Children (Criminal Proceedings) Act 1987 No 55

New South Wales

An Act with respect to the conduct of criminal proceedings against children and other young persons.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Act 1987.

2 Commencement

(1) Sections 1 and 2 shall commence on the date of assent to this Act.

(1A) Section 9 commences on the date that section 9 (2) is repealed by the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Amendment Act 2008.

(2) Except as provided by subsection (1), this Act shall commence on such day or days as may be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Act, except in so far as the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires:

adult means a person who is of or above the age of 18 years.

authorised justice means:

(a) a Magistrate, or

(b) an authorised officer within the meaning of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986.

child means a person who is under the age of 18 years.

Children's Court means the Children's Court of New South Wales constituted by the Children's Court Act 1987.

court attendance notice means a court attendance notice issued under Division 1 of Part 2 of Chapter 4 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986.

detention centre has the same meaning as it has in the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987.

juvenile justice officer means a juvenile justice officer employed in the Department of Juvenile Justice.

parental responsibility, in relation to a child, means all the duties, powers, responsibilities and authority which, by law, parents have in relation to their children.

person responsible, in relation to a child, means:

- (a) a person having parental responsibility for the child, or
- (b) a person who has the care of the child (whether or not the person has parental responsibility for the child).

person subject to control has the same meaning as it has in the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987.

regulation means a regulation made under this Act.

road transport legislation has the same meaning as it has in the Road Transport Act 2013.

serious children's indictable offence means:

- (a) homicide,
- (b) an offence punishable by imprisonment for life or for 25 years,
- (c) an offence arising under section 61J (otherwise than in circumstances referred to in subsection (2) (d) of that section) or 61K of the Crimes Act 1900 (or under section 61B of that Act before the commencement of Schedule 1 (2) to the Crimes (Amendment) Act 1989),
- (c1) an offence under the Firearms Act 1996 relating to the manufacture or sale of firearms that is punishable by imprisonment for 20 years,
- (d) the offence of attempting to commit an offence arising under section 61J (otherwise than in circumstances referred to in subsection (2) (d) of that section) or 61K of the Crimes Act 1900 (or under section 61B of that Act before the commencement of Schedule 1 (2) to the Crimes (Amendment) Act 1989), or
- (e) an indictable offence prescribed by the regulations as a serious children's indictable offence for the purposes of this Act.

traffic offence means an offence arising under a provision of:

- (a) the road transport legislation,
- (b) the Roads Act 1993,
- (c) the Motor Accidents Compensation Act 1999, or
- (d) the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Act 1942, or
- (e) the Recreation Vehicles Act 1983, in respect of the use, standing or parking of a motor vehicle within the meaning of that provision.

- (2) (Repealed)
- (3) In this Act:
 - (a) a reference to a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty, and
 - (b) a reference to the exercise of a function includes, where the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty.
- (4) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.

Part 2 Criminal proceedings generally

Division 1 Preliminary

4 Application

This Part applies to:

- (a) any court that exercises criminal jurisdiction, and
- (b) any criminal proceedings before any such court, notwithstanding any law or practice to the contrary.

5 Age of criminal responsibility

It shall be conclusively presumed that no child who is under the age of 10 years can be guilty of an offence.

6 Principles relating to exercise of functions under Act

A person or body that has functions under this Act is to exercise those functions having regard to the following principles:

- (a) that children have rights and freedoms before the law equal to those enjoyed by adults and, in particular, a right to be heard, and a right to participate, in the processes that lead to decisions that affect them,

- (b) that children who commit offences bear responsibility for their actions but, because of their state of dependency and immaturity, require guidance and assistance,
- (c) that it is desirable, wherever possible, to allow the education or employment of a child to proceed without interruption,
- (d) that it is desirable, wherever possible, to allow a child to reside in his or her own home,
- (e) that the penalty imposed on a child for an offence should be no greater than that imposed on an adult who commits an offence of the same kind,
- (f) that it is desirable that children who commit offences be assisted with their reintegration into the community so as to sustain family and community ties,
- (g) that it is desirable that children who commit offences accept responsibility for their actions and, wherever possible, make reparation for their actions,
- (h) that, subject to the other principles described above, consideration should be given to the effect of any crime on the victim.

7 Jurisdiction of Children's Court not to be exercised by certain other courts

- (1) Except as provided by this Act, the Local Court may not hear and determine criminal proceedings that the Children's Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine.
- (2) The Drug Court may not hear or determine criminal proceedings that a Children's Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine.

7A Courts may rely on apparent age of defendants

- (1) For the purpose of enabling a court to determine whether or not it has jurisdiction to hear and determine criminal proceedings against a person in circumstances in which the court's jurisdiction depends on the person's age, the court may, if it is satisfied that no other evidence of the person's age is readily available, rely on the apparent age of the person.
- (2) Nothing in this section limits the operation of Part 4.

Division 2 Commencement of proceedings

8 Commencement of proceedings

- (1) Criminal proceedings should not be commenced against a child otherwise than by way of court attendance notice.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply:
 - (a) if the offence for which proceedings are being commenced consists of:

- (i) a serious children's indictable offence,
 - (ii) an indictable offence under Division 2 of Part 2 of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985, or
 - (iii) an offence (whether indictable or otherwise) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph,
- (b) if, in the opinion of the person by whom the proceedings are commenced, there are reasonable grounds for believing that:
- (i) the child is unlikely to comply with a court attendance notice, or
 - (ii) the child is likely to commit further offences,
- if the proceedings were to be commenced by court attendance notice, or
- (c) if, in the opinion of the person by whom the proceedings are commenced:
- (i) the violent behaviour of the child, or
 - (ii) the violent nature of the offence,
- indicates that the child should not be allowed to remain at liberty.
- (3) (Repealed)

9 Expedition where child in custody

- (1) If criminal proceedings are to be commenced against a child otherwise than by way of court attendance notice, and the child is not released (with or without bail under the Bail Act 2013), the child shall be brought before the Children's Court as soon as practicable.
- (2) (Repealed)

9A (Repealed)

Division 3 Hearings

10 Exclusion of general public from criminal proceedings

- (1) While a court is hearing criminal proceedings to which a child is a party:
- (a) any person (other than a person referred to in paragraph (b) or (c)) who is not directly interested in the proceedings is to be, unless the court otherwise directs, excluded from the place where the proceedings are being heard, and
 - (b) any person who is engaged in preparing a report on the proceedings for dissemination through a public news medium is, unless the court otherwise directs, entitled to enter or remain in the place where the proceedings are being heard, and

- (c) any family victim is entitled to enter or remain in the place where the proceedings are being heard.
- (2) While a court is hearing criminal proceedings to which a child is a party, the court may direct any person (other than the child or any other person who is directly interested in the proceedings or a family victim) to leave the place where the proceedings are being heard during the examination of any witness if the court is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the child that such a direction should be given.
- (3) A reference in subsection (1) or (2) to criminal proceedings does not include a reference to proceedings held before a court other than the Children's Court in respect of a traffic offence.
- (3A) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, if criminal proceedings to which a child is a party are proceedings for a prescribed sexual offence (within the meaning of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986):
 - (a) sections 291, 291A, 291B, 291C and 294C of that Act apply in respect of the proceedings, and
 - (b) subsections (1) and (2) of this section do not apply in respect of any part of the proceedings held in camera under section 291, 291A or 291B of that Act, and
 - (c) a person or persons whom a complainant is entitled to have present near the complainant when giving evidence (under section 294C of that Act) cannot be excluded from, or directed to leave, the place where the proceedings are heard under this section (whether or not the proceedings are held in camera).

Note—

Sections 291, 291A and 291B of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 require certain proceedings, or parts of proceedings, for a prescribed sexual offence to be held in camera. The general rule is that any part of a proceeding in which evidence is given by the complainant must be held in camera (unless the court otherwise directs), and other parts of the proceedings may also be held in camera. The complainant is entitled to have one or more persons chosen by the complainant to be near the complainant when giving evidence under section 294C of that Act.

- (4) In this section:

deceased victim, in relation to an offence, means a person against whom the offence was committed and who has died as a direct result of the offence.

family victim, in relation to a criminal proceeding for an offence, means a person who, at the time the offence was committed, was a member of the immediate family of a deceased victim of the offence (whether or not the person suffered personal harm as a result of the offence).

member of the immediate family of a deceased victim means:

- (a) the victim's spouse, or
- (b) the victim's de facto partner, or
- (c) a parent or step-parent of the victim, or person having parental responsibility for the victim, or
- (d) a child or step-child of the victim, or some other child for whom the victim has parental responsibility, or
- (e) a brother, sister, step-brother or step-sister of the victim.

Note—

“De facto partner” is defined in section 21C of the Interpretation Act 1987.

11 (Repealed)

12 Proceedings to be explained to children

- (1) If criminal proceedings are brought against a child, the court that hears those proceedings must take such measures as are reasonably practicable to ensure that the child understands the proceedings.
- (2), (2A) (Repealed)
- (3) The Children's Court shall, if requested by the child or by some other person on behalf of the child, explain to the child:
 - (a) any aspect of the procedure of the Children's Court, and
 - (b) any decision or ruling made by the Children's Court,in or in relation to the proceedings.
- (4) A court shall give the child the fullest opportunity practicable to be heard, and to participate, in the proceedings.

12A Bail applications

The provisions of section 10 and Division 3A apply to a child who appears or is brought before a court in relation to a bail application in the same way as those provisions apply to a child appearing or brought before a court in any criminal proceeding.

13 Admissibility of certain statements etc

- (1) Any statement, confession, admission or information made or given to a member of the police force by a child who is a party to criminal proceedings shall not be admitted in evidence in those proceedings unless:

- (a) there was present at the place where, and throughout the period of time during which, it was made or given:
 - (i) a person responsible for the child,
 - (ii) an adult (other than a member of the police force) who was present with the consent of the person responsible for the child,
 - (iii) in the case of a child who is of or above the age of 14 years—an adult (other than a member of the police force) who was present with the consent of the child, or
 - (iv) an Australian legal practitioner of the child's own choosing, or
- (b) the person acting judicially in those proceedings:
 - (i) is satisfied that there was proper and sufficient reason for the absence of such an adult from the place where, or throughout the period of time during which, the statement, confession, admission or information was made or given, and
 - (ii) considers that, in the particular circumstances of the case, the statement, confession, admission or information should be admitted in evidence in those proceedings.

(2) In this section:

- (a) a reference to a person acting judicially includes a reference to a person making a determination as to the admissibility of evidence in committal proceedings, and
- (b) a reference to criminal proceedings is a reference to any criminal proceedings in which a person is alleged to have committed an offence while a child or which arise out of any other criminal proceedings in which a person is alleged to have committed an offence while a child, and
- (c) a reference to a person responsible for a child does not include a member of the police force (unless he or she has parental responsibility for the child).

- (3) Nothing in this section limits or affects the admissibility in evidence in any criminal proceedings against a child of any statement or information that the child is required to make or give by virtue of the provisions of any Act or law.

