- (6) A nomination form may be lodged through a remote electronic nomination system if made available by the returning officer.

 - (ii) the single category of election for which each person is qualified to vote,
 - (b) for a postal ballot—an appropriately addressed written label or envelope (or an electronic record enabling labels to be produced or envelopes to be addressed) for every person whose name and address is on that electoral list and who is qualified to vote in relation to the relevant election.
- (2) The address referred to in subclause (1)(a)(i) is to be the postal or email address, as applicable to the type of ballot concerned, entered in relation to the person in the accreditation list.
- (3) The Chief Executive Officer must certify, in accordance with Form 2, that the electoral list for the election complies with this clause.
- (4) This clause does not apply to an election held as a consequence of an earlier election for which there have been insufficient nominations, and a call for further nominations, if an electoral list for the earlier election has already been provided to the returning officer.

34 Inspection of electoral list

The returning officer is to allow any person to inspect the electoral list for an election without charge during the normal office hours of the returning officer.

35 Information concerning government school teachers and principals

- (2) In making the decision, the returning officer must consult with the Authority.
- (3) If an electronic ballot is to be held, the returning officer must make arrangements for persons who have notified the returning officer in accordance with clause 19A of wanting to vote in the election by means of a postal ballot.

Division 10 Ballot-papers

38 Position on ballot-paper

- (1) The order of candidates' names on ballot-papers for an election that is a contested election is to be determined by a ballot held by the returning officer.
- (2) That is to be done at the office of the returning officer at the time, and on the date last fixed for the determination by notice of the election.
- (3) The ballot is to be conducted by the returning officer in the presence of at least 2 persons who are not candidates for election.
- (4) The ballot is to be conducted in the following manner—
 - (a) the returning officer must, at the place determined by the returning officer and before all persons present, make out in respect of each candidate a slip bearing the name under which the candidate has been nominated,
 - (b) the returning officer must then enclose the slips in separate identical containers, securely seal each container and deposit all the containers in a securely fastened box,
 - (c) the returning officer must then shake and rotate the box and, on request, permit any other person present to do the same,
 - (d) the returning officer must then unfasten the box and take out and open each container one by one,
 - (e) the returning officer must then announce to the persons present, and record, the name of the candidate whose name appears on the slip enclosed in the container first taken from the box and, in consecutive order, the name of the candidate whose name appears on the slip enclosed in the container next taken from the box and so on until the placing of all names has been determined,

(f) the returning officer must sign the record and allow any of the persons present to do the same.

(5) Each candidate or an agent of the candidate is entitled to be present at a ballot in accordance with this clause.

39 Postal ballots—form of ballot-papers

(1A) This clause applies to the conduct of an election by a postal ballot.

(1) If there is to be a contested election, the returning officer is to have ballot-papers printed for the election.

(2) The names of the candidates are to be printed in one column.

(3) The name of the candidate that has been first taken from the ballot-box in the determination of the order of names under this Division is to be shown closest to the top of the ballot-papers. The name of the candidate that has been next taken from the ballot-box is to be shown immediately below the name of the candidate that has been first taken, and so on.

(4) The ballot-paper must contain—

(a) the names of the candidates with a small square opposite each name, and

(b) if, in the opinion of the returning officer, the names of 2 or more candidates are so similar as to cause confusion, such other matter as will, in the opinion of the returning officer, distinguish those candidates, and

(c) the directions as to the manner in which a vote is to be recorded on the ballot-paper, and directions as to how the ballot-paper is to be returned to the returning officer, being directions in Form 3 (in the case of an election of a representative of government school teachers and principals) or Form 4 (in any other case).

(5) The ballot-paper may contain such other directions as the returning officer considers appropriate.

40 Candidate information sheets

(1) If there is to be a ballot, the returning officer is to prepare a candidate information sheet. The returning officer must base the information in that sheet on what has been set out in the statutory declarations submitted to the returning officer before the close of nominations.

(2) The returning officer may, when preparing a candidate information sheet, reject any information submitted if the returning officer considers that the information is—

- (a) inappropriate for inclusion in a candidate information sheet, or
 - (b) misleading in a material particular, or
 - (c) exceeds the maximum amount of information that the returning officer considers is suitable for inclusion in the candidate information sheet (as specified in the notice of election).
- (3) If the returning officer rejects information under subclause (3), he or she is to give the candidate notice that the information is unsuitable and give the candidate 7 days to submit suitable information.
- (4) If the candidate does not submit information that the returning officer considers to be suitable within those 7 days, no information about the candidate is to be included on the candidate information sheet.
- (5) The names of the candidates and the information about them must be listed on the candidate information sheet in the same order as they are listed on the ballot-paper for the election.
- (6) The returning officer must compile a candidate information sheet consisting of the information submitted by the candidate.
- (7) For a postal ballot, the returning officer must cause any candidate information sheet compiled under this clause to be printed in sufficient quantity to be distributed with all ballot-papers.

Division 11 Postal ballot—distribution of ballot-papers

41A Application of Division

This Division applies to the conduct of an election by a postal ballot.

41 Distribution of ballot-papers

(3) Those items must be sent, not later than 20 days before the date fixed for the close of the ballot, by post to the address nominated in the electoral list for each person enrolled at the date of the close of nominations for the election.

42 Initialling of ballot-paper

A ballot-paper is to be initialled by the returning officer (or by a person authorised by the returning officer) before the returning officer sends it to an elector. The initials may be written or stamped.

43 Notation that ballot-paper sent

The returning officer is to make an appropriate notation on the electoral list to show that the elector has been sent the ballot-paper.

44 Duplicates

(1) If an elector satisfies the returning officer that he or she has spoiled by reason of accident or mistake any ballot-paper handed or sent to him or her, the returning officer may, on receipt of the spoiled ballot-paper—

(a) hand or send to the elector a new ballot-paper, and

(b) cancel and preserve the spoiled paper.

(2) The returning officer may, at any time before the close of the ballot, send or deliver to an elector a new ballot-paper if the elector satisfies the returning officer by statutory declaration—

(a) that the elector's previous ballot-paper in the election has not been received or has been lost or destroyed, and

(b) that the elector has not already received another ballot-paper for the election, and

(c) that the elector has not already voted at the election.

(3) The returning officer must maintain a record of all ballot-papers sent or delivered to electors under this clause.

(4) The returning officer may, at the request of an elector, send or deliver to the elector a duplicate of an envelope or candidate information sheet.

Division 12 Postal ballot

At an election, an elector is—

- (a) required to record a vote for at least the number of candidates specified in the instructions on the ballot-paper, and
- (b) permitted to record a vote for as many more candidates as the elector pleases, so as to indicate, in such manner as is required by this Part, the candidates for whom the elector votes and the order of the elector's preference for them.

48 Recording of votes

In order to vote in an election, a person—

- (a) must record a vote on the ballot-paper in accordance with the directions shown on it and this Division, and
- (b) must place the completed ballot-paper in the envelope provided, and
- (c) must seal the envelope, and
- (d) must write legibly the person's full name and address on, and sign, the back of the envelope in the spaces provided, and
- (e) must return the envelope to the returning officer before the close of the ballot.

Division 12A Electronic ballot

48A Application of Division

This Division applies to the conduct of an election by an electronic ballot.

Note—

Division 12 applies in relation to voters who have given notice to the returning officer under clause 19A of wanting to vote by means of a postal ballot in an electronic ballot—see clause 19A(4).

48B Means of voting in electronic ballot

An electronic ballot is to be conducted by remote electronic voting.

