Part 2 Records

9 Definition

In this Part:

electronic record-keeping condition means a condition of a kind referred to in clause 11.

10 Records generally

- (1) Records that are required to be kept for the purposes of the Act must be kept:

 - (b) if they are other records—electronically or in a bound (not loose-leaf) book.

Note—

Clause 12 enables a licence, in some circumstances, to be issued or renewed without a condition of the kind referred to in clause 11.

- (2) Any such records must:
 - (a) be in the English language, and
 - (b) have consecutively numbered pages, and
 - (c) permanently record the date on which each record was first compiled and the date on which each entry was made, and

- (3) Despite subclause (1) and any electronic record-keeping condition imposed on a licence:
 - (a) any hard copy of a written statement as to the ownership of goods obtained from a customer under clause 19 (4) may be kept in loose-leaf form so long as the statement includes the contract number referred to in clause 13 (1) (c) and (2) (c) for each item taken in trade or pawn and is kept in order of contract number, and
 - (b) any hard copy of the record of an agreement by which goods were pawned under section 28 of the Act may be kept in loose-leaf form so long as the record includes the contract number referred to in clause 13 (1) (c) for each item taken in pawn and is kept in order of contract number.

11 Licence condition relating to electronic record-keeping

- (1) The Secretary, when granting or renewing a licence, is to impose a condition on the licence requiring the licensee to use electronic methods of creation and storage of records that the licensee is required to keep under section 16, 28 or 29A of the Act.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), the condition is to include a requirement that the licensee use software, or software of a kind, specified in the condition for the creation financial year within 14 days after the licensee receives or finalises that document.

- (6) If at any time after the issue or renewal of a licence that does not contain an electronic record-keeping condition the Secretary is satisfied that the gross receipts for the licensee's business relating to used goods totalled more than $150,000 in the previous financial year, the Secretary may impose an electronic record-keeping condition on the licence.

 - (c) The date that the redemption period ends.
 - (d) If the goods consist of more than one item, whether or not the items can be separately redeemed.
 - (e) The interest that you will be charged and the fees and charges that you will or may have to pay including any that may be deducted from the sale of your goods and how those fees and charges are calculated.
Note that the interest rate and the fees and charges must not be more than those that are displayed on a sign in the pawnbroking shop.
 - (f) The equivalent annual interest rate.
 - (g) How often interest will be charged, with an option to pay interest monthly if you want to.

 - (k) By what method your goods may be sold if you were not to redeem them, for example, sold on the shelf or by auction at the pawnbroking shop or sold by auction at other premises.

Redemption of goods

- (1) You may reclaim the goods that you have pawned by paying the outstanding amount of the loan, and any interest due and any fees and charges payable, as stated on your pawn ticket. You must also produce your pawn ticket to the pawnbroker and reproduce the signature on the ticket. If you have lost your ticket, you can provide evidence of your identity and a declaration that you are the owner of the goods instead. If you wish an agent to collect the goods on your behalf they will need an authorisation from you or evidence that you are unable to collect the goods yourself or provide an authorisation.

- (2) You may reclaim the goods at any time before the pawnbroker sells or disposes of them, even if the period of the loan has passed. The pawnbroker cannot charge interest after the end of the loan period but may charge you a safekeeping fee (this must be on your pawn ticket). This safekeeping fee cannot be more than that stated on the pawn ticket and the sign in the pawnbroking shop.

Period of loan and payments

- (1) The pawnbroker must provide you with a minimum 3-month loan period. The period of the loan commences on the day the goods are pawned.

- (c) reasonable evidence of the owner's death, incapacity or inability to sign an authority.

Sale of unredeemed goods and payment of surplus

The following provisions apply if the period of the loan expires and you have not reclaimed the pawned goods:

- (a) The pawnbroker must, if the loan is greater than $100, offer the goods for sale as soon as possible in a way that will get the best price possible.
- (b) The only fees and charges that may be taken off the price paid for the goods are those that are stated on your pawn agreement (these must also be shown on a sign in the pawnbroking shop).
- (c) If the goods are sold for more than the loan and any interest or charges payable, then that excess money (or surplus) is payable to you. It is your right to collect that money within 12 months of the sale.
- (d) If there is a surplus which is greater than $50, then not more than 21 days after the goods are sold the pawnbroker must send you a notice (unless you have requested the pawnbroker not to send you a notice) stating that the goods have been sold and there is a surplus due to you and that you have 12 months to collect it.
- (e) The pawnbroker, an employee of the pawnbroker or a person acting on behalf of a pawnbroker cannot buy the goods. If they do so they will not have legal ownership of the goods.

Part 2 Adjustment of fees for inflation

1 Definitions

In this Part:

CPI number means the Consumer Price Index (All Groups Index) for Sydney published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics in the latest published series of that index.

financial year means a period of 12 months commencing on 1 July.

2 Calculation of fee unit for purposes of Regulation

(1) For the purposes of this Regulation, a fee unit is:

- (a) in the financial year 2017-18—$100, and
- (b) in each subsequent financial year—the amount calculated as follows:

$$$100 \times \frac{A}{B}$$

where:

A is the CPI number for the March quarter in the financial year immediately preceding the financial year for which the amount is calculated.

B is the CPI number for the March quarter of 2017.

- (2) The amount of a fee unit is to be rounded to the nearest cent (and an amount of 0.5 cent is to be rounded down).
- (3) However, if the amount of a fee unit calculated for any financial year is less than the amount that applied for the previous financial year, then the amount for that previous financial year applies instead.

Editorial note—

Fee unit amount calculated under this clause:

Financial year	Fee unit amount
2018-19	$102.07
2019-20	$103.41

3 Rounding of fee amounts and contributions

The amount of a fee calculated by reference to a fee unit (including the amount of a component of a fee) is to be rounded to the nearest dollar (and an amount of 50 cents is to be rounded down).

4 Notice of indexed fees

- (1) As soon as practicable after the CPI number for the March quarter is first published by the Australian Statistician, the Secretary is required to:
 - (a) notify the Parliamentary Counsel of the amount of the fee unit for the next financial year so that notice of that amount can be published on the NSW legislation website, and
 - (b) give public notice on an appropriate government website of the actual amounts of the fees applying in each financial year resulting from the application of the amount of a fee unit calculated under this Part.
- (2) This Part operates to change an amount of a fee that is calculated by reference to a fee unit and that change is not dependent on the notification or other notice required by this clause.
