Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 No 51

New South Wales

An Act with respect to checks and clearances for the purposes of working with children; and for other purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Object of Act

The object of this Act is to protect children:

- (a) by not permitting certain persons to engage in child-related work, and
- (b) by requiring persons engaged in child-related work to have working with children check clearances.

Note—

For other legislation relating to the safety, welfare and well-being of children, and the related functions of the Children's Guardian, see the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998. In particular, see section 181 and Chapter 13 of that Act.

4 Safety, welfare and well-being of children to be paramount consideration

The safety, welfare and well-being of children and, in particular, protecting them from child abuse, is the paramount consideration in the operation of this Act.

Part 2 Restrictions on child-related work

Division 1 Child-related work

6 Child-related work

- (1) A worker is engaged in child-related work for the purposes of this Act if:
- (a) the worker is engaged in work referred to in subsection (2) that involves direct contact by the worker with children, or
 - (b) the worker is engaged in work in a child-related role referred to in subsection (3).

(2) The work referred to is work for, or in connection with, any of the following that is declared by the regulations to be child-related work:

(a) child development

mentoring and counselling services for children,

(b) child protection

child protection services,

(c) children's health services

the provision of health care in wards of hospitals where children are treated and the direct provision of other child health services,

(d) clubs or other bodies providing services for children

clubs, associations, movements, societies or other bodies (including bodies of a cultural, recreational or sporting nature) providing programs or services for children,

(e) disability services

respite care or other support services for children with a disability,

(f) early education and child care education and care services, child care centres, nanny services and other child care,

(g) education

schools or other educational institutions (other than universities) and private coaching or tuition of children,

(h) entertainment for children

sporting, cultural or other entertainment venues used primarily by children and entertainment services for children,

(i) justice services

detention centres (within the meaning of the Children \(Detention Centres\) Act 1987) and juvenile correctional centres (within the meaning of the Crimes \(Administration of Sentences\) Act 1999),

(j) religious services

any religious organisation,

(k) residential services

refuges used by children, long term home stays for children, boarding houses or other residential services for children and overnight camps for children,

(l) transport services for children

transport services especially for children, including school bus services and taxi services for children with a disability and supervision of school road crossings,

(m) other

any other service for children prescribed by the regulations.

(3) The following roles are referred to:

- (a) an approved provider or manager of an education and care service,
- (b) a certified supervisor of an education and care service,
- (c) an authorised carer,
- (d) an assessment officer (within the meaning of section 27A of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998),
- (e) the principal officer of a designated agency,
- (f) the principal officer of an accredited adoption service provider within the meaning of the Adoption Act 2000,
- (g) any other role with respect to children prescribed by the regulations.

(4) In this section:

direct contact with children means:

- (a) physical contact, or
- (b) face to face contact.

7 Additional child-related work

- (1) A worker is taken to be engaged in child-related work if the worker is engaged, or proposes to engage, in work (other than as a volunteer) that is the subject of a requirement under this section.
- (2) The employer or proposed employer of a worker engaged in work for which a working with children check clearance is not required that involves access to confidential records or information about children may, by notice in writing to the worker, require the worker to obtain a clearance for the purposes of engaging in the work concerned.
- (3) The employer, or proposed employer, may at any time, by notice in writing given to the worker, revoke a requirement made under this section.

- (4) An employer may make or revoke a requirement under this section only with the approval of the Children's Guardian.

Division 2 Mandatory requirements for child-related work

8 Restrictions on engaging in child-related work

- (1) A worker must not engage in child-related work unless:
- (a) the worker holds a working with children check clearance of a class applicable to the work, or
 - (b) there is a current application by the worker to the Children's Guardian for a clearance of a class applicable to that work.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

- (2) A worker must not engage in child-related work at any time that the worker is subject to an interim bar.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

- (3) It is a defence to proceedings for an offence against this section if the accused person establishes that:
- (a) the accused person did not know, at the time the offence was committed, that the work concerned was child-related work, or
 - (b) the accused person was exempted by the regulations from the requirement to hold a clearance.

Note—

Division 3 also requires adult persons residing with authorised carers or approved providers of education and care services and potential adoptive parents to hold clearances or to have a current application for a clearance.

9 Employers must require clearance or current application

- (1) An employer must not commence employing, or continue to employ, a worker in child-related work if the employer knows or has reasonable cause to believe that:
- (a) the worker is not the holder of a working with children check clearance that authorises that work and that there is no current application by the worker to the Children's Guardian for a clearance of a class applicable to that work, or
 - (b) the worker is subject to an interim bar.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, in the case of a corporation, and 50 penalty units in any other case.

- (2) It is a defence to proceedings for an offence against this section if the accused person establishes that, at the time the offence was committed:

- (a) the accused person had been advised by the Children's Guardian that the worker was the holder of a clearance or that there was a current application by the accused person for a clearance, or
- (b) the accused person was exempted by the regulations from the requirement to hold a clearance.

Division 3 Additional persons who must obtain clearances

10 Adult persons residing with authorised carers or persons providing home care services

- (1) An adult person (other than a person who is required under another provision of this Act to, or is exempt from the requirement to, hold a working with children check clearance) who resides at the home of an authorised carer or at a home where a home based education and care service or family day care service is provided must hold a working with children check clearance (of any class) or have made a current application to the Children's Guardian for a clearance.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

- (2) The designated agency that authorises the authorised carer in whose home an adult person resides, or the approved provider of the home based education and care service or family day care service provided at the home where an adult person resides as referred to in subsection (1), must ensure that the adult person complies with that subsection.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, in the case of a corporation, and 50 penalty units in any other case.

