7 Principles of scheme

The principles that are to guide the operation of this Act, and persons exercising functions under this Act, are as follows—

- (a) The principle that the least restrictive form of sanction is to be applied against a child who is alleged to have committed an offence, having regard to matters required to be considered under this Act.
- (b) The principle that children who are alleged to have committed an offence are entitled to be informed about their right to obtain legal advice and to have an opportunity to obtain that advice.
- (c) The principle that criminal proceedings are not to be instituted against a child if there is an alternative and appropriate means of dealing with the matter.
- (d) The principle that criminal proceedings are not to be instituted against a child solely in order to provide any assistance or services needed to advance the welfare of the child or his or her family or family group.

 - (c) a conference may be held, but only if it is a youth justice conference held in accordance with Part 5.
- (2) An investigating official dealing with a child who has committed, or is alleged to have committed, an offence must, before issuing a summons or attendance notice or otherwise commencing criminal proceedings against the child, determine—
 - (a) whether the offence is one covered by this Act, and
 - (b) in the case of such an offence, whether the child should be dealt with under Part 3 or 4 or the matter should be referred to a specialist youth officer under Part 5 to determine whether a youth justice conference should be held.
- (2A) In the case of an offence prescribed by the regulations, an investigating official must also determine the matters referred to in subsection (2) (a) and (b) before issuing a penalty notice for the offence.
- (2B) In determining whether a child should be dealt with under Part 3 or 4 or referred to a specialist youth officer under Part 5, an investigating official is (if the official considers it practicable) to make that determination within the period of 14 days after the official becomes aware of the offence or alleged offence.

youth officer under Part 5, if the investigating official forms the opinion that the child is entitled to be dealt with under Part 4 or Part 5.

10 Admission of offences

An admission by a child of an offence is not an admission for the purposes of this Act unless it takes place in the presence of—

- (a) a person responsible for the child, or
- (b) an adult (other than an investigating official) who is present with the consent of a person responsible for the child, or
- (c) if the child is 14 years or over, an adult chosen by the child, or
- (d) an Australian legal practitioner chosen by the child.

11 Relationship with other legislation

- (1) This Act does not affect any jurisdiction conferred on the Children's Court under the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Act 1987 or on any other court under any other law.
- (2) This Act is in addition to, and does not limit, the requirements of any law relating to evidence.

12 Relationship with other procedures

This Act does not affect the functions of any person dealing with an offence or alleged offence, to give a warning for, or take any other action in relation to, an offence or alleged offence if—

- (a) the person is not an investigating official, or
- (b) the offence is not an offence covered by this Act, whether or not the person is an investigating official.

Part 3 Warnings

13 Offences for which warnings may be given

A warning may be given for a summary offence covered by this Act, other than a graffiti offence or any other offence prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

Note—

Section 8 sets out offences covered by this Act.

14 Entitlement to be dealt with by warning

- (1) A child who has committed or is alleged to have committed an offence in respect of which a warning may be given is entitled to be dealt with by warning.

- (2) Despite subsection (1), the child is not entitled to be dealt with by warning if—
 - (a) the circumstances of the offence involve violence, or
 - (b) in the opinion of the investigating official, it is more appropriate to deal with it by another means because it is not in the interests of justice for the matter to be dealt with by warning.
- (3) A child is not precluded from being given a warning merely because the child has previously committed offences or been dealt with under this Act.
- (4) If an investigating official is of the opinion that it is not in the interests of justice to deal with a matter by warning a child and that it is appropriate to deal with it by other means, the investigating official must consider whether to deal with the matter under Part 4 or to refer it to a specialist youth officer under section 21 (2) for consideration of whether action should be taken under Part 5.

15 Giving of warnings

- (1) A warning is to be given by the investigating official and may be given at any place, including a place where the child is found.
- (2) An investigating official who gives a warning to a child must not—
 - (a) attach any conditions to the giving of a warning, or
 - (b) impose any additional sanctions on a child to whom a warning is given.
- (3) A warning may be given to more than one child at the same time.

16 Explanation of warnings

An investigating official who gives a warning to a child must take steps to ensure that the child understands the purpose, nature and effect of the warning.