14 Recording of conviction

- (1) Without limiting any other power of a court to deal with a child who has pleaded guilty to, or has been found guilty of, an offence, a court:
 - (a) shall not, in respect of any offence, proceed to, or record such a finding as, a conviction in relation to a child who is under the age of 16 years, and

(b) may, in respect of an offence which is disposed of summarily, refuse to proceed to, or record such a finding as, a conviction in relation to a child who is of or above the age of 16 years.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit any power of a court to proceed to, or record such a finding as, a conviction in respect of a child who is charged with an indictable offence that is not disposed of summarily.

15 Evidence of prior offences and other matters not admissible in certain criminal proceedings

(1) The fact that a person has pleaded guilty to an offence in, or has been found guilty of an offence by, a court (being an offence committed when the person was a child) shall not be admitted in evidence (whether as to guilt or the imposition of any penalty) in any criminal proceedings subsequently taken against the person in respect of any other offence if:

(a) a conviction was not recorded against the person in respect of the firstmentioned offence, and

(b) the person has not, within the period of 2 years prior to the commencement of proceedings for the other offence, been subject to any judgment, sentence or order of a court whereby the person has been punished for any other offence.

(2) Subsection (1) or (3) does not apply to any criminal proceedings before the Children's Court.

(3) The fact that a person has been dealt with by a warning, caution or youth justice conference under the Young Offenders Act 1997 (being in respect of an alleged offence committed when the person was a child) is not to be admitted in evidence (whether as to guilt or the imposition of any penalty) in any criminal proceedings subsequently taken against the person in respect of any other offence.

Division 3A Publication and broadcasting of names

15A Publishing and broadcasting of names prohibited

(1) The name of a person must not be published or broadcast in a way that connects the person with criminal proceedings if:

(a) the proceedings relate to the person and the person was a child when the offence to which the proceedings relate was committed, or

(b) the person appears as a witness in the proceedings and was a child when the offence to which the proceedings relate was committed (whether or not the person was a child when appearing as a witness), or

(c) the person is mentioned in the proceedings in relation to something that occurred when the person was a child, or

- (d) the person is otherwise involved in the proceedings and was a child when so involved, or
- (e) the person is a brother or sister of a victim of the offence to which the proceedings relate, and that person and the victim were both children when the offence was committed.

- (2) This section applies only to the publication or broadcast of a person's name to the public, or a section of the public, by publication in a newspaper or periodical publication, by radio or television broadcast or other electronic broadcast, by the Internet, or by any other means of dissemination.
- (3) The publication of information to an Internet website that provides the opportunity for, or facilitates or enables, dissemination of information to the public or a section of the public (whether or not the particular publication results in the dissemination of information to the public or a section of the public) constitutes the publication of information to the public or a section of the public for the purposes of this section.
- (4) This section applies to the publication or broadcast of the name of a person:
 - (a) whether the publication or broadcast occurs before or after the proceedings concerned are disposed of, and
 - (b) even if the person is no longer a child, or is deceased, at the time of the publication or broadcast.
- (5) A reference in this Division to the name of a person includes a reference to any information, picture or other material that identifies the person or is likely to lead to the identification of the person.
- (6) A reference in this Division to a person who appears as a witness before a court in any criminal proceedings includes a reference to a child who gives evidence in the form of a recording in proceedings in accordance with Division 3 of Part 6 of Chapter 6 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986.
- (7) A person who publishes or broadcasts the name of any person the publication or broadcasting of which is prohibited by this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units (in the case of a corporation) or 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both (in any other case).

15B Exception for official report of proceedings

This Division does not prohibit the publication or broadcasting of an official report of the proceedings of a court that includes the name of any person the publication or broadcasting of which would otherwise be prohibited by this Division.

15C Exception for person convicted of serious children's indictable offence

- (1) This Division does not prohibit the publication or broadcasting of the name of a person who has been convicted of a serious children's indictable offence if the publication or broadcasting is authorised by a court under this section.
- (2) A court that sentences a person on conviction for a serious children's indictable offence may, by order made at the time of sentencing, authorise the publication or broadcasting of the name of the person (whether or not the person consents or concurs).
- (3) In determining whether to make such an order, a court is to have regard to the following matters:
 - (a) the level of seriousness of the offence concerned,
 - (b) the effect of the offence on any victim of the offence and (in the case of an offence that resulted in the death of the victim) the effect of the offence on the victim's family,
 - (c) the weight to be given to general deterrence,
 - (d) the subjective features of the offender,
 - (e) the offender's prospects of rehabilitation,
 - (f) such other matters as the court considers relevant having regard to the interests of justice.
- (4) A court that makes an order under this section must indicate to the person, and make a record of, its reasons for doing so.

15D Exception for publication or broadcasting with consent

- (1) This Division does not prohibit the publication or broadcasting of the name of a person:
 - (a) in the case of a person who is under the age of 16 years at the time of publication or broadcasting—with the consent of the court concerned, or
 - (b) in the case of a person who is of or above the age of 16 years at the time of publication or broadcasting—with the consent of the person.
- (2) A court is not to give consent under this section except with the concurrence of the child or (if the child is incapable of giving concurrence) unless the court is of the opinion that it is in the public interest that consent be given.
- (3) A child who is of or above the age of 16 years cannot give consent for the purposes of this section unless the consent is given in the presence of an Australian legal practitioner of the child's own choosing.

15E Exception where child deceased

- (1) This Division does not prohibit the publication or broadcasting of the name of a deceased child with the consent of a senior available next of kin of the child.
- (2) A person must not, as a senior available next of kin, give consent to the publication or broadcasting of the name of a deceased child unless it appears to the person, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances, that no other senior available next of kin objects to the publication or broadcasting of the name.
- (3) In addition, in considering whether to give consent to the publication or broadcasting of the name of a deceased child when the publication or broadcasting of the name of a brother or sister of the deceased child is prohibited under section 15A (1) (e), a senior available next of kin must:
 - (a) make such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances to obtain the views of that brother or sister regarding the publication or broadcasting of the name of the deceased child, and
 - (b) take into account the impact of such a publication or broadcasting on that brother or sister.
- (4) A senior available next of kin who is charged with, or is convicted of, an offence to which the criminal proceedings concerned relate cannot give consent, or object, to the publication or broadcasting of the name of a deceased child as referred to in this section.
- (5) If there is no senior available next of kin who can give consent to the publication or broadcasting of a deceased child's name (whether or not as a result of subsection (4)), the court concerned can give that consent if satisfied that the public interest so requires.
- (6) In this section, senior available next of kin of a deceased child means:
 - (a) a parent of the child, or
 - (b) if the parents of the child are dead, cannot be found, or for some other reason cannot exercise their parental responsibilities to the child:
 - (i) a person who, immediately before the death of the child, had parental responsibility (within the meaning of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998) for the child, or
 - (ii) in the case of a child who was in the care of the Director-General of the Department of Human Services immediately before his or her death—the Director-General.

15F Exception for traffic offences not dealt with by Children's Court

This Division does not apply to criminal proceedings in respect of a traffic offence if the proceedings are held before a court other than the Children's Court.

15G Functions of court officials not affected

This Division does not apply to anything done by a person in the proper exercise of official functions as a member of staff of a registry or other office of a court in connection with the conduct and determination of criminal proceedings.

Division 4 Penalties

16 Application

This Division applies to a person:

- (a) who has pleaded guilty to an indictable offence in, or has been found guilty or convicted of an indictable offence by, a court other than the Children's Court,
- (b) who was a child when the offence was committed, and
- (c) who was under the age of 21 years when charged before the court with the offence.

17 Serious children's indictable offences

A person to whom this Division applies shall, in relation to a serious children's indictable offence, be dealt with according to law.

18 Other indictable offences

- (1) A person to whom this Division applies shall, in relation to an indictable offence other than a serious children's indictable offence, be dealt with:
 - (a) according to law, or
 - (b) in accordance with Division 4 of Part 3.
- (1A) In determining whether a person is to be dealt with according to law or in accordance with Division 4 of Part 3, a court must have regard to the following matters:
 - (a) the seriousness of the indictable offence concerned,
 - (b) the nature of the indictable offence concerned,
 - (c) the age and maturity of the person at the time of the offence and at the time of sentencing,
 - (d) the seriousness, nature and number of any prior offences committed by the person,

- (e) such other matters as the court considers relevant.
- (2) For the purpose of dealing with a person in accordance with Division 4 of Part 3, a court shall have and may exercise the functions of the Children's Court under that Division in the same way as if:
 - (a) the court were the Children's Court, and
 - (b) the offence were an offence to which that Division applies.
- (3) If a court, in exercising the functions of the Children's Court under subsection (2), makes an order under section 33 that provides for a person to enter into a good behaviour bond or that releases a person on probation, the court may, on referral from the Children's Court under section 40 (1A), deal with the order in the same way as the Children's Court may deal with it under section 40.

19 Court may direct imprisonment to be served as a juvenile offender

- (1) If a court sentences a person under 21 years of age to whom this Division applies to imprisonment in respect of an indictable offence, the court may, subject to this section, make an order directing that the whole or any part of the term of the sentence of imprisonment be served as a juvenile offender.

Note—

The effect of such an order is that the person to whom the order relates will be committed to a detention centre (see subsection (6)). There he or she will be detained as specified in the order. In certain circumstances, he or she may subsequently be transferred to a correctional centre pursuant to an order under section 28 of the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987.

- (1A) In the case of a person of or above the age of 18 years who is serving, or has previously served, the whole or any part of a term of imprisonment in a correctional centre, such an order may not be made unless the court decides that there are special circumstances justifying detention of the person as a juvenile offender.
- (2) A person is not eligible to serve a sentence of imprisonment as a juvenile offender after the person has attained the age of 21 years, unless:
 - (a) in the case of a sentence for which a non-parole period has been set—the non-parole period will end within 6 months after the person has attained that age, or
 - (b) in the case of a sentence for which a non-parole period has not been set—the term of the sentence of imprisonment will end within 6 months after the person has attained that age.
- (3) A person who is sentenced to imprisonment in respect of a serious children's indictable offence is not eligible to serve a sentence of imprisonment as a juvenile offender after the person has attained the age of 18 years, unless:
 - (a) the sentencing court is satisfied that there are special circumstances justifying detention of the person as a juvenile offender after that age, or

- (b) in the case of a sentence for which a non-parole period has been set—the non-parole period will end within 6 months after the person has attained that age, or
- (c) in the case of a sentence for which a non-parole period has not been set—the term of the sentence of imprisonment will end within 6 months after the person has attained that age.

This subsection is subject to subsection (2).

