- (c) an amount or amounts, calculated in such manner as the Board may determine, in respect of the costs of administering the State Authorities Superannuation Scheme, and
- (d) such other charges as may be determined by the Board.

(2) The amount referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of notional accumulation in subclause (1) is the lesser of the following:

- (a) 0.85 of the contributions paid or payable by the transferred contributor under the current Act, and
- (b) in the case of a transferred contributor who is a former holder of a current insurance policy or a former fixed rate Provident Fund contributor—an amount calculated in accordance with the formula set out in subclause (3), or, in the case of a transferred contributor who is a former variable rate Provident Fund contributor—an amount calculated in accordance with the formula set out in subclause (4).

(3) For the purpose of subclause (2) (b), the formula in relation to a transferred contributor who is a former holder of a current insurance policy or a former fixed rate Provident Fund contributor is:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be calculated, and

S represents the salary of the transferred contributor, based on the rate of salary determined under section 26 of the current Act (salary basis for contributions) in respect of the applicable contribution period concerned, and

SR represents the salary ratio of that contributor in respect of that period.

- (4) For the purpose of subclause (2) (b), the formula in relation to a transferred contributor who is a former variable rate Provident Fund contributor is as follows:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be calculated, and

S represents the salary of the transferred contributor, based on the rate of salary determined under section 26 of the current Act in respect of the applicable contribution period concerned, and

SR represents the salary ratio of that contributor in respect of that period.

11 Transferred benefit points accruing to insurance policy holders

- (1) A transferred contributor to whom clause 4 applies is entitled, in respect of each whole month described in subclause (2), to be credited with transferred benefit points equal to one-twelfth of the number of benefit points applying in relation to the transferred contributor for that month in accordance with that subclause.
- (2) For each whole month:
- (a) in which the total sum assured in respect of such a transferred contributor under Part 2 of the earlier Act was a sum assured specified in Column 1 in Schedule 1, and
 - (b) which occurred during a period specified in the heading to Column 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6 in the Schedule, the number of benefit points appearing opposite that sum assured in the Column for that period applies in relation to the transferred contributor.

12 Transferred benefit points accruing to certain Provident Fund contributors

A transferred contributor who is a former fixed rate Provident Fund contributor is entitled to be credited with the number of transferred benefit points which would be calculated in respect of the contributor under clause 11 if:

- (a) the contributor was a person to whom that clause applied, and
- (b) the contributions made to the Provident Fund in respect of the contributor had been paid as premiums under Part 2 of the earlier Act, and
- (c) the period during which those contributions were made was the period which commenced on the contributor's entry date and during which the contributor would have been the holder of a current insurance policy if those premiums had been paid.

13 Transferred benefit points accruing to contributors who have made additional contributions to the Provident Fund

- (1) A transferred contributor who is a former variable rate Provident Fund contributor is, for each month during which the contributor made contributions to the Provident Fund, entitled to be credited with 0.06 of a transferred benefit point for each 1 per cent of his or her salary contributed to that Fund.
- (2) For the purposes of this clause:
 - (a) a transferred contributor referred to in subclause (1) is to be taken to have contributed one-third of the contributions that the contributor actually made to the Provident Fund during the period beginning with the date on which the contributor first became a contributor to that Fund and ending with 30 June 1985, and
 - (b) such a contributor is to be taken to have contributed one-half of the contributions that he or she actually made to the Provident Fund during the period beginning with 1 July 1985 and ending with 30 April 1990, and
 - (c) contributions may to the Provident Fund in respect of a year (or part of a year) are to be taken to have been made at monthly intervals, and
 - (d) the contributor's salary is to be taken to have remained the same throughout a year, or any relevant part of a year, during which the contributor made contributions to the Provident Fund.

14 Minimum benefit for transferred contributors who were formerly holders of current insurance policies or Provident Fund contributors

- (1) The employer-financed benefit is to be not less than the notional accumulation if any of the benefits specified in subclause (2) becomes payable to a transferred contributor who is a former holder of a current insurance policy or a former contributor to the Provident Fund.

age), or

- (c) a benefit under section 39 of that Act (benefit on total and permanent invalidity before early retirement age), or
- (d) a benefit under section 40 of that Act (benefit on partial and permanent invalidity before early retirement age), or
- (e) a benefit under section 41 of that Act (benefit on resignation, dismissal or discharge before early retirement age).

- (3) However, if the employer-financed benefit payable to or in respect of a transferred contributor referred to in subclause (1) would, but for this subclause, be reduced by the operation of clause 15, then that benefit is to be not less than the notional accumulation.

15 Benefit to be adjusted in certain circumstances

- (1) This clause applies to a transferred contributor who is a former holder of a current insurance policy or a former contributor to the Provident Fund and who, in the opinion of the Board, has received, or will receive:
 - (a) in the case of a transferred contributor whose service was terminated, or who died, before 1 July 1993—a gratuity under section 97 of the Local Government Act 1919, or
 - (b) in the case of a transferred contributor whose service is terminated, or who dies, on or after that date—a similar gratuity, being a gratuity paid or to be paid by the council as an act of grace on the death or termination of service of an employee of the council and calculated by reference to the period of the employee's service with the council.
- (2) If the employer-financed benefit payable in respect of a transferred contributor to whom this clause applies is determined without reference to the notional accumulation of that contributor, the Board must:
 - (a) deduct from the employer-financed benefit otherwise payable under the current Act the amount determined in accordance with subclause (3), and
 - (b) pay that amount to the employer who was the employer of the contributor on the contributor's exit date.
- (3) For the purpose of subclause (2), the amount is an amount calculated in accordance with the formula set out in subclause (4), if greater than nought, otherwise the amount is nought.
- (4) The formula referred to in subclause (3) is as follows:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be calculated, and

G represents the amount referred to in subclause (1) as the gratuity payable to or in respect of the transferred contributor, and

E represents the employer-financed benefit that would be payable under the current Act but for this subclause, and

M represents the employer-financed benefit that would have been payable to the transferred contributor concerned if the employer-financed benefit had been based on the maximum benefit points for that contributor.

- (5) An amount payable under subclause (2) is payable from the appropriate reserve.
- (6) If the employer-financed benefit payable is reduced by the operation of subclause (2), the number of accrued benefit points for the transferred contributor is to be taken to have been reduced in proportion to the amount by which the benefit was reduced.
- (7) If the employer-financed benefit payable in respect of a transferred contributor to whom this clause applies is determined by reference to the notional accumulation of that contributor, the Board must pay to the employer who was the employer of the contributor on the contributor's exit date an amount equal to an amount calculated in accordance with the formula set out in subclause (8) but, if the amount calculated is less than nought, no amount is payable.
- (8) The formula referred to in subclause (7) is as follows:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be calculated, and

E represents the employer-financed benefit that would have been payable under the current Act but for this subclause, and

N represents the notional accumulation of the transferred contributor concerned.

- (9) An amount payable to an employer under subclause (2) or (7) is payable from the appropriate reserve.
- (10) If the employer-financed benefit payable is reduced by the operation of subclause (2), the number of accrued benefit points for a transferred contributor to whom this clause applies is to be taken to have been reduced in proportion to the amount by which the benefit was reduced.

16 Debiting of accounts—transferred contributors who were formerly holders of current insurance policies or Provident Fund contributors

Whenever the Board pays a benefit in accordance with clause 14 (minimum benefit for transferred contributors who were formerly holders of current insurance policies or Provident Fund contributors) to a transferred contributor, the Board must debit the appropriate employer reserve with the difference between the amount of the benefit paid and the amount that, but for that clause, would have been paid under the current Act.

