Building Professionals Amendment Act 2008 No 37

New South Wales

An Act to amend the Building Professionals Act 2005 in relation to the accreditation of accredited certifiers and other building professionals, the investigation of complaints and the taking of disciplinary action; and for other purposes.

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Building Professionals Amendment Act 2008.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Amendment of Building Professionals Act 2005 No 115

The Building Professionals Act 2005 is amended as set out in Schedules 1 and 2.

4 Repeal of Act

(1) This Act is repealed on the day following the day on which all of the provisions of this Act have commenced.

(2) The repeal of this Act does not, because of the operation of section 30 of the Interpretation Act 1987, affect any amendment made by this Act.

Schedule 1 Principal amendments

(Section 3)

[1]-[3] (Repealed)

[4] Section 5 Applications for accreditation

Omit "(other than a body corporate)" from section 5 (1).

[5] Section 5 (1A)

Insert after section 5 (1):

(1A) An application for accreditation to carry out certification work only on behalf of a particular council may not be made except on the recommendation of that council.

[6] Section 5 (3) (b)

Insert “in the case of an applicant who is an individual,” before “that the applicant”.

[7] Section 5 (4)

Insert after section 5 (3):

(4) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the making of recommendations by councils for the purposes of subsection (1A), including the form and manner of making such recommendations and the matters that are to be taken into account when making any such recommendation.

[8] Section 5A

Insert after section 5:

5A Classes of certificate of accreditation

(1) The Board may issue the following classes of certificate of accreditation:

- (a) a certificate of corporate accreditation as an accredited certifier which may only be issued to a body corporate that has at least one director who is an accredited certifier and has as directors or employs at least 2 other persons who are accredited certifiers,
- (b) a certificate of individual accreditation as an accredited certifier which may only be issued to an individual,
- (c) a certificate of individual accreditation as a building professional which may only be issued to an individual.

(2) The regulations may provide that different categories of certificate of individual accreditation may be issued by the Board.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the regulations may prescribe one or more categories of individual accreditation in relation to persons who carry out certification work only on behalf of councils.

[9] Section 6 Determination of application for accreditation

Insert “individual” before “accreditation” where firstly occurring in section 6 (2).

[10] (Repealed)

[11] Section 6A

Insert after section 6:

6A Accreditation of persons to carry out certification work only on behalf of councils

- (1) When determining an application under section 6 for the issue or renewal of accreditation of a person to carry out certification work only on behalf of a particular council, the Board must not refuse to issue or renew the accreditation on a ground referred to in section 7 (1) (b) or (d) unless the Board has information that gives it reason to believe that it should refuse the application on that ground.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) requires the Board to make inquiries to satisfy itself as to any of the matters referred to in section 7 (1) (b) or (d) before granting the application concerned.

[12] Section 7 Grounds for refusal of accreditation

Insert "individual" before "accreditation" where firstly occurring in section 7 (1).

[13] Section 7 (1A)

Insert after section 7 (1):

- (1A) The Board may refuse to issue or renew a certificate of corporate accreditation:
- (a) if the body corporate concerned does not have at least one director who is an accredited certifier and does not have as directors or employ at least 2 other persons who are accredited certifiers, or
 - (b) if the body corporate does not comply with a requirement under section 5 (3) (a), or
 - (c) if the Board is not satisfied that the body corporate is covered by the insurance required by Division 2 of Part 6 or can obtain such insurance, or
 - (d) if the Board is not satisfied that a director of, or a person concerned in the management of, the body corporate is a fit and proper person, or
 - (e) if the body corporate's equivalent authorisation has been suspended or cancelled (otherwise than at its request) under the law of another jurisdiction, or
 - (f) if the body corporate or a director of, or a person concerned in the management of, the body corporate has contravened a law (whether or not a New South Wales law, and whether or not the contravention is an offence) that relates to the functions or obligations of a person as an accredited certifier or the holder of an equivalent authorisation or involves fraud or dishonesty, or

- (g) if the body corporate or a director of, or a person concerned in the management of, the body corporate has failed to comply with a statutory or other duty, or a contractual obligation, imposed on the body corporate, director or person by or in accordance with a law (whether or not a New South Wales law) that relates to the functions or obligations of a person as an accredited certifier or the holder of an equivalent authorisation, or
- (h) if a director of, or a person concerned in the management of, the body corporate is an undischarged bankrupt, or
- (i) if the body corporate is the subject of a winding up order or a controller or administrator has been appointed in respect of it, or
- (j) if the body corporate has represented itself as being an accredited certifier when it was not an accredited certifier, or
- (k) if the body corporate has contravened any code of conduct in the accreditation scheme, or
- (l) for such other reasons as may be prescribed by the regulations.

[14] Section 8 Suspension or cancellation of accreditation

Omit “as an accredited certifier” from section 8 (1).

[15] Section 8 (1) (a)

Insert “in the case of a certificate of individual accreditation,” before “the person”.

[16] Section 8 (2)

Omit “certificate of accreditation as an accredited certifier”.

Insert instead “certificate of individual accreditation”.

[17] Section 8 (2) (b1)

Insert after section 8 (2) (b):

- (b1) it is a condition of the certificate of accreditation that the person may carry out certification work only as an employee of a particular council and the person has ceased to be so employed or has ceased to be employed in a position that includes the function of carrying out such work, or

[18] (Repealed)

[19] Section 8 (2A)

Insert after section 8 (2):

(2A) The Board may suspend or cancel a certificate of corporate accreditation if:

- (a) the body corporate concerned has been issued a certificate of accreditation on the basis of a misrepresentation made by the body corporate, or a person concerned in the management of the body corporate, whether or not made knowingly, or
- (b) the body corporate does not have at least one director who is an accredited certifier or does not have as directors or employ at least 2 other persons who are accredited certifiers, or
- (c) the Board is satisfied that the body corporate is not covered by the insurance required by Division 2 of Part 6, or
- (d) the body corporate's equivalent authorisation has been suspended or cancelled (otherwise than at its request) under the law of another jurisdiction, or
- (e) the Board is of the opinion that a person concerned in the management of the body corporate is not a fit and proper person, or
- (f) a director of, or a person concerned in the management of, the body corporate is an undischarged bankrupt, or
- (g) a disciplinary finding under Part 3 has been made against an accredited certifier director of the body corporate, or
- (h) the body corporate is the subject of a winding up order or a controller or administrator has been appointed in respect of it, or
- (i) the body corporate, or an accredited certifier who is a director or employee of the body corporate, has failed to comply with an order of the Board under section 31.

[20] (Repealed)

[21] Section 11 Register

Omit "category" from section 11 (2) (c).

Insert instead "class and, if applicable, category".

[22]-[32] (Repealed)

[33] Section 45

Omit the section. Insert instead:

45 Investigation of councils acting as certifying authorities

- (1) The Board may investigate the work and activities of a council in its capacity as a certifying authority.
- (2) The Board may make a decision to undertake an investigation under this section on its own motion or following a complaint relating to the council concerned in its capacity as a certifying authority.
- (3) The Board must prepare a report of the results of any such investigation and send a copy of the report to the Director-General of the Department of Local Government and to the council.
- (4) A report furnished to the council under this section must be presented at the next meeting of the council after the report is received.
- (5) Within 40 days after it receives a report under this section, a council must give written notice to the Director-General of the Department of Local Government and to the Board of the things done or proposed to be done to give effect to any recommendations contained in the report and may make submissions in relation to any matter contained in the report.
- (6) The Board must take into account any submissions received in accordance with subsection (5) and may revise its report.
- (7) If the Board revises its report, the Board must send a copy of the revised report to the Director-General of the Department of Local Government and to the council.
- (8) The Board is to make a copy of its report in its final form publicly available.
- (9) If satisfied, as a result of an investigation under this section, that an accreditation holder is or may be guilty of unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct, the Board may take any action under Part 3 in relation to any matter arising from the report that it could take in relation to a complaint, including applying to the Tribunal for a disciplinary finding in accordance with section 31.
- (10) The Tribunal may take any action under Division 5 of Part 3 in relation to a matter arising from the report that is referred to the Tribunal by the Board that it could take in relation to a complaint.

Note—

Section 117B of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 provides for further action that may be taken against a council as a result of an investigation under section 45 of this Act.

[34] Section 46 Investigation of accredited certifiers and building professionals

Omit section 46 (1) and (2). Insert instead:

- (1) The Board may investigate the work and activities of:
 - (a) an accredited certifier in his, her or its capacity as a certifying authority, or
 - (b) an accredited certifier when carrying out certification work on behalf of an accredited body corporate or a council, or
 - (c) an accredited certifier director, or
 - (d) a building professional.
- (2) The Board must prepare a report of the results of any such investigation.

[35] (Repealed)

[36] Section 60

Omit the section. Insert instead:

60 Record keeping by accreditation holders

- (1) An accreditation holder must, in accordance with the regulations, cause such documents and records to be kept as are prescribed by the regulations.
Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.
- (2) If the Board requests, by notice in writing served on an accreditation holder, that the accreditation holder provide a copy to the Board of any document or record required to be kept under subsection (1):
 - (a) the accreditation holder must provide a copy of the document or record to the Board within the time specified in the notice, and
 - (b) the accreditation holder must verify any such document or record in the manner, if any, specified in the notice.
Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), a notice may specify that a document or record is to be verified by statutory declaration.

[37] Section 61 Board to be notified of certain events

Insert after section 61 (3):

- (4) An accredited body corporate must notify the Board in writing of each of the following events within 7 days after becoming aware of the event:
 - (a) if the body corporate ceases to have at least one director who is an accredited certifier,
 - (b) if the body corporate ceases to have as directors or employ at least 2 other persons who are accredited certifiers.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

[38] Section 66 Conflicts of interest

Omit section 66 (3). Insert instead:

- (3) Subsection (1) (d) does not make it an offence for an accredited certifier who is an employee of a council to issue a Part 4A certificate in relation to development that is to be carried out in the area of the council if:
 - (a) the certificate relates to development for which the council is not the consent authority, and
 - (b) the accredited certifier issues the certificate otherwise than on behalf of the council, but in the course of his or her employment with the council.
- (3A) Subsection (1) (d) does not make it an offence for an accredited certifier employed or engaged by a council to issue a Part 4A certificate or complying development certificate on behalf of the council in relation to development that is to be carried out in the area of the council.

[39] Section 66 (5) and (6)

Insert after section 66 (4):

- (5) Subsection (1) extends to prohibiting an accredited certifier who is a director of or employed by an accredited body corporate from issuing a Part 4A certificate or complying development certificate in circumstances where the body corporate, or another accredited certifier who is a director or employee of the body corporate, would be prohibited from issuing the certificate under that subsection.
- (6) If a director or employee of an accredited body corporate contravenes subsection (1), the body corporate is taken to have also contravened that subsection.

[40] Sections 66A and 66B

Insert after section 66:

66A Limit on income derived from certification work

- (1) An accredited certifier must not obtain income for certification work in respect of development if that income exceeds the limit determined in accordance with the regulations when it is added to any other income obtained by the accredited certifier for certification work in respect of other development where the same person was involved as the owner, principal contractor or person who engages the principal contractor.

Maximum penalty: 300 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the income that the accredited certifier concerned obtains by carrying out certification work on behalf of a council or as an employee of an accredited body corporate.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the following:
 - (a) the way in which any limit is to be determined for the purposes of subsection (1),
 - (b) without limiting paragraph (a), providing for any such limit to be determined by reference to the total amount of income derived during a specified period,
 - (c) what constitutes income for the purposes of this section,
 - (d) the granting of exemptions by the Board (with or without conditions) from all or any of the provisions of this section or the regulations made for the purposes of this section.

66B Limit on issue of development certificates by employed accredited certifiers

- (1) An accredited certifier who is employed or engaged by a council or is employed by an accredited body corporate must not, in the course of being so employed or engaged, issue more development certificates than the number prescribed by the regulations in respect of development that involves the same owner, principal contractor or person who engages the principal contractor.

Maximum penalty: 300 penalty units.

- (2) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the following:
 - (a) providing for the number referred to in subsection (1) to be determined by reference to the total number of development certificates issued during a specified period,

- (b) the granting of exemptions by the Board (with or without conditions) from all or any of the provisions of this section or the regulations made for the purposes of this section.

[41] Part 6, Division 3A

Insert after Division 3 of Part 6:

Division 3A Approval required for certain certification work

71A Accredited certifier to obtain approval before undertaking certain certification work

- (1) An accredited certifier must not, without first obtaining the written approval of the Board, carry out certification work in relation to development of a type prescribed by the regulations if the person for whom the development is carried out, or a contractor or other person carrying out the development, is a prescribed person.
- (2) An accredited certifier must comply with any conditions imposed on the approval by the Board.
- (3) The Board may refuse to grant approval under this section and must refuse in the circumstances prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) A contravention of this section by an accredited certifier is capable of being professional misconduct or unsatisfactory professional conduct.
- (5) Subsection (1) does not require the accredited certifier concerned to obtain the written approval of the Board for the carrying out of certification work as an employee of an accredited body corporate so long as the accredited body corporate has obtained that approval.
- (6) This section does not apply to the following:
 - (a) certification work carried out by an accredited certifier as an employee of a council,
 - (b) certification work of a kind referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of certification work in section 3 (1).
- (7) In this section, prescribed person means a person included on a list kept by the Board under section 71B.

71B List of prescribed persons

- (1) The Board may keep a list of prescribed persons for the purposes of section 71A and is to make that list available on request.
- (2) The Board may include a person on the list only in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) The Board must give notice in writing to a person of its intention to include the person on the list.
- (4) The notice must include:
 - (a) the reasons why the Board is of the opinion that the person should be included on the list, and
 - (b) a statement that the person may make submissions to the Board within the period of 14 days after receipt of the notice as to why the person should not be included on the list.
- (5) The Board is to consider any submissions made to it during that 14-day period.
- (6) If, after considering any submissions, the Board determines to include the person on the list, the Board is to give the person notice in writing of its decision.
- (7) The Board may remove a person from the list at any time.
- (8) If the Board removes a person from the list, it must give notice in writing to the person of the person's removal from the list.

71C Exclusion of liability of the State and others

- (1) This section applies to civil proceedings for damages or other compensation brought against the State, the Board, a member of the Board, the Director, a member of a committee appointed under this Act or a person acting under the direction of the Board or the Director.
- (2) No amount of damages or other compensation is payable in any such civil proceedings to the extent that:
 - (a) the claim is made in connection with the exercise of any functions under this Division, and
 - (b) the claim is based on alleged negligence or other breach of duty (including statutory duty) arising because of the exercise of, or the failure to exercise, any function under this Division.

[42] Sections 72-72C

Omit section 72. Insert instead:

72 Acting in a manner not authorised by certificate of individual accreditation

A person who is the holder of a certificate of individual accreditation must not do any thing that is required by law to be done by a person with accreditation under this Act unless the person's certificate of accreditation authorises the doing of that thing.

Maximum penalty: 300 penalty units.

72A Responsibilities of accredited certifier directors

- (1) An accredited certifier director of an accredited body corporate must ensure the following in relation to certification work undertaken by the body corporate:
 - (a) that the body corporate complies with the requirements of this and any other Act in the carrying out of the certification work and that appropriate management systems are in place to ensure that the body corporate complies with those requirements,
 - (b) that the certification work is allocated to, and undertaken by, a director or an employee of the body corporate who is the holder of a certificate of accreditation that authorises the holder to carry out that work,
 - (c) that the person for whom the certification work is undertaken is kept informed as to the identity of the individual accredited certifier who is undertaking the work.

Maximum penalty: 300 penalty units.

- (2) An accredited certifier director of an accredited body corporate has a duty to report to the Board any possible unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct of the body corporate or another director or employee of the body corporate who is an accredited certifier as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the conduct.
- (3) A contravention of subsection (2) by an accredited certifier director is capable of being unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct.
- (4) If there is more than one accredited certifier director of a body corporate, this section applies equally to each of those directors.

72B Responsibilities of person with individual accreditation acting on behalf of accredited body corporate or council

A person who holds a certificate of individual accreditation and who is a director of, or employed by, an accredited body corporate or a council:

- (a) is not excused from compliance with any of the person's obligations under this or any other Act in relation to any certification work done by the person on behalf of or in the name of the body corporate or council, and
- (b) is subject to the same requirements in relation to the carrying out of the functions of a certifying authority on behalf of the council or the accredited body corporate as if he or she were the certifying authority.

72C Requirements of accredited body corporate

- (1) An accredited body corporate must ensure that any certification work that is done in the name of or on behalf of the body corporate is done by a director or employee of the body corporate who is the holder of a certificate of individual accreditation that authorises the director or employee to do that certification work.

Maximum penalty: 1,000 penalty units.

- (2) A reference in subsection (1) to certification work that is done in the name of or on behalf of a body corporate includes a reference to certification work done in the name of or on behalf of a council that has engaged the body corporate to undertake that work in its name or on its behalf.
- (3) An accredited body corporate must not undertake any certification work during any period in which it does not have at least one director who is an accredited certifier.

Maximum penalty: 1,000 penalty units.

- (4) If an accredited body corporate has failed, for a continuous period of 3 months, to have as directors or employ at least 3 persons who are accredited certifiers, the accredited body corporate must not undertake any certification work until it has as directors or employs at least 3 persons who are accredited certifiers and has notified the Board in writing of that fact.

Maximum penalty: 1,000 penalty units.

[43] (Repealed)

[44] Part 6A

Insert after Part 6:

Part 6A Requirements relating to councils

74A Responsibilities of councils carrying out certification work

A council must ensure that any certification work of a class prescribed by the regulations that is done in the name of or on behalf of the council is done by an accredited body corporate or an accredited certifier who is the holder of a certificate of individual accreditation that authorises the holder to do that certification work.

Maximum penalty: 1,000 penalty units.

74B Councils to provide certain information and keep certain records

- (1) A council is to provide to the Board such information as is required by the regulations in relation to employees, or persons engaged by the council, who perform certification work on behalf of the council.
- (2) A council is to keep such records as are required by the regulations in relation to certification work carried out on behalf of the council and in relation to employees, or persons engaged by the council, who carry out certification work on behalf of the council.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the following:
 - (a) the provision of information by councils under this section, including when such information is to be provided and the form in which it is to be provided,
 - (b) the keeping of records by councils under this section, including the form in which such records are to be kept and the period for which they are to be kept.
- (4) The Board may keep a register based on any of the information received under this section and may make that register available to the public.

74C Exemptions

- (1) The Board may, with the approval of the Minister, exempt a council by notice in writing given to the council from any of the requirements of this Part or section 109E (1AA) of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979.
- (2) The approval of the Minister under subsection (1):
 - (a) may be given in relation to a particular case or a class of cases, and
 - (b) may be subject to conditions, and
 - (c) may be amended from time to time.
- (3) Any exemption given under this section:

- (a) may be limited in time or subject to conditions, or both, and
- (b) may be revoked by the Board by notice in writing given to the council and must be revoked if the relevant approval of the Minister is no longer in force.

[45] Section 84A

Insert after section 84:

84A Improper influence with respect to conduct of building professional

- (1) A building professional must not seek or accept, or offer or agree to accept, any benefit of any kind, whether on his or her own behalf or on behalf of any other person for acting in contravention of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 or the regulations under that Act in the exercise of the functions of a building professional.

Maximum penalty: 10,000 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

- (2) A person must not, on an understanding that a building professional will act in contravention of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 or the regulations under that Act in the exercise of the functions of a building professional, give, or offer or agree to give, any benefit of any kind, whether to the building professional or to any other person.

Maximum penalty: 10,000 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

[46] Section 85 False representations

Omit section 85 (1). Insert instead:

- (1) A person who:
 - (a) issues a Part 4A certificate or complying development certificate, or a design certificate under section 1091A of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979, that the person is not authorised by or under this Act or that Act to issue, or
 - (b) makes any statement that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular in, or in connection with, a certificate referred to in paragraph (a),is guilty of an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty: 300 penalty units.

[47] Section 85 (3)

Insert after section 85 (2):

- (3) A person who falsely represents that he or she holds accreditation under this Act that authorises the doing of something under the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979, the Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973 or the Strata Schemes (Leasehold Development) Act 1986 for which such accreditation is required is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 300 penalty units.

19 Definitions

(1) In this Part:

complaint means a complaint about an accreditation holder made under section 21.

disciplinary finding means a finding of unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct.

professional misconduct, in relation to an accreditation holder, means conduct that is unsatisfactory professional conduct of a sufficiently serious nature to justify suspension or cancellation of the accreditation holder's certificate of accreditation.

unsatisfactory professional conduct of an accredited certifier means any of the following (whether consisting of an act or omission):

- (a) conduct occurring in connection with the exercise of the accredited certifier's functions as a certifying authority that falls short of the standard of competence, diligence and integrity that a member of the public is entitled to expect of a reasonably competent accredited certifier,
- (b) a contravention of this Act, the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979, the Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973 or the Strata Schemes (Leasehold Development) Act 1986, or the regulations under any of those Acts, by the accredited certifier, whether or not he or she is prosecuted or convicted for the contravention,
