5 Paramount policies

The following paramount policies are declared—

- (a) Public sector employees are entitled to the guaranteed minimum conditions of employment (being the conditions set out in clause 7).
- (b) Equal remuneration for men and women doing work of equal or comparable value.

Note—

Clause 6(1)(c) provides that existing conditions of employment in excess of the guaranteed minimum conditions may only be reduced for the purposes of achieving employee-related cost savings with the agreement of the relevant parties.

Clause 9(1)(e) provides that conditions of employment cannot be reduced below the guaranteed minimum conditions of employment for the purposes of achieving employee-related cost savings.

5A Temporary wages policy

- (1) Public sector employees are not to be awarded increases in remuneration or other conditions of employment that would increase employee-related costs in relation to the employees during the relevant period.
- (2) The policy in subclause (1) does not apply—
 - (a) to the making of an award or order in relation to public sector employees if an earlier award or order has already given effect to the policy set out in that subclause in relation to the public sector employees, or
 - (b) to the varying of an award or order if the variation is to an award or order that has already given effect to the policy set out in that subclause, or
 - (c) if the relevant parties to the proceedings for the making or varying of the award or order that would award increases in remuneration or other conditions of employment agree it should not apply.
- (3) This clause expires on 1 January 2024.
- (4) In this clause—

last awarded increase, in relation to remuneration or other conditions of employment, means the last increase in the remuneration or other conditions awarded before the commencement of the Industrial Relations \(Public Sector Conditions of Employment\) Amendment \(Temporary Wages Policy\) Regulation 2020.

- (b) ending on the day that is 12 months after the day the period starts.

6 Other policies

- (1) The following policies are also declared, but are subject to compliance with the declared paramount policies—

- (a) Public sector employees may be awarded increases in remuneration or other conditions of employment, but only if employee-related costs in respect of those employees are not increased by more than 2.5% per annum as a result of the increases awarded together with any new or increased superannuation employment benefits provided (or to be provided) to or in respect of the employees since their remuneration or other conditions of employment were last determined.
 - (b) Increases in remuneration or other conditions of employment can be awarded even if employee-related costs are increased by more than 2.5% per annum, but only if sufficient employee-related cost savings have been achieved to fully offset the increased employee-related costs beyond 2.5% per annum. For this purpose—

 - (c) For the purposes of achieving employee-related cost savings, existing conditions of employment of the kind but in excess of the guaranteed minimum conditions of employment may only be reduced with the agreement of the relevant parties in the proceedings.
 - (d) Awards and orders are to resolve all issues the subject of the proceedings (and not reserve leave for a matter to be dealt with at a later time or allow extra claims to be made during the term of the award or order). However, this does not prevent variations made with the agreement of the relevant parties.
 - (e) Changes to remuneration or other conditions of employment may only operate on or after the date the relevant parties finally agreed to the change (if the award or order is made or varied by consent) or the date of the Commission's decision (if the award or order is made or varied in arbitration proceedings).
 - (f) Policies regarding the management of excess public sector employees are not to be incorporated into industrial instruments.

- (5) To the extent of any inconsistency between the policy set out in subclause (1)(a) or (b) and clause 5A, the policy set out in subclause (1)(a) or (b) is not to be given effect to by the Industrial Relations Commission when making or varying awards or orders.