Part 4 Special provisions for former Benefits Fund contributors

17 Definition of “notional accumulation” for the purposes of Part 4

(1) In this Part:

notional accumulation, in relation to a transferred contributor who is a former contributor to the Benefits Fund, means an amount equal to the sum of:

- (a) the amounts credited to the appropriate employer reserve, and

- (2) For the purpose of paragraph (b) (i) of the definition of notional accumulation in subclause (1), the formula in relation to a transferred contributor who is a former contributor to the Benefits Fund is as follows:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be calculated, and

S represents the salary of the transferred contributor, based on the rate of salary determined under section 26 of the current Act in respect of the applicable contribution period concerned, and

SR represents the salary ratio of that contributor in respect of that period.

A transferred contributor who is a former contributor to the Benefits Fund is entitled to be credited with 0.21 of a transferred benefit point for each whole month during which he or she was a contributor to that Fund.

19 Minimum benefit for transferred contributors who were formerly Benefits Fund contributors

(1) The employer-financed benefit is to be not less than the notional accumulation:

(a) if:

- (i) a benefit under section 37 of the current Act (benefit at or after early retirement or on death at or after early retirement age), or
- (ii) a benefit under section 40 of that Act (benefit on partial and permanent invalidity before early retirement age), becomes payable to or in respect of a transferred contributor who was formerly a contributor to the Benefits Fund, or

(b) if a transferred contributor who was formerly a contributor to the Benefits Fund is not qualified for the additional benefit and:

- (i) a benefit under section 38 of the current Act (benefit on death before early retirement age), or
- (ii) a benefit under section 39 of that Act (benefit on total and permanent invalidity before early retirement age), becomes payable to or in respect of the contributor.

(2) However, if the employer-financed benefit payable to or in respect of a transferred contributor referred to in subclause (1) would, but for this subclause, be reduced by the operation of clause 21, then that benefit is to be not less than the notional accumulation.

20 Minimum benefit for certain specially qualified transferred contributors who were formerly Benefits Fund contributors

(1) The employer-financed benefit is to be not less than the amount determined under subclause (2), if:

- (a) a benefit under section 38 of the current Act (benefit on death before early becomes payable to or in respect of a transferred contributor who was formerly a contributor to the Benefits Fund and who:

- (c) becomes covered for the additional benefit under section 22 of the current Act, or
- (d) by virtue of clause 4 (6) or 6 (6), is taken to be covered for that additional benefit.

(2) The amount to be determined for the purposes of subclause (1) is the sum of:

- (a) the notional accumulation, and
- (b) the amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be calculated, and

M represents the number under the heading “Multiplier of salary” in Schedule 2 opposite the age specified in years in that Schedule that was the age of the transferred contributor concerned at that contributor’s exit date, and

S represents:

- (b) if that contributor contributed to the SAS Fund at the rate of 2 per cent of his or her salary—four-sevenths of his or her final salary, or
- (c) if that contributor contributed to the SAS Fund at the rate of 3 per cent of his or her salary—six-sevenths of his or her final salary, or
- (d) if that contributor contributed to the SAS Fund at a rate exceeding 3 per cent of his or her salary—his or her final salary.

(3) In subclause (2), a reference to a rate, in relation to a transferred contributor referred to in subclause (1), is a reference to the rate at which the contributor last elected to contribute, or is taken to have last elected to contribute, immediately before the benefit became payable.

21 Benefit to be adjusted in certain circumstances

- (1) This clause applies to a transferred contributor who is a former contributor to the Benefits Fund and who, in the opinion of the Board, has received, or will receive:

 - (b) in the case of a transferred contributor whose service is terminated, or who dies, on or after that date—a similar gratuity, being a gratuity paid or to be paid by the council as an act of grace on the death or termination of service of an employee of the council and calculated by reference to the period of the employee's service with the council.
- (2) If the employer-financed benefit payable in respect of a transferee contributor to whom this clause applies is determined without reference to the notional accumulation of the contributor, the Board must:
 - (a) deduct from the employer-financed benefit otherwise payable under the current Act the amount determined in accordance with subclause (3), and
 - (b) pay that amount to the employer who employed that contributor on the contributor's exit date.
- (3) For the purpose of subclause (2), the amount is an amount calculated in accordance with the formula set out in subclause (4), if greater than nought, otherwise the amount is nought.
- (4) The formula referred to in subclause (3) is as follows:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be calculated, and

G represents the amount referred to in subclause (1) as the gratuity payable to or in respect of the transferred contributor, and

E represents the employer-financed benefit that would be payable but for this clause, and

M represents the employer-financed benefit that would have been payable to or in respect of the transferred contributor concerned if the employer-financed benefit had been based on the maximum benefit points for that contributor.

- (5) If the employer-financed benefit payable in respect of a transferred contributor to whom this clause applies is determined by reference to the notional accumulation of the contributor, the Board must pay to the employer who was the employer of the contributor on the contributor's exit date an amount equal to an amount calculated in accordance with the formula set out in subclause (6) but, if the amount calculated is less than nought, no amount is payable.

(6) The formula referred to in subclause (5) is as follows:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be calculated, and

E represents the employer-financed benefit that would have been payable under the current Act but for this subclause, and

N represents the notional accumulation of the transferred contributor concerned.

(7) An amount payable to an employer under subclause (2) or (5) is payable from the appropriate reserve.

(8) If the employer-financed benefit payable is reduced by the operation of subclause (2), the number of accrued benefit points for a transferred contributor to whom this clause applies is to be taken to have been reduced in proportion to the amount by which the benefit was reduced.

22 Debiting of accounts—transferred contributors who were formerly Benefits Fund contributors

(1) Whenever the Board pays a benefit in accordance with clause 19 (minimum benefit for transferred contributors who were formerly Benefits Fund contributors) to or in respect of a transferred contributor who is a former contributor to the Benefits Fund, the Board must debit the appropriate employer reserve with the difference between the amount of the benefit paid and the amount that, but for that clause, would have been payable to or in respect of the contributor under the current Act.

(2) Whenever the Board pays a benefit in accordance with clause 20 (minimum benefit for certain specially qualified transferred contributors who were formerly Benefits Fund contributors) in respect of a transferred contributor who is a former contributor to the Benefits Fund, the Board must:

(a) debit the Additional Benefit Reserve Fund with the amount of the additional benefit which would have been payable in respect of the contributor if an additional benefit had been paid under the current Act, and

(b) debit the remainder to the appropriate employer reserve.

Part 5 Special provisions for certain former local government scheme contributors employed under industrial awards etc

23 Application of Part 5 and definitions

- (1) This Part applies to an employee within the meaning of the earlier Act who, immediately before the transfer day, was a contributor to the Benefits Fund.
- (2) In this Part:

relevant award or agreement means an award or industrial agreement which was in force under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 immediately before the date on which this Regulation commenced and which is binding on employees to whom this Part applies and their respective employers.

supplementary benefit means the amount (if any) by which the refund to an employer under section 15Y (1) (b) of the earlier Act exceeds the amount of the employer-financed benefit payable under the provisions of the current Act.

24 Supplementary payments to employees to whom Part 5 applies

- (1) If the Board is satisfied that an employee to whom this Part applies is entitled to a benefit payable under a relevant award or agreement, the Board must pay to the employee the lesser of:
 - (a) the amount prescribed by the award or agreement, and
 - (b) the amount of the supplementary benefit.
- (2) The Board must also pay the amount of the supplementary benefit to an employee to whom this Part applies if the employee, having reached 55 but not having reached 58 years of age, has retired from the service of the Sydney County Council before 2 January 1991, or from the service of Sydney Electricity on or after that date, and the Board is satisfied that the employee:
 - (a) was employed by the Sydney County Council on 31 March 1977 and continued until retirement to be employed by that Council and, where appropriate, by Sydney Electricity, and
 - (b) was continuously a contributor to the Benefits Fund from and including 31 March 1977 to the transfer day, and
 - (c) was continuously a contributor to the SAS Fund from and including the transfer day to and including the date of retirement.

