- (3) An application for an internal review must be in writing and state fully the grounds of the application.
- (4) An internal review is to be done by making a new decision, as if the decision being reviewed (the original decision) had not been made, with the new decision being made as if it were being made when the application for support to which the review relates was originally received.

- (5) Within 42 days after the application for the internal review is lodged (or such other period as the Commissioner and the applicant agree on), the Commissioner must notify the applicant in writing of—

- (3) On the payment to a person of approved victims support, the person's right to commence or maintain civil proceedings against any other person in respect of the same facts as those on which the approval is based is, by operation of this section, subrogated to the State to the extent of the amount of support so paid.

 - (a) the financial means of the defendant, and
 - (b) such other matters as are, in the opinion of the Tribunal, relevant to the determination.
- (2), (3) (Repealed)
- (4) If the Tribunal decides under subsection (1) to reduce the amount payable by a defendant under an order made against 2 or more defendants, the Tribunal may confirm the order subject to the liability of the defendant concerned being limited under the order to an amount specified in the order.

70 Amount payable

- (1) The maximum amount that may be ordered to be paid under an order for restitution (whether made against one or more defendants) is the amount that has been paid to the victim under an approval for the giving of financial support or making of a recognition payment to which the order relates.
- (2) If an order for restitution is made against 2 or more defendants in respect of the same approval for the giving of financial support or making of a recognition payment, each of the defendants is jointly and severally liable under the order.

70A Effect of confirmation of order and due date for payment

- (1) If an order for restitution is confirmed by the Commissioner or the Tribunal, the amount payable under the order by the person or persons against whom the order is made is a debt payable to the Commissioner.
- (2) The due date for the amount is the due date for payment specified in a debt notice served on the person.

70B Debt notice to be served

- (1) The Commissioner may, by notice served on a person against whom a confirmed order has been made (a debt notice), require the person to pay the amount payable by the person under the order.

 - (b) additional enforcement costs may become payable under that Act if that enforcement action is taken.

71 Orders for restitution to be subject to administrative review of relevant approvals of victims support

- (1) A confirmed order does not have any effect—
 - (a) until the period within which an application may be made to the Tribunal for an administrative review of the decision to approve the making of a recognition payment from which it arises, or to which it relates, has expired, or
 - (b) if such an application is duly made within that period, until the application is finally determined.
- (2) If the approval of the making of a recognition payment to which such an application relates is set aside or varied as a result of the an administrative review, the order for restitution ceases to have effect.
- (3) In the event that the decision is varied, a new order for restitution may be made in accordance with this Division as if the original order had not been made.

- (4) If the Commissioner refers an order for restitution to the Fines Commissioner for the making of a court fine enforcement order under the Fines Act 1996, the Commissioner must advise the Fines Commissioner—

Note—

Under the Fines Act 1996, a restitution amount is taken to be a fine and is to be referred to the Fines Commissioner for enforcement under that Act if it is not paid by the due date or if the person required to pay the restitution amount seeks a time to pay order in respect of the amount.

- (2) If the Commissioner confirms an order for restitution following an objection by the defendant, the Commissioner is not to refer the matter to the Fines Commissioner for the making of a court fine enforcement order under the Fines Act 1996—
 - (a) before the period in which an application may be made to the Tribunal by the defendant for an administrative review of the decision to make the order has expired, or
 - (b) if the defendant has applied to the Tribunal for an administrative review of the decision to make the order, until the application is finally determined.
- (3) If a matter is referred to the Fines Commissioner for the making of a court fine enforcement order, the Commissioner must provide the Fines Commissioner with any information about the order for restitution that the Fines Commissioner reasonably requires to monitor the status of the order.

73 Joint and several liability

- (1) If 2 or more persons are jointly and severally liable for the payment of an amount payable under a confirmed order—
 - (a) a debt notice may be served on any of those persons, and
 - (b) in each case, the matter may be referred to the Fines Commissioner for the making of a court fine enforcement order under the Fines Act 1996 against the person on whom the debt notice was served.
- (2) Accordingly, more than one referral, and more than one court fine enforcement order, may be made in respect of the amount payable.

