Note—

The Interpretation Act 1987 contains definitions and other provisions that affect the interpretation and application of this Act.

- (2) A reference in this Act to the exercise of a function includes, where that function is a duty, a reference to the performance of that duty.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, the fact that a race may comprise two or more distinct races does not prevent it from being a race.
- (4) A reference in this Act to the conferring, renewing or extending of an authorisation or a qualification, in relation to an authority or a body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation, includes a reference to the conferring, renewing, extending, granting, awarding, approving, issuing or accepting of a recognition, registration, enrolment, approval or certification by such an authority or such a body or to the admission of a person to membership of such an authority or such a body.
- (5) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.
- (6), (7) (Repealed)

4A Act done because of unlawful discrimination and for other reasons

If—

- (a) an act is done for 2 or more reasons, and
- (b) one of the reasons consists of unlawful discrimination under this Act against a person

(whether or not it is the dominant or a substantial reason for doing the act), then, for the purposes of this Act, the act is taken to be done for that reason.

4B References to certain employers

- (1) A reference in this Act to an employer—
 - (a) in relation to employment in a Public Service agency, is a reference to the head of the agency, and
 - (b) in relation to employment in the NSW Police Force, is a reference to the Commissioner of Police, and
 - (c) in relation to employment in the Teaching Service, is a reference to the Secretary of the Department of Education.
- (2) Any thing determined or done with respect to any matter concerning any such employment by a person who is employed in any Public Service agency, the NSW Police Force or the Teaching Service and who is authorised to determine and do things in that respect is taken to have been determined or done by the head of the agency, the Commissioner of Police or the Secretary of the Department of Education, respectively.
- (3) Subsection (2) includes anything determined or done with respect to—
 - (a) any offer of employment, or
 - (b) the terms and conditions on which employment is offered, or
 - (c) the opportunity afforded for promotion, transfer, training or other benefits associated with employment, or
 - (d) dismissal from employment.

5 Act binds Crown

This Act binds the Crown not only in right of New South Wales but also, so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

Part 2 Racial discrimination

Division 1 General

6 (Repealed)

7 What constitutes discrimination on the ground of race

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of race if the perpetrator—

- (a) on the ground of the aggrieved person's race or the race of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person of a different race or who has such a relative or associate of a different race, or
 - (b) on the ground of the aggrieved person's race or the race of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, segregates the aggrieved person from persons of a different race or from persons who have such a relative or associate of a different race, or
 - (c) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons not of that race, or who have a relative or associate not of that race, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a) and (b), something is done on the ground of a person's race if it is done on the ground of the person's race, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of that race or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that race.

Division 2 Discrimination in work

8 Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of race—
- (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment,
 - (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of race—
- (a) in the terms or conditions of employment which the employer affords the employee,
 - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or
 - (c) by dismissing the employee or subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment for the purposes of a private household.

9 Discrimination against commission agents

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of race—
 - (a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent,
 - (b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the principal engages the person as a commission agent.
- (2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of race—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions which the principal affords him or her as a commission agent,
 - (b) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with his or her position as a commission agent, or
 - (c) by terminating his or her engagement or subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

10 Discrimination against contract workers

It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of race—

- (a) in the terms on which the principal allows him or her to work,
- (b) by not allowing him or her to work or continue to work,
- (c) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit associated with the work in respect of which the contract with his or her employer is made, or
- (d) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

10A Partnerships

- (1) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners, or for any one or more of 6 or more persons proposing to form themselves into a partnership, to discriminate against a person on the ground of race—
 - (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm,
 - (b) in determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or

- (c) in the terms on which the person is offered a position as partner in the firm.
- (2) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners to discriminate against a partner on the ground of race—
- (a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from membership of the firm,
 - (b) by expelling the partner from the firm, or
 - (c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.

10B Discrimination by local government councillors

It is unlawful for any member or members of a council of a local government area when acting (whether alone or together) in the course of his, her or their official functions to discriminate against another member of the council on the ground of race.

11 Industrial organisations

- (1) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of race—
- (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.
- (2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of race—

23 Definitions

In this Part—

man means a member of the male sex irrespective of his age.

woman means a member of the female sex irrespective of her age.

24 What constitutes discrimination on the ground of sex

(1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of sex if the perpetrator—

(a) on the ground of the aggrieved person's sex or the sex of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person of the opposite sex or who does not have such a relative or associate of that sex, or

(b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons of the opposite sex, or who do not have a relative or associate of that sex, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person's sex if it is done on the ground of the person's sex, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of that sex or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that sex.

(1B) For the purposes of this section, but without limiting the generality of this section, the fact that a woman is or may become pregnant is a characteristic that appertains generally to women.

- (1C) For the purposes of this section, but without limiting the generality of this section, the fact that a woman is breastfeeding or may breastfeed is a characteristic that appertains generally to women. For the purposes of this Act, breastfeeding includes the act of expressing breast milk.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the circumstances in which a person treats or would treat another person of the opposite sex are not materially different by reason of the fact that the persons between whom the discrimination occurs—
- (a) are a woman who is pregnant and a man, or
 - (b) are not of the same marital or domestic status, or
 - (c) are a woman who is breastfeeding and a man.
- (3) (Repealed)

Division 2 Discrimination in work

25 Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex—

 - (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.
- (1A) (Repealed)
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of sex—
- (a) in the terms or conditions of employment which the employer affords the employee,
 - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or
 - (c) by dismissing the employee or subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (2A) (Repealed)
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment—

- (a) for the purposes of a private household,
 - (b) where the number of persons employed by the employer, disregarding any persons employed within the employer's private household, does not exceed 5, or
 - (c) by a private educational authority.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a corporation shall be regarded as the employer of the employees of any other corporation which, with respect to the firstmentioned corporation, is a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

26 Discrimination against commission agents

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex—
- (a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent,
 - (b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the principal engages the person as a commission agent.
- (2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of sex—
- (a) in the terms or conditions which the principal affords him or her as a commission agent,
 - (b) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with his or her position as a commission agent, or
 - (c) by terminating his or her engagement or subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

27 Discrimination against contract workers

It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of sex—

- (a) in the terms on which the principal allows the contract worker to work,
- (b) by not allowing the contract worker to work or continue to work,
- (c) by denying the contract worker access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit associated with the work in respect of which the contract with his or her employer is made, or
- (d) by subjecting the contract worker to any other detriment.

27A Partnerships

- (1) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners, or for any one or more of 6 or more persons proposing to form themselves into a partnership, to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex—
 - (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered a position as a partner in the firm,
 - (b) in determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the person is offered a position as partner in the firm.
- (2) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners to discriminate against a partner on the ground of sex—
 - (a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from membership of the firm,
 - (b) by expelling the partner from the firm, or
 - (c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.

27B Discrimination by local government councillors

It is unlawful for any member or members of a council of a local government area when acting (whether alone or together) in the course of his, her or their official functions to discriminate against another member of the council on the ground of sex.

28 Industrial organisations

- (1) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of sex—
 - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.
- (2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of sex—
 - (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the industrial organisation,
 - (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
 - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

29 Qualifying bodies

It is unlawful for an authority or a body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex—

- (a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification,
- (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to confer the authorisation or qualification or to renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
- (c) by withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions upon which it is held.

30 Employment agencies

It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex—

- (a) by refusing to provide the person with any of its services,
- (b) in the terms on which it offers to provide the person with any of its services, or
- (c) in the manner in which it provides the person with any of its services.

31 Exception—genuine occupational qualification

- (1) Nothing in this Division renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of the person's sex where being a person of a particular sex is a genuine occupational qualification for the job.
- (2) Being a person of a particular sex is a genuine occupational qualification for a job where any one or more of the following requirements is satisfied—
 - (a) the essential nature of the job calls for a person of that sex for reasons of physiognomy or physique, excluding physical strength or stamina, or, in dramatic performances or other entertainment, for reasons of authenticity, so that the essential nature of the job would be materially different if carried out by a person of the opposite sex, or
 - (b) the job needs to be held by a person of that sex to preserve decency or privacy because it involves the fitting of a person's clothing, or
 - (c) the job requires the holder of the job to enter a lavatory ordinarily used by persons of that sex while it is used by persons of that sex, or
 - (d) the job requires the holder of the job to search persons of that sex, or
 - (e) the job requires the holder of the job to enter areas ordinarily used by persons of

- that sex while in a state of undress or while bathing or showering, or
- (f) the job requires the holder of the job to live in premises provided by the employer and—
 - (i) those premises are not equipped with separate sleeping accommodation for persons of the opposite sex and sanitary facilities which could be used by persons of the opposite sex in privacy from persons of that sex, and
 - (ii) it is not reasonable to expect the employer either to equip those premises with accommodation and facilities of that kind or to provide other premises for persons of the opposite sex, or
 - (g) the job requires the holder of the job to keep persons of that sex in custody in a prison or other institution or in part of a prison or other institution, or
 - (h) the holder of the job provides persons of that sex with personal services relating to their welfare or education, or similar personal services, and they or a substantial number of them might reasonably object to its being carried out by a person of the opposite sex, or
 - (i) the job is one of two to be held by a married couple.
- (3) Being a person of a particular sex is a genuine occupational qualification for a prescribed job or a job of a prescribed class or description.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (2) limits the Governor's power to make a regulation for the purposes of subsection (3).

Division 3 Discrimination in other areas

31A Education

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex—
- (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for admission as a student, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person as a student.
- (2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student on the ground of sex—
- (a) by denying the student access, or limiting the student's access, to any benefit provided by the educational authority, or
 - (b) by expelling the student or subjecting the student to any other detriment.

- (3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of—
- (a) a private educational authority, or
 - (b) a refusal or failure to accept a person's application for admission as a student by an educational authority where the educational authority administers a school, college, university or other institution which is conducted solely for students of the opposite sex to the sex of the applicant.
- (4) The admission into any such school, college, university or other institution of a transgender person as referred to in Part 3A who identifies with the sex of persons for whom the school, college, university or other institution is conducted does not, for the purposes of subsection (3) (b), affect its status as a school, college, university or other institution conducted solely for students of the same sex.

32 (Repealed)

33 Provision of goods and services

- (1) It is unlawful for a person who provides, for payment or not, goods or services to discriminate against another person on the ground of sex—
- (a) by refusing to provide the person with those goods or services, or
 - (b) in the terms on which he or she provides the person with those goods or services.
- (2) Where a skill is commonly exercised in a different way in relation to men and women, a person does not contravene subsection (1) by exercising the skill in relation to men only, or women only, in accordance with the person's normal practice.

34 Accommodation

- (1) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against another person on the ground of sex—
- (a) by refusing the person's application for accommodation,
 - (b) in the terms on which he or she offers the person accommodation, or
 - (c) by deferring the person's application for accommodation or according to the person a lower order of precedence in any list of applicants for that accommodation.
- (2) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against another person on the ground of sex—
- (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit associated with accommodation occupied by the person, or
 - (b) by evicting the person or subjecting the person to any other detriment.

- (3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of the provision of accommodation in premises if—
- (a) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation or a near relative of that person resides, and intends to continue to reside, on those premises, and
 - (b) the accommodation provided in those premises is for no more than 6 persons.

34A Registered clubs

- (1) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the registered club on the ground of sex—
- (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.
- (2) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is a member of a registered club on the ground of sex—
- (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the registered club,
 - (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
 - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) renders unlawful discrimination by a registered club against a person on the ground of sex if membership of the registered club is available to persons of the opposite sex only.
- (3A) The admission into any such registered club of a transgender person as referred to in Part 3A who identifies with the sex of persons for whom membership of the registered club is available does not, for the purposes of subsection (3), affect its status as a registered club the membership of which is available to persons of the same sex only.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (1) (paragraph (a) excepted) or subsection (2) renders unlawful discrimination by a registered club against a person on the ground of sex if the discrimination occurs in relation to the use or enjoyment of any benefit provided by the registered club where—
- (a) it is not practicable for the benefit to be used or enjoyed—
 - (i) simultaneously, or
 - (ii) to the same extent,
- by both men and women, and

- (b) either—
 - (i) the same, or an equivalent, benefit is provided for the use of men and women separately from each other, or
 - (ii) men and women are each entitled to a fair and reasonable proportion of the use and enjoyment of the benefit.
- (5) In determining any matter relating to the application of subsection (4), regard shall be had to—
 - (a) the purposes for which the registered club is established,
 - (b) the membership of the registered club, including any class or type of membership,
 - (c) the nature of the benefits provided by the registered club,
 - (d) the opportunities for the use and enjoyment of those benefits by men and women, and
 - (e) any other relevant circumstance.

