Treasury Corporation Act 1983 No 75

New South Wales

An Act to constitute the New South Wales Treasury Corporation and to provide for the objects and functions of the Corporation; and for other purposes.

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Treasury Corporation Act 1983.

2 Commencement

- (1) Sections 1 and 2 shall commence on the date of assent to this Act.
- (2) Except as provided by subsection (1), this Act shall commence on such day as may be appointed by the Governor in respect thereof and as may be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

3 Definitions

- (1) In this Act, except in so far as the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires:

Board means the board of directors of the Corporation.

borrowing has the same meaning as in the funding Act.

Chairperson means the Chairperson of the Board.

Chief Executive means the Chief Executive of the Corporation appointed under this Act.

Corporation means the New South Wales Treasury Corporation constituted by section 4.

council means a council within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993, and includes any other local government authority prescribed by the regulations.

Deputy Chairperson means the Deputy Chairperson of the Board.

derivative arrangement has the same meaning as in the funding Act.

function includes power and duty.

funding Act means the Government Sector Finance Act 2018.

Government means the Crown in right of New South Wales.

public authority means an authority within the meaning of the funding Act, other than the New South Wales Treasury Corporation, and includes a council.

- (2) In this Act, a reference to the performance of a function includes, where the function is a power or duty, a reference to the exercise of the power or performance of the duty.
- (3) (Repealed)
- (4) Notes in this Act do not form part of this Act.

4 New South Wales Treasury Corporation

- (1) There is hereby constituted a corporation with the corporate name “New South Wales Treasury Corporation”.
- (2) The policies of the Corporation shall be as determined by the Board.
- (3) The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Chief Executive in accordance with such policies as may be determined by, and such directions as may be given by, the Board.
- (4) Any act, matter or thing done in the name of, or on behalf of, the Corporation by the Chief Executive, or with the authority of the Chief Executive, shall be taken to have been done by the Corporation.
- (5) The Corporation is subject to the control and direction of the Treasurer.
- (6) If the Corporation is of the opinion that compliance with a direction given under subsection (5) is likely to have a significantly adverse effect on the performance by the Corporation of its functions:
 - (a) the Corporation may request the Treasurer to review the direction, and
 - (b) if the Corporation is of the same opinion after the direction has been reviewed, the Corporation must include particulars of the direction, and of its opinion as to the effect of compliance with the direction, in the annual reporting information prepared for it under the Government Sector Finance Act 2018.
- (7) A direction given by the Treasurer under subsection (5) does not cease to have effect merely because a request has been made for a review of the direction under subsection (6).

- (8) In the event of an inconsistency between a direction given by the Treasurer and a direction given by the Board, the direction given by the Treasurer prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.
- (9) Any act, matter or thing done by the Chief Executive may not be called into question, by any person transacting any business or otherwise dealing with the Corporation, because of a contravention of any direction under this section.
- (10) The Corporation may employ staff. The provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to the staff employed by the Corporation.

4A Establishment of Board

- (1) There is constituted by this Act a board of directors of the Corporation.
- (2) The Board is to consist of the following:
 - (a) the Chief Executive,
 - (b) the Secretary of the Treasury (or an officer of the Treasury nominated for the time being by the Secretary of the Treasury to represent the Secretary),
 - (c) another officer of the Treasury (if any) nominated for the time being by the Secretary of the Treasury to represent the Treasury,
 - (d) not fewer than 3 and not more than 7 persons appointed by the Treasurer who, in the opinion of the Treasurer, have expertise that is relevant to the functions exercisable by the Corporation.
- (3) The Secretary of the Treasury is, by an instrument of appointment or a subsequent instrument, to appoint one of the members of the Board to be the Chairperson and one to be the Deputy Chairperson of the Board.
- (3A) The Secretary of the Treasury is to consult with the Treasurer before appointing a director referred to in subsection (2) (d) as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of the Board.
- (4) Schedules 3 and 4 have effect with respect to the members and procedure of the Board.

4AA Functions of Board

The functions of the Board are:

- (a) to determine the policies of, and give directions to the Chief Executive in connection with the management of the affairs of, the Corporation, and
- (b) to determine, with the concurrence of the Treasurer, the remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) that the Chief Executive is entitled to be paid, and

- (c) to perform such other functions as may be conferred or imposed on the Board by or under this or any other Act or law.

4B Appointment of Chief Executive

- (1) The Treasurer may, on the recommendation of the Board, appoint a person as the Chief Executive of the Corporation.
- (2) Schedule 1 has effect with respect to the Chief Executive.

