- (3) (Repealed)
- (4) The failure of a court to cause a copy of a children's community service order to be served on or sent to a person in accordance with this section does not invalidate the order.

13 Number of hours of community service work

- (1) When a children's community service order is made, the court making the order shall specify in the order the number of hours of community service work to be performed by the person in respect of whom the order is made.

maximum term of imprisonment provided by law exceeds 6 months, the sum of the numbers of hours referred to in subsection (3) (a) and (b) may exceed 100 hours, but must not exceed 250 hours. However, the number of hours of community service work remaining to be performed under orders made in respect of offences other than offences of the kind referred to in paragraph (b) must not, at any time, exceed 100 hours.

- (1A) Subsection (1) does not prevent a direction being given under section 17 to perform community service work, even if the person would take the place of any other person who would otherwise be employed in that community service work as a regular employee, as long as the community service work is to be performed:
  - (a) at facilities (within the meaning of the Community Welfare Act 1987) operated by officers, or
  - (b) for such authorities of the State, in such circumstances, as are prescribed by the

- (2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) revoke the order, or

(b) revoke the order and deal with the person, for the offence in respect of which the order was made, in any manner in which the person could have been dealt with for that offence by the court had the order not been made.

(3) A person on whom a penalty is imposed as a consequence of the revocation of a children's community service order under this section has the same rights of appeal as if the penalty had been imposed when the person was convicted of the offence to which the penalty relates.

(4) For the purposes only of determining an application for revocation of a children's community service order, the order is taken to be in force even if the relevant maximum period has expired.