- (4) A finding of special circumstances for the purposes of subsection (1A) or (3) may be made on one or more of the following grounds, and not otherwise:
 - (a) that the person is vulnerable on account of illness or disability (within the meaning of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977),
 - (b) that the only available educational, vocational training or therapeutic programs that are suitable to the person's needs are those available in detention centres,
 - (c) that, if the person were committed to a correctional centre, there would be an unacceptable risk of the person suffering physical or psychological harm, whether due to the nature of the person's offence, any assistance given by the person in the prosecution of other persons or otherwise.
- (4A) In particular, a finding of special circumstances may not be made simply because of the person's youth or simply because the non-parole period of the person's sentence will expire while the person is still eligible to serve the sentence as a juvenile offender.
- (4B) A court that makes a finding of special circumstances must make a record of its reasons for making that finding in the particular case.
- (5) A person who is subject to an order under this section that ceases or ceased to apply on the person attaining the age of 18 years may apply to the sentencing court for a further order under this section. Any such application requires the leave of the court.
- (6) The warrant of commitment that is issued under section 62 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in relation to a sentence of imprisonment the subject of an order under this section:
 - (a) must indicate that the sentence is the subject of such an order, and
 - (b) must specify how much of the sentence is to be served as a juvenile offender, and
 - (c) must, despite the provisions of that section, commit the person to whom it relates to a detention centre.
- (7) Nothing in this section, or in any order under this section, limits the operation of section 28 of the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987.

(8) In this section:

correctional centre has the same meaning as it has in the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

20 Remission of persons to the Children's Court for punishment

- (1) A court may remit a person to whom this Division applies to the Children's Court, in respect of any indictable offence other than a serious children's indictable offence, so as to enable the Children's Court to impose a penalty on the person with respect to the offence, but may do so only in respect of a person who is under the age of 21 years.
- (2) A court that remits a person under this section:
 - (a) may, subject to the Bail Act 2013, commit the person to custody until the person can appear or be brought before the Children's Court, and
 - (b) shall cause to be sent to the Registrar of the Children's Court a certificate that:
 - (i) sets out the nature of the offence, and
 - (ii) states that the person has been found guilty of the offence and is being remitted to the Children's Court under this section.
- (3) The Children's Court may deal with a person who has been remitted to it in respect of an offence in any way in which it could have dealt with the person had the person been tried and found guilty of the offence by the Children's Court.

21 Rights of appeal where person remitted for sentence

- (1) There is no right of appeal against an order of remittal under section 20.
- (2) Section 20 does not affect any right of appeal that a person may have against any finding of guilt or conviction pursuant to which an order of remittal under that section has been made.
- (3) A person who is dissatisfied with the order of the Children's Court in respect of an offence for which the person has been remitted to the Children's Court under section 20 may appeal against the order, under Part 3 of the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act 2001, in the same way as if the person had been tried and found guilty of the offence by the Children's Court.

Division 5 General

22, 23 (Repealed)

24 Compensation

A court shall have regard to the child's means and income (if any), and the child's ability to comply with any requirement relating to the payment of compensation, when deciding:

- (a) whether or not to require a child to pay any compensation, or
- (b) the amount of any compensation required to be paid by a child.

25 Background reports

(1) This section applies to a person:

- (a) who has pleaded guilty to an offence (other than contempt of court) in, or has been found guilty or convicted of an offence (other than contempt of court) by, a court,
- (b) who was a child when the offence was committed, and
- (c) who was under the age of 21 years when charged before the court with the offence.

(2) A court shall not sentence a person to whom this section applies to a term of imprisonment, or make an order under section 33 (1) (g) in respect of the person, in connection with an offence unless:

- (a) a background report, prepared in accordance with the regulations, has been tendered in evidence with respect to the circumstances surrounding the commission of the offence, and
- (b) copies of the report have been given to the child and any other person appearing in the proceedings, and
- (c) the court has, subject to the rules of evidence, taken into account the matters contained in the report and any submissions made in relation to those matters by the persons referred to in paragraph (b).

Part 3 Criminal proceedings in the Children's Court

Division 1 Preliminary

26 Application

(1) This Part applies to:

- (a) the Children's Court, and
- (b) any criminal proceedings before the Children's Court, notwithstanding any law or practice to the contrary.

- (2) In the event of an inconsistency between this Part and Part 2, this Part shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

27 Application of Criminal Procedure Act 1986 and other Acts

- (1) Subject to Part 2 and to the rules of the Children's Court, any Act or other law relating to the functions of the Local Court or Magistrates or to criminal proceedings before them applies to:
- (a) the Children's Court, and
 - (b) any criminal proceedings before the Children's Court.
- (2) In particular (and subject to Part 2 and to the rules of the Children's Court), the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 that apply to the Local Court and any criminal proceedings before the Local Court apply to the Children's Court and any criminal proceedings before the Children's Court.
- (2A) Despite subsection (2), section 211A of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 does not apply in respect of criminal proceedings before the Children's Court.
- (3) If this Part and any Act or other law applied by this section (other than the Bail Act 2013) are inconsistent, this Part shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

28 Jurisdiction of the Children's Court

- (1) The Children's Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine:
- (a) proceedings in respect of any offence (whether indictable or otherwise) other than a serious children's indictable offence, and
 - (b) committal proceedings in respect of any indictable offence (including a serious children's indictable offence),
- if the offence is alleged to have been committed by a person:
- (c) who was a child when the offence was committed, and
 - (d) who was under the age of 21 years when charged before the Children's Court with the offence.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Children's Court does not have jurisdiction to hear or determine proceedings in respect of a traffic offence that is alleged to have been committed by a person unless:
- (a) the offence arose out of the same circumstances as another offence that is alleged to have been committed by the person and in respect of which the person is charged before the Children's Court, or
 - (b) the person was not, when the offence was allegedly committed, old enough to obtain a licence or permit under the Road Transport Act 2013 or any other applicable Act authorising the person to drive the motor vehicle to which the offence relates.

29 Jurisdiction in respect of 2 or more co-defendants who are not all children

- (1) If a charge in respect of an offence (whether indictable or otherwise) is made jointly against:
- (a) a person in respect of whom the Children's Court has jurisdiction, and
 - (b) a person in respect of whom the Children's Court does not have jurisdiction,
- the Court:
- (c) may adjourn the hearing of the charge against the person in respect of whom it has jurisdiction until the charge against the other person has been heard and determined, or
 - (d) may continue the hearing of the charge against the person in respect of whom it has jurisdiction without any such adjournment.
- (1A) In deciding whether to continue the hearing of a charge against a person, the Children's Court shall have regard to the following particular matters:
- (a) whether or not the person wishes the hearing of the charge by the Court to continue,
 - (b) whether or not the person has been released on bail under the Bail Act 2013,
 - (c) the delay in the hearing of the charge that would be likely to result from an adjournment of the hearing,
 - (d) whether or not to continue hearing the charge is in the interests of justice,
- and any other matter that the Court considers relevant.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), if a charge in respect of an indictable offence (other than an offence punishable summarily with the consent of the accused) is made jointly against:
- (a) a person in respect of whom the Children's Court has jurisdiction, and
 - (b) a person in respect of whom the Children's Court would not, but for this subsection, have jurisdiction,
- the Children's Court may hear and determine committal proceedings in respect of the offence against both of those persons.
- (3) The Children's Court shall not hear and determine committal proceedings as referred to in subsection (2) unless:

- (a) the elder of the persons referred to in that subsection is less than 3 years older than the younger of those persons, and
- (b) the Children's Court is of the opinion that the proceedings should be so heard and determined.

(4) For the purpose of exercising its functions under subsection (2), the Children's Court:

- (a) shall have, and may exercise, the jurisdiction of a Magistrate, and
 - (b) shall not have, and may not exercise, the jurisdiction of the Children's Court,
- as regards the elder of the persons referred to in that subsection.

Division 2 Commencement of proceedings

30 Adjournments

The powers of the Children's Court to adjourn proceedings, and to make a bail decision under the Bail Act 2013 pending the hearing of proceedings and during any adjournment of proceedings, may be exercised by an authorised justice.

Division 3 Hearings

31 Hearing of charges in the Children's Court

- (1) If a person is charged before the Children's Court with an offence (whether indictable or otherwise) other than a serious children's indictable offence, the proceedings for the offence shall be dealt with summarily.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1):
 - (a) if a person is charged before the Children's Court with an indictable offence (other than an offence that is punishable summarily without the consent of the accused), and
 - (b) if the person informs the Children's Court (at any time during, or at the close of, the case for the prosecution) that the person wishes to take his or her trial according to law,

the proceedings for the offence shall not be dealt with summarily but shall be dealt with in accordance with Divisions 2–4 (other than sections 60 and 61) of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 in the same way as if a court attendance notice had been issued in accordance with that Act.

- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1):
 - (a) if a person is charged before the Children's Court with an indictable offence, and

(b) if the Children's Court states that it is of the opinion, after all the evidence for the prosecution has been taken:

(i) that, having regard to all the evidence before the Children's Court, the evidence is capable of satisfying a jury beyond reasonable doubt that the person has committed an indictable offence, and

(ii) that the charge may not properly be disposed of in a summary manner,

the proceedings for the offence shall not be dealt with summarily but shall be dealt with in accordance with Divisions 2–4 (other than sections 60 and 61) of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 in the same way as if a court attendance notice had been issued in accordance with that Act and as if the Children's Court had formed the opinion referred to in section 62 of that Act.

(4) If, in the circumstances referred to in subsection (3), the Children's Court commits a person for trial, the Children's Court shall forthwith furnish to the person a statement of the reasons for its decision to commit the person for trial instead of dealing with the matter summarily.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1):

(a) if a person is charged before the Children's Court with an indictable offence, and

(b) if, at any stage of the proceedings, the person pleads guilty to the charge, and

(c) if the Children's Court states that it is of the opinion that, having regard to all the evidence before it (including any background report of a kind referred to in section 25), the charge may not properly be disposed of in a summary manner, the proceedings for the offence shall not be dealt with summarily but shall be dealt with in accordance with Division 5 of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 as if the offence were a serious children's indictable offence in respect of which the person had pleaded guilty as referred to in that section.

Division 4 Penalties

32 Application

This Division applies to any offence for which proceedings are being dealt with summarily or in respect of which a person has been remitted to the Children's Court under section 20.