4C Committees of the Board

- (1) The Board may establish committees to assist it in connection with the exercise of any of its functions.
- (2) A committee of the Board must be chaired by a member of the Board. It does not matter that some or all of the other members of a committee are not members of the Board.
- (3) The procedure for the calling of meetings of a committee and for the conduct of business at those meetings is to be as determined by the Board or (subject to any determination of the Board) by the committee.
- (4) The Board may delegate to a committee any of the functions of the Board, other than this power of delegation.

5 Objects of the Corporation

- (1) The principal object of the Corporation is to provide financial services for or for the benefit of the Government, public authorities and other public bodies.
- (2) The Corporation has such other objects as may be provided for by or under any other Act.

6 Powers etc of the Corporation

The Corporation has, for the purpose of pursuing its objects (both within and outside the State), the same legal capacity, powers and authorities as a company under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

6A Examples of activities in which the Corporation can engage

- (1) The activities in which the Corporation can engage include the following:
 - (a) it can provide the Government, a public authority or any other public body with borrowings on such terms and conditions as the Corporation considers appropriate,

- (b) it can act as agent for the Government, a public authority or any other public body in obtaining borrowings, effecting a derivative arrangement or entering into a joint financing arrangement under the funding Act or any other Act,
- (c) it can appoint and employ a person (including a public authority or other public body) as agent for the purpose of exercising any power of the Corporation,
- (d) it can by agreement with the Government assume any liability incurred by the Government in relation to finance obtained by the Government,
- (e) it can invest funds of or under the control of the Corporation,
- (f) it can require the Government, a public authority or any other public body to pay to the Corporation such fees as the Corporation considers appropriate for the performance of its functions,
- (g) it can assume the responsibility of the Government, a public authority or any other public body for the administration of any matter relating to borrowings, derivative arrangements or joint financing arrangements,
- (h) it can accept money for investment from the Government and from public authorities and other public bodies,
- (i) it can aggregate or divide, in such manner as it considers appropriate, any funds obtained by it for the purpose of providing borrowings to the Government, public authorities and other public bodies,
- (j) it can redeem any securities issued by the Corporation and hold, cancel or re-issue any such securities,
- (k) it can manage the liabilities and assets of the Corporation having regard to current situations and possible eventualities,
- (l) it can carry out, participate in, and give advice concerning, the management of the liabilities and assets of the Government, public authorities and other public bodies,
- (m) it can enter into a contract of guarantee,
- (n) it can do anything that may be necessary or convenient to be done for the purpose of pursuing its objects.

(2) This section is not to be read as in any way limiting the functions of the Corporation.

6B Limitations on powers

(1) The Corporation is not to invest funds of or under the control of the Corporation except:

- (a) if the Corporation is a GSF agency for the purposes of Part 6 of the Government Sector Finance Act 2018—in any way that the Corporation is permitted to invest money under that Part, or
 - (b) if the Corporation is not a GSF agency for the purposes of Part 6 of the Government Sector Finance Act 2018—in any way approved by the Treasurer.
- (2) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the manner in which the Corporation is to assume the responsibility of the Government, a public authority or other public body for the administration of any matter relating to borrowings obtained.
 - (3) The Corporation is not to enter into a contract of guarantee except on such terms and conditions as are approved by the Treasurer.
 - (4) The Corporation is not to appoint or employ person (whether or not a public authority or other public body) to act as agent for the purpose of exercising the powers of the Corporation under the funding Act except with the approval of the Treasurer.
 - (5) The Corporation is not to act as agent for a public authority or other public body in obtaining borrowings under the funding Act or any other Act when the borrowings are obtained from the Corporation.

7 Obligations of public authorities

- (1) Where the Corporation assumes the responsibility of a public authority or other public body for the administration of any matter relating to borrowings obtained by the public authority or other public body, any payment required to be made under the terms and conditions of which the borrowings were provided shall be made by the Corporation to the person entitled thereto and such a payment by the Corporation operates as a discharge of the obligation of the public authority to make the payment to that person.
- (2) A public authority shall keep the Corporation supplied with funds to the extent necessary to provide for the making of payments under subsection (1) on behalf of the public authority as they fall due.
- (3) A failure by a public authority to make a payment in compliance with a condition upon which particular borrowings were obtained by it from the Corporation may, if the Treasurer approves, be treated by the Corporation as if it were a like failure in relation to all other current borrowings provided to the public authority by the Corporation.

8 Powers of public authorities

Notwithstanding anything in any other Act:

- (a) the Government and any public authority or other public body may deposit money with the Corporation for investment (subject to section 6B (1)), and

- (b) the Government and any public authority or other public body may participate with the Corporation in, or authorise the Corporation to carry out, the management of the liabilities and assets of the Government or of the public authority or other public body, as the case may be, and
- (c) the Government and any public authority or other public body may appoint the Corporation to act as agent for it for any purpose.

9 Provision of borrowings from Corporation

* * * * *

Note—

Section 6.24 of the funding Act provides that, subject to certain exceptions, borrowings for GSF agencies under Part 6 of that Act (which include Ministers other than the Treasurer) must be obtained from the Corporation.

9A Provision of borrowings to councils

- (1) A council is not required or authorised to obtain borrowings from the Corporation during any period unless:
 - (a) the council has requested the Corporation to obtain borrowings for the council during that period, and
 - (b) the Corporation has approved of the request.
- (2) Any such request must be made by notice in writing to the Corporation.
- (3) Section 6.29 (Guarantee fees for certain guaranteed payments) of the funding Act applies to a council in respect of borrowings obtained by the Corporation for the council in the same way as it applies to a GSF agency.
- (4) (Repealed)
- (5) A council that is required to obtain borrowings from the Corporation during any period is not prohibited from obtaining additional borrowings, otherwise than from the Corporation, during the same period.
- (6) Despite this section, if a council has obtained borrowings from the Corporation, the borrowings are taken to have been validly obtained, and payments in respect of the borrowings are to be made in accordance with the agreement or the purported agreement under which the borrowings have been obtained. This is despite any provision of the Local Government Act 1993 or any deficiency in any condition precedent to, or in any procedure in, any deliberation, request, application or decision relating to the borrowings.

9B Special powers of the Corporation

- (1) The Corporation has power to impose conditions relating to the provision by it of borrowings, the management by it of borrowings provided by it and the repayment of borrowings provided by it. Such a condition can be imposed before or after the borrowings are provided.

- (2) The Corporation has power to replace securities and other like instruments evidencing borrowings that have been issued by the Government, a public authority or another public body with securities or other like instruments issued by the Government or the Corporation, subject to the following:
 - (a) the Corporation is not authorised to replace securities or other like instruments if the holder objects (in the manner required by the regulations) to the exchange,
 - (b) the terms and conditions on which securities and other like instruments can be replaced under this section are the terms and conditions determined by the Treasurer.
- (3) The Corporation is empowered to act on behalf of, or as agent for, the Government in the negotiation, entering into and carrying out of any agreement to obtain finance.
- (4) This section is not to be read as limiting the powers of the Corporation.

10 Delegation

- (1) The Corporation may delegate to a person any of its functions, other than this power of delegation.
- (2) Section 49 of the Interpretation Act 1987 applies to a delegation under this section.

11 Protection of persons having dealings with the Corporation

- (1) The purpose of this section is to give protection to a person having dealings with the Corporation.
- (2) An act of the Corporation is not invalid merely because it is not in pursuance of the objects of the Corporation.
- (3) The performance of a function by the Corporation is not invalid merely because it is performed contrary to a restriction or prohibition imposed by or under this or any other Act.
- (4) A person who has dealings with the Corporation is entitled to make the following assumptions in relation to those dealings:
 - (a) that the Corporation has power to have the dealings with the person,
 - (b) that the dealings are in pursuance of the objects of the Corporation,
 - (c) that the Corporation is acting in compliance with this Act and the funding Act.

- (5) No actual or constructive notice that any of those assumptions is incorrect prevents a person from making those assumptions.
- (6) In any proceedings in relation to dealings that a person has with the Corporation, an assertion by the Corporation or any other person (except the person who has those dealings) that an assumption made under this section is incorrect is to be disregarded.

11A Corporation not liable for duty

The Corporation is not liable to pay stamp duty under the Stamp Duties Act 1920 or duty under the Duties Act 1997.

12 Special provision as to finance obtained by the Government for which Corporation is liable

Finance which the Government has obtained and in relation to which the Corporation has agreed to assume liability is not to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

12A Seal of Corporation

- (1) The Corporation shall have a seal which may be affixed by the Chief Executive or by a person authorised by the Chief Executive to affix the seal either generally or in a particular case or class of cases.
- (2) The Chief Executive or person so authorised shall attest by his or her signature to the fact of the affixing of the seal.
- (3) Every document requiring authentication by the Corporation may be sufficiently authenticated without the seal of the Corporation if it is signed by the Chief Executive or by a person authorised to do so by the Chief Executive.

13 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) A provision of a regulation may:
 - (a) apply generally or be limited in its application by reference to specified exceptions or factors,
 - (b) apply differently according to different factors of a specified kind, or
 - (c) authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by a specified person,or may do any of those things.

13A Prudential standards or reporting and auditing requirements

- (1) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare that prudential standards, or reporting and auditing requirements, specified or described in the order are standards or requirements that apply to the Corporation in the exercise of functions of the Corporation described in the order.
- (2) Before making an order under this section, the Minister is to consult the Corporation on the proposed standards or requirements.
- (3) An order under this section takes effect on the day specified in the order.
- (4) The Corporation must comply with any prudential standard or reporting or auditing requirement applying to it by an order under this section.

14 Saving

Section 5 of the Treasury Corporation (Amendment) Act 1987 continues in force despite the repeal of that Act by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2003.

Schedule 1 The Chief Executive

(Section 4B (2))

1 (Repealed)

2 Acting Chief Executive

- (1) The Treasurer may from time to time appoint a person to act in the office of Chief Executive during the illness or absence of the Chief Executive, and the person, while so acting, has all the functions of the Chief Executive and shall be deemed to be the Chief Executive.
- (2) The Treasurer may, at any time, remove a person so appointed from office.
- (2A) The Secretary of the Treasury may, in the absence of any appointment of a person under subclause (1), appoint a member of staff of the Corporation to act in the office of the Chief Executive during the illness or absence of the Chief Executive, and the person, while so acting, has all the functions of the Chief Executive and shall be taken to be the Chief Executive.
- (2B) The Secretary of the Treasury may, at any time, remove a person appointed under subclause (2A) from office.
- (2C) An appointment under subclause (2A) ceases to have effect:
 - (a) on the appointment of a person under subclause (1), or
 - (b) on the expiration of 3 months after the appointment was made, or

(c) on the removal of the person from office as acting Chief Executive, whichever first occurs.

(3) For the purposes of this clause, a vacancy in the office of the Chief Executive shall be regarded as an absence from office of the Chief Executive.

3 Term of office

Subject to this Schedule, a person appointed as Chief Executive shall hold office for such a period (not exceeding 7 years) as may be specified in the person's instrument of appointment, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.

4 Chief Executive to be full-time officer

The Chief Executive shall devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of the office of Chief Executive, except to the extent permitted by this Act or by the Secretary of the Treasury.

5 Remuneration

The Chief Executive is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Board may, with the concurrence of the Treasurer, determine.

6 Vacancy in office

(1) The office of a person appointed as Chief Executive becomes vacant if the person:

- (a) dies,
- (b) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed,
- (c) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury,
- (d) is removed from office by the Treasurer under this clause,
- (e) (Repealed)
- (f) is absent from duty for 14 days (whether or not wholly or partly consecutive) in any period of 12 months, except on leave granted by the Secretary of the Treasury or unless the absence is occasioned by illness or other unavoidable cause,
- (g) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit,
- (h) becomes a mentally incapacitated person,

(i) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable, or

(j) engages in any paid employment outside the duties of the office of Chief Executive, except with the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury.

(2) The Treasurer may remove the Chief Executive from office for incapacity, incompetence or misbehaviour.

(3) (Repealed)

7 Filling of vacancy in office

If the office of the Chief Executive becomes vacant, a person shall, subject to this Act, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

8 Chief Executive a statutory officer and not Public Service employee

The office of Chief Executive is a statutory office and the provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to that office.

Schedule 2 (Repealed)

Schedule 3 Provisions relating to the members of the Board

(Section 4A (4))

1 Definition

In this Schedule:

appointed member means a person referred to in section 4A (2) (d).

2 (Repealed)

3 Acting appointed members

(1) The Treasurer may, from time to time, appoint a person to act in the office of an appointed member during the illness or absence of the member, and the person, while so acting, has all the functions of the member and shall be taken to be an appointed member.

(2) A person while acting in the office of an appointed member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Treasurer may from time to time determine in respect of the person.

4 Term of office of appointed members

Subject to this Schedule, an appointed member shall hold office for such period (not exceeding 5 years) as may be specified in the member's instrument of appointment, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.

5 Remuneration of appointed members

An appointed member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Treasurer may from time to time determine in respect of the member.

6 Vacancy in office of appointed member

(1) The office of an appointed member becomes vacant if the member:

- (a) dies, or
- (b) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed, or
- (c) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Treasurer, or
- (d) is removed from office by the Treasurer under this clause or by the Governor under Part 6 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013, or
- (e) (Repealed)
- (f) is absent from 4 consecutive meetings of the Board of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or in the ordinary course of post, except on leave granted by the Treasurer or unless, before the expiration of 4 weeks after the last of those meetings, the member is excused by the Treasurer for having been absent from those meetings, or
- (g) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or
- (h) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
- (i) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable.

(2) The Treasurer may remove an appointed member from office at any time.

(3) Without affecting the generality of subclause (2), the Treasurer may remove from office an appointed member who contravenes clause 8.

7 Filling of vacancy in office of appointed member

If the office of an appointed member becomes vacant, a person may, subject to this Act, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

8 Disclosure of pecuniary interests

(1) A member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest:

(a) in a matter being considered or about to be considered at a meeting of the Board, or

(b) in a thing being done or about to be done by the Board, shall, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the Board.

(2) A disclosure by a member at a meeting of the Board that the member:

(a) is a member, or is in the employment, of a specified company or other body, or

(b) is a partner, or is in the employment, of a specified person, or

(c) has some other specified interest relating to a specified company or other body or to a specified person, is a sufficient disclosure of the nature of the interest in any matter or thing relating to that company or other body or to that person which may arise after the date of the disclosure.

(3) The Board shall cause particulars of any disclosure made under this clause to be recorded in a book kept for the purpose and that book shall be open at all reasonable hours to inspection by any person on payment of such fee as may be determined by the Board from time to time.

(4) After a member has disclosed the nature of an interest in any matter or thing, the member shall not, unless the Treasurer otherwise determines:

(a) be present during any deliberation of the Board, or take part in any decision of the Board, with respect to that matter, or

(b) perform any function under this Act with respect to that thing.

(5) A contravention of this clause does not invalidate any decision of the Board or the performance of any function under this Act.

(6) A reference in this clause to a meeting of the Board includes a reference to a meeting of a committee of the Board.

9 Effect of certain other Acts

- (1) The provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to an appointed member.
- (2) If by or under any other Act provision is made:
 - (a) requiring a person who is the holder of a specified office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office, or
 - (b) prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office, the provision does not operate to disqualify the person from holding that office and also the office of an appointed member or from accepting and retaining any remuneration payable to the person under this Act as an appointed member.

- (3) The office of an appointed member is not, for the purposes of any Act, an office or place of profit under the Crown.

10 Liability of members etc

No matter or thing done by the Board, any member of the Board or any person acting under the direction of the Board shall, if the matter or thing was done in good faith for the purpose of executing this or any other Act, subject a member of the Board or a person so acting personally to any action, liability, claim or demand.

Schedule 4 Provisions relating to the procedure of the Board

(Section 4A (4))

1 General procedure

The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Board and for the conduct of business at those meetings or otherwise shall, subject to this Act and the regulations, be as determined by the Board.

2 Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of the Board is a majority of the members of the Board, of whom, subject to clause 8 of Schedule 3:

- (a) one must be the Chairperson or the Deputy Chairperson, and
- (b) one must be the Chief Executive.

3 Presiding member

- (1) The Chairperson or, in the absence of the Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson shall preside at a meeting of the Board.

- (2) The person presiding at a meeting of the Board has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, has a second or casting vote.

4 Voting

A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present is the decision of the Board.

5 Transaction of business outside meetings or by telephone etc

- (1) The Board may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business by the circulation of papers (including facsimile or other transmission) among all the members of the Board for the time being, and a resolution in writing approved in writing by a majority of those members shall be taken to be a decision of the Board.
- (2) The Board may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business at a meeting at which some or all members are not personally present, but at which the members are able to speak to each other by telephone or other means, and to hear any member when the member speaks, on a matter before the meeting.
- (3) For the purposes of:
 - (a) the approval of a resolution under subclause (1), or
 - (b) a meeting held in accordance with subclause (2),each member and the Chairperson has the same voting rights as he or she has at an ordinary meeting of the Board.
- (4) A resolution approved under subclause (1) shall, subject to the regulations, be recorded in the minutes of the Board.

6 Minutes

The Board must cause full and accurate minutes to be kept of the proceedings of each meeting of the Board.

Schedule 5 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Part 1 General

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act or any Act that amends this Act.
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.

- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:
- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on enactment of Treasury Corporation Amendment Act 2015

2 Definition

In this Part:

amending Act means the Treasury Corporation Amendment Act 2015.

3 Existing appointed members of the Board

A person who, immediately before the amendment of section 4A by the amending Act, was a member of the Board appointed under section 4A (2) (d) or (e) is taken to have been appointed under section 4A (2) (d) as inserted by the amending Act for the balance of the term for which the person was originally appointed.

4 Continuation of appointment of Chief Executive

The person holding office as Chief Executive immediately before the amendment of section 4B by the amending Act is taken on that amendment to have been appointed under that section as amended for the balance of the term for which the person was originally appointed.