- (3) It is a defence to proceedings for an offence against subsection (1) if the accused person establishes that the accused person did not know, at the time the offence was committed, that the home was a home where care or a service referred to in that subsection was provided.
- (4) It is a defence to proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) or (2) if the accused person establishes that:
 - (a) at the time of the offence, the adult person had been living at the home on a regular basis for a period of less than 3 weeks, or
 - (b) the adult person was exempted by the regulations from the requirement to hold a clearance.
- (5) For the purposes of the application of this Act (other than section 9) to an adult person required by this section to hold a clearance, the designated agency or approved provider referred to in subsection (2) is to be treated as the employer of the adult person.

11 Potential adoptive parents

- (1) This section applies to any person who submits an application under the Adoption Act 2000 to adopt a child.
- (2) The person assessing the application under that Act may request a person to whom this section applies to be screened by the Children's Guardian as if the person were an applicant for a working with children check clearance of any class.
- (3) The Children's Guardian is to treat such a request as if the person had applied for a clearance for child-related work.

Part 3 Working with children check clearances

Division 1 Classes of clearances

12 Classes of clearances

- (1) There are to be the following classes of working with children check clearances:
 - (a) volunteer—authorising workers to engage in unpaid child-related work,
 - (b) non-volunteer—authorising workers to engage in paid and unpaid child-related work.
- (2) Despite section 8, the holder of a volunteer clearance may engage in paid child-related work if the person has been engaged in that work for a period of 30 consecutive days or less.

Division 2 Applications for clearances

13 Applications for clearances

- (1) A person may apply to the Children's Guardian for a working with children check clearance.
- (2) An application must:
 - (a) be in the form approved by the Children's Guardian, and
 - (b) be accompanied by any other information required by the Children's Guardian, and
 - (c) specify the class of clearance applied for.
- (3) The approved form must provide for the authorisation by the applicant of, and the consent by the applicant to, the following in connection with the application or any application under Part 4 and at any time while a clearance is in force:

- (a) the conduct of a criminal record check in respect of the applicant,
 - (b) the disclosure of the applicant's criminal history,
 - (c) other inquiries about the applicant relevant to the application or clearance,
 - (d) without limiting paragraphs (b) and (c), disclosure of information about the applicant relevant to whether the applicant may be subject to an assessment requirement.
- (4) The regulations may:
- (a) prescribe the fee payable for an application and the manner in which it is to be paid, and
 - (b) require proof of identity to be provided by an applicant for a clearance in the manner prescribed by the regulations or approved by the Children's Guardian.
- (5) An applicant may, at any time before the final determination of an application (including after receipt of notice of a proposed refusal), withdraw the application by notice in writing to the Children's Guardian.

Division 3 Risk assessment of applicants and holders

14 Assessment requirements

A person is subject to an assessment requirement under this Act if any of the matters specified in Schedule 1 apply to the person.

15 Assessment of applicants and holders

- (1) The Children's Guardian must conduct a risk assessment of an applicant for a working with children check clearance, or the holder of a clearance, to determine whether the applicant or holder poses a risk to the safety of children if the Children's Guardian becomes aware that the applicant or holder is subject to an assessment requirement.
- (2) The Children's Guardian may conduct a risk assessment of the holder of a clearance if the Children's Guardian becomes aware that the decision to grant the clearance was based on wrong or incomplete information.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not limit the circumstances in which the Children's Guardian may conduct a risk assessment of an applicant or holder.
- (4) In making an assessment, the Children's Guardian may consider the following:
 - (a) the seriousness of any matters that caused the assessment in relation to the person,
 - (b) the period of time since those matters occurred and the conduct of the person

since they occurred,

- (c) the age of the person at the time the matters occurred,
 - (d) the age of each victim of any relevant offence or conduct at the time it occurred and any matters relating to the vulnerability of the victim,
 - (e) the difference in age between the victim and the person and the relationship (if any) between the victim and the person,
 - (f) whether the person knew, or could reasonably have known, that the victim was a child,
 - (g) the person's present age,
 - (h) the seriousness of the person's total criminal record and the conduct of the person since the matters occurred,
 - (i) the likelihood of any repetition by the person of the offences or conduct or of any other matters that caused the assessment and the impact on children of any such repetition,
 - (j) any information given in, or in relation to, the application,
 - (k) any other matters that the Children's Guardian considers necessary.
- (5) The Children's Guardian may, but is not required to, notify the holder of a clearance in writing if the Children's Guardian decides to conduct a risk assessment of the holder.

16 Request for further information

- (1) The Children's Guardian may, by notice in writing to an applicant for a working with children check clearance or the holder of a clearance, request the applicant or holder to provide further information about an offence or other matter related to the application or clearance.
- (2) The Children's Guardian may terminate an application for a clearance if the applicant fails, without reasonable excuse, to provide the further information within 6 months of the request being made and the Children's Guardian has not withdrawn the request.

17 Interim bars

- (1) The Children's Guardian may, at any time after receiving an application for a working with children check clearance or commencing an assessment of an applicant for or holder of a clearance, determine that the applicant or holder is subject to an interim bar on engaging in child-related work.
- (2) The Children's Guardian may make a determination under this section if it is of the opinion that it is likely that there is a risk to the safety of children if the applicant or holder engages in child-related work pending the determination of the application or assessment.

- (3) The Children's Guardian must, as soon as practicable after imposing an interim bar, notify in writing the applicant or holder, and any employer or proposed employer of the applicant or holder in child-related work (if known to the Children's Guardian), that the applicant or holder is subject to an interim bar on engaging in child-related work.
- (4) An interim bar ceases to have effect:
 - (a) on notification in writing by the Children's Guardian to the applicant or holder that the interim bar is revoked, or
 - (b) in the case of an applicant for a clearance, if the applicant is granted a clearance, or
 - (c) 12 months after the interim bar takes effect,whichever occurs first.

Division 4 Determination of applications for clearances

18 Determination of applications for clearances

- (1) The Children's Guardian must not grant a working with children check clearance to the following persons (disqualified persons):
 - (a) a person convicted before, on or after the commencement of this section of an offence specified in Schedule 2, if the offence was committed as an adult,
 - (b) a person against whom proceedings for any such offence have been commenced, if the offence was committed as an adult, pending determination of the proceedings for the offence.
- (2) The Children's Guardian must grant a clearance to a person who is subject to a risk assessment under Division 3 unless the Children's Guardian is satisfied that the person poses a risk to the safety of children.
- (3) The Children's Guardian must grant a clearance to a person if it is satisfied that the person is not a disqualified person and the person is not subject to a risk assessment under Division 3.

19 Notice of proposed refusal of application

- (1) If the Children's Guardian proposes not to grant a working with children check clearance to a person, the Children's Guardian must notify the person in writing of the proposed decision and that the person may make a submission to the Children's Guardian within the period specified in the notice.

(2) The Children's Guardian must consider any submission made by an applicant within that period before finally deciding the application.

(3) This section does not apply to an application for a clearance that is made by a disqualified person.

20 Notice of final decision granting or refusing clearance

(1) The Children's Guardian must notify the applicant in writing of the Children's Guardian's decision to grant or refuse to grant a working with children check clearance.

(2) Notice of a decision to grant a clearance must include the working with children check number.

(3) Notice of a decision not to grant a clearance must set out the reasons for the refusal and the right to seek a review under Part 4.

(4) The Children's Guardian must notify the employer or proposed employer of an applicant in writing of the refusal of an application for a clearance, if the employer or proposed employer is known to the Children's Guardian.

21 Embargo on further applications after refusal

(1) A person who is refused a working with children check clearance is not entitled to make a further application for a clearance:

(a) until 5 years after the date notice of the refusal was given to the person, or

(b) unless there has been a change of circumstances under which a further early application is permitted under this section.

(2) A further early application is permitted if any of the following occurs:

(a) proceedings that were pending at the date of the refusal are withdrawn or dealt with without the person being found guilty of the offence,

(b) a finding of guilt is quashed or set aside after the date of the refusal,

(c) a finding the subject of an assessment requirement is quashed or set aside or otherwise expressly or impliedly ceases to have effect after the date of the refusal,

(d) the Children's Guardian permits a person to make such an application.

Division 5 Duration and termination of clearances

22 Duration of clearances

(1) A working with children check clearance ceases to have effect 5 years after the date it is granted, unless it is sooner cancelled or surrendered.

- (2) The holder of a clearance may apply for a new clearance at any time within the period beginning 3 months before the expiry of the clearance.

23 Cancellation of clearances

- (1) The Children's Guardian must cancel the working with children check clearance of a person if the Children's Guardian becomes aware that the person is a disqualified person or the Children's Guardian is satisfied that the person poses a risk to the safety of children.
- (2) The Children's Guardian must notify the holder of the clearance in writing of the Children's Guardian's decision to cancel the clearance.
- (3) Notice of a decision to cancel a clearance must set out the reasons for the cancellation and the right to seek a review under Part 4.
- (4) The Children's Guardian must notify the employer of the person in writing of the cancellation of the clearance, if the employer is known to the Children's Guardian.

Note—

The holder of a clearance may also be made subject to an interim bar (see section 17).

24 Surrender of clearances

- (1) The holder of a working with children check clearance may, at any time, notify the Children's Guardian in writing that the holder wishes to surrender the clearance.
- (2) The Children's Guardian must cancel the clearance on receiving the notice.
- (3) The Children's Guardian must notify the employer of the person concerned in writing of the cancellation of the clearance, if the employer is known to the Children's Guardian.

Division 6 Working with children register

25 Working with children register

- (1) The Children's Guardian must establish a working with children register.
- (2) The register must contain the following:
 - (a) particulars of applications for working with children check clearances, including the application number and the status of the applications,
 - (b) particulars of persons holding clearances, including the class and expiry date of the clearances and their working with children check numbers.
- (3) The register is to be maintained in the manner and form approved by the Children's Guardian.

- (4) The Children's Guardian must ensure that information kept on the register is accurate and up-to-date.
- (5) The regulations may provide for information on the register to be made publicly available in accordance with the regulations.