33 Penalties

(1) If the Children's Court finds a person guilty of an offence to which this Division applies, it shall do one of the following things:

(a) it may make an order:

- (i) directing that the charge be dismissed (in which case the Court may also, if it thinks fit, administer a caution to the person), or
- (ii) discharging the person on condition that the person enters into a good behaviour bond for such period of time, not exceeding 2 years, as it thinks fit,
- (b) it may make an order directing the person to enter into a good behaviour bond for a specified period, not exceeding 2 years,
- (c) it may make an order imposing on the person a fine, not exceeding:
 - (i) the maximum fine prescribed by law in respect of the offence, or
 - (ii) 10 penalty units,whichever is the lesser,
- (c1) it may make an order releasing the person on condition that the person complies with an outcome plan determined at a conference held under the Young Offenders Act 1997,
- (c2) it may make an order adjourning proceedings against the person to a specified date (not later than 12 months from the date of the finding of guilt) for any of the following purposes (but only if bail for the offence is or has been granted or dispensed with under the Bail Act 2013):
 - (i) for the purpose of assessing the person's capacity and prospects for rehabilitation,
 - (ii) for the purpose of allowing the person to demonstrate that rehabilitation has taken place,
 - (iii) for any other purpose the Children's Court considers appropriate in the circumstances,
- (d) it may do both of the things referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c),
- (e) it may make an order releasing the person on probation, on such conditions as it may determine, for such period of time, not exceeding 2 years, as it thinks fit,
- (e1) it may do both the things referred to in paragraphs (c) and (e),
- (f) it may, subject to the provisions of the Children (Community Service Orders) Act 1987, make an order under section 5 of that Act requiring the person to perform community service work,
- (f1) it may do both of the things referred to in paragraphs (e) and (f),
- (g) it may, subject to the provisions of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999, make an order committing the person for such period of time (not exceeding 2 years) as it thinks fit:

- (i) in the case of a person who is under the age of 21 years, to the control of the Minister administering the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987, or
- (ii) in the case of a person who is of or above the age of 21 years, to the control of the Minister administering the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

(1A) A good behaviour bond imposed under this section:

- (a) must contain a condition to the effect that the person to whom the bond relates (the person under bond) will appear before the court if called on to do so at any time during the term of the bond, and
- (b) must contain a condition to the effect that, during the term of the bond, the person under bond will be of good behaviour, and
- (c) may contain such other conditions as are specified in the order by which the bond is imposed, other than conditions requiring the person under bond:
 - (i) to perform community service work, or
 - (ii) to make any payment, whether in the nature of a fine, compensation or otherwise.

(1AA) Before making an order imposing a fine on a child, the Children's Court is to consider the age of the child and the following matters, where information is available in relation to those matters:

- (a) the child's ability to pay the fine,
- (b) the potential impact of the fine on the rehabilitation of the child.

(1B) If the Children's Court deals with a person under subsection (1) (g), it may make an order:

- (a) suspending the execution of its order under subsection (1) (g) for a specified period (not exceeding the term of that order), and
- (b) releasing the person on condition that the person enters into a good behaviour bond under subsection (1) (b) for such a specified period, but only if the person is not subject to any other order under subsection (1) (g) or to any sentence of imprisonment. Part 4 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 does not apply to an order under subsection (1) (g) whose execution is suspended under this subsection.

(1C) If the Children's Court makes an order under subsection (1) (g) (ii) committing a person to the control of the Minister administering the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999, the period for which the person is committed is taken to be a sentence of imprisonment for the purposes of that Act.

- (2) The Children's Court shall not deal with a person under subsection (1) (g) unless it is satisfied that it would be wholly inappropriate to deal with the person under subsection (1) (a)–(f1).
- (3) In deciding under which paragraph of subsection (1) it should deal with a person who is a child, the Children's Court shall not have regard to the question of whether the child is a child in need of care and protection under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998.
- (4) Notwithstanding any other Act or law to the contrary, the Children's Court shall not sentence a person to imprisonment.
- (4A) Subsection (4) is subject to section 28B of the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987 but is not subject to any other provision of that Act.
- (5) Nothing in this section limits or affects any power that the Children's Court may have apart from this section:
 - (a) to impose any disqualification under the road transport legislation on a person whom it has found guilty of an offence,
 - (b) to order the forfeiture of any property that relates to the commission of an offence of which it has found a person guilty, or
 - (c) to make an order for restitution of property under section 43 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986, or
 - (d) to make a community clean up order in respect of a fine imposed for an offence under the Graffiti Control Act 2008.
- (6) For the purposes of any provision of the road transport legislation that confers power on a court with respect to a person who has been convicted of an offence, a finding of guilt by the Children's Court for an offence is taken to be a conviction for the offence. Accordingly, following a finding of guilt, the Children's Court may exercise any power it could exercise under that legislation if the person had been convicted of the offence, unless the Court makes an order in respect of the person under section 33 (1) (a).

Note—

Section 14 limits the circumstances in which a court can proceed to, or record, a conviction following a finding of guilt in relation to a child offender.

33A Cumulative or concurrent orders etc

- (1) In this section, control order means an order referred to in section 33 (1) (g).

- (2) Unless a direction is given under this section, the period for which a person is required to be detained under a control order commences when the order takes effect.
- (3) If the Children's Court so directs, the period for which a person is required to be detained under a control order commences when the period for which the person is required to be detained under another control order or other control orders expires.
- (4) The Children's Court must not make a new control order, or give a direction under this section, if the order or direction would have the effect of requiring a person to be detained for a continuous period of more than 3 years (taking into account any other control orders relating to the person).
- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) are subject to section 57 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedures) Act 1999, as applied by section 33C.
- (6) This section does not apply to a control order to which section 33AA applies.

33AA Cumulative or concurrent orders—assault on juvenile justice officers

- (1) In this section, control order means an order referred to in section 33 (1) (g).
- (2) This section applies to a control order made by the Children's Court (the new control order) if:
 - (a) the order is made in relation to an offence involving an assault, or any other offence against the person, on a juvenile justice officer committed by a person while the person was a person subject to control, and
 - (b) the person is subject to one or more other control orders (an existing control order) at the time the new control order is made.
- (3) The period for which the person is required to be detained under the new control order commences when the period for which the person is required to be detained under an existing control order or, if there is more than one, the last of them expires, unless the Children's Court directs that the period is to commence sooner.
- (4) Such a direction may not be given unless the Children's Court is of the opinion that there are special circumstances justifying such a direction.
- (5) The Children's Court must not make a new control order, or give such a direction, if the order or direction would have the effect of requiring a person to be detained for a continuous period of more than 3 years (taking into account any other control orders relating to the person).

33B Guilty plea to be taken into account

- (1) In dealing with a person under section 33 for an offence to which this Division applies to which the person pleaded guilty, the Children's Court must take into account:

- (a) the fact that the person pleaded guilty, and
 - (b) when the person pleaded guilty or indicated an intention to plead guilty, and may accordingly reduce any order that it would otherwise have made.
- (2) If the Children's Court does not, as a result of this section, reduce an order it makes in respect of a person who pleaded guilty to an offence, it must state that fact and its reasons for not reducing the order when making the order.
- (3) The failure of the Children's Court to comply with this section does not invalidate any order made under section 33 by the Children's Court.
- (4) This section applies to proceedings for an offence whether commenced before or after the commencement of this section.

33C Application of Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 to children

- (1) Subject to this Act, the provisions of Parts 3 and 4 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 apply to the Children's Court in the same way as they apply to the Local Court, and so apply as if:
- (a) a reference in those provisions to the sentencing of an offender to imprisonment were a reference to the making of a control order, and
 - (b) a reference in those provisions to a conviction were a reference to a finding of guilt, and
 - (c) a reference in those provisions to an escape from lawful custody committed by the offender while an inmate of a correctional centre included a reference to an escape from lawful custody committed by the offender while a detainee of a detention centre, and
 - (d) a reference in those provisions to a good behaviour bond were a reference to a good behaviour bond imposed under section 33.
- (2) To avoid doubt, Division 2 of Part 3 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (which relates to victim impact statements) applies to any offence dealt with by the Children's Court that is an offence to which that Division would apply if it were being dealt with by the Local Court.

Note—

Division 1A of Part 4 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (which provides for standard non-parole periods) does not apply in respect of offences committed by children.

33D Non-association and place restriction orders

- (1) This section applies to any offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 6 months or more, whether or not the offence is also punishable by fine.

- (2) When sentencing a person for an offence to which this section applies, a court that has made an order under section 33 (subsection (1) (a) (i), (c1) and (c2) excepted) may make either or both of the following orders in respect of the person:
- (a) a non-association order, being an order prohibiting the person from associating with a specified person for a specified term, or
 - (b) a place restriction order, being an order prohibiting the person from frequenting or visiting a specified place or district for a specified term,
- if it is satisfied that it is reasonably necessary to do so to ensure that the person does not commit any further offences to which this section applies.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) (a) is to be one of the following:
- (a) a limited non-association order, being an order prohibiting the person from being in company with a specified person except at the times or in such circumstances (if any) as are specified,
 - (b) an unlimited non-association order, being an order prohibiting the person:
 - (i) from being in company with a specified person, and
 - (ii) from communicating with that person by any means.
- (3A) An order under subsection (2) (b) is to be one of the following:
- (a) a limited place restriction order, being an order prohibiting the person from frequenting or visiting a specified place or district except at the times or in such circumstances (if any) as are specified,
 - (b) an unlimited place restriction order, being an order prohibiting the person from frequenting or visiting a specified place or district at any time or in any circumstance.
- (4) The term of an order under this section is not limited by any term of detention imposed for the offence, but must not exceed 12 months.
- (5) This section does not limit the kinds of prohibition or restriction that may be imposed on a person by means of any other order or direction under this or any other Act (such as an order under section 33 providing for a person to enter into a good behaviour bond or releasing a person on probation), so that such an order or direction may include prohibitions of the kind referred to in subsections (2) and (3).
- (6) Part 8A of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 applies to and in respect of a non-association order or place restriction order under this section in the same way as it applies to and in respect of a non-association order or place restriction order under that Act.

- (7) In the application of section 100G of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 to or in respect of a non-association order or place restriction order under this section, a reference in that section to the Local Court is to be read as a reference to the Children's Court.
- (8) In this section, associate with means:
- (a) to be in company with, or
 - (b) to communicate with by any means (including post, facsimile, telephone and email).

34 Restrictions on the imposition of control orders etc

- (1) An order shall not be made under section 33 (1) (f), (f1) or (g) in respect of an offence unless the penalty provided by law in respect of the offence is imprisonment.
- (2) (Repealed)
- (3) An order shall not be made under section 33 (1) (g) whereby a person is committed to the control of the Minister administering the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987 for a specified period unless the maximum penalty provided by law in respect of the offence is imprisonment for a period no less than that so specified.

35 Reasons for decision to be given

When the Children's Court deals with a person under section 33 (1) (g), it shall record:

- (a) the reason for which it has dealt with the person under that paragraph, and
- (b) the reason for which it considered that it would have been wholly inappropriate to deal with the person under section 33 (1) (a)-(f1).

36 Compensation

- (1) If the Children's Court makes an order under a paragraph of section 33 (1) it may, under section 94 or 97 of the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013, give a direction for the payment of compensation by the person.
- (2) In deciding whether or not to require a person to pay compensation, the Children's Court shall have regard to the person's means and income, if any.
- (3) The maximum amount of compensation that may be awarded is:
- (a) the amount that is equivalent to 10 penalty units (in the case of a person who is under the age of 16 years at the time the order is made), or
 - (b) the amount that is equivalent to 20 penalty units (in any other case).

37 Term of control order

- (1) An order under section 33 (1) (g) takes effect when it is made.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if the Children's Court orders that a control order takes effect at a specified time, the order takes effect at the specified time.
- (3) An order under section 33 (1) (g) ceases to have effect at the end of the period specified in the order, subject to sections 32 and 38A of the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987.

