Child Protection (Working with Children) Regulation 2013

New South Wales

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Child Protection (Working with Children) Regulation 2013.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 15 June 2013 and is required to be published on the NSW legislation website.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Regulation—close relative of a person means—

- (a) a spouse or de facto partner of the person, or
- (b) a child, step-child, sibling, step-sibling, parent, step-parent, grandparent, step-grandparent, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew of the person, and includes, in the case of an Aboriginal person or a Torres Strait Islander, persons who are part of the extended family or kin of the person according to the indigenous kinship system of the person's culture.

home-stay means residence with another family for a period for the purposes of a cultural or educational program.

parent of a child means the person having, in relation to the child, all the duties, powers, responsibilities and authority which, by law, parents have in relation to their children.

school cleaner—see clause 16A.

Service NSW service centre includes a place designated by the Chief Executive Officer of Service NSW to—

- (a) receive payment of the application fee for a clearance, or
- (b) confirm proof of identity in relation to an application for a clearance.

the Act means the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012.

working with children register means the register established under section 25 of the Act.

Note—

The Act and the Interpretation Act 1987 contain definitions and other provisions that affect the interpretation and application of this Regulation.

- (2) In this Regulation, a service is provided on a commercial basis if the service is provided on a fee for service basis, whether or not the fee concerned is imposed or funding for the service is obtained by a grant or other means.
- (3) Notes included in this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

Part 2 Child-related work

4 Child development and family welfare services

- (1) Work in mentoring and counselling services for children is child-related work, if the mentoring and counselling services are provided to children as part of a formal mentoring program provided by a government or non-government agency.
- (2) Work in providing family welfare services is child-related work, if clients to whom the services are provided ordinarily include children.

5 Child protection

Work in child protection services provided by a government or non-government agency is child-related work.

6 Children's health services

- (1) Work as a health practitioner providing health services in wards of hospitals where children are treated is child-related work.
- (2) Other work as a health practitioner providing child health services is child-related work.
- (3) Work by persons (other than health practitioners) who provide health and care services in paediatric or adolescent health services is child-related work.
- (3A) For the purposes of section 6(3A) of the Act, any direct contact that a worker has with a child or children when engaged in work referred to in subclause (1), (2) or (3) is taken to be a usual part of and more than incidental to the work.

Note—

A worker who is found to be engaged in child-related work may still be exempt from the requirement to obtain a working with children check clearance if the worker is exempted by a provision of Part 4 of this Regulation.

(4) Work as a student in the course of a student clinical placement in a hospital or other health service is not child-related work.

(5) In this clause—

health practitioner means—

(a) a registered health practitioner within the meaning of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW), and

(b) any other individual who provides a health service.

health service includes the following—

(a) medical, hospital and nursing and midwifery services,

(b) dental services,

(c) mental health services,

(d) pharmaceutical services,

(e) ambulance services,

(f) community health services,

(g) health education services,

(h) welfare services necessary to implement any services referred to in paragraphs (a)–(g),

(i) services provided in connection with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health practices and medical radiation practices,

(j) Chinese medicine, chiropractic, occupational therapy, optometry, physiotherapy, podiatry and psychology services,

(k) optical dispensing, dietician, massage therapy, naturopathy, acupuncture, speech therapy, audiology and audiometry services,

(l) services provided in other alternative health care fields.

hospital means—

(a) a private health facility licensed under the Private Health Facilities Act 2007, or

(b) a declared mental health facility or private mental health facility within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 2007, or

(c) a public hospital within the meaning of the Health Services Act 1997.

7 Clubs or other bodies providing services for children

- (1) Work for a club, association, movement, society or other body of a cultural, recreational, sporting or community service nature that involves providing programs or services primarily for children is child-related work.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), work as a coach or as a team manager, or an assistant coach or assistant team manager, for a sport or activity for children is child-related work.
- (3) However, the work is not child-related work if the work is work as a referee, umpire, linesperson or otherwise as a sporting official or a groundsperson, and the work does not ordinarily involve contact with children for extended periods without other adults being present.

8 Disability services

- (1) Work in providing respite care or other support services primarily for children with a disability is child-related work.
- (2) However, the work is not child-related work if the work does not ordinarily involve contact with children for extended periods without other adults being present.

9 Early education and child care

- (1) Work in education and care services, child care centres, nanny services and other child minding services provided on a commercial basis is child-related work.
- (2) Work in providing baby sitting services is child-related work, unless the services are provided under a private arrangement (whether or not a fee is payable).
- (3) Work as an au pair is child-related work, if the work involves the provision of child care.

10 Education

- (1) Work in schools or other educational institutions (other than universities) is child-related work.
- (2) Work providing private coaching or tuition to children is child-related work.

11 Entertainment for children

- (1) Work at sporting, cultural or other entertainment venues where services, activities or entertainment is provided on a commercial basis primarily for children is child-related work.

- (2) Work that involves providing entertainment services primarily for children on a commercial basis is child-related work.
- (3) However, providing food or equipment at or for a sporting, cultural or other entertainment venue or providing a venue is not child-related work.

12 Justice centres

- (1) Work at detention centres and juvenile correctional centres is child-related work.
- (2) Work as a supervisor or case manager of children on community justice placements, for a government or non-government body, is child-related work.
- (3) Work for a residential parent and child program provided by a government or non-government agency involving inmates or detainees, and their children, at a correctional centre, juvenile correctional centre or detention centre or other place is child-related work.
- (4) Expressions used in this clause have the same meaning as they have in the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987 and the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

13 Religious services

Work for a religious organisation where children form part of the congregation or organisation is child-related work, if the work is carried out—

- (a) as a minister, priest, rabbi, mufti or other like religious leader or spiritual officer of the organisation, or
- (b) in any other role in the organisation involving activities primarily related to children, including youth groups, youth camps, teaching children and child care.

14 Residential services

- (1) Work at the following services is child-related work—
 - (a) refuges used regularly by children,
 - (b) boarding houses or places providing other residential services for children,
 - (c) overnight camps for children.
- (2) Work in providing home-stays of 3 weeks or more for children is child-related work.

15 Transport services for children

Work in providing transport services especially for children on a government funded or commercial basis, including school bus services and taxi services for children with a disability and supervision of school road crossings, is child-related work.

16 Youth workers

Work as a youth worker, for a government or non-government agency, is child-related work.

16A School cleaners

For the purposes of section 6(3) of the Act, the role of a cleaner providing cleaning services at a school (a school cleaner) is prescribed as a child-related role.

16B Membership of governing body of certain agencies

For the purposes of section 6(3) of the Act, the role of each member of the governing body of any of the following is prescribed as a child-related role—

- (a) a designated agency,
- (b) a registered agency,
- (c) an accredited adoption service provider (within the meaning of the Adoption Act 2000).

16C Principal officer of registered agency

- (1) For the purposes of section 6(3) of the Act, the role of the principal officer of a registered agency is prescribed as a child-related role.
- (2) In this clause, the principal officer of a registered agency means the person who has the overall supervision of the agency's arrangements for providing voluntary out-of-home care.

16D Counselling, mentoring or distance education not involving direct contact

For the purposes of section 6(3) of the Act, the role of a worker providing ongoing counselling, mentoring or distance education for children using any form of communication that does not primarily involve direct contact is prescribed as a child-related role.

16E Declaration of relevant licence

For the purposes of the definition of relevant licence in section 9AA(8) of the Act, an accreditation by the NSW Education Standards Authority is declared to be a relevant licence.

Part 3 Clearances

17 Application fees

- (1) The application fee for a clearance is as follows—
 - (a) for a volunteer clearance—nil,
 - (b) for any other clearance—$80.
- (2) The application fee is to be paid at a Service NSW service centre.
- (2A) Despite subclause (2), an applicant invited to provide proof of identity through an online system under clause 18(2) may pay the application fee by an online method of payment.
- (3) The following persons are exempt from the requirement to pay an application fee for a clearance—
 - (a) authorised carers referred to in section 137(1)(b) or (c) of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 or an adult person referred to in section 10(1) of the Act,
 - (b) a person undertaking practical training as part of an educational or vocational course,
 - (c) potential adoptive parents.

18 Proof of identity

- (1) An applicant for a clearance is to provide proof of the applicant's identity at a Service NSW service centre in accordance with the requirements set out in the application form approved by the Children's Guardian.
- (2) An applicant for a clearance who is the holder of a clearance may, at the written invitation of the Children's Guardian, provide proof of the applicant's identity through an online system.
- (3) The following applicants may provide proof of identity in the manner approved by the Children's Guardian—
 - (a) an authorised carer, or a person who resides at the home of an authorised carer or at a home where a family day care service is provided, who is not physically capable of attending a Service NSW service centre for that purpose, if a certificate by a medical practitioner to that effect is provided to the Children's Guardian,
 - (b) an authorised carer who resides in another State or a Territory, and any person who resides at the home of that authorised carer,

(b1) a member of the governing body of an agency or service provider, referred to in clause 16B, who resides in another State or a Territory.

(c) (Repealed)

(4) (Repealed)

18A Alternative payment and identity documents

(1) This clause applies if an applicant for a clearance is unable to comply with the identification requirements in the application form.

(2) Despite clauses 17 and 18—

(a) the application fee is to be paid to the Office of the Children’s Guardian, and

(b) the applicant for the clearance is to provide proof of the applicant’s identity to the Office of the Children’s Guardian in the manner approved by the Children’s Guardian.

19 Information to be provided to applicant for or holder of clearance

The Children’s Guardian must provide, by notice in writing—

(a) an application number to each applicant who applies for a clearance, and

(b) a clearance number to each applicant who is granted a clearance.

19A COVID-19 pandemic—repeal of special provisions

The Act, section 54 is repealed at the beginning of 26 March 2022.

Part 4 Exemption of workers and employers from Act

20 Exemption from Act for specified workers and employers

(1) The following workers engaged in child-related work (and employers of those workers in that capacity) are exempt from the Act (other than section 7 of the Act)—

(a) a worker (other than a school cleaner) who provides administrative, clerical or maintenance services, or other ancillary services, if the work does not ordinarily involve contact with children for extended periods,

(b) a worker who works for a period of not more than a total of 5 working days in a calendar year, if the work involves minimal direct contact with children or is supervised when children are present,

(c) a worker who carries out the work in the course of an informal domestic arrangement that is not carried out on a professional or commercial basis,

- (d) a worker whose work involves direct contact only with children who are close relatives of the worker, other than a worker who carries out the work in the capacity of an authorised carer,
- (e) a parent, or close relative, of a child who attends a school, an education and care service or other educational institution when volunteering at or for activities of the school, service or institution,
- (f) a parent, or close relative, of a child when volunteering in connection with a team, program or other activity of which the child is a member or in which the child usually participates,
- (g) a worker who is under the age of 18 years,
- (h) a police officer or a member of the Australian Federal Police when working in his or her capacity as a police officer,
- (i) a worker who is a health practitioner in private practice, if the provision of services by the practitioner in the course of that practice does not ordinarily involve treatment of children without one or more other adults present,
- (j) a worker who is a co-worker of a child or who is a work supervisor or work placement supervisor of a child (other than as referred to in clause 12(2)),
- (k) a home care worker who holds a police certificate that is current for the purposes of the Accountability Principles 1998 made under the Aged Care Act 1997 of the Commonwealth, if the work is home care work and the clients are not primarily children,
- (l) a health practitioner who is working in and visiting New South Wales from outside the State, if the period of work does not exceed a total of 5 days in any period of 3 months,
- (m) a worker who is working in and visiting New South Wales from outside the State for the purposes of a one-off event such as a jamboree, sporting or religious event or tour, if the event is the only child-related work carried out by the worker in New South Wales in that calendar year and the period of the work does not exceed 30 days,
- (n) a worker who is working in and visiting New South Wales from outside the State for the purposes of child-related work (other than a worker referred to in paragraph (l) or (m)), if the worker is the holder of an interstate working with children check in the jurisdiction in which the person ordinarily resides, or is exempt from the requirement to have such a check in that jurisdiction, and the period of the child-related work in New South Wales does not exceed a total of 30 days in any calendar year,

- (o) a visiting speaker, adjudicator, performer, assessor or other similar visitor at a school or other place where child-related work is carried out if the work of the person at that place is for a one-off occasion and is carried out in the presence of one or more other adults.
- (2) Subclause (1)(e) and (f) do not apply to a parent or close relative, if the volunteering involves any of the following—
 - (a) providing personal care services to children with disabilities, being services that involve intimate contact with those children, such as assistance with toileting, bathing or dressing,
 - (b) providing mentoring services as part of a formal mentoring program provided by a government or non-government agency,
 - (c) attending at an overnight camp for children.
- (3) In this clause—

holder of an interstate working with children check means a person who has undergone interstate child-related work screening under a law of another jurisdiction in which the person ordinarily resides and who is permitted by that law to carry out child-related work.

interstate child-related work screening has the same meaning as in section 34 of the Act.

21 Short-term emergency exemption

A worker engaged in child-related work and any adult person who resides at the home of the worker, and the employer of the worker, are exempt from the Act if—

- (a) the employer is of the opinion that the engagement of that worker is necessary in the circumstances of the case to prevent an increased risk to the safety of children, and
- (b) the worker has been engaged for a period of not more than 5 consecutive working days without complying with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act.

22 Exemption for certain household members where out-of-home care not provided

An adult person who resides at the home of an authorised carer who provides out-of-home care (within the meaning of the Children and Young Persons \(Care and Protection\) Act 1998) is exempt from the requirements of section 10 of the Act if the authorised carer only provides that care at a place other than the home.

22A Exemption for birth parents resident in households of authorised carers

An adult person who resides at the home of an authorised carer is exempt from the requirements of section 10 of the Act if the person is the birth parent of a child for whom care is provided by the authorised carer at that home.

22B Exemption for authorised carers and adult residents who reside overseas

- (1) An authorised carer who resides outside Australia, and any adult person who resides at the home of that authorised carer, are exempt from the Act.
- (2) This exemption ceases to apply to an authorised carer or adult person during any period that the authorised carer or person remains in Australia for more than 7 consecutive days.

22C 48 hour exemption if adult resident no longer has clearance or current application

- (1) This clause applies to an adult person who resides at the home of an authorised carer if the adult person—
 - (a) has a working with children check clearance which is cancelled, or
 - (b) has an application for a clearance that is refused.
- (2) An adult person or a designated agency does not commit an offence against section 10 of the Act because of a cancellation or refusal referred to in subclause (1) unless the person or agency has been notified of the cancellation or refusal and more than 48 hours have passed since that notification.

22D Exemption if adult resident residing with carer whose authorisation suspended

Section 10 of the Act does not apply to a person residing at the home of an authorised carer if the carer's authorisation is suspended.

22E Exemption from notification by reporting bodies of certain historic matters

- (1) A reporting body within the meaning of section 35 of the Act is exempt from the requirement under that section to notify the Children's Guardian in respect of a finding made by the reporting body before 3 July 1995.
- (2) This clause does not apply in respect of a finding made by a reporting body if the Children's Guardian gives a written direction to the reporting body that this clause does not apply to the finding.
- (3) A direction of the Children's Guardian may specify a particular finding or may specify findings of a particular class (such as findings against a specified person or findings during a specified period).
- (4) Nothing in this clause prevents a reporting body from notifying the Children's Guardian under section 35 of the Act about a finding in respect of which an exemption under this clause applies.
- (5) This clause ceases to have effect on 29 October 2016.

Part 5 General

23 Information that may be made available

- (1) The following information about a person contained in the working with children register may be made available by the Children's Guardian to an employer or proposed employer of the person on a request by the employer or proposed employer—
 - (a) the application number of any application for a clearance made by the person,
 - (b) the current clearance status of an applicant or holder,
 - (c) the number, class and expiry date of any clearance held by a person.
- (2) The Children's Guardian must not make the information available unless the request is made in the form approved by the Children's Guardian and contains the particulars required by the Children's Guardian.
- (3) The following information about an employer held in a database maintained by the Children's Guardian may be made publicly available by the Children's Guardian—
 - (a) the trading name or registered business name, if any, of the employer,
 - (b) the child-related work for which the employer engages a child-related worker,
 - (c) the postcode or name of the place in which the business of the employer is located,
 - (d) whether any requests for information about clearance status were made to the Children's Guardian by the employer within a specified period.

24 Notifications by reporting bodies

- (1) A notification by a reporting body under section 35 of the Act must be made in the form approved by the Children's Guardian and submitted to the Children's Guardian online via the website of the Children's Guardian.
- (2) The reporting body must, on the written request of the Children's Guardian, provide the Children's Guardian with copies of records of allegations, investigations and findings concerning the subject of the notification.
- (3) Records of allegations, investigations and findings concerning the subject of any such notification must be kept by the reporting body or any successor of that body for not less than 30 years, unless the records are given to the Children's Guardian.
- (4) If a reporting body or any successor to a reporting body ceases to exist and there is no successor to that body, the body or successor must ensure that the records are lodged with the Children's Guardian before the body or successor ceases to exist.

- (5) A reporting body may amend or withdraw a notification, in writing to the Children's Guardian, if—
 - (a) the finding the subject of the notification is quashed, withdrawn or amended, or
 - (b) there is an error in the notification or a finding the subject of the notification, or
 - (c) the notification is otherwise wrongly made, or
 - (d) the person the subject of the notification dies.
- (6) An amendment or withdrawal of a notification on the basis of an error must be accompanied by a statutory declaration by or on behalf of the reporting body specifying the error and any correction of that error.
- (7) A reporting body must, as soon as practicable after making a notification or amending or withdrawing a notification, give written notice to the child-related worker who is the subject of the notification, amendment or withdrawal.
- (8) A reporting body must not, without reasonable excuse, contravene this clause.
Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

25 Additional reporting body

For the purposes of paragraph (e) of the definition of reporting body in section 35(4) of the Act, the Scout Association of Australia, New South Wales Branch is prescribed.

26 Reviews and appeals

A person whose application for a working with children check clearance has been refused wholly or partly on the grounds that the person has been charged with an offence (other than an offence specified in Schedule 2 to the Act) is exempt from the operation of section 26(b) of the Act.

27 Authorised disclosure of information

For the purposes of the Act, section 45(3), the following agencies are prescribed—

- (a) the Department of Customer Service,
- (b) the Ministry of Health,
- (c) the Department of Education.

Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions children’s health services—hospitals and public health services work specified in clause 6 of this Regulation in hospitals and public health services provided by the Ambulance Service of New South Wales.

(8) If this clause specifies a date by which a person must comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act in respect of specified work, the Children’s Guardian is not required to deal with an application for a working with children check clearance for that work until the beginning of the period of 12 months preceding that date.

(9) This clause has effect despite any provision of Part 2 of Schedule 3 to the Act.

(9A) This clause does not apply to a person who—

- (a) is a disqualified person, or
- (b) has been subject to an interim bar, or
- (c) has had an application for a working with children check clearance refused, or
- (d) has had a working with children check clearance cancelled.

(10) In this clause—

authorised carer means an authorised carer referred to in section 137(1)(b) or (c) of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998.

2A School cleaners employed after commencement of Part 2 of the Act and before 31 March 2014

(1) On and from 31 March 2014, workers engaged as school cleaners by an employer after the commencement of Part 2 of the Act are required to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act.

(2) Until 31 March 2014, a worker referred to in subclause (1) is not required to obtain or have a clearance in respect of that work and section 9 of the Act does not apply in respect of an employer of any such person.

(3) This clause has effect despite any provision of Part 2 of Schedule 3 to the Act.

2B Membership of governing body of certain agencies

(1) On and from 31 March 2015, a person who is a member of a governing body that is specified to be a child-related role by clause 16B of this Regulation is required to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act.

- (2) Until 31 March 2015, a person referred to in subclause (1) is not required to obtain or have a clearance in respect of that role and section 9 of the Act does not apply in respect of an employer of any such person.

2C Principal officer of registered agency

- (1) On and from 31 March 2015, a person in the role of principal officer of a registered agency within the meaning of clause 16C of this Regulation is required to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act.
- (2) Until 31 March 2015, a person referred to in subclause (1) is not required to obtain or have a clearance in respect of that role and section 9 of the Act does not apply in respect of an employer of any such person.

2D Counselling, mentoring or distance education not involving direct contact

A person who is a worker providing ongoing counselling, mentoring or distance education for children that is specified to be a child-related role by clause 16D of this Regulation is required to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act.

3 Existing check applications

- (1) This clause applies to a person who, immediately before the repeal of the former provisions, was a preferred applicant who was the subject of a request to the Commission for background checking, if the checking was requested more than 7 days before that repeal and was not completed before that repeal.
- (2) The former provisions continue to apply in respect of the person's employment by the employer who sought the background checking and, for that purpose, the person is taken to be an existing child-related worker.
- (3) The Children's Guardian may at any time determine that this clause is not to apply to a person if the Children's Guardian is of the opinion that the provisions of Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act should apply to the person.

4 Application of Act to potential adoptive parents

Section 11 of the Act does not apply in respect of a person referred to in subsection (1) of that section unless the person made an application referred to in that subsection on or after 1 July 2013.

5 Early application of Act

- (1) The Children's Guardian may, by notice in writing to a person to whom clause 2-2D applies or an employer, require the person or a specified class of such persons engaged by the employer to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act.

- (2) An employer who is given a notice under this clause must, by notice in writing, inform any person who belongs to the specified class of persons of the requirement to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act within the period specified by the Children's Guardian in the notice to the employer.
- (3) A person who is given a notice under this clause, and any employer of that person—
 - (a) ceases to be subject to clause 2-2D of this Schedule, and
 - (b) is required to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act within the period specified in the notice.

5A Early application of Act—certain self-employed persons

- (1) The Children's Guardian may, by notice in writing to a person to whom clause 4 of Schedule 3 to the Act applies, require the person to comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act by a specified day.
- (2) Clause 4 of Schedule 3 to the Act ceases to apply to the person on and from the specified day and the person must instead comply with Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act after the specified day.

6 Existing Tribunal proceedings

- (1) This clause applies to an application made to the Commission or a relevant Tribunal by a prohibited person under section 33H(1) or 33I(1) of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998 that was made, but not finally determined, before the commencement of this Regulation.
- (2) The Children's Guardian or relevant tribunal may continue to hear an application to which this clause applies in accordance with the provisions of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998 and any declaration made by the Children's Guardian or tribunal is taken to be an existing declaration for the purposes of clause 6 of Schedule 3 to the Act.

Note—

Part 7 of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998 was repealed by the Act. The Children's Guardian will, instead of the Commission, hear applications that were made, but not finally determined, before the repeal of that Part in accordance with the repealed provisions.

7 Existing employees and residents

- (1) This clause applies instead of clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the Act.
- (2) An existing child-related worker is not required to obtain or have a working with children check clearance while the worker continues in the employment of an existing employer.

- (3) For the purposes of this clause—
- (a) a person in the Public Service is taken to have ceased to be employed by an existing employer if the person becomes a member of staff of a Government Department or agency that has a different ABN by way of an employee-initiated transfer, and
 - (b) a person employed in the NSW Health Service is taken to have ceased to be employed by an existing employer if the person ceases to be employed in the NSW Health Service.
- (4) An existing resident who resides at the home of an authorised carer is not required to obtain or have a clearance until the authorised carer is required to obtain or have a clearance.
- (5) An existing resident who resides at a home where a home based education and care service or family day care service is provided is not required to obtain or have a clearance until—
- (a) the person who provides the education and care service or family day care service at that home is required to obtain or have a clearance, or
 - (b) 31 March 2014,
- whichever occurs first.
- (6) This clause does not apply to an existing child-related worker or an existing resident who—
- (a) is a disqualified person, or
 - (b) has been subject to an interim bar, or
 - (c) has had an application for a working with children check clearance refused, or
 - (d) has had a working with children check clearance cancelled.
- (7) This clause does not apply to a person in respect of work carried out by the person as a self-employed person.

7A Self-employed persons

Clause 4 of Schedule 3 to the Act does not apply to a person who—

- (a) has been subject to an interim bar, or
- (b) has had an application for a working with children check clearance refused, or
- (c) has had a working with children check clearance cancelled.

Note—

Clause 4 of Schedule 3 to the Act also does not apply to a disqualified person.

8 Application of change to disqualifying offences

- (1) The amendments made by the Child Protection (Working with Children) Amendment (Miscellaneous) Regulation 2013 to Schedule 2 to the Act do not apply to or in respect of an application for a clearance made by a person before the commencement of that Regulation or to any subsequent application for a further clearance by that person.
- (2) The amendment made by the Child Protection (Working with Children) Amendment Regulation 2014 to Schedule 2 to the Act does not apply to or in respect of an application for a clearance made by a person before the commencement of that Regulation or to any subsequent application for a further clearance by that person.

Schedule 2 Penalty notice offences

For the purposes of section 50A of the Act—

- (a) each offence specified in Column 1 of this Schedule is an offence for which a penalty notice may be issued, and
- (b) the amount payable under any such penalty notice is the amount specified for the offence in Column 2 of this Schedule (in respect of a corporation) or in Column 3 of this Schedule (in respect of an individual).

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3
Offence	Penalty—corporation	Penalty—individual
Offences under the Act
Section 9A(6)	$1,000	$500
Section 9AA(6)	$1,000	$500