24A Additional benefit for certain Sydney Electricity employees

- (1) A further additional benefit, determined in accordance with subclause (3), is payable to or in respect of an employee to whom this Part applies if:

- (a) the employee was employed by Sydney County Council on 31 March 1977 and has since continued to be employed by that Council and its successor, Sydney Electricity, and
- (b) the employee was continuously a contributor to the Benefits Fund from and including 31 March 1977 to the transfer day and has continuously been a contributor to the SAS Fund from and including that day, and
- (c) the employee is covered or (because of clause 6 (6)) is taken to be covered for an additional benefit under the current Act, and
- (d) a relevant benefit becomes payable to or in respect of the employee.

(2) A benefit is a relevant benefit if:

- (a) it is a benefit payable under section 38 (benefit on death before early retirement age) or section 39 (benefit on total and permanent invalidity before early retirement age) of the current Act, or
- (b) it is a benefit payable under section 37 (benefit at or after early retirement or on death at or after early retirement age) of the current Act and the Board is satisfied that a benefit would have been payable under section 38 or 39 of the current Act had the early retirement age been 60 rather than 55 years of age.

(3) A further additional benefit payable under this clause is to be calculated as follows:

$$A = \frac{(0.85 \times S)}{100} \times SR$$

where:

A represents the amount to be determined, and

M represents the number under the heading “Multiplier of salary” in Schedule 2 opposite the age specified in years in that Schedule that was the age of the employee at the employee’s exit date, and

S represents:

- (a) if the employee contributed to the SAS Fund at the rate of 1 per cent of salary—two-sevenths of the employee’s final salary,
- (b) or if the employee contributed to the SAS Fund at the rate of 2 per cent of salary—four-sevenths of that employee’s final salary, or
- (c) if the employee contributed to the SAS Fund at the rate of 3 per cent of salary—six-sevenths of the employee’s final salary, or
- (d) if the employee contributed to the SAS Fund at a rate exceeding 3 per cent of salary—the employee’s final salary, and

AB represents the amount of any additional benefit payable to the employee under Part 5 of the current Act.

- (4) In subclause (3), rate means the rate at which the employee concerned last elected or is taken to have last elected to contribute immediately before the relevant benefit became payable.
- (5) This clause applies to persons who are employees to whom this Part applies, or were such employees at any time on or after the transfer day.

25 Debiting of accounts—payment of supplementary benefits

- (1) Whenever the Board makes a payment in accordance with clause 24, the Board must debit the appropriate employer reserve with the amount of the payment.
- (2) An additional benefit paid under clause 24A is to be regarded as an “additional benefit” for the purposes of the current Act and the Board must:
 - (a) debit one-quarter of the amount of that benefit to the Additional Benefit Reserve Fund, and
 - (b) debit the balance to the appropriate employer reserve.

Part 6 Miscellaneous

26 Early retirement age—female contributors and Sydney County Council employees

- (1) For the purposes of the definition of early retirement age in section 3 (1) of the current Act, the prescribed early retirement age is 55 years:
 - (a) in relation to a female transferred contributor who, immediately before the transfer day, was a contributor to the Benefits Fund, and
 - (b) in relation to a transferred contributor who, immediately before the transfer day, was an employee of the Sydney County Council.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not have effect in relation to a male transferred contributor referred to in paragraph (b) of that subclause unless the contributor has, at the contributor’s exit date, completed 20 years or more service with the Sydney County Council (as advised by the Council) in terms of the industrial award that was applicable to the contributor immediately before the transfer day.
- (3) This clause has effect despite clause 4 of the State Authorities Superannuation Regulation 1988 (early retirement age).

27 Board may “round off” transferred benefit points

The Board may round off the number of a transferred contributor’s accrued transferred benefit points to not less than one decimal place, as it thinks fit.