Part 4 Reviews and appeals

26 No appeal in certain cases

A person may not make an application under this Part:

- (a) if the person has been convicted of the murder of a child, or
- (b) if the person's application for a working with children check clearance has been refused wholly or partly on the grounds that the person has been charged with an offence and proceedings related to that offence have not been finally determined.

27 Applications to Administrative Decisions Tribunal for reviews of clearance decisions

- (1) A person who has been refused a working with children check clearance by the Children's Guardian may apply to the Tribunal for a review of the decision within 28 days after notice of the decision was given to the person.
- (2) A person whose clearance is cancelled by the Children's Guardian may apply to the Tribunal for a review of the decision within 28 days after notice of the decision was given to the person.
- (3) A person who is subject to an interim bar imposed by the Children's Guardian may apply to the Tribunal for a review of the decision, but only if the interim bar has been in force for more than 6 months.
- (4) An applicant must fully disclose to the Tribunal any matters relevant to the application.
- (5) The Tribunal may not award costs.
- (6) An appeal lies on a question of law to the Supreme Court by any party to the proceedings.
- (7) Section 53 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 does not apply to a decision that may be reviewed by the Tribunal under this section.

28 Orders relating to disqualified and ineligible persons

- (1) The Tribunal may, on the application of a disqualified person, make an order declaring that the person is not to be treated as a disqualified person for the purposes of this Act in respect of an offence specified in the order (an enabling order). Any such order has effect according to its tenor.

- (2) The Tribunal may, on the application of a person who is not eligible to apply for a clearance because the person has been previously refused a clearance, make an order declaring that the person is to be treated as a person who is eligible to apply for a clearance (an enabling order). Any such order has effect according to its tenor.
- (3) A disqualified person may make an application under this section only if:
 - (a) the person has been refused a working with children check clearance, or
 - (b) the person's clearance has been cancelled,because the person is a disqualified person.
- (4) The Children's Guardian is to be a party to any proceedings for an order under this section and may make submissions in opposition to or support of the making of the order.
- (5) An applicant must fully disclose to the Tribunal any matters relevant to the application.
- (6) If the Tribunal makes an enabling order, the Tribunal may order the Children's Guardian to revoke an interim bar or to grant the person a clearance.
- (7) In any proceedings where an enabling order is sought, it is to be presumed, unless the applicant proves to the contrary, that the applicant poses a risk to the safety of children.
- (8) An enabling order may not be made subject to conditions.
- (9) An appeal lies on a question of law to the Supreme Court by any party to the proceedings.

29 Further review of persons who obtain enabling orders

- (1) The Children's Guardian may apply to the Tribunal to revoke or vary an enabling order made by the Tribunal.
- (2) The Tribunal may:
 - (a) revoke an enabling order, if it is satisfied, on the basis of fresh evidence provided by the Children's Guardian, that the person the subject of the order poses a risk to the safety of children, or
 - (b) confirm an enabling order, if it is satisfied that the person is not likely to pose such a risk.
- (3) The Tribunal may consider fresh evidence provided by the Children's Guardian.
- (4) An appeal lies to the Supreme Court by any party to the proceedings.

30 Determination of applications and other matters

- (1) The Tribunal must consider the following in determining an application under this Part:
 - (a) the seriousness of the offences with respect to which the person is a disqualified person or any matters that caused a refusal of a clearance or imposition of an interim bar,
 - (b) the period of time since those offences or matters occurred and the conduct of the person since they occurred,
 - (c) the age of the person at the time the offences or matters occurred,
 - (d) the age of each victim of any relevant offence or conduct at the time they occurred and any matters relating to the vulnerability of the victim,
 - (e) the difference in age between the victim and the person and the relationship (if any) between the victim and the person,
 - (f) whether the person knew, or could reasonably have known, that the victim was a child,
 - (g) the person's present age,
 - (h) the seriousness of the person's total criminal record and the conduct of the person since the offences occurred,
 - (i) the likelihood of any repetition by the person of the offences or conduct and the impact on children of any such repetition,
 - (j) any information given by the applicant in, or in relation to, the application,
 - (k) any other matters that the Children's Guardian considers necessary.
- (2) On an application under section 28 or 29, the Tribunal may, by order, stay the operation of a determination by the Children's Guardian under this Act relating to the applicant pending the determination of the matter.

Note—

Division 2 of Part 3 of Chapter 5 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 enables a decision the subject of an application under section 27 of this Act to be stayed by the Tribunal.

- (3) Part 1 of Chapter 7 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 does not apply in respect of a decision of the Tribunal under this Part.

Part 5 Provision of information

31 Powers of Children's Guardian to compel production of information

- (1) The Children's Guardian may, by notice in writing, require any government agency to provide the Children's Guardian with information (including documents) relevant to an assessment of whether a person poses a risk to the safety of children.

- (2) A notice under subsection (1) may be given for the purposes of:
 - (a) preparing submissions to the Tribunal under this Act or section 16 of the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000, or
 - (b) determining an application for a working with children check clearance or an assessment of an applicant or the holder of a clearance.
- (3) A government agency to which any such notice is given is by this section authorised and required to provide the Children's Guardian with the information sought by the notice.
- (4) The Children's Guardian may, by notice in writing, request a person other than a government agency to provide the Children's Guardian with a statement setting out information specified by the notice relevant to an assessment of whether a person poses a risk to the safety of children for the purposes of this Act.
- (5) A person other than a government agency to whom any such request is given is by this section authorised to provide the Children's Guardian with the information requested.
- (6) A notice under this section may specify a day on or before which the notice is to be complied with.
- (7) If documents are given to the Children's Guardian under this section, the Children's Guardian:
 - (a) may take possession of, and make copies of or take extracts from, the documents, and
 - (b) may keep possession of the documents for such period as is necessary for the purposes of preparing the submission or considering an application, and
 - (c) during that period must permit them to be inspected at all reasonable times by the persons who would be entitled to inspect them if they were not in the possession of the Children's Guardian.