38 Destruction of photographs, finger-prints etc

- (1) If the Children's Court finds a person not guilty of an offence to which this Division applies, or finds a person guilty of such an offence but makes an order dismissing the charge under section 33 (1) (a) (i), the Children's Court is to make an order that requires any photographs, finger-prints and palm-prints, and any other prescribed records (other than records of the Children's Court), relating to the offence to be destroyed.
- (2) If the Children's Court finds a person guilty of an offence to which this Division applies and makes any other order in respect of the person under section 33, it may, if it is of the opinion that the circumstances of the case justify its doing so, make an order (whether on the application of the person or otherwise) that requires any photographs, finger-prints and palm-prints, and any other prescribed records (other than records of the Children's Court), relating to the offence to be destroyed.
- (3) If the Children's Court makes an order under subsection (1) or (2) in respect of a person, it shall cause a copy of the order to be given to the person and, if the person is a child, to a person responsible for the child.

Division 5 General

39 Definitions

In this Division:

authorised officer means:

- (a) an officer who is declared by the regulations to be an authorised officer for the purposes of this Division, or
- (b) an officer who belongs to a class of officers who are declared by the regulations to be authorised officers for the purposes of this Division.

Director-General means the person for the time being holding office or acting as the Director-General of the Department of Juvenile Justice.

officer means an officer or temporary employee, within the meaning of the Public Sector

Management Act 1988, employed in the Department of Juvenile Justice or in the Department of Corrective Services.

40 Variation of good behaviour bond or probation

- (1) In relation to an order under section 33 that provides for a person to enter into a good behaviour bond or that releases a person on probation, the Children's Court may, on application made by or on behalf of the person to whom the order relates or by an authorised officer, do any one or more of the following things:
 - (a) it may terminate the order,
 - (b) it may reduce the period of the order,
 - (c) it may vary any condition of the order in any respect, including (where the person has entered into the good behaviour bond, or been released on probation, on condition that the person will remain in the care of some other person named in the order) the substitution of the name of another person for that of the person named in the order.
- (1A) Alternatively, if the order was made by a court exercising the functions of the Children's Court under section 18 (2), the Children's Court may (but is not obliged to) refer the application to the court concerned to be dealt with by that court.
- (2) The Children's Court may not extend the period of an order under section 33 that provides for a person to enter into a good behaviour bond or that releases a person on probation.

41 Enforcement of conditions of good behaviour bond or probation or compliance with outcome plan

- (1) If an authorised officer or a member of the police force informs an authorised justice, on oath, that the officer or member of the police force, with reasonable cause, believes that a person:
 - (a) has entered into a good behaviour bond, or been released on probation, under section 33 (1), or been released under section 33 (1) (c1) on condition that the person complies with an outcome plan determined at a conference held under the Young Offenders Act 1997 (referred to in this section as the outcome plan), and
 - (b) has failed to comply with a condition of the person's good behaviour bond or probation, or has failed to comply with the outcome plan,the authorised justice or another authorised justice:
 - (c) may issue a court attendance notice for the appearance of the person before:
 - (i) in the case of a person who is under the age of 21 years—the Children's Court,
 - or

(ii) in the case of a person who is of or above the age of 21 years—the Local Court, or

(d) if the authorised justice is satisfied that the person is unlikely to appear in answer to a court attendance notice—may issue a warrant directing the arrest of the person, as the authorised justice considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(1A) Without limiting subsection (1), the Children’s Court (in the case of a person who is under the age of 21 years) or the Local Court (in the case of a person who is of or above the age of 21 years) may call on a person to appear before it if the Court suspects that the person:

(a) has entered into a good behaviour bond, or been released on probation, under section 33 (1), or been released under section 33 (1) (c1) on condition that the person complies with an outcome plan, and

(b) has failed to comply with a condition of the person’s good behaviour bond or probation, or has failed to comply with the outcome plan.

(1B) If the person fails to appear after being called to do so under subsection (1A), the Court may:

(a) issue a warrant for the person’s arrest, or

(b) authorise an authorised officer to issue a warrant for the person’s arrest.

(2) An authorised officer, or a member of the police force, may arrest a person in respect of whom a warrant has been issued under subsection (1) (d) or (1B), whether or not the warrant is in the possession of the officer or member of the police force at the time of arrest.

(3) A person who is arrested under this section shall be brought before:

(a) in the case of a person who is under the age of 21 years—the Children’s Court, or

(b) in the case of a person who is of or above the age of 21 years—the Local Court, to be dealt with in accordance with subsection (4) or (5), as the case may require.

(4) A person who is brought before the Children’s Court shall, if it is proved that the person has failed to comply with a condition of the person’s good behaviour bond or probation or has failed to comply with the outcome plan, be dealt with by the Children’s Court in any manner in which the person could have been dealt with by the Children’s Court in relation to the offence for which the person entered into the good behaviour bond or was released on probation or on condition that the person comply with the outcome plan, as the case may be.

- (5) A person who is brought before the Local Court shall, if it is proved that the person has failed to comply with a condition of the person's good behaviour bond or probation or has failed to comply with the outcome plan, be dealt with by the Local Court in any manner in which the person could have been dealt with by the Local Court in relation to the offence for which the person entered the good behaviour bond or was released on probation or on condition that the person comply with the outcome plan, as the case may be, had the person been of or above the age of 21 years when the person was originally dealt with in relation to that offence.
- (6) Despite subsections (3), (4) and (5), if the order under section 33 (1) that released the person on probation, or on condition that the person enter into good behaviour bond, or on condition that the person comply with the outcome plan, was made by a court other than the Children's Court or the Local Court, the Children's Court or the Local Court before which the person is brought under this section may (but is not obliged to) order that the person is to be brought before the court concerned to be dealt with by that court instead of the Children's Court or the Local Court.
- (7) If a person is brought before a court other than the Children's Court or the Local Court pursuant to an order under subsection (6), the court concerned may deal with the person in any manner in which the person could have been dealt with by that court in relation to the offence for which the person entered the good behaviour bond or was released on probation or on condition that the person comply with the outcome plan, as the case may be.

41A Provisions applicable where control order suspended subject to good behaviour bond

- (1) This section applies where the Children's Court has, under section 33 (1B), suspended the execution of an order under section 33 (1) (g) and the person concerned has entered into a good behaviour bond.
- (2) Action with respect to a failure to comply with any such good behaviour bond may be taken under section 41. The good behaviour bond is to be terminated unless the court is satisfied that:
 - (a) the person's failure to comply with the conditions of the bond was trivial in nature, or
 - (b) there are good reasons for excusing the person's failure to comply with the conditions of the bond.
- (3) If any such good behaviour bond is terminated:
 - (a) the suspension of the execution of the order under section 33 (1) (g) ceases to have effect, and
 - (b) Part 4 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 applies to the order under section 33 (1) (g), as if the order were a sentence of imprisonment being imposed following the revocation of the good behaviour bond, and section 24 of that Act applies in relation to the setting of a non-parole period under that Part.

(c) (Repealed)

- (4) The conditions of any such good behaviour bond may be varied under section 40 or in proceedings taken under section 41.

42 Action may be taken after good behaviour bond has expired

Action may be taken under this Part in relation to a good behaviour bond even if the term of the bond has expired, but in respect only of matters arising during the term of the bond.

42A Children's Court may make orders regarding court costs

- (1) The Children's Court may, at the end of summary proceedings in which a person is found guilty of an offence, order that the person pay court costs.
- (2) Court costs ordered to be paid under this section are in addition to, and do not form part of, any pecuniary penalty imposed in respect of the offence.
- (3) The court costs are to be paid to the registrar of the court. The registrar is to pay the costs to the prosecutor if court costs have been paid by the prosecutor in respect of the proceedings.
- (4) The amount of court costs ordered to be paid under this section cannot exceed the amount of the court costs levy that would be payable under section 211A of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 if that section applied to the offence.
- (5) An order for the payment of court costs by a person may be included in any order made under section 33 in relation to the person.
- (6) This section applies to all summary proceedings before the Children's Court, including proceedings conducted in the absence of the accused person.
- (7) This section applies to summary proceedings before the Local Court relating to a traffic offence in which a person is dealt with under Division 4 (by virtue of section 210 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986) in the same way as it applies to proceedings before the Children's Court.
- (8) This section does not apply to a finding of guilt that the regulations exempt from the operation of this section.
- (9) An order made by a court under this section for the payment of costs is taken to be a fine within the meaning of the Fines Act 1996.

Part 4 Mistake in exercise of jurisdiction

43 Definition

In this Part, a reference to a decision includes a reference to a finding, order, determination and judgment, but does not include a reference to:

- (a) in relation to the Children's Court—an order made under section 33 (1) (a), or
- (b) in relation to any other court:
 - (i) an order dismissing a charge, or
 - (ii) an order discharging an offender under section 10 (1) (b) of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999.

44 Remission of cases on account of defendant's age

If a court before which a person is charged with an offence is satisfied that, because of any provision of this Act, it did not or does not have jurisdiction to deal with the charge, it may remit the case to such other court as has jurisdiction to deal with the charge.

45 Review of decisions where mistake as to age

(1) If:

- (a) a decision is made by a court in respect of an offence on the assumption that the person to whom the decision relates had or had not attained a particular age at a particular time,
- (b) the Attorney General is satisfied that the assumption was incorrectly made, and
- (c) the person is, at the time the Attorney General is so satisfied, still affected by the decision, the Attorney General shall, as soon as practicable after being so satisfied, cause an application to be made to the court which made the decision for a review of the decision.

(2) A court to which an application for review is made:

- (a) may set aside or quash the decision,
- (b) may set aside or quash the decision and remit the case to another court,
- (c) may order that the decision be varied, in such manner as the court thinks fit, in so far as it appears to the court that the purported age of the person to whom the decision relates was material to the nature of the decision or the period for which the decision was to be effective, or

(d) may order that the application be dismissed.

(3) The setting aside or quashing, under subsection (2) (a) or (b), of a decision in respect of an offence shall not affect any information laid or complaint made in relation to the offence or any further proceedings on that information or complaint.

46 (Repealed)

47 Exclusion of damages and compensation

No action for damages or compensation shall lie against any person arising out of a decision or any thing done pursuant to a decision, or the setting aside, quashing or variation of a decision, pursuant to any provision of this Part.

48 Section 5 not affected

Nothing in this Part limits the operation of section 5.

Part 4A Youth conduct orders

Division 1 Interpretation

48A Objects of Part

The objects of this Part are as follows:

- (a) to establish a youth conduct order scheme for dealing with children who have been charged with (or pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of) certain offences,
- (b) to address the underlying causes of anti-social behaviour by such children by means of youth conduct orders that operate to prohibit or restrict negative behaviours and to promote socially acceptable behaviours through participation in anti-social behaviour programs,
- (c) to provide for a coordinated multi-agency approach to the administration of the scheme.

48B Definitions

In this Part:

associate with means:

- (a) to be in company with, or
- (b) to communicate with by any means (including post, facsimile, telephone, email or any other form of electronic communication).

body includes an agency, authority or any other organisation (whether or not incorporated).

charged with a relevant offence means a court attendance notice has been issued to a person for the offence.

conduct plan means a plan that provides for the kinds of conduct that a child must, or must not, engage in while a youth conduct order is in effect with respect to the child.

conduct restriction provisions—see section 48C (2).

final conduct plan—see section 48K.

the scheme means the scheme established by this Part.

victim has the same meaning as victim of crime has for the purposes of the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013.

youth conduct order means an interim youth conduct order or a final youth conduct order.