16A Parents of child may be notified of warning

- (1) An investigating official who gives a warning to a child, or a youth liaison officer, may notify the parents of the child (whether in writing, verbally or in person) that a warning has been given to the child in respect of an offence committed by the child.
- (2) However, an investigating official or youth liaison officer may not notify a parent of a child under subsection (1) if the official or officer is of the opinion that the disclosure of the giving of the warning would pose an unacceptable risk to the safety, welfare or well-being of the child.

17 Records of warnings

- (1) An investigating official must make a record of any warnings given by the official under this Part.

- (2) The record is to contain the matters prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.
- (3) Despite anything to the contrary in the State Records Act 1998 or any other law, the Commissioner of Police is to ensure that any record made under this section of a warning is destroyed or expunged (as the case requires) as soon as is reasonably practicable after the person to whom the record relates reaches the age of 21 years.

Note—

The Commissioner of Police may delegate this function. See section 31 of the Police Act 1990.

- (4) This section does not require that a record made under this section be destroyed or expunged if the record is held by one of the following—
 - (a) the Australian Bureau of Statistics,
 - (b) the Australian Institute of Criminology,
 - (c) the Bureau of Crime Statistics and Research,
 - (d) the Ombudsman.

Part 4 Cautions

Division 1 Cautions by persons other than courts

18 Offences for which cautions may be given

A caution may be given for an offence covered by this Act, other than a graffiti offence or any other offence prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

Note—

Section 8 sets out offences covered by this Act. Under section 31, a court may give a caution for a graffiti offence.

19 Conditions required to be able to give caution

A formal police caution against further offending may be arranged and given in relation to an offence to a child who is alleged to have committed the offence, if—

- (a) the offence is one for which a caution may be given, and
- (b) the child admits the offence, and
- (c) the child consents to the giving of the caution, and
- (d) the child is entitled to be given a caution.

20 Entitlement to be dealt with by caution

- (1) A child who is alleged to have committed an offence for which a caution may be given is entitled to be dealt with by caution if the investigating official determines that the matter is not appropriate for a warning or the offence is one for which a warning may not be given.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the child is not entitled to be dealt with by caution if, in the opinion of the investigating official, it is more appropriate to deal with it by other means because it is not in the interests of justice for the matter to be dealt with by giving a caution.
- (3) In considering whether it is appropriate to deal with a matter by caution, an investigating official is to consider the following—
 - (a) the seriousness of the offence,
 - (b) the degree of violence involved in the offence,
 - (c) the harm caused to any victim,
 - (d) the number and nature of any offences committed by the child and the number of times the child has been dealt with under this Act,
 - (e) any other matter the official thinks appropriate in the circumstances.
- (4) Despite subsection (1), an investigating official may, if of the opinion that the victim has suffered substantial harm or that the circumstances of the victim are such that it is appropriate to do so, refer the matter to a specialist youth officer to determine whether the matter should be dealt with under this Part or Part 5 even though the offence does not involve any degree of violence or is not of a serious nature.
- (5) A specialist youth officer to whom a matter is referred under subsection (4) may arrange for a caution to be given under this Part or take action under Part 5 and, in determining whether to do so, may take into account the fact that the victim has suffered substantial harm or the circumstances of the victim.
- (6) A child is not precluded from being given a caution merely because the child has previously committed offences or been dealt with under this Act.
- (7) Despite any other provision of this section, a child is not entitled to be dealt with by caution in relation to an offence if the child has been dealt with by caution on 3 or more occasions—
 - (a) whether by or at the request of a police officer or specialist youth officer under section 29 or by a court under section 31, and
 - (b) whether for offences of the same or of a different kind.

21 Determination by investigating official

- (1) If an investigating official determines that a child should be dealt with under this Part, the investigating official must arrange for a caution to be given.
- (2) If an investigating official is of the opinion that it is not in the interests of justice for a matter to be dealt with by way of a caution, the investigating official must refer the matter to a specialist youth officer to consider whether the child should be dealt with under Part 5.

22 Explanations to children

- (1) Before an investigating official proceeds to arrange for a caution to be given under this Part, the investigating official must explain the following matters to the child concerned—
 - (a) the nature of the offence and the circumstances out of which it is alleged to arise,
 - (b) that the child is entitled to obtain legal advice and where that advice may be obtained,
 - (c) that the child is entitled to elect that the matter be dealt with by a court,
 - (d) the purpose, nature and effect of the caution.
- (2) An investigating official must, if practicable, ensure that an explanation takes place in the presence of—
 - (a) a person responsible for the child, or
 - (b) an adult (other than an investigating official) who is present with the consent of a person responsible for the child, or
 - (c) if the child is 14 years or over, an adult chosen by the child, or
 - (d) an Australian legal practitioner chosen by the child.

23 Referrals for cautions

- (1) A child may be referred for a caution under this Part by the Director of Public Prosecutions if—
 - (a) the offence is one for which a caution may be given under this Part, and
 - (b) the child admits the offence, and
 - (c) the child consents to the giving of the caution.
- (2) In determining whether to refer a matter for a caution, the Director of Public Prosecutions is to take into account the following matters—

- (a) the seriousness of the offence,
 - (b) the degree of violence involved in the offence,
 - (c) the harm caused to any victim,
 - (d) the number and nature of any offences committed by the child and the number of times the child has been dealt with under this Act,
 - (e) any other matter the Director thinks appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) The referral is to be made to a person authorised in writing by the Commissioner of Police for the purposes of this section.
- (4) The authorised person must arrange for a caution to be given to the child under this Part.
- (5) Despite any other provision of this section, the Director of Public Prosecutions may not refer a child for a caution in relation to an offence if the child has been dealt with by caution on 3 or more occasions—
- (a) whether by or at the request of a police officer or specialist youth officer under section 29 or by a court under section 31, and
 - (b) whether for offences of the same or of a different kind.

24 Notice of caution

- (1) Before a caution is given to a child, the person arranging for the caution to be given must give a written notice to the child.
- (2) The notice must contain the following information—
- (a) the offence in respect of which the caution is to be given,
 - (b) the persons who may be present when the caution is given,
 - (c) the purpose, nature and effect of the caution,
 - (d) the date, time and place at which the caution is to be given,
 - (e) the name of a police officer who is a contact officer concerning the caution,
 - (f) the consequences of failure to attend the giving of the caution,
 - (g) the right of the child to obtain legal advice and where that advice may be obtained,
 - (h) the right of the child to elect that the matter be dealt with by a court if the child does not wish to proceed with the caution.

- (3) The notice must be given in a form approved by the Commissioner of Police and be expressed in language readily capable of being understood by children.

24A Written statements from victims

- (1) Before a caution is given to a child, the person arranging for the caution to be given may—
 - (a) seek a written statement from any victim of the offence concerned that describes the harm occasioned to the victim by the offence, and
 - (b) give guidance to any such victim as to the kind of matters that are appropriate for inclusion in the statement, and
 - (c) provide any such statement received by the person to the person giving the caution to the child.
- (2) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the content and form of written statements under subsection (1).

25 Right not to proceed

- (1) A child may, at any time before a caution is given to the child, decide not to proceed with the caution and elect that the matter be dealt with by a court.
- (2) An investigating official who arranges for a caution to be given may, at any time before the caution is given, determine that it is not in the interests of justice for the matter to be dealt with by way of a caution and refer the matter to a specialist youth officer for consideration of whether action should be taken under Part 5.
- (3) The Director of Public Prosecutions may, at any time before a caution is given in respect of an offence referred by the Director under this Part, determine that it is not in the interests of justice for the matter to be dealt with by way of a caution and refer the matter to a conference administrator under Part 5 or commence proceedings.
- (4) An investigating official or the Director of Public Prosecutions must give written notice to the child concerned of any determination by the official or Director under this section.

26 Place and time of cautions

- (1) A caution must, if practicable, be given not less than 10 days, and not more than 21 days, after notice of the caution is given under this Part.
- (2) A caution is to be given at a police station.

presence of an interpreter or other appropriately skilled person and, if necessary, to obtain the assistance of such a person in giving the caution.

- (2A) A person proposing to give a caution to a child may defer giving the caution—
- (a) if a person responsible for the child or the adult chosen by the child is not present—until a person responsible for the child or an adult chosen by the child is present, or

(2) The caution notice must be expressed in language readily capable of being understood by children.

Division 2 Cautions by courts

31 Cautions by courts

(1) A child may be given a caution by a court if—

(a) the offence is one for which a caution may be given under Division 1 or is a graffiti offence, and

(b) the child admits the offence.

(1A) If a court gives a caution under this section, the court must dismiss the proceedings for the offence in respect of which the caution is given.

(1B) A court giving a caution may—

(a) allow any victim of the offence concerned to prepare a written statement that describes the harm occasioned to the victim by the offence, and

(b) if it considers it appropriate to do so, may permit all or part of the statement to be read to the child when giving the caution.

(1C) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the content and form of written statements under subsection (1B).

(b) whether for offences of the same or of a different kind.

Division 3 Cautions generally

32 Further proceedings

If a caution is given to a child under this Part, no further proceedings may be taken against the child for the offence in respect of which the caution is given or for any other offence in respect of which proceedings could not be commenced if the child had been convicted of the offence for which the caution was given.

33 Records of cautions

- (1) A police officer, specialist youth officer or a court must make a record of any cautions given by the officer or court under this Part.

- (2) This section applies despite anything to the contrary in the State Records Act 1998 or any other law.

Part 5 Youth justice conferences

Division 1 Preliminary

34 Principles and purposes of conferencing

- (1) The principles that are to guide the operation of this Part and persons exercising functions under this Part, are as follows—
 - (a) The principle that measures for dealing with children who are alleged to have committed offences are to be designed so as—
 - (i) to promote acceptance by the child concerned of responsibility for his or her own behaviour, and
 - (ii) to strengthen the family or family group of the child concerned, and
 - (iii) to provide the child concerned with developmental and support services that will enable the child to overcome the offending behaviour and become a fully

- autonomous individual, and
- (iv) to enhance the rights and place of victims in the juvenile justice process, and
 - (v) to be culturally appropriate, wherever possible, and
 - (vi) to have due regard to the interests of any victim.
- (b) The principle that sanctions imposed on children who commit offences are—
- (i) to be of a kind most likely to promote the development of such children within their family or family group, and
 - (ii) to take the least restrictive form that is appropriate in the circumstances, and
 - (iii) to assist children to accept responsibility for offences.
- (c) The principle that any measures for dealing with, or sanctions imposed on, children who are alleged to have committed offences take into account—
- (i) the age and level of development of any such children, and
 - (ii) the needs of any children who are disadvantaged or who are disconnected from their families, and
 - (iii) the needs of any children with disabilities, especially those with communication and cognitive difficulties, and
 - (iv) the gender, race and sexuality of any such children.
- (2) The purpose of a conference is to make decisions and recommendations about, and to determine an outcome plan in respect of, the child who is the subject of the conference.
- (3) In reaching decisions at a conference, the participants are to have regard to the principles set out in this section and the following matters—
- (a) the need to deal with children in a way that reflects their rights, needs and abilities and provides opportunities for development,
 - (b) the need to hold children accountable for offending behaviour,
 - (c) the need to encourage children to accept responsibility for offending behaviour,
 - (d) the need to empower families and victims in making decisions about a child's offending behaviour,
 - (e) the need to make reparation to any victim.

35 Offences for which conferences may be held

A conference may be held for an offence covered by this Act, other than an offence prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

Note—

Section 8 sets out offences covered by this Act.

36 Conditions required to be met before conference may be held

A conference may be arranged and held in respect of a child who is alleged to have committed an offence, if—

- (a) the offence is one for which a conference may be held, and
- (b) the child admits the offence, and
- (c) the child consents to the holding of the conference, and
- (d) the child is entitled to be dealt with by holding a conference.

37 Entitlement to be dealt with by conference

- (1) A child who is alleged to have committed an offence (other than a graffiti offence) for which a conference may be held is entitled to be dealt with by holding a conference if the investigating official determines that the matter is not appropriate for a caution.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the child is not entitled to be dealt with by holding a conference if, in the opinion of the specialist youth officer to whom the matter is referred, it is more appropriate to deal with it by commencing proceedings against the child or by giving a caution because it is not in the interests of justice for the matter to be dealt with by holding a conference.