48C Voting website

- (1) If an electronic ballot is to be conducted by means of accessing a website (the voting website), the voting website must include—
 - (a) access to the following—

- (i) an electronic declaration form,
 - (ii) an electronic ballot-paper,
 - (iii) an electronic candidate information sheet, if appropriate, and
- (b) instructions on how to vote, including directions that—
- (i) the voter must complete and submit the electronic declaration form, and
 - (ii) the voter must record a vote by marking the electronic ballot-paper next to the name of the voter's preferred candidates, and
 - (iii) the voter must record a vote for at least the number of candidates to be elected in the order of the voter's preferences for them, and
 - (iv) the voter may, but is not required to, vote for additional candidates in the order of the voter's preferences for them, and
 - (v) the voter must submit the electronic ballot-paper, and
- (c) the closing date of the ballot.
- (2) The electronic ballot-paper must—
- (a) list the names of all candidates for election in the order determined under clause 38, and
 - (b) include a check box or other facility for recording a vote opposite each name.
- (3) The voting website must be established in a way that—
- (a) enables the voter to make a declaration stating that the voter is eligible to vote in the election, and
 - (b) ensures that the vote recorded by a voter cannot be identified, and
 - (c) alerts a voter who is about to submit an informal vote that the proposed vote is informal, and
 - (d) enables a voter to review and amend as necessary the voter's recording of a vote before submitting it.

48D Secure storage of electronic votes

The returning officer must ensure that electronic votes are kept secure until the counting of votes is concluded in accordance with Division 14.

48E Receipt of electronic votes

The returning officer must reject an electronic vote not submitted before the close of the ballot.

Division 13 Scrutiny of votes

49 Ascertaining result of ballot

The result of a ballot for an election is to be ascertained by the returning officer as soon as practicable after the close of the ballot.

50 Scrutineers

- (1) Each candidate at an election is entitled to appoint a scrutineer to represent the candidate in respect of the ballot. The appointment is to be by notice in writing to the returning officer.
- (2) A candidate for election may not act as a scrutineer.
- (3) A scrutineer appointed in accordance with this clause is entitled to be present at any proceeding in the election for which the person who appointed the scrutineer is a candidate.
- (4) Any scrutineer, whether appointed by a candidate or not, may be present during the counting of votes.

51 Postal ballots—examination of envelopes

- (1A) This clause applies to the conduct of an election by a postal ballot.
- (1) The returning officer must, as soon as practicable after the receipt of an envelope purporting to contain a ballot-paper, examine the envelope for the purpose of deciding whether to accept or reject the envelope.
 - (2) The returning officer is to reject an envelope purporting to contain a ballot-paper issued in respect of an election if—
 - (a) the envelope does not have legibly marked on its rear flap the name, address and signature that appear to the returning officer to be those of a person enrolled, or
 - (b) the envelope is not sealed, or
 - (c) the envelope is not received by the returning officer at or before the time stated on ballot-papers issued in respect of the election as the time at or before which the envelope is to be so received.
 - (3) The returning officer must examine the name on the back of an envelope not rejected under subclause (2), and—
 - (a) if satisfied that a person of that name is an elector, must accept the envelope without opening it and must place it in a locked ballot-box, or

- (b) if not so satisfied, must reject the envelope.
- (4) If it appears to the returning officer that the signature on the back of an envelope is not the signature of the person whose name and address are there, the returning officer may make any inquiries in respect of the apparent anomaly that the returning officer thinks fit.
- (5) If, after making those inquiries, the returning officer is satisfied that the signature is not the signature of that person, the officer must reject the envelope.
- (6) If an envelope is to be rejected, its contents must also be rejected and the returning officer must not open it.
- (7) The returning officer—
 - (a) must keep a record of any rejection of an envelope, and
 - (b) must note in that record the reason for the rejection, and
 - (c) must keep a record of the total number of envelopes rejected.

52 Postal ballots—scrutiny of votes

- (1) This clause applies to the conduct of an election by a postal ballot.
- (2) The scrutiny of votes in a ballot must be conducted as follows, after the close of the ballot—
 - (a) the returning officer must unlock the ballot-box, remove the envelopes and then remove the ballot-papers from the envelopes,
 - (b) the returning officer must then reject all ballot-papers in an envelope if the envelope contains more than one ballot-paper,
 - (c) the returning officer must then place the ballot-papers and envelopes in separate piles or containers,
 - (d) the returning officer must unfold and examine each ballot-paper and reject those that are informal,
 - (e) the returning officer must then proceed to count the votes, and ascertain the result of the ballot, in accordance with Division 14.

53 Postal ballots—informal ballot-papers

- (1A) This clause applies to the conduct of an election by a postal ballot.
- (1) The returning officer is to reject a ballot-paper as being informal if—
 - (a) the elector has failed to record a vote on it in accordance with the directions printed on the ballot-paper, or

(b) it has not been initialled by the returning officer, or

(c) it contains a mark or writing that, in the returning officer's opinion, would enable the elector to be identified.

(2) However, a ballot-paper is not informal just because of the existence of marks or writing on the paper (such as a tick or a cross) that are not in accordance with the directions for its completion if, in the opinion of the returning officer, the elector's intention is clearly indicated on the ballot-paper. However, in the case of an election of more than one representative of government school teachers, a ballot-paper that shows 2 or more crosses or ticks is informal.

(3) A ballot-paper that shows at least one preference is not informal just because a second or later preference has been repeated or omitted. However, if there is a repetition or omission in the consecutive numbering of preferences marked on a ballot-paper (other than a repetition or omission that makes the ballot-paper informal), only those preferences preceding the repetition or omission can be taken into account.

(4) A ballot-paper of an elector at an election is not informal by virtue of the existence of an unnecessary mark on the ballot-paper if, in the opinion of the returning officer, the elector's intention is clearly indicated on the ballot-paper.

53A Electronic ballots—informal ballot-papers and scrutiny of votes

(1) This clause applies to the conduct of an election by an electronic ballot.

(2) The returning officer is to reject an electronic vote as being informal if the elector has failed to record a vote in accordance with the instructions on the voting website.

(3) Each informal electronic vote is to be recorded by the voting website as an informal vote and the voting website is to count the formal electronic votes.

(4) A scrutineer may inspect a report or record from an electronic database or retrieval system containing electronic votes used in the electronic ballot.

(5) The returning officer is to make available for scrutineers information that details the scrutiny process and method used in the scrutiny of votes in the electronic ballot.

Division 14 Method of counting

54 Counting the votes—optional preferential method

The method of counting the votes is to be the optional preferential method.

55 Special provisions for election of a representative of government school teachers and principals

- (1) This clause applies if, in relation to an election of a representative of government school teachers and principals, the optional preferential method would result in a person who is not a rural teacher being elected.
- (2) If the election of that person would mean that there were not, and could not be, at least 1 rural teacher or principal on the QTC then the election of that person is to be disregarded and the counting is to continue until a rural teacher is elected.

56 Recount

- (1) Any candidate present when the returning officer declares the result of the count at an election, or later notified of the result by the Chief Executive Officer or otherwise, may request a recount of the ballot-papers.
- (2) If such a request is made, the returning officer may again have the ballot-papers scrutinised and counted and is to inform the persons present of the results of the recount.

Division 15 Miscellaneous

57 Declaring the election

- (1) As soon as practicable after counting votes in an election and ascertaining the result of an election, the returning officer is to declare the result of the election.
- (2) The returning officer then is to notify the Chief Executive Officer, in writing—
 - (a) of the candidate or candidates elected, and
 - (b) of the order in which unsuccessful candidates were excluded from the counting of votes.
- (3) The Chief Executive Officer is to cause notice of the candidate or candidates elected in the election—
 - (a) to be sent to each candidate in the election, and
 - (b) to be published in the Gazette, and
 - (c) to be publicly advertised in a way that the Chief Executive Officer considers appropriate.

58 Misconduct in voting

A person must not—

- (a) vote, or attempt to vote, more than once in an election, or

(b) vote, or attempt to vote, in any election in which the person is not entitled to vote.

Maximum penalty—5 penalty units.

Note—

Section 307B of the Crimes Act 1900 makes it an offence for a person to give information to another person who is exercising or performing any power, authority, duty or function under, or in connection with, a law of the State (which would include the returning officer designated under this Part) knowing that the information is false or misleading or that it omits any matter or thing without which the information is misleading.

59 Validity of election

- (1) An election is not invalid just because there was a formal defect or error in or relating to the election, if the election was held substantially in accordance with this Part.
- (2) In particular, an election is not invalid just because—
 - (a) a person whose name is on the electoral list did not receive a ballot-paper, or
 - (b) the returning officer did not receive a ballot-paper sent to the returning officer.

60 Death of candidate

- (1) If a candidate dies after the close of nominations and before the close of the ballot in an election—
 - (a) the returning officer is to cause notice of the death to be publicly advertised in a way that the returning officer considers appropriate, and
 - (b) the count is to proceed in accordance with this Part and, if the deceased candidate is elected, the election of the deceased candidate is to be disregarded and the count is to be continued.
- (2) However, if the deceased elected candidate was taken to have been elected by virtue of clause 26, a fresh election must be held to replace the candidate so taken to have been elected.

61 Security of election materials

- (1) After the result of an election has been declared, the returning officer is to make a parcel of the papers used in the election.
- (2) If there was a ballot, the officer is to make 2 parcels—
 - (a) one parcel containing the marked and unmarked ballot-papers, including any rejected envelopes or informal ballot-papers, together with the copies of the relevant electoral list, and
 - (b) the other parcel containing the other papers (including, but not limited to, any candidate information statements or sheets and any notices) used in the election.

- (3) The returning officer is to seal, endorse and sign each parcel, and to allow any scrutineers, candidates, or agents of candidates who are present to watch the returning officer carry out those actions and countersign the parcel.
- (4) The returning officer is to have each parcel, and all electronic files, kept securely for at least 12 months, and then destroyed.
- (5) If a court so directs, or any legislation so requires or permits, the returning officer is to allow any person to inspect any of the election materials, except the sealed parcels of marked ballot-papers.

Part 4 Elected members of QTC

62 Appointment of persons to act temporarily in office of elected member

- (1) This clause applies if it is expected by the Minister that an elected member will be absent from 2 or more consecutive meetings of the QTC for illness or another reason, other than a vacancy in the office of that member.
- (2) For the purposes of clause 3 (2) of Schedule 2 to the Act, the Minister may appoint a person to act in the office of the elected member at the meetings from which the elected member will be absent.
- (3) If possible, the person appointed must have been a candidate for the election in which the elected member was elected and must, at the date of appointment, still be a person who is qualified to be nominated at an election for the relevant category of election held on that date.
- (4) The Minister must offer the appointment to the candidate last excluded from the count at that election, then to the second last person excluded and so on until a person agrees to be appointed.
- (5) In the case of a representative of government school teachers and principals, if the elected member was, at the time of nomination for his or her election, a person enrolled as a person who teaches in a rural area and there would, in the absence of that person, be no rural teachers or principals on the QTC, the person appointed must, at the time of appointment, also be enrolled as a person who is employed in a rural area and, accordingly, the Minister must offer the appointment to the candidate last excluded from the count at that election that at the time of appointment is enrolled as a person who is employed in a rural area, then to the second last such person excluded and so on until such a person agrees to be appointed.
- (6) If the procedure in this clause does not result in the appointment of any person, the Minister may appoint any person to act in the office of the elected member, being a person who would be qualified as a candidate for any relevant category of election held on the date of appointment. The Minister must first give notice of the Minister's intention to appoint a replacement person and call for expressions of interest from eligible persons wishing to be considered for replacement appointment. An expression of interest is to be accompanied by the relevant nomination form and a completed Form 1.

63 Filling of casual vacancy in office of elected member in first 30 months of term of office

- (1) For the purposes of clause 5 (2) of Schedule 2 to the Act, if the office of an elected member becomes vacant during the first 30 months of the term of that office, the vacancy is to be filled in accordance with this clause.
- (2) In the case of a vacancy in the office of a representative of government school teachers and principals if the elected member was, at the time of nomination for his or her election, enrolled as a person who is employed in a rural area and there would, in the absence of that person, be no rural teachers or principals on the QTC, the vacancy is to be filled by a person who, at the time of appointment, is enrolled as a person who is employed in a rural area being the last such person excluded from the count in the election in which the elected member was elected.
- (3) In the case of a representative other than a representative of government school teachers and principals, the vacancy is to be filled by the candidate last excluded from the count in the election in which the elected member was elected who, at the date of appointment, is still a person who is qualified to nominate at an election for the relevant category of election.
- (4) Despite subclauses (2) and (3), if an elected member was elected at an uncontested election, his or her vacancy is to be filled by an election. The method of counting for such an election is the optional preferential method. If the elected member being replaced was elected as a representative of government school teachers and principals who is a rural teacher, only persons who are, at the time of nomination in the second election, enrolled as rural teachers or principals are qualified to nominate for that election.

64 Filling of vacancy in office of member appointed to fill casual vacancy

- (1) For the purposes of clause 5 (2) of Schedule 2 to the Act, if the office of a member filling a vacancy in the office of an elected member under clause 63 itself becomes vacant during the first 30 months of that office, the new vacancy is to be filled in accordance with clause 63, subject to this clause.
- (2) However, the process of filling vacancies set out in this clause can continue only until positions have been filled 3 times in each category other than government school teachers and principals, where it can continue until positions have been filled 5 times. After that, a by-election will be held for the vacant position, unless this occurs in the last 6 months of the 3 year term, in which case the filling of positions by the list of persons in the order in which they were elected or finished in the counting for the election will continue.

65 Extension of term of office of elected members

- (1) The Minister may, by notice in writing to an elected member, extend the term of office of the elected member for a period not exceeding 12 months.
- (2) Subclause (1) has effect despite clause 2 (2) of Schedule 2 to the Act, but is otherwise subject to the provisions of that Schedule.
- (3) This clause extends to persons holding office as elected members immediately before the commencement of this clause.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

66 Maintenance of electoral list

- (1) The Authority must, in maintaining the electoral list, specify the following in relation to each person enrolled on the list who is employed to teach—
 - (a) the person or body by whom the person is employed,

 - (i) any person who is enrolled only as a person employed to teach (whether or not as a principal) in a government school is entitled to vote at an election of representatives of government school teachers and principals on the QTC,
 - (ii) any person who is enrolled only as a person employed to teach (whether or not as a principal) in a non-government school is entitled to vote at an election of a representative of non-government school teachers and principals on the QTC,
 - (iii) any person who is enrolled only as a person employed to teach in an early childhood education centre is entitled to vote at an election of a representative of early childhood education centre teachers on the QTC,
 - (c) whether or not the person is accredited.

 - (i) an election of a representative of government school teachers and principals on the QTC, or

(ii) an election of a representative of non-government school teachers and principals on the QTC, or

(iii) an election of a representative of early childhood education centre teachers on the QTC, depending on the category of election that the person nominated on the roll of teachers,

(b) whether or not the person is accredited.

(3) The Authority must, in maintaining the electoral list, specify the following in relation to each person enrolled on the list who is not employed to teach—

(a) the person or body by whom the person is employed,

(b) the single category of election of elected members of the QTC for which the person is entitled to vote, depending on the category of election that the person nominated when he or she applied for inclusion on the roll of teachers.

67 Eligibility to be enrolled

For the purposes of section 17 (1) (c) (ii) of the Act, the following bodies are prescribed—

Schedule 2 Counting of votes under optional preferential system

(Clause 9 (1))

1 General

- (1) This Schedule sets out the method of counting votes according to the optional preferential system. The counting is to be carried out under the supervision of the returning officer.
- (2) Requirements in this Schedule to arrange, rearrange, set aside or parcel ballot-papers, and associated requirements, may be adapted for the purposes of an electronic ballot in a way the returning officer considers appropriate.

2 Definitions

In this Schedule—

absolute majority of votes means a number greater than one-half of the whole number of ballot-papers other than informal and exhausted ballot-papers.

continuing candidate means a candidate not already elected or excluded from the count.

exhausted ballot-paper means a ballot-paper on which there is no indication of a next preference for a continuing candidate.

next preference means the first of the subsequent preferences marked on a ballot-paper that is not given to an elected or excluded candidate. However, if there is a repetition or omission in the consecutive numbering of preferences marked on a ballot-paper (other than a repetition or omission that makes the ballot-paper informal), only those preferences preceding the repetition or omission can be taken into account.

unrejected ballot-papers means all ballot-papers not rejected as informal.

3 Election of candidate

If only one candidate is to be elected, the votes are to be counted and the result of the election ascertained in accordance with the following procedures—

- (a) The unrejected ballot-papers are arranged under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.

- (b) The total number of first preferences given for each candidate on such ballot-papers are then counted.
- (c) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes is elected if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes.
- (d) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes, a second count is made.
- (e) On the second count the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes is excluded, and each unexhausted ballot-paper counted to him or her is counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.
- (f) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, he or she is elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting each of his or her unexhausted ballot-papers to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference is repeated until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
- (g) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes is elected.

4 Election of 2 candidates

If 2 candidates are to be elected, the votes are to be counted and the result of the election ascertained in accordance with the following procedures—

- (a) One of the candidates is elected in accordance with clause 3 of this Schedule.
- (b) All the unrejected ballot-papers are rearranged under the names of the respective candidates in accordance with the first preferences marked on the ballot-papers, except that each ballot-paper on which a first preference for the elected candidate is indicated is placed in the parcel of the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.
- (c) The number of ballot-papers in the parcel of each candidate is counted and the total number of votes so counted to each candidate is ascertained.
- (d) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes he or she is elected. If not, the count proceeds according to clause 3 (d), (e) and (f) of this Schedule, until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
- (e) Clause 3 (d) and (e) of this Schedule are to be read for the purposes of this clause as if a reference in those paragraphs to first preference votes were a reference to all the votes counted to a candidate under this clause.
- (f) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes is elected.

5 Election of 3 candidates

- (1) If 3 candidates are to be elected, 2 of the candidates are elected in accordance with clauses 3 and 4 of this Schedule.
- (2) The third candidate is elected in the manner provided in clause 4 of this Schedule as regards the election of a second candidate. However, a ballot-paper on which a first preference for any elected candidate is marked is placed in the parcel of the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.

6 Exhausted ballot-papers

In the process of counting under clause 3, 4 or 5 of this Schedule, exhausted ballot-papers are set aside as finally dealt with and are not taken into account in the election of a candidate under the appropriate clause.

7 Equality

- (1) If, on any count at which the candidate with the fewest number of votes has to be excluded, 2 or more candidates have an equal number of votes (that number being fewer than the number of votes that any other candidate has or those candidates being the only continuing candidates)—
 - (a) the candidate who had the fewest votes at the last count before the equality occurred is excluded, or
 - (b) if they had an equal number of votes at all preceding counts, the candidate whose name is on a slip drawn in accordance with subclause (2) is excluded.
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1) (b) the returning officer writes the names of the candidates who have an equal number of votes on similar slips of paper. The returning officer then folds the slips so as to prevent the names being seen, mixes them, and draws one slip at random.

8 End of counting

The process of counting each of the unexhausted ballot-papers of an excluded candidate to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference is not repeated if there is only one continuing candidate. Instead, that continuing candidate is elected.