32 Incidental disclosure of information by DPP authorised

- (1) The Director of Public Prosecutions is, on receipt of a notice under section 31, authorised to disclose to the Children's Guardian information or other documents that may contain information in addition to the information required by the notice, whether or not that information or those documents are subject to legal professional privilege or other restrictions on disclosure.

- (2) This section has effect despite any other Act or law.

33 Notification of offences and other information

- (1) The Commissioner of Police is authorised at any time, in accordance with this Part and the regulations, to disclose (or arrange for a member of the NSW Police Force to disclose) to the Children's Guardian the following information:
- (a) information relating to any matter that may cause a person to be a disqualified person or result in an assessment requirement affecting a person,
 - (b) information relating to the criminal history of a person, including (but not limited to) information about offences that cause or may cause the person to be a disqualified person or result in an assessment requirement affecting the person,
 - (c) without limiting paragraph (a) or (b), information relating to the circumstances of an offence or other matter disclosed under this section.
- (2) Information that may be disclosed under this section includes:
- (a) information relating to spent convictions, despite anything to the contrary in the Criminal Records Act 1991, and
 - (b) information relating to criminal charges, whether or not heard, proven, dismissed, withdrawn or discharged, and
 - (c) information relating to offences, despite anything to the contrary in section 579 of the Crimes Act 1900.
- (3) This section does not limit the persons to whom, or the circumstances in which, information relating to the criminal history, including the criminal record, of persons may be disclosed apart from this Act.
- (4) Information about a person's criminal history may be disclosed under this Act whether or not the information relates to events that occurred when the person was under the age of 18 years.

34 Notification of information relating to criminal history for interstate child-related work screening

- (1) The Commissioner of Police may disclose (or arrange for a member of the NSW Police Force to disclose) information relating to any criminal history of persons to the following persons for the purposes of interstate child-related work screening:
- (a) CrimTrac,
 - (b) a police force or service of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory,
 - (c) an approved interstate screening agency.

- (2) A person to whom information is disclosed may disclose that information to an approved interstate screening agency for the purposes of interstate child-related work screening undertaken by the agency.
- (3) The Commissioner of Police may disclose (or arrange for a member of the NSW Police Force to disclose) to an approved interstate screening agency, at the request of the agency, information relating to the circumstances of an offence or alleged offence disclosed under this section for the purposes of interstate child-related work screening.
- (4) Information that may be disclosed under this section includes:
 - (a) information relating to convictions, including spent convictions, quashed convictions and offences for which a pardon has been given, despite anything to the contrary in the Criminal Records Act 1991,
 - (b) information relating to criminal charges, whether heard or not heard, proven, dismissed, withdrawn or discharged,
 - (c) information relating to offences, despite anything to the contrary in section 579 of the Crimes Act 1900.
- (5) This section does not limit the persons to whom, or the circumstances in which, information relating to the criminal history, including the criminal record of, persons may be disclosed apart from this Act.
- (6) In this section:

approved interstate screening agency means:

- (a) a person or body prescribed by the regulations, or
- (b) a body that is authorised under a law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory to conduct interstate child-related work screening and is approved by the Minister for the purposes of this section.

interstate child-related work screening means using information about persons who work, or seek to work, with children in a way that is authorised or required under a law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory, for the purpose of estimating the risk to the safety of children posed by any such person if working with children.

35 Notification by reporting bodies of conduct constituting assessment requirement trigger

- (1) It is the duty of a reporting body to notify the Children's Guardian of the name and other identifying particulars of any child-related worker against whom the reporting body has made a finding that the worker has engaged in conduct specified in clause 2 of Schedule 1.

- (2) Notification under this section extends to findings made before the commencement of this section.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the following:
 - (a) the form of any such notification,
 - (b) the provision by reporting bodies of further particulars of any such matter, or any potential such matter, if requested by the Children's Guardian,
 - (c) the keeping of records by reporting bodies of information about such matters or potential such matters supplied to the Children's Guardian,
 - (d) the amendment or withdrawal of a notification by a reporting body.
- (4) In this section:

reporting body means the following:

- (a) a NSW Government agency,
- (b) a Department or public sector agency within the meaning of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002,
- (c) a registration or other licensing authority constituted under an Act,
- (d) a designated government agency or designated non-government agency within the meaning of Part 3A of the Ombudsman Act 1974 that has been granted an exemption under section 25CA of that Act,
- (e) any other employer or professional or other body that supervises the conduct of an employee prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

36 Enforcement notices

- (1) The Children's Guardian may, by notice in writing served on a reporting body or an officer of a reporting body, require the reporting body to comply with obligations of the reporting body under section 35 within the period specified in the notice.
- (2) The Children's Guardian may serve a notice under this section if it is of the opinion that the reporting body has failed to comply with any provision of section 35.
- (3) The notice must set out the reasons for the notice being given.
- (4) The period specified in a notice is to be not less than 28 days.
- (5) The Children's Guardian may revoke a notice at any time.
- (6) A person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a notice in force under this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, in the case of a corporation, or 50 penalty units in any other case.