- (3) The total amount that may be recovered under the order (excluding enforcement costs) is not to exceed the total amount payable under the order for restitution.

- (1) This section applies to civil proceedings in respect of an injury or loss sustained by a person to whom an approval for the giving of victims support has been given under Part 4 (being an approval in respect of which an order for restitution has been made) on the basis of the same facts as those on which the civil proceedings are based.
- (2) An order for restitution does not affect a person's right to commence or maintain civil proceedings, and damages in the civil proceedings must be assessed without regard to the order.
- (3) However, the right of the State, under section 55, to commence or maintain civil proceedings is extinguished by a confirmed order.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not revive the right of any other person to commence or maintain civil proceedings to the extent to which that right was previously subrogated to the State under section 55.
- (5) This section does not limit the operation of section 55 or 102.

75 Access to information about whereabouts of defendant

81 Nature of restraining order

A restraining order is an order of the Supreme Court directing that any property of the defendant, or under the effective control of the defendant, is not to be disposed of, or otherwise dealt with, by the defendant or by any other person, except in such manner and in such circumstances (if any) as are specified in the order.

person liable to a forfeiture or penalty, or

(b) the answer would disclose information that is the subject of legal professional privilege.

(6) A statement or disclosure made by the person in answer to a question put in the course of an examination under this section, and any information, document or thing obtained as a direct or indirect consequence of the statement or disclosure, is not admissible against the person in any civil or criminal proceedings, except proceedings—

- (1) If, after a restraining order is made in reliance on the charging of a person with an offence—
- (a) the charge is withdrawn and the person is not charged with a related offence by the time of the withdrawal—the restraining order ceases to be in force when the charge is withdrawn, or an appropriate officer may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that the disposition of or dealing with the property be set aside.

- (2) Order setting aside disposition or dealing If an application is made under this section and the Supreme Court is satisfied as to the matters set out in subsection (1), the Court may make an order—

The object of this Part is to give effect to an alternative scheme under which a court may order the person it finds guilty of a crime to pay compensation to any victim of the crime.

92 Definitions

- (b) for loss—means a direction for compensation under section 97.

Division 2 Compensation for injury

93 Definition

In this Division—

aggrieved person, in relation to an offence—

- (a) other than an offence in respect of the death of a person—means a person who has sustained injury through or by reason of—
 - (i) an offence for which the offender has been convicted, or

 - (a) aggrieved person, or
 - (b) aggrieved persons in such proportions as may be specified in the direction, by way of compensation for any injury sustained through, or by reason of, the offence or any other offence taken into account (under Division 3 of Part 3 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999) when sentence was passed on the offender for that offence.
- (2) A direction for compensation may be given by a court on its own initiative or on application made to it by or on behalf of an aggrieved person.

95 Restrictions on court's power to give directions for compensation for injury

- (1) A direction for compensation under this Division must not be given in respect of the conviction of a person for an offence if the aggregate of the sum specified in the direction and of all sums specified in a direction for compensation previously given under this Division—
 - (a) on the conviction of any other person for that offence, or
 - (b) on the conviction of that or any other person for a related offence, exceeds $50,000.

- (2) A direction for compensation under this Division for which financial support is payable under Part 4 must not be given if an approval for the giving of such financial support in respect of the injury has been made under that Part to or for the benefit of the aggrieved person.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, an offence is related to another offence if—
 - (a) both of the offences were committed against the same person, and
 - (b) in the opinion of the court, both of the offences were committed at approximately the same time or were, for any other reason, related to each other.

However, an offence is not related to any earlier offence in respect of which a direction for compensation has been given if it is committed after the direction was given.

- (4) In this section, a reference to a direction for compensation previously given under this Division includes a reference to a direction for compensation previously given under the following—
 - (a) Part 6 of the Victims Compensation Act 1987,
 - (b) Part 2 of the Victims Support and Rehabilitation Act 1996,

Division 3 Compensation for loss

96 Definitions

In this Division—

aggrieved person, in relation to an offence, means a person who has sustained loss through or by reason of—

- (a) an offence for which the offender has been convicted, or
- (b) a further offence that a court has taken into account under Division 3 of Part 3 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in imposing a penalty for an offence for which the offender has been convicted.

