Part 2 Rebate scheme

5 Rebate scheme

There is established by this Act a rebate scheme for payroll tax paid or payable by employers who employ people in new jobs on or after 1 July 2011.

6 Entitlement to rebate

- (1) An employer is entitled to a rebate under the rebate scheme in respect of the employment of a person if the employment is eligible employment.
- (2) The entitlement to a rebate is subject to the other provisions of this Act.

7 Eligible employment

Employment is eligible employment if:

- (a) a person is employed (as a full time employee or part time employee) in a position that is a new job, and
- (b) the employment commences on or after 1 July 2011, and
- (c) the employment is maintained for the minimum employment period, and
- (d) the services of the employee are performed wholly or mainly in New South Wales, and
- (e) the employment satisfies any further eligibility criteria set out in the rebate criteria, and
- (f) the employment is not excluded from the rebate scheme.

8 What is a new job

- (1) A position is a new job if the employment of a person in that position results in a sustained increase in the employer's full time equivalent employees.
- (2) The employment of a person results in a sustained increase in an employer's full time equivalent employees if the number of full time equivalent employees of the employer on both the first and second anniversary of the date the eligible employment is claimed to commence is higher than the number of full time equivalent employees of the employer on that commencement date.

- (3) A rebate may be paid on a claim before a determination can be made as to whether the employment has resulted in a sustained increase in an employer's full time equivalent employees.
- (4) However, it is a condition of the payment of a rebate in respect of any employment that the employment results in a sustained increase in the employer's full time equivalent employees, subject to subsection (5).
- (5) The Chief Commissioner may pay a rebate claimed in respect of a year of employment even if there is not a sustained increase in an employer's full time equivalent employees if satisfied that the increase did not occur because of circumstances beyond the employer's control.
- (6) The Chief Commissioner may impose conditions on the payment of the rebate in such a case.
- (7) In such a case, this Act applies as if the rebate had been paid in respect of the employment of a person in a new job.
- (8) A claimant is required to repay an amount paid by way of rebate if a condition imposed by or under this section is contravened.

9 Calculation of number of full time equivalent employees

- (1) The number of full time equivalent employees of an employer on a date is to be calculated as follows:

$$F + A/B$$

where:

F is the number of full time employees of the employer on the relevant date.

A is the total number of hours worked in the employer's preceding pay period by all part time employees of the employer employed on the relevant date.

B is the average number of hours worked in the employer's preceding pay period by all full time employees of the employer employed on the relevant date.

- (2) To calculate the number of full time equivalent employees of an employer on the date eligible employment is claimed to have commenced, in connection with a claim for a rebate for that employment, the employee in respect of whom the rebate is claimed and the hours worked by that employee are to be disregarded.
- (3) To calculate the average number of hours worked by full time employees of an employer, overtime is to be excluded.

- (4) In this section, the preceding pay period is the last pay period to end on or before the date for which the calculation is being made.

10 Minimum employment period

- (1) The minimum employment period is a period of 2 years starting on the date the eligible employment is claimed to commence.
- (2) Employment is maintained for the minimum employment period if during the minimum employment period there is always a person employed in the position in respect of which the rebate is claimed.
- (3) For the purpose of determining whether employment is maintained for the minimum employment period, a vacancy in a position is to be disregarded if the number of days vacant does not exceed the maximum vacancy period.
- (4) The maximum vacancy period is a total of 30 days in each year of employment in respect of which a rebate is claimed.
- (5) A rebate may be paid on a claim before a determination can be made as to whether the employment has been maintained for the minimum employment period.
- (6) However, it is a condition of the payment of a rebate in respect of employment that the employment is maintained for the minimum employment period, subject to subsection (7).
- (7) The Chief Commissioner may pay a rebate in respect of a year of employment even if there is a vacancy in the position that exceeds the maximum vacancy period if satisfied that the length of the vacancy concerned is due to circumstances beyond the employer's control.
- (8) The Chief Commissioner may impose conditions on the payment of the rebate in such a case.
- (9) A claimant is required to repay an amount paid by way of rebate if a condition imposed by or under this section is contravened.

11 Rebate criteria

- (1) The Minister may, by order published on the NSW legislation website, determine further criteria for the payment of rebates under this Act (the rebate criteria).

Note—

Section 43 of the Interpretation Act 1987 provides that a power to make an order includes a power to amend or repeal any order made in exercise of that power.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the rebate criteria may provide for:

- (a) further criteria for eligibility for a rebate, and
 - (b) any other matter that is required or permitted to be dealt with by the rebate criteria under this Act.
- (3) The rebate criteria may confer functions on the Chief Commissioner.
- (4) The rebate criteria must not be inconsistent with this Act or the regulations.
- (5) An amendment to the rebate criteria may, if the amendment so provides, extend to employment that commenced before the date of publication of the amendment on the NSW legislation website.
- (6) However, any such amendment does not affect an employer's eligibility for a rebate in respect of a year of employment that started before the date of publication of the amendment, except by agreement between the Chief Commissioner and the employer concerned.
- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply in respect of an amendment to the rebate criteria to the extent that it appoints a scheme closure date.

12 Excluded employment

- (1) The employment of a person by an employer is excluded from the rebate scheme if:
- (a) the person was employed by the employer at any time within the period of 12 months before it is claimed the eligible employment, or the employment of the person in the position concerned, commenced, or
 - (b) the employer (the current employer) is a member of a group (within the meaning of Part 5 of the Payroll Tax Act 2007) and the person was employed by another member of that group within 12 months before employment with the current employer commenced, or
 - (c) the person's employment with the employer is a continuation of employment with another employer, or
 - (d) any wages paid or payable by the employer to the person are not taxable wages (within the meaning of the Payroll Tax Act 2007), or
 - (e) any wages paid or payable by the employer to the person are exempt wages (within the meaning of the Payroll Tax Act 2007), or
 - (f) the employer is entitled to a rebate of payroll tax paid in respect of any wages paid or payable to the person under the Payroll Tax Act 2007, or
 - (g) a rebate, subsidy, or other assistance is payable to the employer in respect of the employment of the person by the State, or

- (h) the employer is taken to be the employer of the person under Division 7 of Part 3 of the Payroll Tax Act 2007 (which relates to contractors), or
 - (i) the employer is taken to be the employer of the person under Division 8 of Part 3 of the Payroll Tax Act 2007 (which relates to employment agents), or
 - (j) the employer is the Crown in right of New South Wales or in any of its other capacities or a body representing the Crown in right of New South Wales or in any of its other capacities, or
 - (k) the employer is a public, local or municipal body or authority constituted under the law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory.
- (2) A person's employment with an employer (the new employer) is a continuation of employment with another employer (the previous employer) if:
- (a) the person was, within 12 months before the date on which the person commenced employment with the new employer, employed by the previous employer in a business or undertaking, and
 - (b) that business or undertaking has been the subject of a merger with the business or undertaking of the new employer or has been taken over or otherwise acquired by the new employer.
- (3) To avoid doubt, this section applies to the employment of any person in the position for which the rebate is claimed during the minimum employment period.
- (4) Accordingly, if any person employed in the position during the minimum employment period is a person whose employment is excluded from the rebate scheme, the employment is not (and is taken never to have been) eligible employment.
- (5) This section is subject to any exceptions provided for by the rebate criteria.
- (6) The rebate criteria may specify other circumstances in which the employment of a person is excluded from the rebate scheme.

13 Closure of rebate scheme

- (1) The rebate criteria may appoint a date as a scheme closure date.
- (2) A date may be appointed as a scheme closure date for the metropolitan area or the non-metropolitan area, or both.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, the scheme closure date for an area is:
 - (a) the date appointed by the rebate criteria as the scheme closure date for the area, or
 - (b) if no date is appointed by the rebate criteria as the scheme closure date for the area, 30 June 2013.

- (4) An order appointing a scheme closure date must be published on the NSW legislation website no less than 30 days before the scheme closure date so appointed.

Note—

A person cannot apply to be registered as a rebate claimant in respect of the employment of a person after the scheme closure date for the area in which the person is employed.

Part 3 Calculation of rebate

14 Periods in respect of which rebate can be claimed

- (1) A rebate in respect of eligible employment can be claimed for the following periods only:
 - (a) the first year of employment,
 - (b) the second year of employment.
- (2) The first year of employment is the period commencing on the date the eligible employment is claimed to commence and ending on the first anniversary of that date.
- (3) The second year of employment is the period commencing the day after that first anniversary and ending on the second anniversary of the date the eligible employment is claimed to commence.

Note—

A rebate cannot be claimed until the end of the year of employment concerned.

15 Amount of rebate

- (1) The rebate payable for a year of employment is:
 - (a) $2,000 for a full time employee, or
 - (b) the relevant proportion for a part time employee.
- (2) The relevant proportion is the amount calculated as follows:

$$$2,000 \times C/D$$

where:

C is the number of hours worked by the employee in respect of which the rebate is claimed during the year of employment concerned.

D is the average number of hours worked by all full time employees of the employer during that same period.

- (3) The rebate payable for a year of employment is taken to be the rebate payable for a part time employee if:
 - (a) a person is employed in the position in respect of which the rebate is claimed otherwise than as a full time employee at any time during the year of employment, or
 - (b) the position in respect of which the rebate is claimed is vacant during the year of employment for a period exceeding the maximum vacancy period and the rebate is paid despite the vacancy.
- (4) To calculate the average number of hours worked by full time employees of an employer, overtime is to be excluded.
- (5) An amount paid by way of rebate is not to exceed the maximum rebate payable for a year of employment.

16 Maximum rebate payable

- (1) The maximum rebate payable for a year of employment is the amount of the employer's net payroll tax liability for the financial year in which the claim for the rebate is made.
- (2) An employer's net payroll tax liability is the correct amount of payroll tax payable by the employer (within the meaning of Part 6 of the Payroll Tax Act 2007) less any rebates of payroll tax paid or payable to the employer in respect of that financial year under that Act.
- (3) This section does not prevent the Chief Commissioner from paying a rebate before an assessment is made of an employer's net payroll tax liability.
- (4) However, a claimant is required to repay any amount paid by way of rebate in excess of the maximum rebate payable.

17 Compromise calculation

- (1) In a difficult case, the Chief Commissioner may determine the number of full time equivalent employees of an employer, or the rebate payable to an employer, by any method agreed between the claimant and the Chief Commissioner.
- (2) A difficult case is any case in which the Chief Commissioner and a claimant agree that it is difficult or impracticable for the relevant determination to be made as otherwise provided by this Act without undue delay or expense (whether because of the complexity or uncertainty of the case or for any other reason).
- (3) The Chief Commissioner cannot vary or reverse a decision to pay a rebate in accordance with a determination made under this section except:

- (a) with the agreement of the claimant, or
- (b) in a case where the decision was procured by fraud or there was a deliberate failure to disclose material information.

Part 4 Payment of rebate

Division 1 Registration and claim for rebate

18 Rebate to be paid only to registered claimants

A rebate may be claimed in respect of eligible employment only if the employer is a registered claimant in respect of the employment concerned.

19 Chief Commissioner to register claimants

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may register an employer as a claimant in respect of the employment of a person in a specified position.
- (2) A registered claimant is an employer registered by the Chief Commissioner as a claimant.

20 Application for registration as claimant

- (1) An employer may apply to the Chief Commissioner for registration as a claimant in respect of the employment of a person in a specified position.
- (2) The application must:
 - (a) be made in a form approved by the Chief Commissioner, and
 - (b) contain or be accompanied by the information specified in the form.
- (3) An application can be made only by an employer who is registered as an employer under the Payroll Tax Act 2007.
- (4) An application must be made within 30 days after the employment to which the application relates first commences or within such further period as the Chief Commissioner may allow in respect of the employer.

21 No registration after scheme closure date

- (1) The Chief Commissioner is not to register an employer as a claimant in respect of the employment of a person if the application for registration is made after the scheme closure date for the area in which the person is employed.
- (2) The rebate criteria may make provision for determining the area in which a person is employed.

