19.5 not to hinder a tradesperson's entry to the residential premises when the tradesperson is carrying out maintenance or repairs necessary to avoid health or safety risks to any person, or to avoid a risk that the supply of gas, electricity, water, telecommunications or other services to the residential premises may be disconnected, and

19.6 to comply with all statutory obligations relating to the health or safety of the residential premises, and

19.7 that a tenant who is the victim of a domestic violence offence or a co-tenant who is under the same agreement as the victim of the domestic violence offence but is not a relevant domestic violence offender is not responsible to the landlord for any act or omission by a co-tenant that is a breach of this agreement if the act or omission constitutes or resulted in damage to the premises and occurred during the commission of a domestic violence offence.

Schedule 2 Condition report

(Clause 7)

Condition report

HOW TO COMPLETE

- (1) Three copies, or one electronic copy, of this condition report should be completed and signed by the landlord or the landlord's agent.
- (2) Two copies, or one electronic copy, of the report, which have been completed and signed by the landlord or the landlord's agent, must be given to the tenant before or when the tenant signs the agreement. The landlord or landlord's agent keeps the third copy or an electronic copy.
- (3) Before the tenancy begins, the landlord or the landlord's agent must inspect the residential premises and record the condition of the premises by indicating whether the particular room item is clean, undamaged and working by placing "Y" (YES) or "N" (NO) in the appropriate column (see example below). Where necessary, comments should be included in the report. The landlord or the landlord's agent must also indicate "yes" or "no" in relation to the matters set out under the headings "Minimum standards", "Health issues", "Smoke alarms", "Other safety issues", "Communications facilities" and "Water usage charging and efficiency devices".
- (4) As soon as possible after the tenant signs the agreement, the tenant must inspect the residential premises and complete the tenant section of the condition report. The tenant indicates agreement or disagreement with the condition indicated by the landlord or landlord's agent by placing "Y"

(YES) or “N” (NO) in the appropriate column and by making any appropriate comments on the form. The tenant may also comment on the matters under the headings “Minimum standards”, “Health issues”, “Smoke alarms”, “Other safety issues”, “Communications facilities” and “Water usage charging and efficiency devices”.

- (5) The tenant must return one copy of the completed condition report, or a completed electronic copy, to the landlord or landlord’s agent within 7 days after taking possession of the residential premises and is to keep the other copy or a completed electronic copy. The tenant is not required to do this if the landlord or landlord’s agent has failed to give the tenant either two copies, or one electronic copy, of the completed condition report (see 2 above).
- (6) If photographs or video recordings are taken at the time the inspection is carried out, it is recommended that all photographs or video recordings are verified and dated by all parties. Any photographs should be attached to this condition report, in hard copy or electronically, under the heading “Photographs/video recordings of the premises”. Any video recordings should be attached to this condition report electronically.
NOTE: Photographs and/or video recordings are not a substitute for accurate written descriptions of the condition of the premises.
- (7) At, or as soon as practicable after, the termination of the tenancy agreement, both the landlord or the landlord’s agent and the tenant should complete the copy of the condition report that the landlord, landlord’s agent or the tenant has retained, indicating the condition of the premises at the end of the tenancy. This should be done in the presence of the other party, unless the other party has been given a reasonable opportunity to be present and has not attended the inspection.
- (8) If the residential premises are separately metered for water and if the tenant is required to pay for water usage charges under the residential tenancy agreement, the landlord or landlord’s agent must also indicate whether the residential premises has the required water efficiency measures.

IMPORTANT NOTES ABOUT THIS REPORT

- (a) It is a requirement that a condition report be completed by the landlord or the landlord’s agent and the tenant (see above). This condition report is an important record of the condition of the residential premises when the tenancy begins and may be used as evidence of the state of repair or general condition of the premises at the commencement of the tenancy. It is important to complete the condition report accurately. It may be vital if there is a dispute, particularly about the return of the rental bond money and any damage to the premises.
- (b) At the end of the tenancy, the premises will be inspected and the condition of the premises at that time will be compared to that stated in the original condition report.
- (c) A tenant is not responsible for fair wear and tear to the premises. Fair wear and tear is a general term for anything that occurs through ordinary use, such as the carpet becoming worn in frequently used areas. Intentional damage, or damage caused by negligence, is not fair wear and tear.
- (d) A condition report must be filled out whether or not a rental bond is paid.
- (e) If you do not have enough space on the report you can attach additional pages. All attachments should be signed and dated by all parties to the residential tenancy agreement.

(f) Call NSW Fair Trading on 13 32 20 or visit www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au for more information about the rights and responsibilities of landlords and tenants or before completing the condition report.

Schedule 3 Declaration by competent person

(Clause 23)

TERMINATING A TENANCY IN CIRCUMSTANCES OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
Purpose of this declaration

Under the Residential Tenancies Act 2010, a tenant can terminate their residential tenancy agreement without being penalised if the tenant or the tenant's dependent child is in circumstances of domestic violence.

To terminate the agreement, the tenant must give the landlord a domestic violence termination notice together with one of the four documents listed under the Act for this purpose. One of those documents is a signed declaration from a medical practitioner that the tenant, or the tenant's dependent child, is a victim of domestic violence perpetrated by the "relevant domestic violence offender" during the currency of the residential tenancy agreement. This completed declaration may be used instead of a Domestic Violence Order, a Family Law Injunction or a Certificate of Conviction (these documents are the other 3 documents listed under the Act).

A "relevant domestic violence offender" must be the tenant's co-tenant or former co-tenant, or an occupant or former occupant of the tenant's residence or a person with whom the tenant has or has had a domestic relationship. For this reason, and to ensure that the rights and obligations of a co-tenant (if any) are not impacted, the tenant has to identify the relevant domestic violence offender and the name of that person has to be recorded in this declaration.

Note—

The use of the term "relevant domestic violence offender" is only to establish if the tenant is in circumstances of domestic violence under the Act. It does not mean that the person the tenant identifies as the perpetrator of the domestic violence has been convicted of a domestic violence offence.

Who can make this declaration

You can only make this declaration if—

- you are a medical practitioner registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW) in the medical profession, and
- you have consulted with the tenant, and
- if applicable, you have also consulted with any dependent child of the tenant who is the victim of the domestic violence.

How to complete this declaration

You must complete all parts of this form.

You are authorised to collect, use or disclose personal information about a relevant domestic violence offender that you require to for the purposes of making this declaration.

1. Before you complete this form, you will need to assess if, in your professional opinion, the tenant, or the tenant's dependent child, is a victim of domestic violence that occurred during the tenant's current tenancy.
2. You are not required to prove that an incident of domestic violence has taken place. Your assessment should be based on your professional observations and the information you obtain during your consultation.
3. Once you have assessed the tenant and their circumstances (and if applicable, the tenant's dependent child), you should complete this form by—
 - (a) entering the details of the tenant and, if applicable, the details of the tenant's dependent child, and
 - (b) entering the name of the relevant domestic violence offender, based on the information the tenant provides you, and
 - (c) selecting the type of relationship between the tenant and the relevant domestic violence offender, based on information the tenant provides you.
4. Give the completed declaration to the tenant and keep a copy for your records.
5. For further information on how to complete this form go to www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au.

WARNING: Knowingly providing false or misleading information in connection with this declaration may be an offence under section 105H of the Residential Tenancies Act 2010, for which a maximum penalty of 2 years imprisonment or 100 penalty units, or both, applies. This offence can apply to the tenant, the medical practitioner, or both.

Note for medical practitioners: It is NOT an offence to make a declaration based on information that you believed to be true at the time of making the declaration. You are NOT required to prove that an incident of domestic violence has taken place.

PART 1: Details of tenant seeking to terminate the tenancy

Family name—

Given names—

Address of the rented residential premises—

Phone number or the name and contact details of a nominated person (OPTIONAL)—

Note—

A separate form needs to be completed, and declaration made, for each tenant seeking to be declared a victim of domestic violence.

PART 2: Details of person seeking to be declared a victim of domestic violence

1. Who is the person seeking to be declared a victim of domestic violence?

the tenant

OR

a dependent child of the tenant

Note—

If the tenant is a victim of domestic violence, it is not necessary to also declare that a dependent child is a victim of domestic violence.

A dependent child cannot be declared a victim of domestic violence if the tenant answers “no” to either of the following questions—

2. Is the dependent child wholly or partly dependent on the tenant for support?

Yes No

3. Does the dependent child occupy (whether permanently or from time to time) the residential premises specified in Part 1?

Yes No

Note—

The dependent child does not have to be the tenant’s child.

Details of dependent child (if applicable)

Family name—

Given names—

Date of birth—

PART 3: Details of relevant domestic violence offender and relationship with tenant

1. Who is the person the tenant has identified as the perpetrator of the domestic violence?

Full name—

2. Is the person named above (in question 1 in this Part) a co-tenant/former co-tenant or an occupant/former occupant of the residential premises specified in Part 1?

Yes No

If the answer to question 2 is “no”, the following question MUST be completed.

3. What is the relationship the tenant has or had with the person named above (“the relevant domestic violence offender”)? [Select the description of the most recent relationship and cross out “are” or “were” as applicable]

The tenant and the relevant domestic violence offender are/were—

- married to each other
- in a de facto relationship with each other
- in an intimate personal relationship with each other, whether or not the relationship is/was sexual
- living in the same household
- living as long-term residents in the same residential facility at the same time as each other (excluding facilities that are correctional centres or detention centres)
- in a relationship involving the tenant’s dependence on the ongoing paid or unpaid care of the tenant by the relevant domestic violence offender
- relatives
- in the case of Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders—in an extended family or kinship relationship according to the Indigenous kinship system of the culture of either the tenant or the relevant domestic violence offender
- married to the same person at different times (even if they have not met)
- in a de facto relationship with the same person at different times (even if they have not met)
- in an intimate personal relationship with the same person (even if they have not met)

If—

- the answer to question 2 in this Part is “no”, and
- the tenant and the person named above are NOT in any of the relationships listed above (in question 3 in this Part),

then the person the tenant has identified in Part 3 as the perpetrator of the domestic violence is NOT the relevant domestic violence offender for the purposes of this declaration. This means that Part 4 cannot be completed.

PART 4: Declaration by medical practitioner

I declare that:

I personally consulted with the tenant and the dependent child [cross out the words “and the dependent child” if not applicable] in my professional capacity as a medical practitioner on (date of consultation).

On the basis of information obtained from the tenant and the dependent child [cross out the words "and the dependent child if not applicable"], and observations made in the course of that consultation, I have formed the view that—

[Complete EITHER Part A OR Part B and cross out the Part that is not applicable]

Part A

- (name of tenant)
- is a victim of domestic violence perpetrated by the person named by the tenant in question 1 of Part 3, being the relevant domestic violence offender on/during the period [cross out the words that are not applicable] (approximate date on which, or period during which, the domestic violence was perpetrated).

OR

Part B

- (name of dependent child)
- is a victim of domestic violence perpetrated by the person named by the tenant in question 1 of Part 3, being the relevant domestic violence offender on/during the period [cross out the words that are not applicable] (approximate date on which, or period during which, the domestic violence was perpetrated).