- (7) In any proceedings for an offence against this section, the onus of proving that a person had a reasonable excuse lies with the defendant.
- (8) Nothing in this section prevents the Children's Guardian from contacting reporting bodies for the purpose of informing them of their obligations under this Act or requesting any information that reporting bodies are required to provide to the Children's Guardian under this Act.

Part 6 Functions of Children's Guardian

37 Database functions of Children's Guardian

The Children's Guardian may exercise the following functions:

- (a) collecting and maintaining a database of orders by the Tribunal under this Act, and other orders and proceedings completed against a person that result in assessment requirements, including updating, correcting and removing entries on the database,
- (b) collecting and maintaining a database of notifications to the Children's Guardian of matters that constitute or might constitute the basis of an assessment requirement, including updating, correcting and removing entries on the database,
- (c) collecting and maintaining a database of employers who seek information about working with children check clearances for child-related work purposes, including updating, correcting and removing entries on the database.

38 Children's Guardian's public awareness and advice functions

The Children's Guardian may promote public awareness of and provide advice on requirements for working with children check clearances and related matters concerning child-related work, including encouraging organisations to develop their capacity to be safe for children.

Note—

For the Children's Guardian's other child-related employment functions, see Chapter 13 of the Children and Young Persons \(Care and Protection\) Act 1998.

39 Children's Guardian's monitoring and auditing functions

- (1) The Children's Guardian is to monitor and audit compliance with the requirements of this Act and the regulations.
- (2) The Minister may give the Children's Guardian a written direction on the exercise of its functions under this section, and the Children's Guardian is to comply with the direction.

40 Power to compel production of information for monitoring or auditing purposes

- (1) For the purposes of exercising its monitoring or auditing functions under this Act, the Children's Guardian may, by notice in writing, require an officer of a government agency, an employer or a body that supervises, represents or has other functions with respect to an employer to do any one or more of the following:
 - (a) to provide to the Children's Guardian, on or before a day specified in the notice, a statement setting out such information as is so specified relating to the matters being monitored or audited,
 - (b) to provide to the Children's Guardian, on or before a day specified in the notice, such documents as are so specified relating to the matters being monitored or audited.
- (2) A person who:
 - (a) fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement of a notice under this section, or
 - (b) provides the Children's Guardian with information that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular,is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, in the case of a corporation, and 50 penalty units in any other case.
- (3) A notice may specify the manner in which a statement or documents may be given to the Children's Guardian.
- (4) If documents are given to the Children's Guardian under this section, the Children's Guardian:
 - (a) may take possession of, and make copies of or take extracts from, the documents, and
 - (b) may keep possession of the documents for such period as is necessary for the purposes of exercising its monitoring or auditing functions, and
 - (c) during that period must permit them to be inspected at all reasonable times by the persons who would be entitled to inspect them if they were not in the possession of the Children's Guardian.
- (5) In any proceedings for an offence against this section, the onus of proving that a person had a reasonable excuse lies with the defendant.

40A Power to audit declarations made by exempt workers

- (1) This section applies to a statutory declaration provided to an employer by an exempt worker that contains information relating to the offences specified in Schedule 2.
- (2) The Children's Guardian may audit the accuracy of the statutory declaration, or may authorise a person to carry out such an audit.
- (3) The Children's Guardian may authorise a person under this section only if the Privacy Commissioner advises the Children's Guardian, in writing, that the Privacy Commissioner is satisfied that the person is able to adequately provide for the security of any information obtained in the exercise of functions pursuant to the authorisation.
- (4) The Commissioner of Police is authorised to disclose (or arrange for a member of the NSW Police Force to disclose) the following information for the purposes of this section:
 - (a) information relating to spent convictions, despite anything to the contrary in the Criminal Records Act 1991,
 - (b) information relating to offences, despite anything to the contrary in section 579 of the Crimes Act 1900.
- (5) If a person authorised under this section reasonably believes that a statutory declaration is inaccurate, the person must, as soon as practicable, inform the Children's Guardian and provide any information relevant to that belief to the Children's Guardian.
- (6) The Children's Guardian may disclose information obtained under this section to the following persons:
 - (a) the person who made the statutory declaration,
 - (b) the employer of that person,
 - (c) a police officer of the State or of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory,
 - (d) the Ombudsman,
 - (e) any other investigative agency that the Children's Guardian considers appropriate,
 - (f) the Department of Family and Community Services,
 - (g) the Director of Public Prosecutions,
 - (h) a court or tribunal,
 - (i) an approved interstate screening agency,

(j) the Minister,

(k) the Privacy Commissioner,

(l) any other person approved by the Privacy Commissioner and prescribed in the regulations.

(7) The Minister may give the Children's Guardian a written direction on the exercise of functions under this section and the Children's Guardian is to comply with the direction.

(8) In this section, exempt worker means a worker who is exempted by the regulations from the requirement to hold a clearance.

Part 7 Miscellaneous

41 Act to bind Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of New South Wales and, in so far as the legislative power of the Parliament of New South Wales permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

42 Effect of Act on other rights and procedures

(1) An assessment under this Act or interstate child-related work screening (as referred to in section 34) may be conducted, and information disclosed or obtained, in accordance with this Act despite any other Act or law to the contrary.

(2) Nothing in this Act affects any statutory right that an employee may have in relation to employment or termination of employment.

(3) However, any court or tribunal exercising jurisdiction with respect to any such right must have regard to the results of any determination of an application for a working with children check clearance or assessment carried out under this Act in connection with the work concerned and the welfare of children as the paramount consideration in that determination or assessment.

(4) Nothing in this Act affects the operation of Part 2 of Chapter 9 of the Health Services Act 1997.

(5) This section is subject to section 47.

43 Protection of persons relating to child-related work

(1) Anything done or omitted to be done by a person in good faith and with reasonable care:

(a) for the purpose of the determination of an application for a working with children check clearance or an assessment of the holder of a clearance, or

(b) for the purpose of exercising a function under this Act, does not subject the person to any action, liability, claim or demand.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1):

(a) a person has qualified privilege in proceedings for defamation in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by the person for the purposes of the determination of an application for a clearance or an assessment or otherwise exercising a function under this Act, and

(b) damages or compensation (whether for breach of contract or otherwise) are not payable in respect of a decision not to grant a clearance or to cancel a clearance, or to impose an interim bar, as a result of an assessment carried out in good faith and with reasonable care for the purposes of this Act or a review application.

(3) This section does not limit or affect any other right, privilege or immunity that a person has as a defendant in any proceedings.

44 Evidentiary certificate

A certificate issued by the Children's Guardian that states that, on a specified date or during a specified period:

(a) a specified person was or was not the holder of a working with children check clearance, or

(b) a specified person had or had not made an application for a clearance, or

(c) a clearance was or was not in force, or

(d) a specified person was or was not subject to an interim bar, is admissible in legal proceedings as evidence of the matters so stated.

45 Unauthorised disclosure or dishonest collection of information

(1) A person who discloses any information obtained by the person in connection with the exercise of functions under this Act or the regulations is guilty of an offence unless the disclosure:

(a) is made in good faith for the purposes of the exercise of a function under this Act or the regulations, or

(b) is made with the consent of the person to whom the information relates, or

(c) is ordered by a court, or any other body or person exercising judicial functions, for the purposes of the hearing or determination by the court, body or person of any matter, or

(d) is made with other lawful excuse.

- (2) A person who dishonestly obtains confidential information relating to the exercise of functions under this Act or the regulations is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

46 Obtaining information on disciplinary matters under Government Information \(Public Access\) Act 2009

- (1) A person against whom a finding referred to in clause 2 of Schedule 1 has been made is, subject to this section, entitled to apply for access under the Government Information \(Public Access\) Act 2009 to any information about the finding. That Act applies to the determination of any such application for access.
- (2) Any provision of that Act relating to fees or charges payable by applicants does not apply to such an application for access.
- (3) The provisions of the Government Information \(Public Access\) Act 2009 apply for the purposes of this section whether or not the agency is an agency to which those provisions apply.
- (4) The regulations under this Act may modify any provisions of that Act in its application under this section.

47 Relationship with other Acts and laws

- (1) A prohibition on employment under this Act prevails to the extent of any inconsistency between it and any other Act or law.
- (2) The Industrial Relations Commission or any other court or tribunal does not have jurisdiction under any Act or law to order the re-instatement or re-employment of a person or worker contrary to a prohibition on employment imposed by this Act, or to order the payment of damages or compensation for any removal from employment of a person from employment prohibited under this Act.

48 Information about old offences may be given

For the purposes of this Act, section 579 of the Crimes Act 1900 does not apply to or in respect of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 or 2.

48A Reports under Children and Young Persons \(Care and Protection\) Act 1998

- (1) Any information obtained by the Children's Guardian in the course of exercising functions under this Act may be used for the purposes of making a report to the Director-General of the Department of Family and Community Services under section 24 (Report concerning child or young person at risk of significant harm) or 27 (Mandatory reporting) of the Children and Young Persons \(Care and Protection\) Act 1998.

- (2) A report referred to in section 29 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 may be provided to the Children's Guardian for the purpose of the exercise of the Children's Guardian's functions under this Act. Any such report may not be subsequently dealt with by the Children's Guardian in a manner that contravenes that section, except to the extent that it is necessary for the Children's Guardian to do so in the exercise of functions under this Act.

49 Nature of proceedings for offences

Proceedings for an offence under this Act or the regulations may be dealt with summarily before the Local Court.

50 Offences by corporations

- (1) If a corporation contravenes, whether by act or omission, any provision of this Act, each person who is a director of the corporation or who is concerned in the management of the corporation is taken to have contravened the same provision if the person knowingly authorised or permitted the contravention.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a contravention of a provision of the regulations that is declared by the regulations to be an excluded provision for the purposes of this section.
- (3) A person may be proceeded against and convicted under a provision pursuant to subsection (1) whether or not the corporation has been proceeded against or has been convicted under the provision.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects any liability imposed on a corporation for an offence committed by the corporation under this Act.
- (5) This section applies only to offences against Part 2.

51 Service of documents

- (1) A document that is authorised or required by this Act or the regulations to be given to any person may be given by:
 - (a) in the case of a natural person:
 - (i) delivering it to the person personally, or
 - (ii) sending it by post to the address specified by the person for the giving or service of documents or, if no such address is specified, the residential or business address of the person last known to the person giving or serving the document, or
 - (iii) sending it by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number of the person or by email to the email address of the person, or

(b) in the case of a body corporate:

- (i) leaving it with a person apparently of or above the age of 16 years at, or by sending it by post to, the head office, a registered office or a principal office of the body corporate or to an address specified by the body corporate for the giving or service of documents, or
- (ii) sending it by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number of the body corporate or by email to the email address of the body corporate.

- (2) Notice of a working with children check number may be given to a person by sending it by SMS message to the person's last known mobile telephone number.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects the operation of any provision of a law or of the rules of a court authorising a document to be served on a person in any other manner.

52 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) In particular, the regulations may make provision for or with respect to the following:
 - (a) the information to be provided by the Children's Guardian to applicants for or holders of working with children check clearances,
 - (b) the exemption of persons or classes of persons from all or any requirements of this Act, unconditionally or subject to conditions.
- (3) The regulations may amend Schedule 1 or Schedule 2.
- (4) The regulations may create offences punishable by a penalty not exceeding 20 penalty units.

53 Review of Act

- (1) The Minister is to review this Act to determine whether the policy objectives of the Act remain valid and whether the terms of the Act remain appropriate for securing those objectives.
- (2) The review is to be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 5 years from the date of assent to this Act.
- (3) A report on the outcome of the review is to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 12 months after the end of the period of 5 years.

Schedule 1 Assessment requirement triggers

Schedule 3 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Part 1 General

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act or any Act that amends this Act.
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on enactment of this Act

2 Definitions

In this Part:

existing child-related worker means a worker who was engaged in child-related work immediately before the commencement of Part 2 of this Act.

existing employer means the employer of an existing child-related worker immediately before the commencement of Part 2 of this Act.

existing resident means an adult who was residing at the home of an authorised carer or a provider of an education and care service where foster care or an education and care service was provided immediately before the commencement of Part 2 of this Act.

former provisions means Part 7 of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998, as in force immediately before its repeal by this Act.

3 Existing employees and residents

- (1) An existing child-related worker is not required to obtain or have a working with children check clearance while the worker continues in the employment of an existing employer.

Note—

Regulations under clause 5 may provide for the application of the requirements under this Act to existing child-related workers and existing residents.

- (2) For the purposes of this clause, a person in the Government Service or the NSW Health Service is taken to have ceased to be employed by an existing employer if the person becomes a member of staff of a Government Department or agency that has a different ABN.
- (3) An existing resident is not required to obtain or have a clearance while the resident continues to reside in the place where the resident resided immediately before the commencement of Part 2 of this Act.
- (4) This clause does not apply to an existing child-related worker or an existing resident who was a disqualified person on the commencement of this clause or who subsequently becomes a disqualified person.
- (5) This clause does not apply to a person in respect of work carried out by the person as a self-employed person.

4 Application of Act to existing self-employed persons

- (1) This clause applies to a person:
 - (a) who was engaged in child-related work as a self-employed person immediately before the commencement of Part 2 of this Act, and
 - (b) who was, immediately before the commencement of this clause, required to hold a child-related employment certificate.
- (2) A person to whom this clause applies who held a child-related employment certificate immediately before the commencement of this clause is not, until the expiry date of the person's certificate, required to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of this Act in respect of child-related work undertaken by the person as a self-employed person.
- (3) A person to whom this clause applies who did not hold a child-related employment certificate on the commencement of this clause is not required to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of this Act in respect of child-related work undertaken by the person as a self-employed person until the day prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this clause.
- (4) This clause does not apply to a person who was a disqualified person on the commencement of this clause or who subsequently becomes a disqualified person.
- (5) In this clause:

child-related employment certificate means a certificate issued under Part 2 of the Commission for Children and Young People Regulation 2009 to a self-employed person in which the Commission certified that the person was not a prohibited person (within the meaning of Part 7 of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998).

5 Staged implementation of new scheme

The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the following:

- (a) the application of this Act (or provisions of this Act) to classes of existing child-related workers or existing residents, and other persons who become child-related workers or residents subject to section 10 on or after the commencement of Part 2 of this Act, on and from a specified date or dates,
- (b) the obligations of persons who are child-related workers or such residents pending the application of this Act to those persons,
- (c) the exemption from this Act (or provisions of this Act) of, or the application of provisions of this Act to, classes of persons who are existing child-related workers or existing residents,
- (d) the application of the former provisions to existing child-related workers or existing residents, and other persons, pending the application of provisions of this Act to those persons.

6 Existing prohibited persons declarations

- (1) This clause applies to a person who is the subject of an order containing a declaration (in force immediately before the repeal of the former provisions) under section 33H or 33I of the former provisions that Division 2 of those provisions is not to apply to the person in respect of a specified offence (an existing declaration).
- (2) On the application of this Act to a person to whom this clause applies:
 - (a) a person who is the subject of an unconditional existing declaration is taken to be the subject of an order under Part 4 of this Act declaring that the person concerned is not to be treated as a disqualified person in respect of the offence, and
 - (b) any other person to whom this clause applies is to be treated as a disqualified person for the purposes of this Act.

7 Part subject to regulations

This Part is subject to the regulations.