Division 4 Exceptions to Part 3

35 Pregnancy, childbirth and breastfeeding

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination by a person against a man on the ground of sex by reason only of the fact that that person grants to a woman rights or privileges in connection with pregnancy, childbirth or breastfeeding.

36 Superannuation

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in the terms or conditions appertaining to a superannuation or provident fund or scheme, where—

- (a) the terms or conditions—
 - (i) are based upon actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable to rely, and
 - (ii) are reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, or
- (b) in a case where no such actuarial or statistical data is available and cannot reasonably be obtained—the terms or conditions are reasonable having regard to any other relevant factors, and the source on which any data referred to in paragraph (a) is based is disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires, and any other relevant factors to which regard has been had as referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) are disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires.

37 Insurance etc

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex with respect to the terms on which an annuity, a life assurance policy, an accident or insurance policy or other policy of insurance is offered or may be obtained where—

- (a) the discrimination is—
 - (i) based upon actuarial or statistical data from a source on which it is reasonable to rely, and
 - (ii) reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, and
- (b) the source on which the actuarial or statistical data referred to in paragraph (a) (i) is based is disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires.

38 Sport

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful the exclusion of persons of the one sex from participation in any sporting activity not being the coaching of persons engaged in any sporting activity, the administration of any sporting activity or any prescribed sporting activity.

Part 3A Discrimination on transgender grounds

Division 1 General

38A Interpretation

A reference in this Part to a person being transgender or a transgender person is a reference to a person, whether or not the person is a recognised transgender person—

- (a) who identifies as a member of the opposite sex by living, or seeking to live, as a member of the opposite sex, or
- (b) who has identified as a member of the opposite sex by living as a member of the opposite sex, or
- (c) who, being of indeterminate sex, identifies as a member of a particular sex by living as a member of that sex, and includes a reference to the person being thought of as a transgender person, whether the person is, or was, in fact a transgender person.

38B What constitutes discrimination on transgender grounds

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on transgender grounds if the perpetrator—
 - (a) on the ground of the aggrieved person being transgender or a relative or associate of the aggrieved person being transgender, treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances (or in circumstances which are not materially different) the perpetrator treats or would treat a person who he or she did not think was a transgender person or who does not have such a relative or associate who he or she did not think was a transgender person, or

(b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons who are not transgender persons, or who do not have a relative or associate who is a transgender person, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply, or

(c) treats the aggrieved person, being a recognised transgender person, as being of the person's former sex or requires the aggrieved person, being a recognised transgender person, to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons of the person's former sex comply or are able to comply, being a requirement or condition which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person being transgender if it is done on the ground of the person being transgender, a characteristic that appertains generally to transgender persons or a characteristic that is generally imputed to transgender persons.

38C Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on transgender grounds—
- (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment, or
 - (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
 - (c) in the terms on which employment is offered.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on transgender grounds—
- (a) in the terms or conditions of employment that are afforded to the employee, or
 - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits

associated with employment, or

(c) by dismissing the employee or subjecting the employee to any other detriment.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment—

(a) for the purposes of a private household, or

(b) if the number of persons employed by the employer (disregarding any persons employed within the employer's private household) does not exceed 5, or

(c) by a private educational authority.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a corporation is regarded as the employer of the employees of any other corporation which, with respect to the firstmentioned corporation, is a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

benefit associated with the work performed by the contract worker, or

(d) by subjecting the contract worker to any other detriment.

38F Partnerships

(1) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners, or for any one or more of 6 or more persons proposing to form themselves into a partnership, to discriminate against a person on transgender grounds—

(a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or

(b) in determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or

(c) in the terms on which the person is offered a position as partner in the firm.

(2) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners to discriminate against a partner on transgender grounds—

(a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from membership of the firm, or

(b) by expelling the partner from the firm, or

(c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.

38G Discrimination by local government councillors

It is unlawful for any member or members of a council of a local government area when acting (whether alone or together) in the course of the member's or members' official functions to discriminate against another member of the council on transgender grounds.

38H Industrial organisations

(1) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate on transgender grounds against a person who is not a member of the industrial organisation—

(a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or

(b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.

(2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a member of the organisation on transgender grounds—

(a) by denying the member access, or limiting the member's access, to any benefit provided by the organisation, or

(b) by depriving the member of membership or varying the terms of his or her membership, or

(c) by subjecting the member to any other detriment.

38I Qualifying bodies

It is unlawful for an authority or a body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on transgender grounds—

- (a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
- (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to confer the authorisation or qualification or to renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
- (c) by withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions on which it is held.

38J Employment agencies

It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person on transgender grounds—

- (a) by refusing to provide the person with any of its services, or
- (b) in the terms on which it offers to provide the person with any of its services, or
- (c) in the manner in which it provides the person with any of its services.

38K Education

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person on transgender grounds—
 - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for admission as a student, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person as a student.
- (2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student on transgender grounds—
 - (a) by denying the student access, or limiting the student's access, to any benefit provided by the educational authority, or
 - (b) by expelling the student or subjecting the student to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of a private educational authority.

38L (Repealed)

38M Provision of goods and services

It is unlawful for a person who provides (whether or not for payment) goods or services to discriminate against another person on transgender grounds—

- (a) by refusing to provide the person with those goods or services, or
- (b) in the terms on which the other person is provided with those goods or services.

38N Accommodation

(1) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against another person on transgender grounds—

- (a) by refusing the person's application for accommodation, or
- (b) in the terms on which he or she offers the person accommodation, or
- (c) by deferring the person's application for accommodation or giving the person a lower order of precedence in any list of applicants for that accommodation.

(2) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against another person on transgender grounds—

- (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit associated with accommodation occupied by the person, or
- (b) by evicting the person or subjecting the person to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of the provision of accommodation in premises if—

- (a) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation or a near relative of that person resides, and intends to continue to reside, in those premises, and
- (b) the accommodation provided in those premises is for no more than 6 persons.

38O Registered clubs

(1) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate on transgender grounds against a person who is not a member of the registered club—

- (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership of the club, or
- (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership of the club.

(2) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate on transgender grounds against a member of the registered club—

- (a) by denying the member access, or limiting the members' access, to any benefit provided by the club, or
- (b) by depriving the member of membership or varying the terms of his or her membership, or
- (c) by subjecting the member to any other detriment.

Division 4 Exceptions to Part 3A

38P Sport

- (1) Nothing in this Part renders unlawful the exclusion of a transgender person from participation in any sporting activity for members of the sex with which the transgender person identifies.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply—
 - (a) to the coaching of persons engaged in any sporting activity, or
 - (b) to the administration of any sporting activity, or
 - (c) to any sporting activity prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

38Q Superannuation

A person does not discriminate against a transgender person (whether or not a recognised transgender person) on transgender grounds if, in the administration of a superannuation or provident fund or scheme, the other person treats the transgender person as being of the opposite sex to the sex with which the transgender person identifies.

Division 5 Transgender vilification

38R Definition

In this Division—

public act includes—

- (a) any form of communication to the public, including speaking, writing, printing, displaying notices, broadcasting, telecasting, screening and playing of tapes or other recorded material, or
- (b) any conduct (not being a form of communication referred to in paragraph (a)) observable by the public, including actions and gestures and the wearing or display of clothing, signs, flags, emblems and insignia, or

- (c) the distribution or dissemination of any matter to the public with knowledge that the matter promotes or expresses hatred towards, serious contempt for, or severe ridicule of—
 - (i) a person on the ground that the person is a transgender person, or
 - (ii) a group of persons on the ground that the members of the group are transgender persons.

38S Transgender vilification unlawful

- (1) It is unlawful for a person, by a public act, to incite hatred towards, serious contempt for, or severe ridicule of—
 - (a) a person on the ground that the person is a transgender person, or
 - (b) a group of persons on the ground that the members of the group are transgender persons.
- (2) Nothing in this section renders unlawful—
 - (a) a fair report of a public act referred to in subsection (1), or

 - (c) a public act, done reasonably and in good faith, for academic, artistic, scientific, research or religious discussion or instruction purposes or for other purposes in the public interest, including discussion or debate about and expositions of any act or matter.

38T (Repealed)

Part 4 Discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic status

Division 1 General

39 What constitutes discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic status

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of marital or domestic status if the perpetrator—
 - (a) on the ground of the aggrieved person's marital or domestic status or the marital or domestic status of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person of a different marital or domestic status or who does not have such a relative or associate of that marital or domestic status, or

(b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons of a different marital or domestic status, or who do not have a relative or associate of that marital or domestic status, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person's marital or domestic status if it is done on the ground of the person's marital or domestic status, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of that marital or domestic status or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that marital or domestic status.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the circumstances in which a person treats or would treat another person of a different marital or domestic status are not materially different by reason of the fact that the persons between whom the discrimination occurs are not of the same sex.

(3) (Repealed)

Division 2 Discrimination in work

40 Discrimination against applicants and employees

(1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of marital or domestic status—

 - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.
- (2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of marital or domestic status—
 - (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the industrial organisation,
 - (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
 - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

44 Qualifying bodies

It is unlawful for an authority or a body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on the ground of marital or domestic status—

- (a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification,
- (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to confer the authorisation or qualification or to renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
- (c) by withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions upon which it is held.

45 Employment agencies

It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person on the ground of marital or domestic status—

- (a) by refusing to provide the person with any of its services,
- (b) in the terms on which it offers to provide the person with any of its services, or
- (c) in the manner in which it provides the person with any of its services.

46 Exception—employment of married couple

Nothing in this Division renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of marital or domestic status in relation to a job which is one of two to be held by a married couple.

Division 3 Discrimination in other areas

46A Education

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person on the ground of marital or domestic status—
 - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for admission as a student, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person as a student.
- (2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student on the ground of marital or domestic status—
 - (a) by denying the student access, or limiting the student's access, to any benefit provided by the educational authority, or

(b) by expelling the student or subjecting the student to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of a private educational authority.

47 Provision of goods and services

It is unlawful for a person who provides, for payment or not, goods or services to discriminate against a person on the ground of marital or domestic status—

(a) by refusing to provide the person with those goods or services, or

(b) in the terms on which he or she provides the person with those goods or services.

48 Accommodation

(1) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against another person on the ground of marital or domestic status—

(a) by refusing the person's application for accommodation,

(b) in the terms on which he or she offers the person accommodation, or

(c) by deferring the person's application for accommodation or according the person a lower order of precedence in any list of applicants for that accommodation.

(2) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against another person on the ground of marital or domestic status—

(a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit associated with accommodation occupied by the person, or

(b) by evicting the person or subjecting the person to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of the provision of accommodation in premises if—

(a) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation or a near relative of that person resides, and intends to continue to reside, on those premises, and

(b) the accommodation provided in those premises is for no more than 6 persons.

48A Registered clubs

(1) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the registered club on the ground of marital or domestic status—

(a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or

(b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.

- (2) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is a member of the registered club on the ground of marital or domestic status—
- (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the registered club,
 - (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
 - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

Division 4 Exception to Part 4

49 Superannuation

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic status in the terms or conditions appertaining to a superannuation or provident fund or scheme, where—

- (a) the terms or conditions—
 - (i) are based upon actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable to rely, and
 - (ii) are reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, or
- (b) in a case where no such actuarial or statistical data is available and cannot reasonably be obtained—the terms or conditions are reasonable having regard to any other relevant factors,

and the source on which any data referred to in paragraph (a) is based is disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires, and any other relevant factors to which regard has been had as referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) are disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires.

Part 4A Discrimination on the ground of disability

Division 1 General

49A Disability includes past, future and presumed disability

A reference in this Part to a person's disability is a reference to a disability—

- (a) that a person has, or
- (b) that a person is thought to have (whether or not the person in fact has the disability), or
- (c) that a person had in the past, or is thought to have had in the past (whether or not the person in fact had the disability), or

- (d) that a person will have in the future, or that it is thought a person will have in the future (whether or not the person in fact will have the disability).

49B What constitutes discrimination on the ground of disability

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of disability if the perpetrator—
- (a) on the ground of the aggrieved person's disability or the disability of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person who does not have that disability or who does not have such a relative or associate who has that disability, or
 - (b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons who do not have that disability, or who do not have a relative or associate who has that disability, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person's disability if it is done on the ground of the person's disability, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons who have that disability or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons who have that disability.
- (3) For the purposes of, but without limiting, this section, the fact that a person who has a disability of or relating to vision, hearing or mobility has, or may be accompanied by, a dog which assists the person in respect of that disability, is taken to be a characteristic that appertains generally to persons who have that disability, but nothing in this Act affects the liability of any such person for any injury, loss or damage caused by the dog.
- (3A) For the purposes of, but without limiting, this section, the fact that a person who has a disability—
- (a) is accompanied by, or possesses, a palliative or therapeutic device, or other mechanical equipment, that provides assistance to the person to alleviate the effect of the disability, or
 - (b) is accompanied by an interpreter, a reader, an assistant, or a carer, who provides interpretive, reading or other services to the person because of the disability, or because of any matter related to that fact,
- is taken to be a characteristic that appertains generally to persons who have that disability.

- (4) A reference in this section to persons who have a disability (“the particular disability”) is a reference to persons who have the particular disability or who have a disability that is substantially the same as the particular disability.

49C What constitutes unjustifiable hardship

In determining what constitutes unjustifiable hardship for the purposes of this Part, all relevant circumstances of the particular case are to be taken into account including—

- (a) the nature of the benefit or detriment likely to accrue or be suffered by any persons concerned, and
- (b) the effect of the disability of a person concerned, and
- (c) the financial circumstances and the estimated amount of expenditure required to be made by the person claiming unjustifiable hardship.

49D Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—
 - (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment, or
 - (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of disability—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions of employment which the employer affords the employee, or
 - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee’s access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or
 - (c) by dismissing the employee, or
 - (d) by subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment—
 - (a) for the purposes of a private household, or
 - (b) where the number of persons employed by the employer, disregarding any persons employed within the employer's private household, does not exceed 5, or

(c) by a private educational authority.

(4) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by an employer against a person on the ground of the person's disability if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the particular employment and, if the person is already employed by the employer, the person's performance as an employee, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her disability—

(a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the particular employment, or

(b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require services or facilities that are not required by persons without that disability and the provision of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the employer.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a corporation is taken to be the employer of the employees of any other corporation which, with respect to the firstmentioned corporation, is a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

49E Discrimination against commission agents

(1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—

(a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or

(b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or

(c) in the terms on which the principal engages the person as a commission agent.

(2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of disability—

(a) in the terms or conditions which the principal affords him or her as a commission agent, or

(b) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with his or her position as a commission agent, or

(c) by terminating his or her engagement, or

(d) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by a principal against a person on the ground of the person's disability if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to engagement as a commission agent and, if the person is already engaged by the principal as a commission agent, the person's performance as a commission agent, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her disability—
- (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a commission agent, or
 - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require services or facilities that are not required by persons without that disability and the provision of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the principal.

49F Discrimination against contract workers

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of disability—
- (a) in the terms on which the principal allows him or her to work, or
 - (b) by not allowing him or her to work or continue to work, or
 - (c) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit associated with the work in respect of which the contract with his or her employer is made, or
 - (d) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) renders unlawful discrimination by a principal against a contract worker on the ground of the contract worker's disability if taking into account the contract worker's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to working as a contract worker and, if the person is already working for the principal as a contract worker, the contract worker's performance as a contract worker, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the contract worker because of his or her disability—
- (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a contract worker, or
 - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require services or facilities that are not required by persons without that disability and the provision of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the principal.

49G Partnerships

- (1) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners, or for any one or more of 6 or more persons proposing to form themselves into a partnership, to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—

- (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
 - (b) in determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the person is offered a position as partner in the firm.
- (2) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners to discriminate against a partner on the ground of disability—
- (a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from membership of the firm, or
 - (b) by expelling the partner from the firm, or
 - (c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (b) renders unlawful discrimination by a person against another person on the ground of the other person's disability if taking into account the other person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the proposed partnership or the partnership and, if the other person is already a partner, the other person's performance as a partner, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the other person because of his or her disability—
- (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a partner in the proposed partnership or the partnership, or
 - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require services or facilities that are not required by persons without that disability and the provision of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the partnership.

49H Discrimination by local government councillors

It is unlawful for any member or members of a council of a local government area when acting (whether alone or together) in the course of his, her or their official functions to discriminate against another member of the council on the ground of disability.

49I Industrial organisations

- (1) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of disability—
- (a) by refusing or failing to accept his or her application for membership, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit him or her to membership.
- (2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of disability—
- (a) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit provided by the industrial organisation, or

(b) by depriving him or her of membership or varying the terms of his or her membership, or

(c) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot be provided in that manner by the industrial organisation without unjustifiable hardship to it.

49J Qualifying bodies

(1) It is unlawful for an authority or body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—

(a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or

(b) in the terms on which it is prepared to confer the authorisation or qualification or to renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or

(c) by withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions upon which it is held.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) (a) or (c) renders unlawful discrimination by an authority or body against a person on the ground of the person's disability if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the particular profession, trade or occupation and, if the person is already a member of the profession, carrying on the trade or engaged in the occupation, the person's performance in the profession trade or occupation, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her disability would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the profession, trade or occupation.

49K Employment agencies

(1) It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—

(a) by refusing to provide him or her with any of its services, or

(b) in the terms on which it offers to provide him or her with any of its services, or

(c) in the manner in which it provides him or her with any of its services.

- (2) Nothing in this section renders unlawful discrimination by an employment agency against a person on the ground of the person's disability if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the work sought, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her disability would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the work sought.

49L Education

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—
 - (a) by refusing or failing to accept his or her application for admission as a student, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit him or her as a student.
- (2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student on the ground of disability—
 - (a) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit provided by the educational authority, or
 - (b) by expelling him or her, or
 - (c) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of—
 - (a) a private educational authority, or
 - (b) a refusal or failure to accept a person's application for admission as a student by an educational authority where the educational authority administers a school, college, university or other institution which is conducted solely for students who have a disability which is not the same as that of the applicant.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (1) (a) or (2) (b) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires services or facilities that are not required by students who do not have a disability and the provision of which would impose unjustifiable hardship on the educational authority.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot without unjustifiable hardship be so provided by the educational authority.

49LA (Repealed)

49M Provision of goods and services

- (1) It is unlawful for a person who provides, for payment or not, goods or services to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—
 - (a) by refusing to provide the person with those goods or services, or
 - (b) in the terms on which he or she provides the person with those goods or services.
- (2) Nothing in this section renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person's disability if the provision of the goods or services would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person who provides the goods or services.

49N Accommodation

- (1) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—
 - (a) by refusing the person's application for accommodation, or
 - (b) in the terms on which the person is offered accommodation, or
 - (c) by deferring the person's application for accommodation or according the person a lower order of precedence in any list of applicants for that accommodation.
- (2) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability—
 - (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit associated with accommodation occupied by the person, or
 - (b) by evicting the person, or
 - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of the provision of accommodation in premises if—
 - (a) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation or a near relative of that person resides, and intends to continue to reside, on those premises, and
 - (b) the accommodation provided in those premises is for no more than 6 persons.
- (4) Nothing in this section applies to the provision of accommodation in premises where special services or facilities would be required by the person with a disability and the provision of such special services or facilities would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person providing or proposing to provide the accommodation whether as principal or agent.

- (5) Nothing in this section applies to the provision of accommodation to persons who have a particular disability by a charitable body or other body that does not distribute its profits to members.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot without unjustifiable hardship be so provided by the person who provides the accommodation.

490 Registered clubs

- (1) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the registered club on the ground of disability—
 - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.
- (2) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is a member of the registered club on the ground of disability—
 - (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the registered club, or
 - (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
 - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) applies to or in respect of a registered club if the principal object of the registered club is to provide benefits only for persons who have a particular disability specified in the principal object.
- (4) In determining whether the principal object of a registered club is as referred to in subsection (3), regard is to be had to—
 - (a) the essential character of the registered club, and
 - (b) the extent to which the affairs of the registered club are so conducted that the persons primarily enjoying the benefits of membership are persons who have the particular disability specified in the principal object, and
 - (c) any other relevant circumstance.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot without unjustifiable hardship be so provided by the registered club.

49P Public health

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability if the disability concerned is an infectious disease and the discrimination is reasonably necessary to protect public health.

49PA Persons addicted to prohibited drugs

- (1) This section applies to the provisions of Division 2 (Discrimination in work), other than sections 49H, 49I and 49J.
- (2) Nothing in those provisions renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability if—
 - (a) the disability relates to the person's addiction to a prohibited drug, and
 - (b) the person is actually addicted to a prohibited drug at the time of the discrimination.
- (3) However, nothing in this section makes it lawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person having hepatitis C, HIV infection or any medical condition other than addiction to a prohibited drug.
- (4) In this section—

prohibited drug means a prohibited drug within the meaning of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985, but does not include—

- (a) methadone or buprenorphine, or
- (b) any other drug that is declared by the regulations not to be a prohibited drug for the purposes of this section.

49Q Superannuation, insurance

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability in the terms or conditions appertaining to a superannuation or provident fund or scheme or with respect to the terms on which an annuity, a life assurance policy, an accident or insurance policy or other policy of insurance is offered or may be obtained, where—

- (a) the terms or conditions—
 - (i) are based upon actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable to rely, and
 - (ii) are reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, or
- (b) in a case where no such actuarial or statistical data is available and cannot reasonably be obtained—the terms or conditions are reasonable having regard to any other relevant factors, and the source on which any data referred to in paragraph (a) is based is disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires, and any other relevant factors to which regard has been had as referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) are disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires.

49R Sport

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability, being discrimination consisting of the exclusion of the person from a sporting activity—

- (a) if the person is not reasonably capable of performing the actions reasonably required in relation to the sporting activity, or
- (b) if the persons who participate or are to participate in the sporting activity are selected by a method which is reasonable on the basis of their skills and abilities relevant to the sporting activity and relative to each other, or
- (c) if the sporting activity is conducted only for persons who have a particular disability and the person does not have that disability.

Part 4B Discrimination on the ground of a person’s responsibilities as a carer

Division 1 General

49S Meaning of “responsibilities as a carer”

- (1) A reference in this Part to a person’s responsibilities as a carer is a reference to the person’s responsibilities to care for or support—
 - (a) any child or step-child of the person (whether or not under the age of 18 years) who is—
 - (i) wholly or substantially dependent on the person, or
 - (ii) in need of care or support, or
 - (b) any child or adult who is in need of care or support and—
 - (i) of whom the person is guardian, or
 - (ii) for whom the person has parental responsibility under a law of the Commonwealth or this State, or
 - (iii) in relation to whom the person is an authorised carer within the meaning of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, or

- (c) any immediate family member of the person who is in need of care or support, being one of the following—
- (i) a spouse or former spouse of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person,
 - (ii) a grandchild or step-grandchild of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person,
 - (iii) a parent or step-parent of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person,
 - (iv) a grandparent or step-grandparent of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person,
 - (v) a brother or sister, or step-brother or sister, of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person.

(2) A reference in this Part to a person's responsibilities is a reference to responsibilities—

- (a) that the person has, or
- (b) that the person is thought to have (whether or not the person in fact has the responsibilities), or
- (c) that the person had in the past, or is thought to have had in the past (whether or not the person in fact had the responsibilities), or
- (d) that the person will have in the future, or that it is thought a person will have in the future (whether or not the person in fact will have the responsibilities).

(3) In this section—

spouse of a person means—

- (a) a person to whom the person is legally married (including a husband or wife of the person), or
- (b) the de facto partner of a person.

Note—

"De facto partner" is defined in section 21C of the Interpretation Act 1987.

step-child or step-grandchild of a person means—

- (a) a child or grandchild of the spouse or former spouse of the person, or
- (b) a step-child or step-grandchild of the spouse or former spouse of the person

(being a child or grandchild of the spouse's former spouse).

- (4) A reference in this section to a child, step-child, grandchild, step-grandchild, parent, step-parent, grandparent, step-grandparent, brother, sister, step-brother or step-sister of a person or of a spouse or former spouse of a person—
- (a) includes a reference to persons whose relationship arises because of adoption, guardianship or fostering or because of the allocation of parental responsibility under a law of the Commonwealth or this State, and
 - (b) includes a reference to persons whose relationship arises because of the birth of a child whose parents are not married to each other and are not parties to a de facto relationship with each other, and
 - (c) in relation a reference to a brother or sister, includes a reference to a half-brother or half-sister.

49T What constitutes discrimination on the ground of a person's responsibilities as a carer

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of the aggrieved person's responsibilities as a carer if the perpetrator—
- (a) on the ground of the aggrieved person having responsibilities as a carer, treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person who does not have those responsibilities, or
 - (b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons who do not have such responsibilities comply or are able to comply, being a requirement that is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person's responsibilities as a carer if it is done on the ground of the person having responsibilities as a carer, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons who have responsibilities as a carer or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons who have responsibilities as a carer.

49U What constitutes unjustifiable hardship

In determining what constitutes unjustifiable hardship for the purposes of this Part, all relevant circumstances of the particular case are to be taken into account, including—

- (a) the nature of the benefit or detriment likely to accrue to or be suffered by any persons concerned, and

- (b) the effect of the relevant responsibilities as a carer of a person concerned, and
- (c) the financial circumstances of and the estimated amount of expenditure required to be made by the person claiming unjustifiable hardship.

49V Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment, or
 - (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of the employee's responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions of employment that the employer affords the employee, or
 - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or
 - (c) by dismissing the employee, or
 - (d) by subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment—
 - (a) for the purposes of a private household, or
 - (b) if the number of persons employed by the employer, disregarding any persons employed within the employer's private household, does not exceed 5.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by an employer against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the particular employment and, if the person is already employed by the employer, the person's performance as an employee, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the particular employment, or

(b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require arrangements that are not required by persons without those responsibilities as a carer and the making of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the employer.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a corporation is regarded as the employer of the employees of any other corporation which, with respect to the firstmentioned corporation, is a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

49W Discrimination against commission agents

(1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer—

(a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or

(b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or

(c) in the terms on which the principal engages the person as a commission agent.

(2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer—

(a) in the terms or conditions that the principal affords him or her as a commission agent, or

(b) by denying the commission agent access, or limiting the commission agent's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with his or her position as a commission agent, or

(c) by terminating the commission agent's engagement, or

(d) by subjecting the commission agent to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by a principal against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to engagement as a commission agent and, if the person is already engaged by the principal as a commission agent, the person's performance as a commission agent, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her responsibilities as a carer—

(a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a commission agent, or

(b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require arrangements that are not required by persons without those responsibilities as a carer and the making of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the principal.

49X Discrimination against contract workers

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) in the terms on which the principal allows the contract worker to work, or
 - (b) by not allowing the contract worker to work or continue to work, or
 - (c) by denying the contract worker access, or limiting the contract worker's access, to any benefit associated with the work in respect of which the contract with his or her employer is made, or
 - (d) by subjecting the contract worker to any other detriment.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) renders unlawful discrimination by a principal against a contract worker on the ground of the contract worker's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account the contract worker's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to working as a contract worker and, if the contract worker is already working for the principal as a contract worker, the worker's performance as a contract worker, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the contract worker because of his or her responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a contract worker, or
 - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require arrangements that are not required by persons without those responsibilities as a carer and the making of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the principal.

49Y Partnerships

- (1) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners, or for any one or more of 6 or more persons proposing to form themselves into a partnership, to discriminate against a person on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
 - (b) in determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
 - (c) in the terms on which the person is offered a position as partner in the firm.
- (2) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners to discriminate against a partner on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from membership of the firm, or

- (b) by expelling the partner from the firm, or
- (c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (b) renders unlawful discrimination by one person against another person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the proposed partnership or the partnership and, if the other person is already a partner, the other person's performance as a partner, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the other person because of his or her responsibilities as a carer—

- (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a partner in the proposed partnership or the partnership, or
- (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require arrangements that are not required by persons without those responsibilities as a carer and the making of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the other partners.

49Z Discrimination by local government councillors

It is unlawful for any member or members of a council of a local government area when acting (whether alone or together) in the course of his, her or their official functions to discriminate against another member of the council on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer.

49ZA Industrial organisations

(1) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer—

- (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
- (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.

(2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer—

- (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the organisation, or
- (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
- (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer where, because of the person's responsibilities as a carer, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot be provided in that manner by the industrial organisation without unjustifiable hardship to it.

49ZB Qualifying bodies

- (1) It is unlawful for an authority or a body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to confer the authorisation or qualification or to renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
 - (c) by withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions on which it is held.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) (a) or (c) renders unlawful discrimination by an authority or body against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account—
 - (a) the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the particular profession, trade or occupation, and
 - (b) if the person is already a member of the profession, carrying on the trade or engaged in the occupation, the person's performance in the profession, trade or occupation, and
 - (c) all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account,the person because of his or her responsibilities as a carer would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the profession, trade or occupation.

49ZC Employment agencies

- (1) It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer—
 - (a) by refusing to provide the person with any of its services, or
 - (b) in the terms on which it offers to provide the person with any of its services, or
 - (c) in the manner in which it provides the person with any of its services.
- (2) Nothing in this section renders unlawful discrimination by an employment agency against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer if, taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the particular work sought, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her responsibilities as a carer would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the work sought.

49ZD, 49ZE (Repealed)

Part 4C Discrimination on the ground of homosexuality

Division 1 General

49ZF Interpretation

A reference in this Part to a person's homosexuality includes a reference to the person's being thought to be a homosexual person, whether he or she is in fact a homosexual person or not.

49ZG What constitutes discrimination on the ground of homosexuality

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of homosexuality if the perpetrator—
 - (a) on the ground of the aggrieved person's homosexuality or the homosexuality of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person who he or she did not think was a homosexual person or who does not have such a relative or associate who he or she thinks was a homosexual person, or
 - (b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons who are not homosexual persons, or who do not have a relative or associate who is a homosexual person, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person's homosexuality if it is done on the ground of the person's homosexuality, a characteristic that appertains generally to homosexual persons or a characteristic that is generally imputed to homosexual persons.

49ZH Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of homosexuality—

(a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment,

(b) in determining who should be offered employment, or

(c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.

(2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of homosexuality—

(a) in the terms or conditions of employment which the employer affords the employee,

(b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or

(c) by dismissing the employee or subjecting the employee to any other detriment.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment—

(a) for the purposes of a private household,

(b) where the number of persons employed by the employer, disregarding any persons employed within the employer's private household, does not exceed 5, or

(c) by a private educational authority.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a corporation shall be regarded as the employer of the employees of any other corporation which, with respect to the firstmentioned corporation, is a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

49ZI Discrimination against commission agents

(1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of homosexuality—

(a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent,

(b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or

(c) in the terms on which the principal engages the person as a commission agent.

(2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of homosexuality—

- (a) in the terms or conditions which the principal affords him or her as a commission agent,
- (b) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with his or her position as a commission agent, or
- (c) by terminating his or her engagement or subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

49ZJ Discrimination against contract workers

It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of homosexuality—

 - (i) the description of a job offered, or

(ii) the description of a class of persons to whom any offer or invitation is made, by an advertisement, or

(b) as or as part of a classification or heading under which an advertisement which makes any offer or invitation is published, shall be taken to indicate the intention that the offer of the job or other offer or invitation made by the advertisement is made only to persons of that sex, unless the contrary intention appears in the advertisement or in the classification or heading.

(4) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (2), it is a defence for the defendant to prove that he or she believed on reasonable grounds that the publication of the advertisement was not an offence under that subsection.

52 Aiding and abetting etc

It is unlawful for a person to cause, instruct, induce, aid or permit another person to do an act that is unlawful by reason of a provision of this Act.

53 Liability of principals and employers

- (1) An act done by a person as the agent or employee of the person's principal or employer which if done by the principal or employer would be a contravention of this Act is taken to have been done by the principal or employer also unless the principal or employer did not, either before or after the doing of the act, authorise the agent or employee, either expressly or by implication, to do the act.
- (2) If both the principal or employer and the agent or employee who did the act are subject to any liability arising under this Act in respect of the doing of the act, they are jointly and severally subject to that liability.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), a principal or an employer is not liable under that subsection if the principal or employer took all reasonable steps to prevent the agent or employee from contravening the Act.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), the principal or employer of a volunteer or unpaid trainee who contravenes Part 2A is the person or body on whose behalf the volunteer or unpaid trainee provides services.

Part 6 General exceptions to this Act

54 Acts done under statutory authority

- (1) Nothing in this Act renders unlawful anything done by a person if it was necessary for the person to do it in order to comply with a requirement of—
 - (a) any other Act, whether passed before or after this Act,

- (b) any regulation, ordinance, by-law, rule or other instrument made under any such other Act,
 - (c) an order of the Tribunal,
 - (d) an order of any court, not including an order or award of a court or tribunal having power to fix minimum wages and other terms and conditions of employment, or
 - (e) (Repealed)
- (2) (Repealed)
- (3) Except as provided in this section, this Act has effect notwithstanding anything contained in—
- (a)–(c) (Repealed)
 - (c1) the Co-operatives (Adoption of National Law) Act 2012 and the Co-operatives National Law (NSW),
 - (d), (e) (Repealed)
 - (f) the Registered Clubs Act 1976,
- or any instrument of whatever nature made or approved thereunder.

55 Charities

- (1) Nothing in this Act affects—
- (a) a provision of a deed, will or other instrument, whether made before or after the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2), that confers charitable benefits or enables charitable benefits to be conferred on persons of a class identified by reference to any one or more of the grounds of discrimination referred to in this Act, or
 - (b) an act which is done in order to give effect to such a provision.
- (2) In this section, charitable benefits means benefits for purposes that are exclusively charitable according to the law in force in any part of Australia.

56 Religious bodies

- (a) the ordination or appointment of priests, ministers of religion or members of any religious order,
- (b) the training or education of persons seeking ordination or appointment as priests, ministers of religion or members of a religious order,

- (c) the appointment of any other person in any capacity by a body established to propagate religion, or
- (d) any other act or practice of a body established to propagate religion that conforms to the doctrines of that religion or is necessary to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of the adherents of that religion.

57 Voluntary bodies

- (1) In this section, body means a body, the activities of which are carried on otherwise than for profit and which is not established by an Act, but does not include—
 - (a) a co-operative registered under the Co-operatives National Law (NSW) or a society under the Friendly Societies Act 1989, or
 - (b) a friendly society registered under the Friendly Societies Act 1989, or
 - (c) a building society or credit union registered under the Financial Institutions (NSW) Code, or
 - (d) a co-operative housing society registered under the Co-operative Housing and Starr-Bowkett Societies Act 1998, or
 - (e) a registered club.
- (2) Nothing in this Act affects—
 - (a) any rule or practice of a body which restricts admission to membership of that body, or
 - (b) the provision of benefits, facilities or services to members of that body.

58 (Repealed)

59 Establishments providing housing accommodation for aged persons

Nothing in this Act affects any rule or practice of an establishment which provides housing accommodation for aged persons, whether by statute or otherwise, whereby admission to the establishment is restricted to persons of a particular sex, marital or domestic status or race.

59A Adoption services

- (1) Nothing in Part 3A or 4C affects any policy or practice of a faith-based organisation concerning the provision of adoption services under the Adoption Act 2000 or anything done to give effect to any such policy or practice.

Note—

Section 8 (1) (a) of the Adoption Act 2000 requires decision makers to follow the principle that, in making a decision about the adoption of a child, the best interests of the child, both in childhood and in later life, must be the paramount consideration.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to discrimination against any child who is or may be adopted.

(3) In this section, faith-based organisation means an organisation that is established or controlled by a religious organisation and that is accredited under the Adoption Act 2000 to provide adoption services.

60-690

Part 8 The Anti-Discrimination Board

70 Definition

In this Part—

member means a member of the Board and includes the President.

71 Constitution of Board

There shall be an Anti-Discrimination Board.

72 Appointment of members

The Board shall consist of 5 members (including a President) appointed by the Governor.

73 Term of office

Subject to this Part a member shall hold office for such period not exceeding—

(a) in the case of the President—7 years, and

(b) in the case of any other member—3 years, as is specified in the instrument of the member's appointment and is eligible for re-appointment as a member.

74 Eligibility for appointment to Board

A person is not eligible for appointment as a member if the person is—

(a) a member of the Legislative Council or the Legislative Assembly, or

(b) a member of a House of Parliament of another State or the Commonwealth.

75 Vacation of office

A member shall be deemed to have vacated the member's office—

- (a) if the member dies,
- (b) if, being the full-time President, the member engages in any paid employment outside the duties of the member's office,
- (c) if, being the President, the member absents himself or herself from duty for a period exceeding 14 consecutive days except on leave granted by the Minister (which leave the Minister is hereby authorised to grant), unless the member's absence is occasioned by illness or other unavoidable cause,
- (d) if, being a member other than the President, the member is unavailable for duty for a period exceeding 28 days except on leave granted by the Minister (which leave the Minister is hereby authorised to grant) unless the member's unavailability is occasioned by illness or other unavoidable cause,
- (e) if the member is nominated for election as a member of the Legislative Council or the Legislative Assembly or a member of a House of Parliament of another State or of the Commonwealth,
- (f) if the member resigns the member's office by writing under the member's hand addressed to the Governor,
- (f1) if, being the President, the member is removed from office by the Governor pursuant to section 80 (4), or
- (g) if, being a member other than the President, the member is removed from office by the Governor pursuant to section 76.

76 Removal from office

The Governor may for any cause which to the Governor seems sufficient remove any member (other than the President) from office.

77 Filling casual vacancy

On the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of a member, otherwise than by the expiration of the term for which the member was appointed, the Governor may appoint a person to hold that office.

78 Member not subject to Government Sector Employment Act 2013

The Government Sector Employment Act 2013 shall not apply to or in respect of the appointment of a member, and a member shall not be subject to the provisions of that Act during the member's term of office.

79 Remuneration of members other than the President

A member (other than the President) shall be entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him or her.

80 President

- (1) The President may be appointed on a full-time or part-time basis.
- (2) A President appointed on a full-time basis shall devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of his or her office and shall be entitled to be paid—
 - (a) remuneration in accordance with the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975, and
 - (b) such travelling and subsistence allowances as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him or her.
- (3) A President appointed on a part-time basis is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him or her.
- (3A) A person may hold office, and exercise functions, as President (whether full-time or part-time) even though the person also holds, and exercises the functions of, a judicial office or a statutory or other public office.
- (4) The Governor may remove the President from office for incapacity, incompetence or misbehaviour.
- (5) (Repealed)

81 Acting President

- (1) The Minister may appoint an acting President to act during the absence of the President or during a vacancy in the President's office.
- (2) An acting President is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him or her.
- (3) No person shall be concerned to inquire whether or not any occasion has arisen requiring or authorising an acting President to act as President.
- (4) A person appointed an acting President shall, while so acting, be deemed to be the President and shall have the immunities and functions of the President.
- (5) The Minister may, for any cause which to the Minister seems sufficient, remove an acting President from office.

82 Alternate members

- (1) The Minister may at any time appoint a person as an alternate member to act during the absence or illness of a member other than the President.

- (2) An alternate member shall have and may exercise, while acting as a member, the functions of the person for whom he or she is the alternate member.

83 (Repealed)

84 Preservation of rights of President who was previously public servant

- (1) In this section, superannuation scheme means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under any Act.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) and to the terms of appointment, if the President was, immediately before appointment as the President—
- (a) a Public Service employee, or
 - (b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme,
- the President—
- (c) retains any rights accrued or accruing to the President as such an employee or contributor, and
 - (d) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which the President was a contributor immediately before appointment as the President, and
 - (e) is entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity,
- as if the President had continued to be such an employee or contributor during his or her service as the President, and—
- (f) his or her service as the President is taken to be service as an employee for the purpose of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which the President continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred, and
 - (g) the President is taken to be an employee, and the Board is taken to be the President's employer, for the purpose of the superannuation scheme to which the President is entitled to contribute under this subsection.
- (3) A President who, but for this subsection, would be entitled under subsection (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under that scheme shall not be so entitled upon his or her becoming (whether upon his or her appointment as the President or at any later time while he or she holds office as the President) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme, and the provisions of subsection (2) (g) cease to apply to or in respect of him or her and the Board in any case where he or she becomes a contributor to such another superannuation scheme.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not prevent the payment to the President upon his or her ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme of such an amount as would have been payable to him or her if he or she had ceased, by way of resignation, to be an employee for the purposes of that scheme.
- (5) The President shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and another Act.

85 Meetings of the Board

- (1) The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Board and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall, subject to this Act, be as determined by the Board.
- (2) The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which he or she is present.
- (3) Three members shall form a quorum at any meeting of the Board and any duly convened meeting at which a quorum is present shall be competent to transact any business of the Board.
- (4) A decision of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present shall be the decision of the Board.
- (5) The President or member presiding shall have a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, shall have a second or casting vote.

86 Staff

Persons may be employed in the Public Service under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 to enable the President and the Board to exercise their functions.

Note—

Section 59 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 provides that the persons so employed (or whose services the President or the Board makes use of) may be referred to as officers or employees, or members of staff, of the President or Board. Section 47A of the Constitution Act 1902 precludes the President and the Board from employing staff.

Part 9 The functions of the President, the Tribunal and the Board

Division 1 Preliminary

87 Definitions

In this Part—

agent includes Australian legal practitioner.

complainant means a person by whom or on whose behalf a complaint is made.

complaint means a complaint made under section 87A and includes a matter referred to the Tribunal as a complaint under section 95 (2).

representative body means a body (whether incorporated or unincorporated) that represents or purports to represent a group of people within New South Wales (whether or not the body is authorised to do so by the group concerned) and that has as its primary object the promotion of the interests or welfare of the group.

representative complaint means a complaint made by one or more persons (which may comprise or include a representative body) on his, her or their own behalf as well as on behalf of another person or persons, and that is treated by the Tribunal as a representative complaint.

respondent means a person about whose conduct a complaint has been made.

vilification complaint means a complaint in respect of a contravention of section 20C, 38S, 49ZT or 49ZXB.

Division 2 Complaints—the functions of the President

Subdivision 1 Lodgment of complaints

87A Persons who may make a complaint

- (1) A complaint alleging that a named person has, or named persons have, contravened a provision of this Act or the regulations (other than a provision for which a specific penalty is imposed) may be made by any of the following—
 - (a) one or more persons—
 - (i) on his, her or their own behalf, or
 - (ii) on his, her or their own behalf as well as on behalf of another person or persons,
 - (b) a parent or guardian of a person who lacks the legal capacity to lodge a complaint (for example, because of age or disability),
 - (c) a representative body on behalf of a named person or persons, subject to section 87C,
 - (d) an agent of any of the persons referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (2) Nothing in this Division prevents a person from making a complaint (not being a representative complaint) even though the conduct in respect of which the complaint is made is also conduct in respect of which a representative complaint has been made.
- (3) In this section, guardian has the same meaning as it has in the Guardianship Act

87B Complaints made on behalf of others

- (1) When a complaint is made on behalf of another person or persons (the other complainants)—
 - (a) the person who makes the complaint is, for the purposes of this Division, taken to have the same rights, obligations and interests with respect to the investigation, conciliation or referral of the complaint as the other complainants, and
 - (b) the complaint is, for the purposes of this Part, taken to have been made by the other complainants on their own behalf.
- (2) In respect of a complaint made wholly or partly on behalf of another person or persons (not including a complaint made on behalf of a person who lacks legal capacity), the President may require—
 - (a) the person or persons on whose behalf the complaint is made to show that the complaint has been made with his, her or their consent, or
 - (b) the person or persons making the complaint to prove that he, she or they have authority to act at all times in the complaint handling process,or both.
- (3) In respect of a complaint made wholly or partly on behalf of another person or persons (including a complaint made on behalf of a person who lacks legal capacity), if at any time the President is not satisfied that the person who made the complaint is acting in the best interests of the person or persons on whose behalf the complaint was made or retains the confidence of that person or those persons, the President may (without limiting section 92)—
 - (a) appoint another person to act in that behalf, or
 - (b) decline the complaint.The regulations may make provision for or with respect to matters that may be taken into consideration by the President in making a decision under this subsection.
- (4) On declining a complaint under subsection (3) (b), the President is to advise the complainant, by notice in writing, of—
 - (a) the declining of the complaint, and
 - (b) the rights of the complainant under section 93A.
- (5) This section does not apply to a complaint made by—
 - (a) an agent, or

(b) a representative body.

87C Complaints by representative bodies

- (1) Before a complaint can be made by a representative body as referred to in section 87A (1) (c), the representative body must satisfy the President—
 - (a) that each person on whose behalf the complaint is made consents to the complaint being made by the body on his or her behalf, and
 - (b) that the body has a sufficient interest in the complaint, that is, that the conduct that constitutes the alleged contravention is a matter of genuine concern to the body because of the way conduct of that nature adversely affects, or has the potential to adversely affect—
 - (i) the interests of the body, or
 - (ii) the interests or welfare of the group of people it represents or purports to represent.
- (2) The President may require a representative body that has made a complaint to nominate a person to appear for the representative body in conciliation proceedings concerning the complaint before the President.

88 Vilification complaints

A vilification complaint cannot be made unless each person on whose behalf the complaint is made—

- (a) has the characteristic that was the ground for the conduct that constitutes the alleged contravention, or
- (b) claims to have that characteristic and there is no sufficient reason to doubt that claim.

88A Assistance by President in making complaints

The President may assist a person to make a complaint.

88B Making of complaints in more than one jurisdiction

- (1) A person is not prevented from making a complaint under this Division only because the person has made a complaint or taken proceedings in relation to the same facts in another jurisdiction, whether in New South Wales or elsewhere.
- (2) The Tribunal must have regard to any such proceedings, and to the outcome of any such proceedings, in dealing with or determining the complaint.

88C Withdrawal of consent for complaint

- (1) If a complaint has been made on a person's behalf with the person's consent, the person may withdraw the consent—

- (a) by notice in writing to the President, at any time before the complaint is declined, terminated or otherwise resolved by the President, or referred to the Tribunal, or
- (b) by notice in writing to the Tribunal, at any time before the complaint is dismissed, or found to be substantiated, by the Tribunal.

- (2) If a consent is withdrawn, the President or the Tribunal may make such arrangements as the President or the Tribunal, as the case requires, thinks appropriate for the further management of the complaint.

Subdivision 2 Making of complaints

89 Form and content of complaints

- (1) A complaint is to be in writing but does not have to take any particular form.
- (2) A complaint, as made, need not demonstrate a prima facie case.

89A Making of complaint

- (1) A complaint is made by lodging it with the President.
- (2) A complaint may be lodged with the President—
 - (a) by delivery by post or hand to an office of the Board, or
 - (b) by facsimile to an office of the Board, or
 - (c) by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

89B Acceptance or declining of complaints by the President

- (1) The President is to determine whether or not a complaint made to the President is to be accepted or declined, in whole or in part.
- (2) The President may decline a complaint if—
 - (a) no part of the conduct complained of could amount to a contravention of a provision of this Act or the regulations, or
 - (b) the whole or part of the conduct complained of occurred more than 12 months before the making of the complaint, or
 - (c) the conduct complained of could amount to a contravention of a provision of this Act for which a specific penalty is imposed, or
 - (d) in the case of a vilification complaint, it fails to satisfy the requirements of section 88, or

- (e) the President is not satisfied that the complaint was made by or on behalf of the complainant named in the complaint.
- (3) The President is to give notice of a decision to accept or decline a complaint to—
 - (a) the person who made the complaint, and
 - (b) if the respondent has been given notice of the complaint, the respondent, so far as is reasonably practicable, within 28 days after the decision is made.
- (4) A decision under this section to decline a complaint in whole or in part is not reviewable by the Tribunal.

89C (Repealed)

Subdivision 3 Investigation and conciliation of complaints

90 President to investigate complaints

- (1) The President is to investigate each complaint that the President has accepted under section 89B.
- (2) The President may conduct a joint investigation into more than one complaint.
- (3) The President must give notice to the parties if a joint investigation is undertaken.

90A Investigation of vilification complaints

- (1) If a complaint to be investigated is a vilification complaint, the President may, by notice in writing, require any person to produce a copy or transcript of any broadcast the subject of the complaint at a specified place.
- (2) A person must not fail to comply with the terms of a notice under this section.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units, in the case of a body corporate, or 10 penalty units in any other case.

90B Supplying information and documents

- (1) The President may, by notice in writing, require a complainant or a person against whom a complaint is made to provide—
 - (a) information (orally or in writing), or
 - (b) documents,

(such information or documents, or both, being referred to in this section as the relevant material) within 28 days after the date of the notice or such other period as the President determines and specifies when making the requirement.

- (2) A person of whom a requirement is made under subsection (1)—
- (a) must provide to the President any of the relevant material that is in the person's possession, custody or control within the period specified in the notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not doing so, and
 - (b) must, if the person has a reasonable excuse for not providing the relevant material, or any part of it, give notice to the President of the excuse and of the relevant material to which the excuse relates within the period specified in the notice under subsection (1).

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units, in the case of a body corporate, or 10 penalty units in any other case.

- (3) The President may, by notice in writing, require a person other than a person referred to in subsection (1) to supply the relevant material within 28 days after the date of the notice or such other period as the President determines and specifies in the notice.
- (4) A person who receives a notice under subsection (3)—
- (a) must provide to the President any of the relevant material specified in the notice that is in the person's possession, custody or control within the period specified in the notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not doing so, and
 - (b) must, if the person has a reasonable excuse for not providing the relevant material, or any part of it, give notice to the President of the excuse and of the relevant material to which the excuse relates within the period specified in the notice under subsection (3).

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units, in the case of a body corporate, or 10 penalty units in any other case.

- (5) If the relevant material is not provided or supplied under subsection (2) or (4), the President may refer the complaint to the Tribunal.

90C Progress reports

The President must, as frequently as is reasonably convenient and, in any event, at periods not exceeding 90 days, give notice to the parties to the complaint of the steps taken for the purpose of the investigation.

91A Resolution of complaint by conciliation

- (1) If the President is of the opinion that a complaint, other than a complaint that the President has declined under section 92, may be resolved by conciliation, the President may, at his or her discretion, at any stage after acceptance of the complaint endeavour to resolve the complaint by conciliation.

- (2) The President may, by notice in writing, require the complainant and the respondent, or either of them, to appear before the President, either separately or together, for the purpose of endeavouring to resolve the complaint by conciliation.
- (3) A person must not fail to comply with the terms of a notice under subsection (2).
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units, in the case of a body corporate, or 10 penalty units in any other case.
- (4) Evidence of anything said or done in the course of conciliation proceedings under this section is not admissible in any subsequent proceedings relating to the complaint.
- (5) A written record is to be prepared by the parties, and signed by or on behalf of each of them, of any agreement reached, following conciliation, with respect to the subject-matter of the complaint if any party requests the making of such a record within 28 days after the agreement is reached.
- (6) If a party to a recorded agreement is of the opinion that any other party has not complied with the terms of the agreement, the party may, not later than 6 months after the date of the agreement, apply to the Tribunal to have the agreement registered.
- (7) The party making the application must serve a copy of the application and the agreement on each other party.
- (8) If the member of the Tribunal who hears the application is satisfied that a party to the agreement has not complied with the terms of the agreement, the member is to register those provisions of the agreement (if any) that, in the exercise of the Tribunal's jurisdiction, could have been the subject of an order in proceedings relating to a complaint.
- (9) The provisions of an agreement that are registered in accordance with this section are taken to be an order of the Tribunal and may be enforced accordingly.

91B No right to representation

A complainant or respondent in conciliation proceedings before the President cannot be represented by any other person, except by leave of the President.

91C Amendment of complaint

- (1) If, at any time after a complaint is made and before the complaint is declined, terminated or otherwise resolved by the President, or referred to the Tribunal—
 - (a) the person making the complaint seeks to amend the complaint, or
 - (b) the President becomes aware of information that could conveniently be dealt with as part of the complaint, the person making the complaint is to be offered the opportunity to amend the complaint.

- (2) An amendment may be made in writing but, if further written material is already in the possession of the President or the Board, the President may treat the written material as if it formed part of the complaint.
- (3) If a complaint is amended at any time, the respondent must be informed in writing by the President of the substance of the amendment and, if the effect of the amendment is to cause the complaint to be made against further or other persons, they must be informed in writing of the complaint as amended.
- (4) Section 89B applies to the amendment of a complaint in the same way as it applies to the making of a complaint.

92 President may decline complaint during investigation

- (1) If at any stage of the President's investigation of a complaint—
 - (a) the President is satisfied that—
 - (i) the complaint, or part of the complaint, is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance, or
 - (ii) the conduct alleged, or part of the conduct alleged, if proven, would not disclose the contravention of a provision of this Act or the regulations, or
 - (iii) the nature of the conduct alleged is such that further action by the President in relation to the complaint, or any part of the complaint, is not warranted, or
 - (iv) another more appropriate remedy has been, is being, or should be, pursued in relation to the complaint or part of the complaint, or
 - (v) the subject-matter of the complaint has been, is being, or should be, dealt with by another person or body, or
 - (vi) the respondent has taken appropriate steps to remedy or redress the conduct, or part of the conduct, complained of, or
 - (vii) it is not in the public interest to take any further action in respect of the complaint or any part of the complaint, or
 - (b) the President is satisfied that for any other reason no further action should be taken in respect of the complaint, or part of the complaint, the President may, by notice in writing addressed to the complainant, decline the complaint or part of the complaint.

- (2) The President, in a notice under this section, is to advise the complainant of—
- (a) the reason for declining the complaint or part of the complaint, and
 - (b) the rights of the complainant under sections 93A and 96.

92A Settlement or resolution of complaint

- (1) If at any stage of the President's investigation of a complaint the President is satisfied that the complaint, or part of the complaint, has been settled or resolved by agreement between the parties, the President may terminate the complaint, or part of the complaint.
- (2) If the President terminates a complaint, or part of a complaint, under this section, the complainant has no right under section 93A to require the President to refer the complaint, or part of the complaint, to the Tribunal.

92B Withdrawal of complaint

- (1) A person who has made a complaint, other than a representative complaint, may at any time, by notice in writing lodged with the President, withdraw the complaint.
- (2) If the President receives a notice under subsection (1) signed by or on behalf of the complainant or, if more than one, all the complainants, the President is to terminate the complaint.
- (3) If the President receives a notice under subsection (1) signed by or on behalf of some, but not all, of the complainants, the President is to treat the notice as an amendment removing the names of those persons as complainants from the complaint.
- (4) The President is to give notice in writing of any decision by the President under this section to the complainant and respondent and to each person on whose behalf the complaint was made.
- (5) The President is not required to give a respondent notice of the President's decision to terminate a complaint if the President had not given notice to the respondent that the complaint had been made.

92C Abandonment of complaint

- (1) If a complainant has—
- (a) failed to respond to a request for documents or information, or

(b) failed to give notice to the President of an address (or new address) at which he or she may be contacted, the President may serve a notice on the complainant at his or her address last known to the President stating that, if a response is not received within 28 days, the complaint will be taken to be abandoned and the President will terminate the complaint.

(2) If a complaint is taken to have been abandoned under this section, it may be revived if, within 12 months after the end of the 28-day period referred to in subsection (1), the complainant satisfies the President that—

(a) he or she wishes to pursue the complaint, and

(b) the failure relied on for the purpose of subsection (1) did not take place or ought reasonably to be excused, and

(c) no undue prejudice would be caused to the respondent by reviving the complaint.

(1) If a complainant dies before his or her complaint is finally determined, the complaint survives and the legal personal representative of the complainant—

(a) may continue the carriage of the complaint, including any referral, review or appeal, and

(b) the estate of the complainant is entitled to the benefit of any monetary sum ordered to be paid by the respondent in respect of the complaint.

(2) If a respondent dies before any complaint against him or her is finally determined, the complainant may continue to pursue the complaint (including any referral, review or appeal) and any monetary sum ordered to be paid in respect of the complaint is payable from the estate of the respondent.

Subdivision 6 Referral of complaints to Tribunal

93A Referral of complaints to Tribunal at requirement of complainant

(1) If the President has given a complainant a notice under section 87B (4) or 92, the complainant may, within 21 days after the date on which the notice was given, require the President, by notice in writing, to refer the complaint to the Tribunal.

(2) On receipt of a notice under subsection (1) from the complainant, the President is to refer the complaint to the Tribunal.

93B Referral of unresolved complaints to Tribunal after 18 months

(1) If a complaint has not been declined, terminated or otherwise resolved within 18 months after the date on which it was made, a party to the complaint may request the President by notice in writing to refer the complaint to the Tribunal.

- (2) On receipt of the notice, the President must give notice in writing to all the other parties to the complaint of the request.
- (3) If, within 28 days after the President gives notice to all the other parties, no party has objected to referral of the complaint, the President is to refer the complaint to the Tribunal.
- (4) If the complainant objects to the referral of the complaint, the President must not refer the complaint to the Tribunal, but may, if satisfied that there is no reasonable prospect of a conciliated agreement, terminate the complaint.
- (5) If the respondent objects to the referral of the complaint, the President is to refer the complaint to the Tribunal, unless satisfied that there are reasonable prospects of a conciliated agreement.

93C Other referral of complaints to Tribunal

If the President—

- (a) is of the opinion that a complaint cannot be resolved by conciliation, or
- (b) has endeavoured to resolve a complaint by conciliation but has not been successful in his or her endeavours, or
- (c) is of the opinion that the nature of a complaint is such that it should be referred to the Tribunal, or
- (d) is satisfied that all parties wish the complaint to be referred to the Tribunal and that it is appropriate in the circumstances to do so,

Note—

The President may also refer a complaint to the Tribunal under section 90B (5).

94 Severing complaints

If there is more than one complainant or respondent to a complaint, the President may, in dealing with the complaint under section 93B or 93C, if the President thinks fit, treat the complaint as a number of complaints by or against each such complainant or respondent.

94A Form of complaint to be referred to Tribunal

- (1) If a complaint is referred to the Tribunal under this Division, the complaint is to comprise—
 - (a) the original complaint lodged with the President, and

- (b) any amendment made pursuant to section 91C, and
 - (c) any other documents or information obtained or recorded by the President that, in the opinion of the President, help to identify the subject-matter of the complaint or otherwise contain an allegation of a contravention of a provision of this Act or the regulations.
- (2) A complaint that is referred to the Tribunal is to be accompanied by a report relating to any investigation by the President of the complaint.

Subdivision 7 Miscellaneous

94B Calculation of time

- (1) If a notice under this Division is given by post, a period calculated from the day on which the notice is given is, unless evidence sufficient to raise doubt is adduced to the contrary, taken to run from, and includes, the seventh working day after the notice was posted.
- (2) In this section—
- working day means a day that is not—
- (a) a Saturday or Sunday, or
 - (b) a public holiday or a bank holiday in the place to which the notice was addressed.

94C Delegation—officers of President

- (1) The President—
- (a) may designate a specified person or the holder of a specified office for the purposes of this section, and
 - (b) may delegate to such a person or office holder the exercise of such of the President's functions (other than this power of delegation) as may be specified in the delegation.
- (2) A person who is a delegate of the President under this section is a member of staff of the President.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits the application of section 49 of the Interpretation Act 1987.

Division 3 Complaints—the functions of the Tribunal

95 Referral of complaints to Tribunal

- (1) A complaint may be referred to the Tribunal by the President under section 90B, 93A, 93B or 93C.

(2) The Minister may refer any matter to the Tribunal as a complaint.

(3) (Repealed)

95A (Repealed)

96 Leave of Tribunal required for inquiry into certain matters

(1) A complaint that is referred to the Tribunal on the requirement of a complainant under section 93A (1) may not be the subject of proceedings before the Tribunal without the leave of the Tribunal.

(2) An issue that is the subject of proceedings before the Industrial Relations Commission may not be the subject of proceedings relating to a complaint before the Tribunal without the leave of the Tribunal.

(3) Subsection (2) does not affect the operation of section 38 (Procedure of Tribunal generally) of the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 in relation to evidence given before, or findings made by, the Industrial Relations Commission.

(4) (Repealed)

97 (Repealed)

98 Fees or rewards for representing parties

(1), (2) (Repealed)

(3) A person, other than an Australian legal practitioner, is not entitled to demand or receive a fee or reward that is provided for the purpose of representing a party in proceedings before the Tribunal relating to a complaint.

(4) (Repealed)

99 Member of staff assisting Tribunal

(1) The Tribunal may make arrangements with the Board for a member of staff of the Board to appear and assist the Tribunal in proceedings before the Tribunal relating to a complaint.

(2) A member of staff of the Board in assisting the Tribunal in proceedings pursuant to arrangements made under this section is subject to the control and direction of the Tribunal.

100 Single proceeding in relation to several complaints

If the Tribunal is of the opinion that two or more complaints arise out of the same or substantially the same circumstances or subject-matter, it may deal with those complaints in the same proceedings.

101 Determinations with respect to representative complaints

- (1) In proceedings relating to a representative complaint, the Tribunal is to determine, as a preliminary matter, whether the complaint should be dealt with as a representative complaint.
- (2) The Tribunal must not permit a complaint to be dealt with as a representative complaint unless it is satisfied that the complaint is made in good faith as a representative complaint.
- (3) In considering whether a complaint is made in good faith as a representative complaint, the Tribunal is to satisfy itself—
 - (a) that—
 - (i) the complainant is a member of a class of persons whose members have been affected, or may reasonably be likely to be affected, by the conduct of the respondent, and
 - (ii) the complainant has in fact been affected by the conduct of the respondent, and
 - (iii) the class is so numerous that joinder of all its members is impracticable, and
 - (iv) there are questions of law or fact common to all members of the class, and
 - (v) the claims of the complainant are typical of the claims of the class, and
 - (vi) multiple complaints would be likely to produce varying determinations which could have incomparable or inconsistent results for the individual members of the class, and
 - (vii) the respondent has acted on grounds apparently applying to the class as a whole, thereby making relief appropriate for the class as a whole, or
 - (b) that, even though the requirements of paragraph (a) are not satisfied, the justice of the case demands that the matter be dealt with and a remedy provided by means of a representative complaint.
- (4) If the Tribunal is satisfied that a complaint could be dealt with as a representative complaint if the class of persons on whose behalf the complaint was made is increased, reduced or otherwise altered, the Tribunal may amend the complaint so that it can be dealt with as a representative complaint.
- (5) If the Tribunal is satisfied that a complaint has been wrongly made as a representative complaint, the Tribunal may amend the complaint by removing the names of the persons or the class of persons on whose behalf the complaint was made so that it can be dealt with as a complaint other than a representative complaint.

101A, 101B (Repealed)

102 Tribunal may dismiss complaint

The Tribunal may, at any stage in proceedings relating to a complaint, dismiss the whole or any part of the complaint on a ground on which the President may decline the whole or any part of a complaint under section 92 (1) (a) (i) or (ii) or (b).

103 Tribunal may amend complaint

- (1) The Tribunal may, on the application of a party to a complaint or on its own motion, at any stage in proceedings relating to the complaint, amend the complaint.
- (2) A complaint may be amended to include additional complaints and anything else that was not included in the complaint as investigated by the President.
- (3) An amendment may be made subject to such conditions as the Tribunal thinks fit.

104 Proof of exceptions

Where by any provision of this Act or the regulations conduct is excepted from conduct that is unlawful under this Act or the regulations or that is a contravention of this Act or the regulations, the onus of proving the exception in any proceedings before the Tribunal relating to a complaint lies on the respondent.

105 Interim orders

- (1) The Tribunal may, on the application of the President after a complaint is made and before the complaint is declined, terminated or otherwise resolved by the President, or referred to the Tribunal, or on the application of a complainant or respondent at any time, make an interim order—
 - (a) to preserve the status quo between the parties to the complaint, or
 - (b) to preserve the rights of the parties to the complaint, or
 - (c) to return the parties to the complaint to the circumstances they were in before the contravention of this Act or the regulations alleged in the complaint occurred, pending determination of the matter the subject of the complaint.
- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, section 62 of the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 applies to an interim order of the Tribunal in the same way as it applies to a general decision of the Tribunal.

106, 107 (Repealed)

108 Order or other decision of Tribunal

- (1) In proceedings relating to a complaint, the Tribunal may—

- (a) dismiss the complaint in whole or in part, or
 - (b) find the complaint substantiated in whole or in part.
- (2) If the Tribunal finds the complaint substantiated in whole or in part, it may do any one or more of the following—
- (a) except in respect of a matter referred to the Tribunal under section 95 (2), order the respondent to pay the complainant damages not exceeding $100,000 by way of compensation for any loss or damage suffered by reason of the respondent's conduct,
 - (b) make an order enjoining the respondent from continuing or repeating any conduct rendered unlawful by this Act or the regulations,
 - (c) except in respect of a representative complaint or a matter referred to the Tribunal under section 95 (2), order the respondent to perform any reasonable act or course of conduct to redress any loss or damage suffered by the complainant,
 - (d) order the respondent to publish an apology or a retraction (or both) in respect of the matter the subject of the complaint and, as part of the order, give directions concerning the time, form, extent and manner of publication of the apology or retraction (or both),
 - (e) in respect of a vilification complaint, order the respondent to develop and implement a program or policy aimed at eliminating unlawful discrimination,
 - (f) make an order declaring void in whole or in part and either ab initio or from such time as is specified in the order any contract or agreement made in contravention of this Act or the regulations,
 - (g) decline to take any further action in the matter.
- (3) An order of the Tribunal may extend to conduct of the respondent that affects persons other than the complainant or complainants if the Tribunal, having regard to the circumstances of the case, considers that such an extension is appropriate.
- (4) The power of the Tribunal to award damages to a complainant is taken, in the case of a complaint lodged by a representative body, to be a power to award damages to the person or persons on behalf of whom the complaint is made and not to include a power to award damages to the representative body.
- (5) In making an order for damages concerning a complaint made on behalf of a person or persons, the Tribunal may make such order as it thinks fit as to the application of those damages for the benefit of the person or persons.
- (6) If two or more vilification complaints are made in respect of the same public act of the respondent and those complaints are found to be substantiated in whole or in part, the Tribunal must not make an order or orders for damages that would cause the respondent to pay more than $100,000 in the aggregate in respect of that public act.

- (7) If the Tribunal makes an order under subsection (2) (b), (c), (d) or (e), it may also order that, in default of compliance with the order within the time specified by the Tribunal, the respondent is to pay the complainant damages not exceeding $100,000 by way of compensation for failure to comply with the order.

109 Order affecting industrial instrument

If the Tribunal makes an order that affects an industrial instrument within the meaning of the Industrial Relations Act 1996, it must give notice in writing to the Chief Commissioner of the Industrial Relations Commission of the order as soon as practicable after the order is made.

110-111 (Repealed)

111A Compensation to offenders in custody—payment to Victims Support Fund

- (1) In this section—

offender damages means damages ordered by the Tribunal under this Division to be paid to a person—

- (a) by way of compensation for any loss or damage suffered by reason of the conduct of a protected defendant that occurred while the person was an offender in custody, or offender in custody and protected defendant have the same meanings as in Part 2A (Special provisions for offenders in custody) of the Civil Liability Act 2002.
- (b) by way of compensation for failure by a protected defendant to comply with an order of the Tribunal made in connection with a complaint about any such conduct.

- (2) A protected defendant who is liable to pay offender damages to a person must not pay the damages to the person and instead must pay the amount of the damages into the Victims Support Fund established under the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013 to be expended as money forming part of that Fund.
- (3) Payment of an amount of damages into the Victims Support Fund by a protected defendant pursuant to this section discharges the protected defendant's liability to pay the damages to the person to whom the damages were ordered to be paid.
- (4) This section extends to any interest that accrues on an amount of damages and a reference in this section to damages includes interest on damages.
- (5) This section does not apply to any costs payable pursuant to an order of the Tribunal.
- (6) This section does not apply to any offender damages that are excluded by the regulations from the operation of this section.

112 Interest on damages

- (1) Interest accrues on an amount of damages ordered to be paid by the Tribunal from the date on which the order takes effect until payment.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the Tribunal may order that interest accrues on an amount of damages ordered to be paid by it from a date that is earlier than the date on which its order is made.
- (3) Interest referred to in this section accrues at the same rate as that applicable to a judgment of the District Court.

113 Enforcement of orders by the President

If the President believes it is in the public interest to do so, the President may—

- (a) in the case of an individual complaint, take steps to enforce an order of the Tribunal on behalf of the complainant, with the complainant's consent, or
- (b) in the case of a representative complaint, take steps to enforce an order of the Tribunal, on the President's own motion.

114 Enforcement of non-monetary orders

- (1) This section applies to an order, or part of an order, of the Tribunal other than an order, or part of an order, for the recovery of an amount ordered to be paid by the Tribunal or a civil or other penalty ordered to be paid by the Tribunal.
- (2) For the purpose of enforcing an order, or part of an order, to which this section applies, a registrar of the Tribunal may certify the making of the order, or part, and its terms.
- (3) A certificate of a registrar of the Tribunal under this section that is filed in the registry of the Supreme Court operates as a judgment of that Court.
- (4) Nothing in this section limits or otherwise affects section 78 of the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013.

115 (Repealed)

116 Relationship between this Division and NCAT legislation

This Division applies in addition to the provisions of the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997 and the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 but prevails over those provisions to the extent of any inconsistency.

117-118 (Repealed)

Division 4 The functions of the Board

119 General functions of the Board

- (1) For the purpose of eliminating discrimination and promoting equality and equal treatment of all human beings, the Board may, by resolution, determine to—
- (a) carry out investigations, research and inquiries relating to discrimination and in particular discrimination against a person or persons on the ground of—
 - (i) age,
 - (ii) a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of a particular age,
 - (iii) a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of a particular age,
 - (iv) religious or political conviction,
 - (v) a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of a particular religious or political conviction,
 - (vi) a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of a particular religious or political conviction,
 - (vii) mental disability,
 - (viii) a characteristic that appertains to persons having a mental disability or any particular mental disability,
 - (ix) a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons having a mental disability or any particular mental disability,
 - (x)–(xii) (Repealed)
 - (xiii) membership or non-membership of an industrial organisation, or
 - (xiv) a characteristic that appertains generally to membership or non-membership of an industrial organisation or a characteristic that is generally imputed to members or non-members of an industrial organisation,
 - (a1) without limiting paragraph (a), carry out investigations, research and inquiries relating to discrimination or racial vilification on the referral of a matter to the Board by Multicultural NSW,
 - (b) acquire and disseminate knowledge on all matters relating to the elimination of discrimination and the achievement of equal rights,
 - (c) arrange and co-ordinate consultations, discussions, seminars and conferences,
 - (d) review, from time to time, the laws of the State,

- (e) consult with governmental, business, industrial and community groups and organisations in order to ascertain means of improving services and conditions affecting minority groups and other groups which are the subject of discrimination and inequality,
- (f) hold public inquiries,
- (g) develop human rights programmes and policies, and
- (h) liaise or collaborate with academics and other persons engaged in carrying out investigations, research or inquiries relating to discrimination when it considers it appropriate to do so and, for those purposes, to facilitate disclosure to those persons of information obtained under this Act.

Note—

Sections 17 and 18 of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 impose limits on the disclosure of personal information by the Board in exercising this function.

- (2) The Board may, for the purposes of the exercise of any of its functions under this section, enter into an agreement with any person that provides for payment to the Board for any services or materials it supplies.

120 Reference of certain matters to the Board by the Minister

- (1) The Minister may refer to the Board for report any matter relating to—

- (a) a law or a proposed law, or
- (b) a practice, an alleged practice or a proposed practice of any person or class of persons, which conflicts with or may give rise to conflict with this Act or the regulations.

- (2) The Board shall conduct an examination into any matter referred to it by the Minister under subsection (1) and report to the Minister its findings and conclusions.

120A Codes of practice

- (1) The Board may develop and promote codes of practice.
- (2) The Board may consult with a representative body and persons operating in an industry or other area of conduct to which this Act applies for the purpose of developing a code of practice.
- (3) A code of practice is to provide guidance to persons in a specified area of conduct as to—
 - (a) the kinds of activity that may involve or constitute a contravention of this Act, and
 - (b) means of limiting, avoiding or restricting the width of any such activity or

(c) any other matter that the Board considers necessary or convenient in the exercise of its functions under section 119.

(4) A code of practice is not legally binding on any person, but evidence of compliance with or contravention of a code may be considered by the President and the Tribunal in the exercise of functions under this Act, the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997 or the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013.

(5) To avoid doubt, a code of practice does not have the effect—

(a) of rendering lawful any conduct that contravenes this Act, or

(b) of rendering unlawful any conduct not otherwise unlawful.

121 Review of legislation etc

The Board shall, as soon as possible after the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2), undertake a review of—

(a) the legislation of the State,

(b) governmental policies and practices, and

(c) the policies and practices of all superannuation funds and pension schemes whether governmental or otherwise, with a view to identifying circumstances where discrimination on a ground referred to in this Act occurs, in substance or effect, against any person or class of persons and shall furnish a report of its findings to the Minister within 12 months after that date.

121A Execution of functions of the Board

Resolutions of the Board relating to—

(a) matters referred to in section 119, and

(b) the conduct of an examination under section 120 (2), shall be implemented by the President.

122 Annual report

(1) The Board shall, on or before 31 October each year, prepare and present to the Minister a report on—

(a) the administration of this Act and the regulations during the period of 12 months ending on the preceding thirtieth day of June, and

(b) the research undertaken by the Board during that period and any recommendations that the Board considers appropriate for the elimination or modification of legislative provisions that discriminate on a ground referred to in this Act against any person or class of persons.

- (1A) The report shall include an account by the President of the administration of Division 2 during that period of 12 months.
- (2) The Minister shall lay the report, or cause it to be laid, before both Houses of Parliament as soon as practicable after its receipt by the Minister.
- (3) If a House of Parliament is not sitting when the Minister seeks to lay the report before it, the Minister is to cause a copy of the report to be presented to the Clerk of that House of Parliament.
- (4) A report presented under subsection (3)—
- (a) is, on presentation and for all purposes, taken to have been laid before the House, and
 - (b) may be printed by authority of the Clerk of the House, and
 - (c) if so printed, is taken to be a document published by or under the authority of the House, and
 - (d) is to be recorded—
 - (i) in the case of the Legislative Council—in the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Legislative Council, and
 - (ii) in the case of the Legislative Assembly—in the Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly,on the first sitting day of the House after receipt of the copy of the report by the Clerk.

Part 9A

122A-122S (Repealed)

Part 9B Inter-governmental arrangements

 - (c) a decision to grant an exemption (whether or not subject to conditions),
 - (d) a decision to vary or revoke an order granting an exemption.
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (9), a person is an affected person in relation to an exemption decision if—
- (a) the person applied for the decision or for the grant or renewal of the exemption to which the decision relates, or
 - (b) the person is otherwise directly affected by the decision.
- (11) Section 53 (Internal reviews) of the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997 does not apply to any exemption decision.

126A Exemption for special needs programs and activities

- (1) Nothing in Parts 3–4C renders unlawful anything done by a person in good faith for the purposes of or in the course of any program or activity for which certification is in force under this section as a special needs program or activity.
- (2) The Minister may certify a program or activity to be a special needs program or activity if satisfied that its purpose or primary purpose is the promotion of access, for members of a group of persons affected by any form of unlawful discrimination to which this Act applies in an area of discrimination to which this Act applies, to facilities, services or opportunities to meet their special needs or the promotion of equal or improved access for them to facilities, services and opportunities.
- (3) (Repealed)
- (4) Certification for a program or activity remains in force for the period specified in the certification or (if no period is specified) until the certification is withdrawn.
- (5) Certification may be withdrawn by the Minister at any time by giving notice in writing to the person who appears to the Minister to be the person who is in charge of the program or who has responsibility for the activity concerned.
- (6) A person who is in charge of a program or activity may apply to the Tribunal for an administrative review under the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997 of a decision of the Minister under this section concerning the certification of the program or activity.

127 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) Before making a recommendation to the Governor for the making of any regulation, the Minister shall take into consideration any recommendation of the Tribunal or the Board with respect to the subject-matter of the proposed regulation.
- (3) A regulation shall, unless disallowed by either House of Parliament, take effect upon—
 - (a) the expiration of a period of 14 sitting days after the day or the later day written notice of its making is, pursuant to section 40 of the Interpretation Act 1987, laid before either such House, or
 - (b) a date specified in the regulation which is later than the period determined under paragraph (a).
- (4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Governor may make regulations for or with respect to—

- (a) the forms to be used for the purposes of this Act or the regulations,
- (b) the fees to be paid in respect of the lodging of any complaint under Part 9,
- (c) the manner of serving any notice or other document,
- (d) making complaints, amending complaints, dealing with complaints, declining complaints and terminating complaints,

(e) exempting—

- (i) any person or class of persons,
- (ii) any activity or class of activity, or
- (iii) any other matter or circumstance, specified in the regulations from this Act or such parts of this Act as may be so specified.

- (5) The regulations may impose a penalty not exceeding 5 penalty units for an offence arising under the regulations.
- (6) Regulations may be made so as to apply differently according to such factors as may be specified in the regulations.

128 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 1 has effect.

Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 128)

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may include provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts—

Anti-Discrimination (Amendment) Act 1994

Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Carers' Responsibilities) Act 2000

Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2004

Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005

Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Offender Compensation) Act 2007

Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Breastfeeding) Act 2007

Administrative Decisions Tribunal Amendment Act 2008 (to the extent that it amends this Act)

any other Act that amends this Act

- (2) A provision referred to in subclause (1) may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or from a later date.
- (3) To the extent that a provision referred to in subclause (1) takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate—
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of the person existing before the date of publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of publication.

1A References to Tribunal before establishment of NCAT

A reference to the Tribunal in a provision of this Schedule that was inserted before the establishment day (within the meaning of the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013) is a reference to the former Administrative Decisions Tribunal.

Part 2 Anti-Discrimination (Amendment) Act 1994

2 Definition

In this Part—

the amending Act means the Anti-Discrimination (Amendment) Act 1994.

3 Operation of amendments

Except as otherwise provided by this Part—

- (a) an amendment made by the amending Act does not apply to or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of the amendment, and
- (b) this Act continues to apply to anything done or omitted before the commencement of such an amendment as if the amendment had not been made.

4 Complaints by representative bodies

The amendments made by the amending Act to sections 87 and 88 extend to apply in respect of an Act done before the commencement of the amendments.

5 Complaints not pursued

Section 90A (as inserted by the amending Act) and the amendments made by the amending Act to section 111 extend to complaints lodged before the commencement of that section and those amendments.

6 Joinder of parties

The amendments made by the amending Act to section 98 extend to notice of joinder given by the Tribunal before the commencement of the amendments.

7 Industrial awards and agreements

The amendments made by the amending Act to section 54 do not apply in respect of any order, award or agreement in force immediately before the commencement of those amendments until the first anniversary of the commencement of those amendments.

8 Superannuation

The amendments made by the amending Act to sections 36 and 49 (Superannuation), and section 49Q (Superannuation) as inserted by the amending Act, are not limited in their operation to superannuation or provident funds or schemes begun after the commencement of those amendments or that section and extend to apply in respect of such a fund or scheme begun before that commencement.

Part 3 Anti-Discrimination Amendment Act 1997

9 Definition

In this Part—

the amending Act means the Anti-Discrimination Amendment Act 1997.

10 (Repealed)

11 Complaints relating to sexual harassment

The insertion of Part 2A by the amending Act does not affect any complaint lodged before the commencement of Schedule 1 [10] to the amending Act.

12 Exemptions under sections 126 and 126A

- (1) The amendment made to section 126 by the amending Act extends to an exemption in force immediately before the commencement of Schedule 1 [43] to the amending Act.
- (2) The amendments made to section 126A by the amending Act do not affect the validity of any exemption in force immediately before the commencement of Schedule 1 [44] and [45] to the amending Act.

Part 4 Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Carers' Responsibilities) Act 2000

13 Operation of amendment

- (1) Part 4B does not apply to or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of Schedule 1 [1] to the amending Act.
- (2) This Act continues to apply to anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of Schedule 1 [1] to the amending Act as if Part 4B had not been enacted. In particular, the insertion of Part 4B by the amending Act does not affect any complaint lodged on a ground of unlawful discrimination before the commencement of Schedule 1 [1] to the amending Act.
- (3) In this clause—

the amending Act means the Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Carers' Responsibilities) Act 2000.

Part 5 Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2004

14 Operation of amendments

- (1) An amendment made to this Act by the Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2004 (including a provision inserted by such an amendment) extends to anything commenced to be done but not completed before the commencement of the amendment, except as provided by clauses 15 and 16.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), that subclause applies to a complaint made but not finalised before the commencement of such an amendment.

15 Order or other decision of the Tribunal

Section 113, as in force immediately before its repeal by the Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2004, continues to apply to proceedings before the Tribunal relating to a complaint that were not finally determined by the Tribunal before the repeal of that section.

16 Interest on damages

Section 112, as inserted by the Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2004, does not apply to an order of the Tribunal made in respect of proceedings before the Tribunal relating to a complaint that were commenced but not finally determined by the Tribunal before the commencement of that section.

Part 6 Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Offender Compensation) Act

17 Operation of amendment

- (1) Section 111A (Compensation to offenders in custody—payment to Victims Compensation Fund) as inserted by the Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Offender Compensation) Act 2007 extends to—
 - (a) an order for the payment of damages made in proceedings before the Tribunal commenced before the commencement of that section but does not extend to such an order made before 29 May 2007, and
 - (b) an order for the payment of damages made before the commencement of that section (but on or after 29 May 2007) unless the damages concerned have been paid pursuant to the order before the commencement of that section.

Note—

29 May 2007 is the date on which notice of motion was given in Parliament for the introduction of the Bill for the above amending Act.

- (2) If an amount that is the subject of an order referred to in subclause (1) (b) is paid into the Victims Compensation Fund on or after 29 May 2007 (but before the commencement of section 111A), being a payment that would be required to be made by section 111A had that section been in force at the time of the payment—
 - (a) the payment is validated, and
 - (b) section 111A applies in respect of the payment as if that section had been in force when the payment was made.
- (3) A regulation made pursuant to section 111A (6) can be expressed to extend to an order for the payment of damages made before the commencement of the regulation.

Part 7 Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Breastfeeding) Act 2007

18 Operation of amendments

An amendment made by the Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Breastfeeding) Act 2007 does not apply to or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of the amendment.

Part 8 Administrative Decisions Tribunal Amendment Act 2008

19 Definition

In this Part—

amending Act means the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Amendment Act 2008.

20 Legal representation

Section 98, as in force immediately before its amendment by the amending Act, continues to apply to any proceedings in the Tribunal that were commenced before the commencement of that amendment.

21 Dismissal of proceedings

Section 107, as in force immediately before its repeal by the amending Act, continues to apply in relation to any proceedings in the Tribunal that were commenced before the repeal of that section.

22 Increase in maximum damages amount for section 108

- (1) The amendment made to section 108 by the amending Act does not apply to or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of the amendment.
- (2) Accordingly, section 108 as in force immediately before its amendment by the amending Act continues to apply to or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of the amendment.

23 Costs

Section 110, as substituted by the amending Act, extends to proceedings in the Tribunal that were commenced, but not finally determined, before that substitution.

24 Existing exemptions under section 126

- (1) An exemption that is in force under section 126 immediately before the substitution of that section by the amending Act (a continued exemption) is taken to be an exemption granted under section 126 as substituted.
- (2) A continued exemption ceases to be in force when the period for its duration specified in the order granting the exemption expires, unless it is sooner revoked.
- (3) A continued exemption may be renewed, varied or revoked by the President under section 126 (as substituted by the amending Act).
- (4) Nothing in this clause authorises or permits any person to apply to the Tribunal for the review of any decision of the Minister or the Board made in relation to a continued exemption before the substitution of section 126.
