Children (Education and Care Services) Supplementary Provisions Amendment Act 2018 No 46

New South Wales

An Act to amend the Children (Education and Care Services) Supplementary Provisions Act 2011 to further provide for the regulation of certain children's education and care services and to further align the regulation of those services with the Children (Education and Care Services) National Law (NSW); and for other purposes.

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Children (Education and Care Services) Supplementary Provisions Amendment Act 2018.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation, except as provided by this section.
- (2) Schedule 1 [34]-[37] commence on the date of assent to this Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Children (Education and Care Services) Supplementary Provisions Act 2011 No 70

[1] Section 3 Definitions

Omit the definitions of centre based education and care service, certified supervisor, family day care service, home based education and care service and supervisor certificate from section 3 (1).

[2] Section 3 (1), definition of "occasional education and care service"

Insert in alphabetical order:

occasional education and care service—see section 4.

[3] Section 4 Meaning of “State regulated education and care service”

Omit section 4 (1). Insert instead:

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, each of the following is a State regulated education and care service:
- (a) a mobile education and care service, being an education and care service that visits specific premises, areas or places at specified times for the purpose of providing the care,
 - (b) an occasional education and care service, being an education and care service that is provided at fixed premises (other than the home of the approved provider of the service) primarily on an ad hoc or casual basis and that does not usually offer full-time or all day education and care to children on an ongoing basis.

[4] Section 4 (3) (g)

Omit the paragraph. Insert instead:

- (g) a service principally conducted to provide instruction in a particular activity,

Note—

Instruction in sport, dance, music, culture, language or religion are examples.

[5] Section 6

Insert after section 5:

6 Objectives and principles underlying the provision of State regulated education and care services

- (1) The National Law Alignment Provisions provide for the objectives and guiding principles that apply to the provision of State regulated education and care services.
- (2) A reference in sections 3 and 4 of the National Law to the national education and care services quality framework is to be read, for the purposes of the National Law Alignment Provisions, as a reference to the framework for the provision of State regulated education and care services established by this Act.

[6] Part 2 Guiding principles

Omit the Part.

[7] Section 8 Unauthorised provision of education and care service

Omit “certified” from section 8 (2). Insert instead “nominated”.

[11] Section 9 (4)

Insert after section 9 (3):

- (4) A person must not advertise or hold out that the person is willing to provide a State regulated education and care service for which an application for any provider approval or service approval required to authorise the person to provide the proposed service is pending unless it is made clear that the service will be provided only after any such approval has been granted.

Maximum penalty: $550.

[12] Section 10 Nomination of supervisor

Omit the section.

[13] Section 14A

Insert after section 14:

14A Service waivers and temporary waivers

The National Law Alignment Provisions provide for the grant of service waivers and temporary waivers for State regulated education and care services and other matters relating to waivers.

Note—

Under Divisions 5 and 6 of Part 3 of the National Law, an approved provider of an education and care service may apply for a service (ie permanent) or temporary waiver from a requirement that the service comply with certain elements of the National Quality Standard (set out in the national regulations) or certain specified provisions of the national regulations.

[14] Part 3, Division 4

Omit the Division. Insert instead:

Division 4 Assessment and rating

15 Assessment and rating of State regulated education and care services

- (1) The National Law Alignment Provisions provide for the assessment by the Regulatory Authority of State regulated education and care services and the determination of rating levels (other than the highest rating level) for the services.
- (2) The regulations may make provision for the award of the highest rating level to State regulated education and care services.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent the Regulatory Authority from entering into arrangements with the National Authority for the assessment of State regulated education and care services and the award of the highest rating level to those services by the National Authority.

[15] Section 20 Extension does not affect operation of National Law in respect of nationally regulated education and care services

Omit “, service approval or supervisor certificate” wherever occurring.

Insert instead “or service approval”.

[16] Section 21 Excluded provisions

27 References to National Quality Framework and National Quality Standard

- (1) A reference in the National Law to the National Quality Framework is to be read, for the purpose of the National Law Alignment Provisions, as a reference to the following:
 - (a) this Act (including the National Law Alignment Provisions),
 - (b) the regulations under this Act,
 - (c) the National Quality Standard,
 - (d) the rating system provided for by the regulations under this Act.
- (2) A reference in the National Law to the National Quality Standard is to be read, for the purpose of the National Law Alignment Provisions, as a reference to the National Quality Standard approved by the Ministerial Council under the National Law as in force from time to time.
- (3) The regulations may make further provision for the application of the National Quality Standard to State regulated education and care services, including by modifying the National Quality Standard as it applies to those services.

27A Specific variations

- (1) A reference in section 168 of the National Law to an approved learning framework is to be read, for the purpose of the National Law Alignment Provisions, as a reference to the learning framework approved by the Ministerial Council under the National Law as in force from time to time.
- (2) A reference in the National Law to qualifications required or approved under that Law includes, for the purpose of the National Law Alignment Provisions, a reference to any qualifications that have been determined by the National Authority to be equivalent to the qualifications required by the regulations under the National Law.

- (3) A reference in section 201 of the National Law to section 103 of the National Law is to be read, for the purpose of the National Law Alignment Provisions, as a reference to section 8 of this Act.

Note—

Accordingly the power to enter premises under section 201 of the National Law where a contravention of section 103 of the National Law is suspected is, for the purposes of the National Law Alignment Provisions, a power to enter premises where a contravention of section 8 of this Act is suspected.

27B Fees

- (1) The amount of a fee payable under the National Law Alignment Provisions in respect of a State regulated education and care service is the fee payable under the National Law in respect of an education and care service other than a family day care service.
- (2) The Regulatory Authority may waive, reduce, defer or refund any fee payable or paid to it under the National Law Alignment Provisions if there are exceptional circumstances.
