Part 9B Police officers—death and disability

199A Definitions

In this Part:

approved death and disability insurance policy—see section 199D.

death and disability payments means payments (whether periodic or lump sum) to or in respect of a police officer who dies or who becomes permanently or temporarily incapacitated for work:

- (a) as a result of being injured at work, or
- (b) as a result of being injured while employed as a police officer (whether or not on duty), and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes payments to or in respect of a police officer by way of the top-up of workers compensation payments.

injured at work, in relation to a police officer, means injured in such circumstances as entitles the police officer to compensation under the Workers Compensation Act 1987.

199B Police officers excluded from this Part

- (1) This Part does not apply to or in respect of a police officer who is a contributor to the Police Superannuation Fund under the Police Regulation \(Superannuation\) Act 1906 or to the State Superannuation Fund under the Superannuation Act 1916.
- (2) This Part does not apply to or in respect of a police officer who is a contributor to the State Authorities Superannuation Fund and who is covered by the additional benefit under the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987, except as provided by section 199D (3).

199C Approved death and disability insurance policy to be taken out on behalf of police officers

An approved death and disability insurance policy is required to be taken out on behalf of police officers by the NSW Police Force or by FSS Trustee Corporation.

199D Approved death and disability insurance policy

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, an approved death and disability insurance policy is an insurance policy approved by the Minister, with the concurrence of the Treasurer, that provides death and disability payments to or in respect of police officers. An approved policy may comprise a number of separate policies.
- (2) An approved death and disability insurance policy:
 - (a) must include provision for payments to or in respect of police officers who die, or who are incapacitated for work, as a result of being injured at work, and
 - (b) may also include provision for payments to or in respect of police officers where their death or incapacity does not result from being injured at work.
- (3) An approved death and disability insurance policy may provide for payments in the form of income protection in connection with an injury to a police officer despite the police officer being a contributor to the State Authorities Superannuation Fund and covered by the additional benefit under the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987.

199E Contribution by State to cost of approved insurance policy

The Minister may approve an insurance policy under this Part only if satisfied that the long-term cost to the State of the policy (after deducting the contribution to that cost of police officers under section 199F) will be:

- (a) subject to paragraph (b), approximately 4.6% of the remuneration of police officers covered by the policy, or
- (b) such other amount as the regulations prescribe.

199F Contributions by police officers to cost of approved insurance policy

- (1) Police officers are required to make the same contribution to the cost to the State of an approved death and disability insurance policy as the contribution police officers would have been required to make under the Crown Employees (Police Officers Death and Disability) Award 2005 if that Award had not been rescinded by the Police Amendment \(Death and Disability\) Act 2011.

Note—

On the rescission of the Award, the contribution required to be made by police officers was 1.8% of their remuneration.

- (2) The contribution is to be made by way of salary sacrifice.

199G Regulations relating to death or disability of police officers

The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the death or disability of police officers, including the following:

- (a) the provisions that must or may be included in an approved death and disability insurance policy,
- (b) the savings and transitional provisions applying to police officers on the commencement of this Part in relation to death and disability payments (including the provisions applying after that commencement during any period in which an approved death and disability insurance policy is not in force),
- (c) the obligations of the NSW Police Force and police officers or former police officers with respect to rehabilitation, retraining and redeployment of incapacitated police officers or former police officers,
- (d) the establishment by the NSW Police Force of injury management and prevention and other programs to facilitate or promote the health and fitness of police officers, and the obligation of police officers to participate in those programs.

199H Other entitlements not affected

The provisions of this Part do not affect:

- (a) any compensation payable under the Workers Compensation Act 1987, or
- (b) any superannuation entitlements.

The Crown Employees (Police Officers Death and Disability) Award 2005 of the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales is rescinded.

199J Rescission of workers compensation top-up provisions of Crown Employees (Police Officers - 2009) Award

Clause 9 of the Crown Employees (Police Officers - 2009) Award of the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales is rescinded.