48C Meanings of “positive conduct provisions” and “conduct restriction provisions”

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, positive conduct provisions are any of the following kinds of provisions:

- (a) provisions requiring a child to engage in kinds of conduct aimed at addressing the underlying causes of the child's anti-social behaviour, including (without limitation) any of the following:
 - (i) attending or completing a course of study or training,
 - (ii) meeting with health professionals or other persons with backgrounds or experience that may assist the child,
 - (iii) participating in sporting or recreational activities,
 - (b) such other kinds of provisions as may be prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, conduct restriction provisions are any of the following kinds of provisions:
- (a) provisions prohibiting or restricting a child from associating with specified persons or kinds of persons,
 - (b) provisions prohibiting or restricting a child from frequenting or visiting specified places or kinds of places,
 - (c) provisions imposing curfews on a child,
 - (d) provisions requiring a child to reside at a specified place or places,
 - (e) provisions requiring a child to report to a specified person, court or other body,
 - (f) provisions requiring a child to be of good behaviour,
 - (g) such other kinds of provisions as may be prescribed by the regulations.

48D Meaning of "relevant offence"

In this Part, a relevant offence means any offence the proceedings for which the Children's Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine other than any of the following offences:

- (a) a prescribed sexual offence (within the meaning of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986),
- (b) any other serious children's indictable offence,
- (c) a traffic offence.

48E Prescribed eligibility criteria

- (1) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the criteria (prescribed eligibility criteria) that a person must meet to be eligible to participate in the scheme in relation to relevant offences committed (or alleged to have been committed) while the person was a child.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may provide for persons who are 18 years old or older (but less than 21 years old) to continue to be eligible to participate in the scheme in relation to any relevant offences committed (or alleged to have been committed) by such persons while they were children.
- (3) If the regulations make provision for persons who are no longer children to continue to be eligible to participate in the scheme, the other provisions of this Part (and any provisions of the regulations made for the purposes of this Part) extend to such persons as if they were still children.

Division 2 Overview of scheme

48F Summary of operation of scheme

- (1) The following is a summary of the operation of the scheme:

- (a) Child commits, or is alleged to have committed, a relevant offence

The child is charged with (or has pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of) a relevant offence.

- (b) Referral of child for suitability assessment

The Children's Court may make a suitability assessment order under section 48G in relation to such a child if satisfied of certain matters. The consent of the child will be required if the child has not yet pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of the relevant offence.

The order operates to adjourn the criminal proceedings so that a suitability assessment can be carried out in relation to the child in accordance with the regulations.

- (c) Children's Court makes youth conduct order

The Children's Court may make an interim youth conduct order or a final youth conduct order in respect of the child under section 48L if satisfied of certain matters, including that the child has been assessed as being suitable for participation in the scheme following a suitability assessment.

An interim youth conduct order requires the child to participate in the preparation of a final conduct plan to be approved by the Children's Court when it makes a final youth conduct order. Such an order may have effect for a period not exceeding 2 months. While the order is in effect, the child will be required to comply with an interim conduct plan prepared in accordance with the regulations.

A final youth conduct order, on the other hand, requires the child to comply with the final conduct plan that the child has participated in preparing. Such an order may have effect for a period not exceeding 12 months. A final youth conduct order may be made even if an interim youth conduct order has not been made.

A conduct plan is a plan that provides for the kinds of conduct that a child must, or must not, engage in while a youth conduct order is in effect with respect to the child.

While a youth conduct order (whether interim or final) is in effect, the Children's Court will not be required to make a finding as to a child's guilt (if there has not yet been a finding or a guilty plea) or to consider penalties for the offence (if there has been a finding of guilt or a guilty plea). Also, the Children's Court is taken to have dispensed with bail for the relevant offence while the order is in effect.

(d) Child to comply with youth conduct order

A child who is subject to a youth conduct order (whether interim or final) must comply with the order. Division 6 makes provision for the enforcement of youth conduct orders.

A failure to comply with a youth conduct order may result in the child being returned to the Children's Court for the Court to deal with the child.

If a child complies with a final youth conduct order, the child's compliance will be taken into account when dealing with the child for the relevant offence concerned.

- (2) This section does not affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Part that it summarises.

Division 3 Suitability assessments

48G Children's Court may make suitability assessment orders

- (1) The Children's Court may, of its own motion or on the application of an authorised applicant, make an order (a suitability assessment order) adjourning criminal proceedings against a child for a relevant offence for the purpose of enabling a suitability assessment to be carried out in relation to the child if:

(a) the child has:

- (i) pleaded guilty to, or been found guilty of, the relevant offence, or
- (ii) in any other case—consented to the making of the order in circumstances where the child is capable in law of giving such consent, and

(a1) the Court is satisfied that it is appropriate for the child to be dealt with under the scheme having regard to the following matters:

- (i) the seriousness of the relevant offence,
- (ii) the degree of violence (if any) involved in the offence,

- (iii) any harm caused to any victim,
 - (iv) the number and nature of any previous offences committed by the child, and
- (b) the Court is satisfied that the child has been afforded an opportunity to seek advice on the proposed order from an Australian legal practitioner, and
- (c) in the case where the child has not pleaded guilty to, or has not yet been found guilty of, the relevant offence—the Court is satisfied that the child had sufficient information by the time of the hearing to enable the child to make an informed choice about whether to consent to the making of the order, and
- (d) the child has been granted a scheme participation approval unless the Court is satisfied that it was not possible in the circumstances for the approval to be granted in time for the hearing.
- (2) In determining whether a child has sufficient information to make an informed choice for the purposes of subsection (1) (c), the Children’s Court is to have regard to the following:
- (a) if a brief of evidence relating to the relevant offence was required to be served on the child—whether a brief was served within a reasonable time before the hearing of the application and contained sufficient information to enable the child to make an informed choice,
 - (b) if a brief of evidence was not served because it was not required—whether the child was nonetheless provided with sufficient information within a reasonable time before the hearing of the application to enable the child to make an informed choice.

Note—

Section 183 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 makes provision for the service of briefs of evidence for offences. A brief of evidence must contain certain documents, subject to the regulations, regarding the evidence. Also, section 187 (5) of that Act provides that a prosecutor is not required to serve a brief of evidence in proceedings for an offence of a kind, or proceedings of a kind, prescribed by the regulations under that Act.

- (2A) Despite subsection (1), the Children’s Court is not to make a suitability assessment order in relation to a child for a relevant offence if, having regard to the matters referred to in subsection (1) (a1), the Court considers that the appropriate penalty for the relevant offence would be an order under section 33 (1) (g).
- (3) Each of the following persons is an authorised applicant for the purposes of the making of an application under subsection (1):
- (a) the child against whom the criminal proceedings have been brought,
 - (b) any person making the application on behalf of the child,

(c) any other person who is authorised to make such an application by the regulations.

- (4) If the child is a person to whom the Young Offenders Act 1997 applies, the Children's Court is not to make a suitability assessment order unless it is satisfied that it would not be appropriate for the child to be dealt with instead under that Act.
- (5) The Children's Court is not required to be satisfied that a child meets the prescribed eligibility criteria before it makes a suitability assessment order.
- (6) This section does not limit any power that the Children's Court has, apart from this section, to adjourn proceedings.

48H Conduct of suitability assessments

A suitability assessment is to be carried out in accordance with the regulations.

48I Granting of bail for suitability assessments and charging procedure

- (1) Without limiting the Bail Act 2013, bail may be granted under that Act subject to the condition that a child submit to a suitability assessment.
- (2) Nothing in this Division:
 - (a) authorises any person to detain a child for the purposes of a suitability assessment, or
 - (b) limits the provisions of Division 2 of Part 2 in their application to the commencement of criminal proceedings against children.

Division 4 Preparation of conduct plans

48J Interim conduct plans

- (1) An interim conduct plan is a conduct plan that is prepared in accordance with the regulations for submission to the Children's Court for its consideration and approval when framing the terms of an interim youth conduct order.
- (2) An interim conduct plan may include only conduct restriction provisions and positive conduct provisions.

48K Final conduct plans

- (1) A final conduct plan is a conduct plan that is prepared in accordance with the regulations for submission to the Children's Court for its consideration and approval when framing the terms of a final youth conduct order.
- (2) A final conduct plan may include only conduct restriction provisions and positive conduct provisions.

Division 5 Making of youth conduct orders

48L Youth conduct orders

- (1) Power to make youth conduct orders Subject to this section, the Children's Court may make any of the following orders of its own motion or on the application of an authorised applicant:
 - (a) an order having effect for a period not exceeding 2 months (an interim youth conduct order) requiring a child in criminal proceedings before the Court:
 - (i) to participate in the preparation of a final conduct plan as provided by the scheme, and
 - (ii) to comply with the requirements of an interim conduct plan approved by the Court in the order,
 - (b) an order having effect for a period not exceeding 12 months (a final youth conduct order) requiring a child in criminal proceedings before the Court to comply with the requirements of a final conduct plan approved by the Court in the order.
- (2) Each of the following persons is an authorised applicant for the purposes of the making of an application under subsection (1):
 - (a) the child against whom the criminal proceedings have been brought,
 - (b) any person making the application on behalf of the child,
 - (c) any other person who is authorised to make such an application by the regulations.
- (3) General preconditions for making of orders The Children's Court may not make a youth conduct order with respect to a child unless:
 - (a) the child has been charged with, or has pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of, a relevant offence in the criminal proceedings, and
 - (b) a suitability assessment of the child has been carried out and the child has, following such an assessment, been found to be suitable to participate in the scheme, and
 - (c) the Court is satisfied that the child meets the prescribed eligibility criteria, and
 - (d) in the case where the child pleaded not guilty to the relevant offence on or before the day on which a suitability assessment order was made in respect of the child but subsequently changed his or her plea to guilty—the Court is satisfied that the time taken to change the plea was not unreasonable in the circumstances, and

- (e) in the case where the proposed order is to be an interim youth conduct order—an interim conduct plan has been prepared and submitted to the Court for its consideration and approval, and
 - (f) in the case where the proposed order is to be a final youth conduct order—a final conduct plan has been prepared and submitted to the Court for its consideration and approval.
- (4) Consent of child required unless child pleads guilty or found guilty Without limiting subsection (3), the consent of a child who is capable in law of giving consent to the making of a youth conduct order is required before such an order is made with respect to the child in relation to a relevant offence unless the child has pleaded guilty to, or been found guilty of, the offence.
- (5) Court to take into account child's submissions Before making a youth conduct order, the Children's Court is to take into account any submissions and evidence put forward by or on behalf of the child as to the appropriateness of the order.
- (6) Court may request that conduct plan be revised The Children's Court may request the person or body that prepared an interim conduct plan or final conduct plan for the Court's consideration and approval to consider making changes to the plan before its approval by the Court in a youth conduct order.
- (7) Effect of youth conduct order on criminal proceedings While a youth conduct order remains in effect with respect to a child for a relevant offence:
- (a) if the Children's Court did not make a finding as to the guilt of the child for the offence before making the order—the Court is not required to make a finding as to the child's guilt for the offence, and
 - (b) if the child pleaded guilty to, or was found guilty by the Children's Court of, the offence before making the order—the Court is not required to determine what penalty, if any, should be imposed on the child for the offence, and
 - (c) the Children's Court is taken to have dispensed with bail for the offence under the Bail Act 2013.
- (8) Subsection (7) has effect despite anything to the contrary in any Act or other law.
- (9) Section does not limit power to grant adjournments This section does not limit any power that the Children's Court has to adjourn proceedings.
- (10) Final youth conduct order can be made without interim youth conduct order For the avoidance of doubt, the Children's Court may make a final youth conduct order with respect to a child without first making an interim youth conduct order.

