Schedules 2-5 (Repealed)

Schedule 6 General savings, transitional and other provisions

1 Effect of amendment of amending provisions

(1) An amendment made by this Act to an amending provision is, if the amending provision has commenced before the amendment, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision, whether or not the amending provision has been repealed.

(2) In this section—

amending provision means a provision of an Act or instrument that makes a direct amendment to an Act or instrument by—

- (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument without the insertion of matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or
- (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or
- (c) the insertion into the amended Act or instrument of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act or instrument.

2 Revocation of repeal

The Interpretation Act 1987, section 29A applies to the repeal of Acts or instruments, or provisions of Acts or instruments, by this Act.

3 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the commencement of a provision of this Act.
- (2) A savings or transitional provision consequent on the commencement of a provision must not be made more than 2 years after the commencement.
- (3) A savings or transitional provision made consequent on the commencement of a provision is repealed 2 years after the commencement.
- (4) A savings or transitional provision made consequent on the commencement of a provision may take effect before the commencement but not before the date of assent to this Act.
- (5) A savings or transitional provision taking effect before its publication on the NSW legislation website does not—
 - (a) affect the rights of a person existing before the publication in a way prejudicial to the person, or

(b) impose liabilities on a person for anything done or omitted to be done before the publication.

(6) In this section—

person does not include the State or an authority of the State.
