4 Application of Rules

(1) These Rules apply only in relation to NSW Police Force senior executives and non-executive administrative employees.

(2) However, subrule (1) does not affect the operation of the following:

(a) rules 18 (1), 49 and 50,

(b) Schedule 1.

5 Comparative assessment (cf rule 17 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

(1) For the purposes of these Rules, a comparative assessment is the process of assessing an individual's claim against:

(a) the pre-established standards for a role, and

(b) any other claimants for the role.

(2) The process is to include the following:

- (a) screening for essential requirements such as a qualification or licence,

 - (b) reviewing a resume,
 - (c) at least 2 capability-based assessments, one of which is an interview,

Part 2 Merit-based employment and related matters

7 Definition

In this Part:

relevant person means a person who is (or is to be) employed as a NSW Police Force senior executive or non-executive administrative employee.

8 Merit principles to be applied in employment decisions (cf rule 16 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

- (1) This rule applies to any of the following decisions (an employment decision):
 - (a) the employment of relevant persons in any kind of employment and the assignment under section 36 or 81D of the Police Act 1990 of relevant persons to roles,
 - (b) the conversion to ongoing employment of a relevant person's temporary or term employment,
 - (c) the transfer or secondment of an employee to the NSW Police Force from another government sector agency.
- (2) Any employment decision relating to an executive role or a non-executive role in the NSW Police Force is to be based on an assessment of the capabilities, experience and knowledge of the relevant person concerned against the pre-established standards for the role to determine the person best suited to the requirements of the role and the needs of the NSW Police Force.

- (3) Without limiting subrule (2), the following principles apply in relation to employment decisions:
- (a) any recruitment action (whether for ongoing employment, temporary or term employment or casual employment) is to take into account:
 - (i) long and short term capability needs to meet the objectives of the NSW Police Force, and
 - (ii) existing workforce capabilities,
 - (b) pre-established standards for a role are to be expressed as levels against each capability or other requirements for the role,
 - (c) any assessment for a role is to include appropriate methods to assess different requirements,
 - (d) except in the case where a development opportunity is being provided, a relevant person may be employed in a role only if the person meets the pre-established standards for the role or type of role,
 - (e) any employment decision is to be made on balance taking into account all the results provided by the assessment process.

9 Talent pools (cf rule 19 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

- (1) A talent pool is a list of those persons (whether or not existing members of the NSW Police Force) who have satisfied the pre-established standards for a role or type of role through a comparative assessment conducted by a government sector agency (including the NSW Police Force).
- (2) A talent pool may be used for recruitment of relevant persons to ongoing employment or for temporary or term employment.
- (3) A person may be included in a talent pool for no longer than the period of 12 months following the completion of the comparative assessment that entitled the person to be included in the talent pool.

10 Ongoing employment (cf rule 20 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

- (1) Subject to subrule (2), the following decisions must be based on a comparative assessment after external advertising:
 - (a) the decision to employ a relevant person in ongoing employment in a particular classification of work or band and the initial assignment of the person to a role in that classification or band,

(b) any subsequent decision to employ the person in a different classification of work or in a different band and the initial assignment of the person to a role in that classification or band.

(2) The decision to employ a non-executive administrative employee in ongoing employment at a higher classification of work than the employee's current classification in the NSW Police Force is not required to comply with subrule (1) if:

(a) the employee has been performing duties in the NSW Police Force at that higher classification (or at a classification similar to that higher classification) for a period of at least 12 months, and

(b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the employee has the qualifications, experience, standard of work performance and capabilities to enable the employee to perform the duties associated with that higher classification.

(3) The process for employing a non-executive administrative employee in accordance with subrule (2) is to be completed by no later than 31 October 2020.

11 Temporary or term employment (cf rules 21 & 22 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

(1) The decision to employ a relevant person in temporary or term employment for a period of up to 12 months must be based on either a suitability assessment or a comparative assessment.

(2) The decision to employ a relevant person in temporary or term employment for a period of more than 12 months must be based on a comparative assessment after external advertising.

(3) If a relevant person is employed in temporary or term employment on the basis of a suitability assessment, the person cannot continue in that employment after 12 months unless the person does so on the basis of a comparative assessment. In such a case, action to undertake the additional requirements of a comparative assessment should commence not later than 9 months after the commencement of the person's temporary or term employment.

(4) The Commissioner may exempt the employment of a relevant person from subrule (3) if the Commissioner determines that the special circumstances of the case justify the exemption.

12 Maximum period of temporary employment of non-executive administrative employees (cf rule 10 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

(1) The maximum total period for which a non-executive administrative employee may be employed in temporary employment is 4 years within any continuous period of 5 years.

- (2) Despite subrule (1), a non-executive administrative employee may be employed in temporary employment for a further period or periods of up to 4 years (the maximum temporary period) if the decision to employ the person for any such further period is based on a comparative assessment after external advertising. The recruitment process should be commenced not later than 3 months before the start of the proposed further period of temporary employment.
- (3) If a person is employed under subrule (2) after a comparative assessment (the initial assessment) for less than the maximum temporary period and the person is subsequently employed for a further period within the maximum temporary period, a further comparative assessment is not required in connection with the decision to employ the person for that further period if:
 - (a) the person is to be assigned to the same role as the role to which the person was assigned after the initial assessment, or
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that it is appropriate to rely on the initial assessment for the role to which the person is to be assigned.
- (4) The period of 4 years referred to in subrule (1) or (2) may, with the approval of the Commissioner in any particular case, be extended for an additional period of up to 12 months.
- (5) The Commissioner may, after consulting the Public Service Commissioner, determine classes of exceptions to this rule. Any such determination is to be made publicly available on a website provided and maintained by the Commissioner.

13 Conversion of temporary or term employment to ongoing employment at-level (cf rule 12 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

- (1) The Commissioner may convert the temporary or term employment of a relevant person to ongoing employment if:
 - (a) the ongoing employment is at-level, and
 - (b) the person has been employed for a period of at least 12 months.
- (2) The conversion to ongoing employment under this rule:
 - (a) must be based:
 - (i) on the results of a comparative assessment (whether a previous comparative assessment or a new comparative assessment) after external advertising, and
 - (ii) on the relevant person's most recent performance under the NSW Police Force's performance management system, and
 - (b) is subject to the satisfactory conduct of the relevant person.

14 Use of initial suitability and comparative assessments when extending temporary or term employment (cf rule 22B GSE (General) Rules 2014)

If a relevant person is employed in accordance with rule 11 after a suitability or comparative assessment (the initial assessment) and the person's temporary or term employment is subsequently extended for a further period, a further suitability or comparative assessment is not required in connection with the decision to employ the person for that further period if:

- (a) the person is to be assigned to the same role as the role to which the person was assigned after the initial assessment, or
- (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that it is appropriate to rely on the initial assessment for the role to which the relevant person is to be assigned.

Note—

The extension of an administrative employee's temporary employment is limited by the maximum period of temporary employment under rule 12 (unless an exception under rule 12 (5) applies).

15 Temporary assignments (cf rule 11 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

- (1) A relevant person may be temporarily assigned by the Commissioner to another role in the NSW Police Force if:
 - (a) the person who is usually assigned to that other role is unavailable for any reason, or
 - (b) there is no person assigned to that other role.

Note—

The regulations under the Police Act 1990 provide for an allowance in the case where the temporary assignment involves a higher role.

See also section 33 (5) of the Police Act 1990 which provides for the appointment of members of the NSW Police Force to act in executive roles.

- (2) A temporary assignment under this rule may be terminated at any time by the Commissioner.
- (3) On completion of a relevant person's temporary assignment under this rule, the person, unless assigned to a different role under section 36 or 81D of the Police Act 1990, continues to have the role assigned to the person under section 36 or 81D of that Act immediately before the start of the temporary assignment.
- (4) Sections 36 and 81D of the Police Act 1990 do not apply to a temporary assignment under this rule.

16 Limited advertising of vacancies arising from agency restructure (cf rule 23 GSE)

(General) Rules 2014)

- (1) If, during the course of a major restructure affecting the NSW Police Force, the Commissioner considers that a significant number of administrative employees are likely to be determined to be excess employees, the Commissioner may, in taking recruitment action to fill a vacancy in a non-executive administrative employee role that arises as part of the restructure, limit the recruitment to the following candidates:
 - (a) administrative employees employed in ongoing employment,
 - (b) administrative employees who have been employed in temporary employment for a period of at least 12 months.
- (2) This rule has effect despite any requirement under these Rules for external advertising in relation to the role concerned.

17 Dispensation with requirements of Part

- (1) The Commissioner may, in making a decision under this Part, dispense with any requirement under this Part that would otherwise apply in relation to the decision if the Commissioner is satisfied that the requirement should be dispensed with because of operational needs of the NSW Police Force.
- (2) The Commissioner and the Public Service Commissioner may agree on the kinds of operational needs of the NSW Police Force that justify dispensing with any of the requirements under this Part.

Part 3 Contracts of employment and other provisions relating to executives

18 Model contracts of employment (cf rule 43 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

 - (a) are mandatory (except any provisions that are not applicable, as indicated in the model contract), and

(b) are subject to the GSE Act, the Police Act 1990 and the regulations under that Act, the Government Sector Employment Regulation 2014 and these Rules.

(5) Any amendment made to Schedule 1, 2 or 3 does not apply to a contract of employment entered into before the amendment is made.

21 Report on termination of employment of executives (cf rule 42 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

(1) If the employment of a NSW Police Force senior executive is terminated by the Commissioner under section 40 of the Police Act 1990, the Commissioner is, as soon as practicable after terminating the executive's employment, to provide a written report to the Public Service Commissioner on the termination.

(2) The Commissioner may attach a specific condition of employment to the role assigned to a NSW Police Force senior executive.

(3) Any such condition cannot vary the terms of the executive's contract of employment (including changing the executive's remuneration package).

(4) If the NSW Police Force senior executive assigned to a role to which any such condition is attached is assigned to a different role that does not have the condition of employment attached to it, the condition no longer applies in relation to the executive.

23 Assignment to other role—payment of allowances (cf rule 47 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

If an allowance of a particular kind is payable in relation to the role of a NSW Police Force senior executive and the executive is assigned to another role in respect of which the allowance is not payable, the executive is no longer entitled to the allowance.

24 Part-time work (cf rule 48 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

- (1) The Commissioner may approve a request by a NSW Police Force senior executive to undertake work on a part-time basis (namely, that the executive is not available for duty during the whole or part of a normal working day).
- (2) An agreement between the Commissioner and a NSW Police Force senior executive about part-time work must specify the days or parts of days when the executive is available for duty.
- (3) The remuneration of the executive is to be calculated on a pro-rata basis (excluding allowances in the nature of reimbursement where the part-time executive will receive the same amount as a full-time executive in the same circumstances).

A NSW Police Force senior executive must participate in:

 - (a) to serve a period of probation on commencing employment, and

(b) to satisfy the requirements for the role to which the employee is assigned during that period of probation.

- (2) Any such period of probation is to be 6 months or such longer period as the Commissioner may determine in respect of the administrative employee.
- (3) If an administrative employee is required to serve a period of probation, the Commissioner may, at any time during or at the end of the probation period:

31 Health assessment (cf rule 9 GSE (General) Rules 2014)

- (1) This rule applies to an administrative employee whose engagement in the NSW Police Force is made subject to a condition that the employee's fitness to perform the duties of the role to which the employee is assigned has been confirmed by a health assessment.

- (2) For the purposes of this rule, fitness to perform the duties of a role includes the ability to carry out the role without endangering the health and safety of the public, of other members of the NSW Police Force or of the administrative employee concerned.
- (3) The form of the health assessment may include (but is not limited to) any one or more of the following:
 - (a) a declaration (which may be a statutory declaration if required) provided by the administrative employee concerning any illness, disability or condition of which the employee is aware that might make the employee unfit to carry out the role,
 - (b) a medical examination by a medical practitioner approved by the Commissioner or the Public Service Commissioner,

- (2) If the manager of an administrative employee has reason to believe that the employee:
 - (a) has been charged with, or has been convicted of, a serious offence, and
 - (b) has not reported the matter to the Commissioner, the manager must immediately inform the Commissioner in writing that the manager has reason to believe that the administrative employee has been charged with, or has been convicted of, the serious offence.

- (3) In this rule:

convicted of an offence includes being found guilty of the offence without the court proceeding to a conviction.

manager of an administrative employee means the manager of the part of the NSW Police Force in which the employee is employed.

- (1) If an administrative employee (other than a non-executive administrative employee employed in casual employment) becomes bankrupt or makes a composition, arrangement or assignment for the benefit of the employee's creditors, the employee must:
 - (a) immediately notify the Commissioner in writing of the bankruptcy, composition, arrangement or assignment, and
 - (b) within such period as the Commissioner specifies, provide the Commissioner with such further information with respect to the cause of the bankruptcy or of the making of the composition, arrangement or assignment as the Commissioner requires.
- (2) The Commissioner may, as a condition of the engagement of an administrative employee in a role in the NSW Police Force relating to financial management in the NSW Police Force, require the person to declare, before the person is engaged in that role, whether or not the person has at any time been declared bankrupt or made a composition, arrangement or assignment for the benefit of the person's creditors.

34 Public holidays (cf cl 12 GSE Reg 2014)

- (1) An administrative employee is entitled to be absent from duty on the following days unless the employee is required to attend for duty by the Commissioner or by a person authorised by the Commissioner:

- (1) An administrative employee must not be absent from duty unless reasonable cause is shown.
- (2) If an administrative employee is absent from duty because of illness or other emergency, the employee must, as soon as practicable, provide an explanation for the absence.
- (3) If the administrative employee fails to provide that explanation to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, the Commissioner is to cause to be deducted from the pay of the employee the amount paid to the employee for the period of absence.

- (4) This rule does not prevent the Commissioner from taking any other action that the Commissioner is authorised to take in relation to an administrative employee who is absent from duty without authorised leave.
- (5) In the case of an administrative employee who is a NSW Police Force senior executive, this rule is subject to the executive's contract of employment under section 38 of the Police Act 1990.

 - (a) may render the employee a risk to the health and safety of other members of the NSW Police Force or the general public, or
 - (b) is likely to be seriously affected by the employee remaining on duty or, if the employee is absent from duty, by the employee resuming duty.

- (2) If the Commissioner has reason to believe that an administrative employee is not fit for duty, the Commissioner may direct the employee to submit to such medical examination or other health assessment as the Commissioner may consider necessary.
- (3) If the Commissioner gives an administrative employee a direction under subrule (2), the employee:
