Administrative Arrangements (58th Parliament) Order 2023

New South Wales

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of order

This order is the Administrative Arrangements (58th Parliament) Order 2023.

2 Commencement

This order commences on 5 April 2023.

3 Definitions

In this order—

document means an Act or statutory or other instrument, or any contract or agreement.

reference to a Minister, Public Service agency or Public Service employee includes a reference that by or under any Act is to be read, construed or treated as a reference to that Minister, agency or employee.

Note—

The Constitution Act 1902, Part 7 and the Interpretation Act 1987 also contain definitions and other provisions that affect the interpretation and application of this order.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on making of Administrative Arrangements (Minns Ministry—Administration of Acts) Order 2023

4 Repeal of Administrative Arrangements (Interim Ministerial Changes) Order 2023

The Administrative Arrangements (Interim Ministerial Changes) Order 2023 is repealed.

Note—

The Administrative Arrangements (Interim Ministerial Changes) Order 2023 commenced on 28 March 2023.

It is replaced by this order and the Administrative Arrangements (Minns Ministry—Administration of Acts) Order 2023.

Before its repeal it provided that, that in any document, a reference to any Minister of a specified description, other than the Premier or the Deputy Premier, was to be construed as a reference to any of the following Ministers—

- (a) Premier,
- (b) Deputy Premier,
- (c) Minister for Education and Early Learning,
- (d) Minister for the Environment,
- (e) Minister for Heritage,
- (f) Special Minister of State,
- (g) Minister for Roads,
- (h) Minister for the Arts,
- (i) Minister for Night-time Economy and Music,
- (j) Treasurer,
- (k) Minister for the Gig Economy,
- (l) Minister for Health and Regional Health,
- (m) Minister for Mental Health,
- (n) Minister for the Illawarra and South Coast,
- (o) Minister for Transport,
- (p) Attorney General.

5 Construction of references to interim Ministers

(1) A reference in a document, made or entered into during the interim period, to an interim Minister is, if used in or in relation to an Act referred to in the Administrative Arrangements \(Minns Ministry—Administration of Acts\) Order 2023, to be read as a reference to the Minister to whom the administration of the Act is allocated by that order.

(2) In this section—

interim Minister means a Minister referred to in the Administrative Arrangements \(Interim Ministerial Changes\) Order 2023, section 4(a)–(p).

interim period means the period commencing on 28 March 2023 and ending on the commencement of this section.

6 Construction of references to Ministers

(1) A reference in a document to a Minister specified in the following Table, column 1, or to a Minister in the circumstances specified in column 1, is to read as a reference to the corresponding Minister in the Table, column 2.

- (2) To avoid doubt, references to the Ministers specified in column 1 are references required by the Administrative Arrangements (Interim Ministerial Changes) Order 2023 to be read as a reference to any Minister referred to in that order.