199K Savings and transitional arrangements

(1) In this section:

former death and disability award means the award referred to in section 199I that is rescinded by that section.

former workers compensation top-up award provision means the provision of the award referred to in section 199J that is rescinded by that section.

new insurance policy commencement date, in relation to an injury to a police officer, means the date on and from which the police officer is covered in respect of death or disability arising from any such injury under an approved death and disability insurance policy.

(2) Except as provided by this section, a police officer who dies or is discharged from the NSW Police Force after the commencement of this Part is not entitled to any payments under the former death and disability award.

(3) If:

- (a) immediately before the Bill for the Police Amendment (Death and Disability) Act 2011 was agreed to by both Houses of Parliament, a police officer had been unfit for duty because of a disability for a total period of at least 4 months during the previous 8 months and the NSW Police Force had received a report or certificate from the police officer's nominated treating medical practitioner indicating that:

- (i) the police officer had reached maximum medical improvement, and
 - (ii) the police officer should be discharged from the NSW Police Force, and
- (b) the police officer had not been discharged from the NSW Police Force before the commencement of this Part because of that disability, the provisions of the former death and disability award relating to payments for temporary or partial incapacity continue to apply in respect of that disability of that police officer despite the rescission of the award.

Note—

See subsection (8) for preservation of entitlements relating to death or permanent and total incapacity under insurance policies taken out pursuant to the award.

(4) A police officer:

- (a) who suffers a disability arising from an injury before the new insurance policy commencement date, and
- (b) who is not covered by the approved death and disability insurance policy (or by an insurance policy referred to in subsection (8)) in respect of that disability, and
- (c) who is not entitled to a payment under subsection (3) in respect of that disability, and
- (d) who would have been covered in respect of that disability under the former death and disability award, but for its rescission, is entitled to be paid by the NSW Police Force in respect of that disability such amounts as are equivalent to the amounts that the police officer would have been paid under the approved death and disability insurance policy if that policy had covered the police officer.

- (5) If on the commencement of this Part there is no approved death and disability insurance policy that provides income protection benefits to replace the benefits for partial and permanent disability under the former death and disability award, income protection benefits are to be paid to police officers (until there is such a policy) in accordance with the insurance proposal provided to First State Super by TAL Life Limited and tabled in the Legislative Council by or on behalf of the Minister for Police and Emergency Services during consideration by the Legislative Council of the Bill for the Police Amendment (Death and Disability) Act 2011 (subject to subsection (6)).
- (6) On duty income protection rates under the insurance proposal referred to in subsection (5) are to be increased in accordance with adjustments to the insurance proposal that are tabled with the insurance proposal by or on behalf of the Minister for Police and Emergency Services.

- (7) Despite the rescission of the former workers compensation top-up award provision, police officers in receipt of weekly compensation payments under the Workers Compensation Act 1987 on the commencement of this Part continue to be entitled to payments under that provision for a period of 9 months after the commencement of this Part.
- (8) This section does not affect any entitlements under an insurance policy that has been taken out on behalf of police officers before the commencement of this Part.

Note—

Existing insurance policies taken out with First State Super cover police officers for death and for total and permanent incapacity and will continue to apply until replaced by coverage under an approved death and disability insurance policy.

- (9) The rescission of the former death and disability award does not affect any entitlement to payments under that award in relation to the death or discharge of a police officer from the NSW Police Force before the rescission of the former award.
- (10) This section is subject to the regulations made under clause 2 of Schedule 4.

199L Review of costs of scheme and advice to Minister and Treasurer

- (2) The committee is to advise the Minister and the Treasurer from time to time of that cost to the State and of the percentage of the remuneration of police officers that it represents.
- (3) The Commissioner is to ensure that the representative of the Police Association of NSW on the committee has access to such information as may be necessary to enable the committee to conduct the review under this section.

199M Review of effectiveness of scheme by Auditor-General

- (2) The review is to be conducted within 12 months after the commencement of this Part (or within such further period as the Minister may approve on the recommendation of the Auditor-General).

- (3) The Commissioner is to ensure that the Auditor-General has access to such information as may be necessary to enable the Auditor-General to conduct the review.
- (4) The Auditor-General is to report to the Minister and to each House of Parliament on the results of the review as soon as practicable after the review is completed.
