8 Offence of contravening a ban

A person who is banned from entering a sporting venue under this Part must not enter the sporting venue while the ban is in force.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

9 Removal from venue for invasion or contravention of ban

- (1) A person who contravenes any provision of this Part at a sporting venue may be removed from the venue by an authorised officer.
- (2) An authorised officer acting in accordance with this section may use such force as is reasonable in the circumstances for the purpose of exercising the officer's functions under this section.

10 Requirement to state name and address

- (1) An authorised officer at a sporting venue who suspects on reasonable grounds that a person at the venue has committed, or has been involved in the commission of, a contravention of a provision of this Part at the venue may require the person to state his or her full name and residential address.
- (2) A person must not:
 - (a) fail without reasonable excuse to comply with a requirement under this section, or
 - (b) in purported compliance with such a requirement, furnish information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (3) A person is not guilty of an offence against this section unless it is established that the authorised officer warned the person that the failure to comply with the requirement is an offence.

11 Taking photographs of certain persons

An authorised officer at a sporting venue who suspects on reasonable grounds that a person at the venue has committed, or has been involved in the commission of, a contravention of a provision of this Part at the venue may take a photograph or make another form of image of the person.

Part 3 Miscellaneous

12 Penalty notices

- (1) A police officer may serve a penalty notice on a person if it appears to the officer that the person has committed an offence against a provision of Part 2.
- (2) A penalty notice is a notice to the effect that, if the person served does not wish to have the matter determined by a court, the person can pay, within the time and to the person specified in the notice, the amount of the penalty prescribed by the regulations, or, if there is no amount prescribed by the regulations, by section 13, for the offence if dealt with under this section.
- (3) A penalty notice may be served personally or by post.
- (4) If the amount of penalty prescribed for an alleged offence is paid under this section, no person is liable to any further proceedings for the alleged offence.
- (5) This section does not affect a ban under Part 2, such a ban remaining in force notwithstanding the payment of an amount payable under a penalty notice.
- (6) Payment under this section is not to be regarded as an admission of liability for the purpose of, and does not in any way affect or prejudice, any civil claim, action or proceeding arising out of the same occurrence.
- (7) The regulations may:
 - (a) prescribe the amount of penalty payable for the offence if dealt with under this section, and
 - (b) prescribe different amounts of penalties for different offences or classes of offences.
- (8) The amount of a penalty prescribed under this section for an offence is not to exceed the maximum amount of penalty that could be imposed for the offence by a court.
- (9) This section does not limit the operation of any other provision of, or made under, this or any other Act relating to proceedings that may be taken in respect of offences.

13 Penalty notice amounts

For the purposes of section 12, the amount prescribed is:

- (a) $500 in respect of an offence under section 4 or 4A, and
- (b) $500 in respect of an offence under section 8, and
- (c) $500 in respect of an offence under section 10.

14 Nature of proceedings for offences

Proceedings for an offence under this Act may be dealt with summarily before the Local Court.

15 Regulations

The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

16 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 1 has effect.

17 (Repealed)

Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 16)

1 Savings or transitional regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:

 this Act

- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.