(a) aggrieved person, or

(b) aggrieved persons in such proportions as may be specified in the direction, by way of compensation for any loss sustained through, or by reason of, the offence or, if applicable, any further offence that the court has taken into account under Division 3 of Part 3 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in imposing a penalty for an offence for which the offender has been convicted.

(2) A direction for compensation may be given by a court on its own initiative or on an application made to it by or on behalf of the aggrieved person.

98 Restrictions on court's power to give directions for compensation for loss

A court may not give a direction for compensation—

- (a) for economic loss for which financial support is payable under this Act or compensation is payable under Division 2, or
- (b) for an amount in excess of the maximum amount that, in its civil jurisdiction, the court is empowered to award in proceedings for the recovery of a debt.

Division 4 General

99 Factors to be taken into consideration

In determining whether or not to give a direction for compensation and in determining the sum to be paid under such a direction, the court must have regard to the following—

- (a) any behaviour (including past criminal activity), attitude or disposition of the aggrieved person which directly or indirectly contributed to the injury or loss sustained by the aggrieved person,
- (b) any amount which has been paid to the aggrieved person or which the aggrieved person is entitled to be paid by way of damages awarded in civil proceedings in respect of substantially the same facts as those on which the offender was convicted,
- (c) such other matters as it considers relevant.

100 Payment of sum directed

Subject to section 9 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1912 and to the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986, any sum directed to be paid by an offender to an aggrieved person, under a direction for compensation, must be paid immediately, or within such period (if any) as is specified in the direction, to the registrar of the court for payment to the aggrieved person.

101 Enforcement of directions for compensation

- (1) If a court gives a direction for compensation and the whole or any part of the amount specified in the direction is not paid in accordance with the direction, the registrar of the court must, on the application of the aggrieved person, issue to the aggrieved person a certificate that—
 - (a) identifies the direction, and
 - (b) specifies the name and address of the offender, and
 - (c) specifies the amount required by the direction to be paid which has not, as at the date of the certificate, been paid to the registrar.
- (2) The registrar must not subsequently accept any payment from the offender in respect of the direction for compensation identified in a certificate issued under this section.
- (3) An aggrieved person may file such a certificate in the registry of a court having jurisdiction to order payment of the amount specified in the certificate, and the registrar of that court must immediately enter judgment in favour of the aggrieved person against the offender specified in the certificate for—
 - (a) the amount specified in the certificate as having not been paid, and
 - (b) any fees payable to the registrar in respect of the filing of the certificate.
- (4) A direction for compensation may only be enforced in accordance with this section and any amount not paid is not payable from the Fund or any other public money.

102 Effect of directions for compensation on subsequent civil proceedings

- (1) This section applies to civil proceedings commenced or maintained in respect of an injury or loss sustained by a person in respect of whom a direction for compensation has been given on the basis of the same facts as those on which the civil proceedings are based.
- (2) A direction for compensation does not affect a person's right to commence or maintain civil proceedings, and damages in the civil proceedings must be assessed without regard to the direction.
- (3) The judgment of the court in which the civil proceedings are determined—
 - (a) must not be entered in respect of so much of the amount of damages assessed by the court as is equivalent to the sum of the amounts that have been paid under the direction for compensation, and
 - (b) must not be enforced, except with the leave of the court, in respect of so much of the amount of damages assessed by the court as is equivalent to the sum of the amounts that have not been paid under the direction for compensation.

(4) This section does not limit the operation of section 55 or 74.

103 Directions for compensation not appealable on certain grounds

An appeal does not lie against a direction for compensation merely because, in civil proceedings arising from substantially the same facts as those on which the offender was convicted, the aggrieved person is awarded a lesser amount in damages than the amount of compensation required to be paid by the direction.

Part 7 Victims support levies

104 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to impose a levy on persons found guilty of crimes for the purpose of funding the Scheme.