22 Claim required at the end of each year

- (1) A rebate may be paid to a registered claimant in respect of a year of employment only if the rebate is claimed in accordance with this section.
- (2) An employer who is a registered claimant may claim the rebate payable for a year of employment at the end of that year.
- (3) The claim must be made no later than 30 days after the end of the year of employment concerned or within such further period as the Chief Commissioner may allow in respect of the employer.
- (4) A claim must:
 - (a) be made to the Chief Commissioner, and
 - (b) be made in a form approved by the Chief Commissioner, and
 - (c) contain or be accompanied by the information specified in the form.

Division 2 Decision with respect to claim

23 Chief Commissioner to decide claim

The Chief Commissioner is to decide whether a rebate is payable in respect of a claim and the amount of the rebate payable.

24 Discretion to refuse contrived claim

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may refuse to pay a rebate, or require repayment of a rebate already paid, if the Chief Commissioner is of the opinion that a claimed increase in the number of full time equivalent employees of an employer is contrived for the purpose of claiming a rebate under the rebate scheme.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the following is evidence that an increase in the number of full time equivalent employees is contrived:
 - (a) the fact that the number of full time equivalent employees of an employer at any time during the period of 3 months before the employment commencement date is higher than the number of full time equivalent employees of the employer on the employment commencement date,
 - (b) the fact that the number of full time equivalent employees of an employer is, for a period exceeding 30 days during a year of employment for which a rebate is claimed, lower than the number of full time equivalent employees of the employer on a relevant anniversary date.
- (3) In this section:

employment commencement date means the date on which eligible employment is claimed to commence.

relevant anniversary date is the first or second anniversary of the employment commencement date.

25 Payment of rebate

- (1) A rebate is to be paid:
 - (a) to the claimant, or
 - (b) to some other person to whom the claimant directs in writing that the rebate be paid.
- (2) A rebate may be paid by electronic funds transfer, by cheque or in any other way the Chief Commissioner thinks appropriate.

26 Use of rebate to offset tax liability

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may, instead of paying a rebate, apply the amount of the rebate, or part of the rebate, towards a liability of the claimant for payroll tax or any other tax of the State.
- (2) Consent of the claimant is not required.
- (3) An amount so applied is taken to be an amount paid by way of rebate for the purposes of this Act.

27 Power to correct decision

- (1) If the Chief Commissioner decides a claim, and is later satisfied (independently of an objection under this Act) that the decision is incorrect, the Chief Commissioner may vary or reverse the decision.
- (2) A decision cannot be varied or reversed under this section more than 5 years after it was made.
- (3) The 5-year time limit on varying or reversing a decision does not apply to a decision that was made on the basis of false or misleading information provided by a claimant or by a person on behalf of the claimant.

28 Notification of decision

- (1) The Chief Commissioner must give a claimant notice of a decision to grant or refuse a claim or vary or reverse an earlier decision on a claim.
- (2) Notice of a decision to refuse a claim, or vary or reverse an earlier decision on a claim, must include the reasons for the decision.

- (3) Notice of a decision to grant a claim must include notice of any decision to apply the amount of the rebate towards a liability for tax.

Part 5 Repayment of rebate

29 Power to require repayment from claimant

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may, by written notice, require a claimant for a rebate to repay to the Chief Commissioner an amount paid by way of rebate on a claim if:
 - (a) the amount was paid in error, or
 - (b) the Chief Commissioner varies or reverses the decision under which the amount was paid for any other reason, or
 - (c) the claimant is or can be required by or under this Act to repay the amount paid.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner may, by written notice, require the claimant to pay a penalty determined by the Chief Commissioner if the amount paid by way of rebate was paid as a result of the claimant's dishonesty.
- (3) The penalty is not to exceed the amount the claimant is required to repay.
- (4) A claimant for a rebate is liable to pay to the Chief Commissioner an amount the Chief Commissioner requires the claimant to pay under this section.
- (5) The Chief Commissioner may recover the amount payable as a debt due to the Crown.
- (6) The Chief Commissioner may, by written notice, require a claimant to pay interest on the amount required to be paid to the Chief Commissioner under this section if the claimant fails to pay the amount in accordance with the requirements specified by the Chief Commissioner in the notice requiring payment.
- (7) Interest is to be charged in the manner applicable to tax defaults under the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

30 Power to require repayment from non-claimant

- (1) If an amount is paid in error on a claim for a rebate to a person who is not the claimant, the Chief Commissioner may, by written notice, require the person to repay the amount to the Chief Commissioner.
- (2) The person is liable to pay to the Chief Commissioner an amount the Chief Commissioner requires the person to pay under this section.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner may recover the amount payable as a debt due to the Crown.
- (4) The Chief Commissioner may, by written notice, require a person to pay interest on the amount required to be paid to the Chief Commissioner under this section if the person fails to pay the amount in accordance with the requirements specified by the Chief Commissioner in the notice requiring payment.

- (5) Interest is to be charged in the manner applicable to tax defaults under the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

31 Recovery from third parties

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may, by written notice, require a relevant third party to pay an unpaid amount that a rebate recipient is liable to pay to the Chief Commissioner under this Part.
- (2) Each of the following persons is a relevant third party:
- (a) a person who owes money to the rebate recipient or may subsequently owe money to the rebate recipient,
 - (b) a person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the rebate recipient,
 - (c) a person who holds or may subsequently hold money on account of some other person for payment to the rebate recipient,
 - (d) a person having authority from some other person to pay money to the rebate recipient.
- (3) A copy of the notice must be served on the rebate recipient.
- (4) The amount of money required to be paid to the Chief Commissioner is:
- (a) if the amount of the money so owing, held or authorised to be paid does not exceed the amount payable by the rebate recipient to the Chief Commissioner—all the money, or
 - (b) if the amount of the money exceeds the amount payable—sufficient money to pay the amount payable.
- (5) The money must be paid to the Chief Commissioner on receipt of the notice, or when the money is held by the person and becomes due to the rebate recipient, or by the end of such period (if any) as may be specified by the Chief Commissioner in the notice requiring payment, whichever is the later.
- (6) A person subject to a requirement of the Chief Commissioner under this section must comply with the requirement.
- Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.
- (7) A person who makes a payment in accordance with this section is taken to be acting under the authority of the rebate recipient and of all other persons concerned and is indemnified by this section in respect of the payment.

(8) If, after a person is given a notice under this section by the Chief Commissioner, the whole or a part of the amount is paid by another person, the Chief Commissioner must promptly notify the person to whom the notice is given of the payment and the notice is taken to be amended accordingly.

(9) In this section:

rebate recipient means a claimant for a rebate or any other person to whom an amount is paid by way of rebate under this Act.

32 Payment by instalments

(1) The Chief Commissioner may enter into an arrangement for payment by instalments of an outstanding amount that a person is liable to pay under this Part.

(2) The arrangement may include provision for the payment of interest at the rate applicable to tax defaults under the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

33 Write off of liabilities

The Chief Commissioner may write off the whole or part of a liability outstanding under this Part if satisfied that action, or further action, to recover the amount outstanding is impracticable or unwarranted.

34 Remission of amounts payable

(1) The Chief Commissioner may remit, in whole or in part, any amount a person is required to pay under this Part.

(2) An amount remitted is taken to have been paid.

Part 6 Objections and reviews

Division 1 Objections

35 Objections

(1) A claimant for a rebate who is dissatisfied with any of the following decisions of the Chief Commissioner may lodge a written objection to the decision with the Chief Commissioner:

(a) a decision on the person's claim for a rebate (including a decision to vary or reverse an earlier decision made independently of an objection under this Act),

(b) a decision to require the person to repay an amount paid by way of rebate under this Act,

- (c) a decision to require the person to pay a penalty under this Act,
 - (d) a decision to require the person to pay interest on an amount unpaid under this Act.
- (2) A person (other than a claimant for a rebate) who is dissatisfied with any of the following decisions of the Chief Commissioner may lodge a written objection to the decision with the Chief Commissioner:
