Government Advertising Regulation 2012

New South Wales

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Government Advertising Regulation 2012.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 5 October 2012 and is required to be published on the NSW legislation website.

3 Definition

(1) In this Regulation:

the Act means the Government Advertising Act 2011.

(2) Notes included in this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

3A Exemption from whole Act (other than prohibition on political advertising)

The Act (other than section 6 (1)) does not apply to a Government advertising campaign by or on behalf of the following:

- (a) a Royal Commission,
- (b) a Special Commission of Inquiry,
- (c) the Independent Commission Against Corruption,
- (d) the Police Integrity Commission,
- (e) the Electoral Districts Commissioners within the meaning of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912.

4 Exemptions relating to certain advertising campaigns undertaken by Electoral Commissioner or Election Funding Authority

Sections 6 and 7 (2) of the Act do not apply to a Government advertising campaign that:

- (a) the Electoral Commissioner or the Election Funding Authority is required to carry out by law, or

- (b) is carried out by the Electoral Commissioner or the Election Funding Authority for the purposes of, or in connection with, a particular electoral event (such as a State election, a local government election, a referendum or other election that the Electoral Commissioner is required to administer by law).

5 Exemption of routine advertising from requirement for head of agency compliance certificate

- (1) This clause applies to Government advertising campaigns (routine campaigns) where the cost of the campaign is not likely to exceed $50,000 and the campaign principally involves the dissemination of any of the following:
 - (a) information about routine matters relating to the provision of services, including notification of service changes,
 - (b) information about requirements imposed on persons,
 - (c) community announcements or notices about community events or activities,
 - (d) notices or announcements required to be made by or under any law,
 - (e) recruitment notices,
 - (f) government tender or procurement notices.
- (2) A routine campaign, and the Government agency concerned, are exempt from section 8 of the Act if:
 - (a) the campaign is procured on behalf of the agency by a member of staff, or a member of staff who is a member of a class of members of staff, authorised in writing by the head of the agency, and
 - (b) the authorised officer is otherwise authorised to incur the expenditure on behalf of the agency, and
 - (c) the authorised officer certifies in writing, before or after the campaign begins, that the campaign:
 - (i) is a campaign to which this clause applies, and
 - (ii) complies with the Act, the regulations and the Government advertising guidelines, and
 - (iii) contains accurate information, and
 - (iv) is necessary to achieve a public purpose, and
 - (v) is an efficient and cost effective means of achieving that purpose.
