18A Condition of fencing

(1) The Commissioner may from time to time, by order in writing, direct that:

(a) the boundaries of any leased land, or any specified part of those boundaries,

or

(b) any specified part or parts of leased land,

be fenced within such period, and with such kind of fencing, as is specified in the order.

- (2) An order under subsection (1) (a) may apportion the costs of complying with the order between the lessee of the leased land concerned and the owner or lessee of any adjoining land along the boundaries of that land.
- (3) The order is to be served on the lessee of the leased land and, in the case of an order that apportions costs as referred to in subsection (2), on the owner or lessee of the adjoining land.
- (4) Each lease is subject to a condition that the lessee will comply with the requirements of any order in force under this section in relation to the fencing of the leased land.
- (5) An order under this section may authorise the erection or use as a boundary fence of any fence that, although not on a boundary, will in the Commissioner's opinion serve the purposes of a boundary fence.
- (6) An appeal lies to a local land board against any order under this section.

Note—

Pursuant to section 26 of the Crown Lands Act 1989, a party to proceedings on an appeal under this section may appeal to the Land and Environment Court against the local land board's decision on the appeal.

18B Recovery of contributions from adjoining landowners

- (1) This section applies in circumstances in which an order under section 18A (1) (a) apportions the costs of complying with the order between two or more persons, as referred to in section 18A (2).
- (2) If, in complying with the order, a person incurs costs in excess of his or her due proportion under the order, the person may recover the excess, as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction, from any other person or persons to whom the order apportions the costs.
- (3) In any proceedings for recovery of such a debt, the certificate of the Commissioner as to the making and contents of the order is evidence of the matters set out in the certificate.

[10] Section 18C Local land board's decision as to fencing

Omit the section.

[11] Part 9C, heading

Omit “and rights of way”. Insert instead “, rights of way and easements”.

[12] Section 35QA

Insert after section 35Q:

35QA Public roads over freehold land

The Minister may create public roads over freehold land by acquiring the land under Part 12 of the Roads Act 1993 and dedicating the land so acquired as a public road under Part 2 of that Act.

[13] Part 9C, Division 3

Insert after Division 2 of Part 9C:

Division 3 Easements to maintain Border Fences

35UA Definitions

In this Division:

Border Fence means the Queensland Border Fence, or the South Australian Border Fence, within the meaning of the Wild Dog Destruction Act 1921.

fenced portion of the State boundary means:

- (a) so much of the boundary between New South Wales and Queensland as extends west from a point at latitude 29° 0' 0" South, longitude 144° 34' 1.6" East, for a distance of approximately 349 kilometres to the intersection of the New South Wales, Queensland and South Australia State boundaries, and
- (b) so much of the boundary between New South Wales and South Australia as extends north from a point at latitude 31° 1' 37.4" South, longitude 141° 0' 0" East, for a distance of approximately 257 kilometres to the intersection of the New South Wales, Queensland and South Australia State boundaries.

fencing easement means an easement created under section 35UB.

Wild Dog Destruction Board means the Wild Dog Destruction Board constituted under the Wild Dog Destruction Act 1921.

35UB Fencing easements to be created

- (1) This section applies to land situated within the prescribed distance of the fenced portion of the State boundary.

- (2) The Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, declare that the following easements are vested in the Wild Dog Destruction Board over land to which this section applies:
 - (a) an easement for repairs in relation to the Border Fences,
 - (b) a right of access in relation to the Border Fences,
 - (c) such other easements as are appropriate to the maintenance of those fences and that right of access.
- (3) The power conferred on the Minister by subsection (2) may only be exercised in relation to freehold land with the consent of each person having an estate or interest in that land.
- (4) On publication of the notice, each easement specified in the notice is vested in the Wild Dog Destruction Board to the extent to which it was not so vested immediately before publication.
- (5) If, by the operation of subsection (4), an easement over land under the provisions of the Real Property Act 1900 becomes vested in the Wild Dog Destruction Board, the Board must forthwith make a request to the Registrar-General under section 46C of the Real Property Act 1900 in relation to the easement.
- (6) On receipt of a request under section 46C of the Real Property Act 1900 in relation to any such easement, the Registrar-General may record, in any folio of the Register kept under that Act for land affected by the creation of the easement, such particulars as the Registrar-General considers appropriate.
- (7) Section 89 of the Conveyancing Act 1919 does not apply to an easement created under this section.
- (8) In this section, prescribed distance means 100 metres or such greater distance (not exceeding 200 metres) as the regulations may specify in relation to the whole or any part of the fenced portion of the State boundary.

35UC Compensation

- (1) A person who has an estate or interest in any freehold land over which a fencing easement is created, or who, but for this Act, would have had such an estate or interest, is entitled to receive compensation from the Crown in respect of the creation of the easement.
- (2) The Land Acquisition (Just Terms Compensation) Act 1991 applies (with such modifications as may be prescribed by the regulations) to the payment of any such compensation as if the creation of the fencing easement were effected by an acquisition notice under that Act.

- (3) If there is any disagreement between the Crown and any person claiming compensation under this section as to the amount of compensation, the claim may be heard and disposed of in accordance with section 24 of the Land and Environment Court Act 1979.
- (4) No compensation is payable to any person in relation to any loss or damage arising from the creation of a fencing easement over land other than freehold land.

35UD Fencing easements may be extinguished

- (1) The Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, declare that any fencing easement that is vested in the Wild Dog Destruction Board is extinguished.
- (2) On publication of the notice, each fencing easement specified in the notice is extinguished to the extent to which it subsisted immediately before publication.
- (3) On receipt of a request under section 46C of the Real Property Act 1900 in relation to any fencing easement extinguished under this section, the Registrar-General may record, in any folio of the Register kept under that Act for land affected by the extinguishment of the easement, such particulars as the Registrar-General considers appropriate.

Note—

For example, it may be necessary to extinguish one easement in order to replace it with another with different terms.

35UE Notice to be given of creation or extinguishment of fencing easements

As soon as practicable after a fencing easement is created or extinguished under this Division, the Minister must cause notice of that fact to be given to each owner (in relation to freehold land) or lessee or licensee (in relation to land other than freehold land) of land affected by the creation or extinguishment of the easement.

35UF Fencing easements not dutiable

No duty is payable under the Duties Act 1997 in respect of the creation or extinguishment of a fencing easement under this Division.

35UG Division not to apply to national parks etc

This Division does not apply to or in respect of land reserved under the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974.

[14] Schedule 2 Applicable provisions of the Crown Lands Act 1989

Insert at the end of the matter under the heading “Part 2 Administration”:

Division 2 (Local land boards)—the whole Division.

[15] Schedule 3 Savings, transitional and other provisions