48M Explanation of youth conduct order

- (1) If the Children's Court makes a youth conduct order with respect to a child, the Court must ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to explain to the child (in language that the child can readily understand):
 - (a) the child's obligations under the order, and
 - (b) the consequences that may follow if the child fails to comply with those obligations.
- (2) A youth conduct order is not invalidated by a failure to comply with this section.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits the operation of section 12 (Proceedings to be explained to children).

48N Review of youth conduct order by Children's Court

- (1) The Children's Court may review a youth conduct order:
 - (a) of its own motion, or
 - (b) on an application made to the Court by or on behalf of the child to whom the order applies, or
 - (c) on an application made to the Court by any other person authorised by the regulations, or
 - (d) if the District Court in an appeal under section 480 remits a matter concerning the order to the Children's Court to be dealt with under this section.
- (2) On any such review of a youth conduct order, the Court may:
 - (a) confirm the order, or
 - (b) vary the order, or
 - (c) revoke the order.

48O Appeals to District Court against youth conduct orders

- (1) A child in respect of whom a youth conduct order is made may, with the leave of the District Court, appeal to the Court against the order or the variation or revocation of the order.
- (2) An appeal must be made within the period of:
 - (a) 28 days after the order is made, or
 - (b) if the order has been varied or revoked—28 days after the order is varied or revoked.

- (3) On any such appeal, the District Court may:
 - (a) confirm the order, or
 - (b) vary the order, or
 - (c) revoke the order, or
 - (d) remit the matter to the Children's Court to be dealt with under section 48N.
- (4) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to:
 - (a) the designation of a respondent or other persons to assist the District Court in an appeal under this section (including, but not limited to, the designation of the Crown for any such purpose), and
 - (b) the service of court processes and other documents in connection with an appeal under this section on any such designated respondent or other person.

Division 6 Enforcement of youth conduct orders

48P Proceedings for non-compliance with youth conduct orders

- (1) On an application made in accordance with the regulations, the Children's Court may call on a child in respect of whom a youth conduct order has been made to appear before it if the Court suspects that the child may have failed to comply with the order.
- (2) If the child fails to appear, the Children's Court may take any action referred to in section 98 (1A) of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 as if the child were an offender for the purposes of that subsection who had failed to appear.
- (3) If the Children's Court is satisfied that a child appearing before it has failed to comply with a youth conduct order, the Court may:
 - (a) administer a warning to the child, or
 - (b) decide to take no action with respect to the failure to comply, or
 - (c) vary the order, or
 - (d) revoke the order.

48Q Consequences of revocation of youth conduct orders

- (1) This section applies if the Children's Court revokes a youth conduct order under this Part.
- (2) If a child did not plead guilty to (or had not yet been found guilty of) a relevant offence before the Children's Court made a youth conduct order in relation to the offence, the Court may on the revocation of the order:

- (a) proceed to make a finding as to the guilt of the child for the offence, and
 - (b) if the child is found guilty of the offence—deal with the child for the offence in accordance with Division 4 of Part 3.
- (3) If a child pleaded guilty to (or was found guilty of) a relevant offence before the Children’s Court made a youth conduct order in relation to the offence, the Court may, on the revocation of the order, deal with the child for the offence in accordance with Division 4 of Part 3.
- (4) In determining the penalty to be imposed on a child who has pleaded guilty to (or was found guilty of) a relevant offence to which a revoked youth conduct order related, the Children’s Court is to have regard to:
- (a) the fact of, and the circumstances surrounding, the child’s failure to comply with the order (including the extent to which the child did comply with the order), and
 - (b) any report on the child’s failure to comply with the youth conduct order prepared in accordance with the regulations for submission to the Court.
- (5) Nothing in this section authorises the imposition of a penalty on a child for a relevant offence to which a revoked youth conduct order related that is more severe than the penalty that would have been imposed on the child if he or she had not been the subject of the youth conduct order.

48R Consequences of compliance with final youth conduct orders

- (1) On an application made in accordance with the regulations, the Children’s Court may deal with a child under this section if the Court is satisfied that the child has substantially complied with the terms of a final youth conduct order during the period the order was in effect.
- (2) The Children’s Court may make an order directing that the charge for a relevant offence committed (or alleged to have been committed) by a child be dismissed if:
- (a) the child did not plead guilty to (or had not yet been found guilty of) the relevant offence before the Children’s Court made a final youth conduct order in relation to the offence, or
 - (b) the child pleaded guilty to the relevant offence before the Children’s Court made a final youth conduct order in relation to the offence.
- (2A) If the Children’s Court refuses to dismiss a charge for a relevant offence under subsection (2), the Court is to state the reasons for its refusal.
- (3) If a child was found guilty of a relevant offence before the Children’s Court made a final youth conduct order in relation to the offence, the Court may deal with the child for the offence in accordance with Division 4 of Part 3 having regard to the fact that the child has substantially complied with the order.

Note—

Section 33 provides for the things that the Children's Court may do if it finds a child guilty of an offence. That section provides for the imposition of penalties for offences, as well as conferring a power on the Court to direct that charges for offences be dismissed.

Division 7 Miscellaneous

48S Evidence of certain matters not admissible

- (1) Evidence of the following is not admissible in criminal proceedings:
 - (a) any admission made by a child in the course of being assessed for participation, or while participating, in the SCSF Program or the scheme,
 - (b) any document produced for the purposes of a child's assessment for, or participation in, the SCSF Program or the scheme.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to:
 - (a) the criminal proceedings in respect of which the child was referred for assessment for, or participation in, the SCSF Program or the scheme, or
 - (b) any other criminal proceedings of a kind prescribed by the regulations.

48T Disclosure of certain information prohibited

- (1) A person must not disclose:
 - (a) the name of, or any other identifying information about, a child or a victim (or alleged victim) of a child that the person has obtained in connection with the exercise of a relevant function, or
 - (b) any other information about a child that the person has obtained in connection with the exercise of a relevant function.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) A relevant function means any of the following functions:
 - (a) the assessment of a child's suitability to participate in the SCSF Program or the scheme,
 - (b) the conduct of the SCSF Program,
 - (c) the conduct of the scheme (including the exercise of any functions conferred or imposed by regulations made for the purposes of this Part),
 - (d) any other function prescribed by the regulations.

- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents a person from disclosing the information referred to in that subsection:
- (a) to any of the following persons:
 - (i) the child,
 - (ii) any person having parental responsibility (within the meaning of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998) for the child (but only with the consent of the child if he or she is capable in law of giving such consent),
 - (iii) another person exercising a relevant function,
 - (iv) any police officer responsible for investigating the offence in respect of which the child was referred to the scheme, or
 - (b) in connection with the conduct of an assessment of a child's suitability to participate in the SCSF Program or the scheme, or
 - (c) to a person or body for the purpose of monitoring or evaluating the SCSF Program or the scheme, or
 - (d) for the purposes of any legal proceedings, or
 - (e) in accordance with a requirement of the Ombudsman Act 1974 or with any request made by the Ombudsman, or
 - (f) to a body of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory (or to a body of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory belonging to a class) that is prescribed by, or approved in accordance with, the regulations, or
 - (g) to any other person or body (or to a person or body belonging to a class) that is prescribed by, or approved in accordance with, the regulations, or
 - (h) with other lawful excuse.

- (4) In this section:

identifying information, in relation to a child, means any information that identifies the child or that is likely to lead to the identification of the child.

48U Exchange of information

- (1) A relevant administrator may (but need not) enter into an arrangement (an information sharing arrangement) with a relevant agency for the purposes of sharing or exchanging any information that is held by persons involved in the administration of the scheme or SCSF Program or by the agency.

Note—

The disclosure of information by a relevant administrator to a relevant agency may also be permissible under section 48T (3) even in the absence of an information sharing arrangement.

- (2) The information to which an information sharing arrangement may relate is limited to the following:
 - (a) information concerning the needs of a child who is being assessed for participation, or who is participating, in the scheme or SCSF Program,
 - (b) information that assists in the exercise of functions under this Part (or under regulations made for the purposes of this Part) or functions in relation to the SCSF Program or of the relevant agency concerned,
 - (c) any other information that may be prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) Under an information sharing arrangement, a relevant administrator and the relevant agency are, despite any other Act or law of the State, authorised:
 - (a) to request and receive information that is held by the other party to the arrangement, and
 - (b) to disclose that information to the other party, but only to the extent that the information is reasonably necessary to assist in the exercise of functions under this Part (or under regulations made for the purposes of this Part) or functions in relation to the SCSF Program or the functions of the relevant agency concerned.

- (4) This section does not limit the operation of any Act under which a relevant administrator or a relevant agency is authorised or required to disclose information to another person or body.
- (5) In this section:

relevant administrator means any person (or person belonging to a class of persons) involved in the administration of the scheme or the SCSF Program prescribed by, or approved in accordance with, the regulations.

relevant agency means any of the following:

- (a) a body of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory (or a body of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory belonging to a class) that is prescribed by, or approved in accordance with, the regulations,
- (b) any other person or body (or a person or body belonging to a class) that is prescribed by, or approved in accordance with, the regulations.

48V Destruction of photographs, finger-prints, palm-prints and other records

- (1) Section 38 extends to an order of the Children's Court under section 48R (2) directing that a charge for an offence be dismissed in the same way as it extends to an order dismissing a charge for an offence made under section 33 (1) (a).

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits the application of section 38 to any finding by the Children's Court that a child is not guilty of a relevant offence in proceedings that have been determined following the revocation of a youth conduct order.

