[1] Section 11 What is “dutiabale property”?

Insert after section 11 (1) (l):

Note—

In relation to interests in land, see clause 4 of the Dictionary.

[2] Section 146 Meaning of “landholder”

Omit “an unencumbered value” from section 146 (1).

Insert instead “a threshold value”.

[3] Section 146A

Insert after section 146:

146A Threshold value of land holdings

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, the threshold value of the land holdings of a unit trust scheme, private company or listed company is the total value of all land holdings in New South Wales of the unit trust scheme or company.
- (2) For a land holding that consists of an estate in fee simple in land (other than a strata lot), the value of the land holding is the registered land value of the land as at 1 July in the previous year.
- (3) For a land holding that consists of a proportionate interest in an estate in fee simple in land (other than a strata lot), the value of the land holding is the amount determined by applying that proportion to the registered land value of the land as at 1 July in the previous year.
- (4) For a land holding that consists of an estate in fee simple in a strata lot, the value of the land holding is an amount that bears to the registered land value of the relevant parcel (as at 1 July in the previous year) the same proportion as the unit entitlement of the lot bears to the aggregate unit entitlement.
- (5) For a land holding that consists of a proportionate interest in an estate in fee simple in a strata lot, the value of the land holding is the amount determined by applying that proportion to the amount determined under subsection (4).
- (6) The proportionate interests of joint tenants in an estate in fee simple are to be determined as if they were tenants in common in equal shares.
- (7) For any land holding for which a value cannot be obtained under the above provisions, the value of the land holding is the unencumbered value of the land holding, determined in the same way as it is for dutiable property under Chapter 2.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, the registered land value of land (including a parcel) is the land value of the land as entered in the Register of Land Values kept by the Valuer-General under section 14CC of the Valuation of Land Act 1916.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, a strata lot means a lot under the Strata Schemes \(Freehold Development\) Act 1973, and expressions used in this section in relation to such a lot have the same meanings as they do in that Act.

[4] Section 147 What are the “land holdings” of a landholder?

Omit section 147 (2). Insert instead:

- (2) An interest in land is a land holding of a unit trust scheme only to the extent that the interest is held by the trustee of the unit trust scheme in its capacity as trustee of the scheme or by a custodian of the trustee of the unit trust scheme in its capacity as custodian.

[5] Section 147, note

Insert at the end of the section:

Note—

In relation to interests in land, see also clause 4 of the Dictionary.

[6] Section 149 What is a “relevant acquisition”?

Insert “private” after “ceasing to be a” in section 149 (2).

[7] Section 149 (3)-(6)

Insert after section 149 (2):

- (3) If a person who acquires or holds an interest in a landholder is a trustee for 2 or more trusts, any interests in the landholder acquired or held by the person for different trusts are to be treated as if they were acquired or held independently by separate persons.
- (4) If a person who acquires or holds an interest in a landholder is a life company, any interests in the landholder acquired or held by the life company for different statutory funds are to be treated as if they were acquired or held independently by separate persons.
- (5) If a life company acquires or holds an interest in a landholder otherwise than for a statutory fund, that interest is to be treated as if it were acquired or held independently of, and by a separate person to, any interest acquired or held by the life company for a statutory fund.
- (6) In this section:

statutory fund has the meaning given by the Life Insurance Act 1995 of the Commonwealth.

[8] Section 150 What are “interests” and “significant interests” in landholders?

Omit section 150 (1). Insert instead:

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a person has an interest in a landholder if the person, in the event of a distribution of all the property of the landholder, would be entitled to any of the property distributed.

(1A) However, an entitlement that arises merely because a person has a debt interest (within the meaning of Division 974 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 of the Commonwealth) in a landholder, or an interest that would be a debt interest if the landholder were a company for the purposes of that Division, is not an interest in a landholder.

[9] Section 156 How duty is charged on relevant acquisitions—public landholders

Omit “public” where secondly occurring in section 156 (5).

[10] Chapter 4, Part 2A

Insert after Part 2:

Part 2A Charging of duty on acquisitions made by trustees

157A Application of Part

- (1) This Part applies for the purposes of determining liability for duty under this Chapter where a person acquires or holds an interest in a landholder as bare trustee for another person.
- (2) In this Part, a bare trustee includes a custodian.

157B Beneficial owner—meaning

- (1) If a person who acquires or holds an interest in a landholder acquires or holds that interest as bare trustee for another person, the other person is a beneficial owner of that interest in the landholder.
- (2) If a person who is a beneficial owner of an interest in a landholder (whether as a result of subsection (1) or as a result of one or more applications of this subsection) holds that interest as bare trustee for another person, that other person is also a beneficial owner of that interest in the landholder.
- (3) For the purposes of this Part, the ultimate beneficial owner of an interest in a landholder is any beneficial owner of the interest in the landholder who does not hold that interest as bare trustee for another person.

157C Beneficial owners liable for duty on acquisitions in landholders

- (1) Any interest in a landholder that is acquired or held by a person (the legal owner) as bare trustee for another person is taken, for the purposes of this Chapter, to have been acquired by, or to be held by, the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest in the landholder, rather than the legal owner.
- (2) Accordingly, the ultimate beneficial owner of an interest acquired by the legal owner will be liable to lodge an acquisition statement, and to pay any duty chargeable under this Chapter, in respect of any relevant acquisition made as a result of that acquisition by the legal owner.

Note—

For example, A acquires an interest in a landholder as bare trustee for B. A is the legal owner and B is a beneficial owner of the interest in the landholder. B holds that interest as bare trustee for C. As a result, C is also a beneficial owner of the interest in the landholder acquired by A. If C does not hold the interest as bare trustee for another person, C is the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest and will be liable for any duty chargeable on the acquisition.

- (3) For the purpose of determining whether an acquisition is a relevant acquisition, section 149 applies as if a reference to a person who acquires or holds an interest in a landholder were a reference to the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest, rather than the legal owner.
- (4) That is, the acquisition is to be aggregated with other interests held by the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest or an associated person of the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest, rather than with other interests held by the legal owner or associated persons of the legal owner.

[11] Section 158 Constructive ownership of land holdings and other property: linked entities

Omit “if the other person were to be wound up” wherever occurring in section 158 (2) (a) (iii) and (3) (c).

Insert instead “in the event of a distribution of all the property of the person”.

[12] Section 158 (4)

Omit “if each entity in the chain of entities were to be wound up”.

Insert instead “in the event of a distribution of all the property of each entity in the chain of entities”.

[13] Section 161 Agreements for sale or issue of shares or units in landholder

Omit “completion of the agreement” from section 161 (1).

Insert instead “the agreement liability date”.

[14] Section 161 (1) (a)

Omit “from the landholder on a winding up of the landholder (as if the purchase or interest acquired by the person were registered on completion)”.

Insert instead “of the landholder in the event of a distribution of all the property of the landholder (as if the purchase or interest acquired by the person were registered on the agreement liability date)”.

[15] Section 161 (1), note

Omit “when the agreement is completed”.

Insert instead “on the agreement liability date”.

[16] Section 161 (2) and (2A)

Omit section 161 (2). Insert instead:

- (2) The agreement liability date is the date on which the following occurs (whichever occurs first):
- (a) the agreement is completed,
 - (b) the necessary transfer or title documents are delivered to the person acquiring the share or unit,
 - (c) the consideration for the purchase or issue is paid,
 - (d) the period of 12 months beginning on the date of first execution of the agreement, or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may approve, expires.

(2A) If:

- (a) at the time of acquisition of an interest by any person in a landholder that necessitates the lodgment of an acquisition statement under this Chapter, the person was the purchaser or person to whom a unit or share was to be issued under an uncompleted agreement for the purchase or issue of a share or unit in a landholder, and
- (b) the agreement is subsequently rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated without completion, the Chief Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement on the basis that the purchaser or person to whom the unit or share was to be issued did not have an interest in the landholder as a result of the agreement.

[17] Section 162 Valuation of property

Insert “unencumbered” before “value of land holdings” in section 162 (1).

[18] Section 162 (2)

Insert “or goods” after “the land holdings”.

[19] Section 163 Maximisation of entitlements on distribution of property

Omit “, whether on a winding up of the landholder or otherwise” from section 163 (1).

[20] Section 163A General exemptions

Omit section 163A (b). Insert instead:

- (b) if the interest was acquired solely as the result of the making of a compromise or arrangement with creditors under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth that has been approved by a court, or

[21] Section 163I Meaning of expressions used in this Chapter

Insert at the end of the section:

- (2) To avoid doubt, in this Chapter, property includes money, and a reference to a distribution of property includes a reference to the payment of money.

[22] Section 163K Goods of a landholder

Omit section 163K (2). Insert instead:

- (2) For the purposes of this Chapter, goods are goods of a landholder if the landholder has any interest in the goods, other than an interest as mortgagee, chargee or other secured creditor.
- (3) Goods are goods of a unit trust scheme only to the extent that the interest in the goods is held by the trustee of the unit trust scheme in its capacity as trustee of the scheme or by a custodian of the trustee of the unit trust scheme in its capacity as custodian.
- (4) Goods are not goods of a company if the interest the company has in the goods is held on trust and the company is not a beneficiary of the trust.

[23] Schedule 1 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009

[24] Schedule 1, clause 75

Insert after clause 75 (2):

(2A) However, in calculating the duty payable in respect of any acquisition made before 1 July 2009, the unencumbered value of the goods of the landholder in New South Wales is to be disregarded.

(2B) Similarly, in applying section 155 (5) to an acquisition made before 1 July 2009, the value of “A” is to be determined disregarding the unencumbered value of the goods in New South Wales of the landholder.

[25] Schedule 1, clause 77

Insert “made on or after 1 July 2009” after “advance or further advance” in clause 77 (1) (b).

[26] Schedule 1, Part 32

Insert after Part 31:

Part 32 Provisions consequent on enactment of State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009

- (1) The amendments made to Chapter 4 by the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009 apply in respect of an interest in a landholder that is acquired on or after the commencement of Schedule 1 to that Act.
- (2) However, section 163A, as in force immediately before its amendment by the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009, continues to apply in respect of an interest acquired by a person in a landholder if the person’s intention to make the acquisition was announced to the market before the date on which the Bill for the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009 was introduced into the Legislative Assembly.
- (3) The amendments to section 161 made by the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009 apply to agreements first executed on or after the commencement of Schedule 1 to that Act.

81 Liability of beneficial owners for landholder duty

- (1) The landholder liability amendments apply to an interest in a landholder that is acquired on or after the commencement of the amendments.
- (2) If the ultimate beneficial owner of an interest in a landholder acquires an interest in a landholder on or after the commencement of the amendments, an acquisition of an interest in a landholder made before that commencement (a pre-commencement acquisition) that would have been treated as an acquisition made by the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest or an associated person if the landholder liability amendments had been in force at the time that the acquisition was made is to be counted for the purpose of determining whether a relevant acquisition has been made.

- (3) For that purpose, such a pre-commencement acquisition is treated as an acquisition made by the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest or an associated person (as the case requires) and must be disclosed in an acquisition statement by the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest.
- (4) However, a pre-commencement acquisition disclosed in an acquisition statement by the ultimate beneficial owner of an interest in a landholder is an exempt acquisition if, but for subclause (3), the acquisition would not have to be disclosed in that statement.
- (5) Expressions used in this clause have the same meanings as they have in the landholder liability amendments.
- (6) In this clause, the landholder liability amendments means the provisions of Part 2A of Chapter 4, as inserted by the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act \(No 2\) 2009.

10 What are taxable wages

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, taxable wages are wages that are taxable in this jurisdiction.
- (2) However, exempt wages are not taxable wages.

11 Wages that are taxable in this jurisdiction

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, wages are taxable in this jurisdiction if:
 - (a) the wages are paid or payable by an employer for or in relation to services performed by an employee wholly in this jurisdiction, or
 - (b) the wages are paid or payable by an employer for or in relation to services performed by an employee in 2 or more Australian jurisdictions, or partly in one or more Australian jurisdictions and partly outside all Australian jurisdictions, and:
 - (i) the employee is based in this jurisdiction, or
 - (ii) the employer is based in this jurisdiction (in a case where the employee is not based in an Australian jurisdiction), or
 - (iii) the wages are paid or payable in this jurisdiction (in a case where both the employee and the employer are not based in an Australian jurisdiction), or
 - (iv) the wages are paid or payable for services performed mainly in this jurisdiction (in a case where both the employee and the employer are not based in an Australian jurisdiction and the wages are not paid or payable in an Australian jurisdiction), or
 - (c) the wages are paid or payable by an employer for or in relation to services performed by an employee wholly outside all Australian jurisdictions and are paid or payable in this jurisdiction.

Note—

Section 66A provides an exemption for wages paid or payable for services performed wholly in one or more other countries for a continuous period of more than 6 months.

- (2) The question of whether wages are taxable in this jurisdiction is to be determined by reference only to the services performed by the employee in respect of the employer during the month in which the wages are paid or payable, subject to this section.
- (3) Any wages paid or payable by an employer in respect of an employee in a particular month are taken to be paid or payable for or in relation to the services performed by the employee in respect of the employer during that month.

Note—

For example, if wages paid in a month are paid to an employee for services performed over several months, the question of whether the wages are taxable in this jurisdiction is to be determined by reference only to services performed by the employee in the month in which the wages are paid. The services performed in previous months are disregarded. (The services performed in previous months will be relevant to the question of whether wages paid in those previous months are taxable in this jurisdiction.)

- (4) If no services are performed by an employee in respect of an employer during the month in which wages are paid or payable to or in relation to the employee:
 - (a) the question of whether the wages are taxable in this jurisdiction is to be determined by reference only to the services performed by the employee in respect of the employer during the most recent prior month in which the employee performed services in respect of the employer, and
 - (b) the wages are taken to be paid or payable for or in relation to the services performed by the employee in respect of the employer during that most recent prior month.
- (5) If no services were performed by an employee in respect of an employer during the month in which wages are paid or payable to or in relation to the employee or in any prior month:
 - (a) the wages are taken to be paid or payable for or in relation to services performed by the employee in the month in which the wages are paid or payable, and
 - (b) the services are taken to have been performed at a place or places where it may be reasonably expected that the services of the employee in respect of the employer will be performed.

- (6) All amounts of wages paid or payable in the same month by the same employer in respect of the same employee are to be aggregated for the purposes of determining whether they are taxable in this jurisdiction (as if they were paid or payable for all services performed by the employee in the month in which the wages are paid or payable, or the most recent prior month, as the case requires).

Note—

For example, if one amount of wages is paid by an employer in a particular month for services performed in this jurisdiction, and another amount of wages is paid by the same employer in the same month for services performed by the same employee in another Australian jurisdiction, the wages paid are to be aggregated (as if they were paid for all services performed by the employee in that month). Accordingly, subsection (1) (b) would be applied for the purpose of determining whether the wages are taxable in this jurisdiction.

- (7) If wages are paid in a different month from the month in which they are payable, the question of whether the wages are taxable in this jurisdiction is to be determined by reference to the earlier of the relevant months.

11A Jurisdiction in which employee is based

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the jurisdiction in which an employee is based is the jurisdiction in which the employee's principal place of residence is located.
- (2) The jurisdiction in which an employee is based is to be determined by reference to the state of affairs existing during the month in which the relevant wages are paid or payable.
- (3) If more than one jurisdiction would qualify as the jurisdiction in which an employee is based during a month, the jurisdiction in which the employee is based is to be determined by reference to the state of affairs existing on the last day of that month.
- (4) An employee who does not have a principal place of residence is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be an employee who is not based in an Australian jurisdiction.
- (5) In the case of wages paid or payable to a corporate employee, the jurisdiction in which the employee is based is to be determined in accordance with section 11B instead of this section (as if a reference in section 11B to an employer were a reference to an employee).
- (6) In this section, a corporate employee is a company that is taken to be an employee under section 34 or 39 or a company to whom a payment is made that is taken to be wages payable to an employee under section 42 or 47.

11B Jurisdiction in which employer is based

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the jurisdiction in which an employer is based is:
 - (a) the jurisdiction in which the employer's registered business address is located (if the employer has an ABN), or
 - (b) the jurisdiction in which the employer's principal place of business is located (in any other case).
- (2) If wages are paid or payable in connection with a business carried on by an employer under a trust, the employer's registered business address is the registered business address of the trust or, if the trust does not have an ABN, the registered business address of the trustee of the trust.
- (3) If an employer has registered business addresses located in different jurisdictions at the same point in time, the jurisdiction in which the employer is based at that point in time is the jurisdiction in which the employer's principal place of business is located.
- (4) The jurisdiction in which an employer is based is to be determined by reference to the state of affairs existing during the month in which the relevant wages are paid or payable.
- (5) If more than one jurisdiction would qualify as the jurisdiction in which an employer is based during a month, the jurisdiction in which the employer is based is to be determined by reference to the state of affairs existing on the last day of that month.
- (6) An employer who has neither a registered business address nor a principal place of business is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be an employer who is not based in an Australian jurisdiction.

11C Place and date of payment of wages

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, wages are taken to have been paid at a place if, for the purpose of the payment of those wages:
 - (a) an instrument is sent or given or an amount is transferred by an employer to a person or a person's agent at that place, or
 - (b) an instruction is given by an employer for the crediting of an amount to the account of a person or a person's agent at that place.
- (2) The wages are taken to have been paid on the date that the instrument was sent or given, the amount was transferred or the account credited in accordance with the instruction (as the case requires).

- (3) Wages are taken to be payable at the place at which they are paid, subject to this section.
- (4) Wages that are not paid by the end of the month in which they are payable are taken to be payable at:
 - (a) the place where wages were last paid by the employer to the employee, or
 - (b) if wages have not previously been paid by the employer to the employee—the place where the employee last performed services in respect of the employer before the wages became payable.
- (5) If wages paid or payable in the same month by the same employer in respect of the same employee are paid or payable in more than one Australian jurisdiction, the wages paid or payable in that month are taken to be paid or payable in the Australian jurisdiction in which the highest proportion of the wages are paid or payable.

Note—

Section 11 requires all wages paid or payable in the same month by the same employer in respect of the same employee to be aggregated for the purpose of determining whether the wages are taxable in this jurisdiction. The above provision ensures only one Australian jurisdiction can be considered to be the jurisdiction in which the wages are paid or payable.

[3] Section 13 What are wages?

Insert after section 13 (2):

- (3) This Act applies in respect of wages referred to in subsection (1) (a)–(e) that are paid or payable to or in relation to a person who is not an employee in the same way as it applies to wages paid or payable to an employee (as if a reference in this Act to an employee included a reference to any such person).

[4] Section 24 Inclusion of shares and options granted to directors as wages

Omit section 24 (4). Insert at the end of the section:

Note—

Section 13 provides that a reference to an employee in this Act includes a reference to any person to whom any amount that is treated as wages under this Act is paid or payable. See also section 11, which deems the wages to be paid or payable for services performed.

[5] Section 25 When services considered to have been performed

Omit the section.
