.
- (3B) Section 208 (2) applies in respect of a mortgage referred to in subsection (2), or a collateral mortgage that secures the same money as is secured by a mortgage referred to in subsection (2), if an advance or further advance is made on or after the debenture concession closure date, as if the reference to the amount secured by the mortgage at the time a liability to duty last arose were a reference to the total of:
- (a) the disclosed debenture amount, and
 - (b) any advances or further advances made on or after the cut-off date in respect of which duty has been paid under this Chapter.
- (3C) For the purposes of the application of section 213 (2) or 214 (2) to such a mortgage (and the application of section 218B to any collateral mortgage that secures the same money as the mortgage), duty is taken to have been paid, and the mortgage is taken to have been duly stamped, for the following amount or amounts:

(b) a person who is a party to arrangements (referred to in section 215) relating to such an advance or further advance, the transferred mortgage is taken, for the purpose of determining its liability to duty under this Act, to be a new mortgage on which no duty has been paid and is liable to duty in respect of the advance or further advance accordingly.

- (2) The date of first execution of the transferred mortgage is taken to be:
 - (a) in the case of a mortgage where the advance or further advance was made in connection with the transfer—the date of first execution of the transfer, and
 - (b) in the case of a mortgage where the advance or further advance was made at a later time—the date of the first such advance or further advance.
- (3) If an insufficient amount of duty has been paid on a mortgage to which this section applies before it is taken by this section to be a new mortgage, the Chief Commissioner is not prevented from recovering at any time the amount of duty with which, in the Chief Commissioner's opinion, the mortgage was properly chargeable from the mortgagor or person bound.
- (4) This section does not apply to the following:
 - (a) a mortgage referred to in section 220 (3B),

 - (d) a transfer of a mortgage from a person who holds the mortgage as trustee for another person to a new trustee appointed in substitution for the former trustee.

- (6) For the purposes of section 218B (1), a transferred mortgage is not considered to have been duly stamped in respect of any duty paid before the transfer on advances made before the transfer.

228 Stamping counterpart or collateral instrument if mortgage is lost, destroyed or cannot be produced

A counterpart of a mortgage or a collateral security for an amount secured by a mortgage is taken to be the mortgage and may accordingly be stamped or upstamped for mortgage duty purposes if, on application by or on behalf of a person who is a party to the mortgage, the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the mortgage has been lost or destroyed or, because of being deposited in the Land Titles Office or from other reasonable cause, cannot conveniently be produced.

Chapter 8 Insurance

Part 1 General insurance

229 Imposition of duty

- (1) This Part charges duty on the amount of the premium paid in relation to a contract of insurance that effects general insurance (whether or not it also effects other kinds of insurance).
- (2) The amount of duty is required to be paid each time a premium is paid in relation to a contract of insurance that effects general insurance.

Notes—

- (1) General insurance is defined in section 230.
- (2) Premium is defined in section 231.
- (3) The time at which a premium is paid is determined by section 232.
- (4) Generally, the insurer to whom the premium is paid is the person liable to pay the duty. But there are circumstances in which the person insured is liable to pay the duty. These circumstances are set out in section 236.
- (5) To facilitate payment of duty, insurers must register themselves with the Chief Commissioner, submit a monthly return showing the total amount of premiums paid to them for general insurance during the preceding month and pay the appropriate amount of duty when submitting the return. The provisions that deal with this are in Part 3.

230 What is “general insurance”?

- (1) General insurance is any kind of insurance that is applicable to:
 - (a) property in New South Wales, or
 - (b) a risk, contingency or event concerning an act or omission that, in the normal course of events, may occur within, or partly within, New South Wales,or both.

- (2) Premium includes a fire service levy paid or payable in connection with insurance by an insurer or any other person.
- (3) Premium does not include:

- (a) an amount paid to an insurance intermediary by the insured person as a fee, provided that the amount can be clearly identified as a fee, or
 - (b) an amount of duty under this or a corresponding Act.
- (4) It is immaterial where the amount is paid or where the insurance is effected.

232 When is a premium “paid”?

- (1) A premium, or an instalment of a premium, is paid for the purposes of this Chapter when the first of the following events occurs:
- (a) the premium or instalment is received by the insurer, or
 - (b) an account of the insurer is credited with the amount of the premium or instalment.
- (2) A premium or instalment of a premium (apart from the case where the premium or instalment is received directly by an insurer) is taken to have been received by an insurer if it is received by another person on the insurer’s behalf.

233 Types of general insurance

- (1) For the purpose of charging duty, general insurance is divided into 3 types, Type A insurance, Type B insurance and Type C insurance.
- (2) Type A insurance is general insurance other than Type B insurance or Type C insurance.

(2A) Type B insurance is:

- (a) motor vehicle insurance, being insurance covering any one or more of the following:
 - (i) the loss (including the loss by theft) of a motor vehicle,

This may be done by inspecting the register kept under section 252 by the Chief Commissioner.