48W Regulations

Without limiting any other provision of this Part, the regulations may make provision for or with respect to any of the following matters:

- (a) eligibility to participate in the scheme,
- (b) the granting and revocation of scheme participation approvals,
- (c) the places at which, or the areas within which, the scheme is to operate,
- (d) the referral for the assessment, and the assessment, of the suitability of a child to participate in the scheme (or of a child's capacity or prospects for participation in the scheme),
- (e) the carrying out of investigations, and the preparation and provision of reports, as to a child's suitability, capacity or prospects for participation in the scheme,
- (f) the provision of reports to the Children's Court and other persons or bodies as to a child's compliance with a youth conduct order (including compliance with the conduct plan to which the order gives effect),
- (g) the persons or bodies who may participate in the scheme (in addition to the child),
- (h) the role of particular persons or bodies in the carrying out or implementation of the scheme (including the constitution of, and procedure for, bodies to carry out functions in relation to the scheme),
- (i) rebuttable presumptions concerning the constitution and decisions of bodies that are constituted by the regulations for the purposes of the scheme,
- (j) the preparation and implementation of conduct plans (whether interim or final), including the adoption, revision, variation or revocation of such plans,
- (k) the making of applications to the Children's Court under this Part by persons who are permitted or authorised to make such applications,
- (l) procedures for notification of courts or other persons or bodies of a decision of a child not to participate in, or not to continue to participate in, the scheme,
- (m) procedures for notification of orders and other decisions of the Children's Court in connection with the scheme,

- (n) the content and keeping of records in connection with the the scheme,
- (o) the monitoring and evaluation of, or research into, the operation and effect of the scheme,
- (p) the issuing of guidelines and directions with respect to suitability assessments and the implementation or operation of the scheme,
- (q) the delegation of functions conferred or imposed on a person or body by a provision of this Part or a provision of the regulations made for the purposes of this Part,
- (r) any other matter relating to the implementation or operation of the scheme.

48X Relationship with other legislation, projects and measures

- (1) This Part:
 - (a) does not affect any jurisdiction conferred on any court under this or any other Act or law, or
 - (b) does not, except to the extent that this Part expressly provides otherwise, derogate from the functions of any person or court dealing with an offence or alleged offence to take any other action in relation to an offence or alleged offence, under this or any other Act or law, or
 - (c) does not prevent or limit the development, conduct or operation of programs or measures apart from the scheme for the treatment or rehabilitation of offenders or accused persons who are children.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), nothing in this Part is intended to limit the rights and protections provided to persons by the Law Enforcement \(Powers and Responsibilities\) Act 2002 to the extent that the provisions of that Act can operate in circumstances covered by this Part.

48Y Part to cease to have effect

- (1) The provisions of this Part (other than this section) cease to have effect on 1 September 2013 or on such later day as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Note—

Any portion of an Act that ceases to have effect on a specified day ceases to have effect at the end of the specified day. See sections 5 (3) and 71 of the Interpretation Act 1987.

- (2) A regulation made for the purposes of subsection (1) must be made before the day on which the provisions of this Part (other than this section) cease to have effect under that subsection.
- (3) Regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature may be made consequent on the operation of subsection (1).

Part 5 Miscellaneous

49 Proceedings for offences

- (1) Subject to Part 3 and subsection (2), proceedings for an offence against this Act shall be dealt with summarily before the Local Court.
- (2) Proceedings for an offence against section 15A may be dealt with by the Supreme Court in its summary jurisdiction.
- (3) If proceedings for an offence against section 15A are brought before the Local Court, the maximum penalty that the Local Court may impose on a corporation is 50 penalty units.

50 Act is generally subject to Bail Act 2013

Subject to Part 4A, the Bail Act 2013 prevails in the event of an inconsistency between that Act and this Act.

50A Procedures for remitting cases from one court to another

- (1) A court that under this Act remits proceedings to another court:
 - (a) may, subject to the Bail Act 2013, commit the defendant to custody until the defendant can appear or be brought before the other court, and
 - (b) shall cause to be sent to the registrar of the other court or other proper officer all documents and depositions held by the firstmentioned court in relation to the proceedings.
- (2) The deposition of any witness called and examined before a court that remits proceedings to another court may be accepted as evidence for the accused or the prosecution by the other court if the other party consents to its being so accepted or if it is proved on oath:
 - (a) that the witness is dead, or so ill as to be unable to travel, or cannot, after such search or for such reason as to the other court seems sufficient, be produced by the party tendering the deposition, and
 - (b) that:
 - (i) in the case of a deposition taken down in writing—the deposition was taken in the presence of the other party, or
 - (ii) in the case of a deposition that is in the form of a transcript of the record made, by a means other than writing, of the evidence of the witness—the record so made is a true record of that evidence, and was made in the presence of the other party, and the transcript is a correct transcript of the record so made, and

- (c) that the other party, or the other party's Australian legal practitioner, has had full opportunity to examine the witness.

50B Special provision relating to drug rehabilitation programs

- (1) This section applies to any program for the rehabilitation of persons affected by alcohol or other drugs in which a child is required to participate as a result of an order or a condition of an order of the Children's Court in connection with criminal proceedings against the child.
- (2) The Children's Court may, as a condition of any such order, require the provision of information about the child's participation in any such program to be given to a member or officer of the Children's Court by a person who is involved in the administration of, or who provides services in connection with, the program.
- (3) The following provisions apply to and in respect of any information provided for the purposes of this section (protected information):
 - (a) the provision of the information does not constitute a breach of professional etiquette or ethics or a departure from accepted standards of professional conduct,
 - (b) no liability for defamation is incurred because of the provision of the information,
 - (c) the provision of the information does not constitute grounds for civil proceedings for malicious prosecution or conspiracy,
 - (d) the information is not admissible in evidence in any proceedings before a court, tribunal or committee,
 - (e) a person is not compellable in any proceedings before a court, tribunal or committee to disclose the information or to produce any document that contains the information.
- (4) The provisions of subsection (3) (d) and (e) do not apply to or in respect of the provision of protected information in proceedings before the Children's Court or any court hearing an appeal from a decision of that court.
- (5) The child participating in any such program is taken to have authorised the communication of protected information between anyone referred to in subsection (2).
- (6) A provision of any Act or law that prohibits or restricts the disclosure of information does not operate to prevent the provision of information for the purposes of this section.

51 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act and, in particular, for or with respect to:

- (a) the kind of conditions that may or may not be imposed in relation to orders made under section 33 that provide for a person to enter into a good behaviour bond or release a person on probation, and
- (b) the keeping of records for the purposes of this Act.

(2) A regulation may:

- (a) apply generally or be limited in its application by reference to specified exceptions or factors,
- (b) apply differently according to different factors of a specified kind, or
- (c) authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by any specified person or body, or may do any combination of those things.

52 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 2 has effect.

Schedule 1 (Repealed)

Schedule 2 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 52)

Part 1 General

1 Savings and transitional regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of any Act that amends this Act.
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect on the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect on a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on the enactment of the Children \(Criminal Proceedings\) Amendment Act 1989

2 Definition

In this Part:

amending Act means the Children \(Criminal Proceedings\) Amendment Act 1989.

3 Application of amending Act to current proceedings etc

- (1) An amendment made to this Act by Schedule 1 (3), (5), (6), (8), (12) (b) or (c) or (14) to the amending Act applies to proceedings pending at or commenced after the amendment commences.
- (2) An amendment made to this Act by Schedule 1 (7), (10) (a) or (b), (11), (12) (a), (15) or (21) to the amending Act does not apply to proceedings commenced before the amendment commences.
- (3) An amendment made by Schedule 1 (13) to the amending Act does not apply to a control order made before the amendment commences.

4 Consents for publication of names etc

The amendments made to this Act by Schedule 1 (4) to the amending Act do not apply to any consent given under section 11 of this Act before those amendments commence.

5 Regulations concerning background reports

The amendment made to this Act by Schedule 1 (8) (b) to the amending Act does not affect any regulation made for the purposes of section 25 (2) (a) of this Act and in force immediately before that amendment commences.

Part 3 Crimes Legislation Amendment Act 1998

6 Orders of recognizance and probation made before commencement of amendments

Sections 18, 40 and 41, as amended by the Crimes Legislation Amendment Act 1998, extend to:

- (a) an order of recognizance under section 33 (1) (b) or (d), and
- (b) an order of probation under section 33 (1) (e), made, by a court exercising the functions of the Children's Court under section 18 (2), before the commencement of those amendments.

Part 4 Crimes Legislation Amendment (Sentencing) Act 1999

7 Convictions recorded before commencement of amendments

Part 14 Children (Criminal Proceedings) Amendment Act 2008

19 Definition

In this Part:

amending Act means the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Amendment Act 2008.

20 Detention of adults in juvenile detention centres

An amendment made to section 19 by the amending Act applies in respect of any direction made under that section on or after the commencement of the amendment.

21 Changes to penalty provisions

- (1) An amendment made to section 33 by the amending Act applies only in respect of an offence committed on or after the commencement of the amendment, except as otherwise provided by this clause.
- (2) The amendment made to section 33 (1B) by the amending Act relating to the setting of a non-parole period, and the amendment made to section 41A by the amending Act, extend to proceedings commenced (but not concluded) before the commencement of the amendments (including proceedings for offences committed before the commencement of the amendments).
- (3) The amendment made to section 41A by the amending Act extends to proceedings in respect of a good behaviour bond entered into before the commencement of the amendment.

- (4) The amendment to section 41A does not require a non-parole period in respect of an order under section 33 (1) (g) to be set on termination of a good behaviour bond entered into before the commencement of the amendment if the non-parole period was set at the time that the order under section 33 (1) (g) was suspended.

22 Change to maximum amount of compensation

The amendment made to section 36 by the amending Act applies only in respect of offences committed on or after the commencement of the amendment.

Part 15 Children (Criminal Proceedings) Amendment (Youth Conduct Orders) Act 2008

23 Definition

In this Part:

amending Act means the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Amendment (Youth Conduct Orders) Act 2008.

24 Application of Part 4A to pre-commencement offences

Part 4A, as inserted by the amending Act, extends to a relevant offence (within the meaning of that Part) committed, or alleged to have been committed, by a child before the commencement of that Part, but only if the child is charged with the offence (within the meaning of that Part) after that commencement.

25 Exercise of certain powers between enactment and commencement of amending Act

The provisions of section 26 of the Interpretation Act 1987 apply in relation to a power to make an instrument that is to be conferred by an uncommenced amendment to the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Regulation 2005 made by the amending Act in the same way as they apply to powers to make instruments conferred by uncommenced amendments to Acts.

Note—

Section 26 of the Interpretation Act 1987 enables a power to make instruments of a legislative or administrative character that is to be conferred by an enacted but uncommenced amendment to an Act to be exercised before the amendment commences. Any such instrument will have effect on the commencement of the amendment.

Part 16 Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2010

26 Application of amendments to section 41

The amendments made to section 41 by the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2010 extend to a failure of a person of the kind referred to in section 41 (1A) (as inserted by that Act) occurring before the commencement of the amendments.

Part 17 Courts and Crimes Legislation Further Amendment Act 2010

27 Definitions

In this Part:

amending Act means the Courts and Crimes Legislation Further Amendment Act 2010.

commencement day means the day on which Schedule 4.1 to the amending Act commences.

28 Application of amended Part 4A to pre-commencement offences

Part 4A of the Act and Part 2 of the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Regulation 2005, as amended by the amending Act, extend to a relevant offence (within the meaning of the amended Part 4A of the Act) committed, or alleged to have been committed, by a child before the commencement day, but only if:

- (a) the child has not yet been charged with the offence immediately before the commencement day, or
- (b) where the child was charged with the offence before the commencement day—the child has not yet:
