3A Definition of “pawnbroker”

- (1) In this Act, pawnbroker means a person who carries on a business of lending money on the security of pawned goods.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, goods are pawned if the goods are taken into the possession of a lender of money for the purpose of the lender relying on possession of the goods as security for the repayment of the loan.
- (3) In determining for the purposes of this Act whether goods are pawned and whether money is lent on the security of pawned goods, the following principles are to apply—
 - (a) regard is to be had to the substance of the loan transaction rather than its form or other legal technicalities,
 - (b) particular regard is to be had to the ordinary understanding of the borrower as to the nature of the loan transaction and the reason or basis on which possession of goods is given to the lender,
 - (c) it does not matter that the terms of the loan transaction provide that the lender has taken possession of the goods at the request of or on behalf of the borrower or otherwise so as to give the appearance that the lender does not rely on possession of the goods as security for the repayment of the loan,
 - (d) goods can be considered pawned and money can be considered lent on the security of pawned goods even if the loan also gives rise to a mortgage of the goods.
- (4) The regulations may specify cases or circumstances in which, for the purposes of this Act—
 - (a) the taking of goods into the possession of a lender of money in connection with the loan is a pawning of the goods (whether or not that taking into possession is for the purpose of the lender relying on possession of the goods as security for the repayment of the loan), or
 - (b) the taking of goods into the possession of a lender of money in connection with the loan is not a pawning of the goods (despite that taking into possession being for the purpose of the lender relying on possession of the goods as security for the repayment of the loan), or
 - (c) the taking of goods into the possession of a person acting on behalf of a lender or associated with a lender is taken to be the taking of goods into the possession of the lender.

4 Restrictions on operation of this Act

- (1) This Act does not apply so as to affect any activities conducted in accordance with a licence, permit or other authority under another Act (for example the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002, the Firearms Act 1996, or the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013). In particular, this Act does not require a person to obtain a licence under this Act to carry on a business or any activity that is authorised by a licence, permit or other authority issued to that person under any other Act.

(2) This Act does not apply—

- (a) to dealing in second-hand goods in the course of a fundraising appeal authorised under the Charitable Fundraising Act 1991, or
- (b) to the business of an auctioneer, or
- (c) to the extent provided by the regulations, in relation to such persons and circumstances as the regulations may prescribe.

(3) In subsection (2)—

business of an auctioneer does not include the business of selling goods by tender.

5 Buy-back contracts regarded as pledge and loan

If a person receives goods under a contract of sale where the seller has the right to buy back the goods, then for the purposes of this Act—

- (a) the person receiving the goods is taken to be lending money on the security of the goods as pawned goods, and
- (b) the price at which the goods are to be sold under the contract is taken to be the amount lent, and
- (c) the difference between the amount lent and the price at which the goods may be bought back is taken to be the interest payable.

Part 2 Licensing of pawnbrokers and second-hand dealers

6 Pawnbrokers to be licensed

A person must not carry on a business of lending money on the security of pawned goods except in accordance with a licence held by the person.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

 - (a) the regulations otherwise provide, or
 - (b) the Tribunal does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine an application for an order under section 32G in relation to the goods, or
 - (c) the Tribunal has directed that proceedings to hear and determine such an application be stayed on the ground that the Tribunal does not have jurisdiction to make an order as sought because of monetary limits on the jurisdiction of the Tribunal.
- (2) If proceedings for the recovery of pawned goods are commenced in any other court, that other court may, without affecting any power vested in it, hear and determine the proceedings in accordance with that section.

- (1) The finding of a court that a licensee is guilty of an offence under any of sections 188, 189 and 189A of the Crimes Act 1900 (which deal with receiving stolen goods) revokes the licensee's licence, unless the court making the finding determines that, in the particular circumstances of the case, the licence ought to remain in force.

- (2) A court by which a licensee is convicted of an offence involving dishonesty (other than an offence referred to in subsection (1)) or an offence against this Act may, in addition to any other penalty imposed for the offence, by order revoke or suspend the licensee's licence.
- (3) A court by whose conviction or order a licence is revoked may specify a period during which the licensee cannot be granted a further licence, and such a specification precludes the grant of a licence during that period.
- (4) A court by whose conviction or order a licence is revoked or suspended may, where the licensed business consisted of or included pawnbroking, make such order as it thinks fit in relation to the redemption of goods held in the course of that business.
- (5) A court may, if it thinks fit, defer the operation of any order under this section pending an appeal against the relevant conviction.
- (6) Without affecting any other right of appeal, the order of a court under this section is appealable as if it were, or were part of, an order imposing a penalty in respect of the relevant conviction.

- (1) The Secretary may serve a notice on any licensee—
 - (a) who has become bankrupt or, in the case of a corporate licensee, which is in the

- (c) who, or one of whose employees, has contravened a provision of this Act or any other Act administered by the Minister, or the regulations under any such Act, whether or not the licensee or employee has been prosecuted for or convicted of an offence in respect of the contravention, or
- (c1) who, or one of whose employees, has been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty that was recorded since the licensee's licence was issued or last renewed (whichever is the later), or
- (d) who has employed or continues to employ, in connection with the licensee's business, a person who the licensee knows is disqualified by this Act from holding a licence, or

- (i) who the Secretary considers, in light of evidence acceptable to the Secretary, is carrying on the licensed business in a dishonest or unfair manner, or requiring the licensee to show cause, within a time (not less than 14 days) limited by the notice, why the licensee's licence should not be revoked.

- (2) A notice issued in accordance with subsection (1) (c), (c1), (d) or (e) must name the employee or director concerned.

 - (a) in whose custody stolen goods are found, or
 - (b) who, in a particular length of time, buys or takes as security from the same person (not being another licensee) one or more types of household item in quantities exceeding what an ordinary householder might reasonably be expected to have acquired during that length of time, is probably receiving or dealing in stolen goods.

35 Licensee may adduce evidence

A licensee to whom a notice under section 34 is addressed may, within the time limited by the notice, make a written submission and adduce evidence in relation to the matters raised by the notice.

36 Disciplinary action by Secretary

- (1) The Secretary may undertake such inquiry and investigation in relation to the matters to which a notice under section 34 relates, and any submissions made and evidence adduced by or on behalf of the licensee in relation to those matters, as the Secretary thinks fit. If, after such inquiry and investigation, the Secretary is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the ground of any notice under section 34 has been substantiated against the licensee, the Secretary may—
 - (a) revoke the licence, or suspend it for such portion of the remainder of its duration as the Secretary thinks fit, or
 - (b) attach one or more conditions to it, or
 - (c) determine that the licence is not to be renewed, or that a licence is not to be granted to the same licensee in future, unless one or more conditions are attached to it on grant or renewal.
- (1A) Despite subsection (1), the Secretary must revoke the licence if satisfied that the licensee has become a disqualified person because of section 8A (2A).
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) (b), the Secretary may specify, as a condition to be imposed in accordance with that paragraph in respect of the licence of a corporate licensee, that a particular director or officer of the corporation must not (either for a specified period or permanently, as the Secretary may determine) be concerned in the management of the licensed business.
- (3) The Secretary, on revoking a licence, may specify a period during which the licensee cannot be granted a further licence, and such a specification precludes the grant of a licence during that period.
- (4) (Repealed)
- (5) The Secretary may make orders requiring the licensee to pay such amounts as the Secretary determines by way of costs in relation to disciplinary proceedings under this section that resulted in action being taken in respect of the licensee's licence. Such an order is to be filed in the Tribunal and is enforceable in the same way as an order or other decision of the Tribunal.

36A Disciplinary action against former licensees

- (1) Service of show cause notices on former licensees (application of section 34) The provisions of section 34 apply to a former licensee in the same way as they apply to a licensee, but not in respect of matters that occurred or came into being after the person ceased to be a licensee.
- (2) However, a notice may only be served under section 34 (as applied by this section) on a person who has held a licence within the period of 12 months ending with the date of service of the notice.

 - (a) a notice has been served under section 34 when the person was a licensee, or

- (4) Disciplinary action by Secretary against former licensee (provisions corresponding to section 36) The Secretary may undertake such inquiry and investigation in relation to the matters to which any such notice relates, and any submissions made and evidence adduced by or on behalf of the former licensee in relation to those matters, as the Secretary thinks fit.
- (5) If, after such inquiry and investigation, the Secretary is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the ground of any such notice has been substantiated against the former licensee, the Secretary may make either or both of the following determinations—
 - (a) a determination that a licence is not to be granted to the former licensee for a specified period,
 - (b) a determination that a licence is not to be granted to the former licensee, or that a licence held by the former licensee is not to be renewed, in future unless one or more specified conditions are attached to it.
- (6) A determination under subsection (5) (a) precludes the grant of a licence to the former licensee for the specified period.
- (7) Continuation under this section if person ceases to be licensed If—
 - (a) a notice has been served under section 34 on a person who was a licensee when the notice was served, and

(b) the person ceases to be licensed before the matters raised by the notice are finalised, the matters may continue to be dealt with under this Part, as if anything done or omitted to be done under sections 34–36 in relation to the person as a licensee had been done or omitted to be done under this section in relation to the person as a former licensee.

36B Decision to take no further action

The Secretary may, at any stage of a matter that is the subject of consideration by the Secretary under this Part, determine to take no further action in respect of the matter, whether or not the matter is the subject of a notice under section 34 (or that section as applied by section 36A) and whether or not the Secretary determines that the ground of any such notice has been substantiated.

37 Surrender of licence

When a licence is revoked, the licensee must immediately surrender it to the Secretary.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.