105 Application of Part

 - (a) the Supreme Court, or
 - (b) the District Court, or
 - (c) the Drug Court, or
 - (d) the Local Court, or
 - (e) the Land and Environment Court, or
 - (f) (Repealed)
 - (g) the Children’s Court, or
 - (h) any other court prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) This Part does not apply to offences relating to the following—
 - (a) engaging in offensive conduct,
 - (b) the use of offensive language,
 - (c) travelling on public transport without paying the fare or without a ticket,
 - (d) the parking or standing of a vehicle.
- (3) This Part does not apply to an offence merely because it is taken into account (as referred to in Division 3 of Part 3 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999) on the sentence of a person in respect of some other offence, whether or not that other offence is an offence to which this Part applies.

- (4) In this Part, conviction does not include an order made under section 10 (1) (a) of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in relation to an offence that is not punishable by imprisonment (whether or not it is also punishable by some other penalty).

106 Imposition of victims support levy

- (1) A person who is convicted of an offence to which this Part applies is, by virtue of the conviction, liable to pay to the State a levy of—
- (a) $156, if the person is convicted on indictment or pursuant to a committal under section 97 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986, or
- (b) $69, if the person is convicted otherwise than as referred to in paragraph (a).
- (2) Such a levy is in addition to, and does not form part of, any pecuniary penalty or order for payment of compensation imposed in respect of the same offence.
- (3) A person who is under the age of 18 years is not liable to pay such a levy if the court by which the person is convicted directs, whether when it convicts the person or at any time afterwards, that the person is exempt from liability to pay the levy.
- (4) Any money paid to the State in respect of an offence to which this Part applies is to be applied towards the discharge of such a levy before it is applied to the discharge of any pecuniary penalty or order for payment of compensation imposed in respect of the same offence.

107 CPI adjustments of victims support levy

- (1) Starting at the end of the 2012–2013 financial year, each of the amounts of the levy payable under section 106 (1) is to be adjusted as provided by this section at the end of each financial year (the current financial year) to provide a new amount for the next financial year. The new amount applies for the next financial year and replaces the amount that applied for the current financial year.
- (2) The new amount for a financial year is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula—

$$A = \frac{L \times B}{C}$$

where—

A is the new amount being calculated.

L is the amount of the levy for the current financial year.

B is the Sydney CPI number for March in the current financial year.

C is the Sydney CPI number for March in the financial year before the current financial year.

- (3) Before the end of each financial year (starting with the 2012–2013 financial year), the Minister is to publish a notice on the NSW legislation website of the amounts that are to apply for the purposes of section 106 for the next financial year. Failure to publish the notice or late publication of the notice does not affect the validity of an adjustment under this section.

Editorial note—

For the latest notice under this subsection, see the Victims Rights and Support \(Victims Support Levy\) Notice 2021.

- (4) If the amount calculated pursuant to an adjustment under this section as the new amount for a financial year is not a whole number of dollars, the amount is to be rounded up to the nearest whole dollar.
- (5) If an adjustment under this section would result in the new amount for the next financial year being less than the amount for the current financial year, the new amount for the next financial year is to be the same as the amount for the current financial year.
- (6) The new amount for a financial year is to be adjusted in accordance with the regulations if the Australian Statistician—
- (a) stops issuing Sydney CPI numbers, or
 - (b) fails to issue a relevant Sydney CPI number before the start of the financial year for which the new amount is required to be calculated.
- (7) It is to be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that any amounts specified in a notice published under this section for a particular financial year are correct.
- (8) In this section—

financial year means a year starting on 1 July.

Sydney CPI number means the Consumer Price Index (All Groups Index) for Sydney issued by the Australian Statistician.

108 Effect of appeal proceedings

- (1) The commencement of any proceedings by way of appeal against, or review of, a conviction or sentence in respect of which a victims support levy has been imposed on a person under section 106 stays the liability of the person to pay the levy.
- (2) The setting aside of any such conviction annuls that liability.

- (3) The dismissal of any such proceedings removes the stay of liability.