Note—

A matter is referred to a specialist youth officer by an investigating official if the investigating official is of the opinion that it is not in the interests of justice that a warning or caution be given (see sections 14 (4) and 21).

- (3) In considering whether it is appropriate to deal with a matter by conference, a specialist youth officer is to consider the following—
 - (a) the seriousness of the offence,
 - (b) the degree of violence involved in the offence,
 - (c) the harm caused to any victim,
 - (d) the number and nature of any offences committed by the child and the number of times the child has been dealt with under this Act,
 - (e) any other matter the official thinks appropriate in the circumstances.

- (4) A specialist youth officer must, not later than 14 days after receiving a referral under section 14 (4) or 21 (2), determine whether or not the child concerned is entitled to have the matter dealt with by holding a conference.
- (5) A child is not precluded from being dealt with by a conference merely because the child has previously committed offences or been dealt with under this Act in relation to other matters.
- (6) Despite any other provision of this section, it is not appropriate for a child to be dealt with by caution in relation to an offence if the child has been dealt with by caution on 3 or more occasions—
 - (a) whether by or at the request of a police officer or specialist youth officer under section 29 or by a court under section 31, and
 - (b) whether for offences of the same or of a different kind.

38 Determinations by specialist youth officers

- (1) If a specialist youth officer determines that a conference should be held in respect of an alleged offence (other than a graffiti offence) committed by a child, the specialist youth officer must refer the matter to a conference administrator for a conference.
- (2) If a specialist youth officer is of the opinion that a matter can and should be dealt with by giving a caution and need not be dealt with by holding a conference, the specialist youth officer must refer the matter to a person authorised for the purposes of section 27 for a caution to be given under Part 4.

Note—

Graffiti offences cannot be dealt with by caution except by a court—see section 18.

- (3) If a specialist youth officer is of the opinion that a matter should be dealt with by commencing proceedings against the child, the specialist youth officer must refer the matter to an investigating official or other appropriate authority for the commencement of proceedings.
- (4) Unless it is impracticable to do so, a specialist youth officer must consult with the investigating official before making any decision as to whom the matter is to be referred.
- (5) Despite any other provision of this section, a specialist youth officer may not refer a child for a caution in relation to an offence if the child has been dealt with by way of caution on 3 or more occasions—
 - (a) whether by or at the request of a police officer or specialist youth officer under section 29 or by a court under section 31, and
 - (b) whether for offences of the same or of a different kind.

39 Explanations to children

- (1) Before a specialist youth officer proceeds to refer a matter for a conference under this Part, the specialist youth officer must explain the following matters to the child concerned—
 - (a) the nature of the offence and the circumstances out of which it is alleged to have arisen,
 - (b) that the child is entitled to obtain legal advice and where that advice may be obtained,
 - (c) that the child is entitled to elect that the matter be dealt with by a court,
 - (d) what a conference is and the effect of the conference.
- (2) A specialist youth officer must, if practicable, ensure that an explanation takes place in the presence of—
 - (a) a person responsible for the child, or
 - (b) an adult (other than an investigating official) who is present with the consent of a person responsible for the child, or
 - (c) if the child is 14 years or over, an adult chosen by the child, or
 - (d) an Australian legal practitioner chosen by the child.

40 Referrals for conferences by DPP and courts

- (1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may refer a matter involving a child who is alleged to have committed an offence to a conference administrator for a conference if—

 - (c) the child consents to the holding of the conference, and
 - (d) the Director is of the opinion that a conference should be held under this Part.

- (2) An offence may be referred under this section even though the offence was not dealt with by an investigating official.
- (3) A court may refer a matter at any stage in proceedings, including after a finding that a child is guilty of an offence.
- (4) The Director of Public Prosecutions or a court must notify the Commissioner of Police in writing of the particulars of any referral after making a referral under this section.
- (5) In determining whether to refer a matter for the holding of a conference, the Director of Public Prosecutions or a court is to take into account the following matters—
 - (a) the seriousness of the offence,
 - (b) the degree of violence involved in the offence,
 - (c) the harm caused to any victim,
 - (d) the number and nature of any offences committed by the child and the number of times the child has been dealt with under this Act,
 - (e) any other matter the Director or court thinks appropriate in the circumstances.
- (6) Unless it is impracticable to do so, the Director of Public Prosecutions must consult with the investigating official (if any) before making any decision as to whom the matter is to be referred.

41 Conference administrator may refer matters to DPP

- (1) Unless it is impracticable to do so, a conference administrator must, on referral of a matter by a specialist youth officer for a conference under this Part, consult with both the specialist youth officer and the investigating official as to whether the matter should be dealt with by holding a conference if of the opinion that the matter should not be so dealt with, having regard to the following matters—
 - (a) the seriousness of the offence,
 - (b) the degree of violence involved in the offence,
 - (c) the harm caused to any victim,
 - (d) the number and nature of any offences committed by the child and the number of times the child has been dealt with under this Act.

- (3) On referral of a matter, the Director of Public Prosecutions must, having regard to the matters set out in section 40 (5), determine whether the matter should be dealt with by giving a caution, by holding a conference or by commencing proceedings.

- (4) The Director of Public Prosecutions must, not later than 14 days after receiving a referral under this section, determine whether or not the child concerned is entitled to have the matter dealt with by holding a conference.
- (5) The Director of Public Prosecutions must notify the conference administrator of the Director's determination.
- (6) If the conference administrator, specialist youth officer and investigating official agree, or the Director of Public Prosecutions determines, that a matter should be dealt with by giving a caution, the conference administrator must refer the matter to a person authorised for the purposes of section 27 for a caution to be given under Part 4.
- (7) If the conference administrator, specialist youth officer and investigating official agree, or the Director of Public Prosecutions determines, that a matter should be dealt with by holding a conference, the conference administrator must appoint a conference convenor for the conference.
- (8) If the conference administrator, specialist youth officer and investigating official agree, or the Director of Public Prosecutions determines, that proceedings should be commenced, the conference administrator must refer the matter back to the specialist youth officer or other appropriate authority for the commencement of proceedings.
- (9) Despite any other provision of this section, a child may not be referred for a caution in relation to an offence if the child has been dealt with by caution on 3 or more occasions—
 - (a) whether by or at the request of a police officer or specialist youth officer under section 29 or by a court under section 31, and
 - (b) whether for offences of the same or of a different kind.

43 Time limit for holding conferences

- (2) A specialist youth officer who refers a matter for a conference may, at any time before the conference is held, determine—
 - (a) that it is not in the interests of justice for a matter to be dealt with by a conference and refer the matter to the investigating official or other appropriate authority for the commencement of proceedings, or

52 Outcomes of conferences

- (1) The participants at a conference may agree to make such recommendations or decisions as they think fit. Any such decision that requires the compliance of the child is to be contained in the outcome plan agreed by the conference.
- (2) Before determining an outcome plan, the participants in the conference must give particular consideration to the desirability of the child's participation in an appropriate program, as referred to in subsection (5) (c).
- (3) An outcome plan is, if possible, to be determined by consensus of the participants in the conference and, subject to subsection (4), may be agreed to by the conference even though it is not agreed to by all the participants.
- (4) The child, and any victim of the offence who personally attends the conference, each have a right of veto with respect to the whole of an outcome plan, or with respect to any decision proposed to be contained in an outcome plan, regardless of the views of any other participant in the conference.

- (2) On receiving notice under subsection (1), the conference administrator must refer the matter back to the person or body that referred the matter for a conference.

54 Matters referred by courts

- (1) A conference convenor must refer any outcome plan agreed to at a conference to a court, if the court referred the matter for a conference.

- (3) A court that does not approve an outcome plan must notify the relevant conference administrator.

55 Reconvening of conferences

- (1) A conference may be reconvened by the relevant conference administrator, on the conference administrator's initiative or at the request of more than one participant in the conference, for the purpose of reconsidering any aspect of the outcome plan or any recommendation agreed at a conference.
- (1A) A conference administrator may appoint the same or a different conference convenor for a reconvened conference.
- (2) In deciding whether to reconvene a conference, the conference administrator must consult with any victim.
